The Kings Majeſties moſt Gracious, Free and General Pardon, Indempnity, and Oblivion.

The Cauſes and Ends of this Pardon and Indempnity.

The General Pardon.

The Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty taking into His Gracious and Serious conſideration the long and great Troubles, Diſcords and Wars, that have for many years paſt been in this Kingdom, and that divers of his Subjects are by occaſion thereof, and otherwiſe, faln into and be obnoxious to great pains and penalties: Out of a hearty and pious Deſire to put an end to all Suits and Controverſies, that by occaſion of the late Diſtractions have ariſen or may ariſe between all his Subjects; And to the intent that no Crime whatſoever committed againſt his Majeſty or his Royal Father, ſhall hereafter riſe in Judgment, or be brought in queſtion againſt any of them to the leaſt endamagement of them, either in their Lives, Liberties, Eſtates, or to the prejudice of their Reputations, by any Reproach or Term of Diſtinction; And to bury all ſeeds of future Diſcords and remembrance of the former, as well in his own Breaſt as in the Breaſts of his ſubjects one towards another: And in performance of his Royal and Gracious Word ſignified by his Letters to the ſeveral Houſes of Parliament now aſſembled, and his Declarations in that behalf publiſhed, Is pleaſed that it may be Enacted, And be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, Firſt, That all and all manner of Treaſons, Miſpriſions of Treaſons, Murthers, Felonies, Offences, Crimes, Contempts and Miſdemeanors, Counſelled, Commanded, Acted or done ſince the firſt day of January, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred thirty ſeven, by any perſon or perſons before the twenty fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, other then the perſons hereafter by name excepted, in ſuch manner as they are hereafter excepted, by vertue or colour of any command, power, authority, commiſſion, or Warrant or Inſtructions from his late Majeſty, King Charles, or his Majeſty that now is, or from any other perſon or perſons, deriving or pretending to derive authority, mediately or immediately, from both or either of their Majeſties, or by vertue or colour of any authority derived mediately or immediately of or from both Houſes, or either Houſe of Parliament, or of or from any Convention or Aſſembly, called or reputed, or taking the Name of the Keepers of the Liberty of England, by authority of Parliament, Or by vertue or colour of any Writ, Commiſſion, or Letters Patents, Inſtruction or Inſtructions of or from any perſon or perſons, Tituled, reputed or taken to be Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland, and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, or Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland, and Ireland, and the Dominions and Territories thereto belonging; or aſſuming the authority, or reputed to be chief Magiſtrate of the Commonwealth, or Commander in chief of the Forces or Armies of this Nation, by Sea or Land, or by any pretence, Warrant or Command whatſoever, from them or any of them, or their or either of their reſpective Councils or Council, or any Member of ſuch Council or Councils, or from any perſon or perſons whatſoever, deriving or pretending to derive authority from them, or any of them, be pardoned, releaſed, indempnified, diſcharged and put in utter Oblivion.

And that all and every the perſon and perſons acting, adviſing, aſſiſting, abetting and counſelling the ſame, they, their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, (except as before is excepted) be and are hereby Pardoned, Releaſed, Acquitted, Indempnified and Diſcharged from the ſame: And of and from all pains of Death, and other Pains, Judgments, Indictments, Convictions, Attainders, Outlawries, Penalties, Eſcheats and Forfeitures, therefore had or given, or that might accrew for the ſame: And that all ſuch Judgments, Indictments, Convictions, Attainders, Outlawries, Penalties, Eſcheats and Forfeitures, and every of them, and all Grants thereupon made, and all Eſtates derived under the ſame, be and are hereby Declared and Enacted to be from henceforth null and void: And that all mean profits not yet received by ſuch Grantees, ſhall be, and are hereby diſcharged: And that all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, their and every of their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Succeſſors, ſhall be, and are hereby reſtored to all and every their Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, Goods, Chattels, and other things forfeited, which to his Majeſty do or ſhall appertain by reaſon of any offence herein before mentioned, and not hereafter in this preſent Act Excepted and Forepriſed.

And be it further enacted, That all Appeals, and all perſonal Actions, Suits, Moleſtations and Proſecutions whatſoever, for or by reaſon of any Act of Hoſtility, Treſpaſs, Aſſault, Impriſonment or breach of the Peace, Adviſed, counſelled, commanded, appointed, happened, acted or done by reaſon of the late Troubles, or the late Wars, in his Majeſties Dominions, or relating thereunto, and Judgments and Executions thereupon had before the firſt day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred fifty eight, ſtand and be from henceforth diſcharged; But not to reſtore to any perſon or perſons any ſums of Mony, mean Profits, or Goods already received or taken upon ſuch Execution, or to give any accompt for the ſame.

And be it likewiſe enacted, That all Appeals and all perſonal Actions and cauſes of ſuch Actions, Suits, Moleſtations and Proſecutions whatſoever, for or by reaſon of any act or thing adviſed, counſelled, commanded, acted or done by vertue or colour of any Authority or Commiſſion granted by his late Majeſty, or his Majeſty that now is, or by vertue or colour of any Order or Ordinance of one or both Houſes of Parliament ſitting at Weſtminſter; Or by any Act or Order made by any perſons aſſuming the name of a Parliament, and ſitting as a Parliament at Weſtminſter, after the death of the late King CAHRLES the Firſt; Or by the authority of the ſaid Keepers of the Liberties of England; Or by any Ordinance by either of the late Protectors and Council; Or by or upon any Commiſſion, Writ, Proceſs or Warrant, by them or any of them, or by authority derived from them or any of them: And all demands of Arrearages of Rents, and mean profits of lands, tenements, or hereditaments heretofore incurred or grown due, which have been paid, received or diſpoſed by vertue or colour of any the Authorities or pretended Authorities aforeſaid, other then ſuch Arrearages or mean profits as are or ſhall be otherwiſe diſpoſed by any Act or Acts of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, be from henceforth diſcharged.

All Appeals, perſonal Actions and Suits Pardoned.

And it is further by the authority aforeſaid enacted in the ſecond place, That all and every the Subjects of theſe his Majeſties Realms of England and Ireland, the Dominion of Wales, the Iſles of Jerſey and Garnſey, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and other his Majeſties Dominions, the Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators of them, and every of them, and all and ſingular Bodies in any manner of wiſe corporated, Cities, Burroughs, Shires, Ridings, Hundreds, Lathes, Rapes, Wapentakes, Towns, Villages, Hamlets and Tythings, and every of them, and the ſucceſſor and ſucceſſors of every of them, ſhall be and are by the authority of this preſent Parliament acquitted, pardoned, releaſed, indempnified and diſcharged againſt the Kings Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, and every of them, of and from all manner of Treaſons, Miſpriſions of Treaſon, Felonies, Offences, Contempts, Treſpaſſes, Entries, Wrongs, Deceits, Miſdemeanors, Forfeitures, penalties and ſums of money, Intruſions, Mean profits, Wardſhips, Marriages, Reliefs, Liveries, Ouſter le mains, Mean Rates, Reſpits of Homage, Fines and Seiſures for Alienation without Licenſe, arrearages of rents, (other then the arrearages of rents due from the late Farmers, or pretended Farmers of the Exciſe or Cuſtoms reſpectively, other then ſuch arrearages of rents, or mean profits, as are or ſhall be otherwiſe diſpoſed by any Act or Acts of this preſent Parliament) and of and from all arrearages of Tenths and Firſt-Fruits, Fines, poſt-Fines, Iſſues, and Amerciaments, and all Recognizances, Bonds, or other Securities given for payment of them, or any of them, concealment of Cuſtoms and Exciſe, arrearages of purveyance and of compoſitions for the ſame, and of and from all pains of Death, pains corporal and pecuniary, and generally of and from all other Things, Cauſes, Quarrels, rels, ſuits, judgments and executions, in this preſent Act hereafter not excepted nor forepriʒed, which may be or can be by his Majeſty in any wiſe, or by any means pardoned, before and unto the twenty fourth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, to every or any of his ſaid ſubjects, Bodies corporate, Cities, Boroughs, Shires, Ridings, Hundreds, Lathes, Rapes, Wapentakes, Towns, Villages, and Tythings, or any of them.

Wardſhips and Mean Profits unreceived.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Grants and Patents ſince the twenty fifth of March, One thouſand ſix hundred forty one, touching the Wardſhip and Cuſtody of the Body and Lands, or touching the marriage of any Heir within age, and all mean profits yet unreceived, and demandable by reaſon thereof, ſhall be, and are hereby from henceforth diſcharged.

All things not excepted ſhall be by the general words of this Act as well as it particularly named.

And alſo the Kings Majeſty is contented, That it be further enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this his ſaid Free Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, ſhall be as good and effectual in the Law to every of his ſaid ſubiects, Bodies corporate, and others before rehearſed, in, for, and againſt all things which be not hereafter in this preſent Act excepted and forepriʒed, as the ſame pardon, Indempnity, and Oblivion ſhould have been, if all Offices, Contempt, Forfeitures, Cauſes, Matters, Suits, Quarrels, Judgments Executions, penalties, and all other things, not hereafter in this preſent Act excepted and forepriʒed, had been particularly, ſingularly, eſpecially and plainly named, rehearſed and ſpecified, and alſo pardoned by proper and expreſſe Words and Names, in their Kinds, Natures and Qualities, by Words and Terms thereunto requiſite to have been put in and expreſſed in this preſent Act of Free Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion: And that his ſaid Subjects, nor any of them, nor the Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators of any of them, nor the ſaid Bodies corporate, and others before named aud rehearſed, nor any of them, be, nor ſhall be ſued, vexed or inquieted, by, or on the behalf of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, in their Bodies, Goods, Chattels, Lands or Tenements for any manner of Matter, Cauſe, Contempt, Miſdemeanor, Forfeiture, Treſpaſſe, Offence, or any other thing ſuffered, done or committed, before the ſaid twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, againſt his late Majeſty King Charles, or his Majeſty that now is, his Crown, Dignity, Prerogative, Laws or Statutes, but only for ſuch Matters, Cauſes and Offences, as be Excepted and Forepriʒed by this preſent Act out of the ſame, any ſtatute or ſtatutes, Laws, Cuſtoms or Uſages heretofore had, made or uſed, to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: And that all and every the Kings ſaid ſubjects, and all and ſingular Bodies corporate, and others before rehearſed, may by him or themſelves, or by his or their deputy or deputies, or by his or their Attorney or attorneys, according to the Laws of this Realm, plead and miniſter this preſent Act of Free Pardon, for his or their diſcharge, of or for any thing that is by vertue of this preſent act Pardoned, Diſcharged, Given or Granted, without any Fee, or other thing, paying to any perſon or perſons for writing or entry of the Judgments or other cauſe concerning ſuch plea, writing or entry, but onely ſixteen pence to be paid to the Officer or Clerk that ſhall enter ſuch Plea, Matter or Judgnient for the parties diſcharge in that behalf, any Law, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

This Pardon, &c. to be expounded in all Courts moſt beneficial for the Subject.

And furthermore, the Kings Majeſty is contented and pleaſed, that it be enacted, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this His ſaid Free Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, by the general Words, Clauſes, and Sentences, before rehearſed, ſhall be reputed, deemed, adjudged, expounded, allowed and taken in all manner of Courts of his Highneſs, and elſewhere, beneficial and available to all and ſingular the ſaid Subjects, Bodies corporate, and others before rehearſed, and to every of them, in all things not in this preſent Act excepted or forepriʒed, without any ambiguity, queſtion, or other delay whatſoever it ſhall he, to be made, pleaded, objected, or alledged by the King our Soveraign Lord, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or by His or any of their general Attorney or Attorneys, or by any perſon or perſons for his Highneſs, or any of his heirs or ſucceſſors.

The penalty of any Officer, &c. that ſhall go about to diſquiet or trouble any perſon pardoned by this Act.

And furthermore, be it enacted by the King our Soveraign Lord, and the authority aforeſaid, That if any Officer or Clerk of any of his Highneſs Courts, commonly called the Chancery, Kings-Bench, and Common-pleas, or of his Exchequer, or any other Officer or Clerk of any other of his Highneſſe Courts within this Realm, at any time after the paſſing of this preſent Act, make out, or write out any manner of writs, proceſs, ſummons, or other precepts, whereby any of the ſaid ſubjects, or of the ſaid Bodies corporate, or others before rehearſed, or any of them, ſhall be in any wiſe arreſted, attached, diſtrained, ſummoned, or otherwiſe vexed, inquieted, or grieved, in his or their Bodies, Lands, Tenements, Goods or Chattels, or in any of them, for, or becauſe of any manner of thing pardoned or diſcharged by vertue of this Act of Free Pardon: Or if any Sheriff or Eſcheator, or any of their deputy or deputies, or any Bayliff or other Officer whatſoever, by colour of his or their Office or otherwiſe, after the paſſing of this preſent Act, do levy, receive, take, or withhold of or from any perſon or perſons, any thing pardoned or diſcharged by this act, That then every ſuch perſon ſo offending, and thereof lawfully convicted or condemned by any ſufficient teſtimony, witneſſe or proof, ſhall yield and pay for recompence thereof to the party ſo grieved or offended thereby, his or their treble damages, beſides all coſts of the Suit; and ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe to the Kings Majeſty for every ſuch default, ten pounds: And nevertheleſſe, all and ſingular ſuch writs, proceſs and precepts ſo to be made for, or upon any manner of thing pardoned or diſcharged by this preſent Act of Free Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, ſhall be utterly void and of none effect.

Exceptions out of this Pardon.

and Ordinances, or pretended Acts or Ordinances made by both or either Houſes of Parliament, or any Convention aſſembled under the name of a Parliament, or by Oliver Cromwel late ſtiled Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the Dominions thereto belonging, and his Council, Warranting or Directing ſuch Proceedings had been Good, True and Effectual Acts of Parliament.

Fines Levied without Entry of Licentia concordandi.

And whereas, ſince the death of the late King, ſeveral Fines have been levied, without any Entry, or due Entring of any ſum paid pro licentia concordandi, commonly called the Kings Silver, and without Entry, or due Entry of any ſum given to the party for the Concord: And alſo whereas in the Term of St. Michael laſt paſt, ſeveral Fines were Levied and Recorded in the Court of Common Pleas, before one Judge only of the ſaid Court:

Be it enacted, That the ſaid Fines and Proclamations thereupon, and every of them, ſhall be good and effectual, notwithſtanding the defects aforeſaid.

Fines and Recoveries of Lands in Com. Palatin. Durham.

And be it alſo further enacted, That all Fines, Proclamations of Fines, Recoveries, and other Judicial proceedings in the Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter, ſince the death of His late Majeſty King Charles the Firſt, Had, Levied or Suffered, of any Lands lying in the County Palatine of Durham, ſhall be good and effectual, notwithſtanding the ſaid Lands were lying in the ſaid County Palatine.

The Illegal Acts and Proceedings of that High Court of Juſtice not allowed.

Provided, That this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be Conſtrued, Deemed or Adjudged to make good, allow, confirm or countenance any the Proceedings in the late Illegal and Un-warranted High Courts of Juſtice, or ſo called, or any of them. And whereas ſince the firſt day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty one, and before the Five and twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, there there were divers perſons that Adhered to both Houſes of Parliament, who, for, or in reſpect of ſuch Adherence, were Indicted, Charged or Impeached of Treaſon: And whereas ſince the ſaid firſt Day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty one, and before the ſaid Five and twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, divers perſons who adhered to His Majeſty, or to the late King, were for ſuch their adherence, Charged, Impeached, or Indicted of High Treaſon:

Indictments, &c. and all Grants thereupon made void.

Be it further Provided and Enacted, That the ſaid Charges, Impeachments, Indictments and all Exigents, Outlawries, Convictions and Attainders thereupon, and all Letters Patents and Grants thereupon made, of any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, Eſcheated or Forfeited by reaſon of ſuch Attainder, and all Title to any Meſne Profits by reaſon of ſuch Conviction, Outlawry, Attainder or Grant, be from henceforth repealed and diſcharged: And that all Eſcheats, Forfeitures and Confiſcations by reaſon of ſuch Outlawries, Conviction or Attainder, Be and are hereby reſtored unto ſuch perſons ſo Outlawed, Convicted or Attainted, their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators reſpectively, as if no ſuch Attainder had been.

Sales made by Ordinance of Parliament.

Provided Nevertheleſs, And be it Enacted, That this Act, or any thing herein contained, ſhall not extend to avoid or confirm any Sales or Eſtates made by vertue or pretence of any Act, Order or Ordinance, or reputed Act, Order or Ordinance of Parliament, ſince the firſt day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, nor any Confirmation thereof made, or to be made thereof in this preſent Parliament, but that ſuch Sales ſtand and be in the ſame plight and condition as they ſhould or might have done, if this Act had not been made.

Recognizances, Obligations, &c. in the names of the late Protector.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Recognizances, Obligations or other Securities, made or given to the Keepers of the Liberty of England by authority of Parliament, or to Oliver Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the Dominions thereunto belonging, or to Oliver Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging; Or to Richard Lord Protector of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging, & not pardoned or diſcharged by any Act paſſed or to be paſſed this preſent Parliament, or otherwiſe, other then ſuch Recognizances, Obligations and Securities as have been made and given (to any pretended power or perſons aforeſaid, or to any deriving or pretending to derive authority from them) by any perſon or perſons, for or by reaſon of their adherence to His Majeſty, or His ſaid late Royal Father, or related to, or ariſing only upon or in reſpect of the late Troubles; All which are hereby declared to be void, and to be delivered up to be cancelled, And all Judgments, Extents, Inquiſitions, Executions and Seizures had for the ſaid Keepers or Protectors, or any of them, and not likewiſe pardoned or diſcharged, other then as aforeſaid, ſhall and may be had and proſecuted in the name and to the uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; and alſo excepting all Obligations, Bonds or Recognizances entred into to the ſaid Keepers or Protectors, or any of them, by any perſon or perſons, by Order or Direction of any Council of State, Committee of Safety, Major-Generals, Decimators, or any Officer or other perſon under them, or any other Military Power: all which Obligations, Bonds and Recognizances are hereby diſcharged and declared to be null and void, to all intents and purpoſes.

Juſtices, Serjeants, &c. Commiſſioners of Sewers.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to continue, after the eighth day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, any Juſtice or Juſtices of one Bench or the other, or Barons of the Exchequer, Serjeants at Law, Commiſſions of Sewers, Commiſſions of Bankrupts, or of Charitable Uſes, made or conſtituted, by or in the Name or Stile of any the late pretended Powers or Authorities.

Provided alwayes, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every perſon or perſons, who ſhall find themſelves grieved or damnified by any Judgment, Fine, Recovery, Decree or Sentence given, made, levied, granted or pronounced in any of the ſaid Courts, to proceed in due form of Law, either by Writ of Error, Bill of Review, Appeal, or other lawful remedy, for the reverſing, annulling or revoking of the ſame, in ſuch manner as they might at any time heretofore have done, if the ſaid Courts had been eſtabliſhed by lawful authority, other then for thoſe errors and defects which are remedied or provided for by this Act.

Writs of Error may be brought.

Provided alwayes, And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Non-claim upon or after any Fine or Fines hereby made good or confirmed, ſhall extend or be conſtrued to bar or prejudice any perſon or perſons, their Heirs or Succeſſors, or their Feoffees or Truſtees (other then the parties to the ſaid Fines and their Heirs general and ſpecial, and his and their Truſtees) as concerning ſuch Right, Claim and Intereſt, as they had in or to any lands, tenements, or other hereditaments, which by colour of any Act, Order or Ordinance of both or either Houſes of Parliament, or any Convention ſitting at Weſtminſter, under the Name or Stile, or aſſuming the Name or Stile of a Parliament, ſince the firſt day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred forty and two, and before the five and twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, were ſold, conveyed or diſpoſed, as then, or late the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of the King, Queen, or Prince, or of Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Deans, Deans and Chapters, or other Eccleſiaſtical perſons, or as the lands, tenements, and hereditaments of any other perſons, for their Adherency to the late King, or his Majeſty that now is, or for any their Actings relating to, or in reſpect of the late Troubles; ſo alwaies that the ſaid perſon or perſons aforeſaid, their heirs or ſucceſſors, purſue their Title, Claim or Intereſt, by way of Action, or lawful Entry, within five years next after the Nine and twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty.

Non-claim upon Fines of lands ſold by Ordinance of Parliament.

And although in this Confirmation of Judicial proceedings, it was neceſſary to mention divers pretenſed Acts and Ordinances, by the Names and Stiles which thoſe perſons then Uſurped, who took upon them to paſs the ſame, namely, ſome by the Stile and Name of the Keepers of the Liberty of England by authority of Parliament; and others by the Name and Stile of Protectors of the Commonwealth of England, Scotland and Ireland, and the Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging; Yet this preſent Parliament doth declare, and it is further enacted by authority of the ſame, That the Names and Stiles aforeſaid, and every of them, are moſt Rebellious, Wicked, Trayterous, and Abominable Uſurpations, deteſted by this preſent Parliament, as oppoſite in the higheſt degree to his Sacred Majeſties moſt Juſt and Undoubted Right, to whom, and to his Heirs and Lawful Succeſſors, the Imperial Crowns of the Realms of England, Scotland, and Ireland, with their, and every of their Dominions and Territories do of Right appertain, and as violating and infringing the Juſt Rights and Priviledges of Parliament, and both Houſes thereof now aſſembled, or that hereafter ſhall be called and aſſembled.

The late Government Declared to be uſurped.

Recognition of his Majeſties juſt title.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted, That all and every pretended Indictment or Indictments, Outlawries, Inquiſitions, and all Proceedings thereon of High Treaſon againſt any perſon or perſons whatſoever, for Levying War againſt the late Tyrant Oliver Cromwell, the pretended keepers of the liberty of England, or any other uſurped power, ſhall be from henceforth void and of none effect in Law. And that all grants, conveyances, leaſes, Devices, Aſſurances, ſtatutes, recognizances, and Judgements for debt, damages heretofore had made, or ſuffered by any perſon, or his heirs, whoſe conviction, utlagary, or Attainder is by this Act diſcharged or made void ſhall be of the ſame force and effect, as if no ſuch Conviction, outlawry, or Attainder had been. Stat. 13 Car. 2. cap. 7.

Indictments of Treaſon, &c. for levying wars againſt Oliver Cromwell, &c. made void.

CAP. XIII.

None ſhall take above Six Pounds for the loan of an Hundred Pounds for a Year.

Foraſmuch as the Abatement of Intereſt from Ten in the hundred in former times, hath been found by notable experience Beneficial to the Advancement of Trade, and Improvement of Lands by good Huſbandry, with many other conſiderable advantages to this Nation, eſpecially the reducing of it to a nearer Proportion with Forreign States with whom We Traffique. And whereas in freſh memory the like fall from Eight to Six in the Hundred, by a late conſtant practice hath found the like ſucceſſe to the general contentment of this Nation, as is viſible by ſeveral Improvements. And whereas it is the endeavour of ſome at preſent to reduce it back again in practice to the allowance of the Statute, ſtill in force, to eight in the hundred, to the great diſcouragement of ingenuity and induſtry in the Huſbandry, Trade and Commerce of this Nation.

Abatement of intereſt advantagious to Trade.

Be it for the reaſons aforeſaid, enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, from and after the Twenty Ninth day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, upon any Contract, ſhall from and after the ſaid Twenty ninth of September, take directly or indirectly, for loan of any Moneys, Wares, Merchandiſe, or other Commodities whatſoever, above the value of Six pounds for the forbearance of one hundred pounds for a year, and ſo after that rate for a greater or leſſer ſum, or for a longer or ſhorter time. And that all Bonds, Contracts, and Aſſurances whatſoever, made after the time aforeſaid, for payment of any Principal or money to be lent or covenanted to be performed upon or for any Uſury, whereupon or whereby there ſhall be reſerved or taken above the rate of Six pounds in the Hundred, as aforeſaid, ſhall be utterly void. And that all and every perſon or perſons whatſoever, which ſhall after the time aforeſaid, upon any Contract to be made, after the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September, take, accept and receive, by way or means of any corrupt Bargain, Loan, Exchange, Chebiſaunce, Shift, or Intereſt of any Wares, Merchandiſe, or other thing or things whatſoever, or by any deceitful way or or means, or by any covin, engine, or deceitful conveyance for the forbearing or giving day of payment for one whole year, of and for their money, or other thing, above the ſum of ſix pounds for the forbearing of one hundred pounds for a year, and ſo after that rate for a greater or leſſer ſum, or for a longer or ſhorter term, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch offence the treble value of the moneys, wares, merchandiſe, and other things ſo lent, bargained, ſold, exchanged, or ſhifted.

The forfeiture of a Scrivener that ſhall take above five ſhillings for the forbearance of an hundred pounds for a year and above twelve pence for making a Bond.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every Scrivener and Scriveners, Broker and Brokers, Solicitor and Solicitors, Driver and Drivers of Bargains for contracts, who ſhall after the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September, take or receive directly or indirectly, any ſum or ſums of money, or other reward or thing, for brokage, Soliciting, Driving or Procuring the Loan, or forbearing of any ſum or ſums of money, over and above the Rate or Value of five ſhillings for the Loan, or forbearing of one hundred pound for a year and ſo rateably, or above Twelve pence for making or renuing of the bond or bill for Loan, or for forbearing thereof, or for any Counter-bond or bill concerning the ſame, ſhall forfeit for every ſnch offence Twenty pounds, and have Impriſonment for half a year: The one moiety of all which Forfeitures to be to the king our Soveraign Lord, his Heirs and Succeſſors; And the other moiety to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, in the ſame County where the ſeveral offences are committed, and not elſewhere, by Action of Debt, bill, Plaint or Information, in which no Eſſoign, Wager of Law, or Protection to be allowed. Stat. 13 Car. 2, cap 13.

CAP. XIV.

A Perpetual Anniverſary Thankſgiving on the Nine and twentieth day of May, for his Majeſties Happy Reſtauration.

The wonderful Power and Goodneſs of God in the Reſtauration of his Majeſty.

The Unanimous and Cordial Affection of the Lords and Commons in Parliament, and People in general.

The intent of keeping the ſaid Day.

The 29th of May to be annually celebrated.

All perſons to reſort to ſome Church, Chappel, or publique Place of Thankſgiving the ſaid Day.

Foraſmuch as Almighty God the King of Kings, and ſole diſpoſer of All Earthly Crowus and Kingdoms, hath by his All-ſwaying Providence and Power miraculouſly demonſtrated in the view of all the World, his Tranſcendent Mercy, Love and Graciouſneſs, towards His moſt excellent Majeſty, CHARLES the Second, by his eſpecial Grace, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland King Defender of the true Faith, and all his Majeſties Loyal Subjects of this his Kingdom of England, and the Dominions thereunto annexed by his Majeſties late moſt wonderfull, glorious, peaceable and joyful Reſtauration to the actual poſſeſſion and exerciſe of his undoubted hereditary Soveraign and Regal Authority over them (after ſundry years forced extermination into Forreign parts, by the moſt Traiterous Conſpiracies, and Armed Power of Uſurping Tyrants, and execrable perfidious Traytors) and that without the leaſt oppoſition, or effuſion of blood, through the unanimous, cordial, Loyal Votes of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and paſſionate deſires of all other his Majeſties Subjects; which unexpreſſible bleſſing (by Gods own moſt wonderful Diſpenſation) was compleated on the Twenty Ninth day of May laſt paſt, being the moſt memorable birth-Day, not onely of his Majeſty, both as a man and Prince, but likewiſe as an Actual King, and of this and other His Majeſties Kingdoms, all in a great meaſure new born and raiſed from the dead on this moſt joyful Day, wherein many Thouſands of the Nobility, Gentry, Citizens, and other his Lieges of this Realm, conducted his Majeſty unto His Royal Cities of London and Weſtminſter, with all poſſible Expreſſions of their joy and Loyal Affections in far greater Triumph than any of his moſt Victorious Predeceſſors Kings of England, returned thither from their Forreign Conqueſts; and both his Majeſties Houſes of Parliament, with all Dutiful and Joyful Demonſtrations of their Allegiance publickly received, and cordially congratulated his Majeſties moſt happy Arrival, and Inveſtiture in his Royal Throne, at his Palace at White-hall; Upon all which conſiderations, this being the Day which the Lord himſelf hath made and crowned with ſo many publick Bleſſings and ſignal Deliverances, both of his Majeſty and his People, from all their late moſt deplorable Confuſions, diviſions, Wars, devaſtations, and Oppreſſions, to the end that it may be kept in perpetual Remembrance in all Ages to come and that his Sacred Majeſty will with all his Subjects of this Realm, and the Dominions thereof, and their poſterities after them, might annually celebrate the perpetual memory thereof, by ſacrificing their unfeigned hearty publick Thanks thereon to Almighty God, with one heart and voice, in a moſt devout and Chriſtian manner, for all theſe publick benefits received and conferred on them, upon this moſt joyful day, Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular Miniſters of Gods Word and Sacraments, in every Church, Chappel, and other uſual place of Divine Service, and publick Prayer, which now are, or hereafter ſhall be within this Realm of England and the reſpective dominions thereof, and their ſucceſſors ſhall in all ſucceeding Ages annually celebrate the Twenty ninth day of May, by rendring their hearty publick Praiſes and Thankſgivings unto Almighty God, for all the forementioned extraordinary Mercies, Bleſſings, and deliverances received, and mighty Acts done thereon, and declare the ſame to all the people there aſſembled, and the Generations yet to come, that ſo they may for ever praiſe the Lord for the ſame, whoſe Name alone is Excellent, and his Glory above the earth and Heavens. And be it further enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons inhabiting within this Kingdom, and the dominions thereunto belonging, ſhall upon the ſaid day annually reſort with diligence and devotion to ſome uſuall Church, Chappel, or Place where ſuch publick Thankſgivings and praiſes to Gods moſt divine Majeſtie ſhall be rendred, and there orderly and devoutly abide during the ſaid publick Thankſgivings, Prayers, Preaching, Singing of Pſalmes, and other Service of god there to be uſed and miniſtred.

And to the end that all perſons may be put in mind of their duty thereon, and be the better prepared to diſcharge the ſame with that piety and devotion as becomes them: Be it further enacted, That every Miniſter ſhall give notice to his Pariſhioners publickly in the Church at morning Prayer the Lords-Day next before every ſuch Twenty Ninth day of May, for the due obſervation of the ſaid day, And ſhall then likewiſe publickly and diſtinctly read this preſent Act to the People. Stat. 13 Car. 2. cap. 11.

Notice of this Act to be given the next Lords Day before.

CAP. XV.

An Act for the ſpeedy Disbanding of the Army, and Garriſons of this Kingdom, with Inſtructions for the ſame. EXP.

CAP. XVI,

Souldiers of the Army Disbanded, may Exerciſe Trades.

VVhereas there are divers Officers and Souldiers now in the Kings Majeſties Service, under the Command of his Excellency George Duke of Albemarle, Captain General of His Majeſties Armies, who have been Inſtrumental, by the Bleſſing of Almighty God, to the Happy Reſtitution and Reſtoration of his Sacred Majeſty unto His Kingdomes and People, and to His Juſt Right of Government in the Kingdom of England, and Dominions and Territories thereunto belonging; ſome of which are men that uſed Trades, others that were Apprentices to Trades, who had not ſerved out their Times; and others who are Apt and Fit for Trades, many of which, the Wars being now ended, would willingly Imploy themſelves in thoſe Trades they were formerly accuſtomed unto, or which they are apt and able to follow and make uſe of for the getting of their Living by their Labour and Induſtry; but are, or may be hindred from exerciſing thoſe Trades in certain Cities, Corporations, and other places within this Kingdom, becauſe of certain by-Laws and Cuſtoms of thoſe places, and of a Statute made in the Fifth year of the late Queen Elizabeth, Prohibiting the uſe of certain Trades by any perſon that hath not ſerved as an Apprentice to ſuch Trade by the ſpace of ſeven years; For remedy whereof, And to the end that thoſe perſons who were in Actual Service under the Command of the ſaid Captain General on the Five and twentieth day of April, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, and were Inſtrumental to the Happy Reſtitution of the Kings Majeſty unto His Juſt Right of Government, as aforeſaid, may not be deprived of a Means of Livelyhood; May it pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority thereof, That all Officers and Souldiers, who were under the Command of the ſaid Captain General on the Five and twentieth day of April, in the ſaid year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, and have not ſince deſerted the Service, or refuſed to take the ſeveral Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance unto the Kings Majeſty that now is, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and that have heretofore uſed or exerciſed any Trade, though they did not ſerve out the time of their Apprentiſhip, or any other perſon imployed as aforeſaid under the Command of the ſaid Captain General at the time aforeſaid, that is apt and able to practiſe any Trade, may ſet up and exerciſe ſuch ſeveral and reſpective Trades, Myſteries or Occupations, whereunto he or they have been bound Apprentice, and ſerved any part of his or their time, or any Handicraft or other Trade exerciſed about Manufactures, though he was never bound Apprentice to the ſame, in manner following; (that is to ſay) Such of them as have been Apprentices, as aforeſaid, may ſet up and exerciſe ſuch ſeveral and reſpective Trades whereunto he or they have been ſo bound Apprentices, as fully as if they had ſerved out their reſpective terms, or times for which they have been bound; and ſhall have and enjoy the ſame Immunities as they ſhould have had and enjoyed, if they had ſerved out their ſaid terms or times. And all others of the ſaid Officers and Souldiers, may ſet up and exerciſe ſuch Trades as they are apt and able for, in the ſeveral Towns and Places within the ſeveral and reſpective Counties wherein they were born, without any ſuit, let, or moleſtation of any perſon or perſons whatſoever, for or by reaſon of the uſing of ſuch Trade. And if any ſuch Officer or Officers, Souldier or Souldiers, ſhall be ſued, impleaded, or indicted in any Court whatſoever, within this Kingdom, for uſing or exerciſing any ſuch Trades as aforeſaid; then the ſaid Officer or Officers, Souldier or Souldiers, making it appear to the ſame Court where they are ſo ſued, impleaded or indicted, that they have ſerved the Kings Majeſty under the Command of the ſaid Captain General, as aforeſaid; and that they have ſeverally taken the ſaid Oaths of Supremacy and Allegiance, and have not ſince deſerted the ſaid Service, ſhall upon the General Iſſue pleaded, be found Not guilty in any Plaint, Bill, Information or Indictment, exhibited againſt them; and ſuch perſons, who, notwithſtanding this Act, ſhall proſecute their ſaid Suit by Bill, Plaint, Information or Indictment, and ſhall have a Verdict paſſe againſt them, or become Nonſuit therein, or diſcontinue their ſaid Suit, ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall pay unto ſuch Officer or Officers, Souldier and Souldiers, double coſts of Suit to be recovered as any other Coſts at Common Law may be recovered; And all Judges and Jurors, before whom any ſuch Suit, Information or Indictment ſhall be brought, and all other perſons whatſoever, are to take notice of this preſent Act, and ſhall conform themſelves thereunto; Any Statute, Law, Ordinance, Cuſtom or Proviſion to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Souldiers inſtrumental in his Majeſties Reſtauration.

Such as were in Service under General Monk 25. April, 1660. and inſtrumental in his Majeſties reſtitution may exerciſe Trades.

Such as have deſerted the Service, or refuſe the oath of Allegiance, excepted.

Apprentices to enjoy all Immunities, as if they had ſerved their Time.

The general Iſſue pleaded upon this Act.

Provided, That no Officer or Souldier ſhall have the benefit of this Act, that ſhall not prove his Service as aforeſaid, either by a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of ſome Field Officer, and two Commiſſion-Officers of the Regiment wherein he ſerved, or ſome General Officer of the Army, certifying his knowledge of the Service aforeſaid; and the ſaid Certificate to be proved by one Witneſſe at leaſt, to be a true Certificate; or for default of ſuch Certificate, by the Oaths of two credible Perſons at leaſt.

How any Officer or Souldier may prove his being in Service within this Act.

Provided

Penalty upon falſe Certificates.

Provided alſo, That if any perſon or perſons pretending themſelves to have been Officers or Souldiers within the qualifications aforeſaid, ſhall produce a falſe Certificate to the intent to have the benefit of this Act, and thereof be convicted by Confeſſion, or due proof of Law, ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment not exceeding ſix moneths, and to loſe the benefit of this Act, Any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Souldiers, Tradeſmen, to ſubmit to all Offices and Orders in Corporations and Companies of their Manufacture.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That the ſaid Officers and Souldiers in this Act mentioned, and all other perſons exerciſing, or that ſhall exerciſe any Trade or Profeſſion in any City or Corporation, ſhall be liable to bear all Offices in the ſaid reſpective Cities and Corporations, when by the ſaid Cities and Corporations they ſhall be elected thereunto, and ſhall ſubmit to ſuch Orders of Corporations and Companies for ſearch of the well and true making of their Manufacture, as others free of the ſaid Companies or Corporations are ſubject unto; Any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for the Confirming and Reſtoring of Miniſters.

Preamble.

Foraſmuch as the confirming of ſome Eccleſiaſtical perſons and Miniſters in poſſeſſion, and reſtoring of others who have been ſequeſtred or ejected, and are fit to be reſtored in and to their ſeveral Eccleſiaſtical Benefices, Livings and Promotions, without force or ſuit of Law, will much conduce to the peace and welfare of this Church and Kingdom: Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That every Eccleſiaſtical perſon or Miniſter, being Ordained by any Eccleſiaſtical perſons before the five and twentieth day of December laſt paſt, being of the age of four and twenty years, and having not renounced his Ordination, who hath been formerly ſince the firſt day of January, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, preſented, nominated to, or placed in, and in actual poſſeſſion, and taking the profits of any Eccleſiaſtical Benefice, Rectory, Parſonage, Vicaridge, Church, Chappel, Cure, or other Eccleſiaſtical promotion with cure of Souls, within this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, which hath been become void, either by death, voluntary reſignation, or ſurrender, or other avoidance, to the Patron, or any perſon other pretending to have title to accept of reſignations, ſince the ſaid firſt day of January, and before the ſaid five and twentieth day of December laſt paſt, and was on the ſaid five and twentieth day of December in poſſeſſion, and received the profits thereof, being in the gift, donation, preſentation, collation, or nomination of the Kings Majeſty that now is, or of his late Royal Father King Charles the Firſt, in right of the Crown, or by reaſon of Wardſhip, or any other title, or of any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Prebend, Arch deacon, Body Politique or Corporate, or of any other perſon or perſons whatſoever, other then ſuch as are hereby reſtored, ſhall be, and is hereby declared, adjudged, and enacted to have been, be, and continue the real and lawful Incumbent, Parſon, Rector, Vicar and Poſſeſſor of the ſaid Eccleſiaſtical Benefices, Livings and promotions reſpectively, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, as if he or they had been nominated, preſented, collated, admitted, inſtituted and inducted thereunto, or placed therein in due form of Law, and had read and ſubſcribed the Articles according to the Statute in that caſe made and provided, and notwithſtanding any other matter or thing by him or them done or omitted to be done; And that as well againſt the Kings Majeſty, and againſt his Heirs & Succeſſors, as againſt all and every other perſon and perſons, Bodies Politique and Corporate whatſoever, and their reſpective Succeſſors, Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns; Saving to the Patrons and every of them their juſt right of patronage, donation, preſentation, collation, or nomination upon the next avoidance of every ſuch Eccleſiaſtical perſon, Miniſter or Incumbent hereby confirmed as is aforeſaid, in as full and ample manner as if this Act had not been made.

Certain ordained Miniſters having been in actual poſſeſſion, reſtored.

The King bound.

The next avoidance to be in the rightful Patrons.

Voluntary reſignations confirmed.

And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that every voluntary ſurrender or reſignation made by any Incumbent to the Patron of any Benefice, or to any late pretended powers ſince the ſaid firſt day of January, of an Eccleſiaſtical Benefice or Promotion, ſhall be adjudged as an effectual avoidance of ſuch Benefice or Promotion, as if the ſame had been made to the compent Ordinary, and accepted by him.

The former preſentations, &c. ſhall make no uſurpation.

And be it further enacted, That no preſentation, collation, or diſpoſition aforeſaid, nor confirmation by this Act, of any Parſon or Miniſter, in or to any Eccleſiaſtical Benefices, Livings or promotions aforeſaid, ſhall be conſtrued or adjudged to amount to any uſurpation in Law, to the prejudice of any perſon or perſons, Bodies politique or corporate, who have or ſhall have right to preſent thereunto upon the ſaid avoidance.

How the perſons to be reſtored are to be qualified.

And be it further enacted, that every Eccleſiaſtical perſon or Miniſter, formerly ſequeſtred or ejected, diſpoſſeſt and kept out after lawful preſentation and perception of the profits of any of the ſaid Eccleſiaſtical Benefices, Livings or promotions, which hath not ſubſcribed any Petition to bring the late King Charles of bleſſed memory to Tryal, or which hath not by writing, preaching, printing, or any other open Act procured, endeavoured, or juſtified the murther of the ſaid late King; or which hath not by preaching, printing, writing, or conſtant refuſal to Baptize, declared his Judgment to be againſt Infant-baptiſm, ſhall be reſtored to the ſame, and to the poſſeſſion thereof, at or before the Five and twentieth day of December next enſuing: And that every Eccleſiaſtical perſon aforeſaid, who ſhall be removed, ſhall or may enjoy the Tythes, Profits, Duties, Glebes and Houſes thereunto belonging, until the ſaid Five and twentieth day of December next enſuing, and ſhall then upon ſuch removal peaceably leave or yield up the poſſeſſion thereof, and ſhall alſo give his penal Bond to the Parſon or Miniſter ſo to be reſtored, to render to him, his executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, the full moyety of the clear profits and Tythes, or the value thereof (to be aſcertained by the Commiſſioners hereafter appointed under their hands) from Michaelmas laſt paſt to

The time how long the preſent Incumbent ſhall ſtay in.

Michaelmas

The moyety of the profits of the living to be paid to the reſtored Miniſters.

Michaelmas next enſuing, (all Taxes and other requiſite charges and expences firſt deducted and allowed before the removal of the Goods of the Parſon or Miniſter ſo to be removed) or the Tythes or other profits from the ſame, at or upon the ſaid Five and twentieth day of December; And the ſaid Parſon or Miniſter ſo to be removed upon his quitting the poſſeſſion at the time aforeſaid, ſhall be, and is hereby abſolutely diſcharged and acquitted from all and every arrears thereof other then the moyety of the profits and Tythes ſecured by Bonds aforeſaid, before and untill the ſaid Feaſt of S. Michael next enſuing, againſt the Parſon or Miniſter ſo reſtored, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, and againſt all other perſon or perſons whatſoever.

No Miniſter to be reſtored to above one Benefice.

Provided alwayes, That every Miniſter, not ſcandalous, ignorant, or inſufficient as aforeſaid, being proved, as aforeſaid, heretofore ſequeſtred or ejected out of two or more Eccleſiaſtical Benefices or Livings with cure of Souls, ſhall be reſtored to one of them and no more at his Election, except where he hath formerly reſigned or ſurrendred any of the ſaid Benefices or Livings, and thereupon the right Patron, or any other in his right, hath preſented, collated, nominated, placed, or put into the ſame any other Incumbent or Miniſter as aforeſaid, in which caſe the ſaid ſequeſtred or ejected Miniſter ſhall not be reſtored to ſuch Benefice or Living ſo reſigned or ſurrendred as aforeſaid.

Provided alſo by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Miniſter who by vertue of this Act is confirmed in any Eccleſiaſtical Benefice or Living, with cure of Souls, which ſhall have more then one Eccleſiaſtical Benefice or Living, with cure of Souls, ſhall hold and enjoy only one of them, and no more at his Election; except where he hath formerly reſigned or ſurrendred any of the ſaid Benefices or Livings, and thereupon the right Patron, or any other in his right hath preſented, collated, nominated, placed, or put into the ſame any other Incumbent or Miniſter as aforeſaid, in which caſe the Miniſter ſo to be confirmed, ſhall and may retain and keep the Benefice or Living which he hath not ſo reſigned or ſurrendred as aforeſaid.

FOr the increaſe of Shipping, and encouragement of the Navigation of this Nation, wherein, under the good Providence and Protection of God, the Wealth, Safety, and Strength of this Kingdom is ſo much concerned; Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, and by the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority thereof, That from and after the Firſt day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, and from thenceforward, no Goods or Commodities whatſoever ſhall be Imported into, or Exported out of any Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, or Territories to His Majeſty belonging, or in his poſſeſſion, or which may hereafter belong unto, or be in the poſſeſſion of His Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in Aſia, Africa or America, in any other Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels whatſoever, but in ſuch Ships or Veſſels as do truly and without fraud belong only to the People of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or are of the built of, and belonging to any the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations or Territories, as the Proprietors and Right Owners thereof, and whereof the Maſter and three fourths of the Mariners at leaſt are Engliſh, under the penalty of the Forfeiture and Loſs of all the Goods and Commodities which ſhall be Imported into, or Exported out of any the aforeſaid places in any other Ship or Veſſel, as alſo of the Ship or Veſſel, with all its Guns, Furniture, Tackle, Ammunition and Apparel; one Third part thereof to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; one Third part to the Governour of ſuch Land, Plantation, Iſland or Territory, where ſuch default ſhall be committed, in caſe the ſaid Ship or Goods be there ſeized, or otherwiſe that third part alſo to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other third part to him or them who ſhall Seize, Inform, or Sue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by Bill, Information, Plaint, or other Action, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed; And all Admirals, and other Commanders at Sea of any the Ships of War, or other Ship, having Commiſſion from his Majeſty, or from his Heirs or Succeſſors, are hereby authorized and ſtrictly required to ſeize and bring in as prize all ſuch Ships or Veſſels as ſhall have offended contrary hereunto, and deliver them to the Court of Admiralty, there to be proceeded againſt; and in caſe of condemnation, one moyety of ſuch Forfeitures ſhall be to the uſe of ſuch Admirals or Commanders and their Companies, to be divided and proportioned amongſt them according to the Rules and Orders of the Sea in caſe of Ships taken prize; and the other moyety to the uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors.

And be it enacted, That no Alien or Perſon not born within the Allegiance of our Soveraign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or Naturalized, or made a free Denizen; ſhall from and after the Firſt day of February, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty one, exerciſe the Trade or Occupation of a Merchant or Factor in any the ſaid places, upon pain of the Forfeiture and Loſs of all his Goods and Chattels, or which are in his poſſeſſion, one third to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; one third to the Governor of the Plantation where ſuch perſon ſhall ſo offend; and the other third to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts in the Plantation where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed: And all Governors of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations or Territories, and every of them, are hereby ſtrictly required and commanded, and all who hereafter ſhall be made Governors of any ſuch Iſlands, Plantations or Territories, by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall before their entrance into their Government take a ſolemn Oath to do their utmoſt, that every the afore mentioned clauſes, and all the matters and things therein contained, ſhall be punctually and bona fide obſerved, according to the true intent and meaning thereof: And upon complaint and proof made before his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or ſuch as ſhall be by him or them thereunto authorized and appointed, that any the ſaid Governors have been willingly and wittingly negligent in doing their Duty accordingly, that the ſaid Governor ſo offending, ſhall be removed from his Government.

Aliens ſhall not exerciſe the occupation of Merchants or Factors.

Governors, &c. of Plantations to take an Oath for the obſervance of the aforementioned clauſes.

And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Goods or Commodities whatſoever of the growth, production or manufacture of Africa, Aſia or America, or any part thereof, or which are deſcribed or laid down in the uſual Maps or Cards of thoſe places, be imported into England, Ireland, or Wales, Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in any other Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels whatſoever, but in ſuch as do truly and without fraud belong only to the people of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or of the Lands, Iſlands, Plantations or Territories in Aſia, Africa or America, to his Majeſty belonging, as the Proprietors and right Owners thereof, and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths at leaſt of the Mariners are Engliſh, under the penalty of the Forfeiture of all ſuch Goods and Commodities, and of the Ship or Veſſel in which they were imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture, Ammunition and Apparel; one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other moyety to him or them who ſhall ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by Bill, Information, Plaint, or other Action, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That of Goods or Commodities that are of foreign growth, Production or Manufacture, and which are brought into England, Ireland, Wales, the Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in Engliſh built ſhipping, or other ſhipping belonging to ſome of the aforeſaid places, and Navigated by Engliſh Mariners as aforeſaid, ſhall be ſhipped or brought from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from thoſe of the ſaid growth, production or manufacture, or from thoſe Ports where the ſaid Goods and Commodities can only, or are, or uſually have been firſt ſhipped for tranſportation, and from none other Places or Countries, under the penalty of the Forfeiture of all ſuch of the aforeſaid Goods, as ſhall be imported from any other Place or Country, contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof, as alſo of the Ship in which they were imported, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel, one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other moyety to him or them that ſhall ſeize, inform, or ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, to be recovered as is before expreſt.

No Goods of Foreign growth or manufacture, ſhall be brought into England, &c. in Engliſh Ships, but onely from the places of their ſaid growth, &c.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That any ſort of Ling, Stockfiſh, Pilchard, or any other kind of dryed or ſalted Fiſh, uſually fiſhed for and caught by the people of England, Ireland, Wales, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or any ſort of Codfiſh or Herring, or any Oyl or Blubber made, or that ſhall be made of any kind of fiſh whatſoever, or any Whale-fins or Whale-bones, which ſhall be imported into England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, not having been caught in Veſſels truly and properly belonging thereunto as Proprietors and right Owners thereof, and the ſaid Fiſh cured, ſaved and dryed, and the Oyl and Blubber aforeſaid (which ſhall be accompted and pay as Oyl) not made by the people thereof, and ſhall be imported into England, Ireland or Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall pay double Aliens Cuſtom.

All Ling, Stockfiſh, &c. Oyl, &c. whale fins, &c. imported, not caught in veſſels by the proprietors themſelves, &c. ſhall pay double Aliens Cuſtom.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from henceforth it ſhall not be lawful to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, to load or cauſe to be loaden and carried in any Bottom or Bottoms, Ship or Ships, Veſſel or Veſſels whatſoever, whereof any Stranger or Strangers born (unleſs ſuch as be Denizens or Naturalized) be Owners, Part-owners or Maſter, and whereof three fourths of the Mariners at leaſt be not Engliſh, any Fiſh, Victual, Wares, Goods, Commodities, or things of what kind or nature ſoever the ſame ſhall be, from one Port or Creek of England, Ireland, Wales, Iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to another Port or Creek of the ſame, or of any of them, under penalty for every one that ſhall offend contrary to the true meaning of this branch of this preſent Act, to forfeit all ſuch Goods as ſhall be loaden and carried in any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, together with the Ship or Veſſel, and all her Guns, Ammunition, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them that ſhall Inform, Seize, or Sue for the ſame in any Court of Record, to be recovered in manner aforeſaid.

No goods to be laded or carried from one part of England to another in the Veſſel of any Alien not denizend, &c. The penalty.

Caſe and abatement in the book of rates to extend only where three parts of the Mariners be Engliſh.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where any Caſe, Abatement, or Priviledge is given in the Book of Rates to Goods or Commodities imported or exported in Engliſh built ſhipping, that is to ſay, ſhipping built in England, Ireland, Wales, Iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in any the Lands, Iſlands, Dominions and Territories to His Majeſty in Africa, Aſia or America, belonging or in his poſſeſſion, That it is alwayes to be underſtood, and provided that the Maſter and three Fourths of the Mariners of the ſaid Ships, at leaſt, be alſo Engliſh, And that where it is required that the Maſter and three Fourths of the Mariners be Engliſh, that the true intent and meaning thereof is, that they ſhould be ſuch during the whole Voyage, unleſſe in caſe of Sickneſſe, Death, or being taken Priſoners in the Voyage, to be proved by the Oath of the Maſter, or other chief Officer of ſuch Ships.

CAP. XXII.

An Act for the Regulating of the Trade of Bay-Making in the Dutch Bay-Hall in Colcheſter.

Preamble.

Whereas by the ſpecial Favour of Queen Elizabeth, there was a Congregation of Dutch people tolerated to practice the Art and Trade of Bay and Say-making in the Town of Colcheſter, in the County of Eſſex, and for the upholding the Credit of the ſaid Trade, and for the avoiding and puniſhing all Unjuſt and Fraudulent dealing therein, there have been divers Good and Laudable Orders and Conſtitutions made, which were confirmed by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, in the tenth year of King James, and by ſeveral Orders made by the late Kings Privy Council; the Strict and Exact Execution of which ſaid Orders and Conſtitutions by the Governors of the Dutch Bay-Hall there, hath brought that kind of Drapery into high Credit, not only at home, but alſo in Foreign parts, and that by reaſon of the ſaid Trade, many thouſands of poor people, both within the ſaid Town of Colcheſter, and places thereabout, are daily Imployed and Set to Work; Notwithſtanding which ſaid Orders, and the care of the Governors of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall, many fraudulent and deceitful Commodities, and ſlight and naughty Bays have been, and daily are by the ſecret and crafty practices of ſome men made in the ſaid Town, and are weekly brought and conveyed to London by certain perſons uſing the Trade of buying and ſelling of Colcheſter Bays, before ſuch time as the ſaid Bays have been viewed, ſearched, meaſured, and ſealed by the ſworn Officers of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall, which ſaid Bays ſo deceitfully and fraudulently made, are tranſported beyond the Seas, under the name, and oftentimes with the Seal of Colcheſter Bays, whereby the Bays there made are not of that Credit and Eſteem as formerly: For the preventing which ſaid practiſes and deceits, Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Governors of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall in Colcheſter, and the Dutch people there living, ſhall, and may from henceforth peaceably and quietly uſe and exerciſe the free Trade of making Bays, Says, and other foreign Draperies within the ſaid Town of Colcheſter, and be permitted to govern the ſaid Trade in their Aſſemblies and Congregations, with all ſuch Liberties, Priviledges, Immunities, and in as full and ample manner as they have at any time heretofore enjoyed the ſame by vertue of any Order, Grant or Toleration to them made by Queen Elizabeth, King James, or the late King Charles of bleſſed memory, or any of them.

Ordinance.

Confirmation of the Priviledge of the Dutch Bay-Hall.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoever, from and after the Twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thouſend ſix hundred and ſixty, ſhall Weave or cauſe to be woven within the ſaid Town of Colcheſter, or the Liberties thereof, any Bay known by the name of Four and fifties, Sixties, Sixty eights, Eighties, and hundred Bays, and ſhall not within two dayes after ſuch weaving, carry, or cauſe ſuch Bay to be carried to the Dutch Bay-Hall called the Raw-Hall, there to be viewed and ſearched, to the intent it may appear whether the ſame Bay be well and ſubſtantially wrought before, as the ſaid Bay ſhall be carried to be ſcoured and thicked; or if any Fuller, or Thicker, or other perſon, uſing the Art or Trade of Fulling or Thicking of Bays, ſhall receive any ſuch Bay to be Fulled and Thicked before ſuch time as the ſaid Bay hath been carried to the ſaid Raw-Hall, and there ſtamped and marked, as by the Orders of the ſaid Hall it ought to be, That every ſuch Weaver that ſhall ſo convey the ſaid Bay, and every ſuch Fuller and Thicker that ſhall receive ſuch Bay before the ſame be ſtamped and marked as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for the firſt Offence the ſum of forty ſhillings, to be levied by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Offendors Goods, returning the overplus, the neceſſary Charges of diſtraining being firſt deducted, and ſuch Forfeitures, in caſe ſuch Bay be made by an Engliſh Maſter-maker, then the ſame to be accounted for to the Mayor and Commonalty of the ſaid Town for the benefit of the poor of the ſaid Town; and in caſe ſuch Bay be the Bay of a Dutch Maſter-maker, then the ſame to be diſpoſed by the Governors of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall for the uſe and benefit of the poor of the ſaid Dutch Congregation; and for the ſecond Offence ſhall forfeit the ſum of five pounds, to be levied and diſpoſed in manner abovesaid; and for the third Offence, not to be permitted to work any more within the Town of Colcheſter, or Liberties thereof.

All Bays made at Colcheſter, muſt be carried to the Bay-Hall and ſearched.

No Fuller ſhall work any Bays not ſearched and allowed.

Penalty of Weavers and Fullers offending.

Third offence.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall buy any of the aforeſaid Bays, or convey or carry, or cauſe ſuch Bay to be conveyed or carried out of the ſaid Town of Colcheſter, before ſuch time as the ſaid Bay hath been viewed, ſearched, ſtamped, ſealed and meaſured, as aforeſaid, by the ſworn Officers of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall thereunto appointed, that in ſuch caſe the ſaid Bay ſo brought or carried, or offered to be carried or conveyed away as aforeſaid, ſhall be confiſcated, the one moyety to him or them that ſhall ſeize the ſame, and the other moyety to the poor of the Pariſh where the ſaid Bay ſhall be taken and ſeized.

No Bays to be carried out of the Town until ſearched and allowed.

Penalty.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall from and after the ſaid Twentieth day of September, counterfeit or cauſe to be counterfeited any of the Seals uſed by the Corporation or Congregation of the Dutch Bay-Hall in Colcheſter, or ſhall, not being the Officer thereunto by the ſaid Corporation appointed, and in the place by them thereunto appointed, affix any ſuch Seal or Seals to any Colcheſter Bays, Whether counterfeited or not counterfeited, that every perſon ſo offending, being thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall for his firſt Offence forfeit and pay to the uſe of the ſaid Governors of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall the ſum of twenty pounds, to be recovered in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record, or in the Town Court of Colcheſter, by an Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Information, or otherwiſe, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of the Law ſhall be allowed: and for the ſecond Offence being convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall ſtand in the Pillory in the Market, or moſt publick place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, for the ſpace of one hour: and for the third Offence, being as aforeſaid convicted, ſhall ſuffer as a Felon, and if any Bays ſhall be taken carrying or carried out of Colcheſter without the mark of the Maker, that all ſuch Bays ſhall be forfeit.

Penalty for counterfeiting the Corporation Seal.

Third offence.

And for the better diſcovering, finding out and puniſhing of the frauds and deceits aforeſaid, be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Gavernors of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall, or their Officers, or any of them from time to time in the day time, to ſearch any Cart, Wagon, or Pack wherein they ſhall have notice, or ſuſpect any ſuch deceitful Bays to be; and alſo from time to time with a Conſtable, who are hereby required to be aiding and aſſiſting to them, to make ſearch in any houſe, ſhop, or ware-houſe,

Power to ſearch Carts and Packs.

To ſearch houſes with a Conſtable.

where they are informed any ſuch deceitful Bays to be, and to ſecure and ſeize the ſame, and carry the ſame to the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall, and that ſuch Bays ſo ſeized and carried to the ſaid Hall, ſhall be confiſcate and forfeit to be diſpoſed in ſuch manner as the forfeitures herein before mentioned to be paid by the Weavers and Fullers are herein before limited and appointed.

Forfeiture of deceitful Bays.

Power to make by-Laws.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the better managing and regulating of the ſaid Art or Trade of making the Bays aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for the Governors of the ſaid Dutch Bay-Hall, from time to time, to make, conſtitute and appoint ſuch orders, by-laws, and conſtitutions, as to them ſhall ſeem meet and reaſonable.

Who ſhall approve of them.

Provided, That no ſuch Order, by-Law, or Conſtitution to be made, either in diminution of the Kings Prerogative, or the Laws of this Kingdom, be uſed or executed, until the ſame Orders, by-Laws and Conſtitutions have been examined and approved by the Lord Chancellor, Lord Treaſurer of England, or Chief Juſtice of either Bench, or any three of them, or before both the Juſtices of Aſſize in their Circuit or Progreſs in the ſaid County of Eſſex, upon pain of forfeiture of Twenty pounds for every time they ſhall do the contrary: This Act to begin and take effect from the Twentieth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty.

CAP. XXIII.

CAP. XXIV.

The Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights-Service, and Purveyances, taken away, and a Revenue ſetled upon His Majeſty in Lieu thereof.

The reaſons of this Act.

WHereas it hath been found by former experience, that the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures by knights-Service, either of the King or others, or by Knights-ſervice in Capite, or Soccage in Capite of the King, and the conſequents upon the ſame have been much more burthenſome, grievous and prejudicial to the Kingdom, then they have been beneficial to the King: And whereas ſince the intermiſſion of the ſaid Court, which hath been from the Four and twentieth day of February, which was in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and five, many perſons have by Will and otherwiſe made diſpoſal of their Lands held by Knights-ſervice, whereupon divers Queſtions might poſſibly ariſe, unleſs ſome ſeaſonable remedy be taken to prevent the ſame; Be it therefore enacted by the King our Soveraign Lord, with the aſſent of the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, and it is hereby enacted,

The Court of Wards and Liveries, Primer-Seiſins, &c. taken away.

That the Court of Wards & Liveries, and all Wardſhips, Liveries, Primer-Seiſins, and Ouſter-le-mains, Values and forfeitures of Marriages, by reaſon of any Tenure of the Kings Majeſty, or any other by Knights-ſervice, and all mean rates, and all other Gifts, Grants, Charges incident or ariſing, for, or by reaſon of Wardſhips, Liveries, Primer-Seiſins, or ouſter-le-mains be taken away and diſcharged, and are hereby enacted to be taken away and diſcharged, from the ſaid twenty fourth day of February, one thouſand ſix hundred forty five, any Law, Statute, Cuſtom, or Uſage, to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding; Fines for Alienations, &c. taken away. 1 Car. 1. cap. 3.

And that all Fines for Alienations, Seizures and Pardons for Alienations, Tenure by Homage and all Charges incident, ariſing, for or by reaſon of Wardſhip, Livery, Primer-Seiſin, or ouſter le main, or Tenure by Knights-ſervice, eſcuage, and alſo Aide pur ſile marrier, & pur faier fitz Chivalier, and all other Charges incident thereunto, be likewiſe taken away and diſcharged, from the ſaid Twenty fourth day of February, one thouſand ſix hundred forty and five, any Law, Statute, Cuſtome, or Uſage to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding:

Tenures by Knights ſervice, taken away.

And that all Tenures by Knights-Service of the King, or of any other perſon, and by Knights-Service in Capite, and by Socage in Capite of the King, and the Fruits and conſequents thereof, happened, or which ſhall or may hereafter happen or ariſe thereupon, or thereby, be taken away and diſcharged, Any Law, Statute, Cuſtome or uſage to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding; And all Tenures of any Honors Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any eſtate of Inheritance at the Common-Law, held either of the King, or of any other perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick, or Corporate are hereby enacted to be turned into free and common Socage to all intents and purpoſes, from the ſaid Twenty fourth day of February, one thouſand ſix hundred forty five, and ſhall be ſo conſtrued, adjudged and deemed to be from the ſaid Twenty fourth day of February one thouſand ſix hundred forty five, and for ever thereafter turned into free and common Socage, Any Law, Statute, Cuſtome, or uſage to the contrary hereof, in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Tenures by Homage, Eſcuage, &c. diſcharged.

And that the ſame ſhall for ever hereafter ſtand and be diſcharged of all Tenure by Homage, Eſcuage, Voyages Royal, and charges for the ſame, Wardſhips incident to Tenure by Knights Service, and values and forfeitures of marriage, and all other charges incident to tenure by Knights-Service, And of and from Aide pur file marrier, and Aide pur faier fitz Chivalier, any law, ſtatute, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And that all Conveyances and Deviſes of any Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, made ſince the ſaid 24th of February, ſhall be expounded to be of ſuch effect; as if the ſame Mannors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, had been then held and continued to be holden in free and common Socage only, any Law, Statute, Cuſtome, or Uſage to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Acts of 32 H. 8. cap. 6. & 33 H. 8. c. 2. repealed.

And be it further ordained and enacted by the authority of this preſent Parliament, That one act made in the reign of King Henry the 8th. Entituled, An Act for the eſtabliſhment of the Court of the Kings Wards; And alſo one Act of Parliament made in the 33. year of the reign of the ſaid King Henry the 8th. concerning the Officers of the Court of Wards and Liveries, and every clauſe, Article and matter in the ſaid Acts contained, ſhall from henceforth be repealed, and utterly void.

All tenures to be created by the King hereafter ſhall be free and common ſoccage.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all tenures hereafter to be created by the Kings Majeſty his heirs or Succeſſors, upon any gifts or grants of any Manors, Lands, tenements, or Hereditaments, of any eſtate of Inheritance at the common law, ſhall be in free and common ſocage, and ſhall be adjudged to be in free and common ſocage onely and not by Knights Service, or in capite, and ſhall be diſcharged of all Wardſhip, value and forfeiture of marriage, Livery, Primer-Seizin, Ouſter le main, Aide pur faier fitz Chivalier, and pur file marrier, any Law, Statute, or reſervation to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding

And be it further enacted, That ſuch perſon or perſons to whom the cuſtody of ſuch Child or Children hath been, or ſhall be ſo diſpoſed or deviſed, ſhall and may take into his or their cuſtody to the uſe of ſuch Child or Children, the profits of all Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments of ſuch Child or Children; and alſo the cuſtody, tuition and management of the Goods, Chattels, and perſonal eſtate of ſuch Child or Children, till their reſpective Age of 21 years, or any leſſer time according to ſuch diſpoſition aforeſaid; and may bring ſuch action or actions in relation thereunto, as by Law a Guardian in common ſocage might do.

Provided alſo, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to alter or prejudice the Cuſtom of the City of London, nor of any other City or Town corporate, or of the Town of Berwick upon Tweed concerning Orphans; nor to diſcharge any Apprentice from his Apprentiſhip.

Provided

Proviſo touching Titles of Honour feodal.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall infringe or hurt any Title of Honour, Feodal, or other, by which any perſon hath, or may have rigyt to ſit in the Lords Houſe of Parliament, as to his or their Title of Honour, or ſitting in Parliament, and the priviledge belonging to them as Peers; This Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Purveyances and proviſions for the Kings Houſhold taken away. Alt. St. 13 Car. 2. cap. 7.

And whereas by like experience it hath been found, that though divers good ſtrict and wholeſome Laws have been made in the times of ſundry his Majeſties moſt noble Progenitors, ſome extending ſo far as to life, for redreſs of the grievances and oppreſſions committed by the perſons imployed for making proviſions for the Kings Houſhold, Carriages and other purveyance for his Majeſty, and his occaſions; Yet divers oppreſſions have been ſtill continued, and ſeveral Counties have ſubmitted themſelves to ſundry Rates and Taxes, and Compoſitions, to redeem themſelves from ſuch vexations and oppreſſions: And foraſmuch as the Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament do find that the ſaid Remedies are not fully effectual, and that no other remedy will be ſo effectual and juſt, as to take away the occaſion thereof, eſpecially if ſatisfaction and recompence ſhall be therefore made to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, which is hereby provided to his Majeſties good liking and content; His Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed, That it may be enacted, And be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That from henceforth no ſum or ſums of Money, or other thing ſhall be taken, raiſed, taxed, rated, impoſed, paid, or levied, for or in regard of any proviſion, Carriages, or purveyance for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors.

Purveyances for the King, Queen, &c.

Timber, Carts, Carriages, &c. taken away.

And that henceforth no perſon or perſons by any Warrant, Commiſſion, or Authority under the Great Seal, or otherwiſe, by colour of buying or making proviſion or purveyance for his Majeſty, or any Queen of England for the time being, or of any the Children of any King or Queen of England for the time being, or that ſhall be, or for his, their, or any of their Houſhold, ſhall take any Timber, Fewel, Cattel, Corn, Grain, Mault, Hay, Straw, Victual, Cart, Carriage, or other thing whatſoever of any the Subjects of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, without the free and full conſent of the Owner or Owners thereof, had and obtained without menace or enforcement; nor ſhall ſummon, warn, take, uſe or require any the ſaid Subjects to furniſh or find any Horſes, Oxen, or other Cattel, Carts, Ploughs, Wains, or other Carriages, for the uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of any Queen of England, or of any Child or Children of any the Kings or Queens of England for the time being, for the carrying the Goods of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or the ſaid Queens, or Children, or any of them, without ſuch full and free conſent as aforeſaid, any Law, Statute, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No pre-emption to be allowed or claimed in behalf of the King, &c.

The Penalty.

No Action upon this Statute to be ſtayed, but by Order of the Court where ſuch action depends.

Premunire.

Proviſo for the Stannaries, Butlerage, Priſage.

Recompence to his Majeſty for the Court of Wards and Purveyances.

And be it further enacted, That no pre-emption ſhall be allowed or claimed in the behalf of his Majeſty, or of any his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of any the Queens of England, or of any the Children of the Royal Family for the time being, in Market or out of Market; but that it be for ever hereafter free to all and every of the ſubjects of his Majeſty, to ſell, diſpoſe or employ his ſaid Goods to any other perſon or perſons as himſelf liſteth, any pretence of making proviſion or purveyance of Victual, Carriages, or other thing for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, or of the ſaid Queens, or Children, or any pretence of pre-emption in their, or any of their behalfs notwithſtanding. And if any perſon or perſons ſhall make proviſion or purveyance for his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or any the Queens, or Children aforeſaid, or impreſs or take any ſuch Carriages, or other things aforeſaid, on any pretence or colour of any Warrant aforeſaid, under the Great Seal, or otherwiſe, contrary to the intent hereof; it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of Peace, or ſuch two or one of them as dwell near, and to the Conſtables of ſuch Pariſh or Village where ſuch occaſion ſhall happen, at the requeſt of the party grieved: And they are hereby enjoyned to commit, or cauſe to be committed the party or parties ſo doing and offending to Gaol, till the next Seſſions, there to be indicted and proceeded againſt for the ſame; and that the Officers and Inhabitants of the Village or Pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall happen, ſhall be aſſiſtant therein; and moreover, the party grieved ſhall have his Action or Actions againſt ſuch offendor or offendors, and therein recover his treble damages and treble coſts: In which Action, no eſſoin, Wager of Law, Aid-prayer, Priviledge, Protection, Imparlance, Injunction, or Order of Reſtraint, ſhall be granted or allowed: And if any perſon or perſons ſhall (after notice given, that the Action depending is grounded upon this Statute) cauſe or procure any Action at the Common Law, grounded on this Statute, to be delayed or ſtayed before Judgment, by colour or means of any Order, Power, Warrant, or Authority, ſave onely of the Court where ſuch Action ſhall be brought and depending, or after Judgment had upon ſuch action, ſhall cauſe or procure execution of ſuch Judgment to be ſtayed or delayed by colour or means of any Order, Warrant, Power or Authority, ſave only by Writ of Errour, or Attaint, or Order of ſuch Court where ſuch Writ of Errour or Attaint ſhall be depending, That then the perſon ſo offending ſhall incur the pains, penalties and forfeitures ordained and provided by the Statute of Proviſion, and Premunire, made in the ſixteenth year of the Reign of King Richard the ſecond; Provided alwayes, That this Act extend not to prejudice any of his Majeſties Rights, Titles, or Duties of, in, or to, or out of any Tinne in the Stannaries of Devon and Cornwall, nor to prejudice the ancient Duties of Butlerage and Prizage of Wines; but that the ſame ſhall be in the ſame plight that the ſame were, before the making of this Act, any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: And now to the intent and purpoſe that his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may receive a full and ample Recompence and Satiſfaction, as well for the profits of the ſaid Court of Wards, and the Tenures, Wardſhips, Liveries, Primer-Seiſins, Ouſterlemains, and other the premiſſes and perquiſites incident thereunto; and for all Arrears any way due for the ſame, as alſo for all and all manner of purveyance and proviſions herein before mentioned, and intended to be taken away and aboliſhed; and all ſums of money due, or pretended to be due, or payable for, and in reſpect of any compoſitions for the ſame:

12 Car. 2. cap. 23. Rates of the Exciſe.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be paid unto the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors for ever hereafter, in recompence as aforeſaid, the ſeveral Rates, Impoſitions, Duties and Charges herein after expreſſed, and in manner and form following: That is to ſay, Rates of Exciſe upon forreign Liquors imported, to be paid in money before landing.

And be it further enacted and ordained by the Authority aforeſaid, that the ſeveral Rates, Duties and Charges of Exciſe, or New Impoſt above mentioned, hereby ſet or impoſed upon all and every the ſaid forreign liquors which ſhall be Imported or brought into all, or any the ports of this Kingdom and Dominions thereof, aforeſaid, from and after the five and twentieth day of December next, ſhal be from time to time ſatisfied and paid by the merchant or merchants importer or importers of the ſame, in ready money, upon his or their entry or entries made and before the landing thereof.

Entries to be made at the Office of Exciſe by Common Brewers, Inn-keepers, &c.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all common brewers of beer and Ale, ſhall once in every Week: And all Inn-keepers, alehouſe-keepers, Victuallers, and other Retaylers of beer, Ale, ſyder, perry, metheglin, or ſtrong water, brewing, making, or retailing the ſame, ſhall once in every moneth make true and particular entries at the office of exciſe, within the limits of which the ſaid commodities and manufactures are made of all beer, ale, perry, ſyder, metheglin, ſtrong-water, or other the liquors aforeſaid, which they, or any of them ſhall brew, make, or retail, in that week and moneth reſpectively as aforeſaid.

The penalty for not making Entries.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch common brewers, who do not once a Week make due and particular Entries ſhall forfeit ten pounds: And that every ſuch Inn-keeper, who doth not make true and particular Entries once a Moneth, ſhal forfeit five pounds. And that every Alehouſe-keeper, Victualler, or other Retailer, who doth not once a moneth make due and particular Entries, ſhall forfeit twenty ſhillings.

The penalty for not paying.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every common Brewer, who ſhall not pay and clear off within a Week after he made his Entry, or ought to have made his Entry as aforeſaid, ſhall pay double the value of the duty: And that every Inn-keeper Alehouſe-keeper, Victualler, or other Retailer, who ſhall not pay and clear off within a Moneth after he made his Entry, or ought to have made his entry, as aforeſaid, ſhall pay double the value of the Duty: The ſaid reſpective forfeitures to be levyed upon their Goods and Chattels, in ſuch manner and form, as hereafter in this Act is Ordained and directed.

In what places Entries ſhall be made.

Provided that no ſuch perſon, as aforeſaid, ſhall by compelled by the Commiſſioners, or Sub-Commiſſioners of exciſe, to travel for the making of the ſaid entries or payment of the ſaid Duties or other cauſe whatſoever, touching or concerning the ſame, if he live in a market-Town, out of the ſaid Town; if he live out of a Market-Town, then to no other place then to the next Market-Town to his habitation in the ſame County, on the Market day.

And be it further enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners who ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty, for putting this Act in execution, and their Sub-

The powers of the Commiſſioners to appoint Gagers.

The powers of the Gagers.

Commiſſioners in their reſpective Circuits, and Diviſions, ſhall hereby have power to conſtitute under their Hands and ſeals, ſuch, and ſo many Gagers as they ſhall think needful: Which Gagers, and every of them, ſhall at all times, as well by night as by day, And if by night, then in the preſence of a Conſtable, or other lawful Officer, be permitted upon their requeſt, to enter the houſe, Brew-houſe, Diſtilling-houſe, and all other houſes and places whatſoever belonging to, or uſed by any Brewer, Inn keeper, Victualler, or other retailer of Beer, Brewing, or making the ſame as aforſaid, or by any Diſtiller of Strong-waters, or Retailer of other the Liquors aforeſaid: And to Gage all Coppers, Fats and Veſſels in the ſame, and to take an accompt of Beer, Ale, Worts, Perry, Strong-Waters, Aquavite, Metheglin, or other the Liquors aforeſaid, in the ſaid Houſes, Places, and Veſſels, from time to time, Brewed, or Made, and Diſtilled; and thereof to make return or report in writing to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or Sub-Commiſſioners of exciſe, under whoſe office and Limits, ſuch Brewer, Retailer, Diſtiller, or Maker of the Liquors aforeſaid doth dwell and inhabit, leaving a true Copy of ſuch return in Writing under his hand with ſuch Brewer, Retailer, diſtiller, or Makers of the Liquors aforeſaid; And ſuch Reports or Returns of the ſaid gagers ſhall be a charge upon the ſaid Brewers, makers, and retailers reſpectively; And if any ſuch Common Brewer, maker or Retailer ſhall refuſe to permit any ſuch gager or gagers to enter his Brew-houſe or any other places aforementioned, or to gage or take accompt of his Brewing veſſels, or of any ſuch Beer, Ale, Worts, Perry, Syder, Strong-water, Aquavite, Metheglin, or other the Liquors aforeſaid, ſuch Brewer, Retailer, or diſtiller ſhall be forthwith forbidden by the ſaid gager or gagers, to ſell, carry out, or deliver to any of his Cuſtomers, any beer, Ale, Strong-water, Aquavite, or other the Liquors aforeſaid; And if any ſuch Brewer, Retailer, or Diſtiller of any the liquors aforeſaid, after ſuch warning given, ſhall ſell, carry, or deliver out the ſame, or any part thereof, not having paid and cleared the duty of Exciſe, ſuch perſon and perſons ſhall beſides the forfeiture of double the value, forfeit and loſe the ſum of ten pounds, as aforeſaid, for every offence, to be levied and recovered upon his or their goods and chattels in manner and form as hereafter in this Act is provided.

Penalty for ſelling, &c. not having cleared the Exciſe.

Proportions to be obſerved in returns of Gagers.

And for the avoiding of all incertainty, and diſpute, touching the returnes made or to be made by the Gagers of any beer or ale ſo brewed as aforeſaid; Be it Enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſix and thirty gallons of beer taken by the gage according to the Standard of the Ale-quart, four whereof ſhall make the gallon, remaining in the Cuſtody of the Chamberlains of his Majeſties Exchequer, ſhall be reckoned, accompted and returned by the Gager for a barrel of Beer. And every two and thirty gallons of ale, taken by the Gage according to the ſame Standard, ſhall be in like manner reckoned, accompted and returned for a Barrel of ale; and all other the Liquors aforeſaid, according to the Wine-gallon.

Brewers and Retailers to obſerve the uſual rates and prizes.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted and Ordained by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Brewers or Retailers of beer and ale ſhall take any more in the price thereof, upon ſale of the ſame, then according to the uſual rates and prices, Saving that every common brewer ſhall and may take and receive of all and every perſons to whom he ſhall ſell and deliver any Ale or Beer, the Exciſe thereupon due, as aforeſaid, over and above the uſual Rates and Prizes.

Encouragement to Brewers to make true Entries.

Allowance for Waſte and Leakage.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the better encouragement of all Common Brewers, and makers of Beer or Ale to make due entry and payment thereof, according as by this act is appointed, the ſaid common Brewer not ſelling the ſame by retail, for and in conſideration of waſte by fillings and leakage of their Beer and Ale, ſhall have and be allowed out of the ſaid Returns made by the Gagers, the ſeveral allowances and abatements hereafter mentioned, (that is to ſay) upon every three and twenty Barrels of Beer, whether ſtrong or ſmall, returned by the ſaid Gagers, three Barrels; And upon every two and twenty barrels of ale, whether ſtrong or ſmall, returned by the Gagers, two barrels; which ſaid allowances and abatements the ſaid Commiſſioners to be appointed as aforeſaid, and their ſub-Commiſſioners, are hereby authorized to allow and make accordingly.

Forfeiture for making falſe Entries.

Provided alwaies, That where any common Brewer ſhall wittingly or willingly make a falſe entry, and be convicted for the ſame before the Commiſſioners to be appointed as aforeſaid, or any two of them, or before ſuch other perſon or perſons as are hereafter by this Act appointed, in that caſe ſuch Brewer or Brewers ſhall forfeit and loſe over and beſides the penalties before mentioned, the ſaid allowance ſo to be made for ſix moneths then next enſuing.

No Beer, &c. to be delivered by the Brewer, until the Exciſe be paid by the Retayler.

And be it enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That no Beer or Ale ſhall be delivered in by ſuch Brewer or Maker thereof to any Victualler or any Retailer thereof, untill the rate which by ſuch Victualler or Retailer is to be paid over and above the price of the ſaid beer or ale, for or in reſpect of this Duty, be firſt paid and ſatisfied by the ſaid Victualler or Retailer to the Brewer or Maker thereof.

Proviſo for Beer and Ale ſold in Fairs.

Provided alwaies, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall brew and ſell by retail any ſmall quantities of beer or ale in any Fair within this Realm, or Dominions aforeſaid, who is not otherwiſe any common or uſual Brewer or Retailer thereof, and ſhall before any ſuch ſelling and retailing thereof, well and truly pay and ſatisfie the duty due for the ſame to the Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners within whoſe Limits or Diviſion the ſaid Fair ſhall be held, or to their Officers thereunto appointed; That then ſuch perſon or perſons ſo brewing or retailing the ſame, and for ſo much, and no more, nor otherwiſe, ſhall be freed and diſcharged from all penalties and forfeitures in and by this act before mentioned and impoſed; Any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided nevertheleſs, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners, and Sub-Commiſſioners reſpectively, to compound for this Duty with any Inn-keeper, Victualler, Alehouſe-keeper, or Retailer of Beer, Ale, and other the Liquors aforeſaid within their reſpective Diviſions, from time to time, and in ſuch manner and form as may be moſt for the advantage and improvement of the receipts thereof: Any thing in this act before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Commiſſioners may compound for the Exciſe in their Diviſions.

And it is further ordained and enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, or ſuch other perſon or perſons as his Majeſty, his heirs & ſucceſſors ſhall appoint, ſhall have power, and are hereby authorized and impowred from time to time to treat, contract, conclude and agree with any perſon or perſons for or concerning the Farming of all or any the Rates, Duties and Charges in this act mentioned upon Beer, Ale, Perry, Syder, or other the Liquors aforeſaid, in any the reſpective Counties, Cities or places of this Realm or Dominions thereof, as may be for the greateſt benefit and advantage of the ſaid Receipt, ſo as the ſame exceed not the term of Three years.

The power of the Lord Treaſurer, &c. to contract for farming any the rates or duties in this Act.

And be it further enacted, That every ſuch contract, bargain and agreement of the Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or other perſons aforeſaid, on behalf of his Majeſty on the one part, and the perſon or perſons farming on the other part, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, to all intents and purpoſes.

Provided alwaies, to the end the aforeſaid duty may be paid with moſt eaſe to the people; It is hereby further enacted, That the Lord Treaſurer, Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or other perſons aforeſaid, ſhall not within ſix moneths after the Commencement of this act, treat, conclude or agree with any perſon or perſons touching the Farming of this duty upon beer and ale in any the reſpective Counties or places of this Realm, or Dominions thereof, other then with ſuch perſon or perſons as by the Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid Counties or places, or the major part of them, at their publick Quarter-Seſſions ſhall be nominated and appointed in that behalf, which perſon or perſons is to have the firſt refuſal of any ſuch Farm reſpectively, and may take the ſame; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Perſons to be approved by the Juſtices of the Peace, &c. within ſix moneths, to have the refuſal of contracting for the Exciſe in their reſpective Counties.

Provided, That the ſaid duty ſhall not be let to any other perſon or perſons, then to the perſon or perſons recommended by the Juſtices, under the rate that it ſhall be tendred to, and refuſed by ſuch perſon or perſons ſo recommended.

And be it further enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That all forfeitures and offences made, done and committed againſt this Act, or any clauſe or article therein contained, ſhall be heard, adjudged and determined by ſuch perſon or perſons, and in ſuch manner and form as hereafter in and by this Act is directed and appointed; that is to ſay, all ſuch forfeitures and offences made and committed within the immediate limits of the chief Office in London, ſhall be heard, adjudged and determined, by the ſaid chief Commiſſioners and Governors of Exciſe (appointed by His Majeſty,) or the major part of them, or by the Commiſſioners for Appeals, and regulating of this duty, or the major part of them in caſe of Appeal, and not otherwiſe. And all ſuch forfeitures and offences made and committed within all or any other the Counties, Cities, Towns or places within this Kingdom, or Dominions thereof, ſhall be heard and determined by any two or more of the Juſtices of the peace reſiding near to the place where ſuch forfeitures ſhall be made, or offence committed: And in caſe of neglect or refuſal of ſuch Juſtices of the Peace, by the ſpace of 14 dayes next after complaint made, and notice thereof given to the Offendor, then the Sub-Commiſſioners, or the major part of them appointed for any ſuch City, County, Town or Place, ſhall, and are hereby impowered to hear and determine the ſame; And if the party find himſelf aggrieved by the Judgment given by the ſaid Sub-Commiſſioners, he ſhall and may appeal to the Juſtices of the Peace at the next Quarter-Seſſions, who are hereby impowered and authoriſed to hear and determine the ſame, whoſe Judgment therein ſhall be final; which ſaid Commiſſioners for Appeals, and regulating of this duty, and the chief Commiſſioners for Exciſe, and all Juſtices of Peace, and Sub-Commiſſioners aforeſaid reſpectively, are hereby authorized and ſtrictly enjoyned and required upon any Complaint or Information exhibited and brought of any ſuch forfeiture made, or offence committed contrary to this Act, to ſummon the party accuſed, and upon his appearance or contempt to proceed to the examination of the matter of Fact, and upon due proof made thereof, either by the voluntary confeſſion of the party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſſes (which Oath they or any two or more of them have hereby power to adminiſter) to give Judgment or Sentence, according as in and by this Act is before ordained and directed; And to award and iſſue out Warrants under their Hands for the levying of ſuch forfeitures, penalties and fines as by this Act is impoſed, for any ſuch Offence committed, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offendor, and to cauſe ſale to be made of the ſaid Goods and Chattels, if they ſhall not be redeemed within fourteen days, rendring to the party the overplus, if any be, and for want of ſufficient diſtreſſe, to impriſon the party offending till ſatisfaction be made.

Forfeitures and offences within this Act how to be determined.

CAP. XXV.

The Selling of Wines by retail, and for preventing Abuſes in the Mingling, and Corrupting of Wines, and for ſetting the prices thereof.

FOR the better Ordering of Selling of Wines by Retail in Taverns and other places, and for the preventing of Abuſes therein, Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the conſent of the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty one, unleſs he or they be authorized and enabled in manner and form as in this preſent Act is preſcribed and appointed, ſhall ſell or utter by retail, that is, by the Pint, Quart, Pottle or Gallon, or by any other greater or leſſer retail meaſure, any kind of wine or wines to be drunk or ſpent within his or their Manſion-houſe, or houſes, or ſuch other place in his or their tenure or occupation, or without ſuch Manſion-houſe or houſes, or ſuch other place in his or their tenure or occupation, by any colour, craft or mean whatſoever, upon pain to forfeit for every ſuch offence the ſum of five pounds; the one moyety of every ſuch penalty to be to our Soveraign Lord the King, the other moyety to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, bill, plaint, or Information, in any of the Kings Courts of Record, in which Action or ſuit, no eſſoign, Wager of Law or Protection ſhall be allowed.

The penalty of unlawful uttering wine by retail.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for his Majeſty, his Heirs and ſucceſſors, from time to time, to iſſue out under His or their Great Seal of England, one or more Commiſſion or Commiſſions directed to two or more perſons, thereby Authorizing them to licence and give Authority to ſuch perſon or perſons as they ſhall think fit to ſell and utter by retail, all and every, or any kind of Wine or Wines whatſoever, to be drunk and ſpent, as well within the houſe or houſes, or other place in the tenure or occupation of the party ſo licenced, as without, in any city, town or other place within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of VVales, and Town and Port of Berwick upon Tweed; and ſuch perſons as from time to time, or at any time hereafter ſhall be by ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions, as aforeſaid in that behalf appointed, ſhall have power and authority, and hereby have power and authority to treat and contract for licence, authority and diſpenſations to be given and granted to any perſon or perſons for the ſelling and uttering of Wines by retail in any City, Town or other place as aforeſaid, according to the rules and directions of this preſent Act, and the true intent and meaning thereof, and not otherwiſe, any Law, Statute, Uſage, or Cuſtome to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

His Majeſty may iſſue out Commiſſions to licenſe the uttering wine.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That ſuch perſons as ſhall be Commiſſioned and appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and be called His Majeſties Agents for granting Licences for the ſelling and Uttering of wine by retail; And his Majeſties ſaid Agents are hereby authorized and enabled under their ſeal of office, the ſame to be appointed by his Majeſty, to grant Licence for the ſelling and uttering of Wines by retail to any perſon or perſons, and for any time or term not exceeding 21 years, if ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall ſo long live; And for ſuch yearly rent as they can or ſhall agree, and think fit, ſo as no Fine be taken for the ſame; But that the rent and ſums of money agreed upon and reſerved be paid and anſwered half yearly by equal portions during the whole Term.

His Majeſties Agents for granting wine Licenſes, may grant Licenſes not exceeding 21 years, if the perſon ſo long live.

Rent reſerved, but no fine to be taken.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Licence ſhall not be given or granted, but to ſuch who ſhall perſonally uſe the Trade of ſelling or uttering of wines by retail, or to the Landlord and owner of the houſe where the perſon uſing ſuch Trade ſhall ſel and utter Wine by retail; nor ſhall the ſame be aſſignable, nor in any wiſe beneficial or extenſive, to indemnify any perſon againſt the penalties of this preſent Act, except the firſt taker.

Licenſes only to ſuch as perſonally uſe the Trade.

Wine Licenſes not aſſignable.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for his Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, to conſtitute and appoint ſuch, and ſo many other Officers and Miniſters as a Receiver, Regiſter, Clerk, Controller, Meſſengers, or the like for the better carrying on of this ſervice, as he and they ſhall think fit, ſo as the Salaries and Wages of all ſuch Officers to be appointed, together with the Salary or wages of his Majeſties ſaid Agents, do not exceed ſix pence in the pound of the revenue that ſhall hence ariſe.

The King may appoint Officers as he ſhall think fit.

Not exceeding ſix pence in the pound for their ſalaries.

And be it further Enacted by authority aforeſaid, That the Rents, Revenues, and ſums of money hence ariſing, except what ſhall be allowed for the Wages and Salaries of ſuch officers and Miniſters, which is not to exceed ſix pence out of every pound thereof, ſhall be duly and conſtantly paid and anſwered into his Majeſties Receipt of Exchequer, and ſhall not be particularly charged or chargeable, either before it be paid into the Exchequer, or after, with any gift, or Penſion. And his Majeſties ſaid Agents are hereby enjoyned and Proviſo for the two Univerſities and their priviledges.

Provided alwaies, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe be prejudicial to the priviledg of the two Univerſities of this Land, or either of them, nor to the Chancellors or Scholars of the ſame, or their Succeſſors; but that they may uſe and enjoy ſuch priviledges as heretofore they have lawfully uſed and enjoyed, any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Society of the Vintners of London.

Provided alſo, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to be prejudicial to the Maſter, Wardens, Freemen and Commonalty of the Myſtery of Vintners of the City of London, or to any other City or Town Corporate, but that they may uſe and enjoy ſuch Liberties and Priviledges as heretofore they have lawfully uſed and enjoyed any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Burrough of St. Albans.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any thing therein contained ſhall not in any wiſe extend to debar or hinder the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Burrough of St. Albans in the County of Hertford, or their Succeſſors, from enjoying, uſing and exerciſing of all ſuch Liberties, powers, and Authorities to them heretofore granted by ſeveral Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, by Queen Elizabeth, and King James of famous memories, for the erecting, appointing, and Licencing of three ſeveral Wine-Taverns within the Burrough aforeſaid, for and towards the maintenance of the Free-School there; but that the ſame Liberties, Powers, and Authorities ſhall be, and are hereby eſtabliſhed and confirmed, and ſhall remain and continue in and to the ſaid Mayor and Burgeſſes, and their Succeſſors, to and for the charitable uſe aforeſaid, and according to the tenor of the Letters Patents aforeſaid, as though this Act had never been made, any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Fees of the Officers.

Provided alſo, That it ſhall not, nor may be lawful to or for any officer or officers to be appointed by his Majeſty for the carrying on of this ſervice, to take, demand, or receive any Fees, Rewards, or ſums of money whatſoever, for in reſpect of this Service, other then five ſhillings for a Licence, four pence for an Acquittance, and ſix pence for a Bond, under the penalty of ten pounds, one moyety thereof to the Kings Majeſty, the other moyety to the perſon or perſons who ſhall ſue for the ſame, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no Wager of Law, Eſſoign, or Protection ſhall be allowed, any thing herein, or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

There ſhall be no mixture of other Wines or things.

And it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Merchant, Vintner, Wine-Cooper or other perſon, ſelling or retailing any Wine, ſhall mingle or utter any Spaniſh Wine mingled with any French Wine, or Rheniſh Wine, Syder, Perry, Honey, Sugar, Syrups of Sugar, Molaſſes, or any other Syrups whatſoever, nor put in any Iſinglaſs, Brimſtone, Lime, Raiſins, Juice of Raiſins, Water, nor any other Liquor nor Ingredients nor any Clary, or other herb, nor any ſort of fleſh whatſoever; And that no Merchant, Vintner, Wine-Cooper, or other perſon ſelling or retailing any Wine, ſhall mingle or utter any French Wines mingled with any Rheniſh Wines or Spaniſh Wines, Syder, Perry, Stummed Wine, Vitriol, Honey, Sugar, Syrup of Sugar, Molaſſes, or any Syrups whatſoever, nor put in any Iſinglaſs, Brimſtone, Lime, Raiſins, Juice of Raiſins, water, nor any other Liquor or Ingredients, nor any Clary, or other herb, nor any ſort of fleſh whatſoever; And that no Merchant, Vintner, Wine-Cooper, or other perſon ſelling or retailing any wine, ſhall mingle or utter any Rheniſh-Wine mingled with any French Wines, or Spaniſh Wines, Syder, Perry, Stummed Wine, Vitriol, Honey, Sugar, Syrups of Sugar, Molaſſes, or any other Syrups whatſoever, nor put in any Iſinglaſs, Brimſtone, Lime, Raiſins, Juice of Raiſins, Water, nor any other Liquor or Ingredients nor any Clary or herb, nor any ſort of fleſh whatſoever: And that all and every perſon and perſons committing any of the offences aforeſaid, ſhall incur the pains and penalties herein after mentioned;

The penalties of mingling or abuſing any Wines.

That is to ſay, every Merchant, Wine-Cooper, or other perſon ſelling any ſort of Wines in groſs, mingled or abuſed as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch offence, one hundred pounds; And that every Vintner or other perſon ſelling any ſorts of Wine by retail, mingled or abuſed as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every ſuch offence, the ſum of Forty pounds; of which forfeitures one moyety ſhall go unto the Kings Majeſty, his heirs and Succeſſors, the other moyety to the Informer, to be recovered in any Court of Record by Action of Debt, bill, Plaint, or Information, wherein no eſſoin, protection, or Wager of law ſhall be allowed.

The Attainder of ſeveral perſons Guilty of the Horrid Murther of His late Sacred Majeſty King CHARLES the Firſt.

In all humble manner ſhew unto your moſt excellent Majeſty, your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Lords and Commons in Parliament Aſſembled, That the Horrid and Execrable Murther of your Majeſties Royal Father, our late moſt Gracious Soveraign Charles the Firſt, of ever bleſſed and glorious Memory, hath been committed by a party of wretched men, deſperately wicked, and hardned in their Impiety, who having firſt plotted and contrived the ruine and deſtruction of this excellent Monarchy, and with it, of the true Reformed Proteſtant Religion which had been ſo long protected by it and flouriſhed under it, found it neceſſary in order to the carrying on of their pernicious and traiterous deſigns, to throw down all the Bulwarks and Fences of Law, and to ſubvert the very being and conſtitution of Parliament, that ſo they might at laſt make their way open for any further attempts upon the Sacred Perſon of his Majeſty himſelf; And that for the more eaſie effecting thereof, they did firſt ſeduce ſome part of the then Army into a compliance, and then kept the reſt in ſubjection to them, partly for hopes of preferment, and chiefly for fear of loſing their imployments and arrears; until by theſe, and other more odious arts and devices, they had fully ſtrengthened themſelves both in power and faction; which being done, they did declare againſt all manner of Treaties with the Perſon of the King, even then while a Treaty by Advice of both Houſes of Parliament was in being, Remonſtrate againſt the Houſes of Parliament for ſuch proceedings, ſeize upon his Royal Perſon while the Commiſſioners were returned to the Houſe of Parliament with his Anſwer; and when his Conceſſions had been Voted a ground for peace, ſeize upon the Houſe of Commons, ſeclude and impriſon ſome Members, force out others, and there being left but a ſmall remnant of their own Creatures (not a tenth part of the whole) did ſeek to ſhelter themſelves by this weak pretence, under the name and authority of a Parliament, and in that name laboured to proſecute what was yet behind and unfiniſhed of their long intended Treaſon and Conſpiracy; To this purpoſe they prepared an Ordinance for erecting a prodigious and unheard of Tribunal, which they called An High Court of Juſtice, for Tryal of his Majeſty; and having eaſily procured it to paſs in their Houſe of Commons, as it then ſtood moulded, ventured to ſend it up from thence to the Peers then ſitting, who totally rejected it; whereupon their rage and fury increaſing, they preſume to paſs it alone, as an Act of the Commons, and in the name of the Commons of England; and having gained the pretence of Law, made by a power of their own making, purſue it with all poſſible force and cruelty, until at laſt, upon the thirtieth day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and eight, His Sacred Majeſty was brought unto a Scaffold, and there publickly Murthered before the Gates of his own Royal Palace; And becauſe by this Horrid Action the Proteſtant Religion hath received the greateſt wound and reproach, and the people of England the moſt unſupportable ſhame and infamy that was poſſible for the enemies of God and the King to bring upon us, whilſt the Fanatick Rage of a few Miſcreants (who were as far from being true Proteſtants, as they were from being true Subjects, ſtands imputed by our Adverſaries to the whole Nation; We therefore your Majeſties ſaid dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Lords and Commons in Parliament Aſſembled, do hereby renounce, abominate, and proteſt againſt that Impious Fact, the Execrable Murther, and moſt unparallel'd Treaſon committed againſt the Sacred Perſon and Life of our ſaid late Soveraign, your Majeſties moſt Royal Father, and all proceedings tending thereunto; and do beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be declared, That by the undoubted and Fundamental Laws of this Kingdom, neither the Peers of this Realm, nor the Commons, nor both together in Parliament, nor the people collectively or repreſentatively, nor any other perſons whatſoever had, have, hath, or ought to have, any Coercive power over the perſons of the Kings of this Realm; And for the better vindication of our ſelves to poſterity, and as a laſting Monument of our otherwiſe inexpreſſible deteſtation and abhorrency of this villanous and abominable Fact, We do further beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be enacted, And be it hereby enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That every thirtieth day of January, unleſs it falls out to be upon the Lords day, and then the next day following, ſhall be for ever hereafter ſet apart to be kept and obſerved in all the Churches and Chappels of theſe your Majeſties Kingdoms of England and Ireland, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and the Iſles of Jerſey and Guernſey, and all other your Majeſties Dominions, as an Anniverſary day of Faſting and Humiliation, to implore the Mercy of God, that neither the guilt of that Sacred and Innocent Blood, nor thoſe other ſins by which God was provoked to deliver up both us and our King into the hands of cruel and unreaſonable men, may at any time hereafter be viſited upon us or our poſterity. And whereas Oliver Cromwel deceaſed, Henry Ireton deceaſed, John Bradſhaw deceaſed, and Thomas Pride deceaſed, John Liſle, William Say, Sir Hardreſs Waller, Valentine Wauton, Thomas Harriſon, Edward Whalley, William Heveningham, Iſaac Penington, Henry Martin, John Barkſtead, Gilbert Millington, Edmund Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, Robert Titchbourn, Owen Row, Robert Lilburn, Adrian Scroop, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, John Carew, John Jones, Miles Corbet, Henry Smith, Gregory Clement, Thomas Wogan, Edmond Harvey, Thomas Scot, William Cawley, John Downs, Nicholas Love, Vincent Potter, Auguſtine Garland, John Dixwel, George Fleetwood, Simon Meyn, James Temple, Peter Temple, Daniel Blagrave, Thomas Wayte, John Cook, Andrew Broughton, Edward Dendy, William Hewlet, Hugh Peters, Francis Hacker, Daniel Axtel, are notoriouſly known to have been wicked and active Inſtruments in the proſecution and compaſſing that Trayterous Murther of his late Majeſty; for which the ſaid Sir Hardreſs Waller, Thomas Harriſon, William Heveningham, Iſaac Penington, Henry Martin, Gilbert Millington, Robert Titchbourn, Owen Row, Robert Lilbourn, Adrian Seroop, John Carew, John Jones, Henry Smith, Gregory Clement, Edmond Harvy, Thomas Scot, John Downs, Vincent Potter, Auguſtine Garland, George Fleetwood, Simon Meyne, James Temple, Peter Temple, Thomas Wayte, John Cook, William Hewlet, Hugh Peters, Francis Hacker, and Daniel Axtel, have already received their Tryal at Law, and by Verdict, or their own Confeſſion, have been convicted, and by Judgment of Law thereupon had, do now ſtand duly and legally attainted; of whom, ten perſons, that is to ſay, Thomas Harriſon, Adrian Scroop, John Carew, John Jones, Thomas Scot, Gregory Clement, John Cook, Hugh Peters, Francis Hacker, and Daniel Axtel, have moſt deſervedly ſuffered the pains of death, and been executed according to Law; and the ſaid John Liſle, William Say, Valentine Wauton, Edward Whalley, John Barkſtead, Edmond Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, Miles Corbet, William Cawley, Nicholas Love, John Dixwell, Daniel Blagrave, Andrew Broughton, and Edward Dendy, are fled from Juſtice, not daring to abide a Legal Tryal: May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, That the ſaid Oliver Cromwel deceaſed, Henry Ireton deceaſed, John Bradſhaw deceaſed, and Thomas Pride deceaſed, ſhall by vertue of this Act, be Adjudged to be Convicted and Attainted of High Treaſon, to all intents and purpoſes, as if they, and every of them reſpectively, had been Attainted in their lives: And alſo that John Liſle, William Say, Valentine Wauton, Edward Whalley, John Barkſtead, Edmond Ludlow, Sir Michael Liveſey, John Okey, John Hewſon, William Goffe, Cornelius Holland, Thomas Challoner, William Cawley, Miles Corbet, Nicholas Love, John Dixwell, Daniel Blagrave, Andrew Broughton, Edward Dendy, and every of them, ſtand and be adjudged, and by Authority of this preſent Act Convicted and Attainted of High Treaſon; CAP. XXXIV.

The Planting, Setting, or Sowing of Tobacco in England and Ireland prohibited.

YOur Majeſties Loyal and Obedient Subjects, The Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, conſidering of how great concern and importance it is, That the Colonies and Plantations of this Kingdom in America, be defended, protected, maintained, and kept up, and that all due and poſſible encouragement be given unto them; and that not only in regard great and conſiderable Dominions and Countries have been thereby gained, and added to the Imperial Crown of this Realm; But for that the ſtrength and welfare of this Kingdom do very much depend upon them, in regard of the employment of a very conſiderable part of its Shipping and Seamen, and of the vent of very great quantities of its Native Commodities and Manufactures; as alſo of its ſupply, with ſeveral Commodities which it was wont formerly to have only from Foreigners, and at far dearer Rates: And foraſmuch as Tobacco is one of the main products of ſeveral of thoſe Plantations, and upon which their Welfare and Subſiſtence, and the Navigation of this Kingdom, and vent of its Commodities thither, do much depend; and in regard it is found by experience, That the Tobaccoes planted in theſe parts are not ſo good and wholſome for the Takers thereof; And that by the planting thereof, your Majeſty is deprived of a conſiderable part of your Revenue ariſing by Cuſtoms upon Imported Tobacco; Do moſt humbly pray, That it may be Enacted by your Majeſty: And it is hereby Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, and the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall, or do from and after the firſt day of January, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, Set, Plant, improve to grow, make or cure any Tobacco either in Seed, Plant, or otherwiſe, in or upon any Ground, Earth, Field, or place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, Iſlands of Guernſey or Jerſey or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or in the Kingdom of Ireland, under the penalty of the Forfeiture of all ſuch Tobacco, or the value thereof, or of the ſum of forty ſhillings for every Rod or Pole of Ground ſo Planted, ſet or Sowen as aforeſaid; and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity of Ground, one moyety thereof to His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors; And the other moyety to him or them that ſhall Sue for the ſame, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or Information in any Court of Record, wherein no Eſſoigne, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

Importance of the Plantations of America.

No perſon after the 1. January, 1660. ſhall ſet or plant any Tobacco.

The penalty.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That all Sheriffs, Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, Bailiffs, Conſtables, and every of them, upon Information or Complaint made unto them, or any of them, by any the Officers of the Cuſtoms, or by any other perſon or perſons whatſoever, That there is any Tobacco ſet, ſowen, planted, or growing within their Juriſdictions or Precincts, contrary to this Act, ſhall within ten dayes after ſuch Information or Complaint, cauſe to be burnt, plucked up, conſumed, or utterly deſtroyed, all ſuch Tobacco ſo ſet, ſowen, planted or growing.

All Sheriffs and other officers may deſtroy any Tobacco planted contrary to this Act.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall reſiſt, or make forcible Oppoſition againſt any perſon or perſons in the due and through Execution of this Act, that every ſuch perſon or perſons, for every ſuch Offence, ſhall forfeit the ſum of five pounds to be divided and recovered in manner aforeſaid. And in caſe any perſon or perſons ſhall not pay the ſums of money by them to be paid, by vertue of this Act, That in every ſuch caſe, Diſtreſs ſhall be made, and Sale thereof, returning the Over-plus to the Owners; And in caſe no Diſtreſs be to be found, That then every ſuch party ſhall be committed to the Common Gaol in the County where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, there to remain for the ſpace of two moneths, without bail or mainprize.

The penalty of any perſon reſiſting this Act.

Provided alwayes, and it is hereby Enacted, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to the hindring of the planting of Tobacco in any Phyſick-Garden of either Univerſity, or in any other private Garden for Phyſick or Chirurgery, only ſo as the quantity ſo planted exceed not one half of one Pole in any one Place or Garden. Stat. 13 Car. 2. cap. 14.

Proviſo, for private Gardens.

CAP. XXXV.

A Poſt-Office erected and eſtabliſhed.

The well ordering of poſtage and letters of great concernment to Trade.

VVhereas for the maintenance of mutual Correſpondencies, and prevention of many Inconveniencies happening by private poſts, ſeveral publick Poſt-Offices have been heretofore erected for carrying and recarrying of Letters by poſts, to, and from all parts and places within England, Scotland and Ireland, and ſeveral parts beyond the Seas; the well Ordering whereof is a matter of general concernment, and of great advantage, as well for preſervation of Trade and Commerce, as otherwiſe: To the end therefore, that the ſame may be managed ſo, that ſpeedy and ſafe diſpatches may be had, which is moſt likely to be effected, by erecting one general Poſt-Office for that purpoſe;

A Letter-office erected in London.

A maſter of the Office to be appointed by the King. Poſt-maſter General.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That there be from henceforth one general Letter-Office erected and eſtabliſhed in ſome convenient place within the City of London, from whence all Letters and pacquets whatſoever may be with ſpeed and expedition ſent unto any part of the Kingdomes of England, Scotland and Ireland, or any other of his Majeſties Dominions, or unto any Kingdom or Country beyond the Seas, at which ſaid Office all Returns and Anſwers may be likewiſe received; And that one Maſter of the ſaid general Letter-Office ſhall be from time to time appointed by the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to be made and conſtituted by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, by the Name and Stile of his Majeſties Poſt-Maſter General; which ſaid Maſter of the ſaid Office, and his Deputy and Deputies, by him thereunto ſufficiently authoriſed, and his and their Servants and Agents, and no other perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall from time to time have the receiving, taking up, ordering, diſpatching, ſending poſt or with ſpeed, and delivering of all Letters and pacquets whatſoever, which ſhall from time to time be ſent to and from all and every the parts and places of England, Scotland and Ireland, and other his Majeſties Dominions, and to and from all and every the Kingdomes and Countries beyond the Seas, where he ſhall ſettle or cauſe to be ſetled poſts or running Meſſengers for that purpoſe. Except ſuch Letters as ſhall be ſent by Coaches, common known Carriers of Goods by Carts, Waggons or Packhorſes, and ſhall be carried along with their Carts, Waggons and Packhorſes reſpectively; And except Letters of Merchants and Maſters which ſhall be ſent by any Maſters of any Ships, Barques, or other Veſſel of Merchandize, or by any other perſon imployed by them for the carriage of ſuch Letters aforeſaid, according to the reſpective directions; And alſo except Letters to be ſent by any private Friend or Friends in their wayes of Journey or Travel, or by any Meſſenger or Meſſengers ſent on purpoſe, for or concerning the private affairs of any perſon or perſons: And alſo except Meſſengers who carry and recarry Commiſſions, or the Return thereof, Affidavits, Writs, Proceſſe or Proceedings, or the Returns thereof, iſſuing out of any Court.

The Poſt-maſter General and no other to provide Horſes for riding poſt.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Poſt-Maſter General for the time being, as ſhall from time to time be made and conſtituted by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the reſpective Deputies, or Subſtitutes of ſuch Poſt-Maſter General, and no other perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall prepare and provide Horſes and Furniture to let to Hire unto all Through poſts, and perſons riding in poſt by Commiſſion, or without, to and from all and every the parts and places of England, Scotland and Ireland, where any poſt-roads are, or ſhall be ſetled and eſtabliſhed.

Rates for carrying Letters.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Poſt-Maſter General to be conſtituted and appointed as aforeſaid, and his Deputy and Deputies by him thereunto ſufficiently authorized, to demand, have, receive and take for the portage and conveyance of all ſuch Letters which he ſhall ſo convey, carry or ſend poſt as aforeſaid, and for the providing and furniſhing Horſes for Through-poſts, or perſons riding in poſt as aforeſaid, according to the ſeveral Rates and Sums of Lawful Engliſh money hereafter mentioned, not to exceed the ſame (that is to ſay), For the port of every Letter not exceeding one ſheet, to or from any place not exceeding fourſcore Engliſh miles diſtant from the place where ſuch Letter ſhall be received, Two pence; And for the like port of every Letter not exceeding two ſheets, Four pence; And for the like port of every pacquet of Letters proportionably unto the ſaid Rates; And for the like port of every pacquet of Writs, Deeds, and other things, after the Rate of Eight pence for every ounce weight; and for the port of every Letter not exceeding one ſheet, above the diſtance of fourſcore Engliſh miles from the place where the ſame ſhall be received, Three pence; And for the like port of a Letter, not exceeding two ſheets, Six pence; and proportionably to the ſame Rates, for the like port of all pacquets of Letters, and for the like port of every other pacquet of Writs, Deeds, or other things, after the rate of Twelve pence of Engliſh money for every ounce weight; and for the port of every Letter not exceeding one ſheet, from London unto the Town of Berwick, or from thence to the City of London, Three pence of Engliſh money; And for the like port of every Letter not exceeding two ſheets, Six pence; and proportionably unto the ſame rates, for every pacquet of Letters, and for every other pacquet of greater bulk, One ſhilling and Six pence for every ounce weight; And for the port of ſuch Letters and pacquets as ſhall be conveyed or carried from the Town of Berwick unto any place or places within forty Engliſh miles diſtance from Berwick, or any other place where ſuch Letter ſhall be received, Two pence; and for every Letter not exceeding Two ſheets, Four pence; and proportionably to the ſame rates for every pacquet of Letters, and for every other pacquet or parcel, Eight pence for every ounce weight; and for every Letter not exceeding one ſheet, to be conveyed or carryed a further diſtance then Forty Engliſh miles, Four pence; and for the like port of every pacquet of Letters, Eight pence: and proportionably unto the ſame Rates for the like port of every pacquet of Letters, and for the like port of every other pacquet, One ſhilling for every ounce weight; and for the port of every Letter not exceeding one ſheet from England unto the City of Dublin in Ireland, or from the City of Dublin in Ireland unto England, Six pence of Engliſh money; and for the like port of every Letter not exceeding two ſheets, one ſhilling, and proportionably to the ſame rates for every pacquet of Letters, and for the port of every other pacquet of any kind of greater Bulk, Two ſhillings for every ounce weight; and for the port of ſuch Letters or Pacquets as ſhall be conveyed or carryed from the City of Dublin, unto any other place or places within the Kingdom of Ireland, or from any other place unto the ſaid City, or to, or from any other place within the ſaid Kingdom, according to the rates and ſums of Engliſh money hereafter following, viz. For every Letter not exceeding one ſheet, to or from any place within forty Engliſh Miles diſtance from Dublin, or any other place where ſuch Letter ſhall be received, Two pence; And for every Letter not exceeding two ſheets, Four pence; and proportionably to the ſame Rates for every pacquet of Letters, and for every pacquet of greater Bulk, Eight pence for every ounce weight; and for every Letter not exceeding one ſheet, to be carryed or conveyed a further diſtance then forty Engliſh miles, Four pence; and for the like Port of every Letter not exceeding two ſheets, Eight pence; and proportionably unto the ſame Rates for the like Port of every pacquet of Letters, and for the like Port of every pacquet of greater Bulk, One ſhilling for every ounce weight; and for all and every the Letters, Pacquets, and parcels of Goods that ſhall be carried or conveyed to or from any of his Majeſties ſaid Dominions to or from any other parts or places beyond the Seas, according to the ſeveral and reſpective Rates that now are, and have been taken for Letters, Pacquets, and parcels ſo conveyed, being rated either by the Letter, or by the ounce weight, That is to ſay, Proviſo for Merchants.

Provided alwayes, That all Merchants Accompts not exceeding one ſheet of paper, and all bills of Exchange, Invoyes, and bills of Lading, are, and ſhall hereby be underſtood to be allowed without Rate in the price of the Letters, and likewiſe the covers of Letters not exceeding one fourth part of a ſheet of paper ſent to Marſeilles, Venice or Legorne, to be ſent forward to Turky, ſhall be underſtood to be allowed to paſſe without rate or payment for the ſame; and according to the ſame rates and proportions for the port of Letters, pacquets and parcels to and from any of the parts or places beyond the Seas, where Poſts have not been heretofore ſetled, and may hereafter be ſetled by the ſaid Poſt-Maſter General for the time being, his Executors or Aſſigns: And it ſhall and may be lawfull ts and for ſuch Poſt-Maſter General, and his Deputy and Deputies, to ask, demand, take and receive of every perſon that he or they ſhall furniſh and provide with Horſes, Furniture and Guide to ride Poſt in any of the Poſt-rodes as aforeſaid, Three pence of Engliſh money for each Horſes Hire or Poſtage for every Engliſh mile, and four pence for the Guide for every Stage. And whereas upon the arrival of Ships from parts beyond the Seas into ſeveral Ports within his Majeſties Dominions, many Letters directed to ſeveral Merchants and others, have been detained long to the great damage of the Merchants, in want of that ſpeedy advice and intelligence which they might have had if the ſame had been forthwith diſpatched by the ſetled Poſts; and ſometimes ſuch Letters have been delivered by the Maſters or Paſſengers of ſuch Ships to ignorant and looſe hands, that underſtand not the way and means of ſpeedy conveyance and delivery of Letters, whereby great prejudice hath accrued to the affairs of Merchants and others, as well by the miſcarriage of many Letters ſo brought, as oftentimes by the opening of the ſame to the diſcovery of the Correſpondencies and ſecrets of the Merchant.

Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Letters and Pacquets that by any Maſter of any Ship or Veſſel, or any of his Company, or any Paſſengers therein, ſhall or may be brought to any Port-Town within his Majeſties Dominions, or any of the Members thereof, other then ſuch Letters as are before excepted, or may be ſent by common known Carriers in manner aforeſaid, or by a Friend as aforeſaid; ſhall by ſuch Maſter, Paſſenger, or other perſon be forthwith delivered unto the Deputy or Deputies only of the ſaid Poſt-Maſter General for the time being, by him appointed for the ſaid Port-Town, and him or them to be ſent poſt unto the ſaid general Poſt-Office, to be delivered according to the ſeveral and reſpective directions of the ſame.

Penalties of offending againſt this Act

And be it further Enacted by the aforeſaid Authority, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, or Body politick or corporate other then ſuch Poſt-Maſter General as ſhall from time to time be nominated and appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, and conſtituted by Letters Patents under the great Seal of England as aforeſaid, and his Deputy and Deputies or Aſſigns, ſhall preſume to carry, recarry, and deliver Letters for Hire, other then as before excepted, or to ſet up or imploy any Foot-poſt, Horſe-poſt, Coach-poſt, or pacquet-Boat whatſoever for the conveyance, carrying and recarrying of any Letters or pacquets by Sea or Land within his Majeſties Dominions, or ſhall provide and maintain Horſes and Furniture for the horſing of any Thorow-poſts, or perſons riding in poſt with a Guide and Horn, as uſual for Hire, upon pain of Forfeiting the ſum of five pounds of Engliſh money for every ſeveral offence againſt the Tenor of this preſent Act, And alſo for the forfeiture of the ſum of One hundred pound of like Engliſh money for every weeks time that any Offendor againſt this Act, ſhall imploy, maintain and continue any ſuch Foot-poſt, Horſe-poſt, Coach-poſt or pacquet-Boat as aforeſaid: which ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Forfeitures, ſhall, and may be ſued for, and recovered by Action or Actions of Debt, Plaint or Information in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoine, Priviledge, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be admitted, and the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective forfeitures that ſhall happen from time to time to be recovered, ſhall be and remain, the one moyety thereof to his Majeſty, and his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons who ſhall or will inform againſt the Offendor or Offendors againſt this preſent Act, and ſhall or will ſue for the ſaid forfeitures upon the ſame, Proviſo where any Poſt-maſter doth not provide.

Provided alwayes, That if any Poſt-Maſter of any reſpective place, doth not, or cannot furniſh any perſon or perſons riding in poſt with ſufficient Horſes within the ſpace of one half hour after demand, That then ſuch perſon or perſons are here underſtood to be left at liberty to provide themſelves, as conveniently as they can; And the perſons who ſhall furniſh ſuch horſes ſhall not therefore be liable unto any penalties or forfeitures contained in this Act.

Proviſo touching Poſt-maſters that do not ſufficiently provide horſes, &c.

Provided always, That if through default or neglect of the Poſt-Maſter General aforeſaid, any perſon or perſons riding in poſt ſhall fail, as aforeſaid, of being furniſhed with a ſufficient Horſe or Horſes, for his or their uſe, after demand as aforeſaid; That in every ſuch caſe, the ſaid Poſt-Maſter General ſhall forfeit the ſum of Five pounds ſterling, the one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or other Information, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or other Wager in Law ſhall be admitted.

Proviſo.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That nothing herein contained ſhall be underſtood to prohibit the carrying or recarrying of any Letters or Pacquets, to or from any Town or place, to or from the next reſpective Poſt-Road, or Stage appointed for that purpoſe; But that every perſon ſhall have free Liberty to ſend and imploy ſuch perſons as they ſhall think fit, for to carry the ſaid Letters or Pacquets as aforeſaid without any forfeiture or penalty therefore, Any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo againſt carrying any pacquet out of England in any foreign Veſſels.

Provided always, That if the Pacquet or Maile ſhall be carried out of England into any part beyond the Seas in any Ship or Veſſel, which is not of Engliſh built, and Navigated with Engliſh Seamen, That in every ſuch caſe, the ſaid Poſt-Maſter General ſhall forfeit the ſum of one hundred pounds Sterling; The one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them who ſhall ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or other Information, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or other Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be capable of having, uſing, or exerciſing the Office of Poſt-Maſter General, or any other Imployment relating to the ſaid Office, unleſs he or they ſhall firſt take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, before any two Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective Counties wherein ſuch perſon or perſons are or ſhall be reſident, which ſaid Juſtices are hereby Authorized to adminiſter the ſaid Oaths accordingly.

Proviſo, Truro. Penrin, Kendall, Lancaſter, Penrith, Carliſle, Grimsby.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That a Letter or pacquet poſt ſhall twice every week come by the way of Truro and Penrin to the Town of Marketiew alias Marhaſion in the County of Cornwall; and once a week to Kendal by the way of Lancaſter; and to the Town of Penrith in Cumberland by the way of Newcaſtle and Carliſle; and to the City of Lincoln, and the Burrough of Grimsby in the County of Lincoln, Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch Poſt maſter General to be from time to time appointed by his Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors as aforeſaid, ſhall continue conſtant Poſts for carriage of Letters to all places, though they lye out of the Poſt-Roads, as hath been uſed for the ſpace of three years laſt paſt, at the Rates herein before mentioned, under pain of forfeiture for every omiſſion Five pounds, to be recovered by Action, Suit or Plaint, in any his Majeſties Courts of Record, the one moyety to the uſe of his Majeſty, the other moyety to the uſe of the Informer. And for the better management of the ſaid Poſt-Office, and that the People of theſe Kingdomes may have their intercourſe of Commerce and Trade the better maintained, and their Letters and Adviſes conveyed, carried and recarried with the greateſt ſpeed, ſecurity, and convenience that may be;

Poſt maſter to continue conſtant poſts. Penalty for every omiſſion.

Be it further Enacted, That the ſaid Poſt-Maſter General ſo nominated, appointed and conſtituted as aforeſaid, and his Deputies, ſhall from time to time obſerve and follow ſuch Orders, Rules, Directions and Inſtructions for and concerning the ſettlement of convenient Poſts and Stages upon the ſeveral Roads in England, Scotland and Ireland, and other his Majeſties Dominions, and the providing and keeping of a ſufficient number of Horſes at the ſaid ſeveral Stages, as well for the carrying and conveying of the ſaid Letters and Pacquets, as for the horſing of all thorow-poſts and perſons riding in poſt by warrant or otherwiſe as aforeſaid, as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall from time to time in that behalf make and ordain; And that his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may grant the ſaid Office of Poſt-maſter General, together with the Powers and Authorities thereunto belonging, and the ſeveral Rates of portage above mentioned, and all Profits, Priviledges, Fees, Perquiſites and Emoluments thereunto belonging, or to belong, either for life or term of years, not exceeding one and twenty years, to ſuch perſon or perſons, and under ſuch Covenants, Conditions and yearly Rents to his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, reſerved, as his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors ſhall from time to time think fit for the beſt advantage and benefit of the Kingdom.

The Poſt-maſter, &c. to obſerve ſuch orders as his Majeſty ſhall make.

His Majeſty may grant the ſaid office for life or years, not exceeding 21 years.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon ſhall have power to take, uſe, or ſeize any Horſes for the Service mentioned in this Act, without the conſent of the Owners thereof; Any Uſage or Pretence, or any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

No horſes to be ſeized without conſent of the owners.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Inland Letters ſent by any Pacquet Poſt eſtabliſhed by this Act as aforeſaid, do and ſhall pay the rates and prices before mentioned, at ſuch Stage where they are laſt delivered only, unleſs the party that delivers the Letters deſireth to pay elſewhere; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. Provided alwayes, That all Letters, and other things, may be ſent or conveyed to or from the Two Univerſities in manner as heretofore hath been uſed; Any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding. An Act for making the Precinct of Covent-Garden Parochial. PR.

Anno Reg. CAROLI II. Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ,& Hiberniæ, Decimo Tertio.

AT the Parliament begun and holden at Weſtminſter the Eight day of May, Anno Dom. 1661. In the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of Our moſt gracious Soveraign Lord, CHARLES the Second, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. And there continued untill Tueſday the Thirtieth of July, 1661. and from that day the ſaid Parliament was adjourned unto the Twentieth of November then next following; To the high pleaſure of Almighty God, and to the weal publick of this Realm, were enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

For Safety of His Majeſties Perſon and Government, againſt Treaſonable and Seditious Practices.

The grounds and Inducements of this Act.

THe Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament deeply weighing and conſidering the Miſeries and Calamities of well nigh twenty years, before your Majeſties happy Return, and withall, reflecting upon the cauſes and occaſions of ſo great and deplorable concluſions, do in all humility and thankfulneſs acknowledge Your Majeſties incomparable Grace and Goodneſs to your People, in your Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, by which your Majeſty hath been pleaſed to deliver your Subjects, not only from the puniſhment, but alſo from the reproach of their former miſcarriages, which unexampled Piety and Clemency of Your Majeſty hath enflamed the hearts of us your Subjects with an ardent deſire to expreſs all poſſible Zeal and Duty in the Care and Preſervation of your Majeſties Perſon (in whoſe Honour and Happineſſe conſiſts the good and welfare of your People) and in preventing (as much as may be) all Treaſonable and Seditious Practices and Attempts for the time to come. And becauſe the growth and encreaſe of the late Troubles and Diſorders, did in a very great meaſure proceed from a multitude of Seditious Sermons, Pamphlets and Speeches, daily preached, printed and publiſhed, with a tranſcendent boldneſſe defaming the Perſon and Government of Your Majeſty and Your Royal Father, wherein men were too much encouraged, and (above all) from a wilful miſtake of the Supream and lawful Authority, whilſt men were forward to cry up and maintain thoſe Orders and Ordinances, Oaths and Covenants, to be Acts Legal and Warrantable, which in themſelves had not the leaſt colour of Law or Juſtice to ſupport them; from which kind of diſtempers, as the preſent Age is not yet wholly freed, ſo Poſterity may be apt to relapſe into them, if a timely remedy be not provided. We therefore, the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, having duly conſidered the premiſſes, and remembring that in the Thirteenth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth of ever bleſſed memory, a right good and profitable Law was made for preſervation of her Majeſties Perſon, Do moſt humbly beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons whatſoever, after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, during the natural life of our moſt Gracious Soveraign Lord the King, (whom Almighty God preſerve and bleſs with a long and proſperous Reign) ſhall within the Realm, or without, compaſs, imagine, invent, deviſe, or intend death or deſtruction, or any bodily harm tending to death or deſtruction, maim or wounding, impriſonment, or reſtraint of the perſon of the ſame our Soveraign Lord the King, or to deprive or depoſe him from the Stile, Honour, or Kingly Name of the Imperial Crown of this Realm, or of any other his Majeſties Dominions or Countries, or to levy War againſt his Majeſty within this Realm, or without, or to move, or ſtir any Foreigner or Strangers with Force to invade this Realm, or any other his Majeſtits Dominions or Countries, being under his Majeſties Obeyſance: And ſuch Compaſſings, Imaginations, Inventions, Devices or Intentions, or any of them, ſhall expreſs, utter or declare, by any Printing, Writing, Preaching, or Malicious and adviſed ſpeaking, being legally convicted thereof upon the Oaths of two lawful and credible Witneſſes, upon tryal, or otherwiſe convicted or attainted by due courſe of Law, then every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, ſhall be deemed, declared and adjudged to be Traytors, and ſhall ſuffer pains of death, and alſo loſe and forfeit as in caſes of High Treaſon.

Stat. 17 Car. 1. cap. 7. The Parliament begun 3. of No. 1640. not in being. Stat. 13 Car. 2. cap. 1.

No Legiſlative power in either or both Houſes of Parliament without the King.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons at any time after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of Our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, during his Majeſties Life, ſhall maliciouſly and adviſedly publiſh or affirm the King to be an Heretick or a Papiſt, or that he endeavours to introduce Popery; or ſhall maliciouſly and adviſedly, by Writing, Printing, Preaching, or other ſpeaking, expreſſe, publiſh, utter or declare any Words, Sentences, or other thing or things, to incite or ſtir up the People to hatred or diſlike of the Perſon of his Majeſty, or the eſtabliſhed Government, then every ſuch perſon and perſons, being thereof Legally convicted, ſhall be diſabled to have or enjoy, and is hereby diſabled and made incapable of having, holding, enjoying, or exerciſing any Place, Office, or Promotion Eccleſiaſtical, Civil or Military, or any other Imployment in Church or State, other then that of his Peerage, and ſhall likewiſe be lyable to ſuch further and other puniſhments as by the Common Laws or Statutes of this Realm may be inflicted in ſuch caſes. And to the end, that no man hereafter may be miſled into any ſeditious or unquiet demeanor, out of an Opinion that the Parliament begun and held at Weſtminſter, upon the third day of November, in the year of Our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and forty, is yet in being, which is undoubtedly diſſolved and determined, and ſo is hereby declared and adjudged to be fully diſſolved and determined; or out of an Opinion that there lies any Obligation upon him from any Oath, Covenant or Engagement whatſoever, to endeavour a change of Government, either in Church or State; or out of an Opinion, that both Houſes of Parliament, or either of them, have a Legiſlative Power without the King; All which Aſſertions have been ſeditiouſly maintained in ſome Pamphlets lately Printed, and are daily promoted by the active Enemies of our Peace and Happineſs.

Premunire.

The Solemn League and Covenant unlawful, and illegally impoſed; certain Orders and Ordinances of both or either Houſes of Parliament declared void.

Be it therefore further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons at any time after the Four and twentieth day of Jane, in the year of Our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, ſhall malitiouſly and adviſedly, by Writing, Printing, Preaching, or other ſpeaking, expreſs, publiſh, utter, declare or affirm, That the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter upon the Third day of November, in the year of Our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and forty, is not yet diſſolved, or is not determined, or that it ought to be in being, or hath yet any continuance or exiſtence, or that there lies any Obligation upon him, or any other perſon, from any Oath, Covenant or Engagement whatſoever, to endeavour a Change of Government, either in Church or State, or that both Houſes of Parliament, or either Houſe of Parliament, have, or that hath a Legiſlative Power without the King, or any other words to the ſame effect; That then every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, ſhall incur the danger and penalty of a Premunire mentioned in a Statute made in the Sixteenth year of the Reign of King Richard the Second. And it is hereby alſo declared, That the Oath uſually called the Solemn League and Covenant, was in it ſelf an unlawful Oath, and impoſed upon the Subjects of this Realm againſt the Fundamental Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom, and that all Orders and Ordinances, or pretended Orders and Ordinances, of both or either Houſes of Parliament, for impoſing of Oaths, Covenants or Engagements, Levying of Taxes, or Raiſing of Forces and Arms, to which the Royal aſſent, either in Perſon or by Commiſſion, was not expreſly had or given, were in the firſt creation and making, and ſtill are, and ſo ſhall be taken to be null and void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever. Provided neverthleſſe, That all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, who have been, or ſhall at any time hereafter be queſtioned for any thing acted or done by colour of any the Orders or Ordinances herein before mentioned and declared to be null and void, and are Indempnified by an Act entituled, An Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, made in the Twelfth year of His Majeſties Reign that now is, or ſhall be Indemnified by any Act of Parliament, ſhall and may make ſuch uſe of the ſaid Orders and Ordinances for their Indempnity according to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Act, and no other, as he or they might have done if this Act had not been made, any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſe, the ſaid Orders, &c. may be made uſe of according to the Act of Indempnity. Stat. 12 Car. 2. cap. 11.

Provided alwayes, That no perſon be proſecuted for any of the Offences in this Act mentioned (other then ſuch as are made and declared to be high Treaſon) unleſs it be by Order of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, under his or their Sign Manual, or by Order of the Council Table of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, directed unto the Attorney-General for the time being, or ſome other of the Council learned to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, for the time being; nor ſhall any perſon or perſons by vertue of this preſent Act incur any of the penalties herein before mentioned unleſs he or they be proſecuted within ſix moneths next after the Offence committed, and indicted thereupon within three moneths after ſuch proſecution, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No perſon to be proſecuted for any offences in this Act (other then Treaſon) unleſs by ſpecial order from his Majeſty: And within ſix moneths after the offence committed.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be indicted, arraigned, condemned, convicted or attainted for any of the Treaſons or Offences aforeſaid, unleſs the ſame Offendor or Offendors be thereof accuſed by the Teſtimony and depoſition of two lawful and credible Witneſſes upon Oath, which Witneſſes at the time of the ſaid Offendor or Offendors arraignment, ſhall be brought in perſon before him or them face to face, and ſhall openly avow and maintain upon Oath what they have to ſay againſt him or them concerning the Treaſon or Offences contained in the ſaid Indictment, unleſs the party or parties arraigned ſhall willingly without violence confeſs the ſame.

Treaſons and offences within this Act to be proved by two witneſſes viva voce, Provided likewiſe, and be it Enacted, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to deprive either of the Houſes of Parliament, or any of their Members, of their juſt ancient Freedome and Priviledge of debating any matters or buſineſs, which ſhall be propounded or debated in either of the ſaid Houſes, or at any Conferences or Committees of both or either of the ſaid Houſes of Parliament, or touching the repeal or alteration of any old, or preparing any new Laws, or the redreſſing of any publick Grievance; but that the ſaid Members of either of the ſaid Houſes, and the Aſſiſtants of the Houſe of Peers, and every of them, ſhall have the ſame freedom of ſpeech, and all other Priviledges whatſoever, as they had before the making of this Act; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo, for the Priviledg of Debates in Parliament. For repeal or alteration of Laws, or redreſſing publick Grievances.

Provided alwayes, and be it Ordained and Enacted, That no Peer of this Realm ſhall be tryed for any Offence againſt this Act, but by his Peers; And further, That every Peer who ſhall be convicted of any Offence againſt this Act, after ſuch conviction, be diſabled during his life to ſit in Parliament, unleſs his Majeſty ſhall graciouſly be pleaſed to pardon him. And if his Majeſty ſhall grant his pardon to any Peer of this Realm, or Commoner, convicted of any offence againſt this Act, after ſuch Pardon granted, the Peer or Commoner ſo pardoned, ſhall be reſtored to all intents and purpoſes, as if he had never been convicted; Any thing in this Law to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo, for Peerage and Peers.

CAP. II.

An Act of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for diſ-enabling all perſons in Holy Orders to exerciſe any Temporal Juriſdiction or Authority, Repealed.

VVhereas at the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter, the Third day of November, in the Sixteenth year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King Charles of bleſſed memory, ſince deceaſed, An Act of Parliament was made, Entituled, An Act for diſ-enabling all perſons in Holy Orders to exerciſe any Temporal Juriſdiction or Authority; Which Act hath made ſeveral alterations prejudicial to the conſtitution and ancient Rights of Parliament, and contrary to the Laws of this Land, and is by experience found otherwiſe inconvenient; Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, Entituled, An Act for diſ-enabling all perſons in holy Orders to exerciſe any Temporal Juriſdiction or Authority, and every clauſe, matter and thing therein contained, ſhall be, and is hereby from henceforth repealed, annulled, and made void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever.

Stat. 17 Car. 1. cap. 27. Rep.

CAP. III.

All ſuch Monies, Goods, and other things which were Received, Levied or Collected in theſe late Times, and are remaining in the Hands or Poſſeſſion of any Treaſurers, Receivers, Collectors, or others not pardoned by the Act of Oblivion, declared to be Veſted and ſetled in His Majeſty.

VVhereas divers Doubts have been made, whether or no the Monies, Goods, Chattels, and other things excepted to be accounted for in the Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, made and paſſed in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the Five and twentieth day of April, in the Twelfth year of your Majeſties Reign, do belong unto, and of right are in your Majeſty; for that the ſame were not levied, received, collected or taken by your Majeſties Authority, or to your Majeſties Uſe: For remedy, and clearing whereof, We the Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, and be it Declared, Enacted and Ordained by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, and by the Authority thereof, That all and every ſum

and

Goods and Monies levied ſince the 30. of Jan. 1642. and not pardoned, are veſted in his Majeſty.

Stat. 12 Car. 2. cap. 11.

and ſums of Money, Goods, Plate, Jewels, Horſes, Arms, Ammunition, and other things whatſoever, levied, received, or taken ſithence the Thirtieth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, by any of the late pretended Authorities, or by pretence or colour of any Power or Authority, derived or pretended to be derived from them or any of them, for any publick uſe, which are not pardoned by the ſaid Act, which are not otherwiſe veſted and ſetled in the Kings Majeſty, and all Bonds, Obligations, and other Securities entred into for the ſame, or any part thereof, be and are hereby veſted and ſetled in the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and that his Sacred Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may from time to time, and at all times hereafter have, demand, ſue for, and recover the ſame of all, and every perſon and perſons, their Heirs, executors, and Adminiſtrators who are accountable for the ſame, or in whoſe hands or poſſeſſions ſoever the ſame were or are, as if the ſame had been levied, received, collected, or taken in his Majeſties Name by Authority from his Majeſty, or to his Majeſties uſe, any Law, or Statute, Uſage, or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Revenues of the Churches in Wales.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon or perſons which have received any the aforeſaid ſum or ſums of money from any Treaſurer or Receiver for any publick uſe, by way of Impreſt, to be accounted for, which are not pardoned or diſcharged by the aforeſaid Act, ſhall be liable to account, and called to account in ſuch manner and form, as if they had received the ſame out of his Majeſties Exchequer, or any other publick Treaſury; and particularly thoſe perſons that have received or collected the Revenues of any Churches, or Vicarages in Wales, or in the County of Monmouth, ſince the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty eight; Provided they have all due allowances in their accounts, as all ſuch perſons whoſe accounts are excepted in the Act of Oblivion, have or ought to have.

Commiſſions for diſcovery.

And to the end his Majeſty may be the better enabled to diſcover, and ſue for all ſuch Monies, Goods and other things inveſted in his Majeſty by this Act; it is further ordained and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall and may from time to time iſſue forth ſuch, and ſo many Commiſſions, to ſuch and ſo many perſons, as his Majeſty ſhall think fit, either under the great Seal of England, or the Seal of his Majeſties exchequer, for the better diſcovering, levying, receiving, and diſcharging the ſame.

Perſons accountable enabled to ſue for and levy all arrears.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all perſons accountable to his Majeſty by this Act, ſhall have full power and Authority, and are hereby enabled to ſue for, Levy, and recover from the parties from whom the ſame was, and is due, and for which they are hereby accomptable, all ſums of Money and Arrears, in ſuch manner and form as they might have recovered and levyed the ſame when the firſt grew due; Provided this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to call any perſon to account, or to queſtion any perſon for Goods or other things remaining in his hands which ſhall not be called to account, or ſome information againſt him either in the exchequer, or Commiſſioners to be appointed as aforeſaid, before the four and twentieth of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two; and that the ſaid Information be proſecuted with effect within twelve moneths after the exhibition thereof.;

Proviſo, none to be queſtioned but upon ſome proſecution begun before the 24 of June 1662.

CAP. IV.

An Act for a free and Voluntary preſent to his Majeſty. E X P.

Proviſo, Declaring no commiſſions of this nature but by authority of Parliament.

AND be it hereby Declared, That no Commiſſions or Aids of this nature can be iſſued out or levied, but by Authority of Parliament; And that this Act and ſupply hereby granted, ſhall not be drawn into example for the time to come. 1 R. 3. ca. 2.

CAP. V

For preventing Tumults and Diſorders, upon pretence of preparing or preſenting publick Petitions, or other Addreſſes, to his Majeſty, or the Parliament.

Tumultuous and diſorderly preparing petitions, a great occaſion of the late Wars and Calamities.

WHereas it hath been found by ſad experience, that Tumultuous, and other Diſorderly ſoliciting, and procuring of Hands by private Perſons to Petitions, Complaints, Remonſtrances, and Declarations, and other Addreſſes to the King, or to both, or either Houſes of Parliament, for alteration of matters eſtabliſhed by Law, redreſs of pretended grievances in Church or State, or other publick Concernments, have been made uſe of to ſerve the ends of Factious and Seditious perſons gotten into power, to the violation of the publick Peace, and have been a great means of the late unhappy Wars, Confuſions, and Calamities in this Nation; for preventing the like miſchief for the future;

No perſon after the 1. of Aug. 1661. ſhall ſolicite or procure any petition, &c. for altering any eſtabliſhed law in Church or State.

Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the conſent of the Lords and Commons Aſſembled in Parliament, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall from and after the firſt of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, Sollicite, Labour, or procure the getting of Hands, or other Conſent of any perſons above the number of twenty, or more, to any Petition, Complaint, Remonſtrance, Declaration, or other Addreſs to the King, or both, or either Houſes of Parliament, for alteration of matters eſtabliſhed by Law in Church or State, unleſs the matter thereof have been firſt conſented unto, and ordered by three or more Juſtices of the County, or by the major part of the Grand Jury of the County or diviſion of the County where the ſame matter ſhall ariſe at their publick Aſſizes, or General Quarter Seſſions, or if ariſing in London by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons in Common Councel aſſembled; And that no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall repair to his Majeſty, or both or either of the Houſes of Parliament, upon pretence of preſenting, or delivering any petition, Complaint, Remonſtrance or Declaration, or other Addreſſes accompanied with exceſſive number of People, not at any one time with above the number of Ten perſons, upon pain of incurring a penalty, not exceeding the ſum of one hundred pounds in money, and three moneths Impriſonment without bail or mainprize for every offence, to be proſecuted at the Court of Kings-Bench, or at the Aſſizes, or General Quarter-Seſſions within ſix moneths after the offence committed, and proved by two or more credible witneſſes.

Provided alwayes, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be conſtrued to extend, to debar or hinder any perſon or perſons, not exceeding the number of Ten aforeſaid, to preſent any publick or private Grievance or Complaint to any Member or Members of Parliament after this Election, and during the continuance of the Parliament, or to the Kings Majeſty, for any Remedy to be thereupon had; nor to extend to any Addreſſe whatſoever to his Majeſtie, by all or any of the Members of both or either Houſes of Parliament, during the ſitting of Parliament, but that they may enjoy their freedom of Acceſs to his Majeſtie, as heretofore hath been uſed.

Proviſo.

CAP. VI.

The Militia declared to be in the King; and for the preſent Ordering and Diſpoſing the ſame.

Foraſmuch as within all his Majeſties Realms and Dominions, the ſole Supream Government, Command and Diſpoſition of the Militia, and all Forces by Sea and Land, and of all Forts and places of ſtrength, is, and by the Lawes of England ever was the undoubted Right of his Majeſtie, and his Royal Predeceſſors, Kings and Queens of England; and that both, or either of the Houſes of Parliament cannot, nor ought to pretend to the ſame; nor can, nor lawfully may raiſe, or levy any War Offenſive or Defenſive againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs or lawful Succeſſors; and yet the contrary thereof hath of late years been practiſed almoſt to the Ruine and Deſtruction of this Kingdom; and during the late uſurped Governments, many evil and rebellious principles have been diſtilled into the minds of the people of this Kingdom, which unleſs prevented, may break forth to the diſturbance of the Peace and Quiet thereof.

The command of the Militia by Sea and Land, the undoubted right of his Majeſty.

And whereas an Act is under conſideration for exerciſing the Militia, with moſt ſafety and eaſe to the King and his People, which Act cannot as yet be perfect; Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, That the Militia and Land Forces of this Kingdom, and of the Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, now under the Power of Lieutenants or their Deputies, ſhall be exerciſed, ordered and managed till the Five and twentieth day of March next enſuing, in ſuch manner as the ſame now is actually exerciſed, ordered and managed, according to ſuch Commiſſions and Inſtructions as they formerly have, or from time to time ſhall receive from his Majeſty.

An Act under conſideration touching the Militia.

And whereas ſince the Twenty fourth of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, there have been Inſurrections, by occaſion whereof divers of his Majeſties good Subjects have been murthered; and for the ſecuring the Peace of the Nation, and preventing further diſorders, divers perſons ſuſpected to be Fanaticks, Sectaries, or Diſturbers of the Peace, have been Aſſaulted, Arreſted, Detained or Impriſoned, and divers Arms have been ſeiſed, and Houſes ſearched for Arms, or ſuſpected perſons; Be it therefore further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon and perſons, who have or ſhall have acted, or done any thing in execution of any Commiſſion or Commiſſions of Lieutenancy, iſſued by the Kings Majeſty that now is, or by colour of them, or any of them, touching or concerning the ſame, or any of them, or relating thereunto, ſhall be and are hereby ſaved harmleſs and indempnified in this behalf: And alſo all Magiſtrates, Juſtices of the Peace, Officers and Miniſters of Juſtice, and all perſons that have or ſhall have acted by or under them, or by their or any of their Commands, ſince the ſaid Twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, until the Twentieth day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, as to any aſſaulting, arreſting, detaining or impriſoning any perſon ſuſpected to be Fanatick, Sectary, or Diſturber of the Peace, or ſeizing of Arms, or ſearching of houſes for Arms, or for ſuſpected perſons, ſhall be, and are hereby ſaved harmleſs, and indempnified in that behalf.

Perſons who h ve Acted by commiſſion of Lieutenancy.

Provided, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall after the Five and twentieth of March next, be prejudicial to any County, City or place within this Kingdome, which are over-charged with Men and Arms beyond their ancient proportion.

Proviſo.

Provided, That neither this Act, nor any matter or thing therein contained, ſhall be deemed, conſtrued or taken to extend to the giving or declaring of any Power for the tranſporting of any the Subjects of this Realm, or any way compelling them to march out of this Kingdom, otherwiſe then by the Laws of England ought to be done.

Provided, That no perſon whatſoever ſhall be capable of acting as a Lieutenant, or Deputy-Lieutenant, or other Officer or Souldier, by vertue of this Act, who hath not already taken the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, ſince the Return of his Majeſty into England, until he ſhall take the ſame according to the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdome: Which Oaths the Lords of His Privy Council, or any ſix of them, are hereby impowred to adminiſter to any Peer of this Realm, who ſhall be Commiſſionated by vertue of this Act, and the Deputy Lieutenants, or any two of them, in their reſpective Counties, to any Commoner. 14 Car. 2. cap. 3. & 8. 15 Car. 2. cap. 4. Stat. 3.

No perſon may be Lieutenant or Deputy Lieutenant that hath not taken the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

CAP. VII.

Publick Acts Confirmed.

WHereas during the late Difficulties and Exigencies of Affairs in the abſence of his moſt Excellent Majeſty, and in reference to his Return from beyond the Seas into theſe His Majeſties Dominions, The Lords and Commons being aſſembled at Weſtminſter, the Five and twentieth day of April, in the Twelfth year of his Majeſties Reign, were from thence, and after his Majeſties Return, continued until the Nine and twentieth day of December, then next following, and now laſt paſt, and then Diſſolved by his Majeſty: In which time ſeveral Acts were paſſed by his Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords and Commons aſſembled, as aforeſaid, which being being of neceſſary uſe, are fit to be Continued and Confirmed, although the manner of the ſaid Aſſembling enforced by the difficulties and exigencies aforeſaid, which then lay upon the Nation, is not to be drawn into Example; Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular the Acts made, or mentioned to be made by his ſaid Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons upon or ſince the ſaid Five and twentieth day of April, herein after particularly mentioned and expreſſed, That is to ſay, One Act entituled, An Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion: One other Act entituled, A Subſidy granted to the King, of Tunnage and Poundage, and other ſums of Money payable upon Merchandize Exported and Imported: One other Act entituled, An Act for Continuing the Exciſe until the Twentieth of Auguſt, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty: One other act entituled, an Act for Continuing the Exciſe till the Five and twentieth day of December, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty: One other Act entituled, an Act for the ſpeedy Proviſion of Money, for Disbanding and paying off the Forces of this Kingdom both by Land and Sea: One other Act entituled, an Act for Confirmation of Judicial Proceedings: One other Act entituled, an Act for the ſpeedy Disbanding of the Army and Garriſons of this Kingdom: one other act entituled, an Act for Supplying and Explaining certain Defects in an act entituled, an Act for the ſpeedy proviſion of money for Disbanding and paying off the Forces of this Kingdom both by Land and Sea: One other Act entituled, an Act to prevent Frauds and Concealments of his Majeſties Cuſtoms and Subſidies: One other act entituled, an Act for Raiſing Sevenſcore Thouſand pounds for the compleat Disbanding of the whole Army, and paying off ſome part of the Navy: One other act entituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for the Increaſe of his Majeſties Revenue during his Life: One other Act entituled, an act for taking away the Court of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite, and by Knights Service and Purveyance, and for ſetling a Revenue upon his Majeſtie in lieu thereof: One other Act entituled, an act for the better ordering the ſelling of Wines by retail, and for preventing abuſes in the mingling, corrupting and vitiating of wines, and for ſetting and limiting the prices of the ſame: One other act entituled, an Act for the levying of the Arrears of the Twelve moneths Aſſeſment commencing the Four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred fifty & nine: and the Six moneths Aſſeſment commencing the Five and twentieth of December, one thouſand ſix hundred fifty & nine: One other act entituled, An act for Granting unto the Kings Majeſty Four hundred & twenty thouſand pounds, by an Aſſeſment of Threeſcore and ten thouſand pounds by the moneth, for Six moneths, for Disbanding the Remainder of the Army, and paying off the Navy: One other act entituled, an Act for the further ſupplying and explaining certain defects in an Act entituled, an Act for the ſpeedy proviſion of money for disbanding and paying off the Forces of this Kingdom both by Land and Sea: one other act entituled, an Act for the raiſing of Seventy thouſand pounds for the further Supply of his Majeſty: one other act entituled, an Act for the Attainder of ſeveral perſons guilty of the horrid Murder of his late Sacred Majeſty, King Charles the Firſt: one other act entituled, an Act for Erecting and Eſtabliſhing a Poſt-Office: One other act entituled, an Act for putting in execution an Ordinance mentioned in this Act: and all and every the Clauſes, Sentences, and Articles in them, and every of them contained, ſhall be, and hereby are Ratified, and Confirmed, and Enacted and Declared to have the full Force and Strength of Acts of Parliament according to the tenor or purport thereof, and ſo ſhall be adjudged, deemed and taken to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, and as if the ſame had been made, declared, and enacted by authority of this preſent Parliament.

CAP. VIII.

Neceſſary Carriages to be provided for His Majeſty in his Royal Progreſs and Removals.

Stat. 12 Car. 2. cap. 24.

WHereas by an Act made in Parliament in the Twelfth year of his Majeſties Reign, entituled, An Act for taking away the Court of Wards, and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite and by Knights Service, and Purveyance, and for ſetling a Revenue upon His Majeſty in lieu thereof: It was (amongſt other Things) enacted for the Reaſons and Recompence therein expreſſed, That from thenceforth no perſon or perſons, by any Warrant, Commiſſion, or Authority under the Great Seal, or otherwiſe, by colour of buying, or making proviſion, or purveyance for his Majeſty, or any Queen of England for the time being, or of any the Children of any King, or Queen of England, that ſhall be, or for his, their, or any of their Houſhold, ſhall take any Cart, Carriage, or other thing whatſoever of any of the Subjects of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, without the free and full conſent of the Owner or Owners thereof, had, and obtained without menace or enforcement, nor ſhall ſummon, warn, take, uſe, or require any the ſaid Subjects to furniſh or find any Horſes, Oxen, or other Cattel, Carts, Ploughs, Wayns, or other Carriages, for the uſe of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or of any Queen of England, or of any Child or Children of any the Kings or Queens of England for the time being, for the Carrying the Goods of his Majeſtie, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or the ſaid Queens, or Children, or any of them, without ſuch full and tree conſent, as aforeſaid, any Law, Statute, Cuſtome or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding; which Act may prove very prejudicial and inconvenient to the Kings Majeſtie in his Royal Progreſſes upon his neceſſary occaſions to ſeveral parts of this Realm, in caſe any perſon or perſons ſhall obſtinately refuſe voluntarily to provide ſufficient Carriages for Royal Service at ordinary and uſual Rates for ſuch Carriages, as are paid by others of his Subjects in ſuch places, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Act.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the Clark, or chief Officer of his Majeſties Carriages, ſhall three dayes at leaſt before his Majeſties Arrival, by Warrant from the Green-Cloth, give notice in writing to two, or more of his Majeſties Juſtices of the peace next adjoyning, to provide ſuch a number of Carts and Carriages from the places next adjacent, as his Majeſty ſhall have preſent uſe of, expreſſing the certainty of that number, as alſo the time and place, when and where the ſaid Carts and Carriages are to attend; which Carriages ſhall conſiſt of four able Horſes, or ſix Oxen, or four Oxen, and two Horſes; for each of which Cart or Carriage, the reſpective Owners ſhall receive ſix pence for each mile they ſhall go laden. And that in caſe any of his Majeſties Subjects of this Realm ſhall refuſe to provide and furniſh his Majeſty that now is, or his Queen that ſhall be, or his or her Houſhold, in their Progreſs or Removals, with ſuch ſufficient and neceſſary Carriages for their Wardrobe, and other neceſſaries, for ready monies tendred to them; or ſhall without juſt and reaſonable cauſe refuſe to make their appearance with ſuch ſufficient Carts and Carriages, as are before expreſt; that then upon due proof and conviction of ſuch neglect and refuſal, by the oath of the Conſtable or other Officer, or two other credible Witneſſes, before the ſaid Juſtices of the peace of the County, or Mayor, or other chief Officer of the City or Corporation, where he or they inhabit, (which Oath they ſhall have power to adminiſter) the party ſo refuſing, ſhall for ſuch his refuſal and neglect forfeit the ſum of Forty ſhillings to the Kings uſe, to be forthwith levied by diſtreſſe and ſale of his Goods and Chattels (rendring to the parties the overplus upon every ſuch ſale, if there ſhall be any) by Warrant from the ſaid Juſtices of the peace, Mayor, or other chief Officer.

Clerk or chief Officer of his Majeſties Carriages, by Warrant from the Green-cloth to provide Carts &c. for his Majeſties uſe.

Penalty for refuſing to furniſh his Majeſty.

Provided alwayes, That no Horſes, Oxen, Cart or Wain, ſhall be enforced to travel above one dayes journey from the place where they receive their Lading; and that ready payment ſhall be made in hand for the ſaid Carriages at the place of Lading, without delay, according to the aforeſaid Rates. And in caſe any Juſtice of the peace, Mayor, chief Officer, or Conſtable, ſhall take any Gift or Reward to ſpare any perſon or perſons from making ſuch Carriage; or ſhall injuriouſly charge or grieve any perſon through envy, hatred, or evil will, who ought not to make ſuch carriage, or ſhall Impreſs more Carriages then he ſhall be directed from the Green-cloth to do, That then upon due proof and conviction thereof, the party ſo offending ſhall forfeit the ſum of Ten pounds to the party thereby grieved, or any other who ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record; wherein no eſſoin, protection, or wager of Law ſhall be allowed: And in caſe any perſon or perſons ſhall preſume to take upon him or them to Impreſs any horſes, oxen, cart, wain or carriages for his Majeſties ſervice, other then the perſon ſo impowered, then he or they ſo offending, ſhall, upon due conviction of the ſaid offence, incur and ſuffer the puniſhment contained in the firſt recited Act.

No horſes or carriages to travel above a dayes journey, nor without pay of ready money.

Penalty for wrongful charging any perſon.

CAP. XII.

Explanation of a Clauſe contained in an Act of Parliament made in the Seventeenth Year of the late King CHARLES, entituled, An Act for Repeal of a Branch of a Statute Primo Elizabethæ, concerning Commiſſioners for Cauſes Eccleſiaſtical.

Stat. 17 Car. I. cap. II.

WHereas in an Act of Parliament made in the Seventeenth of the late King Charles, entituled, An Act for Repeal of a Branch of a Statute Primo Elizabethæ concerning Commiſſioners for Cauſes Eccleſiaſtical, it is (amongſt other things) Enacted, That no Arch-biſhop, Biſhop, nor Vicar-General, nor any Chancellor, nor Commiſſary of any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or Vicar-General, nor any Ordinary whatſoever, nor any other Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Judge, Officer or Miniſter of Juſtice, nor any other perſon or perſons whatſoever, exerciſing Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical power, authority, or juriſdiction, by any Grant, Licenſe, or Commiſſion of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or by any power or authority derived from the King, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or otherwiſe, ſhall (from and after the firſt day of Auguſt, which then ſhould be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred forty one) award, impoſe or inflict any pain, penalty, Fine, amerciament, impriſonment, or other corporal puniſhment upon any of the Kings Subjects, for any contempt, miſdemeanor, crime, offence, matter or thing whatſoever, belonging to Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Cognizance or Juriſdiction, whereupon ſome doubt hath been made, that all ordinary power of Coertion and proceedings in cauſes eccleſiaſtical were taken away, whereby the ordinary courſe of Juſtice in Cauſes Eccleſiaſtical hath been obſtructed: Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority thereof, That neither the ſaid Act, nor any thing therein contained, doth, or ſhall take away any ordinary power or authority from any of the ſaid Archbiſhops, Biſhops, or any other perſon or perſons named as aforeſaid, but that they and every of them, exerciſing Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, may proceed, determine, ſentence, execute and exerciſe all manner of Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, and all Cenſures and Coertions appertaining and belonging to the ſame, before the making of the Act before recited, in all cauſes and matters belonging to Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, according to the Kings majeſties Eccleſiaſtical Laws uſed and practiſed in this Realm, in as ample manner and form as they did, and might lawfully have done before the making of the ſaid Act.

The ordinary power of Archbiſhops, &c. not taken away.

May uſe Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction.

The Stat. 17 Car. I. cap. II. Repealed as to all, except what concerns the High Commiſſion Court.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the afore recited Act of Decimo ſeptimo Caroli, and all the Matters and Clauſes therein contained (excepting what concerns the High Commiſſion Court, or the new erection of ſome ſuch like Court by Commiſſion) ſhall be and is hereby repealed, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, Any thing, clauſe or ſentence in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo.

Provided alwayes, and it is hereby enacted, That neither this Act, nor any thing herein contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to revive, or give force to the ſaid Branch of the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid firſt year of the Reign of the ſaid late Queen Elizabeth, mentioned in the ſaid Act of Parliament made in the ſaid ſeventeenth year of the Reign of the ſaid King Charles; but that the ſaid Branch of the ſaid Statute made in the ſaid firſt year of the Reign of the ſaid late Queen Elizabeth, ſhall ſtand and be repealed in ſuch ſort as if this Act had never been made.

Proviſo touching the oath Ex Officio.

Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted, That it ſhall not be lawful for any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Vicar-General, Chancellor, Commiſſary, or any other Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Judg, Officer, or Miniſter, or any other perſon, having or exerciſing ſpiritual or eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, to tender or adminiſter unto any perſon whatſoever, the Oath uſually called the Oath Ex Officio, or any other Oath whereby ſuch perſon to whom the ſame is tendred or adminiſtred, may be charged or compelled to confeſs, or accuſe, or to purge him, or her ſelf of any criminal matter or thing, whereby he or ſhe may be liable to cenſure or puniſhment; Any thing in this Statute, or any other Law, Cuſtome or Uſage heretofore to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo not to give any other Juriſdiction to any Archbiſhop, &c. than they had by Law before the year, 1639.

The Kings Supremacy in Eccleſiaſtical matters.

Canons Eccleſiaſtical.

Provided alwayes, That this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend or be conſtrued to extend to give unto any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, or any other Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Judge, Officer, or other perſon or perſons aforeſaid, any power or authority to exerciſe, execute, inflict, or determine any Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction, Cenſure, or Coertion, which they might not by Law have done before the year of our Lord 1639, nor to abridge or diminiſh the Kings Majeſties Supremacy in Eccleſiaſtical matters and affairs, nor to confirm the Canons made in the year 1640, nor any of them, nor any other Eccleſiaſtical Laws or Canons not formerly confirmed, allowed, or enacted by Parliament, or by the eſtabliſhed Laws of the Land as they ſtood in the year of our Lord 1639.

CAP. XIII.

The Arrears of the Exciſe and New Impoſt veſted in his Majeſty.

All Moneys owing upon Exciſe by any Laws or Ordinances veſted in his Majeſty.

BE it declared and enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, and by the authority thereof, That all and every ſum and ſums of money any wayes due, or owing from, or by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, for or touching the Impoſition or Duty called the Exciſe, heretofore impoſed and made payable upon Beer, Ale, or any other Commodities, by any Laws, or pretended Laws or Ordinances; and all Debts therefore owing, whether by Obligation or upon Accompt from Farmers of Exciſe, or any other perſon or perſons whatſoever, or any of their Securities, and not pardoned by his Majeſties moſt Gracious Act of Pardon and Oblivion, be, and are hereby veſted and ſetled in the Kings Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors; and that his Sacred Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may from time to time, and at all times hereafter, have, demand, ſue for, and recover the ſame of all and every perſon and perſons, their Heirs, Executors, and Adminiſtrators, having Aſſets, who are any way accomptable for the ſame, or any part thereof, and from his and their reſpective Sureties, and Securities; as if the ſame Duties of Exciſe had been lawfully Aſſeſſed, Impoſed, and collected; and as if the ſeveral pretended Acts, Orders, and Ordinances, Aſſeſſing and Impoſing the ſame, had been good, true, legal and effectual Acts of Parliament, and had in expreſs words given and granted, all and every the ſaid Duties of exciſe or new Impoſt unto his Majeſty and as if the Obligations & Recognizances entred into by the reſpective Sureties and Securities had, at the time of entring into the ſame, been taken in his Majeſties Name, according to the form preſcribed in the ſtatute made in the Three and thirtieth year of the Reign of King Henry the eight.

33 H. 8. c. 39.

Provided alwayes, That all and every perſon and perſons accomptable by vertue of this Act, ſhall have all ſuch due allowance in his or their accompts, as all ſuch perſons whoſe accompts are accepted in an Act, Intituled, An Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, have, or ought to have.

Proviſo for allowances. St. 12 Car. 2. cap. 11.

Provided alwayes, That no perſon ſhall be queſtioned or moleſted for any of the Duties herein, or hereby veſted in his Majeſty, unleſs he ſhall be ſued or proſecuted with effect before the Five and twentieth day of December, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two.

Proviſo no perſon to be queſtioned, unleſs he be ſued before the 25. of December, 1662.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all perſons accomptable to his Majeſty by this Act, ſhall have power and authority and are hereby enabled to ſue for, levy, and recover from any perſon and perſons who do ſtand indebted unto them in any ſum of money for the Duty or Impoſt of Exciſe, for which they are hereby accomptable, all ſums of money and Arrears unſatisfied, in as full and ample manner and form as they might have received and levied the ſame when they firſt grow due.

All perſons accomptable ſhall have authority to levy and recover all Arrears.

CAP. XIV.

The Confirmation of an Act Entituled, An Act for Encouraging and Increaſing of Shipping and Navigation, and ſeveral other Acts both Publick and Private mentioned therein.

WHereas during the late difficulties and exigencies of affairs in the abſence of his moſt excellent Majeſty, and in reference to his return from beyond the Seas into theſe his Majeſties Dominions; The Lords and Commons being aſſembled at Weſtminſter the Five and twentieth day of April, in the twelfth year of his Majeſties Reign, were from thence, and after his Majeſties return, continued until the nine and twentieth day of December then next following, and now laſt paſt, and then diſſolved by his Majeſty; In which time ſeveral Acts were paſſed by his Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the ſaid Lords and Commons aſſembled as aforeſaid, which being of neceſſary uſe, are fit to be continued and confirmed, although the manner of the ſaid aſſembling, enforced by the difficulties and exigences aforeſaid, which then lay upon the Nation, is not to be drawn into example.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all and ſingular the Acts made or mentioned to be made by his ſaid Majeſty, by and with the advice or conſent of the Lord and Commons, upon or ſince the five and twentieth day of April, herein after particularly mentioned and expreſſed (that is to ſay One Act, entituled, An Act for the encouraging and increaſing of Shipping and Navigation; One other Act, entituled An Act for Prohibiting the exportation of Wooll, Wool-fells, Fullers earth, or any kind of Scouring earth. CAP. XV.

The Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures Impoſed upon the Eſtates and Perſons of certain notorious Offendors Excepted out of the Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity, and Oblivion.

WHereas in a certain Act paſſed in the late Aſſembly held at Weſtminſter, in the Twelfth year of his Majeſties Reign, and confirmed by the Authority of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity, and Oblivion, (amongſt other things) it is provided, That nothing therein contained ſhould extend to diſcharge the lands, Tenements, Goods, Chattels, Rights, Truſts, and other the Hereditaments late of Iſaac Ewer deceaſed, Sir John Danvers deceaſed, Sir Thomas Maleverer Baronet deceaſed, William Purefoy deceaſed, John Blakiſton deceaſed, Sir William Conſtable Baronet deceaſed, Richard Dean deceaſed, Francis Aleyn deceaſed, Peregrine Pelham deceaſed, John Moore deceaſed, John Aldred, alias Alured deceaſed, Humphry Edwards deceaſed, Sir Gregory Norton Baronet deceaſed, John St. 12 Car. 2. cap. 14. The Lands and Tenements of the perſons deceaſed, not diſcharged by the Act of General Pardon.

Venn deceaſed, Thomas Andrews Alderman deceaſed, Anthony Stapeley deceaſed, Thomas Horton deceaſed, John Fry deceaſed, Thomas Hammond deceaſed, and Sir John Bourchier deceaſed, of and from ſuch pains, penalties and forfeitures, as by one other Act of Parliament intended to be afterwards paſſed for that purpoſe, ſhould be expreſſed and declared: All which perſons before mentioned, were (whilſt they lived) notoriouſly known to have been wicked and active Inſtruments in the proſecution and compaſſing of that Horrid and Execrable Treaſon, the Murther of our late Soveraign Lord King Charles the Firſt, of ever bleſſed memory. And whereas William Lord Mounſon, James Challoner, Sir Henry Mildmay, Sir James Harrington, John Phelps, and Robert Wallop who in the moneth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty eight, did act and ſit in that Trayterous Aſſembly which proceeded againſt the Perſon and Life of our ſaid late Soveraign Lord King Charles the Firſt; and Sir Arthur Haſlerig, who in his life did commit many horrid and Traiterous Crimes againſt the Perſon, Crown and Dignity of his late Majeſty of glorious memory, and his Majeſty that now is, are all of them excepted out of the ſaid Act, and reſerved to future Pains, Penalties and Forfeitures, not extending to life; ſince the paſſing of which Act, ſo as aforeſaid confirmed, Sir Arthur Haſlerig and James Challoner died, and no Act hath yet paſſed for the inflicting of due pains, penalties and forfeitures upon the Perſons and Eſtates of the Offendors aforeſaid.

The Manors, Lands &c of the perſons named.

Of which they were ſeized the 20th of March, 1646. or ſince, forfeited and veſted in his Majeſty.

The Goods, Debts and Chattels, of which the perſons named were poſſeſſed at the time of their death forfeited to his Majeſty.

The Goods, &c. of which William Lord Mounſon, Sir Hen Mildmay, Sir James Harrington, John Phelps, and Robert Wallop, were poſſeſſed, the 11. of Feb. 1659. forfeited and veſted in his Majeſty.

We therefore the Lords and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, do beſeech your Majeſty, That it may be enacted: And be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all and every the Manors, Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements, Rents, Reverſions, Remainders, Poſſeſſions, Rights, Conditions, Intereſts, Offices, Fees, Annuities, and all other the Hereditaments, Leaſes for years, Chattels Real, and other things of what nature ſoever they be of them the ſaid Iſaac Ewer, Sir John Danvers, Sir Thomas Maleverer, William Purefoy, John Blakiſton, Sir William Conſtable, Richard Dean, Francis Aleyn, Peregrin Pelham, John Moore, John Aldred, alias Alured, Humphrey Edwards, Sir Gregory Norton, John Venn, Thomas Andrews, Anthony Stapley, Thomas Horton, John Fry, Thomas Hammond, Sir John Bourchier, William Lord Mounſon, James Challoner, Sir Henry Mildmay, Sir James Harrington, John Phelps, Robert Wallop, and Sir Arthur Haſlerig, which they, or any of them, or any other perſon or perſons to their, or any of their uſes, or in truſt for them, or any of them had the five and twentieth day of March in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and ſix, or at any time ſince, ſhall ſtand, and be forfeited unto your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors; and ſhall be deemed, veſted, and adjudged to be in the actual and real poſſeſſion of your Majeſtie, without any Office or Inquiſition thereof hereafter to be taken or found; And alſo that all and every the Goods, Debts, and other the Chattels perſonal whatſoever of them, the ſaid Iſaac Ewer, Sir John Danvers, Sir Thomas Maleverer, William Purefoy, John Blakiſton, Sir William Conſtable, Richard Dean, Francis Aleyn, Peregrin Pelham, John Moore, John Aldred, alias Alured, Humphrey Edwards, Sir Gregory Norton, John Venn, Thomas Andrews, Anthony Stapley, Thomas Horton, John Fry, Thomas Hammond, Sir John Bourchier, James Challoner, and Sir Arthur Haſlerig, whereof they, or any of them, at the time of their reſpective deaths, or any other in Truſt for them, or any of them ſtood poſſeſſed or intereſſed in Law or Equity, and all the Goods, Debts, and other the Chattels perſonals whatſoever of them the ſaid William Lord Mounſon, Sir Henry Mildmay, Sir James Harrington, John Phelps, Robert Wallop, whereof upon the eleventh day of February, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred fifty and nine, they, or any of them, or any other in truſt for them, or any of them ſtood poſſeſſed either in Law or Equity, ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be forfeited, and are hereby veſted and put into the actuall and reall poſſeſſion of your Majeſty, without any further Office or Inquiſition thereof hereafter to be taken or found.

Proviſo for conveyances and aſſurances, &c. made bona fide before the 29 of September.

William Lord, Mounſon, Sir Henry Mildmay, Sir James Harington, Robert Wallop, and John Phelp Degraded.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That William Lord Mounſon, Sir Henry Mildmay, Sir James Harrington, Robert Wallop Eſquire, and John Phelps, and every of them, ſhall be and are hereby degraded from, and made uncapable of, all and every the Titles of Honour, Dignities and Preheminences which they or any of them now have, or which at any time hereafter may deſcend unto them; And that neither they, nor any of them ſhall at any time hereafter have, bear, or uſe the Fame, Stile, Addition or Title of Lord, Baronet, Knight Eſquire, or Gentleman, or any of them, nor ſhall uſe, or have any Coats, Eſcutchions of Arms whatſoever, nor any other legal Title, or addition whatſoever, but ſhall be for ever reputed and are hereby declared to be Perſons of Diſhonor and Infamy.]

William Mounſon, Henry Mildmay, James Harrington, Robert Wallop, and John Phelps ſhall be drawn to Tyburn as perſons executed for treaſon.

And further, That they the ſaid William Mounſon, Henry Mildmay, James Harrington, Robert Wallop, and John Phelps, and every of them, ſhall upon the ſeven and twentieth day of January which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty one, or ſo ſoon after as they ſhall be apprehended, carried to the Tower of London, and from thence drawn upon ſledges with Ropes about their Necks, and according to the manner of perſons executed for High Treaſon quite through the ſtreets of London unto the Gallowes at Tiburn, and from thence in like manner be brought back again to the Tower of London; and there, or in ſuch other priſon as his Majeſty ſhall think fit, continue Priſoners, and ſuffer pains of Impriſonment for and during the Term of their Natural Lives.

Proviſo for executors of the ſaid perſons and legacies.

Provided alwayes, That no Executor or Adminiſtrator to any of the dead perſons whoſe Eſtate is forfeited by this Act, ſhall at any time hereafter be ſued or moleſted for any Debt or Legacy by them paid as Executor or Adminiſtrator to any perſon or perſons to whom the ſame was due or bequeathed, and was by the ſaid Executor or Adminiſtrator paid bona fide; but the reſpective Legatees who have received any ſuch Legacies from the ſaid Executors, ſhall be accomptable to the Kings Majeſty for all ſuch Legacies as they have reſpectively received, and ſhall pay the ſame to the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Proviſo for Sir William Lewes,

Provided alwaies, That nothing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to forfeit the Term, Eſtate, or Intereſt which Sir William Lewes of Borden in the County of Southampton Baronet, had or hath in the cuſtody of the Park called Eaſt-mean Park in the aforeſaid County, and in the game of Conies therein, for the term of three years to come, from our Lady day laſt being the remaining years of a greater term he the ſaid Sir William being formerly poſſeſſed thereof by an Aſſignment made by John Allen executor of the ſaid Francis Allen, the which ſaid Park and premiſſes being part of the Poſſeſſions of the Biſhop of Wincheſter, the ſaid Sir VVilliam Lewes hath ſurrendred unto the ſaid Biſhop, and hath now taken a new Leaſe thereof for three lives, from the Biſhop of Wincheſter, the which ſaid Leaſe for three lives ſo made by the ſaid Biſhop unto the ſaid Sir William Lewes, ſhall for, and notwithſtanding this Act, or any thing therein contained, remain firm and good unto the ſaid Sir William Lewes, according to the true meaning of his ſaid Leaſe; Saving alwaies to all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and others their reſpective Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors and Adminiſtrators, all ſuch Eſtate, Right and Title, and Intereſt in Law and Equity, which they, or any of them have, or ought to have of, in, to, or out of any the Premiſſes, not being in Truſt for any the ſaid offendors, nor derived by, from, or under the ſaid offences, ſince the five and twentieth day of March, one thouſand ſix hundred forty ſix; ſaving alwayes and reſerving to Cuthbert Collingwood Eſquire, and George Collingwood Gent. his ſon, their, or either of their Heirs and Aſſigns, and the Farmers and Tenants of the ſaid Cuthbert and George Collingwood, or either of them, and of their heirs and aſſigns, all ſuch Right, Title of Entry and Action, Uſe, Intereſt and Poſſeſſion, which they, or any of them, or any in truſt for them, or any of them, have or had, or ought to have, of, in, to, or out of the Manors, Townſhips, Villages, Hamlets and Precincts of Iſlington, Whitingham, Barton, Throunton, Fawden, Keynton, Weſt-Brunton, Eaſt-Brunton, Dunnington, Blakedon, alias Blagdon, and Weſtlade, or any of them in the County of Northumberland, and of, in, to, or out of the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Rights, Members and Appurtenances to them, or any of them belonging or appertaining, as if this Act had never been made.

Proviſo for Rachel Powre.

Provided alſo, that this Act, nor any thing herein contained, ſhall extend to prejudice the Eſtate and intereſt in Law or Equity of Rachel Powre Widow, of, in, and to one Copyhold Meſſuage and Mill thereunto belonging, with their Appurtenances, Scituate, lying and being in Chepmansford in the county of Southampton, being parcel of the Manor of Husband Priors, which by order and decree of the High-Court of Chancery of the one and twentieth of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty one, ſhe is to be forthwith reſtored unto, and put into poſſeſſion of, and to quietly hold and enjoy the ſame during her Widowhood, with the mean profits thereof taken by the ſaid Mr. Wallop: But that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Rachel Powre to hold and enjoy the ſame according to the ſaid Decree.

Proviſo for Barrington Bourchier,

Provided alwaies, and it is hereby further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for Barrington Bourchier Eſquire, Son and Heir of Sir John Bourchier, herein before mentioned to hold and enjoy all and ſingular the Lands and Tenements and Hereditaments to him lately granted and conveyed, or mentioned to be granted and Conveyed in and by certain Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing date the Two and twentieth day of March, in the thirteenth year of his Majeſties Reign, againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors for ever, according to the full intent and meaning of the ſaid Letters Patents; Any thing in this preſent Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwichſtanding.

Anno XIII Car. II. Regis.

ACTS made at the ſecond meeting in this preſent Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the 8th day of May, Anno Dom. 1661. And there continued untill the 20th. of December, and from that day adjourned unto the ſeventh of January, next enſuing, as followeth.

CAP. I.

An Act for the well Governing and Regulating of Corporations, impowring the King to iſſue Commiſſions for the removing, placing and reſtoring certain Officers and Members there.

FOr and within the ſeveral Cities Corporations and Burroughs, and Cinque-Ports, and their Members, and other Port-towns within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, viz. All Mayors, Aldermen, Recorders, Bailiffs, Town Clerks, Common-Councel-men, and other perſons then Bearing any Office or Offices of Magiſtracy, or Places, or Truſts, or other Imployment relating to, or concerning the Government of the ſaid reſpective Cities, Corporations and Burroughs and Cinque-ports, and their Members, and other Port-Towns, and for tendring to all ſuch the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, and this Oath following.

I A.B. do declare and Believe, That it is not lawful, upon any pretence whatſoever, to take Arms againſt the King; and that I do abhor that Traiterous Poſition of taking Arms by his Authority againſt His Perſon, or againſt thoſe that are Commiſſioned by him: So help me God.

And alſo for ſubſcribing this following Declaration.

I A.B. do declare, That I hold that there lies no Obligation upon me, or any other perſon, from the Oath commonly called, The Solemn League and Covenant; and that the ſame was in it ſelf an unlawful Oath, and impoſed upon the Subjects of this Realm againſt the known Lawes and Liberties of the Kingdom.

None to be choſen any Officer in any Corporation that ſhall not have taken the Sacrament within a year next before. And ſhall take the ſaid three Oaths, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration.

EXP. 25. March, 1663. as to the Power of the ſaid Commiſſion and Commiſſioners. But Provided alſo, and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the expiration of the ſaid Commiſſions, no perſon or perſons ſhall for ever hereafter be placed, elected or choſen, in or to any the Offices or Places aforeſaid, that ſhall not have within one year next before ſuch Election, or Choice, taken the Sacraments of the Lord Supper, according to the Rights of the Church of England, and that every ſuch perſon and perſons ſo placed, elected or choſen, ſhall likewiſe take the aforeſaid three Oaths, and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration at the ſame time when the Oath for the due execution of the ſaid Places and offices reſpectively ſhall be adminiſtred; And in default hereof, every ſuch placing, election and choice is hereby enacted and Declared to be void.

CAP. II.

Vexations and Oppreſſions by Arreſts, and of Delayes in Suits of Law, prevented.

The ancient fundamental Law in proceeding to arreſts upon Suits, to expreſs the true cauſe of Action in the Proceſſe.

VVhereas by the Ancient and Fundamental Laws of this Realm, in caſe where any perſon is Sued, Impleaded, or Arreſted, by any Writ, Bill or Proceſs, iſſuing out of any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, in any common Plea, at the ſuit of any common perſon, the true cauſe of Action ought to be ſet forth and particularly expreſſed in ſuch Writ, Bill, or Proceſs, whereby the Defendant may have certain knowledge of the cauſe of the Suit, and the Officer who ſhall execute ſuch writ, bill, or proceſs, may know how to take ſecurity for the appearance of the Defendant to the ſame, and the ſureties for ſuch appearances may rightly underſtand for what cauſe they become engaged; And whereas there is a great Complaint of the People of this Realm, That for divers years now laſt paſt, very many of his Majeſties good Subjects have been arreſted upon general Writs of Treſpaſs, quare clauſum fregit, Bills of Middleſex, Latitat's, and other like Writs iſſued out of the Courts of Kings Bench and Common Pleas, not expreſſing any particular or certain cauſe of action, and thereupon kept priſoners for a long time for want of Bail; Bonds with Sureties for Appearances having been demanded in ſo great ſums, that few or none have dared to be ſecurity for the Appearances of ſuch perſons ſo arreſted and impriſoned, although in truth there hath been little or no cauſe of action, and oftentimes there are no ſuch perſons who are named Plaintiffs, but thoſe arreſts have been, many times, procured by malicious perſons, to vex and oppreſs the Defendants, or to force from them unreaſonable and unjuſt Compoſitions for obtaining their Liberty; And by ſuch evil practices, many men have been, and are daily undone, and deſtroyed in their eſtates, without poſſibility of having Reparation: The Actors imployed in ſuch practices having been (for the moſt part) poor and lurking perſons, and their Actings ſo ſecret, that it hath been found very difficult to make true diſcoveries or proof thereof.

Perſons arreſted by Proceſs out of the Kings Bench or Common Pleas, not expreſſing the cauſe of action how to be bailed and ſet to liberty upon their own Bonds for Appearance.

For remedy and prevention of which ſo great growing evils and miſchiefs, and alſo for diſcouraging all frivolous and unjuſt Suits, and Cauſeleſs Arreſts for the future; Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twelfth day of February, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, no perſon or perſons, who ſhall happen to be arreſted by any Sheriff, Under-ſheriff, Coroner, Steward, or Bailiff of any Franchiſe or Liberty, or by any other Officer, Miniſter, Under-bailiff, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever within this Realm, having, or pretending to have Authority or Warrant in that behalf, by force or colour of any Writ, Bill, or Proceſs iſſuing, or to be iſſuing out of His Majeſties ſaid Courts of the Kings Bench and Common Pleas, or either of them, in which ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs, the certainty and true cauſe of Action is not expreſſed particularly, and for which the Defendant or Defendants, in ſuch Writ, Bill, or Proceſſe named, is and are bailable by the Statute in that behalf made in the three and twentieth year of the Reign of the late King Henry the ſixth, ſhall be forced or compelled to give ſecurity, or to enter into Bond with Sureties, for the Appearances of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo arreſted, at the day and place in the ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs, ſpecified or contained in any penalty or ſum of money, exceeding the ſum of Forty pounds of lawful money of England, to be conditioned for ſuch Appearances; and that all Sheriffs, and other Officers and Miniſters aforeſaid ſhall let to bail, and deliver out of Priſon, and from their, and every of their Cuſtodies reſpectively, all and every perſon and perſons whatſoever, by them, or any of them, arreſted, upon any ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, wherein the certainty and true cauſe of Action is not particularly expreſſed, upon Security in the ſum of Forty pounds, and no more, given for Appearance of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo arreſted unto the ſaid Sheriff or Officer aforeſaid, according to the ſaid Statute in the ſaid three and twentieth year of the Reign of the ſaid late King Henry the ſixth, in that behalf made and provided.

23 H 6. cap. 9.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon Appearance to be Entred in the Term, wherein ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, is returnable with the reſpective Officer in that behalf, for the ſaid perſon or perſons, by Attorney or Attorneys in the ſaid reſpective Courts, from whence the ſaid Writ, Bill or Proceſs iſſued, unto ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs, the Bond or Bonds ſo given for Appearance thereunto, be and are hereby ſatisfied and diſcharged; And that after ſuch Appearance ſo entred, no Amerciaments be ſet or Eſtreted upon or againſt any Sheriff or other Officer aforeſaid, or any other perſon whatſoever, concerning the want of ſuch Appearance, and unleſſe the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in any ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs named, ſhall put into the Court from whence ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs did iſſue, his or their Bill, or Declaration againſt the perſon or perſons ſo Arreſted in ſome perſonal Action, or Ejectione firmæ of Lands or Tenements, before the end of the Term next following after Appearance, That then a Non-ſuit for want of a Declaration, may be Entred againſt the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in the ſaid Courts reſpectively; And that every Defendant in every ſuch Writ, Bill or Proceſs named, ſhall or may have Judgment to recover Coſts againſt every ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, to be Aſſeſſed, Taxed and Levied in ſuch manner, and according as it is provided by the Statute for Coſts, made in the three and twentieth year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Eighth; any former or other Act, Statute, Ordinance, Law, Cuſtome, Order, Courſe or Uſage of either of the ſaid Courts to the contrary thereof heretofore had, made, admitted, or uſed in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Bonds (given for) diſcharged upon appearance.

Nonſuit for want of a Declaration before the end of the next term after appearance, and judgment and coſts againſt the Plaintiff.

23 H.8. cap.15.

Provided alwayes, That this Act, nor any Clauſe or thing herein before ſpecified or contained, ſhall not extend, nor be conſtrued or taken to extend unto any Arreſts hereafter to be made, upon or by vertue of any Writ of Capias utlagatum, Attachment upon Reſcous, or Attachment upon any Contempt, or of any Attachment of Priviledge, at the Suit of any priviledged perſon, or of any other Attachment for Contempt whatſoever, iſſuing, or to be iſſuing out of either of the ſaid Courts, although there be no particular certainty of the cauſe of Action expreſſed or contained in the ſaid Writs; But that neverthleſſe no Sheriff, nor Under-Sheriff, nor any of the Officers or Miniſters aforeſaid, ſhall diſcharge any perſon or perſons, taken upon any Writ of Capias utlagatum out of Cuſtody, without a lawful Superſedeas firſt had and received for the ſame; and that upon the ſaid Writs of Attachment, ſuch lawful courſe be taken for Security for Appearance therein, as hath been heretofore uſed; any thing herein before expreſſed to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Arreſts upon Capias utlagatum, Attachments upon Reſcous, Contempts, and of Priviledge, excepted.

And whereas many perſons out of ill intent, to delay their Creditors from recovering their Juſt Debts, continue Priſoners in the Fleet, who cannot be proceeded againſt in ſuch manner as they might be, if they were at Large: Now for the better enabling all perſons to recover their juſt Debts and Demands againſt ſuch Priſoners: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon or perſons whatſoever, who now hath or have, or which at any time hereafter ſhall have cauſe of any perſonal Action againſt any perſon being a Priſoner in the priſon of the Fleet, may Sue forth an Original Writ upon his or their cauſe of Action, And that a Writ of Habeas Corpus be granted to every ſuch perſon or perſons, being Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, deſiring the ſame to be directed to the Warden of the ſame priſon, to have the Body of ſuch Priſoner before the Juſtices of the Common Pleas at ſome certain day in any Term, to anſwer the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs upon his or their ſaid Cauſe of Action; And that if the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs at the ſaid day put into the ſaid Court his or their Declaration, according to the ſaid Original Writ againſt the ſaid Priſoner being preſent at the Bar, the ſaid Priſoner ſhall be bound to appear in perſon, or to put in an Attorney to appear for him in the ſaid Action; And unleſs the ſaid Defendant plead upon a Rule given to be out at eight dayes at the leaſt after ſuch Appearance, Judgment by Nihil dicit may be entred againſt ſuch Defendant as appearing in perſon, which ſhall be good and effectual in Law; And ſuch Charge in Court by Declarations, ſignified by Rule unto the ſaid Warden, ſhall be a good cauſe of detention of ſuch Priſoner in his Cuſtody, from which he ſhall not be diſcharged without a lawful Superſedeas or Rule of Court; And if the ſaid Warden ſhall do otherwiſe, he ſhall be Reſponſible to the Court, and to the Party grieved for Damages, by Action upon the caſe to be brought againſt him for diſcharging ſuch Priſoner.

How Perſons having cauſe of action, may proceed againſt Priſoners in the Fleet.

And whereas very many Suits Commenced by Original Writs, have been protracted and long delayed from Judgment and Execution, by reaſon of the neceſſity of having fifteen dayes at the leaſt, between the dayes of the Teſte, and the dayes of Return of Writs now uſed Delayes in Suits, by reaſon of 15 dayes between the Teſte and Return of Writs, remedied in actions perſonal.

Ejectione firmæ.

Venire facias, Habeas Corpora Jurator. Diſtringas Jurator. Fieri fac. Capias ad ſatisfaciendum. Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, where Exigent lyeth after Judgment, or to make the Bail appear, excepted.

uſed in perſonal Actions, and alſo in Actions of Ejectione Firmæ, for Lands and Tenements; For remedy thereof, and for the more eaſie expediting Trials, and the better and more ſpeedy executing of Judgments for the time to come; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all Actious of Debt, and all other perſonal Actions whatſoever, and alſo in all Actions of Ejectione firmæ, for Lands or Tenements now depending, or which at any time hereafter ſhall be depending by Original Writ, in either of His Majeſties Courts aforeſaid, after any iſſue therein joyned to be tryed by a Jury, and alſo after any Judgment had or obtained, or to be had or obtained in either of the Courts aforeſaid; There ſhall not need to be fifteen dayes between the Teſte day, and the day of Retorn of any Writ or Writs of Venire facias, Habeas Corpora Juratorum, or Diſtringas Juratores, Writs of Fieri facias, or Writs of Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, and that the want of Fifteen dayes between the Teſte day and the day of Retorn of any ſuch Writ ſhall not be, nor ſhall be aſſigned, taken or adjudged to be any matter or Cauſe of Errour; any Law, Cuſtome, Statute, Courſe or Uſage to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided nevertheleſſe, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not Extend, or be conſtrued to Extend to any Writ of Capias ad Satisfaciendum, whereon a Writ of Exigent after Judgment is to be awarded, nor to Capias ad Satisfaciendum againſt the Defendant, in Order to make any Bail liable, but that the ſame continue and be as if this Act had never been made.

3 Jac. cap. 8. Couching ſtaying executions by Superſedeas or Writs of Errour, & in what actions it may be ſtayed.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made in the third year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King James of bleſſed Memory, a very good Law was made for avoiding unneceſſary delayes of Execution; Whereby it is Enacted, That no Execution ſhall be ſtayed or delayed upon or by any Writ of Errour, or Superſedeas thereupon to be ſued for the reverſing of any Judgment to be given in any Action, or Bill of Debt, upon any ſingle Bond for Debt, or upon any Obligation with Condition for payment of money only, or upon Action, or Bill of Debt for Rent, or upon any Contract ſued in any of His Highneſs Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter or Durham, or in His Highneſs Courts of Great Seſſions in any of the Twelve Shires of Wales, unleſs ſuch perſon or perſons in whoſe name or names ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be brought, with two ſufficient Sureties, ſuch as the Court wherein ſuch Judgment is or ſhall be given, ſhall allow of, ſhall firſt before ſuch ſtay made, or Superſedeas to be awarded, be bound to the party for whom any ſuch Judgment was or ſhould be given, by Recognizance to be acknowledged in the ſame Court, in double the ſum adjudged to be recovered by the ſaid former Judgment, to proſecute the ſaid Writ of Error with effect, and alſo to ſatisfie and pay (if the ſaid Judgment ſhall be affirmed) all and ſingular the Debts, Damages and Coſts adjudged, or to be adjudged upon the former Judgment; And all Coſts and Damages to be alſo awarded for the ſame delaying of execution, which Law hath been found by experience to be very good and beneficial to the Common-Wealth; And foraſmuch as divers other Caſes within the ſame miſchief, by delayes and ſtaying of execution by Writs of Error and Superſedeas thereupon, are not provided for by the ſaid Statute; For further remedy againſt delayes and ſtaying of executions in the ſeveral Actions hereafter ſpecified.

In what Actions execution may be ſtayed (by writ of Error) by this Statute.

Be it further Enacted and Ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the twentieth day of January, in the year of Our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, no execution ſhall be ſtayed in any of the Courts aforeſaid, by any Writ or Writs of Error, or Superſedeas thereupon, after any Verdict and Judgment thereupon obtained in any Action of Debt, grounded upon the Statute made in the ſecond year of the Reign of the late King Edward the ſixth, for not ſetting forth of Tythes, nor in any Action upon the Caſe, upon any promiſe for payment of money, Actions ſur Trover, action of Covenant, Detinue and Treſpaſs, unleſſe ſuch Recognizance, and in ſuch manner as by the ſaid recited former act is directed, ſhall be firſt acknowledged in the ſaid Court where ſuch Judgment is given.

The Defendant to have double Coſts for delayes of his Execution by writ of Error.

And be it alſo enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons after the ſaid day, ſhall Sue or Proſecute any Writ or Writs of Error, for Reverſal of any Judgment whatſoever given after any Verdict in any of the Courts aforeſaid, and the ſaid Judgment ſhall afterwards be affirmed, then every ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall pay unto the Defendant or Defendants in the ſaid Writ or Writs of Error, his or their double Coſts to be aſſeſſed by the Court where ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be depending, for the delaying of execution.

Popular actions, or upon a penal Law, Indictments, &c. not within this Statute.

Provided nevertheleſſe, that this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any action Popular, nor unto any other action, which is, or hereafter ſhall be brought upon any penal Law or Statute (except Debt for not ſetting out Tythes as aforeſaid) nor to any Indictment, Preſentment, Inquiſition, Information or Appeal, any thing herein before expreſſed to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

CAP. III.

An Act for Granting unto the Kings Majeſty Twelve hundred and threeſcore thouſand pounds to be Aſſeſſed and Levied by an Aſſeſsment of Threeſcore and ten thouſand pounds by the Moneth, for Eighteen Moneths. EXP.

CAP. IV.

For enabling the Kings Majeſty to make Leaſes, Grants, and Copies of Offices, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, parcel of his Highneſs Dutchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the ſame; and for Confirmation of Leaſes and Grants already made.

Stat. 21 Jac. cap. 29.

WHereas a great part of the Lands, part of, and annexed to the Dutchy of Cornwall have been held by ſundry Leaſes thereof made for years, and for one, two, and three Lives, by means whereof, the Tenants who have fixed Eſtates, have been encouraged to improve and manure the ſame, and have improved the ſame, and therein laid out great ſums of Money in Building, and otherwiſe to the great advantage of the Publick; And whereas for Twenty years and more, now laſt paſt, no ſuch Leaſes have been legally made; ſo that it is probable moſt of the Tenants Eſtates will be determined, or near determination ere that there can be any Eſtates well and legally renewed, unleſs remedy therefore be provided; by means whereof, Waſte, Spoil, and Dilapidation are likely to happen, the Lands worn out and decayed, and great diſturbance and impoveriſhment to the Tenants;

And whereas on the like conſideration, King Charles the Firſt was by ſpecial Law enabled to make ſuch Leaſes; Be it enacted by our Soveraign Lord the King, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all Leaſes or Grants already made, or hereafter to be made within the ſpace of three years now next enſuing by our ſaid Soveraign Lord the King, by Letters Patents, Indentures, or other Writings under his Great Seal of England, or Seal of the Court of Exchequer, or by Copy of Court-Roll, according to the Cuſtoms of the reſpective Manors of any Offices, Parks, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments (other then Honors, Lordſhips or Manors) parcel of the poſſeſſions of the ſaid Dutchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the ſame, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the Purport and Contents of the ſaid Leaſes, Grants and Copies, againſt our ſaid Soveraign Lord the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and againſt all and every perſon or perſons, that ſhall hereafter have, inherit, or enjoy the ſaid Dukedome of Cornwall, by force of any Act of Parliament, or other limitation whatſoever.

Leaſes by the King of Lands, &c. of the Dutchy of Cornwall made good.

Provided alwayes, That every ſuch Leaſe ſo to be made of any Parks, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments in poſſeſſion, ſhall be made but for three Lives or fewer, or for one and thirty years or under, or ſome other term of years determinable upon one, two, or three Lives, and not above; And if ſuch Leaſes be made in Reverſion, That then the ſame, together with the Eſtates in Poſſeſſion, do not exceed three Lives, or the term of one and thirty years, and not in any wiſe diſpuniſhable of Waſte, and ſo, as upon every ſuch Leaſe, ſhall be reſerved the ancient or moſt uſual Rent, or more, or ſuch Rent as hath been yielded or paid, for the greater part of twenty years, next before the making of the ſaid Leaſes, and ſhall be reſerved due and payable, by, or to him, or her that ſhall have the Inheritance, or other Eſtate of the ſaid Parks, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, and where no ſuch Rent hath been reſerved or payable, That then upon every ſuch Leaſe, there ſhall be reſerved a reaſonable Rent, not being under the fourth part of the clear yearly value of the Parks, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, contained in ſuch Leaſe.

Leaſes for above 31 years, or three lives, excepted.

Not to be diſpuniſhable of Waſte.

The ancient rent to be reſerved.

And be it further Ordained and Enacted by Authority of this preſent Parliament, That all Covenants, Conditions and Reſervations, and other Agreements contained in every Leaſe, Grant or Copy heretofore made, or hereafter ſo to be made as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the words and contents of the ſame, as well for, and againſt them, to whom the Reverſion of the ſame Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments ſhall come, as for and againſt them, to whom the Intereſt of the ſaid Leaſes, Grants or Copies ſhall come reſpectively, as if our Soveraign Lord the Kings Majeſty at the time of the making of ſuch Covenants, Conditions and Reſervations, and other Agreements, were ſeiſed of an abſolute Indefeaſible eſtate in Fee-ſimple in the ſame Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments; Saving alwayes to all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, (other then our ſaid Soveraign Lord the Kings Majeſty, and his Heirs, and all and every perſon and perſons that ſhall hereafter have, inherit, or enjoy the ſaid Dukedom of Cornwall, by force of any Act of Parliament, or other limitation whatſoever) all ſuch Rights, Titles, Eſtates, Cuſtoms, Intereſts, Terms, Claims and Demands whatſoever, of what kind, nature, or quality whatſoever, or in, to, or out of the ſaid Offices, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any of them, as they or any of them had, or ought to have had before the making of this Act, to all intents and purpoſes, and in as large and ample manner and form, as if this Act had never been had or made; this Act or any thing therein contained, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Covenants and conditions in ſuch leaſes, grants, &c. ſhall be good.

Saving of others Rights.

ACTS made in the Parliament begun and holden the 8th. of May, Anno 13 Caroli Secundi Regis; And Continued to the 19th. of May, 14 Caroli Regis. And thence Prorogued to the 18th. of February then next following.

CAP. I.

Certain Perſons called Quakers, and others, refuſing to take lawful Oaths.

Whereas of late times certain perſons under the names of Quakers, and other Names of Separation, have taken up, and maintained ſundry dangerous Opinions and Tenents, and (amongſt others) that the taking of an Oath in any caſe whatſoever, although before a lawful Magiſtrate, is altogether unlawful and contrary to the Word of God; and the ſaid perſons do daily refuſe to take an Oath, though lawfully tendred, whereby it often happens that the truth is wholly ſuppreſſed, and the Adminiſtration of Juſtice much obſtructed: And whereas the ſaid Perſons under a pretence of Religious Worſhip, do often aſſemble themſelves in great numbers in ſeveral parts of this Realm, to the great endangering of the Publick Peace and Safety, and to the terror of the People, by maintaining a ſecret and ſtrict correſpondence amongſt themſelves, and in the mean time ſeparating and dividing themſelves from the reſt of his Majeſties good and loyal Subjects, and from the Publick Congregations, and uſual places of Divine Worſhip.

Quakers and ſeparatiſts denying to take an Oath.

For the redreſſing therefore, and better preventing the many Miſchiefs and Dangers that do and may ariſe by ſuch dangerous Tenents, and ſuch unlawful Aſſemblies: Be it enacted by the Kings Moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual

The penalty for refuſing to take a lawful Oath.
1. Car. 2. cap. 4.

The ſecond offence.

The third offence.

Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, and by authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons who maintain that the taking of an Oath in any caſe whatſoever (although before a lawful Magiſtrate) is altogether unlawful, and contrary to the Word of God, from and after the four and twentieth day of March, in this preſent year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, ſhall wilfully and obſtinately refuſe to take an Oath, where, by the Laws of the Realm, he or ſhe is, or ſhall be bound to take the ſame, being lawfully and duly tendred, or ſhall endeavour to perſwade any other perſon, to whom any ſuch Oath ſhall in like manner be duly and lawfully tendred, to refuſe, and forbear the taking of the ſame, or ſhall by Printing, Writing, or otherwiſe, go about to maintain and defend that the taking of an Oath in any caſe whatſoever, is altogether unlawful; And if the ſaid perſons commonly called Quakers, ſhall at any time after the ſaid four and twentieth day of March, depart from the places of their ſeveral Habitations, and aſſemble themſelves to the number of Five, or more, of the age of ſixteen years or upwards, at any one time, in any place, under pretence of joyning in a Religious Worſhip, not authorized by the Laws of this Realm, that then in all and every ſuch caſes, the Party ſo offending being thereof lawfully convict by verdict of twelve men, or by his own confeſſion, or by the notorious evidence of the fact, ſhall loſe and forfeit to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the firſt offence, ſuch ſum as ſhall be impoſed upon him or her, not exceeding five pounds; And if any perſon or perſons, being once convicted of any ſuch offence, ſhall again offend therein, and ſhall in form aforeſaid, be thereof lawfully convicted, ſhall for the ſecond offence forfeit to the King our Soveraign Lord, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſuch ſum as ſhall be impoſed upon him or her, not exceeding ten pounds: The ſaid reſpective penalties to be levyed by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Parties Goods ſo convicted, by warrant of the parties before whom they ſhall be ſo convicted, rendring the overplus to the Owners, if any be: and for want of ſuch Diſtreſſe, or non-payment of the ſaid penalty, within one week after ſuch conviction, that then the ſaid Parties ſo convicted, ſhall for the firſt offence be committed to the Common-Gaol, or Houſe of Correction, for the ſpace of three moneths; and for the ſecond offence, during ſix moneths, without Bail or Mainprize, there to be kept at hard labour: which ſaid Moneys ſo to be levied, ſhall be paid to ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be appointed by thoſe before whom they ſhall be convicted, to be imployed for the increaſe of the Stock of the Houſe of Correction, to which they ſhall be committed, and providing materials to ſet them on work. And if any perſon after he, in form aforeſaid, hath been twice convict of any of the ſaid offences, ſhall offend the third time, and be thereof in form aforeſaid lawfully convict, that then every perſon ſo offending and convict, ſhall for his or her third offence abjure the Realm; or otherwiſe it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to give order, and to cauſe him, her, or them, to be tranſported into any Ship or Ships, to any of his Majeſties Plantations beyond the Seas.

Who may hear and determine the offences within this Act.

And it is Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Juſtice of Oyer and Terminer, Juſtices of Aſſize and Gaol-delivery, and the Juſtices of the Peace ſhall have full Power and Authority in every of their open and General Seſſions, to enquire, hear and determine all and every the ſaid Offences, within the limits of their Commiſſion, to them directed, and to make Proceſſe for the execution of the ſame, as they may do againſt any perſon being indicted before them of Treſpaſs, or lawfully convicted thereof.

And be it alſo Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for any Juſtice of Peace, Mayor, or other chief Officer of any Corporation, within their ſeveral Juriſdictions, to commit to the Common-Gaol, or bind over with ſufficient Sureties to the Quarter-Seſſions, any perſon or perſons offending in the Premiſſes, in order to his or their conviction aforeſaid.

How perſons ſubmitting may be diſcharged from the penalties.

Provided alwayes, and be it hereby further Enacted, That if any of the ſaid perſons, ſhall after ſuch conviction as aforeſaid, take ſuch Oath or Oaths, for which he or ſhe ſtands committed, and alſo give ſecurity, that he or ſhe ſhall for the time to come, forbear to meet in any ſuch unlawful Aſſembly as aforeſaid, that then, and from thenceforth, ſuch perſon and perſons, ſhall be diſcharged from all the penalties aforeſaid; any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Lords of the Parliament.

Provided alwayes, and be it Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and ſingular Lords of the Parliament, for every third offence committed againſt the tenor of this Act, ſhall be tryed by their Peers, and not otherwiſe.

CAP. II.

For repairing the High-wayes and Sewers, and paving and keeping clean of the Streets, in and about London and Weſtminſter, and for reforming of Annoyances and Diſorders there; and for the Regulating and Licenſing of Hackney Coaches; and for the enlarging of ſeveral ſtrait and inconvenient Streets and Paſſages.

Foraſmuch as the Common High-wayes leading unto, and from the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the Suburbs thereof, and other places within the preſent Weekly Bills of Mortality, by reaſon of the multitude of Houſes lately built, and through the ſtopping and filling up the Ditches and Sewers, and neglect of timely reparations, are at preſent, and for ſome years paſt have been ſo miry and foul, as is not only very noiſome, dangerous and inconvenient to the Inhabitants thereabouts, but to all the Kings Liege People, riding and travelling to and from the ſaid Cities; May it therefore pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for the Surveying, Ordering, and managing of the ſaid High-wayes, Streets, Allies, and other Paſſages within the ſaid Cities and places aforeſaid, and all things neceſſary for the Repairing, Paving, or keeping clean thereof, there be from henceforward Commiſſioners to be nominated by his Majeſty, under the Great Seal of England, not exceeding the number of one and twenty, beſides ſuch other Commiſſioners as are by this Act nominated and appointed (whereof the Surveyor of his Majeſties Works for the time being to be alwayes one) that ſhall have their place of meeting, at the Office of his Majeſties Works in Scotland-yard, or at ſome oneother place, as they or the greater number of them at any meeting ſhall direct from time to time, as there ſhall be occaſion; which ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, at their meeting as aforeſaid, ſhall have full power and authority, to order and direct the making of any new Vaults or Sewers, or to cut into any Drein or Sewer already made, or the altering, enlarging, amending, cleanſing or ſcowring of any old vaults, ſinks, or common-Sewers, or for the making, amending or altering of any new or old Pavements, or taking away of croſs Gutters or Channels, in all or any of the Streets and places aforeſaid, and for the removing of all kinds of Nuſances, or any Encroachment by Sheds, Stalls, Bulks, Stoops, Poſts, or Wall beyond the old Foundations into the Streets, in ſuch places which ſhall be adjudged inconvenient, and to hinder the Paſſage; Provided, that ſuch Encroachments as are aforementioned, which are Nuſances, that have continued above thirty years laſt paſt, ſhall not be removed untill reaſonable ſatisfaction ſhall be given by the ſaid Commiſſioners, to the party or parties that ſhall ſuffer thereby. And if any perſon or perſons that own the ſaid Encroachments, or ſhall not accept of ſuch reaſonable ſatisfaction as ſhall be tendred or offered by the ſaid Commiſſioners appointed for the Streets, for the pulling down or removing ſuch Nuſances or Encroachments as have been continued before the time aforeſaid; That then, and in ſuch caſes of Refuſal, the Barons of the Exchequer, upon a Petition preferred to them by the party grieved, ſhall have power, and are required by this Act to adjudge what ſatisfaction ſhall be fit for the ſaid perſon or perſons to receive for the removing or pulling down any ſuch Nuſances or Encroachment.

Commiſſioners to be named by his Majeſty under the great Seal for Surveying and cleanſing the Streets and High-wayes.

Encroachments that have continued 30 years not to be removed, but upon ſatisfaction to the parties.

The Barons of the Exchequer to judg of ſatisfaction, if refuſed upon tender.

And to prevent for the future all manner of Timber, and other irregular Buildings, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them; are hereby impowred to take a view of all ſuch Nuſances or Encroachments, and irregular Buildings, which ſaid View ſhall be a good conviction in Law; and every perſon or perſons having notice of the ſaid view or conviction, and ſhall not remove or take down ſuch Nuſances or Encroachments within one moneth after notice, ſhall forfeit forty ſhillings for every moneth the ſaid Nuſances or Encroachments ſhall afterwards continue.

Conviction for encroachments upon view, and the penalty.

And whereas the common High-wayes, and new built ſtreets hereafter mentioned, are thought fit immediately to be repaired, new-paved, or otherwiſe amended, namely, the ſtreet or way from the end of Petty-France to St. James's Houſe, and one ſtreet from St. James's Houſe up to the High-way, and one other in St. James's Fields, commonly called the Pall-mall; and alſo one other ſtreet beginning from the Mews up to Pickadilly, and from thence towards the Stone-Bridge to the furthermoſt Building near the Bull at the corner of Air-Street: Be it therefore Enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons, Owners or Inhabitants of all and every the Houſes built upon, or adjoyning to the ſaid Wayes or Streets, ſo adjudged and thought fit to be paved and repaired, ſhall according to their ſeveral Intereſts and Eſtates, and in ſuch proportions as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five of them ſhall think fit, before the firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, pay unto the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſo met as aforeſaid, which ſhall be nominated for the paving of the ſaid ways, or to ſuch perſon or perſons as they ſhall appoint, ſuch ſum and ſums of money towards the paving of the ſaid ſtreets or wayes, and for the buying of new ſtones and gravel, as ſhall amount to their ſeveral proportions, after the rate of ſixteen pence for every ſquare yard which the ground ſhall contain, that lies in front before every Dwelling-Houſe, Yard or Gardens belonging to the ſaid Dwelling-houſe: and in the ſame bredth, extending to the middle of the High-way or Street which lies before the ſaid Houſes, Yards or Gardens belonging to the ſaid Dwelling-houſes reſpectively.

Petty-France, St. James-Street, Pall-mall, & Air-ſtreet.

And for the better preſerving of the ſaid ſtreets, and for defraying of the reſidue of the charge of the ſaid Pavements. Be it further Enacted, That from and after the firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no perſon or perſons ſhall preſume to drive (except Stage-Coaches) or let to hire by the hour or day, or otherwiſe any Hackney-Coach or Coach-Horſes, within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, or Suburbs of the ſame, or within the Pariſhes compriſed within the Bills of Mortality, without an eſpecial leave or licenſe from ſuch Commiſſioners as his Majeſty ſhall appoint under the Great Seal, for the Licenſing and Regulating of Hackney-Coaches, according to the particular Proviſions and Limitations of this Bill; and that no Horſe, Gelding or Mare, to be uſed with ſuch Coaches, ſhall be under the ſize of fourteen hand high according to the Standard, and that the number to be licenſed, ſhall not exceed Four hundred; and that every Coach ſo licenſed, ſhall have a mark of diſtinction by figure or otherwiſe, as the Commiſſioners ſhall think fit, to the end they may be known, if any complaint ſhall be made of them. And that no perſon ſhall be licenſed to keep more then two Coaches, which Coaches ſhall have every of them ſeveral Figures or Marks of diſtinction in the ſame manner, as if belonging to ſeveral perſons; and that no perſon ſhall preſume to put the ſame Figure or Mark of diſtinction upon his Coach, that is appointed for any other Coach, under the Forfeiture of Five pounds for every ſuch Offence, one moyety whereof ſhall be to the Informer, and the other moyety to be paid to the Commiſſioners that ſhall be appointed for the Paving and Amending the ſtreets.

No Hackney Coaches to be without Licenſe.

And the ſaid Commiſſioners for the licenſing and regulating of Coaches, are to take ſpecial care, not to licenſe any perſon to drive or keep any Hackney-Coach or Coach-horſes, that uſeth any other Trade or Occupation; and in the firſt place to licenſe all ſuch perſons,

Who may be licenſed to keep Hackney Coaches.

as have been ancient Coachmen, or ſuch Coachmen as have ſuffered for their Service and affections to his late Majeſty, or his Majeſty that now is, or the Widow or Widows of any of them that have Coaches of their own.

Hackney Coaches not to exceed 400 in number.

And in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall licenſe more then the ſaid number of Four hundred Coaches, every of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſo licenſing, ſhall forfeit the ſum of one hundred pounds, for every ſuch Coach ſo licenſed above the ſaid number, whereof twenty pounds to the Informer, and the reſidue to be for the Repairing and paving the Ways and Streets, to be levied by Diſtreſs, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of Five or more of the other Commiſſioners, that ſhall be appointed for the paving and mending of the Streets and High-wayes.

The ſeveral rates allowed for Hackney Coaches.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Hackney Coachmen ſo licenſed, ſhall preſume to take for his Hire in or about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, above the rate of ten ſhillings for a day, reckoning twelve hours to the day, and by the hour not above eighteen pence for the firſt hour, and twelve pence for every hour after, and that no Gentleman or other perſon, ſhall pay from any of the Inns of Court, or thereabouts, to any part of St. James or City of Weſtminſter, (except beyond Tuttle-ſtreet) above Twelve pence, and the ſame prizes from the ſame places to the Inns of Court, or places thereabouts, and from any of the ſaid Inns of Court, or thereabouts, to the Royal-Exchange, twelve pence, and if to the Tower of London, or to Biſhops-gate-ſtreet, or Aldgate, or thereabouts, eighteen pence, and ſo from the ſame places to the ſaid Inns of Court as aforeſaid, and the like rates from and to any place at the like diſtance with the places before mentioned.

The penalty for exacting more.

And if any Coachman ſhall refuſe to go at, or ſhall exact more for his hire, then the ſeveral rates hereby limited, he ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the ſum of ten ſhillings.

And be it further Enacted, That every Coach ſo licenſed as aforeſaid, ſhall pay to the Commiſſioners that ſhall be appointed for the regulating and licenſing of Hackney Coaches, the yearly rent of five pounds, and no more, whereof fifty ſhillings ſhall be paid at or before the twenty ſixth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, and the ſum of five and twenty ſhillings at or upon the Feaſt day of St. Michael the Archangel next coming, and Twenty five ſhillings at the Feaſt of the Nativity of our Lord Chriſt; and from henceforward to be paid Quarterly at the four moſt uſual Feaſts of the Year, by equal portions (that is to ſay) at the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin, St. John the Baptiſt, St. Michael the Archangel, and the Nativity of our Lord Chriſt; which ſaid ſum and ſums of money, the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Hackney Coaches ſhall from time to time, pay or cauſe to be paid to the Commiſſioners appointed for the paving and amending of the Streets and High-wayes within this Bill contained, or to ſuch Treaſurer or Receiver as they ſhall appoint; and the ſaid Commiſſioners for Hackney Coaches, ſhall likewiſe from time to time, certifie to the Commiſſioners appointed for the paving of the Streets and High wayes, the names and dwellings of all ſuch perſons, as they ſhall licenſe to drive or keep Hackney Coaches, together with the ſeveral Figures or Marks of diſtinction, which are appointed to belong, and be affixed to the ſeveral Coaches, to the intent that diſcovery may the better be made of any abuſes that ſhall be committed, if any ſhall preſume to affix the Figure or Mark of diſtinction to any Coach, which belong of right to another, and whereby the Commiſſioners for the paving and amending the Streets and High-wayes, ſhall be enabled to call the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Hackney Coaches to a true and due accompt: And in caſe any overplus ſhall be of the Moneys appointed by this Act to be raiſed for the Paving and Mending the Wayes and Streets as aforeſaid, then ſuch overplus ſhall be imployed towards the Enlargement of ſuch Streets or Places as are to be enlarged by vertue of this Act.

Every load of hay and ſtraw rated towards mending the ſtreet.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Load of Hay, which from the firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, ſhall be brought and ſtand to be ſold upon any the Wayes hereby in this Act expreſſed, and adjudged fit to be new paved, and ſhall pay ſix pence for every Load; and likewiſe every Cart of Straw to be ſold in the ſaid places, ſhall after the ſaid day, pay two pence, which ſaid ſums ſhall be paid to the Commiſſioners, which ſhall be appointed for the Paving and Amending the High-wayes and Streets, or ſuch as they ſhall appoint, for and towards the Paving of the Streets and High-wayes.

How the penalties upon this Act may be levied.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines, Rents, Forfeitures and Penalties, as ſhall grow due and payable to the ſaid Commiſſioners by this Act, ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offendor or Offendors, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, which ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty, which ſhall be ſold within fourteen dayes, and the overplus returned to the Owner; and in default of Diſtreſs or not payment, the perſon or perſons ſo offending, or neglecting to pay, ſhall lye in Priſon without Bail or Mainprize, till he or they have paid ſuch Rent, Fine, Forfeiture and Penalty as was due from him or them.

The Commiſſioners may appoint a Treaſurer, Clerk, and other Officers for the ſervice.

And the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Streets and Wayes, or any Five or more of them ſo met as aforeſaid, are hereby impowred to appoint a Treaſurer or Collector and Clerk to attend them, or ſuch other Officer or Officers as they ſhall find neceſſary for the carrying on of the ſaid Service, with ſuch moderate Allowances as ſhall be fit: and in caſe any perſon ſhall propoſe to carry away the aſhes, dirt, and other filth, for all or any the places aforeſaid at leſs rates then the yearly Raker or Undertaker can or will perform the ſame, the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall have power, and are hereby authorized to contract with ſuch perſon, and for ſuch term as they ſhall think fit; and they are alſo to require an Accompt from time to time of all Scavengers within the ſaid places, and all other perſon or perſons that ſhall receive or diſburſe any moneys for the purpoſes in this Bill contained, as often as they, or any Five or more of them, ſo met as aforeſaid, ſhall think fitting and neceſſary, and ſhall hear

And may hear and determine all differences about paving and cleanſing the ſtreets.

Who may convict perſons offending and upon view or otherwiſe levy the penalties by this Act.

And for the more ſpeedy Reformation and puniſhment of all and every the offences aforeſaid; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every one of his Majeſties Juſtices of either Bench, and Barons of the Exchequer, and every Juſtice of Peace of the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and places aforeſaid (within their ſeveral limits reſpectively) ſhall have power and authority upon his own knowledge or view, confeſſion of the party, or proof of one credible witneſs upon Oath before him (which oath by vertue of this Act, ſuch Juſtice ſhall have power to adminiſter) to convict any perſon or perſons of any the offences aforeſaid, whereby ſuch perſon or perſons ſo convict, ſhall incur the penalties and forfeitures aforeſaid, one moyety whereof ſhall be diſpoſed and imployed for and towards the reparation, paving and cleanſing of the ſtreet or place where the offence ſhall be committed, and as much, or all of the other moyety as the Juſtices ſhall think fit, for him or them that ſhall diſcover and proſecute the ſame, in caſe the ſaid conviction be by ſuch diſcovery and proſecution; and if the conviction be by the view or knowledge of ſuch Juſtices, then the ſaid whole penalty to go and be imployed for and towards the repairing, paving, and cleanſing of the ſaid ſtreets or place, and ſhall be levied by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the offendor, by Warrant under the hand and ſeal of any ſuch Juſtice, to be directed to the Conſtable, or any other Officer of the ſame Pariſh, rendring the ſurpluſage to the party, and in default of diſtreſs, or not payment of the ſaid penalties, within ſix dayes after demand thereof, or notice in writing, left at the houſe or dwelling place of the Offendor, by the ſaid Conſtable, or any other Officer, the ſaid Offendor not being a Peer of this Realm, ſhall be committed to the Common Gaol of the ſaid County or City reſpectively, by the Warrant of any ſuch Juſtice under his Hand and Seal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize untill payment.

And for the better raiſing and levying of monyes to defray the Charges, and pay the Wages of the ſaid Scavengers, Rakers, or other Officers imployed in cleanſing of the Streets, Lanes, Alleys, and other places aforeſaid, and carrying of the ſaid aſhes, dirt, filth and ſoil; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That within the City of London and Liberties thereof, the Scavengers, Rakers, and ſuch like Officers, ſhall be elected, and the Rates, Taxes and Aſſeſſements for Scavengers, Rakers, and ſuch like Officers wages, for cleanſing the Streets, ſhall be rated, taxed, aſſeſſed, raiſed and paid by the Pariſhioners and Inhabitants of every Pariſh and Precinct reſpectively, within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, according to the ancient Cuſtom and Uſage of the ſaid City. And the Receivers of all ſuch moneys ſhall be accomptable as formerly; And all new Meſſuages, Tenements and Houſes, within the limits aforeſaid, ſhall be likewiſe rated, taxed and aſſeſſed, and ſhall pay proportionably with others; And that within the City of Weſtminſter, the ſaid Officers ſhall be choſen, and the Rates made and paid according to the ancient Cuſtom of the ſaid City; And in all other the Pariſhes and places aforeſaid, upon every Tueſday or Wedneſday in Eaſter-Week, the Conſtables, Churchwardens and Overſeers for the Poor, and Surveyors of the High-ways of every of the ſaid Pariſhes and places reſpectively, or the greater uumber of them, giving notice unto, or calling together ſuch other Inhabitants of their reſpective Pariſhes as have formerly born the like Offices therein, they or the greater number of them ſhall make choice of, and ſhall nominate and appoint two or more able perſons that are Tradeſmen of their Pariſh, to be Scavengers for the Streets, Lanes, and other open Paſſages of each Ward and Diviſion within the ſaid Pariſh, for the year then next following, and untill others be choſen and ſetled in their Places; which perſons ſo choſen, and being approved and confirmed under the Hands of any two Juſtices of Peace within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions, ſhall within ſeven dayes after their Election and Confirmation, and notice thereof, take that Office and Duty upon them, upon pain to forfeit Twenty pounds by every refuſer reſpectively. And in caſe of refuſal by any perſon or perſons ſo choſen and confirmed, then other able perſons ſhall be choſen and confirmed in manner aforeſaid, within ſeven dayes after ſuch refuſal, in the place of him or them which ſhall ſo refuſe; and the perſon or perſons ſo choſen and confirmed, and having notice thereof, ſhall undergo the like pain, in caſe of refuſal, or not taking the ſaid Office and Duty upon him or them within ſeven dayes after he or they ſhall be choſen and confirmed, and have notice thereof as aforeſaid, The ſaid Penalties to be diſpoſed and employed for, or towards the mending and repairing of the Streets and Wayes of the ſame Pariſh, Ward or Diviſion, and to be levyed by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of the Offendor, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any Juſtice of the Peace of any of the places aforeſaid, to be directed to the Conſtables, or other Officers of the ſame Pariſh, or any two or more of them (rendring the ſurpluſage to the Party) and in default of Diſtreſſe, or not payment within ſix dayes after demand thereof or notice left in Writing, at the Houſe or Dwelling-place of the Offendor, by the ſaid Conſtables or Officers, the ſaid Offendor to be committed to the Gaol of the ſaid County or City reſpectively, by the Warrant of any ſuch Juſtice, under his Hand and Seal, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, untill payment.

Rates and taxes to be made for defraying the charges and wages of Scavengers and others.

How and when to elect Scavengers.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That within twenty dayes after the Election and Confirmation of the ſaid Scavengers as aforeſaid, the Conſtables, Churchwardens and Overſeers for the Poor, and of the High-wayes of the ſaid Pariſhes, and places reſpectively, or the greater number of them, giving notice unto, or calling together ſuch Inhabitants of their reſpective Pariſhes, as have formerly born the like Office therein; They, or the greater number of them then preſent, ſhall make and ſettle a Tax, Rate or Aſſeſſement, according to a Pound-rate, to be impoſed or ſet upon the Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh, Ward or Diviſion, for the year following, for the purpoſes aforeſaid; which being allowed and confirmed by any two of the Juſtices of the Peace of the places aforeſaid reſpectively, ſhall be quarterly paid by every reſpective Inhabitant, upon demand made thereof by the Beadle of the Pariſh, or other Officer appointed to gather and collect the ſame: And in caſe of refuſal or neglect, ſhall by Warrant of any two Juſtices of the Peace, under their Hands and Seals, be levied by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Offendors Goods; and for want of Diſtreſſe, by impriſonment of the Offendor, (he not being a Peer of this Realm) untill payment as aforeſaid.

Taxes and Aſſeſſements to be made yearly by a Pound-rate.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought, or proſecuted by any perſon or perſons, againſt any Judge, Commiſſioner, Juſtice of the Peace, Conſtable, or other Officer, or Miniſter aforeſaid, or againſt any perſon or perſons imployed by them, or any of them, or authorized by this Act to do or perform, as by this Act is directed, for any matter, cauſe or thing, by them or any of them done, committed or executed, by vertue or reaſon of this Act, or any Clauſe or Article therein contained; that then in every ſuch caſe, the Action ſhall be laid in the proper County where the Fact was done, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant or Defendants may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence at the Tryal, That the ſame was done in purſuance, and by Authority of this Act: And if upon Examination it ſhall ſo happen to be done, the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant; and in ſuch caſe, or if the Plaintiff ſhall be Nonſuit, or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant hath appeared, the Defendant ſhall have, and Actions brought againſt any Commiſſioners or Officers imployed by this Act; the Defendant may plead the General Iſſue.

And give the ſpecial matter in Evidence.

recover his or their double Coſts, which he, or they ſhall ſuſtain, or be put unto, by reaſon of his or their wrongful vexation, in defence of the ſaid Action or Suit.

The enlargement of paſſage in narrow and incommodious ſtreets.

And whereas the ſeveral Streets and Paſſages hereafter mentioned (that is to ſay) The Street or Paſſage at or near the Stocks in London; the Street and Paſſage from Fleet-Conduit to St. Pauls Church in London; the Paſſage through the White-Hart-Inn from the Strand into Covent-Garden; the Street and Paſſage by and near Exeter-Houſe and the Savoy, being obſtructed by a Rail, and the unevenneſs of the Ground thereabouts; the Paſſage and Street of St. Martins-Lane out of the Strand; the Paſſage or Street of Field-Lane, commonly called Jack-an-apes-lane, going between Chancery-Lane and Lincolns-Inn-Fields; the Paſſage and Gatehouſe of Cheapſide into St. Pauls Church-yard; the Paſſage againſt St. Dunſtans Church in the Weſt (being obſtructed by a Wall) the Street and Paſſage by and near the Weſt-end of the Poultrey in London, and the Paſſage at Temple-Bar, are ſo narrow that they are incommodious to Coaches, Carts and Paſſengers, and prejudicial to Commerce and Trading; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Mayor of the City of London, the Recorder and Aldermen for the time being, together with ſuch other Commiſſioners as his Majeſty ſhall appoint under the Great Seal of England, or any five of them, ſhall have full Power and Authority, to receive all Subſcriptions and Payments of voluntary Contributions of money, or other Endowments towards the Amendment and Enlargement of the Streets and Places before-named, or ſo much of them, or any of them, as the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them ſhall judge fit and neceſſary, And are hereby further impowred to Treat and Agree with the Owners and Occupiers of any ſuch Houſes, as they ſhall judge fit to be removed, rebuilt, or pulled down; or any part of them, and upon payment of ſuch ſum or ſums of money ſo agreed upon, are hereby authorized to appoint Workmen to pull the ſaid Houſes down, or cauſe the ſaid Owners or Occupiers to rebuild accordingly, and this Act ſhall be ſufficient to indempnify the ſaid Commiſſioners, and all perſons authorized by them, againſt the Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns of any the ſaid Owners or Occupiers, as if the ſame had been ſold by Deed, Feoffment, Bargain and Sale, or other Aſſurance in the Law, and done by Fine and Recovery, or any other way whatſoever; And if there ſhall be any perſons, Bodies Corporate or Collegiate, that ſhall wilfully refuſe to Treat and Agree, as aforeſaid, or through any diſability by Nonage, Coverture, or a ſpecial Entail, or other Impediment cannot, That in ſuch Caſes the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authorized by vertue of this Act, to iſſue out a Warrant or Warrants to the Sheriffs of London, who are hereby required accordingly to impannel and return a Jury before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five of them, which Jury upon their Oaths to be adminiſtred by the ſaid Commiſſioners, are to enquire and aſſeſs ſuch damage and recompence as they ſhall judge fit to be awarded to the Owners and Occupiers, or either of them, of any ſuch houſes, or any part thereof, for their reſpective Eſtates and Intereſts in the ſame, as by the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be adjudged fit to be pulled down for the purpoſes aforeſaid: and ſuch Verdict of the Jury, and Judgment of the ſaid Commiſſioners thereupon, and the legal payment, or tender of the ſum or ſums of money ſo awarded and adjudged ſhall be binding to all intents and purpoſes againſt the ſaid Parties, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, and others claiming any Title or Intereſt in the ſaid Houſes, or in the ground whereupon they ſtand, or thereunto belonging, and ſhall be a full Authority for the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five of them, to cauſe the ſame to be executed, and the ſaid Houſes accordingly to be removed and pulled down.

The Lord Mayor of London and others, Commiſſioners, may treat with perſons concerned for their Intereſts in houſes obſtructing ſuch paſſage.

What may be done in caſe of refuſal to compound with the Commiſſioners.

And whereas the Houſes that ſhall remain ſtanding on the other ſide the ſaid Street or Streets, or behind the ſaid houſes that ſhall be ſo pulled down as aforeſaid, will receive much advantage in the value of their Rents, by the liberty of Ayr, and free recourſe for Trade, and other conveniences by ſuch enlargement; It is alſo Enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe of refuſal, or incapacity, as aforeſaid, of the Owners or Occupiers of the ſaid Houſes, to agree and compound with the Commiſſioners for the ſame, thereupon a Jury ſhall and may be Impanelled in manner and form aforeſaid, to Judge and Aſſeſſe upon the Owners and Occupiers of ſuch houſes, ſuch competent ſum or ſums of money, or Annual Rent, in conſideration of ſuch Improvement and Melioration, as in reaſon and good Conſcience they ſhall judge and think fit; which ſaid ſum and ſums of money, or Rent, ſhall be paid to the Chamberlain of the City of London for the time being, and ſuch other Treaſurer or Treaſurers as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, who are hereby enabled from to time, to receive and recover the ſame by Action at Law, and whoſe Receipt ſhall be a good diſcharge to the ſaid Owners and Tenants, and who are hereby appointed to receive and pay, and be accomptable for the ſame according to ſuch directions as ſhall from time to time be given them by the ſaid Commiſſioners: and the moneys ſo raiſed, or Rents ſo received, ſhall be expended upon the Purchaſing or Rebuilding houſes on the other ſide the Street, and upon paving and amending of the Wayes and Streets aforeſaid, according to the purport of this Act. And the ſaid Verdict of the Jury, and Judgment of the Commiſſioners in the caſes aforeſaid, ſhall be ſufficient and concluſive in Law to all intents and purpoſes, againſt the ſaid Owners and Occupiers, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns.

Every Commiſſioner to take an Oath for the faithful performance of this Act.

Provided alwayes, And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon ſhall be enabled to act as a Commiſſioner to the intents and purpoſes aforeſaid, untill he ſhall firſt have taken his Corporal Oath before the Lord Chancellor, or Lord High Treaſurer of England for the time being, for the due and impartial execution of the Truſts by this Act committed to him.

Lord Mayor and Aldermen to be commiſ[illegible]

Provided alſo, That the Lord Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the City of London for the time being, ſhall be, and are hereby authorized to be Joynt-Commiſſioners, and to exerciſe all the Powers of this Act, to all the ends and purpoſes thereof, which are to be ordered, done, or executed within the ſaid City, or the Liberties thereof: And likewiſe, That the Dean of Weſtminſter, the High-Steward, and his Deputy-Steward, and the two High Burgeſſes of the ſaid City of Weſtminſter for the time being, ſhall be, and are hereby authorized to be Joynt-Commiſſioners, and to exerciſe all the Powers of this Act, to all the ends and purpoſes thereof, which are to be ordered, done, or executed within the ſaid City of Weſtminſter, or the Liberties thereof, Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Dean, High ſteward, Deputy-ſteward, and two High Burgeſſes in Weſtm.

This Act to continue, and be in force untill the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

The Continuance of this Act.

CAP. III.

For Ordering the Forces in the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdome.

Foraſmuch as within all his Majeſties Realms and Dominions, the ſole and Supream Power, Government, Command and Diſpoſition of the Militia, and of all Forces by Sea and Land, and of all Forts and places of Strength is, and by the Laws of England, ever was the undoubted Right of his Majeſty, and his Royal Predeceſſors, Kings and Queens of England; and that both, or either of the Houſes of Parliament, cannot, nor ought to pretend to the ſame; nor can, nor lawfully may raiſe, or levy any War, Offenſive or Defenſive, againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs, or lawful Succeſſors; and yet the contrary thereof hath of late years been practiſed, almoſt to the ruine and deſtruction of this Kingdom; and during the late uſurped Governments, many evil and rebellious principles have been inſtilled into the minds of the people of this Kingdom, which may break forth, unleſs prevented, to the diſturbance of the peace and quiet thereof.

The ſole and ſupream power and command of the Militia in the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors.
13 Car. 2. cap. 6.

Be it therefore Declared and Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall and may from time to time, as occaſion ſhall require, iſſue forth ſeveral Commiſſions of Lieutenancy to ſuch perſons as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall think fit to be his Majeſties Lieutenants for the ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Cities and places of England, and Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; which Lieutenants ſhall have full power and authority to call together all ſuch perſons at ſuch times, and to arm, and array them in ſuch manner as is hereafter expreſſed and declared; and to form them into Companies, Troops and Regiments; and in caſe of Inſurrection, Rebellion, or Invaſion, them to lead, conduct and imploy, or cauſe to be led, conducted and imployed, as well within the ſaid ſeveral Counties, Cities, and places for which they ſhall be Commiſſioned reſpectively, as alſo into any other the Counties and places aforeſaid, for ſuppreſſing of all ſuch Inſurrections & Rebellions, and repelling of Invaſions, as may happen to be, according as they ſhall from time to time receive directions from his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; And that the ſaid reſpective Lieutenants ſhall have full power and authority from time to time, to conſtitute, appoint, and give Commiſſions to ſuch perſons as they ſhall think fit to be Colonels, Majors, Captains, and other Commiſſion-Officers of the ſaid perſons ſo to be armed, arrayed and weaponed, and to preſent to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the names of ſuch perſon and perſons as they ſhall think fit to be Deputy-Lieutenants, and upon his Majeſties approbation of them, ſhall give them Deputations accordingly; alwayes underſtood, That his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors have power and authority to direct and order otherwiſe, and accordingly at his and their pleaſure, may appoint and commiſſionate, or diſplace ſuch Officers; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: And that the ſaid Lieutenants reſpectively, and in their abſence, out of the Precincts and Limits of their reſpective Lieutenancies, or otherwiſe by their directions, the ſaid Deputy-Lieutenants, during their ſaid reſpective Deputations, or any two or more of them, ſhall have power from time to time, to train, exerciſe, and put in readineſs; and alſo to lead and conduct the perſons ſo to be armed, arrayed and weaponed, by the directions, and to the intents and purpoſes, as is hereafter expreſſed and declared.

His Majeſty may iſſue out Commiſſions of Lieutenancy to ſuch perſons as he ſhall think fit, for the ſeveral Counties, Cities, &c.
The power of the ſaid Lieutenants.

CAP. XIV.

There ſhall be Uniformity of Publique Prayers, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies: And of Ordering and Conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts, and Deacons in the Church of England.

Whereas in the firſt year of the late Queen Elizabeth, there was one Uniforme Order of Common Service, and Prayer, and of the Adminiſtration of Sacraments, Rites and Ceremonies of the Church of England (agreeable to the Word of God, and uſage of the Primitive Church) compiled by the Reverend Biſhops and Clergy, ſet forth in one Book entituled, The Book of Common Prayer, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England, and enjoyned to be uſed by Act of Parliament, holden in the ſaid firſt year of the ſaid late Queen, Entituled, An Act for Uniformity of common Prayer, and Service in the Church, and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, very comfortable to all good people deſirous to live in Chriſtian converſation, and moſt profitable to the eſtate of this Realm, upon the which the Mercy, Favour, and Bleſſing of Almighty God is in no wiſe ſo readily and plentifully poured, as by Common Prayers, due uſing of the Sacraments, and often preaching of the Goſpel, with Devotion of the Hearers: And yet this notwithſtanding, a great number of people in divers parts of this Realm, following their own ſenſuality, and living without knowledge, and due fear of God, do Wilfully & Schiſmatically abſtain, and refuſe to come to their Pariſh-Churches, and other publick places where Common Prayer, Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and preaching of the Word of God is uſed upon the Sundays, and other days ordained and appointed to be kept and obſerved as Holy-days. And whereas by the great and ſcandalous neglect of Miniſters in uſing the ſaid Order or Liturgy ſo ſet forth, and enjoyned, as aforeſaid great miſchiefs and inconveniences, during the time of the late unhappy Troubles, have ariſen and grown and many people have been led into factions & Shciſms to the great decay and ſcandal of the Reformed Religion of the Church of England, and to the hazard of many ſouls. For prevention whereof in time to come, for ſetling the Peace of the Church, and for allaying the preſent diſtempers which the indiſpoſition of the time hath contracted; The Kings Majeſty (according to his Declaration of the Five and twentieth of October, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty granted his Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, to ſeveral Biſhops, and other Divines, to review the Book of Common Prayer and to prepare ſuch Alterations and Additions; as they thought fit to offer; And afterwards the Convocations of both the Provinces of Canterbury and York, being by his Majeſty called, and aſſembled, (and now ſitting. His Majeſty hath been pleaſed, to Authorize and require the Preſidents of the ſaid Convocation, and other the Biſhops and Clergy of the ſame, to re-view the ſaid Book of Common Prayer, and the Book of the Form and manner of the Making and Conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts, and Deacons; And that after mature conſideration, they ſhould make ſuch Additions and Alterations in the ſaid Books reſpectively, as to them ſhould ſeem meet and convenient; And ſhould exhibit and preſent the ſame to his Majeſty in writting for his further allowance, or confirmation; ſince which time, upon full and mature diliberation, they the ſaid Preſidents, Biſhops, and Clergy, of both Provinces, have accordingly re-viewed the ſaid Preſidents, Biſhops, and Clergy of both Provinces, have accordingly re-viewed the ſaid Books, and have made ſome Alterations which they think fit to be inſerted to the ſame; and ſome Additional Prayers to the ſaid Book of Common Prayer, to be uſed upon proper and emergent occaſions; And have exhibited and preſented the ſame unto his Majeſty in writing in one Book, entituled, The Book of Common Prayer, and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church, according to the uſe of the Church of England, together with the Pſalter, or Pſalms of David, Pointed as they are to be ſung or ſaid in Churches; and the Form and manner of Making, Ordaining, and conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons: All which his Majeſty having duly conſidered, hath fully approved and allowed the ſame; and recommended to this preſent Parliament that the ſaid Books of Common Prayer, and of the form of ordination and conſecration of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons, with the Alterations and Additions which have been ſo made and preſented to his Majeſty by the ſaid Convocations, be the Book which ſhall be appointed to be uſed by all that Officiate in all Cathedral and Collegiate Churches & Chappels, and in all Chappels or Colledges and Halls in both the Univerſities, and the Colledges of Eaton, and Wincheſter, and in all Pariſh-Churches and Chappels, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and by all that make or Conſecrate Biſhops, Prieſts or Deacons, in any of the ſaid places, under ſuch Sanctions and Penalties as the Houſes of Parliament ſhall think fit.

1 El. cap. 2.

The Kings Declaration and Commiſſion for reviewing the Book of Common Prayer, and Alterations to be propounded therein.

Now in regard that nothing conduceth more to the ſetling of the Peace of this Nation (which is deſired of all good men) nor to the honor of our Religion, and the propagation thereof, then an Univerſal agreement in the publique Worſhip of Almighty God; and to the intent that every perſon within this Realm, may certainly know the rule to which he is to conform in Publique Worſhip, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and

And to the end that the true and perfect Copies of this Act, and the ſaid Book hereunto annexed may be ſafely kept, and perpetually preſerved, and for the avoiding of all diſputes for the time to come; Be it therefore Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Deans and Chapters of every Cathedral, or Collegiate Church within England and Wales, ſhall at their proper coſts and charges, before the Twenty fifth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, obtain [illegible]er the Great Seal of England a true and printed Copy of this Act, and of the ſaid Book annexed hereunto, to be by the ſaid Deans and Chapters, and their Succeſſors, kept and preſerved in ſafety for ever, and to be alſo produced and ſhewed forth in any Court of Record, as often as they ſhall be thereunto lawfully required; And alſo there ſhall be delivered true and perfect Copies of this Act, and of the ſame Book into the reſpective Courts at Weſtminſter, and into the Tower of London, to be kept and preſerved for ever among the Records of the ſaid Courts, and the Records of the Tower, to be alſo produced, and ſhewed forth in any Court, as need ſhall require; which ſaid Books ſo to be exemplified under the Great Seal of England, ſhall be examined by ſuch perſons as the Kings Majeſty ſhall appoint, under the Great Seal of England for that purpoſe, and ſhall be compared with the Original Book hereunto annexed, and ſhall have power to correct and amend in writing, any Error committed by the Printer in the printing of the ſame Book, or of any thing therein contained, and ſhall certifie in writing under their hands and ſeals, or the hands and ſeals of any three of them at the end of the ſame Book, that they have examined and compared the ſame Book, and find it to be a true and perfect copy; which ſaid Books, and every one of them ſo exemplified under the Great Seal of England as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed, taken, adjudged and expounded to be good, and available in the Law to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, and ſhall be accounted as good Records as this Book it ſelf hereunto annexed; Any Law, or Cuſtome to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Kings Profeſſor of Law in Oxford.

Provided alſo, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be prejudicial or hurtful unto the Kings Profeſſor of the Law within the Univerſity of Oxford, for, or concerning the Prebend of Shipton, within the Cathedral Church of Sarum, united and annexed unto the place of the ſame Kings Profeſſor for the time being, by the late King James of bleſſed memory.

Proviſo concerning the 36th Article agreed in the Convocation, Anno 1562.

Provided alwayes, That whereas the Six and thirtieth Article of the Nine and thirty Articles agreed upon by the Archbiſhops and Biſhops of both Provinces, and the whole Clergy holden at London, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand five hundred ſixty two, for the avoiding of diverſities of Opinions, and for eſtabliſhing of conſent, touching true Religion, is in theſe words following, viz.

“ That the Book of Conſecration of Archbiſhops and Biſhops, and Ordaining of Prieſts and Deacons, “ lately ſet forth in the time of King Edward the Sixth, and confirmed at the ſame time by Authority of Par“ liament, doth contain all things neceſſary to ſuch Conſecration and Ordaining, neither hath it any thing
“ that of it ſelf is ſuperſtitious, and ungodly: And therefore whoſoever are Conſecrated or Ordered accord“ ing to the Rites of that Book, ſince the ſecond year of the aforenamed King Edward, unto this time, or “ hereafter ſhall be Conſecrated or Ordered according to the ſame Rites; We decree all ſuch to be rightly, “ orderly, and lawfully Conſecrated and Ordered;

It be enacted, And be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Subſcriptions hereafter to be had or made unto the ſaid Articles, by any Deacon, Prieſt, or Eccleſiaſtical perſon, or other perſon whatſoever, who by this Act, or any other Law now in force is required to ſubſcribe unto the ſaid Articles, ſhall be conſtrued, and be taken to extend, and ſhall be applied (for and touching the ſaid Six and thirtieth Article) unto the Book containing the form and manner of Making, Ordaining and Conſecrating of Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons in this Act mentioned, in ſuch ſort and manner as the ſame did heretofore extend unto the Book ſet forth in the time of King Edward the Sixth, mentioned in the ſaid Six and thirtieth Article, Any thing in the ſaid Article, or in any Statute, Act or Canon heretofore had or made, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Common Prayer uſed by authority of Parliament, 1 Eliz. to be uſed untill Bartholomew Day, 1662. EXP.

Provided alſo, That the Book of Common Prayer, and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of this Church of England, together with the form and manner of Ordaining and Conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons heretofore in uſe, and reſpectively eſtabliſhed by Act of Parliament in the Firſt and Eighth years of Queen Elizabeth, ſhall be ſtill uſed and obſerved in the Church of England, until the Feaſt of St. Bartholomew, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two. EXP. as to this laſt Clauſe.

CAP. V.

For Regulating the Making of Stuffs in Norfolk and Norwich.

Whereas divers abuſes and deceipts have of late years been had and uſed in the making of Worſteds, and other Stuffs commonly called Norwich Stuffs, and in the Reeling of Yarns, whereof the ſaid Stuffs are either wholly, or in part made, which tends to the debaſing of the ſaid Manufacture, unto the prejudice of the publique; which ſaid Trade of Weaving of Stuffs hath of late times been very much increaſed, and great variety of new ſorts of Stuffs have been invented; ſo that the Power given by the Statute of the Seventh of Edward the Fourth, Chapter the Firſt, is not ſufficient for the Regulating of the ſame; And that the number of the Wardens by the ſame Act appointed, being but eight, are too few for the Governing and Ordering the ſame Trade, by which means the ſame Manufacture will ſoon be loſt, (if not prevented) and carried into Foreign Nations, to the great diminution of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, and turning out of the work many thouſands of poor people.

7 E. 4. cap. 1.

The number of Wardens and Aſſiſtants of Maſter Weavers in Norwich, how and when to be choſen.

For prevention of which abuſes, deceipts and evils, It is Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons Aſſembled in Parliament, and by the authority of the ſame, That there ſhall be Twelve Wardens, and Thirty Aſſiſtants, all which are to be Maſter Weavers within the County of the City of Norwich, and County of Norfolk: ſix of which ſaid Wardens, and fifteen of the ſaid Aſſiſtants ſhall be choſen the firſt Monday after Pentecoſt, in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, and from thenceforth yearly, and every year on the next Monday after Pentecoſt, at ſome publique place by the Maſter-Weavers, or the greater part of them preſent of the ſaid City and County of Norwich; And the other ſix Wardens, and fifteen Aſſiſtants ſhall be choſen upon the ſame day yearly within the City of Norwich, or County of Norfolk, in ſome publique place by the Maſter-Weavers, or the greater part of them preſent of the County of Norfolk. And the ſaid Wardens reſpectively ſhall within fourteen dayes after they ſhall be ſo choſen or elected, and notice thereof given, take the Oath enſuing, to be adminiſtred by the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being, or his Deputy, and the Steward of the Dutchy of Lancaſter within the ſaid County for the time being, if it ſhall happen the ſaid Steward ſhall be there preſent, or elſe before the ſaid Mayor, or his Deputy onely; which Oath they and every of them are hereby authorized and required from time to time to Adminiſter accordingly, Viz: I A. B. do ſwear, That I will well, faithfully and honeſtly perform and diſcharge the Office of a Warden of the ſaid Trade of Worſted Weavers, according to the beſt of my skill, power and knowledge. And that the ſaid Aſſiſtants, and every of them, within the time aforeſaid, ſhall take the like Oath before ſuch perſon or perſons before whom the Wardens ſhall be Sworn for the execution of that office of an Aſſiſtant; and that if it ſhall happen that any of the ſaid Wardens, who ſhall be ſo choſen, ſhall refuſe to take the ſaid Oath, or after he be ſworn, ſhall die before the end of the year, That then from time to time, ſo often as need ſhall be, it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for the Maſter-Weavers of the ſaid City, County of the City of Norwich, and County of Norfolk, reſpectively, as the cauſe ſhall require, to chuſe other Warden, or Wardens in the place of him, or them ſo dying, or refuſing, who ſhall be ſworn in ſuch manner as aforeſaid.

The Oath to be taken by them.

The powers in this Act for Regulation of Trade to be put in execution.

And for the Regulation and good Government of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture, the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants, or any thirteen of them, whereof ſeven to be Wardens, ſhall and may from time to time meet and conſult together for the good and benefit of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture; and for due execution of the Powers and Authorities given by this Act, ſo often as to them ſhall ſeem expedient, or when it ſhall be deſired by eight, or more of the ſaid Aſſiſtants, at the place called Weavers-Hall in the ſaid City, or at ſuch other place as they ſhall think fit: And that any thirteen or more of the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants, whereof ſeven at the leaſt to be Wardens, ſhall have, and hereby have power and authority from time to time, ſo often as need ſhall require, to make and ordain By-Lawes, Rules and Ordinances, for, and concerning the Regulation of the ſaid Worſted-Stuffs, and other Stuffs now made, and which hereafter ſhall be made within the ſaid City and County of the City of Norwich, and County of Norfolk, and in either of them, both in length, breadth and goodneſs, and of ſuch other particulars as ſhall by the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants ſo met, or the greater number of them, from time to time be adjudged requiſite for the better Regulating the ſaid Trade and Manufacture, and the Artificers of the ſame in the Power to make By-laws and Orders.

the due execution of this Act (and to make Seals from time to time for the ſealing of the ſame Stuffs) which By-laws, Rules and Ordinances, being ratified and confirmed by the Mayor, and two Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City and County of Norwich for the time being, and three other Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid County of Norfolk (whereof one to be of the Quorum) ſhall be publiſhed four times in the year at the leaſt, at four Publick Aſſemblies for the ſaid Trade and Manufacture, and ſhall be obeyed and kept by the ſeveral perſons within and under the ſaid Regulation.

To be publiſhed at Four Aſſemblies to be held yearly.

The penalty upon offendors againſt ſuch By-laws and Orders.

And the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants ſhall have, and hereby have power to impoſe a fine or penalty upon any perſon or perſons under ſuch Regulation as ſhall not conform to ſuch Rules, Orders and Ordinances ſo made, and to be made and confirmed as aforeſaid.

Provided that the ſaid Fine or Penalty upon any perſon for not conforming as aforeſaid, ſhall not exceed the ſum of Ten ſhillings for any one Offence.

Notice of meeting by the City of Norwich, to be given to the Wardens of the County of Norfolk.

And it is further Enacted, That the Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid City, and County of the City of Norwich, ſhall from time to time give Perſonal notice unto the Wardens of the ſaid County of Norfolk, or two of them at the leaſt, of the time when they intend to conſider of the making of By-laws, Rules and Ordinances aforeſaid, and ſhall ſet up in writing upon the Door of their Sealing-Hall, fourteen days at the leaſt before they ſhall proceed to the making the ſame; to the end, that ſuch of the ſaid County Weavers as are therein concerned may be there preſent.

Yarns called Worſted Yarns, how to be made.

And for the better Regulation and carrying on the work aforeſaid, and for avoiding of all Frauds and Deceipts therein; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Yarns call Worſted Yarns, and ſuch other Yarns, as are commonly uſed by the Worſted Weavers, ſhall be made without Fraud, and ſhall be Reeled on a Reel of a full Yard about, and every Reel-ſtaff ſhall contain fourteen Leas, and every Lea forty threads, twelve of which Reel-ſtaffs ſhall make a dozen, and twelve of thoſe dozens ſhall make a groſſe: And in caſe any Perſon or Perſons ſhall ſell, or expoſe to ſale, any of the ſaid Yarns made and Reeled, in any other manner than as is aforeſaid, that then every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſhall forfeit the moyety of the value of the ſaid yarns to the uſe of the ſaid Trade and Manufactures, after charges of Suit, and of Proſecution, firſt deducted out of the ſame, which forfeiture ſhall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Indictment or Information in any of the Kings Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Wager of Law, Eſſoine or Protection ſhall be allowed for the Defendant.

View and ſearch to be made of manufactures in Fairs and Markets.

And that it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for the Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Trade and Manufactures, or any two of them, from time to time to View and Search in all Fairs and Markets, and other publick places of ſale of yarns, within the ſaid City of Norwich and County of the ſame, and County of Norfolk, and either of them, all yarns which be there expoſed to ſale; and ſuch of the ſaid yarns, as they ſhall find defective, contrary to the Rules herein before ſet, that then it ſhall and may be lawful, to, and for the ſame Wardens and Aſſiſtants, or any two of them, to ſeize the ſame yarns, and bring the ſame within twenty dayes next after the Seiſure thereof to Tryal by a Jury, and to be proceeded in, and fined in ſuch manner and form as in this preſent Act is limited and appointed for defective Stuffs; which ſaid Jury ſhall have, and hereby have power to ſet ſuch fine or fines upon the ſaid yarns, as they ſhall in their diſcretions ſee cauſe, the ſame fines not to exceed the moyety of the yarn ſo found defective, and the ſame fines to go to the Poor of the ſame Trade and Manufacture, as aforeſaid.

Provided alwayes, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be doubly puniſhed for any one offence touching yarns (that is to ſay) by this, and the former clauſe in this Act.

All Woollen Stuffs and Weavers to be under the Government of the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtant.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That all ſorts of Stuffs, whether woven of Woollen only, or of Wooll, and other Materials within the City and County of Norwich, and the County of Norfolk, and the Makers and Weavers of the ſame Stuffs, ſhall be under the Power, Government, and Regulation of the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants, in ſuch manner as by this and other Acts of Parliament, and the By-laws made, and to be made by vertue thereof, are or ſhall be eſtabliſhed, (except ſuch Stuffs as are under the Regulation of the Wardens, and Fellowſhip of the myſtery of Ruſſel-Sattens, Sattens Reverſes, and Fuſtians of Norwich-making, within the City of Norwich:) And that all Stuffs made and to be made under the Regulation aforeſaid, before the ſame ſhall be offered, or put to ſale, ſhall be brought to Weavers-Hall, for the time being, within the County of the City of Norwich, to be viewed and ſearched by the ſaid Wardens, or any two of them; And if the ſame ſhall be found to be well and ſufficiently made, and wrought according to the Rules and Ordinances of the ſaid Trade, then all ſuch Stuffs ſhall be by the Wardens, or any two of them, ſealed and allowed accordingly, without any ſum of money paid, or to be paid for the ſame; And if upon ſearch and view thereof, any ſuch Stuffs ſhall be found, and appear to be defective, contrary to the Rules and Ordinances of the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants, then all ſuch defective Stuffs ſhall be ſeized by the ſaid Wardens, or any two of them, and tried by a Jury of Twelve Artificers of the ſaid Regulation of Worſted-Weavers, Six whereof to be of the City of Norwich, and Six to be of the County of Norfolk, who ſhall be from time to time Impanelled by a Precept under the Hand and Seal of the Mayor of the City of Norwich for the time being, or his Deputy; And if any who ſhall be ſo Impanelled ſhall fail in appearance, the number to be made up either of the Maſter-Weavers of the City of Norwich, or of the County of Norfolk, by a Precept from the ſaid Mayor; which Jury ſo Impanelled or taken, and Sworn before the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being, ſhall try the ſaid Stuffs, and find whether they be made according to this Act, and the By-laws and Ordinances made by vertue thereof, or of any other Act of Parliament, and ſhall have power to impoſe a moderate fine according to the nature of the Offence, not exceeding the Good and ſufficient ſhall be Sealed.

Defective Stuffs ſhall be ſeized and tryed by a Jury.

moyety of the value of the defective Stuffs ſo ſeized and tried, the ſame fines to go to the uſe of the Trade and Manufacture; And thoſe Stuffs which ſhall be found defective, to be detained until the fine or fines ſet upon them by the Jury be paid; which if the Owner of the ſame Stuffs ſhall not pay to the ſaid Wardens, or ſome of them, within forty dayes after the Tryal, then the ſame Stuffs to be ſold by any two of the ſaid Wardens, and the overplus of the moneys thereof coming after the fines deducted, to be reſtored to the Owner upon demand.

The penalty for Sealing defective Stuffs.

And it is further Enacted, That if any Warden or Wardens ſhall at any time ſeal, or cauſe to be ſealed, any Stuffs made under the ſaid Regulation, which ſhall afterwards be diſcovered by any perſon to be defective, contrary to this preſent Act, and the By-laws, Rules and Ordinances thereupon made, or hereafter to be made, or any of them, and found ſo to be by a Jury of the twelve Artificers of the ſaid Trade, from time to time to be Impanelled and Sworn before the ſaid Mayor, or his Deputy, and the ſaid Steward of the Dutchy of Lancaſter for the time being, if he be there preſent; And if the ſaid Steward be abſent, then before the ſaid Mayor, or his Deputy only, of which Jury, ſix ſhall be of the ſaid City Weavers, and the other ſix of the ſaid Country-Weavers, who ſhall have, and hereby have power to ſet and impoſe a fine upon the Warden or Wardens of the ſaid Trade offending, for every piece of defective Stuff ſo ſealed, as the ſame Jury in their diſcretions ſhall think fit; the ſame fine not exceeding the ſum of forty ſhillings, which ſhall be to the uſe of the Kings Majeſty; And that the ſame Jury, or any other ſuch like Jury, from time to time to be Impanelled by, and ſworn before the perſons aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall likewiſe enquire into all, and every other the frauds, abuſes and miſcarriages of the Wardens and Aſſiſtants, and every of them, in the execution of their Offices, and correct and puniſh them and every of them for their ſeveral Offences, in ſuch manner as is herein before mentioned to be done againſt any other Offendors, who are under the ſaid Regulation.

Perſons unjuſtly moleſted to have double damages.

Provided, That if the ſaid Wardens, or any of them, ſhall be unjuſtly moleſted, and that if ſuch Stuffs, upon tryal, ſhall be found by the Jury to be good, and duly made, or that they, or the Aſſiſtants, or any of them, are not guilty of any ſuch frauds, miſcarriages or abuſes, as they are complained of for, the perſon or perſons ſo cauſeleſly moleſting, ſhall pay to the wardens or Aſſiſtants, or any of them, ſo unjuſtly moleſted, double the damages they or any of them, ſhall or may ſuſtain by any ſuch moleſtation.

None may buy Stuffs unſealed.

Saving for the Kings Aulnage.

The penalty for buying unſealed Stuffs.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for any perſon or perſons to buy any piece or pieces of Stuffs, before the ſame be ſealed by the Wardens of the ſaid Trade, ſaving to the Kings Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, all ſuch right of Cuſtoms, Subſidies and Aulnage of Norfolk and Norwich-Stuffs or Worſteds, or any of them, as he or they might lawfully have claimed before the making of this Act: And that if any piece or pieces of Stuffs ſhall be found in the poſſeſſion of any perſon or perſons unſealed, (except in the poſſeſſion of the firſt Owner or Maker thereof, the perſon or perſons in whoſe cuſtody the ſame ſhall be found, ſhall be adjudged guilty of deceit, and ſhall forfeit for every ſuch piece of Stuff, which be ſo found in his or their poſſeſſion, unſealed as aforeſaid, the ſum of Four ſhillings; And the Maker and Seller of the ſame, who ſhall deliver the ſame out of his or their poſſeſſion before the ſame be ſealed, ſhall likewiſe forfeit for every ſuch piece, other Four ſhillings, to the uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture.

The penalty for counterfeiting any ſeal of the ſaid Trade.

And that if any perſon ſhall counterfeit any Seal of the ſaid Trade, or ſhall ſeal any piece of Stuff under the Regulation with any counterfeit ſeal, or ſhall remove a ſeal off one piece, and ſet it unto another piece which hath not been ſealed by the Wardens, every perſon ſo offending, and being thereof convicted by his own confeſſion, or by the Oath of two, or more Witneſſes, to be taken before the Mayor of the ſaid City, or his Deputy, or any one Juſtice of the Peace of the City of Norwich, or County of Norfolk, who reſpectively have hereby power to adminiſter an Oath for that purpoſe, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the ſum of twenty pounds of lawful Engliſh money, to the uſe of the Kings Majeſty.

None may uſe th ſaid Trade but ſuch as have been Apprentices] ſeven years.

The penalty.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons ſhall uſe or exerciſe the ſame Trade as a Weaver, unleſſe he hath ſerved to the ſame Trade as an Apprentice, by the ſpace of ſeven years, upon pain of forfeiting forty ſhillings for every moneth he ſhall uſe or exerciſe the ſame Trade, not having ſerved thereunto as aforeſaid, the one half thereof to the Kings Majeſty, and the other half thereof to the perſon or perſons who will ſue or proſecute for the ſame by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Indictment or Information, in any of His Majeſties Courts of Record.

Every one ſhall weave his own mark in his Stuff.

And that every perſon under the ſaid Regulation ſhall weave his proper Stuff-Mark into every piece of Stuff which he ſhall weave, or cauſe to be woven, at the head-end of the ſame piece, upon pain of forfeiting three ſhillings for every piece that ſhall be woven without ſuch Mark, to the uſe of the poor of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture.

The Wardens and Aſſiſtants may enter Houſes Work-houſes and Ware houſes to ſearch for Stuffs.

Faulty and Defective Stuffs to be ſeized and tryed.

And the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants, or any two or more of them, ſhall have, and hereby have power to enter into, and ſearch the Houſes and Work-Houſes of any Artificers within the City of Norwich, and County of Norfolk, under the Regulation of the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants, and the Shops, Houſe, and Ware-houſes of any Merchant, common Buyer, Dealer in, and retailer of any the ſaid Stuffs, and into the Houſe and Work-houſe of any Dyer, Sheer-man, Callender, or other workmans houſe and place of ſale, and dreſſing of the ſaid Stuffs, at all times of the day, and uſual times of working, and may there ſearch and view the Stuffs there found, whether they be ordered and made according to this preſent Act, and the Laws, Orders and Ordinances of the ſaid Trade; And that if any ſuch Stuff as aforeſaid, ſhall be found faulty or defective, That then they, or any two of them, ſhall ſeize, take, and carry away the ſame to be ordered and brought to Tryal, and proceeded againſt in manner and form, as is before in this preſent Act mentioned and appointed for defective Stuffs.

Proviſo for poor Journeymen.

And for the better providing that poor Journeymen, who have ſerved in the ſaid Trade, and are not able to ſet up for themſelves, may be imployed in work, It is hereby Enacted, That whatſoever perſon under the Regulation of the ſaid Trade, who ſhall Imploy two Apprentices in the ſaid Trade, ſhall likewiſe Imploy and ſet on work two Journeymen in the ſaid Trade, during the time he imploys two Apprentices; And that no Maſter-Weaver under the Regulation of the ſaid Trade, ſhall at any time have, imploy, or ſet on work above two Apprentices, or any Week-boy to weave in a Loom in the ſaid Trade in Worſted-weaving, upon pain that every perſon ſhall forfeit for every moneth ſo offending, as aforeſaid, the ſum of five pounds to the uſe of the Kings Majeſty.

Obedience and conformity to this Act.

Penalty upon ſuch as ſhall refuſe or hinder the Execution.

And be it further Enacted, That all perſons who are or may be concerned in any thing contained in this preſent Act, are hereby ſtrictly enjoyned and required to yield due obedience thereunto, according to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act; And that if any perſon or perſons ſhall refuſe, hinder, or will not permit the ſaid Wardens or Aſſiſtants, or any two or more of them to execute their Office according to the Tenor of this Act, That then every perſon ſo offending, being thereof Convicted by the Oath of one or more credible Witneſſes before the Mayor of the ſaid City, or his Deputy, or any one Juſtice of Peace of the ſaid City of Norwich, or County of Norfolk reſpectively, who are hereby Authorized to adminiſter ſuch Oath, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Forty ſhillings to the uſe of the Kings Majeſty.

The penalty for not appearing upon a Jury or tryal.

And if any perſon lawfully Summoned to appear upon any Jury or Trial, according to the Tenor of this Act, ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear and proceed upon the ſame, every perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch neglect or refuſal, the ſum of Five ſhillings, to the uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture: which ſaid penalties and forfeitures, together with all other Fines and Penalties, which are appointed to go to the Poor of the Trade and Manufacture, or for the uſe thereof mentioned in this Act, the the means of Recovery of which is not already otherwiſe herein provided and ſet forth, ſhall be levied by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Offendors Goods and Chattels, by warrant to be granted by the ſaid Mayor, or his Deputy for the time being, or any one Juſtice of Peace of the City of Norwich, or County of Norfolk, rendring the Overplus of ſuch Diſtreſſe to the Owner thereof, if any ſhall be, and the ſame ſhall be by him demanded, or otherwiſe to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Indictment or Information in any His Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Wager of Law, Eſſoine or Protection ſhall be allowed to the Defendant as aforeſaid.

No weaving of Stuffs in time of Harveſt.

And whereas the Cuſtom hath been retained time out of mind, and found expedient, that there ſhould be a ceſſation of weaving every year in the time ot Harveſt, in regard the Spinners of Yarn which the ſaid Weavers do uſe, are at that time chiefly imployed in Harveſt-work; Be it Enacted, That no Weaver under the Regulation of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture, ſhall ſet any Loom on work for the weaving of any Stuffs under the ſaid Regulation in the time of Harveſt yearly, from the Fifteenth day of Auguſt in every year, until the Fifteenth day of September then following, upon pain of forfeiting to the Kings Majeſty the ſum of Forty Shillings for every Loom which ſhall be uſed in work within the ſaid time.

True Accompts to be made at the four Aſſemblies of all fines and forfeitures.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That a true accompt ſhall be made at the four Aſſemblies (to be held quarterly as aforeſaid) by the Wardens before the Mayor of the City of Norwich for the time being, and one of the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City and County of Norwich, and two Juſtices of the Peace of the County of Norfolk, of all ſuch Fines and Forfeitures as ſhall be received and had, belonging to the ſaid Trade and Manufacture, and of the neceſſary Charges and Diſburſements touching the ſame Trade and Manufacture; and that the Over-plus which ſhall remain after the ſaid neceſſary Charges and Diſburſements are deducted, ſhall be divided into two equal parts, the one moyety thereof to be diſpoſed of by the Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid City of Norwich, or the greater part of them, and the other moyety thereof by the Wardens and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid County of Norfolk, or the greater part of them, for the uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture in ſuch manner as the ſaid Mayor and Juſtices aforeſaid reſpectively ſhall order and direct, and no other, any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

All Mayors, Bayliffs, &c. to be ayding and aſſiſting.

In Action, the Defendant may plead the general Iſſue.

Double coſts.

And that all Mayors, Juſtices, Sheriffs, Bayliffs, Conſtables, and all other Officers, ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting to the ſaid Wardens and Aſſiſtants, or any of them, as often as they ſhall be thereunto required; and in all Actions and Suits that ſhall be brought againſt any perſon or perſons, for acting in any thing according to the true intent and meaning of this Act, the perſon or perſons ſo ſued or moleſted, ſhall or may plead the general Iſſue of Not Guilty, and give the ſpecial matter in Evidence, and ſhall recover double Coſts in every ſuch caſe, if the Verdict paſſe for ſuch perſon or perſons, or that the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be Nonſuit therein.

Proviſo for the Weavers of Great Yarmouth and Lyn.

Provided alwayes, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to compel the Weavers of the Towns of Great Yarmouth and Lyn, in the ſaid County of Norfolk, to bring their Wares to Norwich to be Sealed, or be prejudicial to the Weavers of the ſaid Towns, or either of them, to deprive them, or either of them of ſuch Liberties or Priviledges as are granted unto them by an Act of Parliament, made in the Fourteenth Year of King Henry the Eight, or by any other Act of Parliament, or Grant or Charter whatſoever. This Act to begin, and take effect from the Fifteenth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two.

CAP. VI.

For Enlarging and Repairing of Common High-wayes.

WHereas the former Laws and Statutes for the Mending and Repairing of the Common and publick High-wayes of this Realm have not been found ſo effectual as is deſired; by means whereof, and the extraordinary Burthens carried upon Waggons, and other Carriages, divers of the ſaid High-wayes are become very dangerous, and almoſt unpaſſable:

Surveyors of the High-wayes to be choſen yearly, the Munday or Tueſday in Eaſter-week.

For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Church-wardens and Conſtables, or Tything-men of every Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet for the time being, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall upon Munday or Tueſday in the Eaſter week yearly (whereof notice ſhall be publickly given the Sunday foregoing, in the Church, immediately after the end of Morning-Prayer,) with the advice and conſent of the major part of the Inhabitants which ſhall be then preſent, chooſe Two or more ſufficient and able perſons, reſiding and inhabiting within their Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, to be Surveyors of their High-wayes for the year next enſuing, and give notice thereof in writing to the perſons choſen; and for default of ſuch choice, ſo to be made, as aforeſaid, the Church-wardens, Conſtables or Tything-men, and Inhabitants of every ſuch Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, ſhall forfeit and loſe the ſum of Five pounds.

The penalty.

The duty of the Surveyors

And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every Surveyor and Surveyors, within twenty dayes next after notice given unto him or them, of his and their Election as aforeſaid, or of the publication of this Act, ſhall upon the penalty of Five pounds, View and Survey all the Common and Publick High-wayes and Bridges within the Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, wherein he or they are reſpective Surveyor or Surveyors, and all Water-courſes, Cauſeys and Pavements therein which are to be Repaired and Amended at a Publick Charge of the ſaid Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, and ſhall conſider what reparations ſhall be needful to be made, and what ſum or ſums of money will be requiſite to be raiſed for the Amending, Repairing and Enlarging of the ſame, over and above what will be done by the other Laws made for the Amending of the ſaid High-wayes, and thereupon ſhall together with two or more ſubſtantial Houſholders of the ſaid Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, called by the Surveyors to their Aſſiſtance within ten dayes after ſuch Survey made, lay one or more Aſſeſſement or Aſſeſſements, upon every Inhabitant rated to the Poor, and upon every Occupier of Lands, Houſes, Tythes Impropriate or Appropriate, Portions of Tythes, Coal-mines, and other Mines ſaleable, Underwoods, Stock, Goods, or other perſonal Eſtate, not being Houſhold-ſtuff, within the ſaid Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, for the Repairing, Amending and Enlarging of the ſaid publick and common High-wayes, as they the ſaid Surveyors, and other the ſubſtantial Houſholders, or the major part of them ſhall think fit, meet and neceſſary; which ſaid Aſſeſſement or Aſſeſſements ſhall not exceed in the whole above the ſum of Six pence in the pound in any one year, according to the real value of the ſame, and Twenty pounds in Money, Goods, Stock, or other perſonal Eſtate, ſhall be rated equally to Twenty ſhillings a year in Lands; And every ſuch Aſſeſſement ſo made, ſhall within Six days after be preſented to ſome Juſtice of the Peace near adjoyning to the Pariſh where it is made, to be ſeen, allowed and ſigned by him; And after ſuch Allowance, every perſon ſo Aſſeſſed or Taxed, that ſhall not within Twenty dayes after demand made by the Surveyors, or one of them, pay ſuch ſum or ſums of Money aſſeſſed on him or her, unto the Surveyors, or one of them, ſhall forfeit and pay double ſo much as he, ſhe, or they are aſſeſſed to pay; unleſſe (upon complaint made to the ſaid Juſtice of wrong done to ſuch perſon by that Aſſeſſement) the ſaid Juſtice ſhall think fit to alter the ſame: And in caſe where common Nuſances are in High-ways, or where Ditches or Water-courſes adjoyning unto High-wayes, are not ſcoured and dreſſed, the ſaid Surveyors ſhall ſee the ſame reformed, and the Offendors puniſhed according to Law, deducting out of the Moneys ſo to be raiſed, his reaſonable Charges for proſecution: And for the more effectual Mending the High-wayes, and Pariſh-Bridges, and Streets, the Surveyors aforementioned ſhall yearly at the moſt convenient and fitting time, between the Firſt day of May, and the laſt of Auguſt, hire Labourers, Work-men, Carts and Carriages, for amending the High-wayes, Streets, Pariſh-Bridges aforeſaid, and Water-courſes, and ſhall cauſe them to be well and ſufficiently mended.

How and upon whom to lay Aſſeſſment for mending or enlarging the High-wayes.

The Surveyors may charge Carts and Work men.

2 & 3 Ph. & Mar. cap. 8.
5 El. cap. 13.
18 El. cap. 10.

And for the better effecting thereof, Be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Surveyors, or any of them within their ſeveral Limits and Juriſdictions, may yearly as he ſhall ſee cauſe, and need require, direct and appoint every perſon and perſons, who by the former Laws and Statutes of this Realm are chargeable with Wayn or Cart, to the amending of the High wayes; and every other perſon and perſons chargeable, to come to labour at the ſaid wayes, to ſend his or her Cart or Wayn and Team ſo furniſhed, as by the Laws is directed, or to come and work for the amending of the High-ways for ſo many dayes as by the Laws are appointed, or for ſo many of them as the ſaid Surveyors ſhall think needful and appoint; for which Teams, work and labour, the ſaid Surveyors ſhall pay unto ſuch Workmen and Owner of ſuch Team, Carts and Wayns, according to the uſual Rate of the Country, for ſuch work as they ſhall do over and above what by the other Laws made for the amending the High wayes they are appointed to do: And if any queſtion ſhall ariſe about the value or worth of ſuch work or labour, or Man and Teams, ſome Juſtice of the Peace near adjoyning, and not living in the ſaid Pariſh, ſhall determine what is fit to be allowed for ſuch work; And in caſe any perſon ſo charged to ſend his or her Team to work, as aforeſaid, Penalty upon ſuch as refuſe or neglect.

ſhall refuſe or neglect to do ſo, ſuch perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall forfeit ten ſhillings for every day that he or ſhe ſhall make ſuch default, and every Lavourer Eighteen pence for ſuch day that he neglects to work as aforeſaid.

Provided, That no perſon or perſons, occupying any Lands, ſhall be Aſſeſſed and Taxed both for the ſaid Lands and the Stock, which he or they ſhall uſe or imploy upon the ſame.

In what caſes High-wayes may be Enlarged out of mens Lands next adjoyning.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the ſaid Surveyors of the High-wayes for the time being, of every ſuch Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, within their ſeveral Precincts from time to time, by order from the Quarter-Seſſions, and upon the view, and by the allowance or conſent of two or more Juſtices of the Peace of the County, authorized thereunto by the Seſſions, wherein ſuch Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet ſhall lie, under their Hands and Seals in writing, where any common or publick High-way is not of the bredth of eight yards from the ſhoars and brinks of the Ditches on either ſide, or from the banks and hedges where there are no Ditches, to aſſign and lay out ſo much of any mans ſeveral Lands next adjoyning to the ſaid common and publick High-way, where they ſhall think it needful, and it may conveniently be done, as ſhall enlarge the ſaid way to be the full bredth of eight yards, or ſo much broader (towards the bredth of eight yards) then now it is, as conveniently the place will bear from the ſaid Shoars, Ditches, Banks or Hedges, by the conſent of the Owner or Owners of the ſaid Lands, according to his or their reſpective Intereſts therein, or otherwiſe by order of the Juſtices of Peace at their Quarter-Seſſions after a Writ of Ad quod damnum firſt iſſued out, and returned, to aſſign and lay out a more new and commodious way in and over the ſaid Lands next or near adjoyning to the ſaid common and publick High-wayes, the ſaid Surveyors firſt giving ſuch ſatisfaction for the ſaid Ground unto the reſpective Owners of the ſame, according to their ſeveral and reſpective Intereſt in the whole, not exceeding Twenty years purchaſe: Provided alwayes, That if any common or publick High-way or wayes, ſhall be ſo altered and changed, as is aforeſaid, that then, and in ſuch caſe, the ſame new Way or Wayes, as alſo any new way or wayes altered, or to be altered by a Writ of Ad quod damnum, ſhall from time to time be repaired and amended by ſuch Pariſh or Pariſhes, Town, Hamlet or Village, or by ſuch perſon and perſons, and in ſuch manner and form, as the ſaid old and former common or publick High-way or wayes was, or were to be repaired and amended.

Digging for gravel in Waſts and Commons.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where there is not ſufficient Gravel, Chalk, Sand, Cinders or Stones, within any Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, to repair their common and publick High-wayes, it ſhall be lawful for the Surveyor or Surveyors, and ſuch perſon and perſons as he or they ſhall appoint, upon the allowance and approbation of any two Juſtices of Peace within the ſaid County, to dig, take, and carry away Gravel, Chalk, Sand, Cinders or Stones, out of the Waſte and Common of any Neighbouring Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, or upon the Sea-coaſt, without paying any thing for the ſame, for the repairing and amending of the High-wayes aforeſaid, ſo as they fill up the place within one moneth next enſuing, if required by the Owner of the Soyl.

In what caſes Gravel. Stones, &c. may be digged in mens ſeveral Grounds.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where there is not ſufficient Gravel, Chalk, Stones, Cinders and Sand, or other Materials for to repair the High-wayes, within the Common or Waſte grounds of any Pariſh, Townſhip or Hamlet, for to amend and repair the High-wayes therein, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors, or ſuch as they ſhall appoint, to enter into the ſeveral ground (not being an Houſe, Orchard, Garden, Court-yard, Park with Deer in it, or Meadow) of any perſon or perſons within the ſaid Pariſh, Townſhip or Hamlet near adjoyning to the High-wayes to be repaired, where any ſuch Materials are or may be found, and to dig, take and carry away from time to time ſuch quantities thereof, as the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors ſhall judge neceſſary for the ſaid reparations, without paying any thing for the ſaid Materials, (except only where they have formerly been paid for by Cuſtom or Compoſition, and at ſuch rates as heretofore were paid for the ſame) rendring only ſuch damages to the Occupier or Owner thereof, as he ſhall ſuſtain by the digging and carriage thereof, to be aſſeſſed by two Juſtices of Peace near the ſaid Pariſh, in caſes of difference about the ſame: Provided, That the pits and holes ſo digged, be filled up in ſuch manner, and under ſuch penalties as are preſcribed in the Statute made in the Fifth year of Queen Elizabeth, concerning the amending of High-wayes.

What number of Horſes or Oxen may be uſed in Carts and Carriages upon the High wayes.

And what Weight.

No Wheels to be under four inches bredth in the Tyre.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no travelling Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriage wherein any Burthens, Goods or Wares are or ſhall be carried or drawn for hire, other then ſuch Carts and Carriages as are imployed in and about husbandry and manuring of Lands, and in the carrying of Hay, Straw, Corn unthreſhed, Coal, Chalk, Timber for Shipping, Materials for Building, Stones of all ſorts, or ſuch Ammunition or Artillery as ſhall be for His Majeſties Service) ſhall at any one time travel, be drawn, or go in any common or publick High-way or Road, with above ſeven Horſe-beaſts, whereof ſix ſhall draw in pairs, and not with above eight Oxen, or ſix Oxen and two Horſe beaſts; nor ſhall at any time carry above Twenty hundred weight between the firſt day of October, and the firſt of May; nor above Thirty hundred weight between the firſt of May and the firſt of October (except ſuch particulars as aforeſaid) nor above five Quarters of Wheat, Meal, Meſlin, Rye, Peaſe, Beans and Tares, nor above eight Quarters of Barley, Malt or Oats, and after that proportion; nor ſhall any Waggon, Wain, Cart or Carriages for the uſes aforeſaid be imployed, the Wheels whereof are leſs in bredth then four Inches in the Tyre, upon pain that every Owner of ſuch Waggon, Wain, Cart, Carriage, Horſe-beaſts, or Oxen, ſhall forfeit for every of the ſaid Offences the ſum of Forty ſhillings, to be divided into three equal parts, One part thereof to the Surveyors of the High-wayes of the Town, Village or Hamlet, where any of the ſaid Offences ſhall be committed, to be imployed in the Repairs of the ſaid High-wayes; one part to the Overſeers of the poor of the Pariſh where any of the ſaid offences ſhall be committed, for the relief of the poor of the ſaid Pariſh, and the other part thereof to him that ſhall diſcover and proſecute for any of the ſaid offences, the ſaid penalty to be levied by Diſtreſs of all or any of the ſaid Horſe-beaſts or Oxen, and to be diſtributed as aforeſaid by the Conſtable, Surveyor or Surveyors of the ſaid High-wayes, Overſeer or Overſeers of the Poor, or any of them; And in caſe the ſaid penalties ſhall not be paid within three dayes after ſuch Diſtreſs, that then it ſhall be lawful to and for the ſaid perſons ſo diſtraining as aforeſaid, to ſell the ſame, and to reſtore the overplus to the Owner, the charges of keeping and ſelling firſt deducted.

The penalty, and how to be diſpoſed.

And be it further Enacted, That all and every the ſaid offences ſhall be, and are hereby declared and adjudged to be common Nuſances.

The offences declared common Nuſances.

And be it further Enacted, That if any Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon, for any thing done in purſuance of this Act, that in every ſuch caſe the Action ſhall be laid in the proper County where the Fact was done, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant may plead the general Iſſue, and give this Act and the ſpecial matter in evidence at the Tryal, and if it ſhall ſo appear to be done, or that it was not done in the County where the ſaid Suit is commenced, that then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant; and in ſuch caſe, as alſo if the Plaintiff ſhall be Non-ſuit, or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant hath appeared, or if upon Demurrer, Judgment be given againſt the Plaintiff; or if upon Tryal a Verdict paſs for the Defendant, the Defendant ſhall have his double Coſts, and the like remedy for the ſame as any Defendant hath in any other caſe by Law.

All Suits upon this Act ſhall be laid in their proper County, and the Defendant may plead the general Iſſue.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſums of money ſo rated and aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, and all charitable Gifts formerly given, or to be given, for the making, amending and keeping in repair of any common and publick High-wayes, Pavements and Cawſeys, (except as hereafter is excepted) and all Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, and other ſums of Money ariſing by Aſſeſſement, or otherwiſe by this Act, not otherwiſe by this Act diſpoſed of, and all Iſſues to be forfeited for not appearing to any Information or Indictment for not repairing any High-wayes, or removing Nuſances out of the ſame, and all Fines and Amerciaments to be impoſed upon any Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, or upon any private perſon, for not repairing of common and publick High-wayes, which are not otherwiſe diſpoſed by this Act, ſhall be employed and beſtowed by the ſaid Surveyors within the reſpective Pariſhes, Towns, Villages and Hamlets, to which ſuch charitable Gifts are given and beſtowed, and within which ſuch Aſſeſſement, Fines, Penalties, Forfeitures, Iſſues and Amerciaments are impoſed, happened or made, in paying for Materials, Workmens wages, and for ſuch other employments as are hereby appointed to be done and performed, and be levied, collected and gathered by the ſaid Surveyors, or any of them by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of Peace within the County, City, Riding, Town Corporate, Liberty or Limit wherein the ſame lieth, by diſtreſs and ſale of the Goods, as is aforeſaid.

All Moneys raiſed by Aſſeſſment, Iſſues forfeited, &c. ſhall be levied and imployed for mending the High ways.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon ſo Elected, and taking upon him or them the Office of Surveyor or Surveyors, as aforeſaid, ſhall within one moneth next after the expiration of the year wherein he executed the ſaid Office as Surveyor of the High-wayes, make and yield up to the Inhabitants of the Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, at ſome publick Meeting, to be appointed by the ſaid Inhabitants, a perfect Accompt in Writing under his and their Hands, of all the Moneys he or they received or paid within his or their year, for or by reaſon of his or their Office; namely of whom, and what received, and to whom, and what paid, and what Moneys are in arrear and unpaid, either for Aſſeſſements, Fines, Forfeitures, Penalties and charitable Gifts; and if any overplus be in his or their hands, he or they ſhall return and pay the ſame to the next Surveyors, or one of them, for the uſe of the Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, to be disburſed in and about the High-wayes, in the following year: And if the ſaid Surveyor or Surveyors ſhall not make ſuch an Account and Payment as before, any two Juſtices of the Peace, living near to, or in the ſaid Pariſh, ſhall and may upon complaint unto them made, examine the buſineſs upon Oath, and upon default found in the Surveyor or Surveyors, ſhall and may commit him or them to the Common-Gaol of that County, City, Riding, Town Corporate, Liberty or Limit, there to remain until he hath made a true and perfect Account and Payment, as aforeſaid.

Accompts to be given by the Surveyors yearly of all Money raiſed for mending the High-ways.

And be it further Enacted, That all and every Juſtices of Aſſiſe, Oyer and Terminer, and Juſtices of the Peace, ſhall have power and authority, and are hereby enabled and impowred to inquire after, hear and determine all matters concerning charitable Gifts, for the making, amending and keeping in repair any common High-wayes, Pavements, Streets and Cawſeys within the limits of their Commiſſion, and to make Orders therein for the due imployment of ſuch charitable Gifts, according to the true intent and meaning of the Donors thereof; Except gifts to the aforeſaid uſes made to any Colledge, Hall, Free-School or Hoſpital, which have Viſitors of their own, and alſo to hear and determine all offences, defaults and defects in Surveyors or others, concerning the premiſſes.

Who may enquire, hear and determine offences againſt this Act.

Provided, That if any perſon be agrieved with ſuch Order, they ſhall have liberty to appeal to the Court of Chancery, as in the caſe of a Decree made upon the Statute of Charitable Uſes.

Appeals allowed to perſons grieved. 43 Eli. cap. 4.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no Certiorari ſhall be allowed to remove any Information, Indictment, Preſentment, Order, or other proceedings in the Quarter-Seſſions, of, for, or concerning any matter or thing in this Act, unleſs the party or parties againſt whom whom any ſuch Information, Indictment, Preſentment, Order, or other proceedings ſhall be had by vertue of this Act, ſhall before the allowance of ſuch Certioraries, become bound to the perſon or perſons proſecuting, in the ſum of Forty pounds, with ſuch ſufficient ſureties as the Juſtices of Peace at their ſaid Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace ſhall think fit, with condition to pay unto the ſaid Proſecutors, within one moneth after the conviction of ſuch parties indicted, their full coſts and damages, to be aſcertained upon their Oaths, and that in default thereof, it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices to proceed to tryal of ſuch Indictments, any ſuch Writs of Certiorari to remove the ſame Indictments notwithſtanding.

In what caſes only a Certiorari may be allowed to remove any Indictment, &c. upon this Act.

Laycock-Bridge in Com. Wilts.

And whereas at a general Quarter-Seſſions held for the County of Wilts, It was (at the humble Petition of the Petitioners of Laycock, and other Inhabitants of the ſaid County) Ordered, That one ancient Bridge called Foot-Bridge, leading thorow the ſaid Pariſh, between London, Bath and Briſtol, being more commodious for all Paſſengers than one other Bridge in the ſaid Pariſh, called Rey-Bridge, ſhould be repaired and made paſſable for all Carts, Waggons and Carriages (with the Materials of Rey-Bridge) which was thereby Ordered to be taken down, which Order was accordingly put in execution in the ſaid County and Pariſh; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Pariſhioners, and all others imployed by them in the pulling down the ſaid Bridge, called Rey-Bridge, and imploying the Materals thereof, as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and are hereby indemnified from all Suits, Troubles and Moleſtations whatſoever, touching or concerning the ſame; and that the ſaid Pariſhioners of Laycock, and other the aforeſaid Inhabitants, ſhall not hereafter be compelled by Information or Indictment, or any other way be made chargeable with the re-building of the ſaid Bridge, called Rey-Bridge, otherwiſe than for the maintaining the ſaid Bridge ſufficient for Horſe and Pack, as it now ſtands, any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Wildes of Surrey, Suſſex, Kent.

Provided likewiſe, and be it Enacted, That this Act ſhall not extend to exempt any Owner, Farmer, or Leſſee of any Iron-work, or other perſon within the Wildes of the Counties of Surrey, Suſſex or Kent, for carrying ſo many load of Cinder, Gravel, Stones, and other materials, or contributing ſuch ſums of money towards the amending and repairing of the High-wayes, as they are obliged to by any former Acts.

14 & 15 H. 8. cap. 6.
39 El. cap. 19.

And be it further provided and enacted, That where the Juſtices of the Peace of any County, at their General Quarter-Seſſions, or any two of ſuch Juſtices, near to any Pariſh, Townſhip or Hamlet, ſhall be fully ſatisfied that the High wayes and Bridges within the ſame, may and will be ſufficiently amended and repaired, according to the former uſage, without the help of this Act, that then, and in ſuch caſes only, there ſhall no Aſſeſſement be made within the ſame, for and towards their reparations, by vertue of this Act.

Stratford Bridge. Hillingdon. Middleſex.

Provided alwayes, And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of Peace of the County of Middleſex, in their publick Seſſions of the Peace, ſhall have power and authority to make Orders for erecting or ſetting up a new Bridge of Brick or Stone, fitting for the paſſage of Carts and Carriages, in the room and place of a Bridge now only paſſable for Foot and Horſe, called Stratford-Bridge, in the Pariſh of Hillingdon, in the ſaid County, or in ſome other more convenient place near thereunto, at the preſent charge of the whole County, for the erecting of the ſame; but to be upheld, repaired and maintained, after it be ſo erected, at the charge of the Lord of the Manor wherein the ſaid Bridge now ſtandeth, proportionable to the charge he is now at, for maintaining the Horſe-Bridge, and the reſidue of the charge to be born by the Pariſhioners of the ſaid Pariſh; For which purpoſe, the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace at their ſaid publick Seſſions, are hereby enabled to make reſpective Rates accordingly, ſo as the ſum to be aſſeſſed for the erecting the ſaid Bridge, exceed not the ſum of One hundred pounds; and the ſaid Juſtices are to take care that the ſaid Bridge be finiſhed by or before the Firſt day of Auguſt, in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three.

Bridges to have ſufficient Walls or Poſts and Rails.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Surveyors do take care that all and every Bridge or Bridges within their reſpective Limits, ſhall before the Feaſt of S. Michael, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, have ſufficient walls, or poſts and rails of each ſide thereof, four foot high at the leaſt; and that the ſaid walls, or poſts and rails, be from time to time kept in ſufficient repair.

Proviſo for chuſing Surveyors for the year, 1662. Exp.

Provided alwayes, And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Surveyors of the High-wayes, named for the year One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, ſhall within twenty dayes after the publication of this Act, proceed to do and execute all things in this Act for the ſaid year One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two; And where there are no Surveyors of the High-wayes choſen for the ſaid year One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, they ſhall be choſen within twenty dayes after publication of this Act by ſuch perſons as by this Act is appointed; and being ſo choſen, they ſhall hereafter do and execute all things according to the tenor of this Act.

Tenants to bear the charges of Aſſeſſments for High-wayes.

Provided alſo, And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Lands are let, the Tenant aud Occupier thereof ſhall pay the Aſſeſſement, and bear all charges for the mending of the High-wayes, and not the Landlord, except where there is or ſhall be any Agreement between the ſaid Landlord and the Tenant to the contrary.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted, That the power of raiſing and levying money by vertue of this Act, ſhall continue in force for three years only, from the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, and no longer, but that all other powers and clauſes in this Act ſhall continue and ſtand in force untill the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer.

18 El. cap 9.

WHereas notwithſtanding the many good Laws before this time made, and ſtill in force, prohibiting the Exportation of Leather out of this Realm, and the penalty by thoſe Acts impoſed, by the cunning and ſubtilty of ſome perſons, and the neglect of others, who ought to take care thereof, there are ſuch quantities of Leather daily exported to foreign parts, that the price of Leather is grown to thoſe exceſſive Rates, that many Artificers working Leather, cannot furniſh themſelves with ſufficient ſtore thereof, for the carrying on of their Trades; and the poor ſort of people are not able to buy thoſe things made of Leather, which of neceſſity they muſt make uſe of:

For redreſs of which Griefs, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That from and after the Firſt day of May now next enſuing, no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall carry or tranſport, or cauſe to be carried or tranſported out of England into Scotland, Ireland, or into any of the Iſles belonging to this Kingdom, or to any parts beyond the Seas, the Skins or Hides tanned or untanned of any Ox, Steer, Bull, Cow or Calf, otherwiſe, or in any other manner, then is by this preſent Act directed.

What Skins or Hides Tanned may not be tranſported.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That none of the Skins or Hides aforeſaid, which ſhall happen to be taken from any of the Beaſts aforeſaid, within any Iſland whatſoever, belonging to the Kingdom of England (except Ireland) ſhall be tranſported out of that Iſland to any other place, but into the Kingdom of England, upon pain of forfeiture for every ſuch offence double the value of Skins or Hides, ſo to be tranſported out of the ſaid Iſland, or any of them, to any other place then into the Kingdom of England; the ſame forfeiture to be ſued for and diſpoſed as hereafter in this Act is directed.

The penalty.

And for the better preventing of ſuch miſchiefs as are intended to be remedied by this Act, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Red Tanned Leather made of the Hides or Skins of any of the Beaſts aforeſaid, of what kind or nature ſoever, ſhall be bought only in the open and common Fair or Market uſed for the putting of Leather to ſale, and not in any Houſe, Tanners Yard, Shop, or other place whatſoever, on pain that ſuch perſon or perſons that ſhall not accordingly do the ſame, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the ſame Leather, or the value thereof, and the contract for the ſale thereof ſhall be void, and all ſuch Leather ſhall be ſearched and ſealed by the Searchers and Sealers thereunto appointed, before the ſame be put to ſale, and upon ſuch ſale ſhall be Regiſtred, and a true Entry thereof made both by the Buyer and Seller, who are both to be preſent at ſuch Regiſtring thereof, and both their names and places of abode entred into the Book of the ſaid Regiſter, on pain that every ſuch Buyer or Seller that ſhall not accordingly do the ſame, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the ſame Leather, or the value thereof, and the forfeiture ſhall be recovered and imployed in ſuch manner as hereafter in this Act is directed.

What Leather muſt be bought only in open Fairs or Markets for ſelling Leather.

The penalty.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall be found guilty of the Tranſportation of any Leather, or raw Hides of any of the Beaſts aforeſaid, (excepting ſuch Calve-ſkins and Sheep-ſkins, dreſſed without the Wooll, as by Law may be Tranſported) contrary to the proviſion of this Act, he ſhall from thenceforth be diſabled to Trade, or Deal in Leather for the future, and ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the ſum of Five hundred pounds, to be ſued for, and diſpoſed as hereafter in this Act is directed.

Penalty for Tranſportation of any Leather or Raw Hides.

Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to the prohibiting the Tranſportation of any Leather made into Boots, Shooes or Slippers, but that the ſame may be Tranſported, Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

5 E. 6. cap. 15.
1 Mar. cap. 8.
Parl. 2.

Quære, If theſe two Statutes be repealed by this Proviſo.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for the reſpective Maſters and Wardens of the Cordwainers, Sadlers, Girdlers and Curriers of the City of London, and their Deputies, and all Cuſtomers, Comptrollers, Farmers of Cuſtoms, Superviſors, Searchers, and other Officers belonging to the Cuſtoms, and to and for all Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, and chief Officers of Corporations within this Realm, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from time to time, as well by Land as Water, to ſearch for, and ſeize any Leather, or Raw Hides wrought or unwrought, cut or uncut, packed up, or unpacked, intended or purpoſed to be Tranſported by any perſon or perſons into any parts beyond the Seas, or into Scotland, other then Calves-ſkins and Sheep-ſkins, as aforeſaid.

Who may ſearch and ſeize Leather or Hides intended to be Tranſported.

And whereas divers Tanners do ſhave, cut and rake their upper-leather Hides all over, and the necks of their backs and butts, to the great impairing thereof, and the extream prejudice of the Kingdom; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Tanner, who after the Nine and twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, ſhall commit any ſuch offence, as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit all the ſaid Leather, Backs, Butts or Calve-ſkins, ſo ſhaved, cut or raked, or the value thereof, and it ſhall be lawful for the Searchers and Sealers of Leather to ſeize the ſame.

Shaving of Leather by Tanners.

The penalty.

And be it further Enacted, That the Market for Leather in Leaden-Hall in London, ſhall be kept on the Tueſday, as now it is, Any Law, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Leaden-hall, London.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all the penalties and forfeitures, and every ſum and ſums of money for any offence or offences herein before mentioned, ſhall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, Information, to be brought for the ſame in any Court or Courts at Weſtminſter, in any Court or Courts of Record in the City, Town, County or Place where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed, wherein no Wager of Law, Protection or Eſſoine ſhall be admitted, neither ſhall the ſame be removed out of the ſaid County, City or Town Corporate, the one half of the ſaid forfeitures to be to the uſe of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other half thereof to the uſe of the Informer or Informers that ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Tranſportation of Leather declared a common Nuſance

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That all ſuch Exportation, or Tranſportation of any Hides or Leather, contrary to this Act, is hereby adjudged and declared to be a common and publick Nuſance.

Leather for neceſſary uſe of Ships in Voyages.

Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act ſhall not extend, or be conſtrued to prohibit the carrying or conveying of any ſuch Hides or Leather which ſhall be uſed or imployed for the neceſſary uſe, or proviſion of any Ship or Veſſel in any Voyage beyond the Seas, and which ſhall not be ſold in any foreign parts, ſo as the number do not exceed Six Raw Hides, and Three Tanned Hides.

Artificers dealing in cutting of Leather in London, or within three miles thereof.

1 Jac. cap. 22.

Provided alwayes nevertheleſſe, And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Artificer dealing in cutting of Leather, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever, which ſhall hereafter buy any Red Tanned Leather within the City of London, or three miles thereof, ſhall before the next Market-day within the ſaid place for ſale of Leather, give Notice thereof to one or more of the Company of Curriers then exerciſing and uſing the Art and Myſtery of a Currier within the ſaid City of London, and three miles thereof, and within three weeks after ſuch notice ſhall deliver, or cauſe to be delivered the ſaid Leather ſo bought, except ſuch part thereof as ſhall be uſed for Soals without being curried, tallowed or dreſſed, unto the ſaid Currier or Curriers, to whom ſuch notice was given, to the intent that the ſame may be curried, tallowed, or otherwiſe dreſſed, as is directed and appointed by one Act made in the Firſt year of King James, Chapter twenty ſecond, touching the Duty of Tanners, Curriers, Shoo-makers, and others, upon penalty of the forfeiture of ſix ſhillings eight pence for every Back, Butt, Hide, or Calves-skin ſo bought, and not delivered as aforeſaid, for the uſes, and to be recovered as aforeſaid.

Leather uſed in London, or within three miles, to be ſearched and allowed by the Wardens of the Curriers there.

The penalty.

Penalties for oppoſing the Searching.

And whereas it is Enacted amongſt other things, by the ſaid Act made in the Firſt year of King James, That no perſon or perſons ſhall by any means occupy, or put in any Made-wares within the City of London, or three miles of the ſame City, any curried Leather before the ſame ſhall be ſearched and allowed by the Wardens of the Curriers of London for the time being, or ſuch perſons as they ſhall thereto aſſign, and be Sealed with a Seal therefore to be prepared, upon pain that every Shoomaker and other Artificer, Cutter of Leather offending againſt that Article, ſhould forfeit for every Hide or Skin otherwiſe curried or imployed as is aforeſaid, Six ſhillings eight pence, and the value of every ſuch Hide or Skin; Be it therefore further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter and Wardens of the Company of Curriers for the time being, or ſuch perſons as they ſhall thereto aſſign, ſhall from time to time, and at all ſeaſonable times in the day time, enter into any Ware-houſe, Shop, Celler, or other place within the ſaid City of London, or three miles of the ſame City, belonging unto any of the ſaid Cordwainers, Sadlers, Girdlers, or other perſon or perſons being Artificers, dealing in cutting Leather, and in the preſence of any two or more of them to ſearch for, and ſeize all ſuch Leather intended to be prohibited to be uſed by the ſaid Clauſe, Branch or Article as aforeſaid, as alſo for all Wares made of ſuch Leather; and if any ſuch perſon or perſons, Artificers or Dealers as aforeſaid ſhall oppoſe, or refuſe to permit the ſaid Maſter and Wardens of the Company of Curriers, or ſuch perſons as they ſhall thereto aſſign, to make any ſuch ſearch or ſeiſure as aforeſaid, he or they ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the ſum of Twenty pounds for the Uſes, and to be recovered as aforeſaid; And if any of the ſaid Artificers and Dealers in cutting of Leather, do refuſe to be preſent with the ſaid Searchers, whenſoever the ſame ſhall be deſired by the ſaid Maſter and Wardens of the Company of the Curriers, or ſuch perſons thereto aſſigned by them, as aforeſaid, then for every ſuch default the perſons ſo refuſing ſhall forfeit the ſum of Ten pounds for the uſes, and to be recovered as aforeſaid.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for Diſtribution of Threeſcore thouſand pounds amongſt the truly Loyal and Indigent Commiſſion-Officers, and for Aſſeſſing of Offices, and Diſtributing Moneys thereby raiſed for their further Supply. EXP.

CAP. IX.

For Relief of Poor and Maimed Officers and Souldiers, who have faithfully ſerved His Majeſty, and His Royal Father in the late Wars.

FOraſmuch as divers of his Majeſties Loyal and Faithful Subjects, who out of the ſenſe of their Duty and Allegiance to his Majeſties Royal Father of ever Bleſſed and Glorious Memory, and to his Majeſty that now is, have during the late Wars, wherein they have been Imployed both by Sea and Land, as Officers, Souldiers and Mariners in the ſaid Service, expoſed themſelves to the utmoſt hazard of their Lives, Loſs of their Limbs, and utter ruine of their Fortunes; and for whoſe Subſiſtence and Relief there is not yet any competent Proviſion made; Nor for the Relief of the Widows and Orphans of ſuch as have died, or been ſlain in the ſaid Service.

The inducement and ground of this Act.

And to the end that ſuch as have been eminent for their Loyalty and Sufferings, in ſo good and juſt a Cauſe, as the Defence of his Majeſties Royal Perſon and Government, may not paſſe without ſome Mark of Favour or Reward to be ſet upon them; And that others may thereby receive all due Encouragement for the time to come, to continue Loyal and Faithful to his Majeſties Service, according to their bounden Duty; Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That from the Firſt day of this preſent Parliament, every Pariſh within this Realm of England, and Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall be charged weekly to the payment of ſuch ſum of Money, as formerly they have been rated by vertue of a Statute made in the Forty third year of Queen Elizabeth, Chapter the third, concerning the Relief of Mariners and Souldiers, for and to ſuch end and purpoſe; And likewiſe ſuch further ſum of Money (over and beſides the ſame,) as by His Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace in their next Quarter-Seſſions, to be held after the Feaſt of Eaſter next enſuing, or the major part of them, or at any other Quarter-Seſſions to be hereafter by them held, ſhall be adjudged meet to be Aſſeſſed upon every Pariſh or Chappelry, that hath diſtinct Parochial Officers, ſo as the ſaid additional ſum exceed not the ſum of Two ſhillings and ſix pence, nor be under the ſum of Three pence, each week, for each ſuch Pariſh or Chappelry, the ſame to be levied in manner and form by ſuch perſons, and under ſuch penalties, as by the ſaid Statute of Queen Elizabeth is Enacted and Declared; And to be paid to the Treaſurers for the Maimed Souldiers, appointed by the Juſtices of the County or Liberty, by vertue of this Act, and the Statute of Queen Elizabeth aforeſaid; Which ſaid Treaſurers ſhall be ordered to iſſue out, and account for the ſame in ſuch manner, and under ſuch penalties, as by the ſaid Statute is further Enacted and Declared; And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Officer, Souldier or Mariner maimed, indigent, aged or diſabled in body for work in the Service of His ſaid late Majeſty, or his Majeſty that now is, during the late Wars, or which are ſo Impoveriſhed by their Sufferings under any of the late Uſurped Powers, as that they are deſtitute of any competent Subſiſtence or Livelihood, and have continued Faithful to his Truſt, and not deſerted the ſame by taking up Arms againſt his ſaid late Majeſty, or his Majeſty that now is, or otherwiſe, ſhall forthwith repair to the place where he was laſt ſetled, before he took up Arms, with a Certificate of his Service, and hurts received, under the hand of his Captain, or other Commiſſionated Officer; And ſhall alſo repair unto the two next Juſtices of the Peace in the County where ſuch his Setling was; And the ſaid two Juſtices, upon the Examination of the Truth of ſuch Certificate (which the ſaid two Juſtices are hereby impowred to take upon Oath of the party, and of ſuch Witneſſes as he ſhall produce) ſhall by Warrant unto the Treaſurer, aſſign him Relief untill the next Quarter-Seſſions to be holden for that County or Liberty, at which time, a yearly Penſion ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtices, or the major part of them granted in Manner and Form, and with Power of Revocation, or Alteration, as by the ſaid Statute is further declared and directed; And in caſe that the Captain or Officer appointed to make ſuch Certificate be dead, the ſaid two Juſtices ſhall have Power, upon Requeſt made to them in behalf of the party maimed or aged, indigent or diſabled, as aforeſaid, by perſons of Credit, to give ſuch Relief, as in caſe of Examination as aforeſaid.

43 El. cap 3.

How Pariſhes may be charged, aſſeſſed and levied.

Treaſurer for maimed Souldiers.

Officers, Souldiers or Mariners maimed or indigent, how to be relieved.

And as touching the Widows and Orphans of ſuch as have died, or ſuffered death in the ſaid Service; It is hereby further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That over and beſides ſuch Relief as they ſhall gain by their Work and Labour, and ſhall be allowed by the Charity and Benevolence of the Pariſh, Town or Hamlet, where they are ſetled, who are hereby required to have them in ſpecial regard) the Treaſurers for the maimed Souldiers for ſuch County, ſhall allow ſuch further Relief from time to time, as ſhall be adjudged meet by the two next Juſtices of the Peace of ſuch County; And the ſaid Relief ſhall be paid out of the Surpluſage of ſuch Stock of Maintenance, as ſhall remain in the hands of the ſaid Treaſurer, after ſuch Penſions, and payment of them made, and of which Surpluſage and Allowance made unto ſuch Widows and Orphans, the ſaid Treaſurers ſhall give account from time to time, and the ſame diſtribute in ſuch manner, as by the Juſtices ſhall be directed, and according to the Statute aforeſaid.

Widows and Orphans of Souldiers.

And be further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of Peace in every County or Liberty, or any two of them, ſhall forthwith call all Treaſurers, High-Conſtables, Petty-Conſtables, or other perſons which have formerly been Intruſted with the Receipt, Collecting or Diſpoſing of any ſuch ſum of Money charged upon any Pariſh by vertue of the Statute aforeſaid, and whereof no account hath been given, and likewiſe the Executors and Adminiſtrators of ſuch perſon and perſons, unto a ſtrict account concerning ſuch Levies and Collections made; And ſuch money as they ſhall find remaining in the cuſtody of ſuch perſons, to order forthwith to be paid for the intents and purpoſes aforeſaid, and no other, to the Treaſurer appointed by vertue of the ſaid Statute, or to be appointed by vertue of this preſent Act, at the next Quarter-Seſſions to be holden for ſuch County or Liberty, under ſuch penalty, as by the ſaid Statute is ſet forth; Which ſaid Treaſurer to be appointed by this Act, ſhall continue by vertue hereof, untill Eaſter Seſſions following.

Treaſurers, High-Conſtables, &c. to be called to Accompt for Moneys received.

Provided, That no Penſion to be given, or aſſigned by authority hereof, ſhall exceed to any one perſon the ſum of Twenty pounds by the year; This Act to continue to the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

The continuance of this Act.

CAP. X.

An Additional Revenue ſetled upon His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, for the better ſupport of His and their Crown and Dignity.

Foraſmuch as nothing conduceth more to the Peace and Proſperity of a Nation, and the Protection of every ſingle perſon therein, then that the Publick Revenue thereof may be in ſome meaſure proportioned to the Publick Charges and Expences; We therefore Your Majeſties moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, having duly conſidered the Premiſſes, do give and grant unto your moſt Excellent Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors, the Rates and Duties herein after mentioned, and do moſt humbly beſeech Your Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, every dwelling, and other Houſe & Edifice, and all Lodgings, and Chambers, in the Inns of Court, Inns of Chancery, Colledges, and other Societies that are, or hereafter ſhall be erected within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales and Town of Berwick upon Tweed (other then ſuch as in this Act are hereafter excepted and declared) ſhall be chargeable, and by this preſent Act, be and are charged with the Annual payment to the Kings Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors for every Fire-Hearth, and Stove within every ſuch houſe, Edifice, Chambers, and Lodging, as aforeſaid, the ſum of Two ſhillings by the year to be paid yearly, and every year at the Feaſt of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, and the Feaſt of the Annuntiation of the Bleſſed Virgin St. Mary, by even and equal portions; the Firſt payment thereof to be paid upon the Feaſt-day of Saint Michael the Arch angel, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two.

The great concernment of proportioning the Publick Revenue, to the Charges and Expences.

Every Fire-hearth and Stove charged with the yearly payment of 2s. to the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors.

How an Accompt ſhall be taken of all Fire-Hearths and Stoves.

And to the intent that a juſt account may be had and taken of all the ſaid Hearths and Stoves by this Act intended to be charged; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner, or Occupier of every ſuch Houſe, Edifice, Lodgings and Chambers, ſhall reſpectively within ſix dayes after notice given unto him or them, by the reſpective Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tything-men, or other ſuch Officers, within whoſe Precinct, the ſaid Houſe, Edifice, Chambers or Lodging ſhall be, or by the reſpective Treaſurers or Officers of Inns of Court, Inns of Chancery, or other Officers of the reſpective Colledges, and other Societies aforeſaid, wherein any ſuch Lodgings and Chambers ſhall be, deliver unto the ſaid Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tything-men, or other ſuch Officers as aforeſaid reſpectively, a true and juſt account in writing under the hands of ſuch Owners or Occupiers as aforeſaid, of all the ſaid Hearths and Stoves which are within their ſeveral and reſpective Houſes, Lodgings and chambers aforeſaid.

How and when the ſame ſhall be delivered in.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tything-men, or other ſuch Officers, within whoſe limits any ſuch Houſe or Edifice charged by this Act as aforeſaid, are and the reſpective Treaſurers, and other Officers of the reſpective Inns of Court, Inns of Chancery, Colledges, and other Societies aforeſaid, ſhall by the laſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, require the ſeveral Occupiers of every ſuch Houſe, Edifice, Lodging & chamber aforeſaid, to deliver in to them reſpectively Accounts in writing as aforeſaid under their ſeveral and reſpective hands, of all ſuch Hearths and Stoves as aforeſaid, as ſhall be within their reſpective Houſes, edifices, Lodgings and Chambers, and upon the receipt of the ſame, or upon default of ſuch Account in writing, or in caſe there be no occupiers, then within ſix days after notice in writing, fixt to the door, requiring ſuch Account to be made, the ſaid Conſtables, or other Officers reſpectively, as aforeſaid, ſhall enter into the ſaid reſpective Houſes in the day time, and compare ſuch Acounts, and ſee whether the ſame be truly made, or not. And if no ſuch Account be delivered, then ſhall take information by their own view, of the number of ſuch Hearths and Stoves, upon pain that every Conſtable, Treaſurer, and other Officer aforeſaid, who ſhall neglect to do the ſame, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every week he or they ſhall ſo neglect, the ſum of Five pounds; and for every falſe return wilfully made contrary to this Act, he or they ſhall forfeit and loſe for every Hearth and Stove ſo falſly returned or omitted, the ſum of Forty ſhillings.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral Conſtables, and other Officers, who are hereby authorized to take account of the aforeſaid Hearths and Stoves within their particular Limits as aforeſaid, ſhall at the next Quarter-Seſſions after the ſaid laſt day of May, to be holden for their reſpective counties deliver all ſuch Accounts in writing, as they ſhall receive, reform, or take by their own view, unto the Juſtices of Peace in their reſpective Quarter-Seſſions of the ſaid Counties together with a true Note of the names of all ſuch perſons who ſhall refuſe or neglect to give unto them an account under their hands of ſuch Hearths and Stoves within their reſpective Houſes, Edifices, Chambers and Lodgings, as aforeſaid.

How Accompts of Hearths and Stoves ſhall be enrolled, and Duplicates thereof, by the Juſtices of the Peace.

And be it further Enacted, That the ſaid Juſtices of Peace ſhall cauſe all the ſaid Accounts of the ſeveral Hearths and Stoves within the reſpective Counties, to be Inrolled by the Clerk of the Peace of the ſaid reſpective Counties, Ridings in Yorkſhire, and Diviſions in Lincolnſhire, and alſo a Duplicate thereof in Parchment, under the hands and ſeals of three or more of the Juſtices of Peace of the reſpective Counties and places aforeſaid, who are hereby required to ſign the ſame to be returned into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer within one moneth next after ſuch account delivered unto them at their reſpective Quarter-Seſſions aforeſaid, upon pain that the Clerk of the Peace of every ſuch County, Riding or Diviſion reſpectively offending therein, ſhall forfeit to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſum of Two hundred pounds for the firſt moneth; And for the ſecond moneth he ſhall ſo neglect, every ſuch Clerk of the Peace ſhall forfeit and loſe his or their place and office, and the ſame ſhall become void accordingly; which forfeiture and penalty ſhall be recovered and levied as this Act directs.

How the Moneys ariſing ſhall be collected, received and paid into the Exchequer.

And to the intent that the Revenue hereby ariſing to his Majeſty, may from time to time be paid into his Exchequer with as little charge as may be; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Treaſurers and other Officers of the Inns of Court, Inns of Chancery, Colledges, and other Societies aforeſaid, within their reſpective Juriſdictions and the ſeveral Petty-conſtables, Tithing-men, Head-boroughs, and ſuch other Officers within the reſpective Limits, Liberties and Juriſdictions, ſhall every half year, within ſix days after the ſaid duty ſhall grow due, as aforeſaid, collect, gather, and receive the the ſame from the ſeveral Occupiers of the ſaid Hearths and Stoves, and upon payment thereof, ſhall give ſeveral Acquittances (without taking any thing for ſuch Acquitances) unto the ſeveral perſons who ſhall pay the ſame: And that ſuch Acquittances ſhall be a full and perfect diſcharge to every ſuch perſon who ſhall pay the ſame, againſt His Majeſty, his Heirs and ſucceſſors; ſo that no perſon who ſhall have ſuch Acquittance, ſhall be moleſted, ſued or vexed, or put to any charge in His Majeſties court of Exchequer or elſewhere.

Diſtreſs and ſale of goods in default of payment.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any perſon who is hereby charged, or intended to be charged to any ſum or ſums of money as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſame, that then every perſon or perſons who is hereby Authorized to collect the ſame, ſhall and may levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the perſon and perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting, rendring unto the ſaid perſon and perſons the overplus of ſuch money as ſhall remain in their hands by the ſaid ſale, after the ſaid duty and neceſſary charges of levying the ſame is diſcharged as aforeſaid.

The Duty of Conſtables, Treaſurers, and Officers impowered to collect the ſaid duties.

The allowance for Collecting.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid Conſtables, Treaſurers, and others Officers, who are hereby Authorized to collect the aforeſaid duties, ſhall within Twenty days next after the aforeſaid times at which the ſaid duties ſhall be due to his Majeſty, as aforeſaid, pay unto the High Conſtables of the ſeveral Hundreds and reſpective Limits, all ſuch money as they ſhall receive for the aforeſaid duties, receiving an Acquittance without paying any thing for the ſame, and deducting Two Pence in the pound for their pains in collecting the ſame; And ſhall alſo then in writing under his hand deliver unto the ſaid High Conſtable, the names of the perſons of whom they receive the ſame, and alſo the names of ſuch perſons who ought to have paid the reſpective duties yearly charged upon them, and have not paid the ſame, where no diſtreſs can be had.

Within what time the money ought to be paid to the High Sheriff.

And be it further Enacted, That the High Conſtables of the ſeveral hundreds and reſpective limits, ſhall within ten days next after their ſeveral receipts from the ſaid Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, and other Officers, pay unto the High Sheriffs, of every County, all ſuch money as they ſhall ſo receive, deducting a penny in the pound for their pains, and ſhall alſo then deliver or cauſe to be delivered unto the ſaid High Sheriffs, the ſeveral returns which they received from the Conſtables, and other Officers aforeſaid.

And when the High Sheriff ought to pay the ſame into the Exchequer.

And the reſpective Sheriffs ſhall within thirty days after he or they ſhall receive the ſaid moneys from the reſpective Collectors, return the ſame, together with the names of ſuch perſons who are defaulters, and had no diſtreſs to be found, into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, deducting Four pence out of twenty ſhillings, and ſo after that rate; whereof Three pence to be for the Sheriffs own uſe, As a reward of his pains in receiving and returning the ſame; and One penny to be paid by the Sheriff to the Clerk of the Peace, for his pains, to be recovered by the ſaid Clerk of the Peace by Action of Debt.

London Middleſex.

Surrey. Southwark.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That the High Sheriff of London and Middleſex, for the time being, for London and ſo much of the county of Middleſex as lies within the Bills of Mortality, other then the Inns of Court and Chancery; and the High Sheriff of Surrey for the time being, for the Burrough of Southwark, and all other Sheriffs of any other City or Town, being a County of it ſelf, for ſuch Cities and Towns reſpectively, ſhall be, and are hereby made Collectors of, and for the ſeveral duties ariſing within their ſeveral and reſpective Limits; For which end and purpoſe, and in thoſe places onely, the Conſtables, Tythingmen, Headboroughs and other Officers ſhal deliver unto the Sheriffs of the Cities and places aforeſaid, Duplicates of the ſame, Accompts of Hearths and Stoves, which the ſaid Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tithingmen, and other Officers are appointed by this Act to take from time to time, and to deliver to the Juſtices of Peace, to be Inrolled as aforeſaid; And the ſaid Sheriffs of the Cities and places laſt before mentioned, are hereby enabled to levy the ſaid duties and required to give Acquitances without any Fees, as fully and amply to all intents and purpoſes as in this Act is appointed to be done by any other collectors; And the ſaid Sheriffs ſhall, from time to time within Forty days after the ſaid duties ſhall be payable by vertue of this Act, make payment of all the monies levied, into His Majeſties Exchequer, with a perfect liſt of the names of ſuch perſons as ſhall make default of payment, where no diſtreſs can be found to be taken; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. And the ſaid Sheriffs ſhall deduct out of their payments Four pence in the pound; whereof Three pence to be for themſelves, and One penny for the Clerk of the Peace, to be recovered as aforeſaid.

Officers of the Exchequer ſhall diſcharge perſons who pay the Duties, without any Fee.

And that His Majeſties Officers in his ſaid Court of Exchequer, ſhall diſcharge all ſuch perſons who paid their reſpective Duties without taking any Fees for the ſame, and ſhall alſo iſſue out proceſs to levy the ſaid duty upon ſuch perſons who ſhall fail in payment thereof, where no diſtreſs can be found, to be taken according to this Act.

The ſaid Revenue ſhall be paid into the Exchequer. And not charged with any Grant or Penſion.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, that the Revenue and Sum of money ariſing by vertue of this Act, (Except what ſhall be allowed to the aforeſaid Officers and Miniſters for Collecting the ſame) ſhall be duly and conſtantly paid and anſwered into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer: And ſhall not be particularly charged or chargeable, either before it be paid into the Exchequer, or after, with any Gift, Grants, or Penſion whatſoever; And that all and every Grants, of any ſuch Penſious, and all and every clauſe of Non obſtante therein contained ſhall be, and is hereby declared to be utterly void, and all and every the perſons to whom ſuch Grants are paſſed, ſhall be, and are hereby made Accomptants unto his Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and ſhall pay back all ſums of money received by pretence of ſuch Grant; and the Court of Exchequer ſhall be, and is hereby enjoyned to Iſſue out Proceſs accordingly.

Grantees of the ſame ſhall be Accomptants.

Perſons acting upon this Statute being ſued therefore, may plead the general Iſſue.

CAP. XI.

Frauds and Abuſes in his Majeſties Cuſtoms prevented and Regulated.

12 Car. 2. cap. 19.

Foraſmuch as it appears, that ſeveral unlawful and indirect means and devices are daily put in practiſe, to Export and Import Goods and Merchandizes prohibited by the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom; as alſo to defraud the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty of his Dues, Cuſtoms and Subſidies, as well by ſecret and deceitful deſigns, as by open force and violence uſed againſt the Kings Majeſties Officers, imployed in the Affairs of the Cuſtoms;

Ships and Veſſels arriving from beyond the Seas at Graves-End.

True Entries of Lading to be made upon Oath.

For the better preventing of which frauds and violences in time to come, It is enacted and Ordained by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled; and be it enacted and ordained by the Authority thereof, That no Ship or Veſſel arriving from the parts beyond the Seas, ſhall be above three days coming from Graves-End to the place of her diſcharge (within the River of Thames) without touching or ſtaying at any Wharf, Key or place adjoyning to either Shoar between Graves-end and Cheſters-Key (unleſs apparently hindred by contrary Winds, Draught of Water, or other juſt impediment to be allowed by ſuch perſon or perſons as are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing the Cuſtoms, the Collectors Inwards, or other principal Officers of the Cuſtoms) and then, or before the Maſter or Purſer (for that Voyage) of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall make a juſt and true Entry upon Oath, of the Burthen, Contents and Lading of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with the particular Marks, Numbers, Qualities and Contents of every parcel of Goods therein

Laden, to the beſt of his knowledge; alſo where, and in what Port ſhe took in her Lading, of what Countrey built, how manned, who was Maſter during the Voyage, and who are Owners thereof; and in all Out-Ports or Members, to come directly up to the place of unlading, as the condition of the Port requires, and will admit, and making Entries, as aforeſaid, upon the penalty of the forfeiture of One hundred pounds.

The Penalty.

The Duty of Captains, Maſter and others, taking charge of Ships and Veſſels bound for parts beyond the Seas.

To take in no Engliſh goods till Entry thereof be made at the Cuſtom-houſe.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Captain, Maſter, Purſer, or any other perſon or perſons taking charge of any Ship or Veſſel bound for the parts beyond the Seas, or into the Kingdom of Scotland, whether the ſame Ship or Veſſel ſhall have Commiſſion from, or belong unto the Kings Majeſty that now is, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or ſhall belong to, or have Commiſſion from any forein Prince or State, or otherwiſe, ſhall take in or ſuffer to be taken into, or laden aboard any ſuch ſhip or veſſel, any Engliſh Goods, Wares, or Merchandize, to be Exported into the parts beyond the Seas, or into the Kingdome of Scotland, until ſuch Captain, Maſter, Purſer, or other perſon as aforeſaid, ſhall have entred ſuch ſhip or ſhips in the Book of the Commiſſioners, Cuſtomer or Collector and Comptroller Outwards of ſuch Port where he ſhall load or take in Goods, together with the Name of ſuch Captain or Maſter, the Burden of ſuch ſhip or veſſel, the number of Guns and Ammunition ſhe carries, and to what Port or place ſhe intends to paſs or ſail, and before he or they ſhall depart with his or their ſhip or veſſel out of ſuch Port or place, ſhall bring and deliver unto the ſaid perſon or perſons, which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing the Cuſtoms, the Cuſtomer or Collector and Comptroller of ſuch Port or place, a Content in Writing under his or their hands, of the Names of every Merchant, and other perſon or perſons that ſhall have laden and put on Board any ſuch ſhip or veſſel, any ſuch Goods or Merchandize, together with the Marks and Numbers of ſuch Goods and Merchandize, and ſhall likewiſe publickly in the open Cuſtom-houſe, upon his corporal Oath, to the beſt of his knowledge, have anſwered to ſuch queſtion or queſtions, as ſhall be demanded of him by the ſaid perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for the managing the Cuſtoms, the Cuſtomer or Collector and Comptroller, or their Deputies, concerning ſuch Goods and Merchandize as ſhall be aboard ſuch ſhip or veſſel, upon pain of forfeiture of One hundred pounds; And that no ſuch Captain, Maſter, Purſer, or other perſon or perſons, taking charge of any ſhip or Veſſel of War, as aforeſaid, wherein any Goods, Wares or Merchandizes ſhall have been laden or brought from the Ports beyond the Seas, or out of the Realm of Scotland, ſhall unload or put on board any Lighter, Boat or Bottom, or lay on land, or ſuffer to be diſcharged or put into any Lighter, Boat or Bottom, or to be laid on land out of any ſhip or Veſſel as aforeſaid, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatſoever, before ſuch Captain, Maſter, Purſer, or other perſon taking charge of the ſhip or Merchants Goods for that Voyage as aforeſaid, ſhall have ſignified and declared in writing under his or their hands, unto the perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing the Cuſtoms, the Cuſtomer or Collector and Comptroller Inwards of the Port where he arriveth, the Names of every Merchant or Lader of any Goods or Merchandizes aboard the ſaid ſhip or Veſſel, together with the Number and Marks, and the quantity and quality of every Parcel of Goods and Merchandizes to the beſt of his knowledge, and ſhall have anſwered upon his or their corporal Oath, to ſuch Queſtions concerning ſuch Goods and Merchandizes, as ſhall be publickly adminiſtred unto him in the open Cuſtom-houſe by ſuch perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed for managing the Cuſtoms, Cuſtomer or Collector and Comptroller, or their Deputies, and ſhall be liable to all Searches and other Rules which Merchants ſhips are ſubject unto, by the uſage of his Majeſties Cuſtom-houſe (victualling Bills and Entring excepted) upon pain to forfeit One hundred pounds, and upon refuſal to make ſuch Entries as aforeſaid, as well Outwards as Inwards, the ſaid perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed for managing the Cuſtoms, and Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, and their Deputies, ſhall and may freely enter and go on board all and every ſuch Ship or Veſſel of War, and bring from thence on ſhoar into his Majeſties Store-houſe belonging to the Port where ſuch ſhip ſhall be, all Goods and Merchandizes prohibited or uncuſtomed, which ſhall be found aboard any ſuch ſhip as aforeſaid.

Ships or Veſſels of War bringing Goods.

The power of Officers for managing the Cuſtoms, to enter and ſearch Ships and Veſſels.

And be it hereby alſo enacted, That the ſaid perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed for managing the Cuſtoms, and Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, and their Deputies, are hereby authorized and enabled to go and enter aboard any Ship or Veſſel, as well ſhips of War as Merchant ſhips, and from thence to bring on ſhore all Goods prohibited or uncuſtomed, except Jewels, if they be Outwards bound; and if they be Ships or Veſſels Inwards bound, from thence to bring on ſhore into his Majeſties Store-houſe, as aforeſaid, all ſmall parcels of Fine Goods or other Goods which ſhall be found in Cabbins, Cheſts, Trunks, or other ſmall Package, or in any private or ſecret place, in, or out of the Hold of the ſhip or Veſſel, which may occaſion a juſt ſuſpition that they were intended to be fraudulently conveyed away; And all other ſorts of Goods whatſoever, for which the Duties of Tunnage & Poundage were not paid or compounded for within Twenty dayes after the firſt Entry of the Ship, to be put and remain in the ſtore-houſe aforeſaid, until his Majeſties Duties thereupon be juſtly ſatisfied, unleſs the ſaid perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing the Cuſtoms, and Officers of the Cuſtoms, ſhall ſee juſt cauſe to allow a longer time, and that the ſaid perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be ſo appointed to manage the Cuſtoms, and the Officers of the Cuſtoms, and their Deputies, may freely ſtay and remain aboard until all the Goods are delivered and diſcharged out of the ſaid Ships or Veſſels: And if any Maſter, Purſer, or Boat-ſwain or other, taking charge in any Ship or Veſſel, or any other perſon whatſoever ſhall ſuffer any Truſs, Bale, Pack, Fardel, Cask, or other Package to be opened aboard the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, and the goods therein to be imbezelled, carried away, or put into any other Form or Package, after the Ship comes into the Port of her diſcharge, in every ſuch caſe the ſaid Maſter, Purſer, Boat-ſwain, or others, ſhall forfeit the ſum of one hundred pounds.

Goods concealed in any Ship after clearing.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe, after the clearing of any Ship or Veſſel, by the perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing the Cuſtoms, or any their Deputies, and diſcharging the Watchmen or Tideſmen from attendance thereupon, there ſhall be found on board ſuch Ship or Veſſel, any Goods, Wares or Merchandizes, which have been concealed from the knowledge of the ſaid perſon or perſons, which are or ſhall be ſo appointed to manage the Cuſtoms, and for which the Cuſtom, Subſidy, and other Duties due upon the Importation thereof, have not been paid, then the Maſter, Purſer, or other perſon taking charge of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, ſhall forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds. And it ſhall be lawful to or for any perſon or perſons, authorized by Writ of Aſſiſtance, under the Seal of his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, to take a Conſtable, Headborough, or other publick Officer inhabiting near unto the place, and in the day-time to enter, and go into any Houſe, Shop, Cellar, Ware-houſe or Room, or other place, and in caſe of Reſiſtance, to break open Doors, Cheſts, Trunks, and other Package, there to ſeize, and from thence to bring any kind of Goods or Merchandize whatſoever, prohibited and uncuſtomed, and to put and ſecure the ſame in his Majeſties Store-houſe, in the Port next to the place where ſuch ſeizure ſhall be made.

The Penalty.

An accompt to be given of all Foreign Ships in all Ports of England.

12 Car. 2. ca. 18.

And for the better encreaſe of Shipping and Navigation, Be it further Enacted, That the Collectors, and other Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, in all the Ports of England, ſhall forthwith give an account unto the Collectors and Surveyor in the Port of London (appointed by his Majeſty for all Duties and Matters relating to a late Act, Intituled, An Act for encreaſing and encouraging of Shipping and Navigation,) of all Foreign built Ships in their Ports, owned and belonging to the people of England, of what built and burthen they are, for which Certificates have been made according to the ſaid Act, and that the ſaid Collector and Surveyor ſhall make a true and perfect liſt of all ſuch Ships, atteſted under their hands, and tranſmit the ſame into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, on, or before the moneth of December, in the year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, there to remain upon Record. And that no Foreign built Ship (that is to ſay) not built in any of his Majeſties Dominions of Aſia, Africa or America, or other than ſuch as ſhall (bona fide) be bought before the firſt of October, 1662. next enſuing, and expreſly named in the ſaid Liſt, ſhall enjoy the priviledge of a Ship belonging to England or Ireland, although owned or manned by Engliſh (except ſuch Ships only as ſhall be taken at Sea by Letters of Mart or Reprizal, and condemnation made in the Court of Admiralty, as lawful Prize) but all ſuch Ships ſhall be deemed as Aliens Ships, and be liable unto all Duties that Aliens Ships are liable unto by vertue of the ſaid Act for encreaſe of Shipping and Navigation. And whereas it is required by the ſaid Act, that in ſundry caſes the Maſter and three fourths of the Mariners are to be Engliſh, it is to be underſtood, that any of his Majeſties Subjects of England, Ireland, and his Plantations, are to be accounted Engliſh, and no others, and that the number of Mariners be accounted according to what they ſhall have been during the whole Voyage. And whereas of late ſome of the perſons appointed by his Majeſty for the managing the Cuſtoms and the Officers of the Cuſtoms and their Deputies, have been hindred, affronted, abuſed, beaten, and wounded, to the hazard of their lives, in the due execution of their ſeveral Truſts and Services in their reſpective places, by armed companies and multitudes of men, and goods prohibited and uncuſtomed have by force and violence, as well by Land as by Water, been forcibly carried and conveyed away; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Officer or Officers ſhall be by any perſon or perſons armed with Club, or any manner of Weapon, forcibly hindred, affronted, abuſed, beaten or wounded, as aforeſaid, either on board any Ship or Veſſel; or upon the Land or Water in the due execution of their Office, all and every perſon and perſons ſo reſiſting, affronting, abuſing, beating or wounding the ſaid Officer or Officers, or their Deputies, or ſuch as ſhall Act in their aid or aſſiſtance, ſhall by the next Juſtice of Peace, or other Magiſtrate, be committed to Priſon, there to remain till the next Quarter-Seſſions: And the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Quarter-Seſſions, ſhall, and are hereby impowred to puniſh the Offendor by Fine, not exceeding One hundred pounds, and the Offendor is to remain in Priſon till he be diſcharged by Order of the Exchequer, both of the Fine and of the Impriſonment, or diſcover the perſon that ſet him on work, to the end he may be legally proceeded againſt.

And whereas allowances given to Merchants and others for defects and damages upon Goods, and Five per centum generally upon all Goods Imported, and Twelve per centum upon Wines, every Merchant or others having the aforeſaid allowances inwards, ſhall in perſon upon Oath by himſelf, or by his known Servant or Factor, demand and receive the moneys due upon Debenturs for ſuch Foreign Goods Exported by ſuch Certificate, with ſuch abatements and allowances as were made and given to him upon the Importation; and if he be found fraudulently to ſhip out leſs in quantity or value then is expreſſed in his Certificate, the Goods therein mentioned, or the value thereof ſhall be forfeited; and the Owner or Merchant ſhall loſe the benefit of receiving back any part of the Subſidy for thoſe Goods; and if any Goods ſhipped out by Certificate as aforeſaid, ſhall be landed again in the ſame, or any other Port or place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick (unleſs in caſe of Diſtreſſe to ſave the goods from periſhing, which ſhall be preſently made known to the perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty to manage his Cuſtoms, and principal Officers of the port) no allowance ſhal be demanded or made for thoſe Goods, and the ſaid Goods, or value thereof, ſhall be forfeited and loſt.

Goods brought from, or carried into Scotland by land, ſhall paſſe through Berwick or Carlile.

12 Car. 2. cap. 4.

Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Goods, Wares or Merchandize that ſhall be brought out of, or carried into the Kingdom of Scotland by Land, into, or out of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port and Town of Berwick, ſhall paſſe and be carried by and through ſome of the Towns and Paſſages hereafter named, (that is to ſay) by and through Berwick or Carlile, and then and there pay the Cuſtom and Subſidy granted and due to the Kings Majeſty, by an Act of this preſent Parliament, entituled, A Subſidy granted to the King of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandize Exported and Imported; And if any Goods, Wares or Merchandize prohibited or uncuſtomed, coming out of Scotland into England, or going out of England into Scotland ſhall paſſe by, or beyond the Towns, Ports and places aforenamed without due entry and payments of the Cuſtoms, That then all ſuch Goods, Wares and Merchandize, or the value thereof ſhall be forfeited and loſt.

1 El. cap. 11. When and where Merchandize ſhall be landed and cuſtom paid.

And whereas in and by an Act of Parliament in the Firſt year of Queen Elizabeth, of famous memory, directing when and where Merchandize ſhall be landed, and Cuſtoms paid; it is amongſt divers other things Enacted and Ordained, That no Goods, Wares or Merchandize ſhall be ſhipped or loaden aboard any Ship or Veſſel, or landed or diſcharged out of, or from any Ship or Veſſel, but in or upon ſome ſuch open place, Key or Wharf, places, Keys or Wharfs, (Except the Port of Hull) as her Highneſs, her Heirs and Succeſſors ſhould therefore aſſign or appoint by vertue of her Highneſs Commiſſion or Commiſſions, within the Port of London, and in all Ports, Creeks, Havens or Roads, as in and by the ſaid Act doth and may at large appear. And whereas, notwithſtanding the aforeſaid Act, there are ſome Ports, Creeks and places where Cuſtomers, Collectors, and Comptrollers and Searchers, and their ſervants had then, time out of mind, been reſident, to which no ſuch Commiſſions were ſent, nor places, Keys, nor Wharfs appointed, as by the ſaid Act was directed: And whereas alſo ſince that time, by reaſon of the alteration of Rivers, Streams, Channels and Sands, ſome places then appointed are become unfit and uſeleſs, and others much more convenient and commodious, as well for Traffique and Commerce, as for Landing and Diſcharging, Lading and Shipping of Goods, Wares, and Merchandize; It is Enacted and Ordained, and be it Enacted and Ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That the Kings Majeſty may from time to time by his Highneſs Commiſſion or Commiſſions out of his Court of Exchequer, aſſign and appoint all ſuch further places, Ports, Members and Creeks, (except the Town of Hull) as ſhall be lawful for the landing and diſcharging, lading or ſhipping of any Goods, Wares or Merchandize, within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and to what ancient and head-Ports reſpectively ſuch places, Members or Creeks ſhall belong and appertain: And where any ſuch Member, Creek or place ſhall be ſo (as aforeſaid) appointed by vertue of the ſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions, the Cuſtomer, Collector, Comptroller and Searcher of the head Port, ſhall by themſelves, or their ſufficient deputy or deputies, ſervant or ſervants, reſide and inhabit, for the entring, clearing, and paſſing, ſhipping and diſcharging of Ships, Goods and Merchandize; And by vertue of the aforeſaid Commiſſion or Commiſſions, may likewiſe ſet down and appoint the extents, bounds and limits of every Port, Haven or Creek within his Majeſties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, whereby the extents, limits and priviledges of every Port, Haven and Creek, may be aſcertained and known: And it ſhall not be lawful for any perſon or perſons whatſoever, to lade, or put, or cauſe to be laden or put off, or from any Key, Wharf, or other place on the Land, into any Ship, Veſſel, Lighter, Boat or Bottom, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatſoever, (Fiſh taken by his Majeſties Subjects, Sea coal, Stone and Beſtials only excepted) to be tranſported into any place of the parts beyond the Seas; or carried by Land into the Realm of Scotland, or to take up, diſcharge or lay on land, or cauſe, or procure to be taken up, diſcharged and laid on Land out of any Boat, Lighter, Ship, Veſſel or Bottom (being not in Leak or Wreck) any Goods, Wares, Merchandize whatſoever ever (Fiſh taken by his Majeſties Subjects, Beſtials and Salt only excepted) to be brought from any of the parts beyond the Seas, or by land from the Realm of Scotland, by way of Merchandize, but only upon ſuch open place, Key or Wharf, Places, Keys or Wharfs, as his Majeſty ſhall from time to time aſſign and appoint by vertue of ſuch Commiſſion and Commiſſions as aforeſaid, in his Majeſties Port of London, and the Members and Liberties thereof, in any other Port, place, Member or Creek within his Majeſties Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick, without ſpecial ſufferance and leave firſt had from the Commiſſioners and Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, upon the penalty of the forfeiture of all ſuch Goods, Wares and Merchandize.

For avoiding Practiſes between Owners of goods and Informers, to avoid payment of cuſtoms. None to ſeize any goods but Officers of the cuſtoms.

And foraſmuch as it doth appear by daily experience, That there are great Practiſes and Combinations between the Importers and Owners of Goods and Merchandizes, and the Seizers and Informers, with deſign and intent to defraud the force of the Law, and his Majeſty of his Duties and Cuſtoms; Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Ship or Ships, Goods, Wares or Merchandize, ſhall be ſeized as forfeited, for or by reaſon of unlawful Importation or Exportation, into, or out of this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port and Town of Berwick, or any the Ports, Members or Creeks thereunto belonging, or for not payment of any Cuſtoms or Subſidies now due, or hereafter to be due and payable to his Majeſty, but by the perſon or perſons who are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty to manage his Cuſtoms, or Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms for the time being, or ſuch other perſon or perſons as ſhall be deputed and authorized thereunto by Warrant from the Lord Treaſurer, or Under-Treaſurer, or by ſpecial Commiſſion from his Majeſty under the Great or Privy-Seal; And if any ſeizure ſhall hereafter be made by any other perſon or perſons whatſoever for any the cauſes aforeſaid, ſuch ſeizure ſhall be void and of none effect, Any Statute, Law, Act, or Proviſion to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

In any Suit againſt perſons imployed about the cuſtoms, the Defendant may plead the general Iſſue. 12 Car.2. ca.18.

And to give this or other acts relating to cuſtoms or Navigation, in evidence.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in every Action, Suit, Indictment, Information or Proſecution, wherein or whereby the perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing his Cuſtoms, or the Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, or any Officer or Officers, Perſon or Perſons authorized by his Majeſty to put in execution the Act of Parliament, For encreaſing and encouraging of Navigation, their Deputies or Servants, or any others acting in aid of them, have been, are, or ſhall be ſued, indicted, proſecuted or moleſted, it ſhall be lawful for all and every the ſaid perſons, their heirs, executors and adminiſtrators, to plead the general Iſſue, and to give this or the aforeſaid Acts of Parliament, relating to the Cuſtoms and Navigation in evidence, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Juſtice, or other Courts where the ſaid matter ſhall be depending; And the Judges of the ſaid Courts are hereby ſtrictly enjoyned and required to admit the ſame, and to acquit and indempniſie them, and every of them, of, and from all ſuch Suits, Indictments, Informations or Proſecutions, for or concerning any matter or thing acted or done in the due and neceſſary performance and execution of their reſpective Truſts and Imployments therein.

For avoiding fraudulent compoſitions by Informers.

Be it hereby alſo enacted for avoiding of fraudulent Compoſitions, That if any Seizer, Informer or Officer as aforeſaid, ſhall not proſecute to effect for the bringing to Tryal and Condemnation the Ships, Goods and Merchandize by them ſeiſed or informed againſt, That then, and in every ſuch caſe, it ſhall be lawful to or for any of the perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for managing his Cuſtoms, or the Officers of the Cuſtoms, or other perſon or perſons deputed by them, or thereunto authorized by the Lord Treaſurer, or Under-Treaſurer to make ſeizure of, or inform againſt ſuch Goods and Merchandize, or bring his Action for the ſame by way of Devenerunt, and that they ſhall be eſteemed and adjudged in Law as the true firſt Informers and Seizers, and have the benefit of ſuch Informers or Seizers; Any Law, Statute, Act or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And that no Informer or Officer be ſuffered to compound under one Third of the appraiſed value upon loſs of his office;

No perſon imployed about managing the cuſtoms, may take any bribe or reward to connive at any Entry.

The penalty.

Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any of the Kings Majeſties Officers, or other perſons appointed to manage his Majeſties Cuſtoms, Searchers, Waiters, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever deputed and appointed by and under them, or any of them, or any other Authority whatſoever, and imployed in or about the Affairs of the Kings Cuſtoms and Subſidies, ſhall directly or indirectly take or receive any bribe, recompence or reward, in any kind whatſoever, or connive at any falſe Entry of any Goods or Merchandizes, whereby the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſhall be defrauded or hindred, in, or of his Cuſtoms and Subſidies, or other ſums of Money or Goods prohibited by the Law to be Imported or Exported into or out of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, Town and Port of Berwick, be ſuffered to paſſe either by way of Importation or Exportation, the perſon or perſons therein offending, ſhall forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds, and be for ever afterwards incapable of any Office or Imployment under the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or any Authority derived from them, as alſo the Merchant, Mariner, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever, who ſhall give or pay any ſuch Bribe, Recompence or Reward as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Fifty pounds.

Perſons revealing their own offences within Two monethes to be acquitted.

Provided nevertheleſs, That if any perſon or perſons offending as aforeſaid, ſhall reveal and make known ſuch his or their offence in Two mo[illegible]s time to the Treaſurer of England, the Chancellor, Under-Treaſurer, or Barons of the Exchequer, he ſhall for that offence be clearly acquitted and diſcharged.

And be it further enacted, That all forreign Goods and Merchandize which by the perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty for the managing of the Cuſtoms, Foreign goods, where to be landed, and how weighed and numbred.

and the Cuſtomer, Collector and Comptroller, ſhall be permitted to be landed and taken up by Bills at ſight, Bills at view or ſufferance, ſhall be landed at the moſt convenient Keys or Wharfs where the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo to be appointed, Cuſtomer, or Collector or Comptroller, ſhall appoint, and not elſewhere, and there or in his Majeſties Store-houſe of the reſpective Ports, at the Election of the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo to be appointed, and the Officers, ſhall be meaſured, weighed and numbred, by and in the preſence of the Officers, to be thereunto particularly appointed; which ſaid Officers ſo appointed, ſhall perfect the Entry, and thereunto ſhall ſubſcribe their Names, and the next day following ſhall give Accompt, and make report of every reſpective Entry ſo perfected as aforeſaid, to the ſaid perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed to manage his Majeſties Cuſtoms, Cuſtomer, or Collector and Comptroller aforeſaid, without reaſonable cauſe to be allowed by the ſaid perſon or perſons, or Officers aforeſaid, or in default thereof, ſhall forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds.

Veſſels appointed for carrying Letters, may not Import nor Export Merchandiz.

Be it alſo enacted, That no Ship, Veſſel or Boat, appointed and imployed ordinarily for the carriage of Letters and Pacquets ſhall (unleſs it be in ſuch caſes as ſhall be allowed by the ſaid perſon or perſons which are or ſhall be appointed to manage his Majeſties Cuſtoms, or Officers aforeſaid) Import or Export any Goods or Merchandize into or out of the parts beyond the Seas, upon the penalty of the forfeiture of One hundred pounds to be paid by the Maſter of the ſaid Veſſel or Boat, with the loſs of his place; and all goods and Merchandize that ſhall be found on board any ſuch Ship, Veſſel or Boat, ſhall be forfeited and loſt.

An Explanation of 12 Car 2. cap; 18. of goods prohibited to be brought from Holland.

And whereas ſome Doubts and Diſputes have ariſen concerning the ſaid late Act For encreaſing and encouraging of Shipping and Navigation, about ſome of the Goods therein prohibited to be brought from Holland, and the parts and Ports thereabouts; Be it enacted and declared, That no ſort of Wines (other then Rheniſh) no ſort of Spicery, Grocery, Tobacco, Pot-aſhes, Pitch, Tarr, Salt, Rozen, Deal-boards, Firr, Timber, or Olive-oyl, ſhall be imported into England, Wales, or Berwick, from the Netherlands or Germany, upon any pretence whatſoever in any ſort of Ships or Veſſels whatſoever, upon penalty of the loſs of all the ſaid Goods, as alſo of the Ships and furniture.

12 Car. 2. c. 18. Impoſition of 5 s. per Tun upon French Veſſels.

And whereas alſo by the ſaid Acts For encouraging and encreaſing of Shipping and Navigation, an Impoſition of Five ſhillings per Tun is laid upon all Ships or Veſſels belonging to any Subjects of the French King, which ſhall come into any Port, Harbour, Creek or Road of England, Ireland, Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and ſhall there lade or unlade any Goods, or take in or ſet on ſhore any Paſſengers, yet notwithſtanding there is great difficulty in recovering the ſaid Duty, becauſe ſmall Shallops come not into Harbours where Officers are, but either put their Goods and Paſſengers on ſhore, or Boats come out of Harbors, which privately convey them on ſhore, there being no penalty in the Act againſt ſuch offendors;

How to be recovered, and the penalty.

Be it therefore enacted, That any ſuch Ship or Veſſel upon which the above-ſaid Impoſition of five ſhillings per Tun is due and payable, which ſhall either put on ſhore, or put over into any Boat any Goods or Paſſengers without payment of Cuſtom and Impoſition of Tunnage, at any time returning into any Harbour, Port or Creek of England or Ireland, ſhall not only pay the Duties formerly due, but forfeit the ſum of Ten pounds; And whatſoever Pilot, Water-man or Boat-man, which ſhall from any Harbour, Port or Creek go out and bring any Goods from on board ſuch Veſſel, ſhall not only be liable to pay the Duty of Tunnage which the ſaid Veſſel ſhould have paid, but forfeit the ſum of Forty pounds.

Tunnage upon Vinegar, Perry, Rape, Cyder and Cyder-eager.

Be it alſo hereby enacted, That Vinegar, Perry, Rape, Cyder, and Cyder-eager, of any ſort or kind whatſoever, Imported from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, from Forreign parts, is hereby Rated to pay to the Kings Majeſty a Subſidy of Tunnage of Four pounds ten ſhillings per Tun Imported by Engliſh, and Six pounds imported by Strangers, according to the Rate already impoſed and ſet upon French Wines, to be collected and levied for ſuch time and in ſuch manner as by the ſaid Act of Tunnage and Poundage is directed and appointed; And the ſame are by vertue of this Act exonerated and diſcharged of all further and other ſums heretofore ſet or charged upon thoſe Commodities, by or under the name of Subſidy or Poundage; And in caſe of exportation, there ſhall be repaid and allowed to the Engliſh-man Exporter, the ſum of Three pounds ten ſhillings per Tun, and to the Alien Four pounds Fifteen ſhillings per Tun, to be repaid according to the Rules of the Book of Rates now eſtabliſhed.

Logwood or Blockwood.

23 El cap. 9.

39 El. cap. 11.

And whereas the Ingenious Induſtry of theſe times hath taught the Dyers of England the Art of fixing the Colours made of Logwood, alias Blockwood, ſo as that by experience they are found as laſting and ſerviceable as the colours made with any other ſort of Dying-wood whatſoever; And whereas by a Statute made in the Three and twentieth year of the reign of Queen Elizabeth of famous Memory, entituled, Logwood and Blockwood ſhall not be uſed in Dying of Cloth, &c. And by another Statute made in the Nine and thirtieth year of the aforeſaid Queen Elizabeth, (entituled, The Penalty for mixing or uſing of Logwood in Dying Cloth or other Stuff) all Logwood, alias Blockwood, that ſhall be found within this Kingdom ſhall be forfeited, and openly burned, with divers other pains, penalties and forfeitures upon ſuch as ſhall uſe the ſame in Dying Cloth or other Commodities, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts aforeſaid may and doth appear: Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid Statutes, and either of them, be and are hereby Repealed and made void as to all Clauſes, Articles, Proviſions and penalties [illegible] any wiſe relating to the prohibition or uſe of Logwood, alias Blockwood; And that from and after the firſt day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, It ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, freely to import into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick upon Tweed, any quantities of Logwood, alias Blockwood, and freely to uſe the ſame in Dying or colouring any ſort of Goods or Manufacture whatſoever, the aforeſaid two Statutes, or any other Law, Statute, Uſage, Cuſtom, Patent of priviledge, Proclamation, or other Reſtraint, Matter or Thing to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Impoſition upon Logwood imported.

12 Car. 2. ca. 18.

12 Car. 2. cap. 4.

Provided, That ſuch Importation be according to the Rules preſcribed and enjoyned in the late Act, entituled, An Act for encouraging and encreaſing of Shipping and Navigation, and paying a Subſidy to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for every Tun of the ſaid Logwood, alias Blockwood, ſo to be Imported after the rate of Five pounds, and after that rate for any greater or leſſer quantity according to ſuch Rules, and under ſuch penalties as are provided for all other Imported Goods in a late Act, entituled, An Act of Subſidy granted to the King of Tunnage and Poundage, and other Sums of Money payable upon Merchandize Exported and Imported: Excepting onely that for all of the ſaid Commodities Exported according to the Rules of the Book of Rates, there ſhall be repaid to the Exporter the ſum of Four pounds per Tun; the ſaid rate for Logwood, alias Blockwood, to be collected and levied for ſuch time, and in ſuch manner, as by the Act of Tunnage and Poundage is directed and appointed.

Onus Probandi of property of goods claimed to lie upon the Owner or claimer.

And be it further Enacted, That all Actions, Suits and Informations to be had and commenced upon the Act For encouraging and encreaſing of Shipping and Navigation, or any Clauſe or Article therein, may be entred and proſecuted in his Majeſties Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, That upon all ſuch Suits and Informations to be brought upon the Act of Tunnage and Poundage, and the Act aforeſaid, or any other Act or Statute concerning the Importation of Goods or Merchandize from the parts beyond the Seas, if the property thereof be claimed by any perſon or perſons as the Importer thereof; in ſuch caſe Onus Probandi ſhall lie upon the Owner or claimer thereof.

Commiſſion and time to examine witneſſes beyond the Sea.

Provided, That in caſe the ſeizure or Information ſhall be made upon any clauſe or thing contained in the late Act, entituled, An Act for the encouraging and encreaſing of Shipping and Navigation, that then the Defendant or Defendants ſhall on his or their requeſt have a Commiſſion out of the High Court of Chancery to examine Witneſſes beyond the Seas, and have a competent time allowed for the return thereof before any tryal ſhall be had upon the caſe, according to the diſtance of place where ſuch Commiſſion or Commiſſions are to be executed; and that the examination of witneſſes ſo returned ſhall be admitted for evidence in Law at the Tryal, as if it had been given Viva voce by the Examinate in Court; Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

In what caſes Writs of Delivery may be granted.

And be it alſo enacted and ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That no Writ of Delivery ſhall be granted out of the Court of Exchequer for Goods ſeized, but upon good ſecurity; and that for goods periſhable onely, or in caſes where the Informer ſhall defer or delay his coming to as ſpeedy a Tryal as the courſe of that Court will permit, and ſhall be thereby Ordered and directed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That one Moyety of all the Forfeitures before in this Act mentioned and appointed, ſhall be to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall ſeize or ſue for the ſame by Bill, Plaint, or Information in his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, or any other his Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

All Officers and perſons to be aiding the Officers and perſons for management of the Cuſtoms.

And be it further Enacted and Ordained, That all Officers belonging to the Admiralty, Captains and Commanders of Ships, Forts, Caſtles and Block-houſes, as alſo all Juſtices of the peace, Mayors, Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Conſtables & Headboroughs, and all the Kings Majeſties Officers, Miniſters and Subjects whatſoever whom it may concern, ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting to all and every perſon and perſons which are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty to manage his Cuſtoms, and the Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, and their reſpective Deputies in the due execution of all and every Act and Thing in and by this preſent Act required and enjoyned; And all ſuch who ſhall be aiding and aſſiſting unto them in the due execution hereof, ſhall be defended and ſaved harmleſs by vertue of this Act.

Clerks and Servants about the Cuſtoms to be ſworn for their truth and faithfulneſs therein.

And be it hereby alſo enacted, That all Deputies, Clerks and Servants which now have any place or Office in or about the Cuſtoms and Subſidies by and under the Commiſſioners, or other the Kings Officers thereof, ſhall before the Firſt day of June next, take their reſpective corporal Oath and Oaths for the true and faithful execution and diſcharge, to the beſt of their knowledge and power, of their ſeveral Truſts and Imployments committed to their charge and inſpection; And that no perſon or perſons ſhall hereafter be imployed or put in truſt in the buſineſs of the Cuſtoms, until he ſhall firſt have taken his Oath as aforeſaid; And the Commiſſioners and principal Officers in the Port of London, and the principal Officers in all other the out-Ports, or any two of them, are hereby authorized to adminiſter, and give to all and every perſon or perſons ſuch Oath and Oaths as aforeſaid, and to cauſe the ſame to be Entred and Regiſtred in the Cuſtom-houſe of every reſpective Port where the perſon ſo taking the Oath as aforeſaid, ſhall have his reſidence and imployment.

Perſons imployed about the Cuſtoms, ſhall demand nor take any more then the fees due by Law.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon imployed in his Majeſties Cuſtoms, ſhall demand or take any other or greater ſum of money then by Law is now due, or hereafter ſhall become due, or ſhall put any Merchant or other perſon out of his turn without expreſs order before, or immediate approbation after, from the perſon or perſons who are or ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty to manage his Cuſtoms, or the ſuperior Officers for the Cuſtoms, or ſhall illegally [illegible] the goods of any perſon, or ſhall neglect or refuſe to make re-payments and allowan[illegible] which are or ſhall be due ſince the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, or ſhall not after notice given, give out and execute his Warrant, ſhall be liable to double coſts and damages.

And for the better encreaſe of good and ſerviceable ſhipping, and ſecuring the publick

Of what ſize and burden Merchants Ships ſhall be, and what men and ammunition they ſhall carry.

Trade and Commerce; Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Merchant or other perſon that ſhall after the nine and twentieth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, Export any Goods or Merchandizes from any Port of this Kingdom, capable of a Ship or Veſſel of two hundred Tun upon an ordinary ful Sea, to any part or place of the Mediterranean Sea beyond the port of Malaga, or Import any Goods or Merchandize from the ports or places aforeſaid, to any port of this ſaid Kingdom, in any Ship or Veſſel that hath not two Decks and do carry leſs then ſixteen pieces of Ordnance mounted together, with two men for each Gun, and other Ammunition proportionable, ſhall pay to our Soveraign Lord the King for all and every the Wares and Merchandizes ſo Exported or imported, One per centum over and above the Rates and Duties of Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage otherwiſe due and payable for the ſame any thing in this Act before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for Ships exporting Fiſh.

Provided always, that it ſhall and may be lawful to export from any of his Majeſties dominions, Fiſh, into any of the Ports of the Mediterranean Sea aforeſaid in any Engliſh Ship or Veſſel whatſoever, Provided that one moyety of her full lading be Fiſh only, and in ſuch caſe to Import any Wares or Merchandize in the ſame Ship for That voyage, without paying any other Rates or Duties of Tonnage or Poundage for the ſame, then were heretofore accuſtomed.

Encouragement for building good and defenſible Ships.

And for the better encouragement of building good and defenſible Ships; Be it Enacted That all and every perſon or perſons that ſhall within the ſpace of Seven years, from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, build, or cauſe to be built within any of his Majeſties Dominions, any Ship or Veſſel of Three decks or Two decks and a half, with a Fore-Caſtle, aud Five foot between each Deck, mounted with thirty pieces of Ordnance at leaſt, and other Ammunition proportionable, ſhall for the firſt two Voyages which the ſaid Ship or Ships make from his Majeſties Dominions to any forreign parts have and receive to his and their own proper uſe and benefit one Tenth part of the Cuſtom that ſhall be paid to His Majeſty for all ſuch Goods or Merchandizes as ſhall be Exported or Imported on the ſaid Ship or Ships, to and from this Kingdome; And the Commiſſioners and Officers of His Majeſties Cuſtoms are hereby impowered and required to pay the ſame to the Owner or Owners of the ſaid Ship or Ships accordingly.

Salt brought out of Scotland to pay one half penny a Gallon.

Provided alwayes, and be it hereby Declared and Enacted, That from and after the four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, All Salt which ſhall be brought out of the Kingdom of Scotland into this Kingdom, the Dominion of Wales, or town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall yield and pay, and is hereby made chargeable to yield and pay unto the Kings Majeſty, One half penny upon every Gallon of ſuch Imported Salt of Wincheſter meaſure, at the landing thereof; Any thing in this preſent Act, or any former or other Law, Statute, or Order to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XII.

For the beter Relief of the Poor of this Kingdom.

The occaſion of encreaſe of Poor.

Poor people going from one Pariſh to another.

How to be ſetled, coming to any Tenement under ten pounds yearly value.

Whereas the neceſſity, number and continual increaſe of the Poor, not only within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, with the Liberties of each of them, but alſo through the whole Kingdom of England, and Dominion of Wales, is very great, and exceeding burthenſome being occaſioned by reaſon of ſome defects in the Law concerning the ſetling of the Poor, and for want of a due proviſion of the regulations of relief and imployment in ſuch pariſhes or places where they are legally ſetled, which doth enforce many to turn incorrigible Rogues and others to periſh for want, together with the neglect of the faithfull execution of ſuch Laws and Statutes as have formerly been made for the apprehending of Rogues and Vagabonds, aud for the good of the Poor: For remedy whereof, and for the preventing the periſhing of any the Poor, whether young or old, for want of ſuch ſupplies as are neceſſary; May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That whereas by reaſon of ſome defects in the Law, poor people are not reſtrained from going from one Pariſh to another, and therefore do endeavour to ſettle themſelves in thoſe pariſhes where there is the beſt Stock, the largeſt Commons, or Waſtes to build Cottages, and the moſt Woods for them to burn and deſtroy, and when they have conſumed it, then to another Pariſh, and at laſt become Rogues and Vagabonds, to the great diſcouragement of Pariſhes to provide Stocks, where it is liable to be devoured by ſtrangers; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, upon complaint made by the Church-wardens, or overſeers of the poor of any Pariſh to any Juſtice of Peace, within Forty dayes after any ſuch perſon or perſons coming ſo to ſettle as aforeſaid in any tenement under the yearly value of ten pounds, for any two Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum of the Diviſion where any perſon or perſons that are likely to be chargeable to the Pariſh ſhall come to inhabit, by their Warrant to remove and convey ſuch perſon or perſons to ſuch pariſh where he or they were laſt legally ſetled either as a [illegible]ve, Houſholder, Sojourner, Apprentice or Servant, for the ſpace of forty dayes at the l[illegible]nleſs he or they give ſufficient ſecurity for the diſcharge of the ſaid Pariſh to be allo[illegible] by the ſaid Juſtices.

Perſons grieved, may appeal to the Quarter Seſſions.

Provided alwayes, That all ſuch perſons who think themſelves agrieved by any ſuch Judgment of the ſaid two Juſtices, may appeal to the Juſtices of the peace of the ſaid County at their next Quarter-Seſſions, who are hereby required to do them juſtice according to the merits of their cauſe.

Provided

Perſons going to work in Harveſt.

Provided alſo, That (this Act notwithſtanding) it ſhall and may be lawfull for any perſon or perſons to go into any County, Pariſh or place to work in time of Harveſt or at any time to work at any other work, ſo that he or they carry with him or them, a Certificate from the Miniſter of the pariſh, and one of the Church-wardens, and one of the Overſeers for the poor for the ſaid year, that he or they have a dwelling houſe, or place in which he or they inhabit and hath left wife and children, or ſome of them there, (or otherwiſe as the condition of the perſons ſhall require) and is declared and Inhabitant, or Inhabitants there: And in ſuch caſe, if the perſon or perſons ſhall not return to the place aforeſaid, when his or their work is finiſhed, or ſhall fall ſick or Impotent whilſt he or they are in the ſaid work, it ſhall not be accounted a Settlement in the caſes aboveſaid, but that it ſhall and may be lawful for two Juſtices of the Peace to convey the ſaid perſon or perſons to the place of his or their habitation, as aforeſaid, under the pains and penalties in this Act preſcribed: And if ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall refuſe to go, or ſhall not remain in ſuch pariſh where they ought to be ſetled, as aforeſaid, but ſhall return of his own accord to the pariſh from whence he was removed; it ſhall and may be lawfull for any Juſtice of the Peace of the City, County or Town-Corporate where the ſaid Offence ſhall be committed to ſend ſuch perſon or perſons offending to the Houſe of Correction, there to be puniſhed as a Vagabond, or to a publick Work-houſe in this preſent Act hereafter mentioned, there to be imployed in work or labour: And if the Church-wardens and Overſeers of the poor of the pariſh, to which he or they ſhall be removed, refuſe to receive ſuch perſon or perſons, and to provide work for them, as other Inhabitants of the pariſh, any Juſtice of peace of that Diviſion may and ſhall thereupon bind any ſuch Officer or Officers, in whom there ſhall be default, to the Aſſizes or Seſſions, there to be Indicted for his or their contempt in that behalf.

Corporations or Work-houſes in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, Middleſex, Surrey.

And for the further redreſs of the miſchiefs intended to be hereby remedied, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from thenceforth there be, and ſhall be, one or more Corporation or Corporations, Work-houſe or Work-houſes within the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and within the Burroughs, Towns and places of the County of Middleſex and Surrey, ſcituate, lying and being within the Pariſhes mentioned in the Weekly Bills of Mortality, conſiſting of a Preſident, a Deputy to the Preſident, and a Treaſurer; And that the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the time being be Preſident of the Corporation or Corporations, Work-houſe, or Work-houſes within the ſaid City, and the Aſſiſtants to be the Aldermen of the ſaid City of London for the time being, and Fifty two other Citizens to be choſen by the Common-Council of the ſaid City: And that the ſaid Preſident and Aſſiſtants, or the major part of them, ſhall and may elect a Deputy-Preſident and Treaſurer, and all other neceſſary Officers hereby conſtituted and authorized to execute the powers and offices by this Act appointed: And that upon the vacancy by death or otherwiſe of any Aſſiſtant, the power to elect in their rooms be in the ſaid Common-Council; and the election of the Deputy-Preſident, or Treaſurer, and all other Officers, in the ſaid Preſident and major part of the Aſſiſtants, as aforeſaid: And that a Preſident, a Deputy-Preſident, a Treaſurer and Aſſiſtants be nominated and appointed by the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, out of the moſt fit perſons inhabiting in the City of Weſtminſter, or the Liberties thereof, for the Corporation or Corporations, work-houſe or work-houſes within the ſame.

Preſident, Deputy-Preſident, Treaſurer and Aſſiſtants for Middleſex and Surrey, how to be elected.

City of Weſtminſter.

And for the ſaid places within the Weekly Bills of Mortality in the ſaid Counties of Middleſex and Surrey reſpectively, there ſhall be elected and choſen by the major part of the Juſtices of the peace for the ſaid Counties in their reſpective Quarter-Seſſions aſſembled, out of the moſt able and honeſt Inhabitants and Freeholders of every of the ſaid Counties of Middleſex and Surrey reſpectively, a Preſident, a Deputy-Preſident, a Treaſurer and Aſſiſtants for the Corporation or Corporations, Work-houſe or Work-houſes of the places aforeſaid in Middleſex and Surrey; And that upon the vacancy by death, or otherwiſe, of any of the Preſidents, Deputy-Preſidents, Treaſurers or Aſſiſtants in the City of Weſtminſter, and places aforeſaid in Middleſex & Surrey, the power to elect others in their rooms be in the major part of the reſpective Juſtices of peace, who in their general Quarter-Seſſions from time to time ſhall accordingly ſupply ſuch vacant places; And that at every quarter-Seſſions they ſhall require and take an account in writing of all the Receipts, Charges and Diſburſements of the Officers and Treaſurer of ſuch Corporation or Corporations, Work-houſe or Work-houſes, how many poor people have been imployed and ſet to work in the year laſt paſt, and what ſtock there was, and is remaining; which Preſident, Deputy-Preſident, and Treaſurer for the time being reſpectively, ſhall for ever hereafter in name and fact, be Bodies Politick and Corporate in Law, to all intents and purpoſes, and ſhall have a perpetual Succeſſion, and may Sue or Plead, or be Sued and Impleaded by the name of the Preſident and Governours for the Poor of the reſpective places aforementioned, in all Courts and places of Judicature within this Kingdom, and the Dominion of Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and by that Name every of the ſaid Corporations ſhall and may without Licenſe in Mortmain, purchaſe or receive any Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, not exceeding the yearly value of Three thouſand pounds per annum, of the Gift, Alienation or Deviſe of any perſon or perſons, who are hereby without further Licenſe enabled to give the ſame, and any Goods, Chattels, or ſums [illegible] Money whatſoever, to the uſe, intent and purpoſes hereafter limited and appointed; And the each reſpective Corporation, or any Seven of them, ſhall have hereby power and authority from time to time to meet and keep Courts for the ends and purpoſes in this Act expreſſed, at ſuch time and place as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid Preſident, his Deputy, or the Treaſurer, who are hereby required upon the deſire of any Four of the ſaid Corporation, at any time to cauſe a Court to be warned accordingly; And ſhall have hereby authority from time to time to make and appoint a common-Seal for the uſe of the ſaid Corporation.

The powers of the ſaid Preſident and Governours of the ſaid Corporations.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Preſident and Governours of the ſaid Corporations for the time being, or any two of them, or to, or for any perſon authorized and appointed by them or any two of them, from time to time to apprehend, or cauſe to be apprehended, any Rogues, Vagrants, Sturdy beggars, or Idle or diſorderly perſons within the ſaid Cities and Liberties, Places, Diviſions and Precincts, and to cauſe them to be kept and ſet to work in the ſeveral and reſpective Corporation or work-houſes, and it ſhall and may be lawful for the major part of the Juſtices of Peace in their Quarter-Seſſions, to ſignify unto his Majeſties Privy Council, the names of ſuch Rogues, Vagabonds, Idle and Diſorderly perſons and Sturdy Beggars as they ſhall think fit to be Tranſported to the Engliſh Plantations; and upon the approvation of his Majeſties Privy Council to the ſaid Juſtices of peace ſignified, which perſons ſhall be Tranſported, it ſhall and may be lawful for any two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace, them to Tranſport, or cauſe to be Tranſported from time to time, during the ſpace of three years next enſuing the end of this preſent Seſſions of Parliament, to any of the Engliſh Plantations beyond the Seas, there to be diſpoſed in the uſual way of Servants, for a term not exceeding Seven years.

A ſtock for ſupply of the work, how to be provided in London, Weſtminſter, Middleſex, Surrey.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Preſident and Governors of any of the ſaid Corporations ſhall certify under their common Seal, their want and defect either of a preſent ſtock for the Foundation of the Work, or for ſupply thereof for the future, and what ſum or ſums of money they ſhall think fit for the ſame, to the Common-Council of the ſaid City of London, and the Burgeſſes & Juſtices of peace in their Quarter-Seſſions of ſaid City of Weſtminſter, and the Liberties thereof, or the Juſtices of the reſpective Counties of Middleſex and Surrey aſſembled in their Quarter-Seſſions, That thereupon the Common-Council of the ſaid City of London, the Burgeſſes of the ſaid City of Weſtminſter, and the Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid Cities and Counties in their Quarter-Seſſions aſſembled, are hereby required from time to time to ſet down and aſcertain ſuch competent ſum and ſums of money for the purpoſes aforeſaid, not exceeding one years rate from time to time uſually ſet upon perſons, for, or towards the relief of the poor, & the ſame to proportion out upon the ſeveral Wards, Precincts, Counties, Diviſions, Hundreds, and Pariſhes, as they ſhall think fit: And thereupon the Aldermen, Deputies, and Common-Council-men of every Ward in the City of London, and Burgeſſes and Juſtices of the Peace of the City of Weſtminſter, and the Liberties thereof, and Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Counties of Middleſex and Surrey, ſhall have power and Authority, and are hereby required equally and indifferently, according to the proportions appointed as aforeſaid, for the ſeveral Wards, Precincts, Cities and Pariſhes as aforeſaid, to tax and rate the ſeveral Inhabitants within the ſaid reſpective Wards, Precincts and Pariſhes, as well within Liberties as without; with which Tax, if any perſon or perſons find him or themſelves agrieved, ſuppoſing the ſame to be unequal, he or they ſhall and may make their complaint known to the Juſtices of the Peace at the next open Seſſions, who ſhall take ſuch final order therein, as in like caſes is already by the Law provided.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Alderman of the City of London, or his Deputy, or the Burgeſſes and Juſtices of Peace of the City of Weſtminſter, and the liberties thereof, or any two or more of them, or any two Juſtices of Peace of the reſpective Counties of Middleſex and Surrey, by their Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to authorize the Church-wardens or overſeers for the Poor within the places and Pariſhes aforeſaid, to demand, gather and receive of every perſon and perſons, ſuch ſum and ſums of money as ſhall be Aſſeſſed upon them by vertue of the Taxations and Contributions aforeſaid; And for default of payment within ten dayes after demand thereof made, or notice in writing left at the dwelling-houſe or lodging of every perſon ſo Aſſeſſed to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of goods of every ſuch perſon, and after ſatisfaction made, to reſtore the ſurpluſage to the party ſo diſtrained.

Stocks formerly in London for relief of the poor how to be paid

And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Stocks raiſed for the relief and imployment of the Poor, in the City of London and Liberties thereof, which was in the hands of a Corporation heretofore appointed in the ſaid City for that ſervice, or in the hands of any other perſon or perſons whatſoever, before the nine and twentieth day of September, which was in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred & ſixty, commonly called the Feaſt of St. Michael the Archangel, or at any time ſince, together with all the Arrears of money formerly allotted for that Service, or Legacies, given to the ſame end, ſhall be payable to the Treaſurer of the Corporation or Corporations, Work-houſe or Work-houſes to be eſtabliſhed by this preſent Act, who are hereby authorized and impowred by themſelves, or their Officers thereunto by them deputed, to collect, gather, receive and recover the ſaid money and Legacies, which ſhall be due and in arrear, as aforeſaid, with which ſaid Arrears and every part and parcel thereof, the Corporation or Corporations aforeſaid by this Act made, conſtituted and eſtabliſhed, is, and ſhall be hereby inveſted, and intereſſed for the execution of the ſervice hereby enjoyned them: And all thoſe that have had, or now have any of the ſaid Stock in their or any of their h[illegible]ds, ſhall be accomptable to the ſaid Treaſurer, or to thoſe that ſhall be appointed by the ſaid Corporation or Corporations, or any ſeven or more of them to take the ſaid account.

Provided always, And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be a full allowance of all juſt and Neceſſary expences which have been laid out by the ſaid former Corporation for the relief of the ſaid poor, and the carrying on of the ſaid Service ſince the time before expreſſed.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Preſident and Governors, Power to make Orders and By-Laws.

Governours, or any Seven of them ſhall have power from time to time to make and conſtitute Orders and by-Laws for the better relieving, regulating, and ſetting the poor to work and the apprehending and puniſhing of Rogues, Vagabonds, and Beggars within the Cities, Liberties, and places aforeſaid, that have not wherewith to maintain themſelves, and for other the matters aforeſaid.

Provided the ſaid Orders and By-laws ſhall from time to time be preſented to the Juſtices of Peace in their Quarter-Seſſions aſſembled, to be allowed by the major part of them and confirmed by order of the ſaid Court.

Power to chooſe and entertain officers.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Preſident and Governors of any of the ſaid Corporation or Corporations, Work-houſe or Work-houſes, or any fourteen or more of them being aſſembled together, ſhall have hereby power to chooſe and entertain all ſuch Officers, and other as ſhall be needful to be imployed in and about the premiſſes; and them, or any of them from time to time to remove as they ſhall ſee cauſe; and upon the death or removal of them, or any of them, to chooſe others in their places for the carrying on of the work, and to make and give ſuch reaſonable allowances unto them, or any of them out of the Stock and Revenue belonging to the ſaid Corporation or Work-houſe, as they ſhall think fit.

All Sheriffs, &c. to be aſſiſting to the ſaid Corporation & their officers.

And it is further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Sheriffs, Bailiffs, Conſtables, and all other Officers and Miniſters of Juſtice ſhall be aiding and Aſſiſting to the ſaid Corporation or Corporations, and to all ſuch Officers as ſhall be imployed by them, or any of them, in the execution or performance of the ſaid ſervice.

Conſtables how made in default of holding Court Leets.

And whereas the Laws and Statutes for the apprehending of Rogues and Vagabonds, have not been duly executed, ſometimes for want of Officers by reaſon Lords of Mannors do not keep Court Leets every year for the making of them; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Conſtable, Headborough, or Tithingmen ſhall dye or go out of the Pariſh, any two Juſtices of the Peace may make and ſwear a new Conſtable, Headborough, or Tithingman, until the ſaid Lord ſhall hold a Court or until next Quarter Seſſions, who ſhall approve of the ſaid Officers ſo made and ſworn as aforeſaid, or appoint others as they ſhall think fit: And if any Officer ſhall continue above a year in his or their Office, That then in ſuch caſe, the Juſtices of Peace in their Quarter-Seſſions may diſcharge ſuch Officers, and may put another fit perſon in his or their place until the Lord of the ſaid Mannor ſhall hold a Court as aforeſaid.

Apprehending Rogues and Vagabonds.

How rewarded.

And whereas for want of ſome encouragement to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall apprehend Rogues, Vagabonds, and ſturdy beggars, the Statutes made in the Nine and thirtieth year of Queen Elizabeth, and firſt year of King James: in which Statutes the Conſtable, Headborough, or Tythingman of every pariſh that ſhall not apprehend ſuch Rogues, Vagabonds, and Sturdy Beggars, which ſhall paſs through, or be found in their ſaid Pariſh unapprehended, ſuch Conſtable, Headborough, or Tythingman ſhall forfeit as in the ſaid Statutes is expreſſed, are not duly executed; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Juſtice of the Peace to whom any Rogue, Vagabond, or Sturdy Beggars ſo apprehended ſhall be brought, to reward any perſon or perſons that ſhall apprehend any Rogue, Vagabond, or Sturdy Beggar, by granting unto ſuch perſon or perſons an Order or Warrant under his hand and Seal to the Conſtable, Headborough, or Tithingman of ſuch Pariſh where ſuch Rogue, Vagabond, or ſturdy Beggar paſſed through unapprehended, requiring him to pay ſuch perſon or perſons the ſum of two ſhillings for every Rogue, Vagabond, or ſturdy Beggar, which ſhall be ſo apprehended: And if ſuch Conſtable, Headborough, or Tythingmen, refuſe or neglect to pay the two ſhillings as aforeſaid, that then the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, or any other Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace, ſhall proceed againſt any ſuch Conſtable, Headborough or Tithingman, according to the ſaid Statutes; And to compel him to pay ſuch ſum of money as he hath forfeited by the Statute of the firſt year of King James aforeſaid, and to allow out of the ſaid Forfeiture the ſaid two ſhillings, and ſuch reaſonable means and allowance for loſs of time as they ſhall think fit.

Rogues and Vagabonds apprehended at the confines of any county how to be dealt withal.

And if any perſon or perſons ſhall apprehend any Rogue, Vagabond, or ſturdy Beggar, at the confines of any County, which paſſed through any Pariſh of another County unapprehended, it ſhall be lawful for ſuch perſon or perſons to go to ſome Juſtice of Peace of that County, through which ſuch Rogue, Vagabond or ſturdy Beggar paſſed unapprehended, who is hereby required upon a Certificate under the hand of ſome Juſtice of peace of the County where ſuch Rogue, Vagabond, or ſturdy Beggar was ſo apprehended to grant his Order, or Warrant, under his hand and Seal, requiring the ſaid Conſtable, Headborough, or Tithingman, to pay unto ſuch perſon or perſons, as aforeſaid, the ſum of two ſhillings, which if he ſhall refuſe, or neglect to do, then ſuch Juſtice is hereby required to proceed againſt ſuch Conſtable, Headborough, or Tithingman, and to cauſe him to pay ten ſhillings, or ſo much thereof for his expenſes and loſs of time, as the ſaid Juſtice of Peace ſhall think fit, to ſuch perſon or perſons, which he hath forfeited by the Statute aforeſaid, made in the nine and thirtieth year of the Queen.

Power to make rates.

43 El. cap. 2.

And whereas Conſtables, Headboroughs, or Tythingmen are or may be at great charge in relieving, conveying with Paſſes, and in carrying Rogues, Vagabonds, and ſturdy Beggars to Houſes of correction, or the Work-houſes herein mentioned, and as yet have no power by Law to make Rates to reimburſe themſelves; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Conſtables, Headboroughs, and Tythingmen ſo out of purſe, as aforeſaid, together with the Church-wardens and overſeers of the poor, and other Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſh ſhall hereby have power and Authority to make an indifferent rate and to tax all the Occupiers of Lands, an dinhabitants, and all other perſons chargeable by the Statute of the three and fortieth of Elizabeth concerning the Office and duty of Overſeers for the poor within the ſaid Pariſh, which Rate being confirmed under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of Peace, as aforeſaid, the ſaid Conſtable, Headborough or Tythingmen, ſhall have power by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two Juſtices of Peace, to levy by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of any perſon or perſons refuſing to pay the ſame, rendring the overplus to the Owner, if any ſhall be.

Putative Fathers of Baſtard-children, running away how to be proceeded againſt.

And whereas the putative Fathers and lewd Mothers of Baſtard-Children run away out of the Pariſh, and ſometimes out of the County, and leave the ſaid Baſtard-Children upon the charge of the Pariſh where they are born, although ſuch putative Father and Mother have Eſtates ſufficient to diſcharge ſuch Pariſh; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Church-wardens and Overſeers for the poor of ſuch Pariſh, where any Baſtard-Child ſhall be born, to take and ſeiſe ſo much of the Goods and Chattels, and to receive ſo much of the Annual Rents or Profits of the Lands of ſuch putative Father, or lewd Mother, as ſhall be ordered by any two Juſtices of Peace as aforeſaid, for, or towards the diſcharge of the Pariſh, to be confirmed at the Seſſions, for the bringing up and providing for ſuch Baſtard-Child; And thereupon it ſhall be lawful for the Seſſions to make an Order for the Church-wardens or Overſeers for the poor of ſuch Pariſh, to diſpoſe of the Goods by ſale, or otherwiſe, or ſo much of them for the purpoſes aforeſaid, as the Court ſhall think fit, and to receive the Rents and Profits, or ſo much of them, as ſhall be ordered by the Seſſions as aforeſaid, of his, or her Lands.

Perſons ſued for matters in this Act, may plead the General Iſſue.

And if any perſon or perſons ſhall be ſued for any matter or thing which he ſhall do in execution of this Act, he may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial matter in Evidence; And if the Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff be Nonſuited or Diſcontinue his Suit, the Defendant ſhall recover treble Damages.

Lancaſhire, Cheſhire, Derbyſhire, Yorkſhire, Durham, Cumberland, Weſtmerland. 43 El. cap. 2.

Whereas the Inhabitants of the Counties of Lancaſhire, Cheſhire, Derbyſhire, Yorkſhire, Northumberland, the Biſhoprick of Durham, Cumberland and Weſtmerland, and many other Counties in England and Wales, by reaſon of the largeneſs of the Pariſhes within the ſame, have not, nor cannot reap the benefit of the Act of Parliament, made in the three and fortieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, for relief of the poor; Therefore be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every the poor, needy, impotent, and lame perſon and perſons within every Townſhip or Village, within the ſeveral Counties aforeſaid, ſhall from and after the paſſing of this Act, be maintained, kept, provided for, and ſet on work within the ſeveral and reſpective Townſhip and Village, wherein he, ſhe, or they ſhall inhabit, or wherein he, ſhe, or they was or were laſt lawfully ſetled, according to the intent and meaning of this Act, and that there ſhall be yearly choſen and appointed, according to the Rules and Directions in the ſaid Act of the three and fortieth year of Queen Elizabeth mentioned, two or more Overſeers of the poor within every of the ſaid Townſhips or Villages, who ſhall from time to time do, perform and execute all and every the Acts, Powers and Authorities for the neceſſary relief of the poor within the ſaid Townſhip or Village, and ſhall loſe, forfeit, and ſuffer all ſuch pains and penalties for non-performance thereof as is limited, mentioned and appointed, in and by the ſaid in-part-recited Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of Peace within the ſaid Counties ſhall have and enjoy ſuch and the like powers and authorities, to raiſe and levy moneys, and to do and execute all and every ſuch other Act and thing whatſoever, within every Townſhip or Village within the ſaid County where they are Juſtices, as is given, limited and appointed unto, and for them to do and execute within any Pariſh or Pariſhes in and by the ſaid Act made in the ſaid three and fortieth year of the ſaid late Queen Elizabeth, under ſuch and the like pains and penalties for the non-performance of their Duties, to be levyed and diſpoſed of as is nominated and expreſſed in the ſaid Act.

Power of the Juſtices to tranſport. Rogues and Vagabonds.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of Peace in any of the Counties of England and Wales, in their Quarter-Seſſions Aſſembled, or the major part of them to Tranſport, or cauſe to be Tranſported ſuch Rogues, Vagabonds, and ſturdy Beggars, as ſhall be duly convicted, and adjudged to be incorrigible, to any of the Engliſh plantations beyond the Seas.

Proviſo for the Dean and Chapter of Weſtminſter.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to be, or be conſtrued, expounded or taken to the prejudice or infringement of any of the Franchiſes, Rights, Liberties or Priviledges heretofore granted by the Kings and Queens of this Realm, his Majeſties Royal Predeceſſors, to the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in Weſtminſter.

The continuance of divers parts of this Act.

Provided alwayes, That this Act, as to all the matters therein contained (excepting what relates unto the Corporations mentioned and conſtituted thereby) ſhall extend, and be in force untill the nine and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty five, and the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament then next enſuing, and no longer.

CAP. XIII.

Importation of Foreign Bonelace, Cut-work, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-ſtrings, Buttons and Needle-work prohibited.

WHereas great numbers of the Inhabitants of this Kingdom are imployed in the making of Bonelace, Band-ſtrings, Buttons, Needlework, Fringe and Imbroideries, who by their induſtry and labour have attained and gained ſo great skill and dexterity in the making thereof, that they make as good of all ſorts thereof, as is made in any Foreign parts, by reaſon whereof, they have been heretofore able to relieve their poor Neighbours, and maintained their Families, and alſo enabled to ſet on work many poor Children, and other perſons who have very ſmall means, or maintenance of Living, other then by their labours and endeavours in the ſaid Art: And whereas the perſons ſo imployed in the ſaid

Myſtery have heretofore ſerved moſt parts of this Kingdom with Bonelace, Band ſtrings, Buttons, Needle-work and Imbroidery: And for the carrying on, and managing of the ſaid Trade, they have procured great quantities of Thread and Silk to be brought into the Kingdom from Foreign parts, whereby his Majeſties Cuſtoms and Revenues have been much advanced, untill of late, that great quantities of Foreign Bonelace, Band-ſtrings, Needle-work, Cut-work, Fringe, Silk, Bonelace, Buttons and Imbroidery were brought into this Kingdom by Foreigners and Inhabitants of this Kingdom, and ſold to Shopkeepers, and others, Dealers in the ſaid Commodity, as well by Whole-ſale as Re-tail, without ever entring of the ſame in any his Majeſties Cuſtom-houſes, or paying any Duty or Cuſtom for the ſame; by means whereof, the ſaid Trade and Calling is of late very much decayed, thoſe imployed in the ſaid Calling very much impoveriſhed, the Manufacture much decreaſed, and great quantities thereof already made, left on their hands that make it, His Majeſty defrauded and deceived in his Cuſtoms, and many thouſand poor people formerly kept on work in the ſaid Art, like to periſh for want of imployment; there being daily great ſums of Money exported out of this Kingdom, for the buying and fetching in of the ſaid Commodity, to the great impoveriſhment of the Nation by the Conſumption of the Bullion and Treaſure thereof, and contrary to ſeveral Statutes made in the firſt of King Richard the Third; in the third of King Edward the fourth; in the nineteenth of King Henry the Seventh, and the fifth of Queen Elizabeth; and to a late Proclamation made by his Majeſty that now is, dated the twentieth day of November laſt, for the putting the ſaid Laws in execution.

For redreſs whereof, and prevention of the like miſchiefs for the future, and the better relief, comfort, and ſubſiſtance of thoſe imployed in the ſaid Art and Manufacture; And for the quickning, reviving, explaining, amending, and more effectual execution of the ſaid Statutes, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall, from and after the Twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, ſell, or cauſe to be ſold, or offer to ſale, within the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, or export any Foreign Bonelace, Cut-work, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-ſtrings, Buttons or Needle-work made of Thread, Silk, or any, or either of them in parts beyond the Seas, or import, bring in, ſend or convey, or cauſe to be brought in, ſent or conveyed into the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, any ſuch Foreign Bone-lace, Cut-work, Fringe, Imbroidery, Band-ſtrings, Buttons or Needle-work made of Thread, Silk, or any, or either of them beyond the Seas, after the firſt day of May, which ſhall be in the ſaid year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, upon pain, that all and every perſon or perſons, who ſhall ſell, or cauſe to be ſold, or offer to ſale any ſuch Foreign Bonelace, Cut-work, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-ſtrings, Buttons or Needle-work, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every offence by him committed contrary to this Act, the ſum of Fifty pounds, and the whole Bonelace, Cut-work, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-ſtrings, Buttons or Needlework ſo ſold, or cauſed to be ſold, or offered to ſale; And upon further pain, That all and every perſon or perſons who ſhall Import, bring in, ſend or convey, or cauſe to be brought in, ſent or conveyed into this Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, any ſuch Bonelace, Cut-work, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-ſtrings, Buttons or Needle-work, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every offence by him committed contrary to this Act, the ſum of One hundred pounds, and the whole Bonelace, Cut-work, Imbroidery, Fringe, Band-ſtrings, Buttons or Needlework ſo Imported, brought in, ſent or conveyed, or cauſed to be Imported, brought in, ſent or conveyed contrary to the form and effect of this preſent Act as aforeſaid; The Moyeties of all which Forfeitures to be to the uſe of our Soveraign Lord the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other Moyety to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, Action of Debt, Information, or otherwiſe; wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, at every time, and as often as any perſon ſhall be found to offend in ſelling, importing, conveying or bringing in as aforeſaid.

Foreign bonelace, cut-work, imbroidery, fringe, band-ſtrings, prohibited to be ſold, or imported from beyond Sea.

The Penalty.

One moyety to the King, the other to the proſecutor.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the preventing of the Importing of the ſaid Manufactures as aforeſaid, upon complaint and Information given to the Juſtices of the Peace, or any, or either of them within their reſpective Counties, Cities and Towns corporate, at times reaſonable, he or they are hereby authorized and required to iſſue forth his or their Warrants to the Conſtables of their reſpective Counties, Cities and Towns corporate, to enter and ſearch for ſuch Manufactures in the Shops being open, or Ware-houſes, and Dwelling-houſes of ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be ſuſpected to have any ſuch Foreign Bonelaces, Imbroideries, Cut-work, Fringe, Bandſtrings, Buttons or Needlework, within their reſpective Counties, Cities and Towns corporate, and to ſeize the ſame; any Act, Statute or Ordinance to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Every Juſtice of Peace may grant Warrants to ſearch for Manufactures prohibited by this Act.

Provided alwayes, and be it hereby Enacted and Declared, That all Informations, Actions and Suits that ſhall be commenced for any offence committed againſt this Law, ſhall be brought and commenced within twelve Moneths after the diſcovery of ſuch offence; Any former Act or Law to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The time limited for actions upon this Act.

Reign, there is (amongſt other exceptions) excepted all and ſingular the Accounts of all Prize-Goods, and of all Moneys and other Duties grown due, or contracted upon the ſale or diſpoſition of them, or any of them; By vertue whereof, and of another Act made in the ſaid thirteenth year of your Majeſties Reign, Intituled, An Act for the Declaring, Veſting, and Setling of all ſuch Moneys, Goods, and other things in his Majeſty, which were received, levied or collected in theſe late times, and are remaining in the hands or poſſeſſion of any Treaſurers, Receivers, Collectors, or others not Pardoned by the Act of Oblivion, all and ſingular Prizes and Ships, and Goods whatſoever ſeized or taken for prize (ſince the thirtieth of January, in the year, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two) by colour or pretence of any of the late pretended Authorities, or by pretence or colour of any Power or Authority derived, or pretended to be derived from, or under them, or any of them, or otherwiſe for, or upon any pretence of any publick uſe; And all Captures and Seiſures of prizes and Tenths of prizes to, or under pretence of any publick uſe: And all the moneys ariſing, or due, or contracted for, upon the Sales and Diſpoſitions of them, or any of them yet unpaid, or unaccounted for, in whoſe hands ſoever the ſame be, or by whomſoever owing, are rightly veſted in your Majeſty; And all the Buyers and Receivers and Injoyers thereof, not having yet truly accounted for, or paid for the ſame, ſtand chargeable to your Majeſty.

Pretended Act, 1649. The reaſon for ſuing for prize-goods in the Court of Admiralty.

Now for that as well by a pretended Act made in the year, One thouſand ſix hundred forty nine, the Buyers of Ships and Goods taken, or ſeiſed, and ſold for prize, were in caſe of any failer of performing their Contract, to be convented in the Court of Admiralty, and in caſe they were condemned, there to pay the money by them contracted for, then the ſame to be levied by execution of the ſaid Court, all the matters touching Prize and Captures, and Seiſures, and Tenths of prizes, were referred to the ſaid Court of Admiralty, and all the Proceſſes, Exhibits, Writings, Examinations, Depoſitions, Proceedings, Paſſages, Condemnations, Sentences, Decrees and Orders, touching and concerning Prizes and Captures, and Seiſures of Prizes, and Tenths of Prizes, of what ſort ſoever were had, taken, made and done in the ſaid Court of Admiralty, and do all, or moſt of them there remain; So that the ſaid Court of Admiralty being thereof poſſeſſed, and beſt acquainted therewith, and with all the paſſages thereof, It will be the readieſt and quickeſt way for your Majeſty to Sue for the ſame in that Court, which being there Sued for, may probably amount to conſiderable ſums of money.

Rep. 16 & 17 Car. 2. cap. 6.

May it therefore pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all and every Collectors and Treaſurers, Sub-Collectors and Under-Treaſurers of Prize-Goods, Commiſſioners & Sub-Commiſſioners of Prize Goods, and all and every their Caſheers, Officers, Deputies and Receivers, and all and every Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Captains of Ships, Officers and Mariners, and all and every other perſon and perſons whatſoever, to whom ſuch prizes were delivered, or to whoſe hands they came at any time ſince the ſaid thirtieth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and two, and before the nine and twentieth of May, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, or that did ſurprize or receive to or for the publick uſe, or by pretence thereof any Ships, Plate, Jewels, Bullion, Money, Silver, Gold, Arms, Ammunition, Wares, Merchandizes, or any manner of Goods whatſoever ſeiſed, or taken for prize within the times aforeſaid, and that have not yet truly accounted for, and paid in the ſame, or the juſt provenues and values thereof, and all and every perſon and perſons by whom, or to, or for whoſe uſe the ſame or any of them were ſold, or who had and enjoyed the ſame, or any part thereof, and are ſtill behind, and have not paid the Moneys contracted for, and ariſing or due upon ſuch ſales, or any of them; and all Securities by them, or any of them given for their juſt dealing in their Offices or Places, or any thing concerning the ſaid prizes, or any of them, ſhall be chargeable to your Majeſty for the ſaid premiſſes, and all the Dependancies thereof reſpectively in the ſaid Court of Admiralty, and ſhall and may be by your Majeſties Advocate, and by ſuch other of your Majeſties Councel in that Court, as Your Majeſty ſhall pleaſe particularly to nominate, and commit that affair unto, and by ſpecial Warrant under your Sign Manual to appoint to ſue for the ſame in your Majeſties Name, and to and for your Majeſties uſe to be ſued and convened in the ſaid Court of Admiralty, and either called to account or otherwiſe by ſuch ſuit and in ſuch manner as may be moſt available for your Majeſty, be there proceeded againſt, ſued and proſecuted in due courſe according to their reſpective caſes for all and every the ſaid Prizes, Ships, Goods, Moneys and Premiſſes received or had by them and ſtill in arrear, and wherewith they are as aforeſaid chargeable; And the ſaid Court of Admiralty is hereby enabled and authorized to proceed thereupon according to the Laws and courſe of that Court, and to do and miniſter Right and Juſtice therein, with all things thereto requiſite; And to give ſentences and final Decrees and condemnations therein as by the Rules of Juſtice ought to be, and that in the moſt ſpeedy manner, and to put in execution, and finally to execute and levy all and every ſum and ſums, and whatſoever ſhall be adjudged, ſentenced or condemned by and according to the Rules and courſe of Executions in the ſaid Court, and that without any manner of Let, Diſturbance, Hinderance, Obſtruction or Impediment whatſoever, that your Majeſty may be for the ſame ſatisfied and paid according to Right and Juſtice.

The Court of Admiralty impowred to proceed upon ſuits for prize-goods taken at any time ſince Jan. 30. 1642. and before 29 May, 1660. and not accounted for.

Proviſo for the ſaving all Rights of the Lord High Admiral.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Rights as during the Reign of your Majeſties Royal Father of Bleſſed Memory, or your Majeſties Reign belonged and appertained unto the Lord High Admiral of England, or Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports for the time being, by vertue of the ſaid Office, and have been at any time ſince the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and eight, uſurped, poſſeſſed or ſeiſed by any perſon or perſons, Bodies politick or corporate, and not having accounted for the ſame to any Authority, or pretended Authority, Uſurping the Government of this Nation, and not pardoned by the Act of Oblivion, That all ſuch perſon or perſons, Bodies politick or corporate, ſhall account and pay the ſame to his Royal Highneſs, James Duke of York, your Majeſties only Brother, Lord High Admiral of England, or Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, upon ſuit for the ſame in the High Court of Admiralty; Any thing in this Act (the abſence of the Lord High Admiral during theſe late Troubles, or the perſons not having been imployed or authorized by the ſaid Lord High Admiral) to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

How in defect of Juriſdiction in the Admiralty, ſuit may be in the Exchequer.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe of defect of Juriſdiction in the Court of Admiralty, for the recovering and levying of any ſuch Prizes, Goods, matters and things aforeſaid; That then in ſuch caſe upon Certificate thereof from the ſaid Court of Admiralty made into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, ſpeedy proceedings ſhall be had in the ſaid Court of Exchequer for the recovering and levying of the Prizes, Goods, matters and things aforeſaid, according to Law and Juſtice.

CAP. XV.

The Trade of Silk-throwing regulated.

The Silk-throwers of London Incorporated by Patent. 5 Car. 1.

WHereas the Company of Silk-throwers within the City of London and Liberties, and all their Servants and Apprentices within four Miles thereof were quinto Caroli primi Incorporated and made one Body politick, and are known by the name of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of the Trade, Art or Myſtery of Silk-throwers of the City of London; And whereas the ſaid Trade is of ſingular uſe, and very advantagious to this Commonwealth, by imploying the poor, there being imployed by the ſaid Company in and about the City of London (as is expreſſed in their Petition) above forty thouſand Men, Women and Children, who otherwiſe would unavoidably be burthenſome to the places of their abode; And whereas the preſent Governors of the ſaid Company by their Petition, pray an enlargement of their Charter, whereby they may be the better enabled to avoid the many Deceits and Inconveniencies they daily meet withall by Intruders, who have not been brought up Apprentices to the ſaid Trade, and others who ſettle themſelves beyond the limits of their ſaid Charter, on purpoſe to avoid the Searchers and Superviſion of the ſaid Governors, by which means they are at liberty to make and vend what Wares they pleaſe, to the diſparagement of the ſaid Trade, and diſcouraging of the Petitioners, and all others of the ſaid Trade that have duly ſerved Apprentice thereunto, according to the known Laws of this Nation.

None ſhall uſe the trade of a ſilk thrower, but ſuch as have ſerved as Apprentices ſeven years.

The penalty.

Before whom to be recovered.

For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That from and after the twenty fifth day of December, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall directly or indirectly uſe, exerciſe, continue or ſet up the ſaid Art or Myſtery of a Silk-thrower within this Realm of England, unleſs ſuch as are or ſhall be Apprentices to the ſaid Trade, or ſhall have ſerved ſeven years Apprentiſhip thereunto at the leaſt, upon pain that every perſon ſo offending contrary to this Act, ſhall pay, forfeit and loſe the ſum of forty ſhillings for every moneth the ſaid perſon ſhall uſe or exerciſe the ſaid Trade, the one moyety thereof to the uſe of his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the Courts of Record within this Realm of England, or before any the Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, or the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, or by any other lawful wayes or means whatſoever, wherein no Protection, Wager of Law or Eſſoine ſhall be allowed.

Every perſon uſing the trade in London and Weſtminſter ſhall enter himſelf of the ſaid corporation.

And be ſubject to the Laws and Orders thereof.

The penalty.

And for the better enabling of the ſaid Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of Silk-throwers and their Succeſſors in their Government; Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon and perſons whatſoever, now uſing or exerciſing as Maſters the ſaid Art, Trade or Myſtery, or ſuch as have ſerved as Apprentices to the ſaid Trade by the ſpace of ſeven years at the leaſt, within the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the ſeveral Suburbs thereof, or within twenty miles compaſs of them, or either of them, ſhall before the twenty fifth day of December, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, be admitted, and are hereby enjoyned to enter themſelves into the ſaid Society or Corporation, and to perform, and be ſubject and obedient to all ſuch Statutes, Laws, Orders, Ordinances and Conſtitutions as are or ſhall be made or ordained for, or concerning the Exerciſe, Regulation or Government of the ſaid Art, Trade or Myſtery, or of any perſon or perſons uſing or exerciſing the ſame, upon pain of forfeiture of the ſum of forty ſhillings for every moneth he or they ſhall uſe or exerciſe the ſaid Trade, after the ſaid twenty fifth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two; the one moyety thereof to the uſe of his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety thereof to ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame in any the Courts of Record within this Realm of England, or before any the Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, or the Juſtices of Peace at their Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, or by any other lawful wayes or means whatſoever, wherein no Protection, Wager of Law or Eſſoine ſhall be allowed.

Provided, That ſuch Laws, Orders, Ordinances and Conſtitutions ſo made, or which ſhall be made, be not contrary, but agreeable with the Laws and Statutes of this ſaid Realm, and the Cuſtoms of the ſaid City of London.

The power of the Maſters, Wardens and Aſſiſtants.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Maſters, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Commonalty, and their Succeſſors ſhall and may have and enjoy, and that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for them, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, to do, perform and execute, within the ſaid Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and the ſeveral Suburbs thereof, or within twenty miles compaſs of them, or either of them, all ſuch Grants, Powers, Priviledges and Authorities as by this preſent Act, or in or by the ſaid Letters Patents of Incorporation are given or granted, or mentioned to be given or granted, for or concerning the Regulation, Exercile or Government of the ſaid Trade, Art or Myſtery, or any matter or thing relating thereunto, or of ſuch perſon or perſons as do, or ſhall exerciſe the ſame; Any thing in the ſaid Letters Patents, or any Act, Statute, or other matter or thing to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And whereas there is a neceſſity lying upon the Silk-throwers, to deliver their Winders or Doublers, conſiderable quantities of Silk, which being of a good value, is by evil diſpoſed perſons many times unjuſtly, deceitfully and falſly purloined, imbezeled, pawned, ſold and detained, to the great damage, and ſometimes the utter undoing of the Thrower who employs the ſaid perſons: Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every ſuch Silk-winder and Doubler, who ſhall at any time hereafter, unjuſtly or deceitfully and falſly, purloin, imbezel, pawn, ſell or detain any part of ſilk delivered, or to be delivered by any Silk-thrower, or other perſon, to them or any of them, to wind or double, that in every ſuch caſe and caſes, as well the Winder or Journeyman ſo offending, as the buyer & buyers, Receiver and Receivers of ſuch Silk, being thereof lawfully convicted, by confeſſion of the party or parties ſo offending, or by one witneſſe upon Oath before one or more of the Juſtices of Peace of the County or Liberty where the ſame Offence or Offences ſhall be committed; or if it be within any City or Town-corporate, before the Mayor, Bailiff, or chief Officer of the ſaid City or Town-corporate, who by force of this Act are impowred and authorized to miniſter the ſame Oath, and finally to hear and determine all and every the Offences aforeſaid, and to give and make to the party and parties grieved ſuch Recompence and Satisfaction for ſuch their Damage and Loſs, and Charges thereabouts, as by the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices, or chief Officers ſhall be Ordered and Appointed.

The puniſhment of Silk-winders that imbezel goods delivered to them.

Provided that no more damage be given or awarded, then the party grieved ſhall prove he is damnified, and hath expended in looking after the ſame; And if the party or parties ſo offending ſhall not be able or ſufficient to make Recompence or Satisfaction for the ſaid Offence, nor do make Recompence or Satisfaction for the ſame Offence or Offences within fourteen dayes next after ſuch conviction in ſuch manner and form, as by the Juſtice or Juſtices, or chief Officers ſhall be Ordered and Appointed as aforeſaid, then the party or parties ſo offending, for the firſt Offence ſhall be apprehended and whipped, or ſet in the Stocks in the place where the Offence is committed, or in ſome Market-Town in the ſaid County near unto the place where the Offence or Offences aforeſaid ſhall be committed, as ſhall be limited and appointed by the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace or chief Officers, and for the ſecond Offence, to incur the like, or ſuch further puniſhment by whipping, or being put in the Stocks, as the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or chief Officers ſhall in their diſcretion think fit and convenient.

Perſons receiving ſuch imbezeled goods, how to be puniſhed.

And be it likewiſe Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Receiver and Receivers, Buyer and Buyers of any Silk, or ſuch as take to pawn any Silk imbezled or purloined, contrary to the meaning of this Act (matter of Fact being proved) ſhall make ſatisfaction within the time aforeſaid, or elſe ſhall be ſubject to like puniſhment as by this Act is inflicted, or provided to be inflicted upon ſuch perſon ſo imbezeling or purloyning any ſuch Silk as aforeſaid.

What perſons may be imployed not having ſerved as Apprentices.

Provided alwayes, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Freeman of the ſaid Company of Silk-throwers, to ſet on work and imploy any perſon or perſons, being native Subjects to his Majeſty, and no others, whether they be Men, Women or Children, to turn the Mill, tye Threads, double Silk, and wind Silk as formerly they have uſed to do, although ſuch perſon or perſons who ſhall be ſo ſet on work, and imployed in the works and ſervices aforeſaid, ſhall not have ſerved or been bred up as Apprentices to the Trade of Silk-throwing by the ſpace of ſeven years, and that all and every the ſaid perſon and perſons who ſhall be ſet on work, and imployed by any Freeman of the ſaid Company in the works and ſervices aforeſaid, or any of them, without any let or moleſtation; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The ſaid Corporation may not ſet rates upon their Workmen.

Provided, and be it Enacted that the ſaid Corporation of Silk-throwers ſhall not by vertue of this Act, nor any thing therein contained, make any Orders, Ordinances or By-laws, to ſet any Rates or Prizes whatſoever upon the Throwing of Silk, to bind or inforce their members to work at; but that their reſpective members ſhall be left at liberty to contract with their reſpective Imployers, and alſo with the perſons that they imploy at ſuch Rates, as they and their Imployers, and the perſons imployed ſhall agree upon; Any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. XVIII.

Exporting of Sheep, Wool-fells, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wool flocks, Fullers-Earth, Fulling-Clay, and Tobacco-pipe-Clay, Prohibited.

WHereas againſt the Laws of this Kingdom great number of Sheep, and great quantities of Wooll, Wool-fels, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wool-flocks, Fullers Earth, or Fulling Clay, are ſecretly Exported, Tranſported, carried and conveyed out of the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and Kingdom of Ireland into the Kingdom of Scotland, and into Foreign parts, to the great decay of the Woollen Manufactures, the ruine of many Families, and the deſtruction of the Navigation and Commerce of the Kingdoms, Town, and Dominion aforeſaid, which is like daily to increaſe if ſome further remedy be not provided, and further penalties impoſed upon the Offenders therein.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall from and after the firſt day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, directly or indirectly, export, tranſport, carry or convey, or ſhall cauſe to be exported, tranſported, carryed or conveyed out of, or from the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or after the firſt day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, out of the Kingdom of Ireland, into any parts or places out of the Kingdoms, or Dominion aforeſaid, or into the Kingdom of Scotland any Sheep or Wooll whatſoever, of the breed or growth of the Kingdoms or Dominion aforeſaid, or any Wool-fels, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, or any Fullers-Earth, or Fulling-Clay whatſoever, or ſhall directly, or indirectly pack or load, or cauſe to be packed or loaden upon any Horſe, Cart, or other Carriage, or ſhall load or lay on board, or cauſe to be loaden or laid on board in any Ship or other Veſſel, in any place within the Kingdoms of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed aforeſaid, any ſuch Sheep, Wooll, Wool-fels, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wool-flocks, Fullers-Earth, or Fulling-Clay, to the intent or purpoſe to Export, Tranſport, Carry or Convey the ſame, or to cauſe the ſame to be Exported, Tranſported, Carryed or Conveyed out of the Kingdoms of England or Ireland, the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed aforeſaid, into the Kingdom of Scotland, or into any Foreign parts, that then every ſuch Offence ſhall be adjudged Felony, and the Offendor or Offendors being duly Convicted, ſhall ſuffer and forfeit as in caſe of Felony.

Exporting or carrying of ſheep, wooll, wool-fels, mortlings, ſhorlings, yarn wool-flocks, Fullers earth, Fulling clay, out of England, Wales or Ireland.

Made Felony.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner of any ſuch Ship or other Veſſel, and every Owner of every Horſe, Cart or Carriage, upon which any Sheep, Aiders and aſſiſters therein ſhall be adjudged felons.

Wooll, Wool-fels, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wooll, Wool-flocks, Fullers-Earth or Fulling-Clay, ſhall be ſo Exported, Tranſported, carryed or conveyed as aforeſaid, or to any ſuch intent or purpoſe as aforeſaid, knowing thereof, and being wittingly and willingly aiding, aſſiſting or conſenting thereunto, and alſo every Maſter and Mariner of or in ſuch Ship or other Veſſel, wherein any ſuch Sheep, Wooll, Wool-fels, Mortlings, Shorlings, yarn made of Wooll, Wool-flocks, Fullers-Earth or Fulling-Clay, ſhall be ſo exported, tranſported, carryed or conveyed, or loaden or laid on Board as aforeſaid, to any ſuch intent or purpoſe as aforeſaid, knowing thereof and being wittingly and willingly aiding, aſſiſting or conſenting thereunto, and alſo every Factor or Servant, or other perſon whatſoever, and every Cuſtomer, Comptroller, Waiter, Searcher, Surveyor, or other Officer or perſon whatſoever knowing thereof, and being wittingly or willingly aiding, aſſiſting or conſenting thereunto, ſhall be, and ſhall be adjudged and taken to be a felon, and every Offendor and Offendors therein, being duly convicted, ſhall ſuffer and forfeit as in caſe of Felony.

Offences againſt this Act where to be examined and tryed.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Offence, which ſhall be done or committed contrary to this Act, ſhall and may be enquired of, and heard, examined, tryed and determined in the County where ſuch Sheep, Wooll, Wool-fels, Mortlings, Shorlings, Yarn made of Wool, Wool-flocks, Fullers-Earth or Fulling-Clay reſpectively ſhall be ſo packed, laden, or laid on board as aforeſaid, or elſe in the County where ſuch Offendor ſhall happen to be apprehended or arreſted for ſuch Offence, in ſuch manner and form, and to ſuch effect to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame Offence had been wholly done and committed in the ſame County.

Peers.

Provided alſo, that every Baron, and other Peer of this Realm, which ſhall be indicted or accuſed as principal, or acceſſary in or to any Offence made Felony by this Act, ſhall have his, her or their Tryal, by his, her or their Peers, as in caſe of felony at the Common Law.

None to be impeached, unleſs within one year next after the offence committed.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall at any time hereafter be impeached for any Offence made felony by this Act, unleſs ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall be thereof indicted within the ſpace of one year next enſuing ſuch Offence committed.

And foraſmuch as great quantities of Wooll, Woollen yarn, and Wool-flocks are cloſe packed and preſſed together with Scrues, and other unlawful Engines into Butts, Pipes, Hogſheads, Cheſts and other Cask and Veſſels, and into Sacks, Baggs and other wrappers made of Wooll or Linnen, and under colour of Bales, Sacks, Baggs, Packs and Casks of other Goods, and otherwiſe, great quantities of the ſame are daily loaden on board of Ships or other Veſſels, and ſo are carryed, conveyed, exported and tranſported out of the Kingdoms, Towns of Berwick, and Dominion aforeſaid; and alſo great quantities are daily carryed and laid at, or near the Coaſts of the Sea, or ſome Navigable Rivers, into Store-houſes and Barns, and by night are laid on board of Shallops, and other Veſſels belonging to Aliens, and ſo carryed and exported out of the Kingdoms, Town of Berwick, and Dominion aforeſaid; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt day of Auguſt, no perſon or perſons ſhall preſs together with any Scrues, Preſſes or other Engines, into any Sack, Pack, Bag, or other wrapper, or ſhall put, preſs, pack or ſtean any Wool whatſoever, or any yarn made of Wooll, into any Butt, Pipe, Hogſhead, Cheſt, or any other Cask or Veſſel, upon any pretence whatſoever, or ſhall carry or lay, or cauſe to be carried or laid at or near the Shore or Coaſts of the Sea, or of any Navigable River, or into any houſe or place near adjoyning thereunto, any ſuch Wooll, Wool-flocks, or Yarn made of Wooll, with intention to export, tranſport, carry or convey the ſame out of the Kingdoms of England or Ireland, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or Dominion of Wales, into the Kingdom of Scotland, or unto any Foreign parts, under the penalty of the loſs and forfeiture of all ſuch Wooll, Wool-flocks, and Yarn made of Wooll, as ſhall be ſo packed or preſſed, or put or laid into Cask, or carried and laid near to the Sea-ſhoar, or to any Navigable River as aforeſaid, or the value thereof.

Scrues and unlawful Engines for preſſing together of wooll, not to be uſed.

The penalty.

Fulling-clay, Tobacco-pipe-clay not to be exported.

And whereas great quantities of Fullers Earth or Fulling Clay, are daily carried and exported under the colour of Tobacco-pipe Clay, Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Tobacco-pipe Clay ſhall from and after the firſt day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, be exported, tranſported, carryed or conveyed out of or from the Kingdom of England, Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or after the firſt day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, out of or from the Kingdom of Ireland, or the Dominion of Wales, into the Kingdom of Scotland, or into any Foreign parts, or into any Port or place out of the Kingdom or Dominion aforeſaid, under the penalty of three ſhillings for every pound of Tobacco-pipe Clay which ſhall be exported or tranſported contrary to this Act.

The penalty.

Packs of wooll, wool-fels, &c. ſhall not be carryed but in the day-time.

Who may hear and determine the the ſaid offences.

CAP. XIX.

Importing of Foreign Wool-cards, Card-wire, or Iron wire, prohibited.

3 E. 4. ca 4.
39 El. ca. 14.

WHereas by the Acts of Parliament made in the third year of King Edward the fourth, and the nine and thirtieth year of Queen Elizabeth, and ſeveral other Statutes before that time made; It is Enacted (amongſt other things therein contained) that no Cards for Wooll, nor Iron thread (commonly called white-wire) ſhall be Imported, ſent or conveyed into this Realm of England, wherein the beſt Iron thread, or wire for making Wool-cards is made, and by the ſaid Manufacture of making and drawing of wire, and wool-cards, very many poor people of this Kingdom and their Families have been imployed and maintained, and the wool-cards made thereof are of great concernment to this Kingdom for the good making of Woollen-Cloth; And whereas contrary to the ſaid Statutes, not only much Foreign Card-wire, but alſo Foreign wooll cards have been in theſe late times Imported into this Kingdom, and alſo within the ſame many old wool cards are by ill diſpoſed perſons (for their private lucre) bought up, and the old Iron-wire of the ſaid old wool-cards being very weak, and inſufficient for the well carding of wooll) is put into new leather and new boards, and ſo uttered and ſold to ignorant people for new wool-cards, to their great detriment, and the indamaging of their work, carding of wooll, and the cloth made thereof: By all which, very great inconvenienices have been found by experience of Clothiers in their making of Engliſh Cloth, which is lately much debaſed and decayed, and wherein this Nation is greatly concerned to uphold and encourage the well making thereof in and by all wayes and means in any wiſe conducible thereunto; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons aſſembled in Parliament; And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Foreign wool-cards or Foreign card-wire, or iron-wire, for making of wool-wards be Imported into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or any parts thereof, nor uſed within the ſame, nor any Card-wire taken out of old Cards be from henceforth put into new Leather and new Card-boards, nor any ſuch wooll-cards made thereof be put to ſale, upon the pains, penalties & forfeitures hereafter following (that is to ſay) Every perſon or perſons who ſhall import, or bring any Foreign wool cards, or Foreign card-wire, or iron-wire, for making of wool-cards into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or any parts thereof, or make any wool-cards of any ſuch old card-wire as aforeſaid, or put the ſame to ſale, ſhall forfeit the ſaid wool-cards & card-wire or Iron-wire for making wool cards, or the value thereof, if the ſame be not ſeiſed, the one half part thereof to the Kings Majeſty, and the other half part thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons who ſhall firſt ſeiſe or ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, Plaint, Bill, Information or Indictment in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or within the County, City, Burrough or Town corporate, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, Wager of Law or Injunction ſhall be allowed or admitted.

No Foreign wool-cards, card-wire or Iron wire for wool-cards may be imported.

The Penalty.

Provided always, That this Act ſhall not extend to hinder the Owners of any wool-cards, to cauſe them to be amended for their own uſe, or to tranſport or ſel (for Tranſportation only) any their old overworn wool-cards, in any parts beyond the Seas out of his Majeſties Dominions.

Proviſo for amending of old wool-cards.

Inhabitants of the new Foreſt of Southampton.

CAP. XXI.

For preventing the unneceſſary Charge of Sheriffs, and for eaſe in paſſing their Accompts.

VVhereas the Office of Sheriff as well by reaſon of the great and unneceſſary Charges in the time of Aſſiſes, and other publick meetings, as by the tedious attendance and charge of Sheriffs in paſſing of their Accompts in the Exchequer, hath of late years been very burthenſome to the Gentry of this Your Realm, who in the late times of Tyranny and Oppreſſion have been great Sufferers, and thereby much Impoveriſhed in their Eſtates and Fortunes; For remedy wherein, Your Majeſties moſt Loyal Subjects, the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes aſſembled in Parliament, do moſt humbly beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, that it may be Declared and Enacted, And be it Declared and Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That no Perſon or Perſons being duly ſworn into the Office of Sheriff, for any County or Shire within this Your Majeſties Realm, ſhall from and after the Firſt day of February next enſuing, in the time of the Aſſiſes held for the ſaid County or Shire during his or their Sherifalty, keep or maintain, or cauſe to be kept or maintained one or more Table or Tables, for Receipt or entertainment of any perſon or perſons reſorting to the ſaid Aſſiſes, other then thoſe that ſhall be of his own Family or Retinue; nor ſhall make, or ſend in any Preſent to any Judge or Judges of Aſſiſe for his or their proviſion, nor give any gratuity to his or their Officers or Servants, or any of them; And alſo that no Sheriff ſhall after the ſaid firſt day of February have more then Forty Men-ſervants with Liveries attending upon him in the time of the ſaid Aſſiſes, nor under the number of Twenty Men-ſervants in any County whatſoever within the Kingdom of England, nor under the number of Twelve Men-ſervants in any County within the Dominion of Wales, and upon pain that every Sheriff offending in any of the premiſſes contrary to the true meaning hereof, ſhall forfeit for every default the ſum of two hundred pounds.

Sheriffs at the Aſſiſes may keep no tables for others then of their own Family and Retinue.

Nor make no preſent or gift to any Judge of Aſſiſe.

The number of Servants with Liveries in England, Wales.

Penalty of [illegible]

Proviſo for Sheriffs of London, Middleſex, Weſtmerland, and Cities and Counties.

Provided that nothing before in this Act contained ſhall in any wiſe extend unto, or any ways concern the Sheriffs of the City of London and Middleſex, and the Sheriff of Weſtmerland, or either of them, or any of the Sheriffs of or belonging to any City and County, or Town or County within this Realm; but that the ſame Sheriff or Sheriffs ſhall, or may do as heretofore hath been uſed or accuſtomed within the ſaid County of Middleſex, and Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and ſuch other Cities and Counties, or Towns and Counties aforeſaid; Any thing herein before contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

How Sheriffs ſhall be eaſed in paſſing their accompts in the Exchequer.

And to the end that Sheriffs may for the time future be eaſed of the great charge and trouble which they heretofore have been put to in paſſing their Accounts in the Exchequer, occaſioned partly in regard that divers ſums of money have ſtood charged upon them in groſs, without expreſſing from what perſons, for what cauſe, or out of what Lands or Tenements the ſame are to be particularly levied, or out of what particulars the ſaid ſums in groſs do ariſe (whereby it cometh to paſs that the ſaid Sheriffs do ſtill ſtand charged in groſs with divers ſums of money, which were heretofore payable by Abbots, Priors, perſons attainted, and ſuch other perſons, whoſe Eſtates have ſince come to the Crown, or are otherwiſe diſcharged or illeviable) and partly by the Accompt of Seizures or Foreign Accompt, and by the exaction of undue Fees of Sheriffs upon their appoſal concerning the ſame.

Seizures of Lands remaining charged Michaelmas, 1660.

For the preventing whereof, and for the future eaſe of Sheriffs in paſſing their Accompts; Be it Enacted and Declared, That from henceforth every Seizure for or concerning any Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments now remaining charged in the Foreign accompt of any Sheriff or Sheriffs within the Kingdom of England for the year ended at Michaelmas, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, ſhall be from the ſaid Foreign accompt charged particularly in the great Roll of the Exchequer; And that the ſeveral Remembrancers of the ſaid Court, or their reſpective Deputies do in their reſpective Offices forthwith, and ſo from time to time for the future write, and make true and perfect Copies of all and every ſuch other Seizure, and Inquiſition as already are, or hereafter ſhall be certified into their reſpective Offices, without certifying the Copy of the Writ, or Commiſſion at large upon which ſuch Seizure or Inquiſition is, or ſhall be ſo taken or returned, mentioning only in brief the Date of the ſaid Writ or Commiſſion, and ſhall deliver the ſaid Copies well and truly examined and atteſted under his or their Hands, to the Engroſſer of the ſaid great Roll; And that all ſuch of the ſaid Seizures and Inquiſitions as now are returned into any of their reſpective Offices ſhall be delivered before the firſt day of February next coming: And that all ſuch ſeizures as ſhall hereafter be returned, or certified into their reſpective Offices ſhall be delivered ſo examined and atteſted as aforeſaid to the ſaid Engroſſer before the firſt day of the next Term, after the ſaid Remembrancers ſhall have received the ſame, ſo as the ſame may be charged in the great Roll; To the end that the Proceſſe of the Court may from thence iſſue for levying the Iſſues and Profits thereof to the uſe of the Crown, unto which ſaid Remembrancers, or their Deputies, ſhall be from time to time paid for every Sheet which they, or their reſpective Clerks ſhall ſo write and deliver, the ſum of eight pence, the ſame to be paid unto them by the aforeſaid reſpective Sheriffs, who ſhall be allowed the ſame by the Barons upon their reſpective Accompts out of the Iſſues and Profits ariſing out of the Premiſſes ſo ſeized; and no Sheriff or Sheriffs for this preſent year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, nor any Sheriff or Sheriffs to be hereafter made or appointed within this Kingdom of England, ſhall be charged in accompt to anſwer any illeviable Seizure, Farm, Rent or Debt, or other Seizure, Farm, Rent, Debt, matter or thing whatſoever which was not writ in Proceſſe to him or them to be levied; wherein the perſons of whom, or the Lands or Tenements out of which, together with the cauſe for which the ſame ſhall be ſo levied, ſhall be plainly and particularly expreſſed, but ſhall be thereof wholly diſcharged without Petition, Plea, or other trouble or charge whatſoever.

Seizures hereafter taken or returned.

Fees to the Remembrancers.

Sheriffs ſhall not anſwer illeviable ſeizures, Farms, Rents, &c.

Seizures before 1 Jac. and divers others to be left out of the Sheriffs accompt.

And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That all Seizures heretofore made before the firſt Year of the Reign of the late King James of ever bleſſed memory, now remaining in the Accompts of the Sheriffs, and all Seizures and Debts which are pardoned ſhall be, and are hereby fully diſcharged. And that the ſame and every of them ſhall hereafter be left out of Sheriffs Accompts without further Order, Plea, Petition, or other Charge to any Sheriff or Sheriffs whatſoever; And that no Proceſſe ſhall from henceforth be written forth to any Sheriff for the levying of the ſame, or any of them, nor for any other Rent or Farm, which cannot be explained by ſetting forth the particulars thereof, or which have been unanſwered by the ſpace of forty years laſt paſt; And that all other dead Farms and Seizures, and all deſperate, illeviable, and unintelligible Debts ſhall be removed out of the Annual Roll, and Sheriffs Charge, into the Exannual Roll, there to remain, untill by Commiſſion they ſhall be revived and made anſwerable.

Proceſſe for Debts to be ſent forth in convenient time.

And to the end, That all new Debts ariſing and coming into the Exchequer for the future may be ſent forth in Proceſs within convenient time; Be it alſo Enacted and Declared, That the aforeſaid ſeveral Remembrancers do forthwith inrol and certify to the ſaid Ingroſſer of the great Roll, all ſuch Debts as any Sheriff or Sheriffs of this Realm are, or hereafter ſhall be charged withall, either by vertue of their reſpective Retorns made to the Barons of the ſaid Exchequer upon his Majeſties Writs of Fieri facias, Levari facias, Capias, or other Proceſſe; and alſo of all Fines and Amerciaments which are or ſhall be ſet and impoſed by the Court of Exchequer upon any Sheriff or Sheriffs for his or their contempts or neglects (that is to ſay) That all and every ſuch Debts, Fines and Amerciaments as now are returned, ſet or impoſed in any of the ſaid Offices, ſhall be delivered as aforeſaid, before the Firſt day of February next enſuing: And all ſuch Debts, Fines and Amerciaments as ſhall hereafter be returned, ſet or impoſed in any of the reſpective Offices, ſhall be delivered by the Firſt day of the next Term, after ſuch Retorns made, or ſuch Fines and Amerciaments ſo ſet, or impoſed, that ſo they may be all charged in the Sheriffs Accompts reſpectively, and comprehended within his or their Quietus eſt, upon pain that every officer or officers in the ſaid Exchequer, who ſhall in any thing offend contrary to this preſent Act, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Forty pounds for every ſuch offence, whereof one moyety ſhall be to the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other moyety to the party or parties who ſhall be thereby agrieved, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or information in any of his Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no eſſoin, Protection, Priviledge or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed or admitted.

The penalty upon Officers for doing any thing againſt this Act.

And it is hereby further Provided and Ordained, That no perſon ſhall be aſſigned to be Sheriff of any County within this Realm, except ſuch as have Lands within the ſame county ſufficient to anſwer the King and his people.

9 E. 2. St. Lincoln.
4 E. 3. c. 9.
5 E. 3. cap. 4.
21 Jac. cap. 5.

And whereas by an Act made in the one and twentieth year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King James over England; It was provided, That whenſoever any Sheriff upon paſſing his Accompts, ſhould have his Quietus eſt, that he ſhould be thereby abſolutely diſcharged of all ſums of Money by him Levied and Received, and pretended not to be accompted for within the ſaid Accompt, whereupon he had his Quietus eſt, unleſs ſuch Sheriff ſhould be called in queſtion for ſuch ſums of Money ſo pretended to be Levied, and not Accompted for within four years after the time of ſuch Accompt, and Quietus eſt; which Act notwithſtanding, divers Sheriffs and their heirs upon ſuch pretences, have been moleſted and troubled many years after their Accompts and Quietus eſt, and have had Proceſs ſent out againſt them, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Act; It is hereby further Provided and Enacted, That when any Sheriff or Sheriffs within the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, upon paſſing their Accompts, ſhall have their Quietus eſt, that then ſuch Sheriff and Sheriffs, their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, Lands, Tenements, Goods and Chattels ſhall be thereby abſolutely diſcharged of all manner of ſum or ſums of Money whatſoever by them levied and Received, notwithſtanding any ſuch pretence that the ſame were not accompted for or other pretence whatſoever unleſs ſuch Sheriff or Sheriffs ſhall be called in queſtion, and that Judgment ſhall be given againſt him or them for the ſame, within four years next after ſuch Accompt, or Quietus eſt; and that every Officer or Miniſter by whom, or by whoſe default any Writ or Proceſs coutrary to this Act ſhall be ſent out, ſhall incur the like Forfeitures and Penalties to be recovered and inflicted by ſuch perſons, and in ſuch manner as by the aforeſaid Act is provided.

A Quietus eſt is to be a ſufficient diſcharge for a Sheriff, if not queſtioned within four years after grant thereof.

Provided alwayes, That this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to the Counties of Cheſter, Lancaſter, Durham, or the Counties of Wales, being County-Palatines, as to their manner of accompting; but that the Sheriffs therein ſhall accompt as formerly before the reſpective Auditors only, and not elſewhere.

Cheſter, Lancaſter, Durham, Wales.

Provided, That this Act or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to enjoyn His Majeſties Remembrancer, or the Lord Treaſurers Remembrancer, to tranſcribe and deliver to the Ingroſſer of the great Roll, any Inquiſitions or Seiſures, but ſuch as have been formerly charged in the Forreign Accompts of the Sheriffs; but for all Inquiſitions upon Attainders, or other Forfeitures to the Crown, the ſame ſhall be put in charge as heretofore they have been, according to the conſtant uſage and Decree of the Court of Exchequer; Nor ſhall this Act, or any thing therein contained, extend to exclude His Majeſties ſaid Remembrancer of, or from the writing forth Proceſs for, or upon any His Majeſties Debts, Duties, Outlawries, or other charge whatſoever, or proceſs of Levari facias, at the proſecution of any perſon or perſons, to levy the Iſſues or Profits of any Lands or Tenements ſeiſed, or to be ſeiſed into the Kings hands, or Proceſs of Venditioni exponas for Goods ſeiſed or to be ſeiſed upon any Debt to his Majeſty, His heirs or Succeſſors, or upon any Outlawry, or to alter or change the Pleadings, or other Proceedings heretofore uſed and accuſtomed in the ſaid Office upon any Pleadings, touching the ſaid Debts, Duties and Seiſures or any of them whatſoever; And that no Debt, Duty, Fine, Amerciament or Seiſure whatſoever, which ſhall be charged in the ſaid great Roll of the Pipe upon any perſon whatſoever, by, or from any Record, Proceſs or Proceeding had, made, filed, or recorded in the office of His Majeſties Remembrancer of his Exchequer, nor any proceſs or Proceeding thereupon to be had or made, by vertue of this Act, ſhall be reſpited, ſtayed, mitigated, extenuated, compounded, or otherwiſe diſcharged, but by Order, Warrant or Judgment made, filed or entred in the ſaid Office of his Majeſties Remembrancer, where the original of ſuch Debt, Duty, or Charge, as aforeſaid, is, and remaineth; And that in caſe any Proceſs of Summons of the Pipe have been, or ſhall be awarded for, or upon any ſuch Debt, Duty, Fine, Amerciament, or Seiſure whatſoever, and the ſame Debt, Duty, Fine, Amerciament, or Seiſure ſhall not, upon ſuch Summons of the Pipe, be levied or anſwered unto His Majeſty, That then the Clerk of the Pipe, or Engroſſer of the Great Roll, ſhall the next Term after the return of ſuch Summons, certifie the ſame in a Schedule into the office of his Majeſties Remembrancer aforeſaid, to the end that further Proceſs may be from thence written forth, for the Levying and Anſwering thereof; And that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend unto, nor be conſtrued to be prejudicial to His Majeſties Remembrancer in His Exchequer, in any juſt, ancient and lawful Fees by him claimed, or belonging, or incident to His Office, and uſually had and received by him or his Predeceſſors; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo touching the Kings Remembrancer.

CAP. XXII.

For Preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England.

WHereas a great number of Lewd, Diſorderly, and Lawleſs Perſons, being Thieves and Robbers, who are commonly called Moſs-Troopers, have ſucceſſively for many and ſundry years laſt paſt been bred, reſided in and frequented the borders of the two reſpective Counties of Northumberland and Cumberland, and the next adjacent parts of Scotland, and they taking the opportunity of the large waſte Grounds, Heaths and Moſſes, and the many intricate and dangerous Wayes and By-paths in thoſe parts, do uſually, after the moſt notorious Crimes committed by them, eſcape over from the one Kingdom into the other reſpectively, and ſo avoid the hand of Juſtice, in regard the Offences done and perpetrated in the one Kingdom, cannot be puniſhed in the other.

And whereas ſince the time of the late unhappy diſtractions, ſuch Offences and Offendors as aforeſaid, have exceedingly more increaſed and abounded, and the ſeveral Inhabitants of the ſaid reſpective Counties have been for divers years laſt paſt neceſſitated at their own free and voluntary charge to maintain ſeveral Parties of Horſe for the neceſſary defence of their Perſons, Families and Goods, and to the end the aforeſaid evil and pernicious members might be apprehended and brought to Judgment; And whereas the moſt part of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Counties being more remote from the Borders then other parts, and conſequently not ſo much expoſed to imminent dangers as others, are therefore unwilling to contribute their proportionable parts of the aforeſaid Charge, and yet notwithſtanding it cannot probably or poſſibly be avoided, but that thoſe Inhabitants of the reſpective Counties who hold themſelves moſt ſecure, muſt certainly ſuſtain much damage and detriment in their Goods and Eſtates, in caſe the aforeſaid Moſs-Troopers be not timely ſuppreſſed, but ſuffered to grow numerous, ſtrong and potent, which they muſt needs do in caſe there be no reſtraint upon them; Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority thereof, That from and after the Feaſt of St. Michael the Arch-Angel, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, for, and during the term of Five years next enſuing the date of this preſent Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the reſpective Juſtices of Peace of the ſaid reſpective Counties, or the major part of them at any General Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid Counties reſpectively on the behalf of the ſaid Counties, or either of them from time to time, as they ſhall ſee occaſion, to make an Order in open Court of Seſſions for charging, according to their ſeveral proportions, all, and every the ſeveral Inhabitants of the ſaid reſpective Counties, for the ſafeguard and ſecuring of the ſaid ſeveral Counties and Inhabitants thereof from all injury, violence, ſpoil and rapine of the Moſs-Troopers aforeſaid.

Provided, That the ſaid County of Northumberland be not by force of this Act at any time charged above the ſum of Five hundred pounds in the year; nor the ſaid County of Cumberland charged above the ſum of two hundred pounds in the year: And for this end and purpoſe, the ſaid ſeveral Juſtices of Peace of the reſpective Counties aforeſaid, are hereby impowred and authorized at any their General Quarter-Seſſions aforeſaid to appoint and imploy from time to time, if occaſion require, any perſon or perſons to have the Conduct and Command of a certain number of men, not exceeding the number of Thirty men in the County of Northumberland, and Twelve in the County of Cumberland, whereby the Malefactors aforeſaid may be ſearched out, diſcovered, purſued, apprehended, and brought to tryal of the Law. And all and every the ſaid Juſtices of Peace of the reſpective Counties aforeſaid, or the major part of them at any General Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid Counties, or either of them reſpectively, are hereby further impowred and authorized by force of this preſent Act, to make, and iſſue forth their reſpective Warrants under their hands for the levying and collecting any ſum or ſums of money ordered to be paid for and towards the ſafeguard and ſecuring of the ſaid Counties reſpectively as aforeſaid, and to give full power to the ſeveral Conſtables and other Officers, to raiſe, levy and collect the ſaid money, and all and every the Inhabitants of the ſaid ſeveral Counties, according to their reſpective proportionable Eſtates in Lands or Goods, by diſtreſs and ſale of goods, rendring the overplus, if there be any, to the reſpective Owner or Owners: And the ſaid Juſtices of Peace in the ſaid ſeveral Counties, or any one of them reſpectively, are hereby alſo authorized to examine any complaint made againſt the Collectors and Conſtables, or any other Officers or Miniſters of Juſtice whatſoever, or any of them, or any other refractory perſon or perſons whatſoever, that at any time hereafter ſhall refuſe, neglect or fail to give obedience to this Act, or ſhall do any act or acts in diſturbance or obſtruction thereof, and to bind over ſuch perſon or perſons to the next Quarter-Seſſions, according to the known Laws of the Laad; to the end ſuch perſon or perſons may be proceeded withal according to Juſtice.

And the ſaid reſpective Juſtices of Peace, as aforeſaid, are hereby further impowred and authorized on behalf of the ſaid ſeveral Counties reſpectively, to appoint a Treaſurer to receive from the ſaid Collectors the Moneys by them collected and to pay over the ſame according to the orders they ſhall receive from the ſaid Juſtices at the General Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid reſpective Counties: And the ſaid Juſtices are alſo impowred to agree and article with ſuch perſon or perſons yearly, as they ſhall think fit to imploy in the ſaid ſervice, and to take ſufficient ſecurity of them for the faithful and moſt effectual performance thereof, for the beſt ſafeguard, advantage and benefit of the people, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act.

And in caſe any perſon or perſons ſhall in purſuance of this Act be imployed in the Border-Service, and ſhall at any time hereafter wilfully and corruptly, or for any ſiniſter reſpect whatſoever, neglect or forbear to diſcover or apprehend, or to bring to Tryal any of the ſaid perſons called Moſs-Troopers, as aforeſaid, and ſhall be convicted thereof according to Law, he or they ſhall from thenceforth be diſabled, and made uncapable for ever after to manage or take upon him or them the ſaid Imployment, and to ſuffer ſuch Fine and Impriſonment, according to the quality of his or their offence, as the Juſtices of Peace at their General Seſſions ſhall think fit to inflict.

Provided nevertheleſs, and be it hereby Declared, That it ſhall be lawful for the Juſtices of Peace of either of the ſaid Counties as aforeſaid reſpectively, at any time hereafter, to moderate or leſſen the ſaid charge, if they ſee cauſe.

Provided, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for five years and no longer.

Provided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for better ſuppreſſion and puniſhment of the ſaid Moſs-Troopers flying out of England into Scotland, or out of Scotland into England, the Statutes made in the ſeveral Seſſions of Parliament, in the Fourth and Seventh years of King James, ſhall be revived and put in execution according to their true intent, 18 Car. 2. cap. 3. Continued for ſeven years from the expiration of this Act. 4 Jac. cap. 7 Jac. cap. 1.

CAP. XXIII.

An Additional Act concerning matter of Aſſurance uſed amongſt Merchants.

VVhereas by an Act of Parliament made in the Three and fortieth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth of happy memory, entituled, An Act concerning matters of Aſſurances uſed amongſt Merchants: The Parliament then taking into conſideration, by all good means to comfort and encourage the Merchants of this Kingdom, thereby to advance and encreaſe the Wealth of this Realm, her Majeſties Cuſtoms, and the ſtrength of Shipping, and for preventing of divers miſchiefs in the ſaid Act mentioned; It was Enacted, That it ſhould and might be lawful for the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, to award forth under the Great Seal of England, one general or ſtanding Commiſſion to be renewed yearly at the leaſt, and otherwiſe ſo often, as unto the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper ſhould ſeem meet, for the hearing and determining of Cauſes ariſing on Policies of Aſſurance, ſuch as then were, or then after ſhould be entred within the Office of Aſſurance of the City of London; which Commiſſions ſhould be directed to the Judge of the Admiralty for the time being, the Recorder of London for the time being, Two Doctors of the Civil Law, Two Common Lawyers, and eight grave or diſcreet Merchants, or any five of them, which Commiſſioners, or the greater part of them which ſhould ſit and meet, ſhould have full power and authority to hear, examine, order and decree all and every ſuch cauſe and cauſes, in a brief and ſummary courſe without formalities of pleadings or proceedings, with power to warn Parties to come before them, and to examine upon Oath any Witneſſes that ſhould be produced, and to commit to priſon any perſon that ſhould wilfully diſobey their final orders and decrees: And the Commiſſioners to ſit once weekly upon the Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, with a liberty in the ſaid Act for any perſon grieved by any ſuch Sentence or Decree, to exhibit his Bill in Chancery for the re-examination of ſuch ſentence or decree, as by the ſaid Act, relation being thereunto had, more at large may appear: But foraſmuch as by the ſaid recited Act, without five Commiſſioners there cannot be a Court, and without there be a Court, they cannot proceed in the execution of their Commiſſion, ſo much as to ſummon Parties or Witneſſes to appear; And in caſe of neglect or refuſal of any Party or Witneſs to appear, they have no power to puniſh the delay or contempt with coſts, or otherwiſe. And it is provided by the ſaid Act, That not any Commiſſioner, other then the Judge of the Admiralty, or the Recorder of London, ſhall proceed in the execution of ſuch Commiſſion, before he hath taken his Oath before the Lord Mayor, and Court of Aldermen, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party, which upon the renewing of the ſaid Commiſſion, often proves a great delay, there being ſo many Commiſſioners to be ſworn, and the Court of Aldermen not ſitting at ſometimes in the year, when the ſaid Commiſſions have happened to be renewed; And although the ſaid Commiſſioners upon their final Sentence have power to commit to priſon any perſon that ſhall wilfully diſobey their ſaid Sentences or Decrees, yet they have no power to make any Order againſt the Ship or Goods, which commonly are the things aſſured, by which Omiſſions, for want of power given by the ſaid Act, the benefits intended by the ſaid Act of Parliament are much retarded, and the miſchiefs by the Act endeavoured to be prevented, much encreaſed.

43 El. cap. 12.

Encouragements of Merchants and Trade.

For remedy whereof, Be it enacted and Ordained, and it is hereby Enacted and Ordained by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That from and after the Four and Twentieth day of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, to Iſſue out yearly (or oftner if need require) one ſtanding Commiſſion under the great Seal of England, thereby impowring and authorizing the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three of them (whereof a Doctor of the Civil Law, or a Barriſter at law of five years ſtanding at the leaſt, to be always one) to meet and ſit, and make a Court, and Proceed in all things in the execution of the ſaid Commiſſion as before by the ſaid Act any five might have done; And that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them as aforeſaid, be and hereby are impowred to ſummon Parties and Witneſſes to appear, and in caſe of contempt or wilful delay in the Witneſſes upon the firſt Summons and tender of reaſonable Charges, and in the parties upon their ſecond Summons, to puniſh the offenders by impriſonment or Coſts for ſuch time, and in ſuch manner, as ſhall be reaſonable, and according to the nature and quality of their offences;

Three Commiſſioners impowred to act.

Coſts.

Lord Mayor of London may adminiſter the Oath.

offences; And that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every ſuch Commiſſioner, to proceed in the execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, having firſt taken an Oath before the Lord Mayor of the City of London for the time being only, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party; And the ſaid Lord Mayor is hereby Authorized to give ſuch Oath Any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding; And that no perſon ſhall proceed in Execution of the ſaid Commiſſion, before he be firſt Sworn before the Lord Mayor of London for the time being, to proceed uprightly and indifferently between party and party, as formerly he ſhould have been before the Lord Mayor, and Court of Aldermen.

Commiſſions out of the Admiralty Court to examine Witneſſes beyond Sea.

Be it alſo Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them as aforeſaid, ſhall find cauſe to examine Witneſſes beyond the Seas, or any remote parts of his Majeſties Dominions for the clearing of any doubt or matter before them depending, that in ſuch caſe by direction of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them; like Commiſſions or Proceſs ſhall iſſue out of the Court of Admiralty, as have formerly been for the Purpoſes aforeſaid, returnable before the ſaid Commiſſioners; And that the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſuch three of them, ſhall have alſo power to give and paſs their final Sentence, Decree and executions, as well againſt the body of the party evicted, or his goods, as alſo againſt the Executors and Adminiſtrators of ſuch party evicted; And to Aſſeſſe Coſts of Suit upon ſuch perſon or perſons, as ſhall be condemned by the Decree of the ſaid Court as to them ſhall ſeem Juſt.

Witneſſes going to ſea how to be examined before.

And foraſmuch as many witneſſes (as Sea-men and others) come and ſpeedily go again to Sea, before a Court can be ſummoned, by which means the Aſſured, and Aſſurers, are many times much damnified; For the preventing of which miſchief, Be it alſo Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for any one of the ſaid Commiſſioners to Adminiſter an Oath to any Witneſs legally ſummoned to give teſtimony, timely notice being thereof given to the Adverſe party, and ſet up in the Office before ſuch examination) to the end ſuch Witneſs or Witneſſes may be croſs-examined.

Appeal to the Chancery.

Provided always, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall in no caſe proceed both againſt perſon and goods, for one and the ſame debt; And Provided alſo, That any thing in this Act contained ſhall not in any wiſe extend to prejudice the appeal to the High court of Chancery given or allowed in the ſaid former Act of Parliament.

CAP. XXIV.

An Act Declaratory concerning Bankrupts.

Whereas divers Noblemen, Gentlemen, and perſons of quality, no ways bred up to Trade or Merchandize, do oftentimes put in great ſtocks of money into the Eaſt India Company, or Guiney Company, and the Fiſhing Trade, and ſuch other publike Societies and receive the procede of thoſe Stocks ſometimes in ready monies, ſometimes in Commodities which they uſually ſell for money, or exchange again, by which means the Trade of thoſe Companies is much incouraged, Fiſhing, and Navigation increaſed, and the publike good of thoſe Companies is much advanced.

13 El. cap 7.
1 Jac. cap. 15.
21 Jac. ca. 19.

Notwithſtanding which great advantage to the publike, there hath been lately ſome opinion conceived that ſuch perſons may, and ought to be made ſubject to the Statutes provided againſt Bankrupts;

No perſons for putting in money to the Eaſt-India or Guiney Company, or the Fiſhing Trade, ſhall be eſteemed a Trader within the Statute of Bankrupts,

For the better declaring and explaining the Law therein, and to the end ſuch perſons may not be diſcouraged in thoſe Honourable endeavours for promoting publick undertakings: Be it declared and enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the advice and aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, who have adventured, or put in, or who hereafter ſhall adventure, or put in any ſum or ſums of money, in the ſaid Eaſt-India Company, or Guiney Company, or into any joynt ſtock or ſtocks of money by them made, or raiſed, or to be made and raiſed, for and towards the maintaining and carrying on the Trade by the ſaid Eaſt-India Company, or Guiney Company, managed, or to be managed, or who have formerly, or ſhall hereafter adventure or put in any ſum or ſums of money into any ſtock or ſtocks of money, for the managing and carrying on of the ſaid Fiſhing Trade, or the Trade now called the Royal Fiſhing Trade, and ſhall receive and take his or their part, or dividend of Fiſh, Goods or Merchandizes in Specie, and ſhall ſell, or exchange the ſame, ſhall for or by reaſon only of ſuch adventure of moneys ſo put into the ſaid Eaſt-India Company, or Guiney Company, or into any Stock or Stocks, for and towards the ſaid Fiſhing Trade, or for, or by reaſon only of the receiving and taking ſuch Fiſh, Goods, and Merchandizes in Specie, or ſelling for money, or exchanging the ſame again, be adjudged, taken, eſteemed or reputed a Merchant or Trader within any Statute or Statutes for Bankrupts, or be liable to the ſame.

Proviſo for other Trading.

Provided always, and it is hereby Declared, That every perſon or perſons who ſhall Trade, Traffique or Merchandize in any other way or manner, then in the ſaid Royal Fiſhing Trade, or the Trade managed by the ſaid Eaſt-India Company, or the Guiney Company as aforeſaid, ſhall for and by reaſon of his and their Trading, Trafficquing, and Merchandizing, be liable to Commiſſion and Commiſſions againſt Bankrupts, as fully to all intents and purpoſes, and not otherwiſe, as if this Act had never been made, Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Judgement concerning Sir John Wolſtenholme, made void.

And be it further enacted, That a Verdict and Judgment in Replevin heretofore had or given in the Term of Eaſter, in the year One thouſand ſix hundred fifty three, in the Kings-Bench, betwixt Phineas Andrews Plaintiff, Richard Woolward, and William Meggs Defendants, whereby Sir John Wolſtenholme Knight, an Adventurer in the ſaid Eaſt-India Company, was adjudged, and found liable to a Commiſſion of Bankrupts only, for and by reaſon of a ſhare he had in the Joynt-Stock of the ſaid Company, and a pretended ſelling for money part of the return which he had in Specie for his ſaid Adventure, ſhall be, and is hereby declared contrary to Law, and is hereby reverſed, and made void and null.

Proviſo for Purchaſers in the Caſe of Sir John Wolſtenholme.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted, That no Act, Sale or Diſpoſition of any the Lands, Tenements, Hereditaments, Goods, Chattels, Debts or Credits of the ſaid Sir John Wolſtenholme, or any diſtribution of the ſame, or of any money heretofore made or done by the Commiſſioners of Bankrupts, or any claiming under them, or any of them by vertue or colour of any Commiſſion or Commiſſions taken out againſt the ſaid Sir John Wolſtenholme; and whereof any perſon or perſons is by vertue or colour of, or under any ſuch Act, Sale, or Diſpoſition actually ſeiſed or poſſeſſed, ſhall be hereby impeached, or fruſtrated, but that the ſame be enjoyed for and toward ſatisfaction of the debts, for which the ſame have been diſpoſed or diſtributed.

CAP. XXV.

For Reſtoring of all ſuch Advowſons, Rectories, Impropriate Glebe-Lands and Tithes to his Majeſties Loyal Subjects, as were taken from them, and making void certain charges impoſed on them upon their Compoſitions for Delinquency, by the late Uſurped Powers.

WHereas many Loyal Subjects of our late Soveraign Lord King CHARLES the Firſt, and of the Kings Majeſty that now is, were upon pretence of Delinquency for adhering unto, and faithfully ſerving their ſaid Majeſties according to their Duty and Allegiance, enforced and conſtrained by the pretended Power of the Long Parliament, not only to part with great ſums of money in ſatisfaction of the ſaid ſuppoſed Delinquency, but likewiſe to ſettle all, or part of ſuch Advowſons, Rectories, Glebe-Lands and Tythes, Eſtates and Terms, as they, or any in truſt for them were then ſeiſed or poſſeſſed of, and to make Grants and Aſſurances of Rents and Annuities to and upon ſuch Truſtees as were appointed by the ſaid Long Parliament, as well for the augmentation of certain Vicarages, as for the uſe and maintenance of Preaching Miniſters and Lecturers, without any valuable conſideration given for the ſame, other then ſome abatement of thoſe exceſſive Fines impoſed on them for their pretended Delinquency, and exacted from them by thoſe arbitrary powers, to the impoveriſhing and undoing of many of the Kings moſt Loyal Subjects; Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all Grants, Feoffments, Bargains and Sales, Releaſes, Confirmations, and other Conveyances and Aſſurances in the Law, of any higher or lower nature whatſoever had, or made by any ſuch pretended Delinquents, their Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators, or by any perſon having any Eſtate or Intereſt in Law or Equity in Truſt for them, or by any other perſons or perſons, having any Eſtate or Intereſt joyntly, or in common with them, or in Reverſion or Remainder after them, to any perſon or perſons, Bodies politick or corporate of any ſuch Advowſons, Rectories Impropriate, Glebe-Lands, Tithes, Eſtates, Terms, Annuities and Rents, as aforeſaid, to, or for the uſes aforeſaid, as part or in full of their Compoſitions for ſuch pretended Delinquency as aforeſaid, and all Securities touching or concerning the ſame onely, be and are hereby adjudged from henceforth null and void in Law to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever; Saving to all perſons other than the ſaid Truſtees, and their Heirs, and all claiming under them, all right to the ſaid Rectories and Premiſſes as hath accrued unto them before the Nineteenth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two.

All Eſtates made by pretended Delinquents of Advowſons, Rectories, &c. for Compoſitions, made void.

Saving other Rights.

How Tenants and Leſſees under ſuch Eſtates ſhall pay their Rents.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Tenants, Leſſees and Occupiers of all ſuch Advowſons, Rectories Impropriate, Glebe-Lands, Tythes, and premiſſes ſo granted or ſetled, to or upon ſuch Truſtees as aforeſaid, for the uſes or purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall pay all ſuch Rents as ſhall hereafter grow due and payable to ſuch perſons onely unto whom the right and intereſt of and in the ſame Advowſons, Rectories, Glebe-Lands, Tythes and premiſſes before the ſaid Conveyances or Aſſurances (intended to be annulled and made void by this preſent Act) did, or ſhould of right belong or appertain.

Rents and ſums appointed for Augmentation of certain Vicarages.

And whereas the ſaid Conveyances and Aſſurances in and by this Act intended to be made void, were ſome of them of Eſtates in Fee-ſimple, and ſome of them long Terms for years made to Truſtees, who redemiſed the ſame at and under ſuch yearly Rents and Sums of Money as were then appointed to be the Augmentation of certain Vicarages, or maintenance for preaching Miniſters, ſince which time, many of the Rectories and Lands ſo Conveyed and Leaſed have been abſolutely ſold, and the Redemiſes thereof granted and aſſigned by the Owners thereof, for the benefit of ſuch purchaſers; Be it further Enacted and Ordained by this preſent Parliament, and by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Purchaſers, their Heirs and Aſſigns ſhall pay, and the ſaid former Owners of the ſaid Lands and Rectories, their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, ſhall have, hold and enjoy the ſaid Rents and ſums of Money ſo reſerved (for the Augmentation of the ſaid Vicarages, and maintenance for preaching Miniſters) upon the ſaid ſeveral Redemiſes, and ſhall have the ſame, and the like remedies by Diſtreſs, or by Action of Debt for the recovery thereof, as the ſaid Truſtees who Redemiſed the ſame, ſhould or might have had, if this Act had not been made.

CAP. XXVI.

Abuſes committed in the Weight and falſe Packing of Butter, Reformed.

The Contents of a Kilderkin of Butter.

FOraſmuch as Butter is one of the principal Commodities of the product of this Kingdome, and is not only of an univerſal uſe and expence at home, but very great quantities thereof are Tranſported beyond the Seas; And whereas, by Cuſtome time out of mind uſed, every Kilderkin of Butter ought to weigh one hundred thirty and two pounds groſs at the leaſt; that is to ſay, one hundred and twelve pounds of Neat Butter, and the Caſk

Twenty

The Firkin.

The Pot.

Twenty pounds: The Firkin of Butter ought to weigh Sixty and four pounds, viz Fifty and ſix pounds of good and Merchantable Butter Neat, and the Cask eight pounds; And the Pot of Butter ought to weigh twenty pounds, viz. Fourteen pounds of good and Merchantable Butter Neat, and the Pot ſix pounds: And whereas great Complaint hath been made by the Traders in Butter and Cheeſe, That by the fraudulent dealing and practice of ſeveral Farmers, Owners and Packers of Butter, and by their irregular manner of weighing with Stones, Iron Wedges, Bricks, and other unwarrantable Weights, the ſame quantities of Butter are not put up into the reſpective Cask and Pots aforeſaid, and the Kilderkin is commonly made to weigh ſix and twenty pounds, and ſometimes eight and twenty pounds, and the Firkin to weigh ten pounds or twelve pounds; and ſometimes thirteen or fourteen pounds weight, and the Pots are made generally to weigh ſeven pounds, and ſome of them eight pounds or nine pounds weight, and much bad and decayed Butter is mixed, and Packed up into Kilderkins, Firkins, and other Cask and Pots, with ſound and good Butter, and immoderate quantities of Salt intermixed to the ſpoil of the ſame, and to the great wrong and abuſe of his Majeſty in the Victualling of his Navy, of Merchants in the Victualling of their Ships, and of all Traders in the ſaid Commodity, and of all Houſholders who buy the ſame for their expence, and to the great diſhonour of the Engliſh Nation, in the parts beyond the Seas, and to the bringing of the ſaid Commodity into great diſrepute abroad, whereby it yields not that price, nor is vented there, in ſuch quantities, as otherwiſe it would.

A Kilderkin of Butter ſhall contain 112 l. beſides the Cask.

The Firkin 56 l.

The Pot 14 l.

No old Butter ſhall be mixed with new.

Nor Whey Butter.

The penalty.

For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That from and after the firſt day of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, every Kilderkin of Butter do and ſhall contain one hundred and twelve pounds Neat, or above, every pound containing ſixteen ounces beſides the Tare of the Cask, and not leſs, of good and Merchantable Butter: Every Firkin of Butter do and ſhall contain fifty ſix pounds Neat or above, beſides the weight of the Cask, of good and Merchantable Butter; and every Pot of Butter do and ſhall contain fourteen pounds Neat, or above, beſides the weight of the Pot, of good and Merchantable Butter: And that no Butter which is old or corrupt ſhall be mixed or packed up into any Kilderkin, Firkin, or other Cask, Veſſel or Pot whatſoever with any Butter which is new and ſound, nor any Whey-butter ſhall be packed or mixed with any Butter that is made of Cream, but that the ſaid reſpective ſorts of Butter ſhall be packed up ſeverally and apart by themſelves, and ſhall not be mixed one with another, and that every Cask or pot of Butter ſhall be of one ſort and goodneſs throughout ſuch Cask and Pot, and that no butter ſhall be ſalted with any great Salt, but that all Butter ſhall be ſalted and ſaved with ſmall ſalt, nor more ſalt ſhall be intermixed with it, then ſhall be needful for its preſervation, upon pain and penalty that every Owner, Farmer or Packer of butter not putting up in each Kilderkin, Firkin and Pot of Butter to be ſold, or to be expoſed to ſale reſpectively, ſuch quantities as aforeſaid, or offending in falſe packing as aforeſaid, for every ſuch offence ſhall forfeit the value of all the butter ſo falſe packed, and for every offence where any Kilderkin, Firkin or Pot ſhall be found to contain a leſſer quantity of butter, then by this Act is appointed, ſix times the value of every pound of butter, that ſhall be wanting in any ſuch Cask or Pot.

Cheeſe-mongers and all ſellers of Butter by the Kilderkin or &c. ſhall deliver the full quantity to the Retailer.

And to the intent that the benefit intended by this Act may be extended with full effect to all perſons who do either cut out butter by retail, or expend it, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Cheeſe-monger or other perſon whatſoever which ſhall ſell to any perſon or perſons any Kilderkin or Kilderkins, Firkin or Firkins, Pot or Pots, or other Cask of Butter made after the ſaid firſt day of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, ſhall deliver in every ſuch Kilderkin, Firkin, and other Cask and Pot reſpectively the full quantity and due quality appointed by this Act, and not leſs; or in default thereof, ſhall be liable to make ſatisfaction to him or them that buy the ſame for what ſhall be wanting, according to the price for which the ſame was ſold.

None ſhall repack butter.

The penalty.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt day of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no Cheeſe-monger or other perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall repack for ſale any Butter in any Kilderkin, Firkin, or other Cask or Pot whatſoever, upon pain and penalty that every Cheeſe-monger or other perſon whatſoever which ſhall repack any Butter into any Kilderkin or Kilderkins, Firkin or Firkins, Cask or Casks, Pot or Pots, to ſell the ſame again, ſhall for every Firkin, Cask or Pot ſo packed, forfeit the ſum of double the value of all ſuch butter.

Farmers and other ſellers ſhall ſet their marks of the weight upon good and ſufficient Casks.

And their names.

And for the better diſcovery of all frauds and abuſes which ſhall be committed againſt this Act, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Farmer and other perſon and perſons, packing up Butter in Kilderkins, Firkins or any other Cask whatſoever for ſale, do from and after the ſaid firſt day of June, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, pack up his Butter into good and ſufficient Cask, made of ſound, dry, and well ſeaſoned Timber, and ſhall ſet upon every Firkin and Cask whatſoever, when the ſame is throughly and fully ſeaſoned in water, a continuing viſible mark of the juſt weight of the empty Cask, and do likewiſe ſet upon every Kilderkin, Firkin and Cask, when the ſame is filled with butter, the firſt Letter of his or their Chriſtian name, and his or their Sirname at length, with an Iron brand, upon pain and penalty that every Farmer, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever offending in not putting on the Mark of ſuch weight of Kilderkin, Firkin or other Cask, after ſeaſoning, or not ſetting the firſt Letter of his or their Chriſtian name, and his or their Sirname at length, on every Firkin and Cask as aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſuch offence reſpectively forfeit the ſum of Ten ſhillings for every Hundred weight of Butter, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity that ſhall be in every ſuch Cask.

Potters ſhall ſet their weight of every Pot burnt, and their names.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Potter ſhall ſet upon every pot which he ſhall ſell for packing up butter, the juſt weight which ſhall be of every ſuch pot when it is burnt, together with the firſt Letter of his or their Chriſtian name, and his or their Sirname at length, upon pain and penalty that every Potter which ſhall not ſo do, ſhall forfeit and pay for every pot which he ſhall expoſe to ſale for the uſe aforeſaid, whereupon he ſhall not have firſt ſet the juſt weight, and the firſt letter of his Chriſtian name, and his ſirname at length as aforeſaid, the ſum of one ſhilling; and that no Farmer or other perſon whatſoever ſhall expoſe to ſale any Butter packed up in any other pot than ſuch as ſhall be marked by the Potter as aforeſaid, upon penalty of Two ſhillings for every pot of butter which he ſhall expoſe to ſale as is not ſo marked; all and every of which ſaid offences are to be enquired of, ſued for, heard and determined in the Seſſions of Peace for the County, City, Borough, Town or Liberty, or in the Court of Record of the City, Borough, Town or Liberty wherein ſuch offence ſhall be committed, by Action of Debt, Indictment, Information, or Preſentment, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed to the Defendant; and the one half of all ſuch Forfeitures ſhall be to the uſe of the poor people inhabiting within the Pariſh where ſuch offence ſhall be from time to time committed, to be paid to the Church-wardens and Overſeers of the poor of and in ſuch pariſh, and the other half to him or them that will ſue for the ſame, beſides his double Coſts thereby expended.

How to be diſpoſed.

Doubl: Coſts.

Within what time ſuit muſt be begun upon this Act.

Provided, That every Suit and Information which ſhall be brought upon this Act, ſhall be commenced within four moneths after the ſale of ſuch butter.

CAP. XXVII.

For Repairing of Dover-Harbour.

WHereas it is found by long experience, that Dover-Harbour is and hath been of very great uſe and benefit to the Merchants of this Realm, and others paſſing through the Narrow Seas, whereunto they have, and do enter, to avoid imminent dangee of Tempeſts, Pyrats, or the Common Enemy in time of War; And whereas the ſaid Harbour of late by Tempeſts and the violence of the Sea, hath been much broken, ruined and decayed, and in great danger of being loſt, unleſs timely prevented by repairing thereof, which cannot be without great charges and expences, as well in the preſent repair, as in the future maintenance of the ſame: whereof his Majeſty being Informed, and minding the good and ſafety of Merchants and Sea-faring men, hath of late of his Majeſties Goodneſs and Liberality, beſtowed a great ſum of money in, and about the repairing of the ſaid Harbour, which yet is not ſufficient to carry on that work, and to ſecure it for the future.

1 Jac. cap. 32.

Duties payable at and towards the Repair of Dover-Harbour.

And to the end that the ſame may be from time to time maintained and kept in good repair for the uſe and benefit of Merchants, and Sea-faring men; And that ſuch proviſion for the maintenance thereof may now be made, as by an Act of Parliament made in the Firſt year of his Majeſties Grand-father King James of ever bleſſed memory, hath been formerly done and provided for: Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the Four and twentieth day of June next enſuing, during the ſpace of ſeven years thence next following, there ſhall be paid by the Maſter or Owner of every Ship, Veſſel or Crayer, whereof any of his Majeſties Subjects of England ſhall be Owners, or part-Owners, of the burthen of twenty Tuns or upwards, and not exceeding the burthen of Two hundred and fifty Tun, for every Voyage, Loading, or Diſcharging within this Realm, or to, or from any Foreign Countrey beyond the Seas, and paſſing to, or from London, or for, from, to, or by Dover, or coming into the Harbour there, not having a Cocquet teſtifying his payment before for that Voyage towards the repair of Dover-Harbour, the ſum of Three pence for every Tun of the burthen of every ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Crayer, (except Veſſels loaden with Sea-Coals, or Grind-ſtones, or Purbeck, or Portland-ſtone) and for every Chauldron of Sea-Coals, or Tun of Grind-ſtones peny half-peny, the ſame to be paid to the Cuſtomer, or Collector of Cuſtoms, or Subſidies, or their Deputies within this Realm, in ſuch Port, from whence ſuch Ship, Veſſel or Crayer ſhall ſet forth, or where ſuch Ship, Veſſel, or Crayer ſhall arrive, before they load or unload the Goods therein; The Accompt of the number of the ſaid Tuns to be made according to the Entry of Goods in every Ship, Veſſel or Crayer in the Cuſtom-houſe, and no entry thereof to be allowed in any Office of Cuſtoms or Subſidies, without true information before made by Oath of the Maſter, Owner, or Shipper of ſuch Ship, Veſſel or Crayer concerning the burthen thereof, and payment by him made of the ſums aforeſaid, of which payment the Maſter, Owner, or Shipper paying the ſame, ſhall have allowance of the Merchants, according to the rate of the Goods in the ſame Ship, Veſſel or Crayer, by way of Average; And the Cuſtomer or Collector, or his Deputy receiving the ſums aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall diſburſe and pay the ſame from time to time to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Harbour for the time being, or ſuch perſon or perſons as he ſhall aſſign to receive the ſame, to be expended in and about the repair of the ſaid Harbour; And every Cuſtomer or Comptroller, or their Deputies, that ſhall make any Entries of Cuſtoms or Subſidies of any Goods in the ſaid Ships, Veſſels or Crayers, before ſuch Information as aforeſaid, concerning the burthen thereof ſhall be made, or before payment made of the ſums before limited to be paid by this Act, or ſhall make any wilful default in not collecting the ſaid ſums, or any of them, or not paying the ſame over from time to time to the Treaſurer of the ſaid Harbour for the time being, or ſuch perſon or perſons as he ſhall aſſign to receive the ſame as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit to the uſe of the Reparations of the ſaid Harbour, Ten pounds for every ſuch default, to be recovered by Action of Debt in any Court of Record, by the Warden and Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Harbour for the time being; in which ſuit no Eſſoign, Protection, or wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Who ſhall inſpect and overſee the Repairs.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Maſter and Wardens of the Trinity-Houſe of London for the time being, to appoint ſuch perſon or perſons as they ſhall think fit to inſpect and overſee the repairs and works to be made for the ſecurity of the ſaid Harbour; And that they may once every year, during the term of ſeven years aforeſaid, require an accompt of the reſpective Collectors of the Duties aforeſaid, and the Treaſurer for the ſaid Harbour for the time being, of the moneys by them reſpectively received by vertue of this Act, and of the diſburſements thereof: And if the ſaid Collectors and Treaſurer ſhall not within ſix weeks next after demand of ſuch Accompt, give in the ſame accordingly; or if thereupon it ſhall appear that the ſaid money ſhall not be duly diſburſed in and about the ſaid Repair and the Works, for the ſecuring and maintenance of the ſaid Harbour, according to the intent of this Act; or if the ſaid Harbour ſhall within the time aforeſaid be ſufficiently repaired and ſecured, That then the ſaid Maſter and Wardens ſhall inform the Lords of his Majeſties Privy Council thereof, who ſhall and may thereupon, and to that purpoſe are hereby impowred to ſuſpend, or cauſe all and every further payments by vertue of this Act to ceaſe and determine, if they ſhall ſee cauſe.

Proviſo for Ships belonging to Weymouth, Melcombe-Regis, Lime-Regis.

Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Ships and Veſſels belonging to the Ports of Weymouth and Melcombe-Regis, and Lime-Regis in the County of Dorſet, having a Peire and Cob of their own, (which by reaſon of their poverty at preſent they are not able to maintain) ſhall be exempt from contributing or paying any thing to the Harbour of Dover mentioned in this Act; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding; ſo as they ſhall bring Certificate made upon Oath before the Mayor, and under the Common Seal of the ſaid reſpective Corporations, That the ſaid Ships and Veſſels do properly belong thereunto; And that the Inhabitants of the ſaid reſpective Corporations are Owners of the major part of the ſaid Veſſels.

Provided always, and be it hereby enacted, That this Act or any thing herein contained, ſhall not extend to authorize the Collection of more than the ſum of Twenty two thouſand pounds in the whole; And then the ſaid collection to ceaſe.

CAP. XXVIII.

Pilchard Fiſhing in the Counties of Devon and Cornwal, Regulated.

Fiſhery of great concernment to this Nation.

VVhereas the publick Honour, Wealth and Safety of this Realm, as well in the maintenance of Trade and ſupport of Navigation, as in many other reſpects, doth in an high degree depend upon the improvement and encouragement of the Fiſhery.

And foraſmuch as of late years there have divers pernitious diſorders and abuſes, by the licentiouſneſs of the times crept in, and yet continue evidently deſtructive to that Trade, For prevention and redreſs whereof there is no Law hitherto particularly provided, in the growing evils occaſioned by Driving-Nets, and other fraudulent and injurious practiſes to the extream damage of the Fiſhery: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in Parliameut aſſembled, and it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, no perſon or perſons ſhall in any year from the Firſt day of June, till the laſt of November, preſume to take Fiſh in the high Sea, or in any Bay, Port, Creek, or Coaſt of or belonging to Cornwal or Devon with any Drift-Net, Trammel, or Stream-Net or Nets, or any other Nets of that ſort or kind, unleſs it be at the diſtance of one League and an half at leaſt from the reſpective ſhores, upon the penalty of forfeiture of the ſaid Nets ſo imployed, or the full value thereof, and one moneths Impriſonment without Bail or Mainprize.

Times prohibited to Fiſh in Cornwall and Devon.

Penalty.

Pilchards and Fumathoes to be bought of the Owners and Adventurers in Fiſhing.

And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons being neither Owners, Partners, or Adventurers in the Craft of Fiſhery, and in the Boats and Saynes thereunto belonging, or ſhall preſume from and after the day before limited, to make, or cauſe to be made any Pilchards or Fumathoes in Caſk to be ſold or tranſported, except he or they ſhall openly buy the aforeſaid Fiſh of the reſpective Owners, Partners and Adventurers in the ſaid Pilchard Craft, or with their expreſs allowance, leave and conſent, that they ſhall in ſuch caſe forfeit all and ſingular ſuch Pilchards and Fumathoes ſo made, and every Caſk thereof, or their full value; the one half to the King, and the other half to him or them that ſhall ſo ſue for the ſame by bill, plaint, or other Information, and upon legal proof recover the ſame.

And be it further enacted, That if any Owner, Partner or Company, or any other perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall fraudulently purloyn, imbezel, hide, convey, carry away, or diſpoſe by ſale or otherwiſe, or cauſe to be purloyned, imbezelled, hidden, conveyed, carried away, or diſpoſed out of the Nets, Boats, or Cellars, any Pilchard Fiſh, without the expreſs leave, conſent and allowance of the proper Owner, and major part of the Company reſpectively, that then every ſuch perſon and perſons that ſhall offend therein upon legal evidence, ſhall pay treble the value in ſatisfaction to the parties ſo wronged, and be ſent to the Houſe of Correction for three moneths.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any idle or ſuſpicious perſon or perſons ſhall in the night aſſemble and flock together about the Boats, Nets or Cellars belonging to any Pilchard-Craft, upon any the Coaſts of Cornwal or Devon, having no buſineſs there to do, and being warned by the Company or Owner of ſuch Boats or Sellars to be gone, that then upon complaint made unto any one Juſtice of the Peace, every ſuch perſon or perſons refuſing ſo to do, ſhall pay five ſhillings to the poor of the Pariſh where ſuch offence was committed, or ſhall be ſet in the Stocks for the ſpace of five hours.

Idle and ſuſpicious lurking about Pilchard Boats to depart upon warning.

CAP. XXIX.

An Act for the Reverſing of the Earl of Strafford his Attainder.

The Reaſons and Grounds of Repealing the Attainder.

VVhereas Thomas late Earl of Strafford was Impeached of High Treaſon, upon pretence of endeavouring to Subvert the Fundamental Laws, and called to a publick and ſolemn Arraignment and Trial before the Peers in Parliament, where he made a particular Defence to every Article objected againſt him; inſomuch that the Turbulent party then ſeeing no hopes to effect their unjuſt deſigns by any ordinary way and method of proceedings, did at laſt reſolve to attempt the deſtruction and Attainder of the ſaid Earl by an Act of Parliament, to be therefore purpoſely made to condemn him upon accumulative Treaſon, none of the pretended Crimes being Treaſon apart, and ſo could not be in the whole if they had been proved, as they were not, and alſo judged him guilty of conſtructive Treaſon (that is) of levying War againſt the King, though it was onely the commanding an Order of the Council-Board in Ireland, to be executed by a Serjeant at Arms, and Three or four Souldiers, which was the conſtant practice of the Deputies there for a long time; To which end they having firſt preſented a Bill for this intent to the Houſe of Commons, and finding there more oppoſition then they expected, they cauſed a multitude of Tumultuous perſons to come down to Weſtminſter Armed with Swords and Staves, and to fill both the Palace-Yards, and all the Approaches to both Houſes of Parliament with fury and clamour, and to require Juſtice, ſpeedy Juſtice againſt the Earl of Strafford; And having by theſe and other undue practices obtained that Bill to paſſe in the Houſe of Commons, they cauſed the Names of thoſe reſolute Gentlemen, who in a caſe of innocent blood had freely diſcharged their conſciences, being Nine and fifty, to be poſted up in ſeveral places about the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, and ſtiled them Straffordians, and Enemies to their Countrey, hoping thereby to deliver them up to the fury of the people, whom they had endeavoured to incenſe againſt them, and then procured the ſaid Bill to be ſent up to the Houſe of Peers, where it having ſometime reſted under great deliberation, at laſt in a time when a great part of the Peers were abſent by reaſon of the Tumults, and many of thoſe who were preſent proteſted againſt it, the ſaid Bill paſſed in the Houſe of Peers: And at length his late Majeſty King Charles the Firſt of Glorious memory, granted a Commiſſion for giving his Royal Aſſent thereunto; which nevertheleſs was done by his ſaid Majeſty with exceeding great ſorrow then, and ever remembred by him with unexpreſſible grief of heart, and out of his Majeſties great Piety he did publickly expreſs it when his own Sacred life was taken away by the moſt deteſtable Traitors that ever were.

For all which cauſes, Be it Declared and Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the Act entituled, An Act for the Attainder of Thomas Earl of Strafford of High Treaſon, and all and every Clauſe, Article and thing therein contained, being obtained as aforeſaid, is now hereby repealed, revoked, and reverſed.

And to the end that right be done to the memory of the deceaſed Earl of Strafford aforeſaid, be it further Enacted, That all Records, and proceedings of Parliament relating to the ſaid Attainder, be wholly cancelled, and taken off the File, or otherwiſe defaced and obliterated, to the intent the ſame may not be viſible in after-ages, or brought into example to the prejudice of any perſon whatſoever;

Provided, That this Act ſhall not extend to the future queſtioning of any perſon or perſons however concerned in this buſineſs, or who had any hand in the Tumults, or diſorderly procuring the Act aforeſaid; Any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The Inconvenience by Melting the Silver Coyn of this Realm, prevented.

VVhereas by an Act made in the Ninth year of King Edward the Third, it is Enacted, That no ſterling Half-peny or Farthing ſhall be moulten to make Veſſel, or any other thing by Goldſmiths, or any other, upon pain of forfeiture of the Moneys ſo moulten; Whereas by one other Statute made in the Seventeenth year of King Richard the Second, it was further Enacted, That no Groats or half-Groats ſhall be moulten by any man to make Veſſel, or other thing thereof upon the ſame pain; And whereas divers perſons do elude the ſaid Statutes, as well Goldſmiths as others, by melting Silver-Coyns of this Realm, above the value of Groats, to the great diminiſhing of the Silver-Coyn of this Realm, and the hindrance of the Commerce of the ſame: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall after the Twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, wilfully melt, or cauſe to be melted any of the currant Silver money of this Realm, upon pain not only of forfeiture of the ſame, but alſo of the double value of any ſuch Coyn ſo melted; the one half to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the other half to the Informers, who ſhall ſue for the ſame upon Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter; in which no Eſſoyn, Wager of Law, or Protection ſhall be allowed: And moreover, That the ſaid perſon or perſons offending contrary to the tenor of this Act (if he or they be a Freeman, or Freemen, or priviledged perſon or perſons of any City or Corporation within this Kingdom of England) ſhall upon legal conviction for the ſame, be forthwith disfranchiſed and made uncapable of exerciſing the Trade of a Goldſmith, or any other Myſtery by vertue of the Priviledges of the City or Corporation of which he or they are members: And if the ſaid perſon or perſons offending, and convict as aforeſaid, ſhall not be a Freeman or Freemen, or priviledged perſon or perſons of any City or Corporation as aforeſaid, then he or they ſhall ſuffer impriſonment without Bail or Mainprize for the ſpace of ſix moneths next enſuing his or their conviction as aforeſaid.

CAP. XXXII.

The Manufacture of Broad Woollen Cloth, within the Weſt-Riding of the County of York, Regulated.

WHereas divers abuſes and deceits have of late years been had, and uſed in the Manufacture of Broad Woollen Cloth, made within the Weſt-Riding of the County of York, and the ſpinning and deceitful working thereof, which tends to the great debaſing and undervaluation of the ſaid Manufacture, both at home, and alſo in foreign parts where the ſame is uſually vended.

A Corporation of Clothiers in the Weſt-Riding of Yorkſhire.

The Oath to be taken by the Maſter, Wardens and Aſſiſtants.

For prevention of all which abuſes and deceipts; It is Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, That from and after the next Monday after Eaſter, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, there be, and ſhall be, a Corporation to continue for ever within the ſaid Weſt-Riding of the County of York, conſiſting of all the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Weſt-Riding for the time being, Two Maſters, Ten Wardens, Twelve Aſſiſtants, and Commonalty; All which ſaid Maſters, Wardens and Aſſiſtants, are to be of the ableſt and beſt experienced Clothiers within the ſaid Weſt-Riding, and ſuch as have ſerved, and been brought up in the Trade and Myſtery of Clothing, by the ſpace of ſeven years, according to the Laws and Statutes of this Realm; One of which ſaid Maſters, Five of which ſaid Wardens, and Six of which ſaid Aſſiſtants, ſhall be choſen the firſt Monday after Pentecoſt then next following, and from thenceforth to be yearly, and every year choſen upon the next Monday after Pentecoſt, at ſome publique place, by the Free Clothiers of the ſaid Weſt-Riding, inhabiting within the Pariſh of Leeds in the ſaid County of York, the greater part of them preſent at ſuch Election; and the other Maſter, five Wardens, and ſix Aſſiſtants ſhall be choſen upon the ſame dayes at ſome publique place, by the Free Clothiers inhabiting out of the ſaid Town and Pariſh of Leeds, or the greater part of them preſent at the ſaid election, of the parts adjacent within the ſaid Weſt-Riding: And in caſe any of the ſaid Maſters, Wardens and Aſſiſtants, after their ſaid reſpective Elections do happen to die, that then it ſhall and may be lawful, at any Court to be holden next after ſuch Deceaſe, to elect others in their reſpective places; And the ſaid Wardens, Maſters and Aſſiſtants reſpectively, ſhall within eight dayes after their firſt choice and election, take the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy, which any two Juſtices of the Peace within the Weſt-Riding, whereof one to be of the Quorum, have hereby power to adminiſter, and alſo the enſuing Oath, (Viz.) I A. B. do ſwear, That I will well, faithfully and honeſtly perform and diſcharge the Office of a Maſter of the Corporation of the Free Clothiers, according to the beſt of my Skill, Power and Knowledge; So help me God. And the like Oath and Oaths, to be adminiſtred to the Wardens and Aſſiſtants reſpectively, mutatis mutandis; And for ever after, the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, Maſters, Wardens and Aſſiſtants, and their Succeſſors, or any Thirteen of them, ſhall and have hereby power to adminiſter the like Oath or Oaths to ſuch Officer or Officers, faithfully and honeſtly to perform and diſcharge his and their ſaid Office and Offices, to which he or they are and ſhall be ſo choſen by this Act, at any Court to be by them holden in manner hereafter declared.

Who ſhall be of the ſaid Corporation for ever, and how called.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, Maſters, Wardens and Aſſiſtants for the time being, together with the ſaid Free Clothiers of the ſaid Weſt-Riding, ſhall for ever hereafter, in name and in fact, be one Body politick and corporate in Law to all intents and purpoſes, and ſhall have a perpetual Succeſſion, and be called by the name of the Supervisors, Maſters, Wardens, Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of the Trade or Myſtery of Clothiers, for the well making of Broad Woollen Cloth, within the Weſt-Riding of the County of York; and that they ſhall be enabled to Plead and Sue, and to be Sued and Impleaded by that name in all Courts and places of Judicature within this Kingdom; And by that name, ſhall and may without Licence in Mortmain, purchaſe, take or receive any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, of the Gift, Alienation or Demiſe of any perſon or perſons, who are hereby without further Licence enabled to transfer the ſame, and any Goods and Chattels whatſoever, for the uſe and benefit of the Corporation aforeſaid (not exceeding the yearly value of Two hundred pounds:) And for the better Regulation of the ſaid Government of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture, the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, Maſters, Wardens and Aſſiſtants for the time being, or any Thirteen of them, whereof there ſhall be one of the ſaid Juſtices, or one of the ſaid Maſters at the leaſt always preſent, ſhall have, and hereby have power and authority from time to time to meet, and keep Court upon the firſt Saturday in every moneth in every year, for the ends in this Act mentioned within the ſaid Town of Leeds, at the place commonly called or known by the name of the Seſſions-Houſe, or Common-Hall in Leeds aforeſaid; And alſo at ſuch other time

Times and places of their meeting.

time and place of the ſaid Weſt-Riding, as ſhall from time to time be appointed, by the ſaid Juſtices, Maſters, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, or any Thirteen of them, upon eight days notice, or warning to be given of ſuch meeting, and Court to be held: And in caſe that the Maſters, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, or the major part of them, ſhall refuſe or neglect to appear, ſo as a Court cannot be holden accordingly, as is before directed, That then ſuch Maſter, Warden, or Aſſiſtant ſo refuſing or neglecting ſhal forfeit the ſum of twenty ſhillings the one moyetie to the uſe of the Poor of ſuch reſpective Town where the perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting ſhall live, the other moyetie to the uſe of the Corporation: And the ſaid Juſtices, Maſters, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, or any Thirteen of them, are hereby impowered to ſummon to appear at the ſaid Courts to be held as aforeſaid, ſo many of the ſaid Clothiers, as they ſhall in their diſcretions think meet for the better ordering the Affairs of the ſaid Trade, who are hereby required to appear upon ſuch Summons, the number of which Perſons ſo Summoned, ſhall not be under Eight and forty; And in caſe of neglect or refuſal, are to forfeit to the uſe of the ſaid Corporation, the ſum of Ten groats, for every default of not appearing, to be levied as is hereafter directed.

Power to appoint a common Seal; an to make Orders and By-laws.

And the ſaid Juſtices, Maſters, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, or any Thirteen of them (whereof One of the ſaid Juſtices, or One of the ſaid Maſters to be preſent as aforeſaid) ſhall have, and hereby have Power and Authority from time to time, to make and appoint a Common Seal for the uſe of the ſaid Corporation, and to make and ordain By-laws, Rules, and Ordinances, for and concerning the better Spinning, Working, Making, Fulling and Milling of Woollen Cloth, as in their Judgments and Diſcretions may tend to the good, Credit and Advancement of the ſaid Trade and Manufacture, (the ſame not being contrary to Law) which By-laws, Rules and Ordinances, being Ratified and Confirmed by the juſtices of Aſſize to be holden for the County of York, ſhall be Publiſhed Four times in the year at the leaſt, at Four publique meetings or Courts, (viz) Upon the firſt Saturday in June, the firſt Saturday, in September, the firſt Saturday, in December, and the firſt Saturday in March; and ſhall be obeyed and kept by the ſeveral perſons within and under the ſaid Regulation or Corporation. And the ſaid Courts conſtituted as aforeſaid ſhall have, and hereby have power to impoſe a Fine and Penalty upon any perſon or perſons of the ſaid Corporation or Regulation being a Clothier, that ſhall not conform to ſuch Rules, Orders and Ordinances, ſo made as aforeſaid.

Penalty for not conforming to By-laws.

Provided, That the ſaid Fine or Penalty of any perſon for not conforming as aforeſaid, exceed not the ſum of Twenty ſhillings for one offence; the full moyety, or one half of the ſaid Fines and Penalties to go to the uſe of the ſaid Corporation, and the other half or moyetie to the uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch perſon ſo offending may be dwelling and inhabiting.

Power to appoint ſearchers of cloth.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices, Maſters, Wardens, and Aſſiſtants, or any Thirteen of them, ſhall have power to nominate and chooſe Searchers of Cloth in the ſeveral places of the ſaid Weſt-Riding, who ſhall be ſworn before them, or any thirteen of them in manner aforeſaid, for the true ſearching of Cloth, that it be of a due weight, length and breadth, according to the Statute.

The new Drapery moſt in uſe.

CAP. XXXIII.

For preventing Abuſes in Printing Seditious, Treaſonable, and Vnlicenſed Books and Pamphlets; and for Regulating of Printing and Printing-Preſſes.

Whereas the well government and Regulating of Printers and Printing-Preſſes, is matter of Publick care, and of great Concernment; eſpecially conſidering, that by the general Licentiouſneſs of the late Times, many evil-diſpoſed perſons have been encouraged to Print and Sell Heretical, Schiſmatical, Blaſphemions, Seditious, and Treaſonable Books, Pamphlets, and Papers, and ſtill do continue ſuch their unlawful and exorbitant practice, to the high diſhonour of Almighty God, the Indangering the peace of theſe Kingdoms, and raiſing a diſaffection to his moſt Excellent Majeſty, and His Government: For prevention whereof, no ſurer means can be adviſed, then by reducing and limiting the number of Printing-Preſſes, and by ordering and ſetling the ſaid Art or Myſtery of Printing, by Act of Parliament in manner as herein after is expreſſed.

Regulating of Printing of great Concernment.

The Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Conſent and Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, doth therefore Ordain and Enact, and be it Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall preſum to Print or cauſe to be Printed, either within this Realm of England, or any other His Majeſties Dominions, or in the parts beyond the Seas, any Heretical, Seditious, Schiſmatical, or offenſive Books or Pamphlets, wherein any Doctrine or Opinion ſhall be aſſerted or maintained which is contrary to Chriſtian Faith, or the Doctrine or Diſcipline of the Church of England, or which ſhall or may tend, or be to the ſcandal of Religion, or the Church, or the Government or Governors of the Church, State, or Common-wealth, or of any Corporation, or particular perſon or perſons whatſoever; nor ſhall Import, Publiſh, Sell or diſpoſe any ſuch Book or Books, or Pamphlets, nor ſhall cauſe or procure any ſuch to be Publiſhed or put to Sale, or to be Bound, Stitched, or Sewed together.

Pamphlets and Books prohibited to be printed, publiſhed or ſold.

And be it further Ordained and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no private perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall at any time hereafter Print, or cauſe to be Printed any Book, or Pamphlet whatſoever, unleſs the ſame Book and Pamphlet, together with all and every the Titles, Epiſtles, Prefaces, Proems, Preambles, Introductions, Tables, Dedications, and other matters and things thereunto annexed, be firſt Entred in the Book of the Regiſter of the Company of Stationers of London, Except Acts of Parliament, Proclamations, and ſuch other Books and Papers as ſhall be appointed to be printed by vertue of any Warrant under the Kings Majeſties Sign Manual, or under the hand of one or both of his Majeſties Principal Secretaries of State; and unleſs the ſame Book and pamphlet, and alſo all and every the ſaid Titles, Epiſtles, Prefaces, Proems, Preambles, Introductions, Tables, Dedications, and other matters and things whatſoever thereunto annexed, or therewith to be Imprinted, ſhall be firſt lawfully Licenced and Authorized to be Printed by ſuch perſon and perſons only as ſhall be conſtituted and appointed to Licence the ſame, according to the direction and true meaning of this preſent Act herein after expreſſed, and by no other; (that is to ſay) That all Books concerning the Common Laws of this Realm ſhall be Printed by the ſpecial allowance of the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, the Lords Chief Juſtices, and Lord Chief Baron for the time being, or one or more of them, or by their, or one or more of their appointments And that all Books of Hiſtory concerning the State of this Realm, or other Books concerning any Affairs of State, ſhall be Licenſed by the Principal Secretaries of State for the time being, or one of them, or by their, or one of their appointments; And that all Books to be Imprinted concerning Heraldry, Titles of Honour, and Armes, or otherwiſe concerning the Office of Earl Marſhal, ſhall be Licenced by the Earl Marſhal for the time being, or by his appointment, or in caſe there ſhall not then be an Earl Marſhal, ſhall be Licenced by the Three Kings of Armes, Garter, Clarencieux, and Norroy, or any two of them, whereof Garter, Principal King of Armes to be one; And that al other Books to be Imprinted or Reprinted, whether of Divinity, Phyſick, Philoſophy, or whatſoever other Science or Art, ſhall be firſt Licenced and allowed by the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Lord Biſhop of London for the time being, or one of them, or by their or one of their appointments, or by either one of the Chancellors, or Vice Chancellors of either of the Univerſities of this Realm for the time being; Provided always, that the ſaid Chancellors or Vice-Chancellors of either of the ſaid Univerſities ſhall onely Licence ſuch Books as are to be Imprinted or Reprinted within the limits of the ſaid Univerſities reſpectively, but not in London, or elſewhere, not medling either with Books of Common Laws, or matters of State or Government, nor any Book or Books, the right of Printing whereof doth ſolely and properly belong to any particular perſon or perſons, without his or their Conſent firſt obtained in that behalf.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons within the City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or elſewhere, ſhall erect or cauſe to be erected any Preſs or Printing-Houſe, nor ſhall knowingly, demiſe or let, or willingly ſuffer to be held or uſed any Houſe, Vault, Cellar, or other Room whatſoever, to or by any perſon or perſons for a Printing-Houſe, or place to Print in, unleſs he or they who erect ſuch Preſs, or ſhall ſo knowingly demiſe or let ſuch Houſe, Cellar, Vault or Room, or willingly ſuffer the ſame to be uſed, ſhall firſt give notice to the Maſter or Wardens of the ſaid Company of Stationers for the time being of the erecting of ſuch Preſs, or of ſuch demiſe or ſuffering to work or Print in ſuch Houſe, Vault, Cellar or Room; And that no Joyner Carpenter, or other perſon ſhall make any Printing-Preſs, no Smith ſhall forge any Iron-work for a Printing-Preſs, no Founder ſhall caſt any Letters which may be uſed for printing for any perſon or perſons whatſoever; neither ſhall any perſon or perſons bring, or cauſe to be brought in from any parts beyond the Seas, any Letters Founded or Caſt, nor ſhall buy any ſuch Letters for Printing, Printing-Preſſes, or other Materials belonging unto printing, unleſs he or they reſpectively ſhall firſt acquaint the ſaid Maſter and Wardens of the ſaid Company of Stationers for the time being, or ſome or one of them, for whom the ſame Preſſes, Iron-work or Letters are to be made, forged, caſt, brought or imported, upon pain that every perſon who ſhall erect ſuch Printing-preſs, or ſhall demiſe or let any Houſe or Room, or ſuffer the ſame to be held or uſed, and every perſon who ſhall make any Printing-preſs, or any Iron-work for a Printing-preſs, or ſhall make, import, or buy any Letters for printing, without giving notice as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the ſum of Five pounds, the one Moyety whereof ſhall be to the uſe of our Soveraign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moyety to the uſe of ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Who and how many ſhall be Maſter Printers.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the time to come no man ſhall be admitted to be a Maſter-Printer, until they who are now actually Maſter-Printers ſhall be by death or otherwiſe reduced to the number of Twenty, and from thenceforth the number of Twenty Maſter-Printers ſhall be continued, and no more, beſides the Kings Printers, and the Printers allowed for the Univerſities, to have the uſe and exerciſe of printing of Books at one time, and but four Maſter-Founders of Letters for printing; The which ſaid Maſter-Printers, and Four Maſter-Founders of Letters for printing, ſhall be nominated, appointed and allowed by the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Lord Biſhop of London for the time being; And in caſe of Death of any one of the ſaid Four Maſter-Founders of Letters, or of the ſaid Maſter-Printers, or of forfeiture. or avoidance of any of their places and priviledges to print by vertue of this Act, for any Offence contrary to the ſame, or otherwiſe, That then the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Lord Biſhop of London for the time being, or one of them, ſhall nominate and appoint ſuch other fit perſon or perſons to ſucceed and ſupply the place of ſuch Maſter-Printer or Founder of Letters as ſhall be void by Death, forfeiture or otherwiſe as aforeſaid; And every perſon and perſons which ſhall hereafter be allowed or permitted to have the uſe of a Printing preſs or Printing-Houſe, upon or before ſuch his allowance obtained, ſhall become bound with Sureties to his Majeſty in the Court of Kings-Bench, or before ſome one or more of the Juſtices of Aſſize, or the Juſtices of the Peace at their ſeveral Quarter-Seſſions, in the ſum of Three hundred pounds, not to print, or ſuffer to be printed in his houſe or preſs any Book or Books whatſoever, but ſuch as ſhall from time to time be lawfully Licenſed.

Maſter-Founders of letters for Printing.

Who only may keep above two Printing-Preſſes.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That none of the ſaid Maſter-Printers ſo to be allowed from time to time as aforeſaid, ſhall keep above Two Printing-preſſes at once, unleſſe he hath been Maſter or Upper-Warden of the Company, who are hereby allowed to keep Three Preſſes and no more, unleſs for ſome great and ſpecial occaſion for the Publique he or they have for a time leave of the ſaid Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, or Lord Biſhop of London for the time being, or to have or uſe one or more above the aforeſaid Number, as their Lordſhips, or either of them ſhall think fit.

What number of Apprentices they may retain.

And be it alſo Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Printer or Printers, (Except the Kings Printers) nor Founder or Founders of Letters for printing, ſhall take or retain any more or greater number of Apprentices, then is herein after limited and appointed, (that is to ſay) Every Maſter-Printer, and Maſter-Founder of Letters for printing, that is or hath been Maſter or Upper-Warden of his Company, may have three Apprentices at one time and no more; And every Maſter-Printer, and Maſter-Founder of Letters for printing, that is of the Livery of his Company, may have two Apprentices at one time and no more; And very Maſter Printer, and Maſter Founder of Letters for printing, of the Yeomanry of his Company, may have one Apprentice at one time and no more, neither by Copartnerſhip, binding at the Scriveners, nor any other way whatſoever; Neither ſhall it be lawful for any Maſter Printer or Maſter Founder of Letters, when any Apprentice or Apprentices ſhall run or be put away, to take another Apprentice or other Apprentices in his or their place or places, unleſſe the name or names of him or them ſo gone away, be raſed out of the Hall-Book, and never admitted again.

Journeymen Printers, and Founders of Letters to be imployed.

And becauſe a great part of the ſecret printing in corners hath been cauſed for want of Orderly Imployment for Journeymen Printers, The ſaid ſeveral Maſter Printers, and Maſter Founders of Letters for printing ſo to be allowed as aforeſaid, are hereby required to take ſpecial Care, That all Journeymen Printers, and Journeymen Founders of Letters for printing, who are lawfully free of the ſaid reſpective Myſteries, be ſet on Work, and Imployed in their reſpective Trades; And if any ſuch Journeyman Printer, and Journeyman Founder of Letters, being of honeſt and good behaviour, and able in his Trade, do want Imployment, he ſhall repair to any of the ſaid Maſter Printers, or Maſter Founders of Letters reſpectively for the time being, who thereupon ſhall receive him or them into Work, If ſuch Maſter Printer, or Maſter Founder of Letters have not a Journeyman already, although ſuch Maſter Printer, or Maſter Founder of Letters reſpectively, with his Apprentice or Apprentices be able without the help of the ſaid Journeyman to diſcharge his own Work, upon pain that every Maſter Printer, and Maſter Founder of Letters reſpectively, refuſing to receive ſuch Journeyman repairing to him as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit five pounds, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or Information in any Court of Record, wherein no Eſſoine, Wager at Law, Priviledge or Protection ſhall be admitted; the one Moyety of which forfeiture ſhall go to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other Moyety to the Informer who ſhall ſue for the ſame within ſix moneths next after the ſaid Offence committed; And if any Journeyman, or Journeymen Printers, or Founders of Letters for printing ſhall refuſe Imployment, being offered to him or them by any Maſter Printer, or Maſter Founder of Letters reſpectively, or neglect it when he or they have undertaken it, he or they ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall ſuffer Three moneths Impriſonment at the Leaſt, without Bail or Mainprize, upon Conviction of ſuch his ſaid refuſal or neglect by two Witneſſes, before any one or more Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, who are hereby impowred to hear and examine the ſaid Offence, and to commit the ſaid Offendor and Offendors to the Common Gaol of the County, where he or they ſhall be apprehended: And no

Maſter Printer, or Maſter Founder of Letters for printing, ſhall from henceforth imploy either to work at the Caſe or Preſs, or otherwiſe about his printing, any perſon or perſons then ſuch only as are Engliſh-men and Freemen, or the Sons of Freemen, or Apprentices to the ſaid Trades or Myſteries of Printing, or Founding of Letters for printing reſpectively.

Who may ſearch Houſes and Shops for ſuſpected Books and Papers.

And for the better diſcovering Printing in Corners without Licenſe, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That one or more ot the Meſſengers of his Majeſties Chamber, by Warrant under his Majeſties Sign Manual, or under the Hand of one or more of his Majeſties principal Secretaries of State, or the Maſter and Wardens of the ſaid Company of Stationers, or any one of them, ſhall have power and authority with a Conſtable to take unto them ſuch aſſiſtance as they ſhall think needful, and at what time they ſhall think fit, to ſearch all Houſes and Shops, where they ſhall know, or upon ſome probable reaſon ſuſpect any Books or Papers to be printed, bound or ſtitched, eſpecially Printing-Houſes, Book-ſellers Shops and Warehouſes, and Book-binders Houſes and Shops, and to view there what is imprinting, binding or ſtitching, and to examine whether the ſame be Licenſed, and to demand a ſight of the ſaid Licenſe; and if the ſaid Book ſo imprinting, binding or ſtitching, ſhall not be Licenſed, then to Seize upon ſo much thereof as ſhall be found imprinted, together with the ſeveral Offendors, and to bring them before one or more Juſtices of the Peace, who are hereby authorized and required to commit ſuch Offendors to priſon, there to remain until they ſhall be tried and acquitted, or convicted and puniſhed for the ſaid Offences. And in caſe the ſaid Searchers ſhall upon their ſaid Search, find any Book or Books, or part of Books unlicenſed, which they ſhall ſuſpect to contain matters therein contrary to the Doctrine or Diſcipline of the Church of England, or againſt the State and Government; Then upon ſuch ſuſpition to ſeiſe upon ſuch Book or Books, or part of Book or Books, and to bring the ſame unto the ſaid Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Lord Biſhop of London for the time being, or one of them, or to the Secretaries of State, or one of them reſpectively, who ſhall take ſuch further courſe for the ſuppreſſing thereof, as to them or any of them ſhall ſeem fit.

Offendors againſt this Act how to be puniſhed.

And be it Ordained and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Printer and Printers of Books, Founder and Founders of Letters for printing, and all and every other perſon and perſons working in or for the ſaid Trades, who from and after the Tenth day of June, in the year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, ſhall Offend againſt this preſent Act, or any Article, Clauſe or Thing herein contained, and ſhall be thereof convicted by Verdict, Confeſſion, or otherwiſe, ſhall for the firſt Offence be diſabled from exerciſing his reſpective Trade for the ſpace of three years, and for the ſecond Offence ſhall for ever thenceafter be diſabled to uſe or exerciſe the Art or Myſtery of printing, or of founding Letters for printing, and ſhall alſo have and receive ſuch further puniſhment by Fine, Impriſonment, or other Corporal puniſhment, not extending to Life or Limb, as by the Juſtices of the Court of Kings Bench, or Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, or Juſtices of Aſſize in their ſeveral Circuits, or Juſtices of the Peace in their ſeveral Quarter-Seſſions ſhall be thought fit to be inflicted. The which ſaid Juſtices of the Peace in their ſeveral Quarter Seſſions ſhall have full power and authority to hear and determine all and every Offence and Offences that ſhall be committed againſt this Act, or againſt any branch thereof, upon Indictment or Information by any perſon or perſons to be taken before them in their Seſſions of Peace reſpectively, and ſhall yearly certifie into the Court of Exchequer, as in other like Caſes they are bound to do, the Fines by them impoſed for any of the Offences aforeſaid, and ſhall and may alſo by vertue hereof award proceſſe, and execution for the taking or puniſhing ſuch Offendors as in any other Caſe they lawfully may do by any the Laws and Statutes of this Realm.

Printed Copies to be ſent to his Majeſties Library and the two Univerſities.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Printer ſhall reſerve three printed Copies of the beſt and largeſt paper of every Book new printed, or reprinted by him with Additions; and ſhall before any publick Vending of the ſaid Book bring them to the Maſter of the Company of Stationers, and deliver them to him: one whereof ſhall be delivered to the Keeper of his Majeſties Library, and the other two to be ſent to the Vice-Chancellors of the two Univerſities reſpectively, for the uſe of the publick Libraries of the ſaid Univerſities.

Proviſo for the priviledges of the two Univerſities.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall be conſtrued to extend to the prejudice or infringing of any the juſt Rights and Priviledges of either of the two Univerſities of this Realm, touching and concerning the Licenſing or printing of Books in either of the ſaid Univerſities.

Peers Houſes.

Provided alwayes, That no Search ſhall be at any time made in the Houſe or Houſes of any the Peers of this Realm, or of any other perſon or perſons not being free of, or uſing any of the Trades in this Act before mentioned, but by ſpecial Warrant from the Kings Majeſty, under His Sign Manual, or under the Hand of one or both of His Majeſties principal Secretaries of State, or for any other Books then ſuch as are in printing, or ſhall be printed after the Tenth of June, 1662. Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for Book-ſellers and Stationers London.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to prohibit any Book-ſeller, who hath ſerved ſeven years, and is free of the Company of Stationers London, from importing or bringing into this Realm any Books ready bound not formerly prohibited, which have been printed ten years before the ſaid Importation; Any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons ſelling Books in Weſtminſter-Hall.

Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall be conſtrued to prohibit any perſon or perſons to Sell Books or Papers, who have ſold Books and Papers within Weſtminſter-Hall, the Palace of Weſtminſter, or in any Shop or Shops within Twenty yards of the great Gate of Weſtminſter-Hall aforeſaid, before the Twentieth day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one; but they and every of them may ſell Books and Papers, as they have or did before the ſaid Twentieth day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty one, within the ſaid Hall, Palace, and Twenty yards aforeſaid, but not elſewhere; Any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the rights and priviledges of Printing granted to any perſons by the King.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained ſhall extend to prejudice the juſt Rights and Priviledges granted by His Majeſty, or any of His Royal Predeceſſors to any perſon or perſons under His Majeſties Great Seal, or otherwiſe, but that ſuch perſon or perſons may exerciſe and uſe ſuch Rights and Priviledges as aforeſaid, according to their reſpective Grants; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for John Streater Stationer.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained ſhall extend to prohibit John Streater Stationer from printing Books and Papers, but that he may ſtill follow the Art and Myſtery of Printing, as if this Act had never been made; Any thing therein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the City of York.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to reſtrain the keeping and uſing of a Printing-preſs in the City of York; ſo as all Books of Divinity there printed, be firſt Licenſed by the Archbiſhop of York for the time being, or ſuch perſon or perſons whom he ſhall appoint, and all other Books whatſoever there printed, be firſt Licenſed by ſuch perſons reſpectively to whom the Licenſing thereof doth or ſhall appertain by the Rules herein before mentioned, and ſo as no Bibles be there printed, nor any other Book, whereof the Original Copy is or ſhall be belonging to the Company of Stationers in London, or any Member thereof; and ſo as the Archbiſhop or Lord Mayor of York for the time being, do execute within the ſaid City (which they are hereby impowred to do) all the Powers and Rules in this Act concerning Searchers for unlicenſed Books, and impoſe and levy the ſaid penalties in the like caſes; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force for two years, to commence from the Tenth of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, and no longer. Continued 16 Car. 2. cap. 8.

CAP. I.

For Repairing the High-Ways within the Counties of Hertford, Cambridge and Huntington.

The High-way from London to York and Scotland, Hertford, Cambridge, Huntington.

WHereas the ancient High-way and Poſt-Road leading from London to York, and ſo into Scotland, and likewiſe from London into Lincolnſhire, lieth for many miles in the Counties of Hertford, Cambridge and Huntington, in many of which places, the Road, by reaſon of the great and many Loads which are weekly drawn in Waggons through the ſaid places, as well by reaſon of the great Trade of Barley and Malt that cometh to Ware, and ſo is conveyed by Water to the City of London, as other Carriages both from the North parts, as alſo from the City of Norwich, Saint Edmunds-bury, and the Town of Cambridge to London, is very ruinous, and become almoſt impaſſable, inſomuch that it is become very dangerous to all His Majeſties Liege people that paſs that way; And for that the ordinary courſe appointed by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm is not ſufficient for the effectual repairing and amending of the ſame, neither are the Inhabitants through which the ſaid Road doth lie, of ability to Repair the ſame, without ſome other proviſion of Moneys to be raiſed towards the putting the ſame into good and ſufficient Repair: For remedy whereof, and to the intent the ſaid High-ways, at or in the Counties aforeſaid, may be forthwith effectually repaired and amended, and from time to time hereafter kept in good repair; May it pleaſe your Majeſty, that it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That for the Surveying, Ordering, Repairing, and Keeping in Repair of the ſaid High-way in the Counties aforeſaid, Four Juſtices of the Peace for each of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties dwelling next to the ſaid High-ways reſpectively, or any two of them, for the year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty three, and until the Quarter-Seſſions then next enſuing; and from thenceforth the Juſtices of Peace at the Seſſions to be holden next after Eaſter every year, for the ſaid reſpective Counties, from time to time ſhall and are hereby impowred to nominate and appoint Nine ſufficient and able perſons reſiding and inhabiting within the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, to be Surveyors of the ſeveral places in the ſaid High-way for the year from thence next enſuing: The Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Hertford, to appoint Surveyors for the High-way lying in the ſaid ſeveral Towns and Pariſhes of the ſaid County; and the Juſtices of the Peace in the County of Cambridge to appoiut Surveyors for the ſeveral Towns and Pariſhes within their ſaid County of Canbridge; And the Juſtices of Peace for the County of Huntington to appoint Surveyors for the ſeveral Towns and Pariſhes of the ſaid County: And that the ſaid Juſtices or Surveyors aforeſaid ſhall not act or do any thing towards the Repairs of the ſaid High-ways, but in their own ſeveral and reſpective Counties; And that the ſaid Juſtices in their ſeveral Counties ſhall cauſe notice to be given to the ſeveral Surveyors ſo choſen, in writing, of their ſaid choice; which ſaid Surveyors and every of them having no lawful impediment to be allowed by the ſaid Juſtices by whom they ſhall be choſen in manner as aforeſaid, within one week next after ſuch notice to them given of their Election, ſhall, and are hereby required to meet and aſſemble themſelves together, (that is to ſay) the Surveyors

Hertford.
Cambridge.
Huntington.

The power of the Surveyors in the ſaid ſeveral Counties.

To appoint Receivers and Collectors of Toll and other needful Officers.

Charging of Carts and Carriages.

Surveyors for the County of Hertford, in ſome convenient place within the County of Hertford; And the Surveyors choſen for the County of Cambridge, in ſome convenient place within their County; and the Surveyors choſen for the County of Huntington, in ſome convenient place within their ſaid County, to be appointed by the ſeveral Juſtices of the ſaid Counties, at their ſeveral Quarter-Seſſions, to the intent to view and Survey the ſaid High-way and places aforeſaid, and ſhall conſider what Reparations ſhall be needful for Repairing of the ſeveral High-ways and places aforeſaid; and the ſaid ſeveral Surveyors in their reſpective Counties ſhall provide Stones, Gravel, and other materials and neceſſaries to be uſed for and towards the Repairing and Amending the ſaid High-way at the places aforeſaid; And the ſaid Surveyors, or three, or more of them in their reſpective Counties being ſo met and aſſembled, are hereby authorized to appoint a Receiver or Collector of Toll, and ſuch other Officer and Officers as they ſhall find neceſſary in their reſpective Counties for carrying on the ſaid Work (with ſuch moderate allowance as ſhall be thought fit) to be appoved of by any two or more Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid reſpective County for which ſuch Officer is ſo choſen, living near to the ſaid High-way or places aforeſaid, or otherwiſe to be removed, and other fit perſon or perſons to be choſen in his or their places by the ſaid Juſtices in the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties. And for the better effecting thereof, Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Surveyors, or any three or more of them in their ſeveral Counties, ſhall from time to time, as they ſhall ſee cauſe, appoint and require all and every perſon and perſons inhabiting within three miles of the places aforeſaid, being within their ſeveral and reſpective Counties, who by any Law or Statute of this Realm now in force is or are chargeable to find any Wayn, or Cart for the amending of the High-wayes, and every other perſon and perſons chargeable to labour in the High-wayes upon reaſonable notice, to ſend his or their Cart, or Wain, and Team, or to come to labour in the ſaid High-way at any the places aforeſaid within their reſpective Counties, ſo furniſhed as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm is directed for the amending of other High-wayes, when and ſo often as ths ſaid Surveyors for their ſaid ſeveral Counties, or any three or more of them ſhall think needful and appoint; for which the ſaid Surveyors ſhall pay unto ſuch Labourers, and to the Owners of ſuch Teams, Carts and Wayns, according to the uſual Rate of the Country. And in caſe any perſon ſo charged to ſend his, her or their Team to work as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect ſo to do, ſuch perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſhall forfeit Ten ſhillings for every day that he or they ſhall make ſuch default; and every Labourer Eighteen pence for every day he ſhall neglect or refuſe to work as aforeſaid.

III.

Allowance of Wages to Labourers and Owners.

The Penalty for refuſing.

How far and often Carts and carriages may be charged.

Who may Determin differences about carriages and Labourers Wages.

Provided, That no perſon or perſons by vertue of this Act be compelled or compellable to labour, or to ſend his or their Team, Cart or Waggon for the mending of the ſaid High-way, to any of the ſaid places being above Three miles diſtant from his Dwelling houſe, or not in the ſame County, nor to labour or ſend his or their Team, Cart or Waggon, for amending of the ſaid High-way above Three days in any one week, nor at any time in Seed-time, Hay or Corn-harveſt: And in caſe that any queſtion ſhall happen to ariſe touching the hire to be given by the ſaid Surveyors for ſuch Team, Cart or Waggon, or concerning the wages of ſuch Labourers imployed in mending the ſaid High-ways, That then the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace in the County where ſuch difference ariſeth, or any Two or more of them, ſhall and may determine and ſet down what hire for ſuch Team, Cart or Waggon, and alſo what wages to ſuch Labourer ſhall be paid or allowed by the ſaid Surveyors, and ſuch Order in that behalf to be made ſhall conclude all parties.

How gravel, Chalk, Stones, &c. may be taken.

IV.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where there is not ſufficient Gravel, Chalk, Sand or Stones within any Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet, wherein the ſaid High-way, or places aforeſaid, or any of them do lie, to repair the ſaid High-way at any of the places aforeſaid, It ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Surveyors in their ſeveral and reſpective Counties, or any three or more of them, and ſuch perſon and perſons as they ſhall appoint, to dig, take, and carry away Gravel, Chalk, Sand or Stones out of the Waſte or Common of any neighbouring Pariſh, Town, Village or Hamlet (without paying any thing for the ſame) for the repairing or amending of the ſaid High-way at any the places aforeſaid; or where there is not ſufficient of ſuch materials in any Common or Waſte Ground thereunto near adjoyning, to dig in the ſeveral Grounds of any perſon or perſons, not being an Houſe, Garden, Orchard, Yard or Park ſtored with Deer, being within any Pariſh chargeable towards the repairs of the ſaid High-way and places ſo to be repaired, where any ſuch materials are or may be found: And from time to time to carry away ſuch and ſo much thereof as the ſaid Surveyors, or any three or more of them in their reſpective Counties ſhall adjudge neceſſary for the ſaid Reparations, without paying any thing for ſuch materials, ſaving only ſuch reaſonable ſatisfaction to the Owner or Occupier of the Ground where the ſame ſhall be ſo digged and carried away, as for the Damage he or they ſhall thereby ſuſtain, to be aſſeſſed and adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices of the County where the ſame is digged, at the next, or any other Quarter-Seſſions for the ſaid County, in caſe of difference concerning the ſame; And that the Pits and places where, and from whence ſuch materials ſhall be digg and carried away for the Reparations aforeſaid, ſhall with all convenient ſpeed (to be adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices of Peace as aforeſaid) be filled up, and levelled with earth, or other materials, or elſe railed about, ſo as that the ſame may not be deemed dangerous or prejudicial to Man or Beaſt. And for the defraying of the charge of ſuch Reparations to be done in the places aforeſaid;

Be it further Enacted, That from and after the choice of the Surveyors aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Surveyors for the time being, with ſuch conſent and approbation as is aforeſaid, of the ſaid Juſtices of the ſeveral Counties, within their own Counties, and not elſewhere, to chooſe and appoint one or more fit perſon or perſons to receive or take ſuch Sum or Sums of Money in the name of Toll or Cuſtom to be paid for all ſuch Horſes, Carts, Coaches, Waggons, Droves and Gangs of Cattel as in time to come ſhall paſſe, be led, or droven in or through the ſaid way or places aforeſaid, as are hereafter by this Act limited, (that is to ſay) for every Horſe one penny, for every Coach ſix pence, for every Waggon one ſhilling, for every Cart eight pence, for every ſcore of Sheep or Lambs one half-peny, and ſo proportionably for greater numbers: For every ſcore of Oxen, or Neat Cattel five pence, and ſo for every greater or leſſer number proportionably: For every ſcore of Hoggs two pence, and ſo for every greater or leſſer number proportionably, not being under five. And that from and after the paſſing of this Act, all and every perſon or perſons who ſhall travel with Horſe, Coach, Cart or Waggon, or ſhall lead or drive any Oxen, Sheep, Horſes, or other Cattel afore-mentioned, in and through the High-way and places aforeſaid, ſhall and are hereby required to pay unto the reſpective Collectors and Receivers of Toll in the ſeveral Counties aforeſaid in that behalf to be appointed, after the Rates aforeſaid:

Places for taking of Toll in Hertfordſhire, Cambridgeſhire, Huntingtonſhire.

The places for Collecting the ſaid Toll to be, for the County of Hertford, at Wades-Mill; and for the County of Cambridge, at Caxton within the ſaid County of Cambridge; and for the County of Huntington, at Stilton in the ſaid County of Huntington, and at no other place or places within the ſaid Counties:

Power to diſtrain for Toll refuſed to be paid.

And in caſe any perſon or perſons upon demand made of Toll aforeſaid by the Collector or Receiver in that behalf to be appointed, ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay the ſame, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Collector or Receiver appointed for the Receipt of the ſaid Toll, upon ſuch refuſal, to Diſtrain and detain ſuch Horſe, Cart, Coach, Waggon, Oxen, or other Cattel aforementioned, or any of them, untill the ſaid Toll ſhall be ſatisfied and paid according to the tenor of this preſent Act, together with ſuch damages as the party ſo diſtraining ſhall ſuſtain by keeping of ſuch Diſtreſſe:

V.

The Toll received to be accompted for and paid to the Surveyors.

Of all which Money ſo to be received, the ſaid Collector or Receiver of Toll ſo to be appointed in the ſeveral Counties, ſhall from time to time render true Accounts, and ſhall pay the money ſo by them received, unto the ſaid Surveyors of their ſeveral and reſpective Counties, or to any three or more of them, or unto ſuch Treaſurers as they ſhall appoint, when, and as often as they ſhall be thereunto required by the ſaid Surveyors, or any three or more of them, by them to be laid out and expended for and towards the neceſſary Repairs, and amending of the ſeveral places aforementioned, and not elſewhere within their ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties.

To whom the ſaid Surveyors ſhall accompt for moneys received.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Surveyors, and every of them in their ſeveral and reſpective Counties, at the Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace for the ſaid County, to be holden next after Eaſter in every year, ſhall make and yield up unto the Juſtices of the Peace there to be aſſembled, a perfect Account in writing under their Hands, of all the money which they or any of them have received from the ſaid Collector or Receiver of Toll in their ſaid County, and likewiſe of all their Diſburſements in and about the ſaid High-way, or otherwiſe by reaſon of their Offices; And in caſe of any overplus of money ſo received, remaining in their Hands, ſhall pay the ſame to the Surveyors to be choſen for the year enſuing, or to the Treaſurer or Receiver by them to be appointed, to be diſburſed and laid out in the ſeveral places aforeſaid, within ſuch County wherein the overplus doth remain, and not elſewhere, in the year enſuing; which ſaid Juſtices to whom ſuch Account ſhall be given, ſhall out of the benefit of the ſaid Toll, make ſuch allowance unto the ſaid Surveyors, for and in conſideration of their care and pains taken in the execution of their ſaid Offices as to them ſhall ſeem good: And in caſe the Collector or Receiver of the aforeſaid Toll for the reſpective Counties ſo to be paid as aforeſaid, ſhall not upon requeſt duly pay the ſame unto the ſaid Surveyors of the ſaid County for the time being, or the Treaſurer or Receiver by them appointed; or in caſe the ſaid Surveyors, or any of them ſhall not make ſuch Account and Payment as aforeſaid, That then the ſaid Juſtices for the ſeveral and reſpective Counties, at any Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace to be holden for the ſaid County, in caſe of ſuch default of Account or Payment, ſhall and may make enquiry concerning ſuch default, as well by the confeſſion of the parties themſelves, as by teſtimony of two, or more credible Witneſſes upon Oath; and in caſe of ſuch default to be found and adjudged by the ſaid Juſtices, in their ſaid reſpective Counties, either in their ſaid Receiver or Collector of the ſaid Toll, or in their ſaid Surveyors, or any of them; The ſaid Juſtices upon ſuch their Conviction, ſhall commit the party or parties ſo convict, to the common Goal for the ſaid County, there to remain without Bail or Mainprize, until he or they ſhall have made a true and perfect Account and Payment as aforeſaid.

VI.

How the Toll profits may be engaged for advance of Money.

And foraſmuch as the Moneys ſo to be Collected by ſuch receipt of the ſaid Toll, will not at preſent raiſe ſuch a Stock or Sum of Money as may be ſufficient for the ſpeedy Repairing of the Premiſſes in the ſaid ſeveral Counties of Hertford, Cambridge and Huntington, It is hereby further Enacted, and the ſaid Surveyors are hereby enabled by and with the like conſent of the ſaid Juſtices, for their ſeveral and reſpective Counties, without further Licenſe, ſeverally to engage the profits ariſing of their ſaid Toll in their ſeveral Counties, for ſuch ſum or ſums of Money by them to be borrowed for that purpoſe, and by Indenture under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid reſpective Surveyors for the time being, to transfer the ſaid profits of the ſaid Toll, and to grant and convey the ſame for any time or term, not exceeding Nine years, unto any perſon or perſons that ſhall or will upon that Security advance any preſent ſum or ſums of Money for and towards the preſent Repairing and Amending of the ſaid High-way in the reſpective places and Counties aforeſaid, for the repayment of ſuch principal ſum or ſums of Money ſo lent with Intereſt for the ſame: Or in caſe ſuch ſum or ſums of Money cannot be borrowed upon the Security aforeſaid, for the Repair of the ſaid Wayes, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Juſtices in their ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, at their ſeveral Quarter-Seſſions, when they ſhall ſee cauſe, to make a Rate not to extend to any other County but their own, nor to Repair any other then the places aforeſaid, in that particular County where ſuch Rate is made, whereby they ſhall have power for their ſeveral Counties to raiſe upon the Pariſhes that lie in or near the ſaid Road (and ſo will have a benefit therefrom) ſuch ſum or ſums of Money as they ſhall ſee fit and convenient for the ſpeedy effecting of the ſaid Repairs before mentioned; which ſaid Sum and Sums ſo to be rated as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid to the Surveyors for the reſpective County where ſuch Rate is made, or to their Receiver or Collector, to be imployed for the repairing of the ſaid Wayes and places afore-mentioned, and not otherwiſe: And in caſe any perſon ſhall refuſe to pay ſuch Rate ſo to be made, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Surveyors, or their ſaid Receivers and Collectors to diſtrain for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money, and the Diſtreſſe to ſell, rendring the Overplus to the Owners.

In what caſes a Rate may be made upon the ſeveral Pariſhes.

Provided alwayes, and it is Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Money ſo advanced by the ſaid ſeveral Towns in the ſaid reſpective Counties, ſhall again be repayed with Intereſt by the ſeveral Surveyors for the ſeveral Counties, as it doth ariſe out of the ſaid Toll, every County paying for what is ſo borrowed within its own County, and no further.

VII.

The Penalty for refuſing to take the Office of Surveyor.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons not having any lawful cauſe to be allowed as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect or refuſe to take upon him or them the ſaid Office of Surveyor, being thereunto nominated and choſen according as by this Act is appointed, or to do or perform his or their duty in the due and ſpeedy execution of this preſent Act, the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace for the ſeveral and reſpective Counties where ſuch Surveyor or Surveyors dwell, at their Quarter-Seſſions ſhall and may hereby have power to impoſe on ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting, ſuch Fine or Fines (not exceeding Ten pounds upon each perſon ſo refuſing or neglecting) as to them ſhall ſeem meet, and to cauſe the ſame to be levied by Diſtreſſe and Sale of their Goods, rendring to the party ſo diſtrained the Overplus, if any ſhall be.

Fines and Forfeitures upon this Act, how to be paid and diſpoſed.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fines and Forfeitures to be impoſed or incurred by vertue of this Act, ſhall be paid to the Surveyors for the time being, or any three of them, or the Treaſurers of the ſaid Surveyors for the ſaid reſpective Counties, for and towards the repairing of the ſaid High-wayes, and places aforeſaid: And in caſe of refuſal, or if any perſon or perſons ſo choſen to take upon him or them the ſaid Office, ſhall happen to die, or ſhall for any lawful Impediment be diſcharged from the ſaid Office, that then ſome other fit perſon or perſons within that County ſhall be appointed by two or more Juſtices in the ſaid County, living near the ſaid High-way and places aforeſaid, in the place of him or them that ſhall ſo refuſe, die, or be diſcharged; and the perſon or perſons ſo choſen, ſhall and are hereby required upon notice thereof to him or them given under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Juſtices by whom he or they ſhall be ſo choſen, to take upon him or them the ſaid Office of Surveyor, and to execute the ſame in ſuch manner, and under ſuch and the like penalties, as if he or they had been choſen by the Juſtices at their Seſſions of the Peace in manner as aforeſaid.

Suits upon this Act ſhall be laid in the proper County.

And the Defendant may plead the general Iſſue.

VIII.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Suit ſhall be commenced againſt any perſon for any thing done in purſuance of this preſent Act, That in every ſuch caſe the Action ſhall be laid in the ſaid reſpective Counties where the Cauſe doth ariſe, and not elſewhere; and the Defendant in ſuch Action ſo to be brought, may plead the general Iſſue, and give this Act, and the ſpecial matter in evidence at any Tryal to be had thereupon, and that the ſame was done in purſuance, and by Authority of the ſaid Act: And if it ſhall ſo appear to be done, and that ſuch Action ſhall be brought in any other County, That then the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant; and upon ſuch Verdict, or if the Plaintiff ſhall be non-ſuited, or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant ſhall have appeared, or if upon Demurrer, Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Plaintiff, the Defendant ſhall have and recover his double Coſts, and have the like remedy for the ſame, as any Defendant hath in any other caſe by Law.

Double Coſts.

Provided always, That no perſon or perſons having occaſion to paſſe any place where the Toll is taken, and return the ſame day with the ſame Horſe, Coach, Waggon, or other Carriage, or with Cattel, ſhall be compelled in the ſame day to pay the ſaid Toll a ſecond time; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Toll not to be paid twice in the ſame day.

Provided alſo, That all and every perſon and perſons who by Law are chargeable towards the repairing of the ſaid High-wayes and places aforeſaid, ſhall remain ſo chargeable; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to any further time, or be of force any longer then the term of Eleven years, to be accounted from the paſſing of this Act; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The continuance of this Act for 11. years only.

Provided alwayes, That all and every perſon and perſons paſſing through the reſpective places appointed for the receiving of Toll as aforeſaid, (viz.) at Wades-Mill for the County of at Hertford, at Caxton for the County of Cambridge, and at Stilton for the County of Huntington; and coming immediately and primarily to, and from the ſeveral Pariſhes of Standen, Thundridge, Ware and Bendego, adjacent to Wades-Mill in the ſaid County of Hertford and Stowe, great Papworth, little Papworth, Borne and Elſley adjacent to Caxton in the ſaid County of Cambridge and Yaxley, Waſhingley, Glatton, Cunington, Waddon and Stibbington, adjacent to Stilton in the ſaid County of Huntington, ſhall have a liberty to carry any quantity or quantities of Stones, Sand, Lime or Gravel, Dung, Mould, and Compoſt of any nature or kind whatſoever, Brick, Chalk or Wood: And that they, and all Carts with Hay, or Corn in the Straw, at Hay-time or Harveſt, Ploughs, Harrows, and other Implements of Husbandry, and all other things whatſoever imployed in the Husbanding, Stocking and Manuring of their ſeveral and reſpective Lands in the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Pariſhes, ſhall paſs to and fro through the ſaid reſpective places where ſuch Toll is to be received as aforeſaid, without paying any thing for their reſpective paſſing through the ſame; Any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo touching money received overplus and remaining at the end of 11. years.

IX. Provided alſo, And be it Enacted, That if it ſhall happen that at the end and expiration of the term of the Eleven years aforeſaid, that the Receiver or Receivers, Collector or Collectors then in being, or any of them, of the aforeſaid Tolls, or any part thereof, in all and every of the ſaid Counties, made and to be made, ſhall upon their or any of their accounts, made and to be made for the ſeveral and reſpective Receipts of the Tolls aforeſaid, have any ſum or ſums of money in their or any of their hands, more then they or any of them have expended as aforeſaid, That then ſuch Receiver and Receivers, Collector and Collectors, and every of them, ſhall bring in all and every ſum and ſums of money ſo remaining in their or any of their hands, unto the Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, where ſuch Receiver or Receivers, Collector or Collectors ſhall live, or have received the ſaid ſeveral ſum or ſums, at the next General Quarter-Seſſions for the Peace which ſhall happen to be after their ſaid ſeveral Accounts ſo to be made as aforeſaid, upon pain of forfeiting double the Sum which ſhall be in their or any of their hands upon the ſaid Account; which ſaid Sum and Penalties ſhall be recovered by diſtreſs and ſale of the Parties Goods ſo refuſing to do the ſame, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of any two Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid ſeveral Counties; And that the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace at their ſaid ſeveral Quarter-Seſſions in their ſeveral Counties, are hereby impowred and enabled to diſpoſe of the ſaid ſeveral ſum and ſums of money, and all the ſaid Penalties into the hands of ſuch perſon and perſons, and upon ſuch Securities as they ſhall approve of, to and for a Stock for the repairing of the ſaid ſeveral High-ways, according to the intent and meaning of this Act, and not otherwiſe.

Huntington. Stilton.

Provided alſo, And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Huntington, or any four of them dwelling next to the ſaid High Road, ſhall adjudge ſome other place more convenient then Stilton for receiving the Toll for the ſaid County, That then it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices of Peace as aforeſaid, to appoint ſome other place upon the High Road within their ſaid County, to receive the aforeſaid Toll inſtead of Stilton; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Souldiers in Marching, and Poſts exempted.

And that it ſhall and may be lawful for all and every Souldier and Souldiers upon their March, and all perſons riding Poſt, to paſs through any the places in this Act mentioned, without paying any Toll.

Proviſo, for ceaſing the Toll within the 11 years.

Provided alſo, That if at any time before the expiration of the Eleven years aforeſaid, the ſaid High-wayes ſhall be well and ſufficiently amended and repaired, and ſo adjudged by the Juſtices of the Peace at the Quarter-Seſſions for their ſeveral and reſpective Counties aforeſaid, That then from and after ſuch Adjudication made, and Re-payment of ſuch Moneys as ſhall have been borrowed, the aforeſaid Toll in the ſaid County ſhall ceaſe and determine; Any thing aforeſaid to the contrary notwithſtanding. CAP. II.

Unlawful Cutting or Stealing, or Spoiling of Wood and Under-woods and Deſtroyers of young Timber-Trees, puniſhed.

43 El. cap. 7.

The puniſhment for cutting and ſpoyling any Woods.

WHereas in one Act of Parliament made in the Three and fortieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, Entituled, An Act to avoid and prevent divers miſdemeanors in idle and lewd perſons, among other things it is Enacted, That all and every ſuch lewd perſon and perſons that ſhall cut or ſpoil any Woods or Under-woods, Poles or Trees ſtanding, and their Procurer or Procurers, Receiver or Receivers knowing the ſame, and being thereof lawfully Convicted by his or their own Confeſſion, or by the Teſtimony of one ſufficient Witneſſe, upon Oath before ſome one Juſtice of Peace, or other Head-Officer of the County or Place where ſuch Offence was committed, ſhall give the party or parties ſatisfaction for his or their Damages for the firſt fault: And if ſuch Offendor or Offendors ſhall by ſuch Juſtice of Peace or Head Officer be thought not able or ſufficient, or if ſuch Offendor or Offendors do not make ſuch ſatisfaction as aforeſaid, That then the ſaid Juſtice of Peace or Head-Officer ſhall commit the ſaid Offendor or Offendors to the Conſtable, or other inferior Officer, to receive the puniſhment of Whipping, as in the ſaid Act more fully doth appear.

And whereas it is found by daily experience, eſpecially in and about London, and other great Towns where a great number of ſuch idle and lewd perſons do ſhelter themſelves, that this Act hath not ſufficiently prevented the ſaid miſchief of cutting and ſpoiling of Woods and Underwoods, as was intended, as well becauſe the ſaid Offences are committed in ſuch a cloſe and clandeſtine manner, that there is none Witneſſes to them, but ſuch as are partakers to the Offence; as alſo becauſe the ſaid puniſhment is too ſmall for ſo great a fault, which is not only prejudicial and hurtful to the Owners of the ſaid Woods, but very miſchievous and damageable to the Common-wealth: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the Four and twentieth day of June next enſuing, every Conſtable, Headborough, or any other perſon in every County, City, Town corporate, or other place where they ſhall be Officers or Inhabitants, ſhall and may by vertue of this preſent Act have full Power and Authority to apprehend, or cauſe to be apprehended all and and every perſon or perſons they ſhall ſuſpect having, or carrying or any wayes conveying any burthen or bundles of any kind of Wood, Under-wood, Poles, or young Trees, or Bark, or Baſt of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails or Hedgewood, Broom or Furze; and by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of any one Juſtice of the Peace directed to any Officer, ſuch Officer ſhall have power to enter into, and ſearch the Houſes, Out-houſes, Yards, Gardens, or other places belonging to the Houſes of all and every perſon or perſons they ſhall ſuſpect to have any kind of Wood, Underwoods, Poles, or young Trees or Bark, or Baſt of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails, or Hedgewood, Broom or Furze; and whereſoever they find any ſuch, to apprehend, and cauſe to be apprehended all and every perſon and perſons ſuſpected for the cutting and taking of the ſame, and them, and every of them, as well thoſe apprehended carrying, or any ways conveying any kind of Wood, Under-wood, Poles, or young Trees, or Bark, or Baſt of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails, or Hedgewood, Broom or Furze; as alſo thoſe in whoſe Houſes or other places belonging to them, any ſuch Wood, Under-wood, Poles, or young Trees, or Bark, or Baſt of any Trees, or any Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails or Hedgwood, Broom or Furze, ſhall be found, to carry before one Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County, City, or Town-corporate; And it the ſaid perſon and perſons ſo ſuſpected, apprehended, and carried before the ſaid Juſtices, do not then and there give a good account how he and they came by ſuch Wood or Under-wood, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Baſt of any Trees, or Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, by the conſent of the Owner, ſuch as ſhall ſatisfie the ſaid Juſtice, or elſe ſhall not within ſome convenient time to be ſet them by the ſaid Juſtice, produce the party or parties of whom they bought the ſame Wood, Under-wood, Poles, or young Trees, or Bark, or Baſt of Trees, Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze, or ſome other credible Witneſs to depoſe upon Oath ſuch ſale of the ſaid Wood, Under-wood, Poles or young Trees, or Bark or Baſt of Trees, Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails or Hedgewood, Broom or Furze, (which Oath the ſaid Juſtice hath hereby power to adminiſter) That then the ſaid perſon or perſons ſo ſuſpected, and not giving ſuch good account, nor producing any ſuch witneſs upon Oath to teſtifie the ſaid Sale as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed and adjudged as convicted of the ſaid Offence of cutting and ſpoiling of the ſame Woods, Underwoods, Poles, or young Trees, or Bark or Baſt of Trees, Gates, Stiles, Poſts, Pales, Rails or Hedge-wood, Broom or Furze within the meaning of the ſaid Statute of Queen Elizabeth, and ſhall be liable to the puniſhment therein contained, and to ſuch other proceedings and puniſhments as by this preſent Act ſhall be further conſtituted and appointed on that behalf.

II. Search in Houſes of ſuſpected perſons.

43 Eliz cap 7.

III. The puniſhment for the firſt offence.

And be it therefore Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon or perſons convicted of the ſaid Offence in manner and form before in this Act mentioned, ſhall for the firſt Offence give the Owner or Owners ſuch Recompence or Satisfaction for his or their Damages, and within ſuch time as the ſaid Juſtice ſhall appoint, and over and above pay down preſently unto the Overſeers, for the uſe of the poor of the Pariſh where the ſaid Offence or Offences were committed, ſuch ſum of money (not exceeding Ten ſhillings) as the ſaid Juſtices ſhall think meet; and if ſuch Offendor or Offendors do not make Recompence or Satisfaction to the ſaid Owner or Owners, and alſo pay the ſaid ſum to the Poor in manner and form aforeſaid, then the ſaid Juſtice ſhall commit the ſaid Offendor or Offendors to the Houſe of Correction for ſuch time as the ſaid Juſtice ſhall think fit, not exceeding one moneth, or to be whipped by the Conſtable, or other Officer, as in his Judgment ſhall ſeem expedient: And if ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall again commit the ſaid Offence, and be thereof convicted as before, that then they and every of them ſo offending the ſecond time, and thereof ſo convicted, ſhall be ſent to the Houſe of Correction for one moneth, and be there kept to hard labour. And if ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall again commit the ſaid Offence, and be thereof convicted as before, That then they and every of them ſo offending the third time, and thereof ſo convicted, ſhall be taken, adjudged and deemed as Incorrigible Rogues.

The ſecond offence.

Buyers of ſtoln Wood, how to be dealt withal.

Provided alwayes, And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That whoſoever ſhall buy any Burthens of Wood, or any Poles or Sticks of Wood, or any other the Premiſſes particularly mentioned in this Bill, which may be juſtly ſuſpected to have been ſtoln, or unlawfully come by, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, Mayors, Bayliffs and Head-Officers, or any one of them within their reſpective Juriſdictions, upon complaint thereof made, to examine the ſaid matter upon Oath, which they and every of them reſpectively are hereby authorized to adminiſter: And if they ſhall find that the ſame was bought of a perſon who might juſtly be ſuſpected to have ſtoln, or unlawfully come by the ſame, and that the ſame was ſtoln, or unlawfully come by, That in ſuch caſe the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, Mayors, Bayliffs, or other Head-Officers, or any one of them reſpectively, ſhall and may award the party who bought the ſame, to pay treble the value of the ſame to the party from whom the ſame was ſtoln, or unlawfully taken; And in default of preſent payment thereof, to iſſue forth their reſpective Warrants to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the Offendors Goods, rendring the Overplus to the Party: And in default of ſuch diſtreſs, to commit the Party to the Gaol at his own Charge, there to remain one moneth without Bail.

Within what time offendors muſt be queſtioned within this Act.

Provided always, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be queſtioned for any Offence upon this Law, that hath been puniſhed for the ſame Offence by any former Law, nor ſhall be puniſhed by this Law, unleſs he be queſtioned within Six weeks after the Offence committed.

CAP. III.

14 Car. 2. cap. 3.
Allowance of pay to Troopers 2 s. 6 d. per diem.
Foot-Souldiers 1 s. per diem.

And be it further Enacted, That all and every perſon or perſons, charged, or to be charged by vertue of either of the ſaid Acts, with Horſe, Horſe-man and Arms, or Foot-Souldier and Arms, ſhall under the penalty of forfeiting five ſhillings, pay and allow upon demand, two ſhillings ſix pence by the day, to each reſpective Trooper that ſerves with ſuch Horſe and Arms, for maintenance of the man and horſe; and ſhall under the penalty of two ſhillings, pay and allow upon demand, one ſhilling by the day to each reſpective Foot-Souldier, for ſo many days as they or any of them ſhall be abſent from their dwellings or callings by occaſion of Muſter or Exerciſe, according to the Rules of the ſaid Acts: which ſaid penalty is to be Levied, as is hereafter expreſſed, unleſs ſome certain agreement be made to the contrary before good witneſs; And the ſaid penalty is to be paid to ſuch Trooper or Foot-Souldier, to whom his ſaid pay was denied; The reſpective penalties to be demanded within ſix weeks after each reſpective default, or at or before the next ſucceeding Muſter, Exerciſe or Training, and not afterwards.

Penalty upon refuſers to find Arms.

And be it further Enacted, That if any perſon or perſons aſſeſſed or charged according to the ſaid Acts, or either of them, ſhall refuſe or neglect by a reaſonable time to be appointed, to provide and furniſh ſuch ſufficient Foot-Souldier and Arms, or Foot-Souldiers and Arms as are accordingly charged upon him or them, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, for every ſuch offence from time to time to inflict a penalty upon ſuch perſon or perſons, not exceeding Five pounds to be levied in manner following, and to be imployed to the ſame uſes in default whereof the ſame was impoſed.

Conſtables required to charge perſons with Foot-Arms.

Be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, from time to time, to appoint and require the Conſtable or Conſtables of any Pariſh or place within this Kingdom, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, to provide and furniſh (at a reaſonable time and place to be appointed, upon a penalty to be impoſed, not exceeding Forty ſhillings for every ſuch omiſſion) ſo many ſufficient Foot Arms (with Wages and other incident charges) as the ſaid Lieutenants and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them ſhall aſſeſs or charge according to the Rules and Proportions of the ſaid Acts, upon Revenue under Fifty pounds per annum, or upon perſonal Eſtates leſs then Six hundred pounds, lying or being within any ſuch reſpective Pariſh or place.

The penalty for not providing or paying Foot-Arms.

And in order thereunto, if any perſon or perſons of, or belonging to any ſuch Pariſh or place, ſhall upon demand refuſe or neglect to provide a Foot-Souldier or Foot-Souldiers, according to the proportion aforeſaid, or to pay any ſum of money whereat he or they ſhall be taxed or aſſeſſed by a Pound Rate, according to a Liſt Signed by the reſpective Lieutenants or any three or more of them, for and towards the defraying and ſatisfying the neceſſary Charge and Expence diſburſt in providing and furniſhing ſuch ſufficient Arms as aforeſaid That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Conſtable or Conſtables, by Warrant for that purpoſe, to Levy ſuch Sum ſo Rated or Aſſeſſed by diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of ſuch perſon or perſons ſo refuſing or neglecting to pay, and ſhall reſtore the overplus, (if any) the charge of Diſtraining being firſt deducted: And the Tenant of any Houſe, Land, or Revenue, Rated or Aſſeſſed as aforeſaid, is hereby authorized and required to make payment of ſuch Sum of money ſo Rated or Aſſeſſed, and to deduct ſo much as ſhall be charged upon the Landlords Rent, out of the next Rent payable to the Landlord, and in default hereof the goods of every ſuch Tenant is alſo liable to be diſtrained and ſold in manner aforeſaid.

What ſhall be paid to the Muſter-Maſters.

And be it further enacted, That once in every year hereafter, each Souldier Liſted or raiſed by vertue of the ſaid Acts, or either of them, ſhall pay to his reſpective Muſter-Maſter ſuch Sum not exceeding one ſhilling for a Horſeman, and ſix pence for a Footman as the reſpective Lieutenants, and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them ſhall under their Hands and Seals direct; who have power hereby to Levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale in caſe of default of payment, upon the Goods and Chattels of ſuch perſon or perſons as are charged with the finding of the reſpective Horſe-man or Foot-Souldier, ſo making default, unleſs the default be by the neglect of ſuch Horſeman or Foot-Souldier, who in that caſe are hereby to be accomptable for the ſame, and every ſuch Muſter-Maſter ſhall be an Inhabitant of the reſpective County.

What Proviſion every Muſquetier ſhall bring with him.

And it is hereby further Provided and enacted, That at every Muſter, Training and Exerciſe, every Muſquetier ſhall bring with him half a pound of Powder, and half a pound of Bullets; and every Muſquetier that ſerves with a Match-lock, ſhall bring with him three yards of Match, both which are to be found accordingly at the Charge of ſuch perſon or perſons as provide the ſaid Foot-Souldier and Arms; And every Horſe-man is to bring with him a quarter of a pound of Powder, and a quarter of a pound of Bullets, at the Charge of ſuch perſon or perſons as provide the ſaid Horſeman and Arms, who are hereby required to find and bear the ſame, upon pain of forfeiting Five ſhillings for every omiſſion thereof. And for the better Diſciplining and Inſtructing the ſaid Militia in their Duties, as alſo for eaſing them of often and frequent Meetings at ſeveral times, and for the better ſecurity of the peace of the Kingdom, Be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid ſeveral Lieutenants, and in their abſence, or by their Directions, for any two or more of their Deputies within their reſpective Counties and Precincts for which they are Commiſſioned, at any time or times, during the ſpace of three years, from the Twenty fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, to Summon and Continue together ſo many of the ſaid Trained Forces within their reſpective Counties and Precincts, and ſo long as they ſhall judge convenient, in lieu of certain days appointed for exerciſe and Muſters by the ſaid Act, Entituled, An Act for Ordering the Forces in the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom.

The penalty.

14 Car. 2. ca. 3.

Provided always, And be it enacted, That any Troop, Company or Souldiers may be ſo kept upon ſuch Duty by vertue hereof fourteen days, and no longer in any one year.

No Troop to be kept upon Duty above 14 dayes.

Provided always, And be it Enacted, That every Commiſſioned Foot-Officer in the Train-Bands, or Militia of this Kingdom (ſetled according to Act of Parliament) ſhall be and is hereby exempted and excuſed from finding and contributing towards the finding and contributing towards the finding any Horſe, Horſe-man or Arms, or Foot-Souldier and Arms for his whole Eſtate, if at any time it is charged with one Horſe, or a leſs charge, or for ſuch part of his Eſtate as is, or ſhall be charged with one horſe, if his whole Eſtate be charged with a greater charge then one Horſe in the County or Lieutenancy where he ſo ſerves as a Foot-Officer, in reſpect of the expence which the ſaid Imployment doth neceſſarily engage him in; Any thing in the ſaid Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Commiſſioned Foot-Officers diſcharged from finding Arms.

Be it alſo Enacted and Ordained, That each Conſtable, Tything-man, or other Officer of any pariſh or place, under the penalty for every neglect of Forfeiting Forty ſhillings, ſhall and do by vertue of a Warrant directed to him from the reſpective Lieutenants, and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, Levy all arrears and proportions of money unpaid, that were ſet or charged for the Raiſing, Training and Arraying the Trained Bands and Forces, actually raiſed and in being before the paſſing of the ſaid mentioned Act by the Diſtreſs and ſale of the Goods of any perſon or perſons refuſing to pay the ſame, rendring back the overplus (if any) the charge of diſtreſs and Sale being firſt deducted.

The Duty of Conſtables in executing Warrants of the Lieutenants or Deputies.

Be it alſo enacted, That every Trooper or Foot-Souldier at any time raiſed by vertue or according to the directions of this preſent Act, ſhall be ſubject to ſuch exerciſe and Duty, as others charged or raiſed by the ſaid mentioned Act, ſhal accordingly upon like pains & penalties obſerve and keep all the reſpective Orders and Directions of the ſaid Act, and of this preſent Act, and ſhall ſuffer the ſame penalties for committing any of the reſpective crimes and offences expreſt in the ſaid Act; which ſaid pains and penalties are in the like caſes to be impoſed and levied in the ſame manner, and by the ſame ways and means as are ſet down in the ſaid Act.

Troopers and Souldiers ſhall be ſubject to Exerciſe and Duty.

IV.

And whereas the fourth part of one moneths Aſſeſſment in each County, after the rate of Seventy thouſand pounds by the moneth, is by the ſaid Act yearly appointed for furniſhing Munition and other neceſſaries, Be it Enacted and declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid reſpective Lieutenants and Deputies or any three or more of them, ſhall from time to time have power to diſpoſe of ſo much of the ſaid fourth part to the inferiour Officers imployed in or about the ſaid reſpective Forces, for their pains and encouragement, as to them the ſaid Lieutenants and Deputies, or any three or more of them ſhall ſeem expedient.

A fourth part of a moneths Aſſeſment how to be diſpoſed.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That it ſhall be lawful to every perſon and perſons that ſhall have any Action or Suit brought againſt him or them, for any thing done in execution of this or the ſaid Act, to plead the General Iſſue, and to give the ſpecial matter in Evidence, and if Judgment ſhall be given for the defendant, or if the Plaintiff ſhall become Nonſuit or diſcontinue his Suit, then he ſhall recover double Coſts.

Perſons ſued for matters done by this Act may plead the general Iſſue. Double coſts to the Defendant.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That no Action or Suit ſhall be brought againſt any perſon for any thing done in execution, or by pretence of the execution of this or the ſaid Act, unleſs the ſaid Action or Suit be laid in the proper County, and commenced within ſix moneths next after ſuch cauſe of Action.

Provided, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That one Clauſe contained in a certain Act, Entituled, (An Act declaring the ſole right of the Militia to be in the King, and for the preſent Ordering and diſpoſing of the ſame;) and made for the Indempnifying of all perſons acting in the Militia, from the four and twentieth of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty to the twentieth of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, as touching the Aſſaulting, Detaining or Impriſoning any perſon ſuſpected to be a Fanatick, Sectary or diſturber of the Peace, or ſeizing of Arms, or ſearching of houſes for Arms, or for ſuſpected perſons, ſhall be conſtrued to Commence and take effect, and ſhall be good and effectual in Law for the Indempnifying of all perſons whatſoever acting in the militia of this Kingdom for any the matters aforeſaid, betwixt the ſecond day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred fifty nine, and the four and twentieth of June, one thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty incluſive, by vertue or colour of any Authority or Command whatſoever, any thing in the ſaid Act, or in any other Act to the Contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

13 Car. 2. c. 6.

Fanatick Sectaries.

And

How the forfeitures and penalties upon this Act may be levied.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral forfeitures, penalties and payments by this preſent Act impoſed, ſet or directed, (not otherwiſe by this preſent Act provided to be levied, ſued for or recovered) ſhall or may, in caſe of default, be levied or recovered by Warrant under the hands and ſeals of the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Offendor, and by ſale of the ſame, rendring the party the overplus, if any be: And if ſufficient of the Goods and Chattels of ſuch Offendor cannot be found or had, whereof to levy ſuch forfeiture, payment or penalty, then the ſaid reſpective Lieutenants and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any three or more of them ſhall have power, and are hereby authorized by like Warrant under their hands and ſeals to commit ſuch Offendor to Priſon untill he ſhall make ſatisfaction, according to the ſaid forfeiture, payment or penalty.

V. And it is further Declared and Enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons which ſince the five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, have acted or done any thing in the diſmantling of any Cities or Towns, or demoliſhing of Walls and Fortifications thereof or relating thereunto, ſhall be, and are hereby indempnified and ſaved harmleſs. And whereas ſome doubt hath ariſen upon the ſaid Act, what Eſtates ſhall be charged with or toward Foot;

How perſons may be charged with arms, and for what eſtates.

Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon who hath an Eſtate of the yearly value of two hundred pounds, or perſonal Eſtate of the value of two thouſand four hundred pounds, chargeable by the ſaid Act, ſhall be charged with or toward the finding any Foot; and it ſhall be lawful for the reſpective Lieutenants and Deputies, or any three or more of them to charge according to the proportions in the ſaid Act, any perſon who hath an Eſtate of the yearly value of one hundred pounds, and under the yearly value of two hundred pounds, or who hath a perſonal Eſtate of twelve hundred pounds, and under the value of two thouſand four hundred pounds, chargeable by the ſaid Act, with, or towards the finding of Foot, or toward the finding of Horſe, as to their judgment ſhall ſeem moſt expedient for his Majeſties Service. Yet nevertheleſs, this ſhall not be conſtrued to extend to make any alterations in the proviſions in the ſaid or this Act, concerning the Forces to be charged or raiſed in Cities, Corporations and Port-Towns.

CAP. V.

For Regulating Select Veſtries.

FOr prevention of the Evils which may ariſe from Veſtry-men, not Conforming to the Government and Diſcipline of the Church of England, as it is now by Law eſtabliſhed.

All Veſtry-men ſhall take and ſubſcribe the Declaration in 14 Car. 2 c. 4.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by the Advice, and with the Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That all and every perſon who now is a Veſtry-man or member of any Veſtry within any Pariſh in the Cities of London and Weſtminſter, Borough of Southwark and weekly Bills of Mortality, and in all other Cities, Boroughs and Towns corporate, where Select Veſtries are uſed, in the Kingdom of England, on or before the Nine and twentieth day of September next; And all and every perſon, who at any time hereafter ſhal be elected to be a Veſtry-man, or member of any Veſtry within any Pariſh in any the places aforeſaid, within one moneth after ſuch his Election, ſhall before the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary, Vicar-General or Chancellor of the Dioceſs, make and ſubſcribe the Declaration and Acknowledgment enjoyned in the late wholſom good Act, entituled, (An Act for the Uniformity of Publick Prayers, and Adminiſtration of Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies, and for eſtabliſhing the Form of Making Ordaining and Conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons in the Church of England) in theſe words following, I A. B. Do declare, That it is not lawful upon any pretence whatſoever to take up Arms againſt the King; and that I do abhor that Traiterous Poſition, of taking Arms by his Authority againſt his Perſon, or againſt thoſe that are Commiſſionated by him; And that I will conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England, as it is now by Law eſtabliſhed; And I do declare, That I do hold, there lies no Obligation upon me, or on any other perſon, from the Oath, commonly called, The Solemn League and Covenant, to endeavour any change or alteration of Government, either in Church or State; And that the ſame was in it ſelf an unlawful Oath, and Impoſed upon the Subjects of this Realm againſt the known Lawes, and Liberties of this Kingdome.

The penalty.

And that all and every ſuch perſon, who ſhall neglect or refuſe to do the ſame within the reſpective times aforeſaid, ſhall (ipſo facto) be deprived of ſuch his place of Veſtry-man, and of being a Member of ſuch Veſtry, to all intents and purpoſes, And ſuch place ſhall be actually void, as if ſuch perſon were naturally dead, Any Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding: And that from and after ſuch neglect or refuſal, it ſhall be lawful for all perſons, who ſhall have right of election or nomination of ſuch Veſtry-man, or member of ſuch Veſtry, to proceed to election or nomination of ſome other diſcreet perſon of the reſpective Pariſh, in the room of ſuch perſon ſo neglecting or refuſing as aforeſaid. And if ſuch perſon ſo to be elected in the room of ſuch perſon ſo neglecting or refuſing as aforeſaid, ſhall alſo neglect or refuſe to make and ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration and Acknowledgment, in manner and time aforeſaid, whereby ſuch place ſhall again become void; or if ſuch perſons who ſhall have right of election or nomination as aforeſaid, ſhall not proceed to election within one moneth after ſuch vacancy, then it ſhall be lawful to and for the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary of the Dioceſs, under his hand and ſeal to elect and nominate a diſcreet perſon of the reſpective Pariſh in ſuch vacant room; which perſon ſo to be elected and nominated, after his making and ſubſcription in manner and time aforeſaid, ſhall be, and ſhall to all intents and purpoſes be reputed, deemed and taken to be a Veſtry-man, or member of ſuch Veſtry in like manner as if he had been choſen by the reſpective Electors; Any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary, Vicar-General or the Chancellor of the Dioceſs, ſhall upon requeſt to him made by any Veſtry-man, ſo making and ſubſcribing the ſaid Declaration and Acknowledgment aforeſaid, deliver a Certificate of his ſo doing, for which no Fee ſhall be paid.

Provided alwayes, That nothing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to give any new power to any Select Veſtry-man, or to confirm any uſurped power heretofore exerciſed by any Select Veſtry-man, which before the making of this Act is not Warranted by the Law of the Land.

Provided alſo, That this Act ſhall continue in force to the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament, and no longer.

The continuance of this Act.

CAP. VI.

An Act for Relief of ſuch Perſons, as by Sickneſs or other Impediment were diſabled from Subſcribing the Declaration in the Act of Uniformity, and Explanation of part of the ſaid Act.

14 Car. 2. c. 4.

WHereas by an Act of this preſent Parliament, entituled, An Act for Uniformity of Publick Prayer and Adminiſtration of the Sacraments, and other Rites and Ceremonies, and for eſtabliſhing the Form of Making, Ordaining and Conſecrating Biſhops, Prieſts and Deacons in the Church of England, It was enacted, That every Dean, Canon and Prebendary of every Cathedral or Collegiate Church, and all Maſters and Fellows of any Colledge, Hall, Houſe of Learning or Hoſpital, and every Parſon, Vicar, Curate, and every other perſon in Holy Orders, who upon the firſt day of May, which ſhould be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, or at any time thereafter ſhould be Incumbent or have poſſeſſion of any Deanry, Canonry, Prebendry, Maſterſhip, Fellowſhip, Parſonage, Vicarage or any other Eccleſiaſtical Dignity or Promotion, ſhould before the Feaſt day of Saint Bartholomew, which ſhould be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, ſubſcribe the Declaration or Acknowledgment in the ſaid Act mentioned and expreſſed, before their reſpective Archbiſhops, Biſhops, Ordinaries or Vice-Chancellors of the reſpective Univerſities; upon pain that all and every of the perſons aforeſaid, failing in ſuch ſubſcription, ſhould loſe and forfeit ſuch reſpective Deanry, Canonry, Prebendry, Maſterſhip, Fellowſhip, Parſonage, Vicarage, Eccleſiaſtical Dignity or Promotion, and ſhould be utterly diſabled, and ipſo facto deprived of the ſame; And that every ſuch reſpective Deanry, Canonry, Prebendry, Maſterſhip, Fellowſhip, Parſonage, Vicarage, Eccleſiaſtical Dignity or Promotion ſhould be void, as if ſuch perſon ſo failing were naturally dead. And that after ſuch ſubſcription made, every ſuch Parſon, Vicar, Curate and Lecturer, ſhould procure a Certificate under the hand and ſeal of the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary of the Dioceſs, and ſhould publickly and openly read the ſame, together with the declaration or acknowledgment aforeſaid, upon ſome Lords-Day within three moneths then next following, in his Pariſh Church where he was to officiate, in the preſence of the Congregation there aſſembled in the time of Divine Service; upon pain that every perſon failing therein, ſhould loſe ſuch Parſonage, Vicarage or Benefice reſpectively, and ſhould be utterly diſabled, and ipſo facto deprived of the ſame; And that the ſaid Parſonage, Vicarage or Benefice ſhould be void, as if he were naturally dead.

And whereas divers perſons of eminent Loyalty to his Majeſty, and of known affection to the Liturgy of the Church of England, who by the ſaid Act were required to ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration or Acknowledgment, at the time of the paſſing of the ſaid Act were out of this Realm, in Ireland or other parts beyond the Seas upon lawful and juſtifiable occaſions, and had no knowledg or notice thereof until their return into England, being after the ſaid Feaſt of St. Bartholomew; And divers other of the ſaid Loyal and well-affected perſons, by reaſon of ſickneſs, impriſonment, diſability of body or otherwiſe, could not or did not reſort unto their reſpective Archbiſhops, Biſhops or Ordinaries, or Vice-Chancellors of the reſpective Univerſities before whom ſuch ſubſcription was appointed by the ſaid Act to be made: All which ſaid perſons are by force of the ſaid Act utterly diſabled, and ipſo facto deprived of their reſpective Deanries, Canonries, Prebendries, Maſterſhips, Fellowſhips, Parſonages, Vicarages or other Eccleſiaſtical Benefices or Promotions, by reaſon of ſuch their omiſſion:

III.

For remedy whereof, and for the relief of ſuch perſons, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all Deans, Canons, Prebendaries, Maſters and Fellows of any Colledges, Halls or other Houſes of Learning; and all Parſons, Vicars and other Eccleſiaſtical perſons aforeſaid, who at the time of the paſſing of the ſaid Act being in Ireland or any the parts beyond the Seas, did not return into this Kingdom before the ſaid Feaſt of St. Bartholomew, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, or who being in England, by Impriſonment, Sickneſſe, Diſability of body or otherwiſe, did not reſort unto their reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Ordinary or Vice-Chancellor of the ſaid reſpective Univerſities, to ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration and Acknowledgment, before the ſaid Feaſt in the year of our Lord aforeſaid, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be reſtored unto, and preſerved in their reſpective Deanries, Canonries, Prebendries, Maſterſhips, Fellowſhips, Parſonages, Vicarages, and other Eccleſiaſtical Benefices and Promotions, whereunto no other perſon or perſons before the firſt day of Auguſt in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, were or ſhall be lawfully Inſtituted, Inducted, Collated or placed: And ſhall and may hold and enjoy the ſame according to his and their former right; The aforeſaid Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided, That every ſuch Dean, Canon, Prebendary, Maſter and Fellow of any Colledg, Hall or Houſe of Learning, and all Parſons, Vicars and Curates, and other Eccleſiaſtical perſons, who are or ſhall by vertue of this Act be reſtored to, or preſerved in their ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Promotions, ſhall before the Feaſt of the Nativity of our Lord next enſuing, if he be in England, or if beyond the Seas, within forty dayes after his return into England, ſubſcribe the ſaid Declaration or Acknowledgment before the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary of the Dioceſs, or Vice-Chancellor aforeſaid reſpectively; And that every ſuch Parſon, Vicar, Curate or Lecturer ſhall procure a Certificate under the hand and ſeal of the reſpective Archbiſhop, Biſhop or Ordinary of the Dioceſs (who are hereby required and enjoyned upon demand, to make and deliver ſuch Certificate,) And ſhall publickly and openly read the ſame, together with the Declaration or Acknowledgment aforeſaid, upon ſome Lords Day within three moneths then next following ſuch Subſcription in his Pariſh Church where he is to Officiate, in the preſence of the Congregation then aſſembled in the time of Divine Service.

And be it further enacted and declared by the authority aforeſaid, That every ſubſcription already made or hereafter to be made before any Vicar-General or Chancellor to any Archbiſhop or Biſhop, or Commiſſary to the Archbiſhop of Canterbury or any other Biſhop, is and ſhall be as effectual and beneficial in Law to all intents and purpoſes to every perſon and perſons which have or ſhall make ſuch ſubſcription as aforeſaid, as if the ſame had been made before the Archbiſhop or Biſhop of the Province or Dioceſs reſpectively, Any thing in the aforeſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided alſo, That every perſon who ſhall have benefit by this Act, ſhall make ſuch allowance for ſerving the Cure ſince the 24th of Auguſt 1662. as ſhall be judged fit by the Ordinary of the place, and ſhall pay and diſcharge all Tenths, Penſions and other Charges, wherewith the Benefice to which he is by this Act reſtored, hath been or might be legally charged ſince the day aforeſaid.

Perſons prohibited to Preach. 14 Car. 2. c. 4.

And whereas ſome doubt hath ariſen, whether perſons prohibited to preach by the ſaid Act, are in the ſame plight as to puniſhment, with perſons diſabled by the ſaid Act to preach; Be it Declared and Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the penalties by the ſaid Act to be inflicted upon any perſon diſabled by the ſaid Act to preach for any offence againſt the ſaid Act, ſhall in like manner be inflicted upon every perſon ſo offending, that is prohibited by the ſaid Act to preach, Any thing, doubt or ambiguity in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. VII.

Trade Encouraged.

Tillage.

FOraſmuch as the encouraging of Tillage ought to be in an eſpecial manner regarded and endeavoured; and the ſureſt and effectualleſt means of promoting and advancing any Trade, Occupation or Myſtery, being by rendring it profitable to the Uſers thereof; And great quantities of Land within this Kingdom for the preſent lying in a manner waſte, and yielding little, which might thereby be improved to conſiderable profit and advantage (if ſufficient Encouragement were given for the laying out of coſt and labour on the ſame) and thereby much more Corn produced, greater numbers of people, horſes and cattel imployed, and other Land alſo rendred more valuable.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority thereof; And it is hereby Enacted, That from and after the firſt day of September, in the year of our Lord, 1663. and from thence forward, when the prices of Corn and Grain Wincheſter meaſure, do not exceed the rates hereafter following, at the Havens or places where the ſame ſhall be ſhipped or loaden, (viz.) The Quarter of Wheat, Eight and forty ſhillings; The Quarter of Barley or Malt, Eight and twenty ſhillings: The Quarter of Buck-wheat, eight and twenty ſhillings: The Quarter of Oats, Thirteen ſhillings and four pence: The Quarter of Rye, two and thirty ſhillings: The Quarter of Peaſe or Beans, two and thirty ſhillings currant Engliſh money; That then it ſhall be lawful for all and every perſon and perſons to ſhip, load, carry and tranſport any of the ſaid Corns or Grains from the Havens or places where they ſhall be of ſuch prizes, unto any parts beyond the Seas as Merchandize, Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding, paying ſuch Rates for the ſame, and none other, as are to be paid when the ſame might have been tranſported by one Act paſſed this preſent Parliament, entituled, A Subſidy granted to the King of Tunnage and Poundage,

Corn not exceeding certain rates, may be tranſported

12 Car. 2. c. 4.

When Corn may be imported, and what cuſtom to be paid.

II.

And it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That when the prizes of the aforeſaid Corns and Grains do not exceed the Rates above mentioned reſpectively Wincheſter-meaſure, at the Haven or place into which any of them ſhall be imported from any part beyond the Seas, there ſhall be paid for the Cuſtom and Poundage of every Quarter of Wheat, five ſhillings and four pence; and for every Quarter of Rye, four ſhillings; and for every Quarter of Barley or Mault, two ſhillings and eight pence; and for every Quarter of Buck-Wheat, two ſhillings; and for every Quarter of Oats, one ſhilling four pence; and for every Quarter of Peaſe or Beans, four ſhillings.

And it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That when the prizes of Corn or Grain Wincheſter-meaſure, do not exceed the Rates following at the Markets, Havens or places where the ſame ſhall be bought, (viz.) the Quarter of Wheat, eight and forty ſhillings: the Quarter of Rye, two and thirty ſhillings: the Quarter of Barley or Mault, eight and twenty ſhillings: the Quarter of Buck-Wheat, eight and twenty ſhillings: the Quarter of Oats, thirteen ſhillings and four pence: the Quarter of Peaſe or Beans, two and thirty ſhillings; That then it ſhall be lawful for all and every perſon and perſons (not Foreſtalling nor Selling the ſame in the ſame Market within three moneths after the buying thereof) to buy in open Market, and to lay up and keep in his or their Granaries or Houſes, and to ſell again ſuch Corn or Grain of the kinds aforeſaid, as without fraud or covin ſhall have been bought at or under the prices before expreſſed, without incurring any penalty: Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Plantations beyond the Sea.

And in regard his Majeſties Plantations beyond the Seas are inhabited and peopled by his Subjects of this his Kingdom of England; For the maintaining a greater correſpondence and kindneſſe between them, and keeping them in a firmer dependance upon it, and rendring them yet more beneficial and advantagious unto it in the further employment and encreaſe of Engliſh Shipping and Sea-men, Vent of Engliſh Woollen, and other Manufactures and Commodities, rendring the Navigation to and from the ſame more ſafe and cheap, and making this Kingdom a Staple, not only of the Commodities of thoſe Plantations, but alſo of the Commodities of other Countries and places, for the ſupplying of them; and it being the uſage of other Nations to keep their Plantations Trade to themſelves.

Commodities of the growth and manufacture of Europe, how to be imported in Engliſh built ſhipping.

III.

Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four, no Commodity of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Europe, ſhall be Imported into any Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or place to his Majeſty belonging, or which ſhall belong hereafter unto, or be in the poſſeſſion of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, in Aſia, Africa or America, (Tangier onely excepted) but what ſhall be bona fide, and without fraud, Laden and Shipped in England, Wales or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and in Engliſh built Shipping, or which were bona fide bought before the firſt day of October, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, and had ſuch Certificate thereof, as is directed in one Act paſſed the laſt Seſſions of this preſent Parliament, entituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and Regulating Abuſes in his Majeſties Cuſtoms; and whereof the Maſter & three fourths of the Mariners at leaſt are Engliſh, and which ſhall be carried directly thence to the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories or Places, and from no other place or places whatſoever; Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding, under the penalty of the loſs of all ſuch Commodities of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Europe as ſhall be imported into any of them from any other place whatſoever, by Land or Water; And if by Water, of the Ship or Veſſel alſo in which they were Imported, with all her Guns, Tackle, Furniture, Ammunition and Apparel, one third part to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; one third part to the Governor of ſuch land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or place into which ſuch Goods were imported, if the ſaid ſhip, veſſel or goods be there ſeiſed or informed againſt and ſued for; Or otherwiſe, That third part alſo to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; and the other third part to him or them who ſhall ſeize, inform or ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts in ſuch of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Colonies, Plantations, Territories or places where the Offence was committed, or in any Court of Record in England, by Bill, Information, Plaint or other Action, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

14 Car. 2. c. 11.

The penalty.

Prevention of Frauds.

And for the better prevention of Frauds, Be it enacted, and it is hereby Enacted, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, every perſon or perſons importing by Land any Goods or Commodities whatſoever, into any the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories or places, ſhall deliver to the Governour of ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or place, or to ſuch perſon or Officer as ſhall be by him thereunto authorized and appointed, within four and twenty hours after ſuch Importation, his and their Names and Sirnames, and a true Inventory and particular of all ſuch Goods or Commodities; And no Ship or Veſſel coming to any ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or place, ſhall lade or unlade any Goods or Commodities whatſoever, until the Maſter or Commander of ſuch Ship or Veſſel ſhall firſt have made known to the Governour of ſuch Land, Iſland, Plantation, Colony, Territory or Place, or ſuch other perſon or Officer as ſhall be by him thereunto authorized and appointed, the arrival of the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, with her Name, and the Name and Sirname of her Maſter or Commander, and have ſhewen to him that ſhe is an Engliſh-built Ship, or made good by producing ſuch Certificate as abovesaid, that ſhe is a Ship or Veſſel bona fide belonging to England, Wales or the Town of Berwick, and Navigated with an Engliſh Maſter, and three fourth parts of the Mariners at leaſt Engliſh-men, and have delivered to ſuch Governour or other perſon or Officer, a true and perfect Inventory or Invoyce of her Lading, together with the place or places in which the ſaid Goods were laden or taken into the ſaid Ship or Veſſel, under the pain of the loſſe of the Ship or Veſſel, with all her Guns, Ammunition, Tackle, Furniture and Apparel, and of all ſuch Goods of the Growth, Production or Manufacture of Europe as were not bona fide laden and taken in, in England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, to be recovered and divided in manner aforeſaid; V. And all ſuch as are Governours or Commanders of any the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories or Places (Tangier only excepted) ſhall before the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, and all ſuch as ſhall hereafter be made Governours or Commanders of any of them, ſhall before their entrance upon the Execution of ſuch truſt or charge, take a ſolemn Oath before ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be authorized by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, to adminiſter the ſame, to do their utmoſt within their reſpective Governments or Commands, to cauſe to be well and truly obſerved, what is in this Act Enacted, in relation to the Trade of ſuch Lands, Iſlands, Plantations, Colonies, Territories and Places, under the penalty of being removed out of their reſpective Governments and Commands. And if any of them ſhall be found after the taking of ſuch Oath, to have wittingly and willingly offended contrary to what is by this Act required of them, That they ſhall for ſuch offence be turned out of their Governments, and be incapable of the Government of any other Land, Iſland, Plantation or Colony; and moreover, forfeit the ſum of One thouſand pounds of lawful money of England, the one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts in any of the ſaid Plantations, or in any Court of Record in England, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Penalty upon Officers of the Cuſtoms.

And it is hereby further enacted, That if any Officer of the Cuſtoms in England, Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall give any Warrant for, or ſuffer any Sugar, Tobacco, Ginger, Cotton-wooll, Indico, Speckle-wood or Jamaica Wood, Fuſtick or other Dying Wood of the growth of any of the ſaid Lands, Iſlands, Colonies, Plantations, Territories or Places, to be carried into any other Countrey or place whatſoever, until they have been firſt unladen bona fide, and put on ſhore in ſome Port or Haven in England or Wales, or in the Town of Berwick, That every ſuch Officer for ſuch Offence ſhall forfeit his place, and the value of ſuch of the ſaid goods as he ſhall give Warrant for, or ſuffer to paſſe into any other Countrey or place, the one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record in England or Wales, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

Encouragement of Plantations, and encreaſe of Shipping.

VI.

Sea-coals.

And for the better encouragement of the ſaid Plantations, and the encreaſe of the Shipping and Navigation of this Kingdom, Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, it ſhall and may be lawful out of any Port of England or Wales, or out of the Town of Berwick, to ſhip and lade Sea-coals for any part of them, paying for the Chalder, Newcaſtle meaſure, one ſhilling eight pence; and for the Chalder, London-meaſure, one ſhilling and no more, in full of all Cuſtom and Poundage for the ſame, Any Law, Statute or Prohibition to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided, That ſuch Sea-coals be ſhipped in ſuch ſhipping, and ſo Navigated as abovesaid; And that good Security be given to the Officers of the Cuſtoms in ſuch Port in which they are ſhipped, for the landing them in the ſaid Plantations, and not elſewhere.

Foreign Coin or Bullion may be Exported.

And foraſmuch as ſeveral conſiderable and advantagious Trades cannot be conveniently driven and carried on without the Species of Money or Bullion, and that it is found by experience, that they are carried in greateſt abundance (as to a common Market) to ſuch places as give free liberty for exporting the ſame, and the better to keep in and encreaſe the currant Coins of this Kingdom, Be it Enacted, and it is hereby Enacted, That from and after the firſt day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons whatſoever, to Export out of any Port of England or Wales, in which there is a Cuſtomer or Collector, or out of the Town of Berwick, all ſorts of Foreign Coyn or Bullion of Gold or Silver, firſt making entry thereof in ſuch Cuſtome-houſe reſpectively, without paying any Duty, Cuſtom, Poundage or Fee for the ſame, Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VII. Penalties upon Importation of Foreign cattel at certain times.

And laſtly, Whereas a very great part of the richeſt and beſt Land of this Kingdom, is, and cannot ſo well be otherwiſe imployed and made uſe of as in the Feeding and Fattening of Cattel; And that by the coming in of late of vaſt numbers of Cattel already fatted, ſuch Lands are in many places much fallen, and like daily to fall more in their Rents and Values, and in conſequence other Lands alſo, to the great prejudice, detriment and impoveriſhment of this Kingdom; Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, and it is hereby enacted, That for every head of great Cattel (except ſuch as are of the breed of Scotland) that ſhall be imported or brought into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, after the firſt day of July, and before the twentieth day of December in any year; And for every head of great Cattel of the breed of Scotland that ſhall be imported or brought into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, after the Four and twentieth day of Auguſt, and before the twentieth day of December in any year, there ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the ſum of Twenty ſhillings; And the ſum of Ten ſhillings to him or them that ſhall inform or ſeiſe the ſame; And the ſum of Ten ſhillings to the Poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Seiſure or Information ſhall be made, to be recovered and levied by bill, plaint, or other action, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

And moreover, That there ſhall be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for every Sheep which ſhall be Imported into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick aforeſaid, after the firſt day of Auguſt, and before the twentieth day of December in any year, the ſum of Ten ſhillings of lawful money of England, to be recovered and levied in manner aforeſaid.

The continuance of this Act as to Importation of cattel.

Provided alwayes, That this Act, in ſo far as it relates to great Cattel or Sheep, ſhall not take place til the firſt day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, nor continue longer then the end of the firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

Encouragement of Herring Fiſheries.

VIII.

And for the encouragement of the Herring and North-Sea, Iſland, and Weſtmony Fiſheries, Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, no Freſh Herring, Freſh Codd or Haddock, Coal-fiſh or Gull-fiſh, ſhall be Imported into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, but in Engliſh-built Ships or Veſſels, or in Ships or Veſſels bona fide belonging to England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, and having ſuch Certificate thereof as is abovesaid, and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths at the leaſt of the Mariners are Engliſh, and which hath been fiſhed, caught and taken in ſuch Ships or Veſſels, and ſo Navigated, and not being bought or had of any ſtrangers born, or out of any ſtrangers Bottoms, under the pain of the forfeiture of all ſuch Herring, Codd, Haddock, Coal-fiſh or Gull-fiſh imported, contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof, and of the Ship or Veſſel in which it was Imported; One moyety of which forfeitures ſhall be to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them that ſhall inform, ſeize, or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint, or other Action, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

Duties to be paid upon Importation of ſalted or, dried Fiſh.

And be it further Enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the following ſorts or kinds of ſalted or dried Fiſh, which from and after the ſaid Firſt day of Auguſt ſhall be imported into England, Wales, or the Town of Berwick, in any other Ship or Veſſel then what is Engliſh-built, or belonging to England, Wales, or Town of Berwick, and having ſuch Certificate thereof as abovesaid, and whereof the Maſter and three Fourths of the Mariners at leaſt are Engliſh, and not having been fiſhed and caught in ſuch Ships or Veſſels, and ſo Navigated, there ſhall be paid by way of Cuſtom and Impoſt the ſeveral ſums of money herein after particularly mentioned, (that is to ſay) for Cod-fiſh the Barrel Five ſhillings; for Cod-fiſh the Laſt containing twelve Barrels, three pounds; for Cod fiſh, the Hundred containing ſixſcore, ten ſhillings; for Coal fiſh, the Hundred containing ſixſcore, Five ſhillings; for Lings, the Hundred containing ſixſcore, One pound; for White Herrings, the Laſt containing twelve barrels, One pound ſixteen ſhillings; for Haddocks, the barrel, two ſhillings; for Gull-fiſh, the barrel, two ſhillings.

12 Car. 2. ca. 34. The further penalty for planting Tobacco in England.

And foraſmuch as planting and making Tobacco within the Kingdome of England doth continue and encreaſe, to the apparent loſs of his ſaid Majeſty in his Cuſtoms, the diſcouragement of the Engliſh Plantations in the parts beyond the Seas, and prejudice of this Kingdom in general, notwithſtanding an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth year of his ſaid Majeſties Reign for prevention thereof, entituled, An Act for prohibiting the Planting, Setting or Sowing of Tobacco in England and Ireland. And foraſmuch as it is found by experience, that the reaſon why the ſaid planting and making of Tobacco doth continue, is, That the penalties preſcribed and appointed by that Law are ſo little, as have neither power or effect over the tranſgreſſors thereof: For remedy therefore of ſo great an Evil, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every the perſon or perſons whatſoever, that do, or ſhall at any time hereafter Set, Plant or Sow any Tobacco in Seed, Plant, or otherwiſe, in or upon any ground, field, earth or place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, Iſlands of Guernſey and Jerſey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed or Kingdom of Ireland, ſhall over and above the penalty of the ſaid Act for that purpoſe ordained, for every ſuch offence forfeit and pay the ſum of Ten pounds for every Rod or Pole of ground that he or they ſhall ſo Plant, Set or Sow with Tobacco, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity of ground; one third part thereof to the Kings Majeſty, one other third part thereof to the uſe of the poor of ſuch reſpective Pariſh or Pariſhes wherein ſuch Tobacco ſhall be ſo Planted, Set or Sowed; and the other third part thereof to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of his ſaid Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, And it is hereby further enacted, That in caſe any perſon or perſons ſhall reſiſt or make forceable oppoſition againſt any perſon or perſons in the due and through execution of the ſaid Act of the Twelfth of his ſaid Majeſties Reign, that he, ſhe, or they ſo reſiſting and making forceable oppoſition, ſhall over and above the penalties therein mentioned for ſuch Offences, be committed to the common Gaol of the County where ſuch offence ſhall be committed, there to remain without bail or mainprize, until he, ſhe, or they have entred into a Recognizance to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, with two ſufficient Sureties of Ten pounds penalty, not to do or commit the like offence again.

Proviſo for Tobacco planted in Phyſick Gardens.

Provided alwayes, That this Act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to the hindrance or prejudice of planting Tobacco in any Phyſick-Garden of either of the Univerſities, or any other private Garden for Chirurgery, ſo as the quantity ſo planted exceed not the half of one Pole in any one place or Garden.

Cattel imported from the Iſle of Man.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to import Cattel of the breed of the Iſle of Man, not exceeding ſix hundred in any one year; And Corn of the growth of that Iſland, out of that Iſland into England; ſo as the ſaid Cattel be landed at Cheſter, Liverpool or Wire-water; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. VIII.

Butchers may not ſell live fat Cattel.

3 & 4 E. 6. cap. 19.

VVhereas by an Act made in the Third and Fourth years of the Reign of King Edward the Sixth, It is enacted, That no perſon uſing the Craft or Myſtery of a Butcher, ſhould buy any fat Oxen, Steers, Runts, Kine, Heifers, Calves, or Sheep, and ſell the ſame again alive, upon pain of forfeiture of the Cattel ſo ſold; which Law hath not wrought ſuch effectual Reformation as was intended, by reaſon of the difficulty in the proof of ſuch buying and ſelling, being for the moſt part at places far diſtant, if not in ſeveral Counties, by means whereof the parties ſo offending have eſcaped unpuniſhed.

Penalty upon Butchers for ſelling live fat cattel.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That no perſon uſing the Trade of a Butcher ſhall at any time from and after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel next enſuing, ſell, offer or expoſe to ſale in any Market, or elſewhere, either by himſelf, or any Servant or Agent whatſoever, any fat Oxen, Steers, Runts, Kine, Heifers, Calves, Sheep, or Lambs alive, upon pain to forfeit the double Value of the Cattel ſo ſold or offered, or expoſed to ſale as aforeſaid; The one moyety of which forfeiture ſhall be to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them that will ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, Action of Debt or Information, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

CAP. IX.

Four entire Subſidies granted to his Majeſty by the Temporalty. EXP.

CAP. X.

An Act for Confirming of Four Subſidies, granted by the Clergy. EXP.

CAP. XI.

An Additional Act for the better Ordering and Collecting the Duty of Exciſe, and preventing the Abuſes therein.

12 Car. 2. c. 24.

Notice to be given at all Brewing Veſſels.

The penalty.

FOr the preventing of the Frauds and Deceits of Brewers, and other perſons who make Beer and Ale, and other Exciſeable Liquors to ſell, and of the abuſes committed by the Officers, Collectors, and Managers of the Exciſe, to the great decay of his Majeſties Revenue of Exciſe, and obſtruction of the due and orderly Collecting of the ſame, and for ſupply and amendment of certain defects in the Laws and Statutes relating to the Duty of Exciſe, as well for the ſupport and advance of the ſaid Revenue, as for the eaſe of the People: Be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That no common Brewer, Inn-keeper, Victualler, or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, ſhall at any time after the firſt day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty three, without giving notice thereof at the next Office of Exciſe, or to the Commiſſioners, Farmers, or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe, or one of them, within the Limits and Juriſdiction of whoſe Office he or they do or ſhall inhabit, erect, ſet up, alter or enlarge any Tun, Fat, Back, Cooler or Copper, and ſhall make uſe of any of them for the brewing or making any Beer or Ale, or Worts, or ſhall make uſe of, or keep any private and concealed Store-houſe, Cellar, or other place for the laying of any Beer or Ale, or Worts in Caſk, other then ſuch as are already openly ſet up, erected and made uſe of in his common and uſual Brew-houſe, and now openly diſcovered and known, upon pain to forfeit the ſum of Fifty pounds for every Tun, Fat, Back, Copper and Cooler ſet up and made uſe of without ſuch notice given as aforeſaid, and contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof; And that all and every other perſon or perſons, in whoſe occupation any Houſe, Meſſuage, Out-houſe, or other place whatſoever is or ſhall be, where any ſuch private and concealed Tun, Back, Cooler or Store-houſe ſhall be found and diſcovered, ſhall alſo forfeit and loſe the ſum of Fifty pounds, to be levied and recovered in manner and form as in and by this preſent Act is hereafter directed and ordained. And moreover, every ſuch private and concealed Tun, Fat, Back, Copper or Cooler ſo diſcovered and found as aforeſaid, or altered or enlarged, together with all Beer, Ale or Worts therein being, ſhall and may be taken up, ſeized, carried away, and delivered to the Overſeers for the poor, to be ſold for the uſe of the poor, or diſtributed amongſt them.

Commiſſioners for regulating may not Farm the Exciſe.
12 Car. 2. c. 23.
II.
12 Car. 2. c. 24.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Eighth day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and five, no perſon or perſons whatſoever nominated by his Majeſty to be in Commiſſion for the Regulating of his Majeſties Revenue of Exciſe, or for the exerciſe of any the Powers or Authorities mentioned in an Act, entituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions upon Beer, Ale, and other Liquors, for the encreaſe of his Majeſties Revenue during his Life: Or one other Act, entituled, An Act for taking away the Courts of Wards and Liveries, and Tenures in Capite by Knights Service and Purveyance, and for ſeting a Revenue upon his Majeſty in lieu thereof, or in this preſent Act, ſhall preſume to Farm the ſaid Revenue of his Majeſty, either directly or indirectly, by obtaining Letters Patents to him or themſelves thereof, or any perſon or perſons whatſoever intruſted for him or them, or to or for his or their uſe, benefit or behoof; Nor that any perſon or perſons whatſoever, being a Farmer of the ſaid Revenue, ſhall be any way capable to be nominated a Commiſſioner for the Regulating his Majeſties ſaid Revenue of Exciſe, or exerciſing any Powers or authorities concerning the ſame: But if any perſon or perſons who ſtands thus diſabled as aforeſaid to be nominated a Commiſſioner, ſhall become a Farmer, and ſhall in either of the ſaid caſes nevertheleſs preſume directly or indirectly to act as a Commiſſioner, Farmer, or Sub-Commiſſioner, to execute the Powers and Authorities aforeſaid, either alone, or joyntly with other perſons that are Farmers, or elſe with any other who are not Farmers, ſhall from and after ſuch his acting, loſe the benefit of his ſaid Farm, and be thenceforth totally for ever diſabled to be either Farmer of the ſaid Revenue, or Commiſſioner for the Regulating thereof, and exerciſing the Powers aforeſaid: And that all and every act and acts done by any Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, or Sub-Commiſſioners, being Farmer or Farmers, by him or themſelves, or joyntly with others who are not Farmers, ſhall be void in Law, and of none effect; And that all and every perſon or perſons any way moleſted or troubled by the command and authority of ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners acting by him or themſelves, or together with others who are not Farmers or Commiſſioners, may bring his Action at Law for the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, and thereby recover his Damages againſt any ſuch Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, Any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The penalty

And that all and every Letters Patents to be made from and after the Tenth day of April, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, enabling any Farmer or Farmers of the Exciſe to be Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners, or Sub-Commiſſioners, ſhall be utterly void and of none effect; Any thing in any of the ſaid Acts to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The penalty for giving any falſe and corrupt Judgment to the Brewers damage.
III.

And that if any Commiſſioner or Sub-Commiſſioner, Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners, who by colour or vertue of any Letters Patents are now both Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners for Regulating the ſaid Revenue, and likewiſe Farmers of the ſaid Revenue, ſhall give any falſe and corrupt Judgment in advancement of the benefit of his or their ſaid Farm, to the Brewers damage, contrary to Law, he or they ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Judgment ſo falſly and corruptly given, double coſts to the party ſo injured by the ſaid corrupt and falſe Judgment: And in caſe any perſon ſhall unjuſtly complain of any Judgment of the Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, and ſo ſhall be found upon his Appeal, the ſaid party ſhall forfeit double coſts to the ſaid Commiſſioners, for ſuch unjuſt vexations, to be recovered by Information, Bill or Plaint, in any Court of Record.

IV.
The duty of Gagers in making Entries.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, all and every Gager or Gagers of the Exciſe, who ſhall take an accompt of any Beer or Ale brewed or made by any common Brewer, ſhall weekly after ſuch common Brewer hath made, or ought to have made by his Entry at the Office of Exciſe, and not otherwiſe, make and deliver to ſuch common Brewer at his houſe, or to ſome of his ſervants in his behalf, a true Copy under his or their hand, of ſuch Return or Report as he or they have made thereof to the Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe reſpectively, upon pain to forfeit for every neglect or refuſal the ſum of Forty ſhillings.

Provided nevertheleſs, That no ſuch common Brewer or Brewers ſhall be ſued or proſecuted for any penalty or forfeiture by him or them incurred, for or by reaſon of any miſ-entry or ſhort entry, if he or they ſhall within the ſpace of one week after the delivery of ſuch Copy as aforeſaid, certifie his or their Entry according to the ſaid Return, or otherwiſe diſcharge himſelf.

Skilful Gagers to be made, and to take an Oath.

Be it enacted, That from and after the ſaid Firſt day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty three, and as often as there ſhall be occaſion, Two able Artiſts ſhall be appointed, one of them by his Majeſties Commiſſioners, Farmers or Sub-Commiſſioners for Exciſe, and the other by the Brewers of any City or place; which ſaid Artiſts ſhall take an Oath, which Oath any one Juſtice hath hereby power to adminiſter, to take and compute the juſt Contents and Gage of all Coppers, Fats, Tuns, Backs and Coolers, and all other Brewing-Veſſels of that nature, belonging to all or any Brewer or Brewers of Beer or Ale to ſell, and to deliver, and give under their hands, one Copy of the particular Contents of all ſuch Veſſels to the aforeſaid Commiſſioners, Farmers and Sub-Commiſſioners, and another true Copy thereof to each and every ſuch reſpective Brewer; which computation by the Artiſts aforeſaid, ſhall anſwer and be according to the meaſures and proportions expreſt in the ſaid former Acts for Exciſe.

Commiſſioners or Farmers not to act as Juſtices of the peace in matters touching the Exciſe.

And be it further enacted, That no Commiſſioner, Farmer or Sub-Commiſſioner for the Exciſe, or common Brewer of Ale or Beer to ſell, or Inn-keeper whatſoever, ſhall from and after the ſaid Firſt day of September, have power to act in, or execute as a Juſtice of the Peace, any of the Powers, Clauſes or things contained in any of the Laws made for and concerning the Exciſe, or in this preſent Act; And if any of the ſaid perſons ſhall preſume to act or execute any thing contrary hereunto, It is hereby further Declared, That all ſuch things ſo acted or executed by any of them, are and ſhall be utterly void and null to all intents and purpoſes.

Market Towns.

V.

And whereas by the ſaid recited Acts it is enacted, That no perſon ſhall be compelled by the Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe, to Travel for the making of his Entries, or payment of the Duties of Exciſe, or other clauſe whatſoever touching or concerning the ſame, if he live in a Market-Town, out of the ſaid Town; and if he live out of a Market-Town, then to no other place then to the next Market-Town to his habitation in the ſame County on the Market-day; And nevertheleſs the Commiſſioners and Sub-Commiſſioners, or their Officers, have not accordingly kept Officers in the Market-Towns in many Counties within England and Wales, whereby ſuch entries and payments for the Duties of Exciſe might be had and made, and yet do take and levy the penalties and forfeitures in the ſaid Act mentioned, for non-entry and payment of the Duty, and do otherwiſe thereupon grieve and vex his Majeſties Subjects, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the ſaid Acts:

Officers to attend in Market Towns touching Receits and Duties of Exciſe.

The penalty.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid Firſt day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, the Commiſſioners, Farmers, or Sub-Commiſſioners in each County within England and Wales, ſhall conſtitute and appoint, or depute under their hands and ſeals, ſuch perſon or perſons as they ſhall think needful in each reſpective Market Town, to be there upon every Market-day, in ſome known and publick place, for the receiving of the ſaid Entries and Duties of Exciſe, and for performing all other matters and things touching the ſaid Duty, according to the ſaid Acts, and this preſent Act: which ſaid perſon and perſons ſo conſtituted or deputed (and the place where they intend to hold or keep ſuch Office, being on the next Market-day after ſuch conſtitution or deputation publiſhed in full and open Market) ſhall attend ſuch Office on every Market-day, in ſuch Market Town, and ſhall keep the ſaid Office open from Nine of the clock in the morning, until Twelve of the clock at Noon; and from Two of the clock in the Afternoon, until Five of the clock in the Afternoon. And in caſe ſuch Office ſhall not be ſo kept and attended in each Market Town reſpectively, the Commiſſioners, Farmers, Sub-Commiſſioners, or other perſon or perſons ſo neglecting or refuſing to do the ſame, ſhall for every Market-day forfeit Ten pounds, the one half to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other half to him or them that will Inform and ſue for the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be admitted or allowed; And ſuch perſon as ſhall come to ſuch Market Town to make ſuch entry or payment of the Duties, and ſhall tender the ſame according to the ſaid Acts, and be able to prove ſuch Tender by the Oath of one or more ſufficient Witneſſes, ſhall not be liable to any penalty or forfeiture impoſed by the ſaid Acts, for ſuch weekly or monethly entries or payments as ſhould have been made or paid on ſuch Market-day; Any Article, clauſe or thing in any or either of the ſaid Acts, or this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VI.

At what times only Brewers may carry out their Beer.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from after the firſt day of September, No common Brewer of Beer or Ale, ſhall ſell, deliver or carry out any Beer or Ale to any his Cuſtomers, either in whole Caſk or by the Gallon, in any City, Town corporate or Market Town, before notice given to an Officer of Exciſe, but between the hours of the day hereafter mentioned (That is to ſay) from the Twenty fifth day of March to the Twenty ninth day of September yearly, between the hours of Three of the clock in the morning, and Nine of the clock in the evening; and from the Nine and twentieth day of September, to the Five and twentieth day of March yearly, between the hours of Five of the clock in the morning, and Seven of the clock in the evening, upon pain that every Brewer doing contrary hereunto, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit and loſe the ſum of Twenty ſhillings for every Barrel of Beer or Ale that ſhall be ſo carried out contrary to the true meaning of this Act, to be levied and recovered as in and by this preſent Act is hereafter enacted and appointed.

Mingling of ſtrong and ſmall Worts.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any common Brewer, Innkeeper, Victualler, or other Retailer of Beer or Ale, ſhall at any time after the firſt day of September, after an accompt hath been taken by the ſaid Gager or Gagers, of the quantity and quality of the Beer, Ale or Worts found in his Tun, and other brewing Veſſels, convert any part of his ſmall Beer or ſmall Worts ſo taken accompt of, into ſtrong Beer or Ale, by mingling, letting down, or ſtriking over any ſuch ſtrong Ale, or ſtrong Worts, into which, or amongſt any ſuch ſmall Beer, or ſmall Worts, and ſhall ſell, deliver out, or retail the ſame, or any part thereof, without giving notice to the ſame Gager or Gagers of the quality ſo mingled and converted as aforeſaid; or if any ſuch Brewer or Retailer as aforeſaid, ſhall after the ſaid time, hide, conceal, or convey any Beer, Ale or Worts not Gaged, from the ſight or view of the Gager or Gagers appointed to take accompt of the ſame, whereby the Kings Majeſty, or his Commiſſioners or Farmers ſhall or may be defrauded in any manner of wiſe, of the Duties due for the ſame, or any part thereof, every ſuch common Brewer, Victualler and Retailer, for every Barrel of Beer or Ale by him or them ſo mingled, converted, ſold, delivered, hid, concealed or conveyed away, contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof, ſhall forfeit and loſe the ſum of Twenty ſhillings, to be levied and recovered in manner and form as in and by this preſent Act is hereafter Ordained and appointed.

Brewing Veſſels and Utenſils ſubject to the Debts and penalties of Exciſe.

And be it further declared and enacted, That all and every the Brewing-Veſſels, and Utenſils for Brewing, into whoſe hands ſoever the ſame ſhall come, and by what conveyance or Title ſoever the ſame be claimed, ſhall be liable and ſubject unto, and are hereby charged with all and ſingular the Debts and Duties of Exciſe in arrear, and owing by any perſon or perſons

VII.

perſons for any Beer or Ale made within the ſaid Brew-houſe, and ſhall alſo be ſubject to all Penalties and Forfeitures incurred by ſuch perſon or perſons ſo uſing the ſaid Brew-houſe for any offence againſt the Laws and Statutes for Exciſe; And that it ſhall be lawful in all caſes to Levy Debts and Penalties, and uſe ſuch proceedings againſt the Utenſils therein contained, as it may be lawful to do in caſe the Debtor or offender uſing the ſaid Utenſils had been truly and really Owner and Proprietor of the ſame;

Brewers that brew for other Brewers.

And be it further enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That after the firſt day of September, no common Brewer of Beer or Ale, nor any other perſon whatſoever, who hath or ſhall compound for the Duties of Exciſe for Beer or Ale by him brewed, or to be brewed, ſhall during the term of ſuch Compoſition, Brew, or make, or ſuffer, or permit any Beer or Ale to be brewed or made within his Brew-houſe, for any other common Brewer whatſoever, without firſt giving notice, as well of every particular brewing as of the quantity and quality of the Beer and Ale at every ſuch Brewing intended to be brewed and made, unto the reſpective Commiſſioners, Farmers or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe, within the Diſtricts of whoſe Office ſuch common Brewer doth or ſhall inhabit, and forthwith paying down unto the ſaid reſpective Commiſſioners, Farmers or Sub-Commiſſioners the full Exciſe of all the ſaid Beer and Ale, upon pain that as well the Brewer who ſhall brew the ſame, as the Brewer for whom the ſaid Beer or Ale ſhall be brewed, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every Barrel the ſum of Five pounds, the one moyety to the Kings Majeſty, and the other moyety to the Informer that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record.

Coffee, Chocolate, Sherbet, Tea.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt day of September, no perſon or perſons ſhall be permitted to ſell or retail any Coffee, Chocolate, Sherbet or Tea, without Licence firſt obtained and had by order of the General Seſſions of the Peace in the ſeveral and reſpective Counties, Certificate being firſt ſhewed that they have given good Security for the due payment of their dues to the King, or the chief Magiſtrate of the place in whoſe Juriſdiction he or they do or ſhall inhabit or dwell, for the Selling or Retailing of the ſame; Nor ſhall any Licence be granted to any Retailer, until Security firſt given by Recognizance or otherwiſe: For which Licence, Recognizance and Security, Twelve pence ſhall be given, and no more, for the payment of the exciſe. And every perſon or perſons Selling or Retailing any of the ſaid Liquors without Licenſe had, and Security given as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit and loſe the ſum of Five pounds for every moneth he or they ſhall continue Selling or Retailing the ſame.

Gagers may take no bribes nor rewards, to make falſe returns.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt day of September, no Brewer or other perſon whatſoever ſhall Bribe or Corrupt, or give any Money, Fee, or other Reward whatſoever to any Gager or Gagers, or other Officer whatſoever to make any falſe Return or Report into the Office of Exciſe, of any Beer, Ale or other Liquors Exciſable, made or brewed, or to be made or brewed, within his or their Charge, Diviſion or Walk, or to forbear or omit the doing or executing of his or their places or Imployments, upon penalty of Ten pounds for every ſuch Offence; And that no Sworn Gager or Gagers, or other Officer whatſoever, ſhall directly or indirectly take and receive any Bribe, Money, Fee, Gift, or other Reward of any Brewer or other perſon whatſoever, for any cauſe or matter relating to the Exciſe, upon Penalty that every ſuch Sworn Gager or other Officer ſo offending, ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit and loſe the ſum of ten pounds: All and every of which ſaid reſpective offences ſhall be proved by the Oaths of Two lawful and credible Witneſſes before two Juſtices of the Peace or chief Magiſtrate of the place where ſuch offence ſhall be committed; which ſaid Juſtices or Magiſtrates reſpectively have hereby power to adminiſter the ſaid Oaths, and alſo to Examine, Adjudge and determine the ſame, and to cauſe ſuch Penalties by Warrant under their hands and ſeals, to be levied by Diſtreſs, and Sale of the offenders Goods, rendring to the Party the overplus; and for want of ſuch Diſtreſs, to commit every ſuch offender to the Common Gaol of ſuch County or Place, there to remain by the ſpace of Three moneths without bail or Mainpriſe.

VIII.

Foreign Liquors imported to be duly entred.

And for the better Levying and Collecting the Duties of exciſe upon all Forreign or Imported Liquors; Be it enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Foreign or Imported Liquors ſhall be landed or put on ſhore out of any Ship or Veſſel from beyond the Seas, before due Entry be firſt made thereof, with the Officer and Collector appointed for the Exciſe, in the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be Imported, or before the Duty of Exciſe due and payable for the ſame be fully ſatisfied and paid; And that every Warrant for the landing or delivering of any ſuch Forreign Liquors ſhall be Signed by the hand of the ſaid Officer or Collector of the Exciſe, in the ſaid Port or Place reſpectively; upon pain that all ſuch Foreign Liquors as ſhall be landed, put on ſhore or delivered, contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof, or without the preſence of an Officer or Waiter for the Exciſe, or the value thereof, ſhall be forfeited and loſt, the one moyety to the Kings Majeſty, and the other moyety to him or them who ſhall or will Seiſe, Inform or ſue for the ſame, to be recovered of the Importer or Proprietor thereof.

And that no perſon or perſons whatſoever bringing any Exciſable Liquors (except Beer, Ale, Sider, Perry and Metheglin) into any part or place of this Realm, by Coaſt, Cocquet, Tranſire or Certificate, nor any perſon or perſons to whom the ſame or any of them ſhall be conſigned, ſhall land, or cauſe Exciſeable Liquors (except before excepted) to be landed or put on ſhore, without making or cauſing due Entry to be made of the ſame, with the Officer or Officers of the Exciſe for the time being appointed to receive and take ſuch Entries within the Port or Place where the ſame ſhall be landed, upon pain in every ſuch caſe as aforeſaid, to forfeit double the value of the ſaid Liquors landed or put on ſhore contrary to the true intent and meaning hereof.

Appeals in cauſes of Exciſe.

Provided alſo, and be it further enacted and Ordained by Authority aforeſaid, That no Appeal in any Cauſe of Exciſe whatſoever ſhall be admitted, until the party Appellant ſhall have firſt Depoſited and laid down the ſingle Duty of Exciſe in the hands of the Commiſſioners, Farmers or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe within whoſe Juriſdiction or Diviſion the ſaid Cauſe was originally heard and determined, and have given Security to the commiſſioners of Appeal, or Juſtice of the peace reſpectively where ſuch Cauſe is to be finally Adjudged, for all ſuch Fine, Forfeiture and Penalty, as upon ſuch hearing and determining was Adjudged againſt him; And that if upon the hearing and determining of any ſuch Appeal, the ſaid Original Judgment ſhall happen to be reverſed and made null, then, and in every ſuch caſe, the ſaid Commiſſioners, Farmers, or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe in whoſe hands the ſaid ſingle duty of Exciſe was depoſited, ſhall reſtore and deliver back the ſame, or as much thereof as ſhall be adjudged by the Commiſſioners of Appeals, or Juſtices of the peace reſpectively to the ſaid Appellant, and the party originally proſecuted, ſhall pay him the double Coſts. But in caſe the firſt Judgment ſhall be affirmed, the party Appealing ſhall pay the like Coſts unto the Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners complained of; Any thing in this Act, or any other Act or Statute whatſoever to the contrary thereof contained in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Exciſe upon Vinegar-beer.

And be it further Enacted by Authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon or perſons whatſoever, Brewing or Making any Beer, whether in a common Brew-houſe, or otherwiſe for ſale, or to convert into Vinegar for ſale, ſhall pay for every Barrel of ſuch Vinegar Beer ſo made and brewed the ſeveral and reſpective ſums already impoſed and ſet by any Acts of Exciſe above mentioned, Upon Vinegar-Beer brewed by any common Brewer in any common Brew-houſe; Any thing in the ſaid Acts, or either of them, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Colledges and Halls in the Univerſities

And it is hereby further Declared, That every Colledge and Hall in either of the Univerſities, which before the Duty of Exciſe was impoſed, did brew their own Beer and Ale within their own Precincts, and ſeize it out to their reſpective Members within their own Precincts only, are not liable to the payment of any Duty of Exciſe for the ſame, either by this or any the forementioned Acts.

IX.

Complaints to be determined in the proper counties.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That all Differences, Appeals and Complaints that ſhall happen and ariſe betwen party and party, in order to the payment of the Duty of Exciſe, ſhall be heard and determined in the proper County, or in the ſeveral Ridings and Diviſions of Yorkſhire and Lincolnſhire, where they ſhall ariſe, and not elſewhere.

Commiſſioners or Farmers may take no Fees.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Farmer, Commiſſioner, Sub-Commiſſioner, or other officer of Exciſe, ſhall directly or indirectly take or receive any Mony, Fee or Reward, for or concerning the taking of any Bond, or giving any Receipt or Note in Writing, relating to the Exciſe, to or from any perſon or perſons whatſoever, upon pain that every ſuch perſon ſo offending ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the ſum of ten ſhillings.

Who may hear and determine matters upon this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace, or any two or more of them, or Chief Magiſtrates in the ſeveral Counties, Cities, Diviſions and Places within England and Wales reſpectively, ſhall meet once in every moneth in their reſpective Diviſions, or oftner if there ſhall be occaſion, to hear, determine, and to adjudge all matters and offences againſt this or the aforeſaid Acts.

How the penalties upon this Act ſhall be diſpoſed and recovered.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That one third part of all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures not herein otherwiſe diſpoſed, ſhall be to the Kings Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, & one other third part to the poor of the Pariſh where the Offence ſhall be committed, & the other third part to him that ſhall inform and ſue for the ſame; And that all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures for which no remedy is Ordained for recovery thereof by this Act, ſhall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any Court of Record within ſuch County, City or Corporation where the Offence ſhall be committed, or by ſuch other ways and means, and in ſuch manner as by the ſaid former Act is directed and appointed:

X.

Appeals for matters in London, and the limits thereof.

Provided alwayes, That after the ſaid Third day of September, no Appeal in any matter or Cauſe of Exciſe within the immediate Limits of the Chief Office of London, nor within the Limits of the preſent Farm of London, during the continuance of ſuch Farm, ſhall be admitted, unleſs the ſame be brought within two Moneths next after the firſt Judgment, and notice thereof given or left at the Dwelling-houſe of the party or parties concerned therein; nor ſhall any Appeal in any Matter or Cauſe of Exciſe in any other County, City, Town or Place, be admitted, unleſs the ſame be brought within Four Moneths after the firſt Judgment, and notice given as aforeſaid; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

No Commiſſioner or other may act untill he have taken the Oath in the Act of 12 Car. 2. ca. 23.

Provided nevertheleſs, And it is hereby Enacted, That no Commiſſioner, Farmer, Sub-Commiſſioner or other perſon imployed, or to be imployed in the Farming, Collecting or taking Accompts for the duty of Exciſe, do after the Firſt day of September next take upon him or them any ſuch Office, or proceed in execution of any ſuch Imployment, until he or they have firſt taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by the Act of Parliament, Entituled, A Grant of certain Impoſitions on Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for the increaſe of His Majeſties Revenue during His life, before the reſpective perſons appointed in the ſaid Act of Parliament, and have entred his Certificate for takng the ſaid Oaths, with the Auditor for Exciſe, under the penalty of Fifty pounds for every moneth he or they ſhall ſo neglect to take the ſame.

CAP. XII.

An Explanatory Act, for Recovery of the Arrears of Exciſe.

In what caſe Sureties for Exciſe ſhall be anſwerable for the arrears. 12 Car. 2. cap. 11.

BE it Declared and Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That where any Commiſſioner, Sub-Commiſſioner, Treaſurer, and all other Officers which were heretofore imployed in the Receipt of the Exciſe, Farmer or Collector of Exciſe, which are and ſtandeth charged with, or accomptable for any Duties of Exciſe by him or them received, farmed or detained, or any ways due from the perſons before named, or any of them, and not pardoned by the late Act, entituled, An Act of free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion; That there, and in ſuch caſe, all and every Sureties of ſuch perſon and perſons charged or chargeable as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed and taken to be liable and Anſwerable according to the nature of their reſpective Securities; Any doubt or queſtion made touching the Conſtruction of the ſaid late Act of Free and General Pardon to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And be it further Declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where the Commiſſioners of Exciſe for the time being, or the major part of them have Iſſued out any ſummons or Warning, which hath been left at the houſe, or uſual place of reſidence, or with the Wife, Child, or menial Servant of any the aforeſaid perſon or perſons chargeable as aforeſaid, The ſame ſhall be deemed and adjudged a good and ſufficient Summons, and as legal and effectual a notice as if the ſame had been actually delivered to the proper hands of ſuch perſon or perſons to whom the ſame was directed; Any doubt or queſtion thereof made to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XIII.

An Additional Act for the better Ordering and Collecting the Revenue ariſing by Hearth-Money

14 Car. 2. cap. 10.

WHereas the Revenue Setled on His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, by a late Act entituled (An Act for eſtabliſhing an Additional Revenue upon his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the better ſupport of his and their Crown and Dignity) hath been much obſtructed for want of true and juſt Accompts under the hands of the reſpective Occupiers of Houſes, edifices, Lodgings and Chambers, as by the ſaid Act is required, and by the negligence of Conſtables and other Officers intruſted with the Taking and Reforming ſuch Accompts: Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, aad Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Juſtices of Peace of the reſpective Counties, Corporations, Places and Limits within their reſpective Juriſdictions, at the next Seſſions to be held after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel next enſuing, or the major part of them then preſent, ſhall iſſue out Warrants under their Hands and Seals to the reſpective High Conſtables, or other like next Officer, who ſhall iſſue the like Warrants unto the petty Conſtables, Head-boroughs and Tything-men, requiring them on the next Sunday after Morning Service ended, to give publick notice in the Church or Chappel generally to all the Inhabitants, and alſo to give notice publickly in the Church, and particularly as aforeſaid to every Inhabitant within their reſpective Precincts, that ſhall then be Occupier of any Houſe, edifice, Lodging or Chamber, That within Ten days next after ſuch notice, he give a true and juſt account in writing under his hand, of all Hearths and Stoves in ſuch reſpective Houſe, edifice, Lodging and Chamber, unto ſuch reſpective Conſtable, Head-borough and Tythingman; who upon receipt of ſuch Accompt, ſhall with Two other ſubſtantial Inhabitants of the ſaid reſpective Precinct, whom they are hereby Authorized to Charge for that purpoſe in the day-time enter into the reſpective Houſe, edifice, Lodging and Chamber, and upon his own view compare ſuch Accompt, and ſee whether the ſame be truly made or not, and endorſe the ſame Accompt accordingly to what he finds upon his view; which accompt ſo received and endorſed, ſhall be by him tranſmitted within twenty dayes after ſuch Receipt to the reſpective High-Conſtable or other like Officer as aforeſaid, together with a Book or Roll fairly written, wherein ſhall be Two Columns, The one containing the Names of the perſons, and number of Hearths and Stoves in their reſpective Poſſeſſions, that are chargeable by the ſaid Act; and the other the Names of the perſons, and number of Hearths and Stoves in their reſpective poſſeſſions, which are not chargeable by the ſaid Act: Which being ſo received by ſuch reſpective High Conſtable, or other like Officer as aforeſaid, and compared together, ſhall within ſix days after ſuch Receipt be tranſmitted to the two next reſpective Juſtices of the peace who are hereby impowred to examine the ſaid reſpective High-Conſtable, or other like Officer as aforeſaid, Petty Conſtable, Headborough or Tythingman, upon Oath concerning the truth and faithfulneſs of their actings in the premiſes; which being done, the ſaid Juſtices ſhall within ten days after ſuch examination, ſign and tranſmit the ſaid Book and Roll, together with the ſaid Original Accounts ſo endorſed as aforeſaid, and filed together unto the reſpective Clerk of the Peace, who ſhall within Twenty days after receipt thereof Engroſs the ſaid Book or Roll in Parchment, to be ſtill kept in the reſpective County and Places aforeſaid; and ſhall alſo within Two Moneths Engroſs in Parchment a true Duplicate of the ſaid Book or Roll, which being Signed by him and by two Juſtices of the Peace at leaſt of the reſpective County and Places aforeſaid, ſhall be tranſmitted within one month after ſuch engroſſement into His Majeſties Court of Exchequer.

How the Juſtices of the Peace ſhall cauſe Accounts to be taken of the number of Hearths.

Penalty for omitting any Hearth.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Occupier of any Houſe, Edifice, Lodging or Chamber, ſhall not make or cauſe to be made an Account, or ſhall omit in his Account required to be made by this Act, any Hearth or Stove; he ſhall for every ſuch Hearth or Stove he ſhall ſo omit, forfeit the ſum of Forty ſhillings.

Provided

Penalty upon Conſtables for neglect.

Provided alſo, That if any Petty-Conſtable, Headborough or Tythingman to whom ſuch Accounts as aforeſaid ſhall come, ſhall neglect to tranſmit the ſame, together with a Book or Roll in manner and time aforeſaid, to the reſpective High-Conſtable, or other like Officer as aforeſaid, or ſhall make default in giving ſuch notice as aforeſaid, or in comparing the Account with two ſubſtantial Inhabitants as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence, the ſum of Five pounds.

High-Conſtables.

Provided alſo, That if any High-Conſtable, or other like Officer as aforeſaid, ſhall neglect to compare the ſaid Original Accompts and the ſaid Book or Roll, or to tranſmit the ſame in manner and time aforeſaid, he ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the ſum of Ten pounds. All which before mentioned Forfeitures and Penalties ſhall be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record, the one half to the uſe of his Majeſty, the other half to the uſe of him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Prejudice by change of annual Officers remedied.

And whereas His Majeſties ſaid Revenue ſetled by the aforeſaid Act, hath been much prejudiced by Annual changing of Petty-Conſtables, Headboroughs, Tythingmen, High-Conſtables and Sheriffs, to whom the Collecting and Receipt of his Majeſties ſaid Revenue is thereby intruſted; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the changing of ſuch Annual Officers, or leaving of their ſaid Offices, ſhall not excuſe or diſable any perſon who ſhall be Conſtable, Headborough, Tythingman, High-Conſtable or Sheriff at the time that any Revenue or Duty ſhall grow due or payable by the ſaid Act, from Collecting, Diſtraining and Receiving reſpectively ſuch Revenue or Duty ſo grown due; but that III. every perſon in ſuch caſe is hereby enabled and required to do all things reſpectively, as to ſuch Revenue or Duty ſo growing due, as if he had continued Conſtable, Headborough, Tythingman, High-Conſtable or Sheriff; Any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Penalty for neglecting to diſtrain, receive, or pay over the ſaid Duty.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon who by the ſaid, or this Act, ought to Collect, Diſtrain for, Receive or Pay over any the ſaid Revenue, ſhall neglect or refuſe to do his duty therein, for every week he ſhall neglect or refuſe, he ſhall forfeit the Sum of Twenty ſhillings, to be recovered in manner, and by ſuch perſon or perſons as the aforeſaid Forfeitures by this Act are to be recovered.

All perſons may be called in aid to diſtrain.

Provided alſo, and be it Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in all caſes which by this or the aforeſaid Act, any Petty-Conſtable, Headborough or Tythingman may enter into the houſe of any perſon, or he may diſtrain the Goods of any perſon, he may call to his aid any two ſufficient Inhabitants of the reſpective Townſhips or Precincts, who are hereby enjoyned to aſſiſt him therein.

Sheriffs appointed Collectors, may make their Deputies.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any Sheriff is by the aforeſaid Act appointed to be Collector of any part of the ſaid Revenue, that ſuch Sheriff may execute the ſaid place of Collector, or by ſuch Deputy or Deputies as to him ſhall ſeem meet, being thereunto appointed under the Great Seal of his Office, or under his own Hand and Seal; Any thing in the ſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Treaſurers and Officers of the Inns of Court, Chancery, Colledges, &c.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the reſpective Treaſurers, and other Officers of the reſpective Inns of Court, Inns of Chancery, Colledges, and other Societies chargeable by the aforeſaid Act for their Hearths and Stoves, ſhall do all things as the reſpective Conſtables by this Act are enjoyned to do, under the like Penalties, though without any Warrant from the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace; And that every Occupier of any Houſe, Edifice, Lodging or Chamber within any the reſpective Inns of Court, Inns of Chancery, Colledges and Societies aforeſaid, ſhall do all things, and under the like Penalties as are required by this Act of any Occupier of any Houſe, Edifice, Lodging or Chamber elſewhere.

Weſtminſter.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the High-Bayliff of Weſtminſter for the time being, or his or their Deputy or Deputies, may within the City and Liberties of Weſtminſter, from and after the Eight and twentieth day of September next, collect and levy the ſaid Duty, and put in execution all the Powers of the ſaid former Act, and this preſent Act, as amply as any Sheriffs who by the ſaid former Act are made Collectors, may do within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions appointed to them by the ſaid Act: And the ſaid Bayliff for the time being ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Penalties and Duties as the ſaid Sheriffs are, and ſhall receive the ſame Reward; and the Sheriff of Middleſex for the time being is diſcharged from putting in execution the Truſt aforeſaid in the ſaid City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, from the ſaid Eight and twentieth day of September, ſaving only for the Collecting of ſuch arrears as then ſhall happen to be: And the Conſtables and Headboroughs, and other Officers within the ſaid City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, ſhall deliver unto the ſaid Bailiff, Duplicates of all Accounts of Hearths and Stoves, and do all other things in ſuch manner as by the ſaid Act they ought to have done unto the ſaid Sheriffs; Any thing in the ſaid, or this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

IV. Southwark.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Bailiff of the Burrough of Southwark for the time being, his Deputy or Deputies, may within the ſaid Burrough, and other Liberties of Southwark, from and after the Eight and twentieth day of September next, Collect and Levy the ſaid Duty, and put in execution all the Powers of the ſaid former Act, and this preſent Act, as amply as any Sheriffs who by the ſaid former Act are made Collectors, may do within their reſpective Limits and Juriſdictions appointed to them by the ſaid Act; and the ſaid Bailiff for the time being ſhall be ſubject to the ſame Penalties and Duties, as the ſaid Sheriffs are, and ſhall receive the ſame Reward; and the Sheriff of Surrey for the time being is diſcharged from putting in execution the Truſt aforeſaid in the ſaid Burrough and Liberties of Southwark, from the ſaid Eight and twentieth day of September; And the Conſtables and other Officers within the ſaid Burrough and Liberties, ſhall deliver unto the ſaid Bailiff, Duplicates of all Accompts of Hearths and Stoves, and do all other things in ſuch manner as by the ſaid Acts they ought to have done unto the ſaid Sheriffs; Any thing in the ſaid former or this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord High Treaſurer of England, and the Chancellor of his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, or either of them, to give and make ſuch further allowance unto the Clerks of the Peace of the reſpective Counties of this Kingdom (for their labour and pains in and about the Writing, Engroſſing and Returning into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, the Duplicates and Returns of the ſeveral Conſtables, in Parchment, over and beſides what is allowed by the ſaid firſt recited Act) as the ſaid Lord High Treaſurer and Chancellor, or either of them ſhall think meet and convenient, the ſame allowance not exceeding One peny in the pound by the year; Any thing in the ſaid former, or in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding. Allowance to Clerks of the Peace of the ſeveral Counties.

CAP. XIV.

The Profits of the Poſt-Office, and Power of Granting Wine-Licenſes ſetled on His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, and the Heirs males of his Body.

WHereas the Lords and Commons being aſſembled at Weſtminſter the Five and twentieth day of April, Anno Domini, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, in the Twelfth Year of the Reign of our moſt Gracious Soveraign Lord Charles the Second, by the Grace of God of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland King, Defendor of the Faith, &c. were there continued untill the Nine and twentieth day of December next following, and then Diſſolved; In which time a certain Act was made, Entituled, An Act for the better Ordering the ſelling of Wines by Retail and for preventing Abuſes in the mingling, corrupting and vitiating of Wines, and for ſetling and limiting the prices of the ſame: Whereby it was Enacted, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, unleſſe he or they ſhould be authorized and enabled in manner and form as by the ſaid Act is appointed, ſhall ſell or utter by Retail any kind of Wine or Wines to be ſpent in his or their Manſion-houſe or Houſes, or other place by any means whatſoever, upon pain of forfeiting for every ſuch Offence, the Sum of Five pounds, the one moyety thereof to the King, and the other moyety to him or them that will ſue for the ſame. 12 Car. 2. cap. 25.

And it was further thereby Enacted, That it ſhould be lawful for his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, from time to time to iſſue out under his or their Great Seal of England, One or more Commiſſion or Commiſſions directed to two or more perſons, thereby authorizing them to licenſe, and give authority to ſuch perſon or perſons as they ſhould think fit, to ſell and utter by Retail, all and every, or any kind of Wine or Wines to be drunk and ſpent, as well within the houſe or houſes, or other place in the Tenure or Occupation of the party ſo Licenſed, as without, in any City, Town or other place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and ſuch Commiſſioners are to Contract for ſelling and uttering of Wines by Retail in any City or other place, as aforeſaid, in ſuch manner and form, and under ſuch Proviſoes as in the ſaid Act is mentioned. And it is further provided by the ſaid Act, That the Rents, Revenues, and Sums of Money ariſing by the ſaid Act ſhould be duly and conſtantly paid, and anſwered into his Majeſties Receipt of Exchequer, and not be charged or chargeable, either before it be paid into the Exchequer, or after, with any Gift or Penſion; as by the ſaid Act, amongſt divers other Proviſoes and Clauſes may more at large appear. II.

And alſo one other Act was at the ſame time made, Entituled, An Act for Erecting and Eſtabliſhing a Poſt-Office: Whereby it is Enacted, That from thenceforth there ſhould be one general Letter-Office erected and eſtabliſhed in ſome convenient place within the City of London, from whence all Letters and Pacquets may be ſent into any part of the Kingdome of England, Scotland and Ireland, or other of his Majeſties Dominions, or unto any Kingdome or Countrey beyond the Seas: And that one Maſter of the ſaid General Letter-Office, ſhall be from time to time appointed by the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by his or their Letters Patents, under the Great Seal of England, by the name and ſtile of his Majeſties Poſt-Maſter General; which ſaid Poſt-Maſter and his Deputy and Deputies, by him thereunto ſufficiently authorized, and his and their Servants and Agents, and no other perſon ſhall have the receiving, ordering or ſending Poſt of all Letters and Pacquets whatſoever, to be ſent to and from the places aforeſaid (except as therein and thereby is excepted). And it was thereby provided, That ſuch Poſt-Maſter General, and his Deputy and Deputies may demand, have, receive and take for the Portage of all ſuch Letters which he ſhall convey, as aforeſaid, and for the providing and furniſhing Horſes for through-Poſts, according to the Rates therein mentioned; And that his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors may Grant the ſaid Office of Poſt-Maſter General, with the Powers and Authorities thereunto belonging, and the ſeveral Rates of Portage therein mentioned, and all Profits, Priviledges, Fees, Perquiſites and Emoluments thereunto belonging, either for life or term of years, not exceeding One and twenty years, to ſuch perſon and perſons, and under ſuch Covenants, Conditions, and yearly Rents to his ſaid Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors reſerved, as he or they ſhall from time to time think fit; As by the ſaid Act, amongſt divers other Clauſes and Proviſoes therein contained may more at large appear; Both which Acts have been confirmed by this preſent Parliament, 12 Car. 2. cap. 34. The Office of Poſt-Maſter General, III.

Now foraſmuch as the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty is graciouſly pleaſed out of his Princely care, and great love and affection to his moſt entirely beloved Brother James Duke of York, for and towards the Maintenance and Support of the ſaid Duke his State and Dignity, to Grant and Aſſign all and every the Power and Powers, Authorities of giving Licenſe to any perſon or perſons to Sell or Utter by Retail, all and every, or any kind of Wine or Wines whatſoever, with all Rents, Sum or Sums of Money, Revenues, Profits and Emoluments whatſoever, that ſhall or may ariſe from, or out, or by reaſon of ſuch power of Licenſing the Retailing of Wines, or Forfeitures for Retailing of Wines without ſuch Licenſes, unto the ſaid James Duke of York, and to the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten: And alſo all the Rents, Sum and Sums of Money, and Revenues that ſhall ariſe, grow, and become due of, or from the ſaid General Letter-Office, or Poſt-Office, or Office of Poſt-Maſter-General, unto the ſaid James Duke of York, and the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten.

IV. Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid James Duke of York, and the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, ſhall have all and every the Powers and Authorities aforeſaid, to give and grant Licenſes to ſuch perſon or perſons as he or they ſhall think fit, to Sell and Utter by Retail, all and every, or any kind of Wine or Wines whatſoever to be drunk and ſpent, as well within the houſe and houſes, or other place in the Tenure or Occupation of the party ſo Licenſed, as without in any City, Town, or other place whatſoever within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town and Port of Berwick upon Tweed, Together with all Benefices and Profits thereof. And alſo that the ſaid Duke, and the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, ſhall have that moyety of the Forfeitures and Penalties, which by the ſaid recited Act is given to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors.

The Powers of granting Wine Licenſes entailed upon the Duke of York.

And it is hereby further Declared, That all and every other perſon or perſons, which from time to time, or at any times hereafter ſhall be by the ſaid James Duke of York, and the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, appointed, authorized or deputed Agent or Agents, Commiſſioner or Commiſſioners to Treat and Contract for giving Licenſes and Diſpenſations to any perſon or perſons for the Selling and Uttering Wines by Retail in any City or Town, or other place, as aforeſaid, ſhall have the full and ſole power and authority to Treat and Contract for giving Licenſes to any perſon or perſons for the Selling and Uttering Wines by Retail in any City, Town, or other place, as aforeſaid, any Law, Statute, Grant, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding, in as full and ample manner as the Kings Agents or Commiſſioners might do by vertue of the ſaid recited Act.

V. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be appointed by the ſaid James Duke of York, or the Heirs-males of his body begotten, or to be begotten, under his or their Hand or Seal, for granting Licenſes for Selling and Uttering Wines by Retail, are hereby enabled under ſuch Seal as the ſaid Duke, or the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, ſhall appoint, to grant Licenſes for the Selling and Uttering Wines by Retail to any perſon or perſons, for any time or times, not exceeding One and Twenty years, if ſuch perſons ſhall ſo long live, and for ſuch yearly Rents, and under ſuch Conditions as they ſhall think fit, ſo as no Fine be taken for the ſame, but that the Rents or Sums of Money ſo agreed for and reſerved, ſhall be duly paid at the times and places agreed for the payment thereof; for which Rents ſo reſerved, in caſe the ſame ſhall not be paid, the ſaid Duke, and the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, ſhall and may have power by this Act to ſue for the ſame by Bill, Plaint, or Action of Debt in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere, in his own Name; or to ſue for the ſame in his Majeſties Name in the Court of the Exchequer, at the Election of the ſaid Duke, and the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten: And that the diſcharge of the ſaid James Duke of York, and of the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, or of his or their Receiver-General for the time being, ſhall be a full and effectual diſcharge to all intents and purpoſes, for all ſuch moneys as have, or ſhall be received by vertue of the Act for Wine-Licenſes.

Provided alwayes, That the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, ſhall not during the continuance of the ſaid Eſtate Tail, by himſelf or Agents, grant any Commiſſion or Commiſſions, Licenſe or Licenſes, for the Selling or Uttering of any Wines by Retail.

VI. And alſo Provided, That nothing in this Act contained, ſhall make void any Contracts, Leaſes or Agreements that have been made by his Majeſties Agents, for granting Licenſes for Selling and Uttering Wines by Retail, in purſuance of the ſaid Act; but the ſame Contracts, Leaſes and Agreements ſhall remain in ſuch force as they were before the making of this Act, and that the Rents thereupon reſerved, and all Arrears thereof ſhall be paid unto the ſaid Duke, and to the Heirs-males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten.

Rents and profits ariſing by the Letter-Office.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all the yearly Rents, Sum or Sums of Money, Revenues, Iſſues and Profits whatſoever that ſhall grow due, accrew, or be payable unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for or by reaſon of the ſaid general Letter-Office or Poſt-Office, or Office of Poſt-Maſter General, or annexed, incident or belonging to the ſaid Poſt-Office, or general Letter-Office, or Office of Poſt-Maſter General, or Iſſuing out of the ſame, or accrewing or growing due for, or by reaſon of the ſame, ſhall be, and hereby are veſted and ſetled by vertue of this Act upon the ſaid James Duke of York, and the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, with full and ſole power power from time to time for the ſaid Duke, and the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, his and their Receivers General to receive all and every the ſaid Rents, Iſſues and Profits accrewing for, or iſſuing out of the ſaid Office; and from time to time to give Diſcharges for the money ſo received.

Not to be paid into the Exchequer.

How to be recovered.

Provided always, And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That none of the ſaid yearly Rents, Iſſues and Profits ariſing, growing due, accrewing or iſſuing out of the ſaid general Letter-Office, or Poſt-Office, or Office of Poſt-Maſter General, ſhall for, and during the ſaid Eſtate Tail, be paid into the Exchequer, but only to the ſaid Duke, and to the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to begotten, his or their Receiver-General for the time being: And alſo, that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Duke, and for the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, in the name of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, or in his or their own name to ſue for the ſame, by Bill, Plaint, Information, Action of Debt, or otherwiſe, in any Court or Courts of Law or Equity, wherein no Protection, Wager of Law or Eſſoine ſhall lie.

VII.

Proviſo for Daniel Oneale, Eſquire, &c.

Provided alſo, That nothing herein contained ſhall make void the Grant made by his Majeſty to Daniel Oneale Eſquire, of the Office of Poſt-Maſter General, or general Letter-Office, or Poſt-Office, for four years, and one quarter of a year, from the ſaid Five and twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, under the yearly Rent of One and twenty thouſand five hundred pounds for all the ſaid Term (except the laſt Quarter, which is paid aforehand) ſo as the ſaid Rents be paid unto his ſaid Highneſs James Duke of York, and to the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten.

Provided alſo, and it is hereby further enacted and declared, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, at any time or times, during the ſaid Eſtate Tail, by Warrant under his Privy-Seal to charge any Sum, or ſeveral Sums of Money, not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Five thouſand three hundred fourſcore and two pounds ten ſhillings, to be paid out of the profits of the Office of Poſt Maſter General; to the which ſaid Sum of Five thouſand three hundred fourſcore and two pounds ten ſhillings, the ſeveral Sums and Payments now already charged thereupon, do in the whole amount, (the Grant of which Sums are not to be avoided by this Act) And which ſaid Sums of Money, not exceeding the ſaid Sum of Five thouſand three hundred fourſcore and two pounds ten ſhillings, to be granted by his Majeſty as aforeſaid, are and ſhall be by authority of this Act confirmed and made in full force.

His Majeſty may nominate the Poſt-Maſter-General.

Provided further, That the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors ſhall have the nomination of the Poſt-Maſter General of the ſaid Poſt-Office, and ſhall from time to time nominate and appoint ſuch perſon and perſons as he or they ſhall pleaſe, to be Poſt Maſter General of the ſaid Office, and may grant the ſame Office with the power and authority thereunto belonging, and the ſaid Rates of Poſtage in the ſaid Act mentioned, either for life, or term of years, not exceeding One and Twenty years to ſuch perſon or perſons, as he or they ſhall think fit, under the moſt improved yearly Rent that can be reaſonably had or gotten for the ſame by the ſaid Duke, or the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, without Fines; the ſaid yearly Rent to be reſerved and payable to the ſaid Duke, and to the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, and alſo under ſuch Covenants, Conditions and Agreements, as the ſaid Duke, or the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, ſhall think fitting; Any thing in this preſent Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

VIII.

The Duke may joynture any wife in a third part of the Profits.

Provided alwayes, and it is hereby Declared, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to, and for the ſaid James Duke of York, and the Heirs males of his Body begotten, or to be begotten, to ſettle any part of the ſaid Premiſſes, not exceeding a Third part of the clear yearly value, over and above all Charges and Repriſes, for a Joynture for his or their Wife or Wives; and alſo to Leaſe any other part of the ſaid Premiſſes for any number of years, not exceeding One and Twenty years, and not exceeding one other third part of the clear yearly value of the Premiſſes, over and above all other Charges and Repriſes, in order to raiſe Portions for his or their younger Children.

Proviſo for the Univerſities.

Provided alſo, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe be prejudicial to the Priviledge of the two Univerſities of this Land, or either of them, or to the Chancellor or Schollars of the ſame, or their Succeſſors, but that they may uſe and enjoy ſuch Priviledges as heretofore they have lawfully uſed and enjoyed; Any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the company of Vintners of London.

Provided alſo, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend, or be prejudicial to the Maſter, Wardens, and Freemen and Commonalty of the Myſtery of Vintners of the City of London, or to any other City or Town corporate, but that they may uſe and enjoy ſuch Liberties and Priviledges, as heretofore they have lawfully uſed and enjoyed; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Borough of St. Albans.

Provided alſo, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not in any wiſe extend to debar or hinder the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Saint Albans in the County of Hertford, or their Succeſſors, from enjoying, uſing and exerciſing of all ſuch Liberties, Powers and Authorities to them heretofore granted by ſeveral Letters Patents, under the Great Seal of England by Queen Elizabeth and King James, of famous Memories, for the erecting, appointing and licenſing of Three ſeveral Wine-Taverns within the Borough aforeſaid, for and towards the maintenance of the Free-School there; but that the ſame Liberties, Powers and Authorities ſhall be, and are hereby eſtabliſhed and confirmed, and ſhall remain, and continue in, and to the ſaid Mayor and Burgeſſes, and their Succeſſors, to and for the Charitable uſe aforeſaid, and according to the tenour of the Letters Patents aforeſaid, as though this Act had never been made; any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Univerſity Letters.

Provided alwayes, That all Letters and other things may be ſent or conveyed to or from the two Univerſities, in manner as heretofore hath been uſed; Any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XV.

The Manufactures of making Linnen Cloth and Tapiſtry encouraged.

The inconveniences by importing foreign materials of Linnen and Tapiſtry Hangings.

VVhereas vaſt quantities of Linnen Cloth, and other Manufactures of Hemp and Flax, and of Tapiſtry Hangings are daily Imported into this Kingdom from Foreign parts, to the great Detriment and Impoveriſhment thereof, the Moneys and Quick-ſtock of this Kingdom being thereby daily exhauſted and diminiſhed, and the poor thereof imployed, while the Materials for the making of ſuch Hangings are here more plentiful, and better and cheaper then in thoſe places from whence they are Imported; And Flax and Hemp might be had here in great abundance, and very good, if by ſetting up the Manufactures of ſuch Commodities as are made thereof, it would be taken off the hands of ſuch as ſow and plant the ſame.

Encouragement of Engliſh Manufactures.

In the occupation of dreſſing and uſing of Hemp and Flax.

Making of tapeſtry hangings.

For the Encouragement therefore of thoſe Manufactures, Be it enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority thereof, That from and after the firſt day of October next enſuing, It ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon or perſons whatſoever, Native or Foreigner, freely and without paying any Acknowledgement, Fee, or other Gratuity for the ſame in any place of England and Wales, priviledged or unpriviledged, Corporate or not Corporate, to ſet up and exerciſe the Trade, Occupation or Myſtery of breaking, hickling or dreſſing of Hemp or Flax; as alſo for making and whitening of Thread; as alſo of Spinning, Weaving, Making, Whitening or Bleching of any ſort of Cloth whatſoever made of Hemp or Flax only: As alſo the Trade, Occupation or Myſtery of making of Twine or Nets for Fiſhery, or of Stoving of Cordage: As alſo the Trade, Occupation or Myſtery of making any ſort of Tapiſtry-Hangings; Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Foreigners may uſe thoſe trades and enjoy all priviledges as natural born Subjects, Oath of Allegiance and Supremacy.

And all Foreigners that ſhall really, and bona fide ſet up and uſe any of the Trades and Manufactures aforeſaid, by the ſpace of three years in this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall from thenceforth, taking the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy before two Juſtices of the Peace near unto their dwellings, who are hereby authorized to adminiſter the ſame, enjoy all Priviledges whatſoever as the Natural born Subjects of this Kingdom.

And it is hereby enacted and declared, That ſuch Foreigners as ſhall exerciſe any of the Trades aforeſaid by vertue of this Act ſhall not at any time be lyable to any other or greater Taxes, Payments or Impoſitions then ſuch as are or ſhall be paid by his Majeſties Natural born Subjects, unleſs in caſe they ſhall uſe and exerciſe Merchandize into, and from Foreign parts, in which caſe they ſhall be lyable to pay ſuch Cuſtoms as have uſually been paid by Aliens during the ſpace of Five years next enſuing, and no longer.

CAP. XVI.

Herring and other Fiſheries Regulated; And a Repeal of the Act concerning Madder.

How herrings ſhall be packed

Able Packers to be appointed and ſworn.

Penalty for not appointing and ſwearing Packers.

Weſtmony. Iſland.

FOr the preventing of abuſes in the packing and ordering of Herrings, and bringing that Commodity into Credit in Foreign parts beyond the Seas; Be it enacted, and it is enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the firſt day of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four, No white or red Herrings of Engliſh catching, ſhall be put to ſale in England, Wales, or in the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, but what ſhall be packed in lawful Barrels or Veſſels, and which ſhall be well, truly and juſtly laid and packed; And ſhall be of one time of Taking, Salting, Saving or Drying, and equally well packed in the midſt, and every part of the Barrel or Veſſel, and by a ſworn Packer; And the Veſſel or Barrel marked or branded by ſuch ſworn Packer, with a mark or brand denoting the gage of the Barrel or Veſſel, and the quantity, quality and condition of the Herrings packed therein, and the Town or place where they were packed; And the Bailiffs of Great Yarmouth for the time being, and the Mayor, Bailiffs, or other Head-Officer for the time being of every Port, Haven or Creek out of which any Veſſels or Ships do proceed to fiſh for Herrings, are hereby authorized and required before the firſt day of July, in the year, One thouſaud ſix hundred ſixty four, and before the firſt day of July in every year after, to appoint for their reſpective Haven, Port or Creek, a competent number of able and experienced Packers, to view and pack all ſuch white or red Herrings of Engliſh catching, as ſhall be brought into their Port, Haven or Creek, and well and truly to mark and brand the Barrels or Veſſels into which they ſhall be packed, with ſuch mark or brand, as is above directed, and to adminiſter to them yearly an Oath, (which Oath they are hereby authorized and appointed to give to them) for the well and true doing thereof according to this Act. And in caſe the ſaid Bailiffs of Great Yarmouth, or the Mayor, Bailiffs, or other Head-Officer for the time being of any ſuch Port, Haven or Creek, ſhall not appoint and ſwear ſuch Packers before ſuch time in every year as is by this Act required, they ſhall for every default forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds of lawful money of England; one moyety to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety to him or them that ſhall inform or ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, by Bill, Plaint, or other Action, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed: And for the better regulating of the Iſland, and Weſtmony Fiſheries, and Preſervation of the Spawn of Fiſh there, Be it Enacted, and it is hereby Enacted by the the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the five and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty three, no Ship or Veſſel ſhall proceed upon a Fiſhing-Voyage for Iſland or Weſtmony out of any Port, Haven or Creek in England or Wales, or out of the Port of Berwick upon Tweed, untill the tenth day of March in any year, upon the pain of the forfeiture of every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, with all her Furniture, Tackle and Apparel, and of all the fiſh caught in ſuch Ship or Veſſel. And it is hereby further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever, do collect, levy or take, or cauſe to be collected, levyed or taken in New-found-land any Toll, or other duty of or for any Cod or Poor John, or other fiſh of Engliſh catching, under pain of the loſs of double the value of what ſhall be by them levied, collected or taken, or cauſed to be collected, levied or taken: And that no Planter, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever do caſt or lay any Seme or other Net, in or near any Harbour in New-found-land, whereby to take the ſpawn or young Fry of the Poor John, or for any other uſe or uſes, except for the taking of Bait only, upon pain of the loſs of all ſuch Semes or Nets, and of the fiſh taken in them, or of the value thereof, to be recovered in any of his Majeſties Courts in New-found-land, or in any Court of Record in England or Wales, by Bill, Plaint, or other Action; wherein no Eſſoine, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

New-found-land.

None may deſtroy houſes or ſpoil nets, &c. for fiſhing in New-found-land.

And it is hereby further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Planter, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall burn, deſtroy or ſteal any Boat, Cask, Salt, Nets, or other Utenſils for Fiſhing or making of Oyl, or other Goods or Merchandize left in any Harbour in New-found-land, or Greenland by Engliſh; or burn, pull down or deſtroy any Houſe built by Engliſh in New-found-land or Greenland, to live during the Fiſhing ſeaſon, or Stage built by them in either of the ſaid places for the ſaving or ordering of Fiſh, or making of Oyl, upon pain of the loſs of double the value of what ſhall be by them ſtoln, burnt or deſtroyed, to be recovered in any of his Majeſties Courts in New-found-land or Greenland reſpectively, or in any Court of Record in England, by Bill, Plaint, or other Action, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection or Wager in Law ſhall be allowed.

The penalty.

A repeal of the Statute concerning Madder.

14 Car. 2. c. 30.

And whereas upon the humble Petition and complaint of the Merchants and Salters of the City of London, it doth appear, That ſome ſorts of Madder very uſeful for Dying cannot be Imported ſo pure and clean, as by one Act paſſed the laſt Seſſion of this preſent Parliament, (Intituled, An Act for the Importation of Madder Pure and unmixed) is directed and appointed; Be it Enacted, and it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe and Thing therein contained be from henceforth utterly void and repealed to all intents, purpoſes and conſtructions whatſoever.

CAP. XVII.

An Act for ſetling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level.

VVHereas certain Moors, Marſhes, Fenny and Low ſurrounded Grounds within the Counties of Northampton, Norfolk, Suffolk, Lincoln, Cambridge and Huntington, and the Iſle of Ely, were called the Great Level of the Fens; And after ſeveral fruitleſs undertakings for Draining the ſame, were upon the Deſires of many perſons of Worth, and Intereſſed in the ſame, declared to be a Great and Noble Work, and of much Concernment to the whole Country, and at their earneſt deſire undertaken to be Drained by Francis late Earl of Bedford, according to a Law of Sewers made at Kings Lynne in the ſixth year of the Reign of the late King Charles of glorious memory; which ſaid Level is bounded as followeth, (viz.) Eaſtward from the Bridge and Cawſey of Stoake, unto Brandon-Bridge upon the Uplands of Northold, Methold, Feltwell, Hockwold and Wilton in the County of Norfolk; and from Brandon-Bridge unto the end of Worlington-Load upon Mildenhall River, upon the Uplands of Brandon, the Low grounds of Wainsford excluding the ſame; the Uplands of Sakingheath, the Low grounds of Earſewell excluding the ſame: And the Uplands of Mildenhall in the County of Suffolk, Southward from Worlington-Load, unto Burwell Block upon the Uplands of Freckingham, Iſlham, Fordham Soham and Wickin in the County of Cambridge, and excluding the Low grounds of Burwell, Landward, and other places lying Eaſtward from Burwell Block aforeſaid, from thence unto the Mill near Angliſey Abby upon the Uplands of Burwell Reach, Shaffham Pryor, Shaffham Bulbeck, and Botſham in the County of Cambridge; and from thence unto the Ferry place of Clayhith upon the Uplands called Quyhall, the Low grounds called Low Fenne, and the Uplands of Hormingſey and Clayhith in the ſaid County, excluding the Low grounds called Low Fenne and Offenne; and from the ſaid Ferry-place unto Over-Load upon the Uplands of Water-Beach, Cottenham, Rampton, Winelingham and Over in the ſaid County of Cambridge, and upon the Low grounds of Swacy in the ſaid County, excluding the ſame Weſtward from Erith, unto the Dam lately made upon the River Neane near Standground, upon the Uplands of Somerſham and the Soake thereof, Warbois, Wiſtow Berry, Ramſey, Upwood, Raveley, Wood-walton, Sawtrey, Connington, Glatton and Holme Caldecott, Denton, Stilton, Yaxley, Faſſet and Standground in the County of Huntington, excluding the Low grounds lying on the North ſide of the River of Owſe above Frith; and from the ſaid Dam unto Peterborough Bridge upon the ſaid River of Neane; and from thence unto the Ferry-place near Waldron Hall upon the Uplands of Peterborough, and the Soake thereof in the County of Northampton; aud Northward from the ſaid Ferry-place near Waldron Hall unto Crowland Bridge upon the River of Welland; and from thence to Dowſedale upon the Bank of Great Porſand; and from thence unto Guyhurne upon the Southea Bank; and from thence unto Tilneburne upon the Bank of the Fenne Ground called Walderſea; and from thence unto Elme Leame at Grangers Houſe upon the Bank of the Fenne Ground called Coldham; and from thence unto the River of Neane near Thurlings in Upwell upon the Bank of Needham called Biſhops Dike; and from thence unto Well Creek, at the North-weſt corner of Waſſingham Fenne upon the Bank of the Grounds in Upwell and Outwell called Playfield and Churchfield, excluding the aforeſaid Fennes and Grounds called Walderſea, Coldham, Needham, Playfield and Churchfield; and from thence unto Salters-Load upon the New Podyke Bank, and from thence unto the mouth of the River Wiſſey upon the River

Owſe, and from thence unto Helgey Bridge upon the River Wiſſey, and from thence unto the Uplands at the end of the Bank of the Grounds late of Edmond Skipwith Eſquire deceaſed,
III. upon the ſaid Bank, and from thence unto Stoake Bridge upon the Uplands of Roxham, Deerham,
Weereham, Wretton and Stoake in the ſaid County of Norfolk; Except the imbanked Grounds late of Edmond Skipwith Eſquire, lying on the North ſide of the River of Owſe; And whereas the ſaid Francis late Earl of Bedford was to have for his recompence of effecting that difficult work, onely Ninety five thouſand Acres of the ſaid Grounds, with convenient Highwayes and Paſſages to the ſame; And the New River, Cutts and Dreynes to be made by the ſaid Earl and his Aſſigns, and the Banks of the ſame, and the Forelands in the inſide of the ſaid Banks not to exceed Sixty foot in breadth: Which was a Work of ſo Great and Publick Concernment, that his ſaid late Majeſty gave great Encouragement to the ſaid Francis late Earl of Bedford and others, whom he had taken in to be Adventurers and Participants with him therein, upon the Covenants, Conditions and Agreements contained and ſpecified in and by a certain Indenture of Fourteen parts, bearing date the Seven and twentieth day of February, in the Seventh year of the Reign of his ſaid late Majeſty, and his Royal Aſſurance to further it by his Concurrence to an Act of Parliament for eſtabliſhing thereof, and did by Letters Patents under the Great Seal of England Incorporate the ſaid late Earl, his Adventurers and Participants, to have Succeſſion for ever; and in order to the effecting thereof, the ſaid late Earl and his Adventurers and Participants beſtowed great ſums of money for perfecting the ſame, and after his death and ſome interruptions, William now Earl of Bedford, ſon and heir to the ſaid Earl Francis, with divers of his Adventurers and Participants, by colour of a pretended Act of Parliament of the Nine and twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and nine, proceeded in the compleating and finiſhing the ſaid Works; And the Commiſſioners appointed by that pretended Act, did adjudge the ſame Dreyned, but the ſame cannot be preſerved without a perpetual conſtant care, great charge and orderly Government, which being repreſented to the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty that now is, He hath been graciouſly pleaſed to declare more then an ordinary willingneſs to promote and countenance a Work of ſo publick Concernment, and many wayes advantagious to this his Kingdom. To the end therefore that a work of this Nature may receive a publick Support and Encouragement.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Aſſent of the IV. Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and
The Earl of Bedford and Adventurers made a Corporation for the Fens. by the authority of the ſame, That the ſaid William Earl of Bedford, ſon and heir of the ſaid
Francis Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis and Earl William, or either of them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in ſuch manner as is herein contained, ſhall be a Body Politick and Corporate in Deed and Name, and have Succeſſion for ever, by the Name of the Governor, Bayliffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators of the Great Level of the Fens; which Corporation ſhall conſiſt of one Governor, ſix Bayliffs, twenty Conſervators and Commonalty, and ſhall have and uſe a Common Seal to be appointed by themſelves, and aſſemble and meet together, when, where, and as oft as they pleaſe, and appoint a Regiſter, Receiver, one or more Sergeants at Mace and other Officers, and allow them Salaries, and remove them, and make new at their pleaſure. And
The Earl of Bedford Governor. the ſaid VVilliam Earl of Bedford is to be the firſt Governor; Richard Lord Gorges, Sir Richard Onſlow Knight, Sir William Terringham Knight of the Bath, Samuel Sandys, Thomas Chichely, and
The Bailiffs. Samuel Fortrey, Eſquires, the ſix firſt Bayliffs: Sir Gilbert Gerhard junior, Knight, VVilliam
Denton, William Crane, Edmond Berry-Godfrey, Arthur Evelin, Samuel Smith, Roger Jenings, Robert Caſtle, Robert Hampſon, Joſeph Ayloffe, Eſquires; Thomas Lord Culpepper, Sir John Hewett Baronet, Arthur Onſlow, Robert Phillips, Anthony St. John, Eſquires, Sir Oliver St. John, Sir Charles Harbord, Conſervators. Knights: Francis Hoblyn, Samuel Sandys junior, and Robert Terringham, Eſquires, the firſt Conſervators.
And the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators to continue until Wedneſday in Whitſun-week, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, and from thenceforth until new elections by the ſaid Corporation, or the major part which ſhall
Their power and authority. be then preſent; And ſhall be capable to ſue and be ſued, and without Licenſe of Mortmain to purchaſe Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, not exceeding two hundred V. pounds per annum, and Goods and Chattels, and to diſpoſe thereof in the name, and to the uſe of the ſaid Corporation, and the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bayliffs, or any of them, to be two, ſhall and may lay Taxes from time to time upon all the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres onely for ſupport, maintenance and preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and levy the ſame with penalties for non-payment, not exceeding a third part of the Tax, and all other things do in order to the ſupport, maintenance and preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and Works made and to be made.

And whereas by the ſaid Law of Sewers, twelve thouſand Acres, parcel of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, was deſigned and intended to his ſaid late Majeſty, and were ſet forth and allotted by bounds in ſeveralty, and his ſaid late Majeſty was in poſſeſſion thereof, and granted, aſſigned, allotted and ſet out by bounds two thouſand Acres, parcel of the ſaid Earl of Portland 2000 Acres. Twelve thouſand Acres, by Letters Patents unto Jerome Earl of Portland, his Heirs and Aſſigns, of which ſaid two thouſand acres, the ſaid Earl of Portland hath ſold away about One thouſand five hundred acres in ſeveral parcels to ſeveral perſons, their Heirs and Aſſigns, for valuable conſiderations, and the reſidue thereof being about five hundred acres, hath granted and conveyed unto his Brother Benjamin VVeſton Eſquire and his Heirs, upon ſeveral Truſts, agreed upon between the ſaid Earl of Portland and Benjamin VVeſton by writing for that purpoſe:

Be it therefore Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid two thouſand Acres, or ſuch other Lands of equal value as ſhall be ſet forth in Exchange of the ſame, in caſe the aforementioned two thouſand Acres, or any part thereof, ſhall afterward be adjudged to have been unduly ſet out, ſhall be, and hereby are veſted, ſetled and eſtabliſhed in the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective perſons, (to whom the ſaid Earl of Portland hath ſo conveyed or mentioned to convey the ſame) their Heirs and Aſſigns reſpectively, to each perſon his Heirs and Aſſigns, his and their ſeveral and reſpective Share and Shares that was ſo reſpectively to each of them conveyed, or mentioned to be conveyed by the ſaid Earl of Portland, to be held and enjoyed by them and each of them, his Heirs and Aſſigns, his and their own VI. Share and Part only in ſeveralty, according to the intent of the ſaid Conveyances thereof to them reſpectively made by the ſaid Earl of Portland, upon the ſame Truſts nevertheleſſe for and concerning the ſaid five hundred Acres granted or mentioned to be granted to the ſaid Benjamin Weſton, which the ſaid Earl of Portland and Benjamin Weſton had declared and agreed upon between them as aforeſaid; Which ſaid two thouſand Acres ſhall be holden of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors of the Manor of Eaſt Greenwich by Fealty only in Free and Common Soccage, and not otherwiſe, and ſubject nevertheleſſe with the reſidue of the Ninety five thouſand Acres in equal proportion to all Taxes and VII. Charges neceſſary and conducing to the preſervation of the ſaid Great Level from Drowning.

The 83000 Acres ſetled and veſted in the Governor, &c.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Eighty three thouſand Acres remainder of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, with the ſaid Ways, Paſſages, new Rivers, Cutts, Dreins, Banks and Forelands, over and above the ſaid ten thouſand Acres reſidue of the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres which were allotted in ſeveralty, and of which his ſaid late Majeſty was in poſſeſſion as aforeſaid, are hereby veſted and ſetled in the ſaid Governour, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, and their Succeſſors: In truſt nevertheleſs for the ſaid William Earl of Bedford, and the Adventurers and Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis and Earl William, or either of them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in ſuch manner and wiſe as is herein after more particularly and eſpecially limited and provided; and according to ſuch parts and proportions as they reſpectively now hold and enjoy, or by vertue and proviſion of this Act ought to hold and enjoy, ſubject and liable likewiſe to the payment of all Taxes and Charges as aforeſaid, to be holden of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, of the Manor of Eaſt Greenwich, by Fealty onely in Free and Common Soccage, and not otherwiſe: And the ſaid ten thouſand Acres, reſidue of the ſaid twelve thouſand Acres (whereof his ſaid late Majeſty was in poſſeſſion as aforeſaid) are hereby veſted and ſetled in his Majeſty that now is, and his Aſſigns, ſubject and lyable with the reſidue of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres to the ſame Taxes and Charges before ſpecified. And becauſe the ſaid Great Level of the Fens extends unto the ſaid Six Counties beſides the Iſle of Ely, and foraſmuch as Commiſſioners of Sewers cannot legally proceed in Execution of their Commiſſion, but by a ſeveral Jury of every County to enquire of the matters within their Commiſſion in that County, which hath heretofore inforced the ſaid Earl, his Participants and Adventurers, Commiſſioners and Counties, to very great trouble, loſs and expence both of money and time: For avoiding which Inconveniencies, It is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Conſervators of the ſaid Corporation for the time being, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bayliffs for the time being, or their Succeſſors, or any of them to be two, for maintenance and preſervation of the ſaid Great Level by convenient Outfalls to the Sea, ſhall for ever hereafter be, and are hereby made and conſtituted Commiſſioners of Sewers for and of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens: And the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governour or Bayliffs, and their Succeſſors, or any of them, to be two, are hereby enabled and impowred from henceforth to uſe and exerciſe the power and authority of Commiſſioners of Sewers within the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, and of the Works made or to be made without the ſaid Great Level for conveying of the Waters of the ſaid Great Level by convenient Outfalls to the Sea, touching all matters and things whatſoever happening to be executed or done within the ſaid Great Level, or the ſaid Works without the ſaid Great Level, enquirable, puniſhable, or to be done by Commiſſioners of Sewers, and therein to act and proceed by one or more Juries of good and lawful men, inhabiting within any part or place within the Boundaries of the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, though in ſeveral Counties, as if the ſaid Great Level of the Fens lay within one of the ſaid Counties only, and ſhall have power to imploy the ſaid Sergeants, or any of them for the time being, by Warrant or Precept from the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, and their Succeſſors, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor or Bailiffs, or any of them, to be two, under the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, to Summon and Return Juries within the Boundaries of any part of the ſaid Great Level, and execute all Precepts and Proceſſe from them, from time to time, and all other things do, as fully as any Sheriff within his reſpective County may or can do by Warrant or Precept from Commiſſioners of Sewers; which Juries are to appear at the times and places ſet or appointed for them to appear before the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, and their Succeſſors, or any five or more of them; whereof the ſaid Governor and Bailiffs, and their Succeſſors, or any of them to be two; And are hereby Impowred to Inquire of, Preſent and Try all Matters within the ſaid Great Level, and of and concerning the ſaid Works made or to be made without the ſaid Great Level, for conveying of the Waters of the ſaid Great Level by convenient Out-falls to the Sea, within the power of Commiſſioners of Sewers, as if the ſame lay within any one of the ſaid Counties, or as if the ſaid Great Level were one diſtinct County of it IX. ſelf;

The Truſt.

The 10000 Acres belonging to the King.

The Authority of the ſaid Corporation as Commiſſioners of Sewers.

VIII.

ſelf: And the ſaid Governour, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governour or Bailiffs, or any of them to be two, ſhall have further power, as well for the maintenance of the ſaid Great Level, as for laying and levying of Taxes upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, to uſe and exerciſe within the ſaid Great Level ſuch and the like Laws and Cuſtoms, and Conſtitute and Appoint ſuch and the like Officers from time to time, as are or lawfully may be uſed in Rumney Marſh in the County of Kent; they who exerciſe the ſaid Power of Commiſſioners of Sewers, firſt taking the Oath which Commiſſioners of Sewers are by the Law to take; the which Oath the ſaid Governour and Bailiffs, or any of them, are hereby Impowred to Adminiſter from time to time, without any further Commiſſion.

The metts and boundaries of grounds.

And becauſe the Metes and Boundaries of the ſaid Grounds within the ſaid Great Level, as to the Counties and Pariſhes, are very uncertain and hard to be diſtinguiſhed, Be it therefore further Enacted, That every Writ, Bill, Plaint, Count, Declaration, Information, Preſentment and Indictment, of, for or concerning the ſaid Grounds within the ſaid Great Level of the Fens, or any part or parcel of the ſame, or any Treſpaſs, Offence or Wrong done, acted or committed within the ſaid Great Level, and proceedings thereupon, ſhall be good and ſufficient in Law, though the County, Pariſh, Town or Place, or any of them, in ſuch Writ, Bill, Plaint, Count, Declaration, Information, Preſentment or Indictment be not rightly named, ſo as there be ſuch other certainty or deſcription of the place whereby the ſame is or may be commonly known.

No other Commiſſioners of Sewers to meddle in the ſaid Level.

And be it further Enacted, That no other Commiſſioners of Sewers ſhall intermeddle within the ſaid Great Level, or with any the Works made or to be made for Support, Maintenance or Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, within or without the ſaid Great Level as aforeſaid, otherwiſe then hereafter in this Act ſhall be provided.

Conveyances by Indenture entred with the Regiſter.

X.

And be it further Enacted, That all Conveyances by Indenture of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, or any part thereof, entred with the ſaid Regiſter, in a Book to be kept for that purpoſe, ſhall be of equal force to convey the Freehold and Inheritance of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, or any part thereof, as if the ſame Conveyances by Indenture were for valuable conſiderations of money, enrolled within Six moneths, in one of the Kings Courts of Record at Weſtminſter; And no Leaſe, Grant or Conveyance of, or charge out of, or upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, or any part thereof, except Leaſes for ſeven years or under in poſſeſſion, ſhall be of force, but from the time it ſhall be entred with the ſaid Regiſter as aforeſaid; the Entry whereof being endorſed by the ſaid Regiſter upon ſuch Leaſe, Grant, Conveyance or Charge, ſhall be as good and effectual in Law, as if the Original Book of Entries were produced at any Tryal at Law, or otherwiſe.

And be it further Enacted, That the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Commonalty ſhall execute Eſtates according to the aforeſaid Truſt under their Common Seal, the Taxes and Penalties then in Arrear being firſt paid, which for non-payment, are by vertue of this Act to be levied by Sale of the Lands.

Levying of Taxes and Penalties.

XI.

And be it further Enacted, That for the Levying ſuch Taxes and Penalties as are now in Arrear, or at any time ſince the Thirtieth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred fifty and eight (other then ſuch as are hereby otherwiſe directed to be Levied) or which ſhall be ſet and impoſed upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres by vertue of this Act, and ſhall be in Arrear upon the reſpective parts and porportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators of the ſaid Corporation, and their Succeſſors for the time being, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor and Bayliffs for the time being, and their Succeſſors, or any of them to be two, for levying ſuch Taxes and Penalties, which now are, or ſhall be ſo in arrear, upon the reſpective parts & proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, ſhall on Wedneſday and Thurſday in Whitſun week, or either of them every year at the Shire-Houſe in Ely aforeſaid in the ſaid Iſle of Ely, have power only to ſell ſo much of ſuch parts and proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, upon which any Tax ſhall be in arrear, or penalties in ſuch proportion as the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs & Conſervators of the ſaid Corporation, or their Succeſſors, or any five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor and Bailiffs, or any of them to be two, ſhall judge to be ſufficient to raiſe ſuch Taxes and Penalties, by any writing under the Seal of the ſaid Corporation; and the perſon or perſons to whom ſuch Sales ſhall be made, ſhall be a lawful Purchaſer and Aſſignee of ſo much as ſhall be ſold, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever.

Proviſo for Tenants at will or by Leaſes.

Provided, That by any colour of any ſale for non-payment of Taxes, any Tenant or Tenants at will, or by Leaſe, Indented upon improved Rent of any part of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, ſhall not be removed from his or their poſſeſſion, until he or they ſhall have taken his or their Crop from off the Premiſſes ſo ſold, paying reaſonable Rent proportionable to the time that ſuch poſſeſſion ſhall from and after ſuch Sales be continued; And ſuch Tenant or Tenants as ſhall hold any part of the ſaid Ninety five Thouſand Acres by Leaſe as aforeſaid, ſhall and may, if he or they ſhall think meet, continue out their reſpective terms, paying their Rent to ſuch Purchaſer in proportion, to the quantity of Acres ſo purchaſed; Any thing herein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Provided, That the ſaid Corporation, nor their Succeſſors, ſhall not ſell any part or proportion of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres for any Tax or Penalty in arrear, which Tax or Penalties ſhall not be in arrear by the ſpace of four moneths next before the Sale, nor any more Lands then only for the raiſing of ſuch Taxes and Penalties.

Publick notice to be given of lands charged with arrears of taxes or penalties.

Provided alſo, That the ſaid Corporation ſhall give publick notice from time to time of the parts and proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, for which any Tax or Penalties is or ſhall be in arrear, by affixing openly at the Shire-Houſe or Market-place in Ely aforeſaid, a Schedule in Parchment under the Seal of the ſaid Corporation, containing ſuch parts and proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, for which any Tax or Penalty is or ſhall be in arrear, with the name and names of the reſpective Owner or Owners, entred upon the Tax-Roll, with the ſaid Corporation of the ſaid parts and proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres ſo in arrear.

XII.

New works may be made.

The penalty for throwing down any works.

And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Corporation ſhall and may from time to time erect any new works within the ſaid great Level, or without the ſaid great Level, for conveying the Waters of the ſaid great Level by convenient Out-falls to the Sea; ſo alwayes, that if they cut any ſeveral grounds, they give full recompence and ſatiſfaction for the ſame, in ſuch manner as ſhall be hereafter in this Act provided. And if any perſon or perſons ſhall cut, throw down or deſtroy any of the ſaid Works, made or to be made as aforeſaid, the parties offending ſhall anſwer treble damages to the ſaid Corporation, and Coſts of Suit to be recovered in an Action of Treſpaſs, to be brought by the ſaid Corporation, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record; And if ſuch cutting, throwing down or deſtroying, ſhall be malitiouſly done, the ſame ſhall be puniſhed, as for the cutting the Powdyke in Marſh-Land.

The oath to be taken by the Governour, Bailiffs, and Conſervators.

And be it further enacted, That the ſaid William Earl of Bedford, nominated to be Governor, and every other from time to time into that Office choſen, ſhall (before he take upon him or them, the exerciſe of that Office) take an Oath, That he will well and truly execute that Office in all things; the which Oath ſhall and may be adminiſtred by the ſaid Bailiffs, or any one of them: And the ſaid Bailiffs, Conſervators, Regiſter, Receiver, or other Officer nominated as aforeſaid, and every other from time to time, into any of the reſpective Offices to be choſen, ſhall (before he or they take upon him or them the exerciſe of the ſaid reſpective Offices) take the like Oath for the true executing their reſpective Offices; the which Oath ſhall be adminiſtred by the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Conſervators, or any two or more of them, without any Commiſſion or further warrant.

The Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators to be elected yearly.

And for the continuance of the ſaid Corporation in Succeſſion for ever, Be it further enacted, That the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs, Conſervators and Commonalty upon Wedneſday in Whitſun week yearly, ſhall at a publick meeting to be holden for the ſaid Corporation, by the greater number then preſent, (whereof the ſaid Governour, or one of the Bailiffs to be one) elect a new Governour, Bayliffs and Conſervators reſpectively: Provided, That none be capable to be, or continue Governour or Bayliffs, That hath not four hundred Acres or more of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, nor to be a Conſervator that hath not two hundred Acres or more of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, nor any of the Commonalty to have a voice in Elections, that hath not one hundred Acres or more of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres. XIII. And that the ſaid Governour, Bailiffs and Conſervators, or any of them, ſhall and may be removed by the ſaid Governour, Bailiffs and Conſervators and Commonalty, or the greater number of them preſent at their publick meetings, whereof the ſaid Governour, or one of the Bailiffs to be one, and new choſen in the place of him or them ſo dead or removed: And the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Commonalty alſo ſhall have further power to have, demand and receive an Account from all and every the Officers, Agents and Servants, their Executors and Adminiſtrators heretofore imployed, or hereafter to be imployed for the receiving and paying of money, for or in relation to the carrying on of the Works of the Dreining of the ſaid great Level, and ſhall and may ſue for and recover the ſame; and that all Arrears of Rent already incurred upon or out of any part of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres upon any Contract or Leaſe of the ſaid Premiſſes, or any part or parcel thereof, ſhall be received and recovered, as if the ſaid pretended Act had been a good and effectual Act: And if any Suit be commenced againſt the ſaid Corporation, or any perſon for any matter or thing done in purſuance of this Act, then he or they ſhall or may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial matter in Evidence upon any Tryal to be had touching the ſame, which ſhall be as good and effectual in Law, as if the ſame had been ſpecially pleaded, and the Jury upon the Tryal to give a Verdict accordingly.

Accounts to be made by all Officers and Agents imployed.

In Suits againſt any imployed by this Act, the defendant may plead the general iſſue.

Lands of perſons attainted, and titles under them, veſted in the King.

Provided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That as touching and concerning ſuch part and parcel of the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres, whereof any perſon or perſons attainted, or that ſhall be attainted, was or were in poſſeſſion, at any time ſince the Nine and twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and nine, under pretended Sales thereof reſpectively made by colour of the ſaid pretended Act, or under any other Title or pretended title whatſoever, XIV. The Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, his Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns ſhall have the ſame, and like benefit, advantage and intereſt in all and every the ſaid parts and parcels of the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres, and no other then as the ſaid perſons ſo attainted, or which ſhall be attainted, could or ought to have by vertue of this Act, in caſe they had not been ſo attainted, or ſhall not be attainted. And whereas the Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of and in the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, which in purſuance of the ſaid Indenture of Fourteen parts, and by vertue or intention of the ſaid Act and Law of Sewers made at Lyn, do belong and appertain to the ſaid Samuel Sandys the elder, or his Truſtees, Sir William Terringham, Sir Richard Onſlow, and other the Aſſignees and Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surrey deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpeper, Robert Philips Robert Scawen, and to divers other perſons the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and Parties of the ſaid Indenture, or their reſpective Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, are now poſſeſſed and enjoyed by divers perſons, who took, contracted for, or accepted of, or by ſuch who claim and derive their intereſt and title from and under ſuch perſons, as did take, contract for or accept of pretended Eſtates or Conveyances of the ſame, made or pretended to be made by certain perſons mentioned in and by the ſaid pretended Act of the Nine and Tentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred forty nine, to have Authority to ſell the Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of ſuch of the Adventurers and Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and of their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, as ſhould refuſe or make default or payment of ſuch Taxes, as ſhould by colour and in purſuance of the ſaid pretended Act be impoſed upon them reſpectively, in reſpect of their Shares and Lots, in or out of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres;

Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Commonalty of the ſaid Company of Conſervators of the ſaid Great Level of the Fenns, and their Succeſſors, ſhall actually ſtand ſeiſed and poſſeſſed of all and every the Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions laſt mentioned, in truſt nevertheleſs to and for the XV. uſe and behoof of the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his Truſtees, in truſt for him, Sir William Terringham, Sir Richard Onſlow, and others the ſaid Aſſignees and Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surry deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Robert Philips, Robert Scawen, and of their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, and to and for the reſpective uſes and behoofs of the ſaid other perſons, the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and Parties to the ſaid Indenture of Fourteen parts, and of their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns now out of poſſeſſion of their reſpective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, as heretofore in or about the Moneth of October, in the thirteenth year of the reign of the late King Charles of ever bleſſed memory, were reſpectively allotted, ſevered, ſet forth or divided for or as the reſpective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of ſuch of the Adventurers, the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and Parties to the ſaid Indenture of Fourteen parts, their reſpective Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, from and under whom the ſaid Samuel Sandys, the elder or his Truſtees, Sir William Terringham, Sir Richard Onſlow, and others the Aſſignees and Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surry deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Robert Phillips, Robert Scawen, and the ſaid other perſons the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis and their reſpective Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, now out of poſſeſſion of their reſpective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, do reſpectively claim and derive their ſaid Shares, Lots, and Parts and Proportions; And the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and XVI. Commonalty of the Company of Conſervators are hereby authorized and required to execute reſpective eſtates, of the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions accordingly, ſubject and lyable nevertheleſs with the reſidue of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, in equal proportion to all taxes and charges to be laid and impoſed by vertue of this Act for preſervation of the ſaid Great Level from drowning. And whereas the perſons now in poſſeſſion of the ſaid laſt mentioned Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, whereof Pretended eſtates and Conveyances were taken, contracted for, or accepted of, as aforeſaid, do pretend that they or thoſe under whom they do reſpectively claim and derive their right, title or pretenſions to the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions reſpectively, have laid out and diſburſed for Taxes for and towards the maintenance, preſervation and repair of the works of the ſaid Great Level heretofore Erected by the Earl Francis and his Participants, and for and towards their erection of new and neceſſary works for the better and more effectual Dreyning of the ſaid Great Level, and for building upon the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, more moneys then the cleer rents, iſſues and profits of the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions have amounted to ſince the ſaid reſpective pretended Eſtates and Conveyances were firſt taken, contracted for, and accepted as aforeſaid.

The Chief Juſtice of the Kings Bench and others made a Judicature to hear and determine differences.

Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, And it is hereby enacted, That the Chief Juſtice of the Court of Kings Bench, the Chief Juſtice of the Court of Common Pleas, the Chief Baron of the Court of Exchequer, and Juſtices of the ſaid Court of common-Pleas for the time being, or any two or more of them, are hereby conſtituted, appointed, and erected a Judicature, or Commiſſioners to hear, Order, Judge, Decree and Determine npon Bills and Anſwers, to be exhibited, or otherwiſe as they ſhall think fit, between the ſaid perſons now in the Poſſeſſion of the ſaid reſpective Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, and the reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns of the ſaid perſons now in poſſeſſion as aforeſaid; XVII. And the ſaid Sir Richard Onſlow, and other the ſaid Aſſignees and Truſtees of the ſaid Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surry deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, the ſaid Samuel Sandys the elder, or his Truſtees, Sir William Terringham, Robert Phillips, Robert Scawen, and the ſaid other perſons Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, and their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, who are now out of the poſſeſſion of the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and proportions reſpectively, and to whom reſpective eſtates are by vertue of this Act to be executed of the ſame as aforeſaid. And the ſaid Judicature or Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them are hereby authorized out of the ſaid Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions, to Order, Adjudge, Decree, and Determine to either of the ſaid Parties reſpectively, ſuch recompence and allowance as they the ſaid Judicature or Commiſſioners, or two or more of them ſhall ſee cauſe: And for the better enabling the ſaid Judicature or Commiſſioners to proceed to the hearing, ordering, adjudging, decreeing and determining, and for putting in due and ſpeedy execution ſuch Order, Judgment, Decree, and Determination, as they or any two or more of them ſhall make between the ſaid parties.

The power and authority of the ſaid Judicature.

It is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that they the ſaid Judicature or commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, ſhall have ſuch and the like power and authority, as the High Court of Chancery hath in caſes before the ſaid Court depending, and for putting in execution the Decrees of the ſaid Court and to the end that the ſaid Judicature may be the better enabled to Judgs of the Rights and Pretenſions of either party.

XVIII.

Directions for their decrees and proceedings.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in every Decree or Determinatination which they ſhall make by vertue and in purſuance of this Act, they ſhall have regard to the ſum and ſums of money actually diſburſed, and expended by either party in the work of Dreyning the ſaid Great Level, and in the preſervation and reparation of the ſame; and alſo to the reſpective Times of ſuch Diſburſements and expence, defalking thereout ſuch ſum and ſums of money, as have been received by either party, their Tenants and Aſſigns, for the Rents, Iſſues and Profits of the ſame, and abating out of the Intereſt of the Money diſburſed by either party ſo much as the Intereſt of the Money received by ſuch party, for the Rents, Iſſues and Profits of the ſame doth amount unto. And to the intent that the perſons who by the true intent and meaning of this Act are to be put into poſſeſſion of any part of the ſaid Eighty three thouſand acres, may not by undue delayes, or by any other means or pretenſions be kept out of the poſſeſſion of the ſame.

XIX. Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That at any time or times after the expiration of Six moneths after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Samuel Sandys the elder, and his Truſtees for him, Sir Richard Onſlow and others the Aſſignees and Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surrey deceaſed, Arthur Earl of Angleſey, Thomas Lord Culpepper, Sir William Terringham, Robert Phillips, Robert Scawen, their and every of their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns, and to and for the Participants of the ſaid Earl Francis, Parties to the ſaid Indenture of Fourteen parts, their and every of their reſpective heirs and aſſigns, whoſe Lands, Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of and in the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, were ſold, or pretended to be ſold, for non-payment of Taxes, by vertue of the ſaid pretended act of the Nine and twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and nine, to bring their reſpective action or actions of Treſpaſs, or Treſpaſs and Ejectment in His Majeſties Court of Kings Bench, or Court of Common-Pleas at Weſtminſter, againſt any perſon or perſons whatſoever, poſſeſſing, withholding, or occupying the ſame, although the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Conſervators, or ſo many and ſuch of them as are thereunto authorized by this preſent Act, have not, or ſhall not execute eſtates purſuant to this preſent Act, to ſuch perſon or perſons hereby enabled to bring ſuch Action or Actions; and ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall recover ſuch lands, Shares, Lots, Parts and Proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, as they reſpectively ſhall make and derive title and claim unto, as Participants of the ſaid Francis Earl of Bedford, parties to the ſaid Indenture of Fourteen parts, or as the reſpective Heirs or Aſſigns of the ſaid reſpective Participants parties to the ſaid Indenture of Fourteen parts, as if the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Conſervators had duely executed reſpective Eſtates of ſuch reſpective lands, Shares, Lots, parts and proportions of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act: And ſuch perſon or perſons, his and their reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns ſhall have and hold the ſame Lands, Shares, Lots, parts and proportions, as fully and effectually as if the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Conſervators had executed reſpective Eſtates thereof, ſubject nevertheleſs to ſuch Decree as the ſaid Judicature or Commiſſioners before nominated and appointed ſhal make touching or concerning the Premiſes and alſo ſubject to the payment of all Taxes, to be laid and impoſed by vertue of this Act, and no other; And whereas there are ſeveral ſums of money amounting to Four thouſand pounds or thereabouts, in arrear for Taxes, laid and impoſed ſince the nine and twentieth day of September, in the yeare of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred fifty and eight, upon ſeveral parts of the ſaid ninety five thouſand acres, ſubjected by this Act to the Judicature aforeſaid, and for Penalties incurred for non-payment of the ſame, by vertue or colour of ſome Act or Authority, or pretended Act or Authority.

4000 l. in arrear for Taxes upon whom to be laid.

XX. Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners or Judicatory, or any two of them aforeſaid, ſhall have Power and Authority, and are hereby required in ſuch adjudication as they ſhall make, touching the Lands ſubjected to their Judicature as aforeſaid, to Direct, Order and Decree, upon what Perſons or Lands, the ſaid Sums of Money ſo in Arrear for Taxes and penalties as aforeſaid ſhall be charged, and the ſaid Taxes and Penalties ſhall be accordingly levied upon ſuch perſons or Lands, and in ſuch manner, and by ſuch ways and means, as ſhall be Directed, Ordered and Decreed by the Judicature aforeſaid, or any two of them. And as if ſuch Direction, Order and Decree had been particulary hereby Enacted.

Complaints by particular perſons and Pariſhes.

And whereas particular perſons and Pariſhes do conceive and alledge, That the Dreining of one place hath Drowned and made worſe the Lands in other places: And whereas divers perſons likewiſe do alledge and complain, That the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres in many places are not indifferently ſet out, or allotted, according to the Law made at Lyn, in the Sixth year of the late King Charles, nor according to Agreement made with the Countrey; But in many places greater quantities have been taken from the Owners, Commoners, and Townſhips then ought to have been: And that ſome Lands have been taken, as belonging to one pariſh and County, which in truth did belong to another. And in many places the allotments have been taken very inconvenient for the Townſhips, which ought to have been by the ſaid Agreement. And whereas the Dreining aforeſaid, and future maintenance of the ſaid Great Level ought to be without prejudice to Navigation: And becauſe all Complaints which have been made, and all prejudices which have been or ſhall be done to particular Perſons, Pariſhes and Places, cannot by this Act be ſufficiently provided for and remedied;

Commiſſioners hearing the ſaid Complaints and Differences.

Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Sir John Tracy Knight, Sir Charles Mordant, Sir Nicholas L'Strange, Baronets, Sir William Hovel Knight, Edward Pepis, Humphrey Beddingfield, Nicholas Stileman, Eſquires, for the County of Norfolk.

Sir Nicholas Bacon, Knight of the Bath, Sir Lionel Tolimach Baronet, Sir John Duncombe Knight, Sir Edmond Pooley Knight, Sir George Reve Knight and Baronet, Sir George Weneve Knight, Thomas Waldegrave Eſquire, for the County of Suffolk.

Sir Dudley North, Sir Thomas Wendy, Knights of the Bath; Levinus Bennet Eſq; Roger King, John Pepis, Doctors of the Law, Thomas Crouch, Francis North, Eſquires for the County of Cambridge.

Sir Thomas Selater Baronet, L'Strange Colthrop, John Millecent, Thomas Hall, John Sotheby, Eſquires; John Bing Eſquire, and William Wrean Eſquire, for the Iſle of Ely.

Sir Francis Compton Knight, Robert Appreece, Sutton Aſhfield, Eſquires; Anthony South Doctor of the Law, Robert Payne, Richard Nayler, Ferrers or Gedding, Eſquires, for the County of Huntington.

Sir William Dudley Knight and Baronet, Maurice Treſham, Francis Kirkham, Lewis Palmer, Chriſtopher Thursby, Francis Lane, George Treſham, Eſquires, for the County of Northampton.

Sir Charles Huſſey, Sir John Newton, Baronets; Sir Thomas Meeres, Sir Anthony Irby, Knights, Sir Anthony Oldfield Baronet, Richard Brownlow, Daniel Rhodes, Eſquires for the County of Lincoln, ſhall be and are hereby made and conſtituted the preſent Commiſſioners for the purpoſe herein mentioned.

XXI.

The power and authority of the said Commiſſioners.

And for the ſupplying the number of the Commiſſioners of the ſaid reſpective Counties, in caſe of death or other avoidance, or incapacity: Be it alſo enacted, That within Three moneths after ſuch death, or Notice of ſuch avoidance or incapacity of the remaining Commiſſioners of each reſpective County, of which ſuch Commiſſioners who died, or became incapable were, or the major part of them ſhall from time to time nominate and appoint by Deed under their hands and ſeals to be enrolled in Chancery ſome other perſon or perſons reſiding within the ſaid County, of which the ſaid Commiſſioners who died, or became incapable, were, to be Commiſſioners in the place and ſtead of him or them ſo dying, or becoming incapable, which ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted, or hereafter to be conſtituted in manner aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them be, are and ſhall be hereby authorized and impowred from time to time to hear and determine ſuch Complaints, Controverſies, Differences and Grievances as are in this Act expreſſed (relating to, or concerning, or occaſioned by the dreining and maintaining the ſaid Great Level) of any Pariſh or Townſhip, or of any perſon or perſons, as well within or without the ſaid Level, in ſuch manner as is herein after expreſſed: And that the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted, or hereafter to be conſtituted in manner aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall from time to time have power & authority, and are hereby required, at or before the Eight and twentieth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, to give or make ſatisfaction out of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres to ſuch Pariſh or Townſhip, perſon or perſons, whoſe Lands or intereſt therein, either within, or without the ſaid Level, ſhall after the firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty & three, be made worſe in quality or condition by the aforeſaid Dreining or Works, then they were before the undertaking the Dreining of the ſaid Level in the Sixth year of the Reign of our late King Charles of bleſſed memory, and proportionable to the Loſſes the Owners of or perſons intereſſed in ſuch Lands ſhall hereafter receive by reaſon of their Lands being made worſe in Quality or Condition by any ſuch XXII. Works and Dreining as aforeſaid, and ſhall alſo have power at any time within Four years, from the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, to alter, change and reſtore ſuch parts and parcels of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, as ſhall upon complaint be found and adjudged by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Seven or more of them, to be unequally, unduly or inconveniently ſet forth, by reaſon of any allotting, either of greater quantities, or as belonging to other Countries, Pariſhes or Manors, or in more inconvenient places then they were formerly allotted and ſet out by a Law of Sewers made at Saint Ives the Twelfth day of October, in the Thirteenth year of King Charles the Firſt, notwithſtanding any veſting of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres or any part thereof in the Kings Majeſty, or in the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Commonalty, or in any other perſons before mentioned, or any Eſtates executed by them, or any of them.

Ravely, Upwood, Sothery, Wicken, Cowfenn, Beezling.

Provided, and be it enacted, That Ninety three Acres in Ravely and Upwood, Seventy ſix Acres in Sothery, Forty four Acres and one Rood in Wicken, Eighty eight Acres in Cowfenn, Two hundred eighty two Acres in Beezling, and Thirty ſeven Acres in Upwell, ſet out to be enjoyed as part of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres ſince the making of the ſaid Law of St. Ives, in lieu of like Proportions altered and reſtored to the Countrey, ſhall be held and enjoyed by the ſaid Corporation, ſubject neverthelesſ to the truſt in and by this Act declared, as to the ſaid Eighty three thouſand acres reſidue of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres; and ſhall be ſet forth to the ſaid Corporation in truſt for the Participants or Adventurers, whoſe proportion ſhall be ſo altered or exchanged, in lieu of ſuch part as ſhall be ſo altered, exchanged or reſtored, ſuch other proportions in ſuch other places within the ſaid Level, as to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, that any of the proportions of the XXIII. ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres heretofore ſet forth to Francis Earl of Bedford, his then Participants and Aſſigns, do fall ſhort in the quantity of Acres, for which the ſame were ſet forth and allotted, according to the ſaid Laws of Lynne and St. Ives, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Seven or more of them, ſhall within the ſaid Term of Four years aforeſaid, appoint the ſame to be ſupplied and made up, out of the grounds where the ſame was ſo allotted to be ſet forth, to make up the ſaid proportion of Ninety five thouſand acres. And in caſe the ſaid Earl of Bedford and his Participants, or the ſaid Corporation, ſhall through or by reaſon of their undertaking or Dreining aforeſaid, in the Sixth year of his late Majeſties Reign of ever bleſſed Memory, have done, or hereafter ſhall do any act or acts to the prejudice of Navigation, and whereby Navigation in the ſaid Rivers of Owſe and Grant, and all other Rivers now Navigable paſſing through the ſaid Level, and the River of Weſtwater, being a branch of the River of Owſe, if it be conſiſtent with the Dreining, or in any of them, or ſuch Drove-wayes or Bridges within and without the ſaid Level, as have been made or cauſed to be made by the Adventurers, and have been by them maintained, unleſs there be ſome agreement to the contrary, be or hereafter ſhall be interrupted, obſtructed and made worſe, that then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, whereof the Vice Chancellor for the Univerſity of Cambridge, the Mayor of the Town of Cambridge, and the Mayor of the Town of Kings Lynne, for the time being, to be three; if they upon notice left at their reſpective habitations ſhall think fit to be preſent, from time to time, ſhall and may decree the ſame to be made good and amended, at the proper Coſts and Charges of the ſaid Corporation, within a convenient time, as to their Judgments ſhall ſeem meet: And in caſe it ſhall hap- XXIV.

pen and ſo fall out, that the ſaid Corporation ſhall neglect or refuſe to repair and make good the ſame, according to the Order and Decree of the ſaid Commiſſioners, and within the time limited by them, that then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſio-ners, or any ſeven or more of them, by Warrant under their hands and ſeals atteſted, to tax the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres in ſuch ſum and ſums of money as in their Judgments ſhall ſeem meet for the making, preſerving and keeping the Navigation in any of the afore-ſaid Rivers, as the ſame was in the ſaid Sixth year of the ſaid King Charles the Firſt; which ſaid ſum or ſums of Money ſo to be Aſſeſſed or Taxed by the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, ſhall within Twenty dayes next after notice thereof given to the Governour or Treaſurer of the ſaid Corporation, be paid unto ſuch perſon and perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall nominate and appoint to receive the ſame. And in caſe the ſaid Governour or Treaſurer of the ſaid Corporation, after notice ſo given as aforeſaid, ſhall refuſe or neglect to pay the ſaid Sum or Sums as aforeſaid, That then the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall have full power and authority to impower the ſaid perſon or perſons to levy the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money by Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes to be taken upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, or any part thereof, and make ſale of the ſaid Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes ſo taken, and ſell the ſame, and render the overplus unto the ſaid Governour or Treaſurer, deducting the reaſonable charges for their labour and pains therein: All which ſaid ſum or ſums of Money ſo to be taxed and levied by the authority aforeſaid, ſhall be expended and laid out in preſerving and keeping the ſaid Navigation as aforeſaid, and maintaining the ſame according to the true intent and meaning of this Statute, and not otherwiſe. And the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Seven or more of them, are alſo hereby impowred and authorized within the ſpace of Four years, from the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, to aſcertain and divide the Precincts and Boundaries of ſuch parts of the ſaid reſpective Counties, Lordſhips, Manors and Pariſhes within the ſaid Level, as have been by and ſince the undertaking, defaced and made obſcure, or by ſome other means remain uncertain and hard to be found out, and ſhall ſet down ſuch Bounds and Diviſions in writing, by ſuch Marks, Boundaries and Deſcripti-ons as to them ſhall ſeem meet, and ſhall certifie the ſame under their hands and ſeals, in the high Court of Chancery; according to which Diviſion of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or XXV.
any Seven or more of them, the extent of the ſaid reſpective Counties, Lordſhips, Manors and Pariſhes in ſuch places ſo bounded and divided, ſhall for ever after the ſaid Certificate, be deemed to be, and none other: And in caſe the quantity of Eight thouſand Acres lying together, or near together, or any greater quantity of Ground lying together, or near together, within the ſaid Level, ſhall become drowned, and ſo continue for the ſpace of Twelve moneths together, That then it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Commiſſioners for the time being, or any Seven or more of them, from time to time, and at all times, to Aſſeſſe Taxes or Sums of Money upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, for the raiſing money for Draining the ſame again, in ſuch proportion as they, or any Seven or more of them ſhall think fit, together with a penalty for not paying the ſaid Taxes, the ſaid penalty not exceeding a third part of ſuch Tax.

How lands may be ſold for non payment of Taxes or penalties.

And for default of payment of the ſaid Taxes or Sums of money and penalties, Be it enacted, That the Lot and Share of ſuch Participant or Adventurer of and within the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, as ſhall be in arrear for the ſaid Tax, ſum of money, or penalty, and unpaid by the ſpace of two moneths next after the day appointed for payment by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Seven or more of them, or ſo much thereof as they ſhall think fit, ſhall be Sequeſtred by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Seven or more of them, for or towards the payment of ſuch Tax, ſum of money, or penalty ſo in arrear, reſtoring the overplus of the money for which ſuch Lot or Share, or any part thereof ſhall be Sequeſtred, if any be: Which Sequeſtration ſhall be made in writing under the hands and ſeals of the ſaid Commiſſioners for the time being, or any ſeven or more of them.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Corporation conſtituted by this Act, ſhall neglect or refuſe to pay ſuch Tax or Taxes and penalties, Sum or Sums of money as ſhall from time to time hereafter be taxed and impoſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners before named, or to be named by vertue of XXVI.
this Act, or any ſeven or more of them, purſuant to the Powers given them by this Act; whereupon the Goods and Chattels of any perſon or perſons, his or their Tenant or Tenants of and in the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, or any part thereof, ſhall be diſtrained or ſold, or his or their Lands Sequeſtred for the payment thereof, or that ſuch perſon or per-ſons, his or their Tenant or Tenants, ſhall thereupon pay the ſaid Tax and Taxes, and penalties ſo Aſſeſſed and impoſed as aforeſaid, That then the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs, and Corporation, immediately from and after notice to him or them given thereof ſhall Aſ-ſeſs and Tax the whole Ninety five thouſand Acres for the ſatisfaction and payment of the Tax, Taxes, and penalties, ſum and ſums of money, and all damages that ſuch per-ſon or perſons, his or their Tenant or Tenants hath or have paid, born or ſuſtained, as a-foreſaid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Governour, Bay-liffs and Corporation ſhall not within ſix moneths next after demand made by ſuch perſon or perſons his and their Heirs, Executors and adminiſtrators whoſe, own, or Tenant or Tenants, Goods and Chattels ſhall be diſtrained or ſold, or Lands ſequeſtred as aforeſaid, pay and ſatisfie unto him or them ſuch ſum and ſums of money, and damages, as he or they, and his and their reſpective Tenant or Tenants have reſpectively paid, born and ſuſtained, That then, and from thenceforth ſuch perſon and perſons, his and their Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall and may bring his and their Action or Actions of Debt in any of the Kings Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, againſt the ſaid Governour, Bayliffs and Corporation, for the recovery thereof, and by vertue of this Act ſhall recover the ſame, and be allowed Coſts of Suit expended therein.

XXVII. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Commiſſioners ſo conſtituted or to be hereafter conſtituted as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, for the better execution of the Powers hereby given, ſhall and may inform themſelves by examining Witneſſes upon Oath, which hereby they or ſeven or more of them ſhall have power to adminiſter due execution of all, every or any the Powers or Authorities hereby given them, and for the doing Juſtice therein accordingly.

The Commiſſioners to take an Oath.

Provided always, That the ſaid Commiſſioners and every of them, before he or they take upon him or them the execution of any the Powers or Authorities hereby given them other then the adminiſtring the Oath following to one another, which they ſhall have authority by this preſent Act to adminiſter to one another, ſhall take the Oath following, (viz.)

I A. B. ſhall and will without favour or affection, hatred or malice, truly and impartially, according to the beſt of my skill and knowledg, execute and perform all and every the powers and Authorities eſtabliſhed by this Act of Parliament.

Which Oath any one of the ſaid Commiſſioners are hereby authorized to adminiſter.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Judgments, Orders, Decrees, Determinations, Alterations, Changes, Reſtaurations, and other Acts done by the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted or hereafter to be conſtituted as aforeſaid, or of any ſeven or more of them reſpectively, purſuant to the powers and Authorities by this Act given ſhall be final; And that the firſt time and place of their Meeting ſhall be at or before the Two and twentieth day of September, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, at Ely.

The places where the Commiſſioners ſhall ſit.

And that afterwards the uſual places where the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall ſit to Hear, Order, and Determine the Matters to them referred by this Act, ſhall from the 29th of September, to the 26th day of March in every year, be at the Town of Huntington; and from the 25th day of March, till the 30th day of September in every year, be at Ely, unleſs the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted, or hereafter to be conſtituted as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them ſhall appoint ſome other place or places, being any Market Town or Towns; And the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them ſhall by Warrant under their hands and ſeals declare the places and times of their after meeting, which Warrant ſhall be publiſhed in the open Market of ſuch reſpective places where they laſt ſate, between the hours of Twelve and Two upon ſome Market day, one moneth at the leaſt before the ſaid time or times of meeting, To the end all perſons concerned may have ſufficient time and notice to make their appearance before them upon any cauſe of complaint, or other occaſion; And ſhall have power and Authority by Warrant under the hands and ſeals of any ſeven or more of them to ſummon Parties and Witneſſes to appear before them.

XXVIII.

Provided, That none of the ſaid Commiſſioners hereby conſtituted, or hereafter to be conſtituted as aforeſaid, ſhall Vote or give his Judgment or Determination in any matter or thing which concerns the Diviſions and Bounds of the County, of or for which he is appointed Commiſſioner.

Provided alſo, That no perſon who hath any Part, Share, or Intereſt in Poſſeſſion or Reverſion of or in any Mannors or Lands within the ſaid Level, ſhall be a Commiſſioner.

And in caſe of Deſcent, Gift, Deviſe, or Purchaſe of any ſuch Part, Share or Intereſt to, or by any the ſaid Commiſſioners, It is hereby Declared and Enacted, That immediately after ſuch Deſcent, Gift, Deviſe or purchaſe to or by any ſuch Commiſſioner, The ſaid Deſcent, Gift, Deviſe or purchaſe ſhall be an avoidance of his being a Commiſſioner; and ſhall make him be incapable of being again nominated, or appointed a Commiſſioner whilſt his Intereſt doth remain.

Provided alſo, and the ſaid Commiſſioners for the time being, or any ſeven or more of them ſhall from time to time, and at all times have power and authority to give and make ſatisfaction out of the Ninety five thouſand Acres; to ſuch perſon or perſons whoſe Lands or Intereſt therein (by any New Works, hereafter to be made by the ſaid Corporation without the ſaid Level for conveying of the Waters of the ſaid Level by convenient Outfals to the Sea) ſhall be made worſe in quality condition or value, then they were before the ſaid undertaking in the ſaid Sixth year of the ſaid late King Charles, proportionable to the loſs and damage the Parties ſhall receive thereby.

Owners of Eſtates and Commons may improve.

And to the end that the Owners of the Commons and Waſtes in the ſaid Level and other Towns, Pariſhes and places, unto which the Works aforeſaid, or any of them do extend, may improve the ſame by making Diviſions and Incloſures, Be it Provided and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon or perſons, Body Politique or Corporate whatſoever, their Heirs and Succeſſors, that are or ſhall be Lords of manors, or have or ſhall have right of Common in the ſaid Waſtes, to Improve, Set out, Incloſe, Divide and Sever ſuch Proportion or Proportions, as to them ſhall or may ſeverally or reſpectively belong or appertain, or be adjudged and allotted out of the ſaid Commons and Waſtes within the ſaid Level, or within any Town, Pariſh or place into which the Works aforeſaid, or any of them do extend. And to hold ſuch proportion in ſeveralty at all times of the year; and all differences that ſhall ariſe concerning the Boundaries daries of the Waſtes, Rights of Common, Aprovements, Allotments, Diviſions and Incloſures, ſhall from time to time, and at all times be determined, Adjudged, and finally ended by the ſaid Commiſſioners for the time being, or any ſeven or more of them upon their View or Examination of Witneſſes upon Oath, which they are hereby Authorized to Adminiſter, or upon both, and hearing of the parties concerned by their Adjudication under their Hands and Seals in Writing, which Determination and Judgment being Certified into XXIX. the Petty-bag, there to be Filed and kept on Record, ſhall be final and concluſive unto all parties: And the Allotments, Diviſions and Proporitons ſo Adjudged or Decreed to be held by the ſaid reſpective perſons, to whom they are ſo Set out, ſhall be held by him or them, and his and their Heirs, Executors and Aſſigns reſpectively, according to his or their Tenure or Tenures, Eſtate, Title or Intereſt they had in the Mannors, Tenements, and Lands, for which they Claimed the ſaid Proportions of Common as aboveſaid; paying ſuch Fines and Rents, and doing ſuch Services in proportion for the ſame, as by Cuſtom or otherways they are to pay or do, and do for the Mannors, Tenements and Lands, for which they Claim the ſame proportion, having ſuch reſpect to the yearly values of the one and the other, as ſhall (if need ſo require) be limited by ſeven or more of the Commiſſioners.

Sutton, Meadland,

XXX. Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch perſon and perſons (as were heretofore Owners of the One hundred ſeventy five Acres in Sutton, North and South Meadland in the ſaid Iſle of Ely, ſet out by the ſaid Law of St. Ives as a recompence for Dreining the whole North and South Meadlands, containing about One thouſand Acres, their Heirs or Aſſigns to ſue and implead before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, the Owners and Occupiers of the ſaid North and South Meadland or elſewhere within the ſaid Great Level, to draw them into Contribution for their ſeveral and reſpective Proportions of the ſaid North and South Meadlands, towards the ſaid One hundred ſeventy five Acres. And the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall thereupon Adjudge and Decree unto the ſaid Owners of the ſaid One hundred ſeventy five Acres, or ſuch of them as they ſhall think fit, and to their Heirs and Aſſigns, ſuch recompence and ſatisfaction, either in ready Money, yearly Rent, or Land, out of the reſidue of the ſaid North and South Meadlands, as to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them ſhall ſeem meet, to be held and enjoyed by the ſaid Owners of the ſaid One hundred ſeventy five Acres, their heirs and Aſſigns.

Londoners Fenn.

Upwell, Outwell, Welney.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for Sir John Watts, Knight, and others, who derive any Intereſt under the Dreyners of that Fenn called Londoner Fenn, his and their Heirs and Aſſigns, to ſue and implead all and every perſon and perſons, their Executors and Adminiſtrators, that have taken and received the rents and profits of his or their ſhare and proportion of Londoners Fenn, remaining from the ſhare and proportion allotted and ſet out by the ſaid Law of St. Ives ſince the ſaid Level was adjudged Dreined, and to ſue for and recover the ſame in any of his Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter; and alſo that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Sir John Watts and the Participants aforeſaid, his and their Heirs and Aſſigns heretofore Owners of the ſeveral proportions in Londoners Fenn, ſet out by St. Ives Law for the Adventurers recompence for Dreyning the low Grounds in Upwell, Outwell, Welney, to purſue and proſecute before the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, their claim, and ſue for relief againſt the owners or occupiers of the Fenny and low ſurrounded Grounds lying in Upwell, Outwell, and Welney, aforeſaid, whoſe Grounds did not all contribute, or not in equal proportion to the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, to draw them into Contribution, in eaſe of the ſaid Sir John VVatts and the Participants aforeſaid, and thereupon the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, are hereby impowred to adjudge and decree unto the ſaid Sir John VVatts, and the participants aforeſaid, his and their Heirs and aſſigns, ſuch proportion out of the ſaid Grounds, which have not equally contributed as aforeſaid, as to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them ſhall ſeem meet.

Douſedale Bank.

XXXI. Provided always, and be it enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Kings Majeſty and the Queens Majeſty, their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, to continue in the poſſeſſion, uſage and diſpoſal of the Bank, called Douſedale Bank, being on the South ſide of his Majeſties Demean Lands, called Port ſand, belonging to their Mannor of Crowland, being part thereof, and to have ſuch ancient Paſſages and Currents as of right have been uſed and accuſtomed, for the avoidance of water through the ſame into the River South Eae, as if this Act had never been made.

How and for what time Archbiſhops, Biſhops &c. may make Leaſes.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, and all Colledges and Halls in either Univerſity, and all Bodies Politique and Corporate, who are or ſhall be Lords of Manors, or have, or ſhall have right of Soil or Common in the Waſtes within this ſaid Level, or within ſuch other Towns, Pariſhes and places into which the Works of the Dreining aforeſaid do or ſhall extend, and who are by this Act impowred to improve, ſet out, incloſe, divide and ſever ſuch proportion or proportions as to them ſhall or may reſpectively belong or appertain, out of the ſaid Commons and Waſtes within the ſaid Level, to demiſe by Indenture all and every the ſaid ſuch proportion or proportions as to them ſhall or may reſpectively belong or appertain, out of the ſaid Commons or Waſtes within the ſaid Level which have not by expreſs words, and under any particular Rent been at any time formerly demiſed for any Term or Number of years, not exceeding One and twenty years, ſo as upon every ſuch Demiſe or Leaſe be reſerved the fourth part of the true yearly value to be aſcertained by the Commiſſioners aforeſaid, or any ſeven of them, due and payable yearly during the ſaid Term, to him or them, and his and their Succeſſors.

XXXII. Provided alwayes, and be it declared by and with the conſent of all Parties concerned, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend or be conſtrued to extend to alter the poſſeſſion of Thomas Chicheley Eſquire, of or from Six hundred ſeventy one Acres, parcel of the Lot now claimed to belong to the ſaid Truſtees of Henry late Earl of Arundel and Surrey, and Two hundred thirty one acres, parcel of the Lot now claimed to belong to the ſaid Sir William Terringham, or from any part thereof, by him the ſaid Thomas Chicheley now enjoyed under Purchaſers by Sales for non-payment of Taxes upon the diſpute between the old and new Adventurers; But that the ſaid Corporation ſhall execute Conveyances of the ſaid reſpective proportions unto the ſaid Thomas Chicheley, his Heirs and Aſſigns, Any thing herein contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided always, and be it enacted, That all ſuch Right or Rights as any Lord or Lords of any Manor or Manors, Liberties, Hundred or half hundred, have heretofore had within their reſpective Manor or Manors, Liberties, Hundred or half hundred within or without the ſaid Level, to Waifes, Strayes, Felons Goods, Priviledges of Arreſts, Eſcheats, and all other Royalties not prejudicial to the Draining, be hereby ſaved to them, their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns ſeverally and reſpectively; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

4 Jac. cap. 13.

Provided always, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be interpreted to infringe, or any way to weaken an Act made the Fourth year of the Reign of King James, entituled, An Act for the Draining of certain Fenns and Low Grounds within the Iſle of Ely, ſubject to hurt by Surrounding, containing about Six thouſand Acres, compaſſed about with certain Banks, commonly called and named, The Ring of Walterſea and Coldham; but the ſaid Act ſhall ſtand in full force and vertue; Any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XXXIII. Provided alſo, That whereas divers Lands in and near adjoyning unto the ſaid Great Level, have been cut through for the better conveying of the Waters from the ſame, and for upholding or repairing the Banks and Works there, without ſatisfaction to the reſpective Owners of the ſaid Lands, for the damage they have ſuſtained by ſuch cutting, Be it further enacted, That the ſaid Commiſſioners for the time being, or any ſeven or more of them, upon complaint to them made of ſuch damage ſuſtained as aforeſaid, without recompence for the ſame, ſhall be, and are hereby impowred to award and decree ſuch recompence and ſatisfaction to the party and parties grieved, according to their reſpective damages ſuſtained by ſuch cutting, as to the ſaid Commiſſioners for the time being, or any ſeven or more of them ſhall be adjudged reaſonable, the ſaid recompence and ſatisfaction to be made and given by the ſaid Corporation, within ſix moneths next after ſuch Award or Decree made; and in default thereof, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall and may, and are hereby impowered to Rate and Tax the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, and to Diſtrain thereupon for the payment of ſuch Rate or Tax, and the Diſtreſs taken thereupon to ſell or diſpoſe as they ſhall think fit, (rendring the overplus, if any be, to the Owners) for the payment and ſatisfaction of ſuch moneys, and damages as ſhall be ſo Awarded; Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

The Barons of the Exchequer impowred to hear and determine differences between parties.

Provided nevertheleſs, That in caſe the Judicature hereby eſtabliſhed, ſhall not within Twelve moneths from the Firſt day of Auguſt next, hear and determine all the matters by this Act to them referred, concerning the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, all and every ſuch perſon and perſons whoſe Complaint ſhall be then undetermined, may make their applications to the Barons of his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, who are hereby eſtabliſhed a Court of Judicature, and ſufficiently authorized to hear and determine all ſuch controverſies and differences between the ſaid parties, in as large and ample manner, to all intents and purpoſes, as the Judicature hereby eſtabliſhed might have done, and ſuch Judgement, Order or Decree of the ſaid Court of Exchequer, ſhall be in all things obſerved, and be effectual as if the ſaid Barons had been made the only Judicature by this Act.

Leſſees of the King.

Provided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Leſſees of the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors of the ſaid Ten thouſand Acres, or of any part thereof, and the Aſſigns of ſuch Leſſees, and every or any of them, ſhall be capable to be elected and choſen into the Office or Place, Offices or Places of Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators aforeſaid, and to vote in ſuch elections and choice, and all other matters, as fully to all intents and purpoſes as any other Members of the Corporation, Owners of any part of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, may be elected and choſen, vote in ſuch election and choice, or in any other matter, ſo as ſuch Leſſees and their Aſſignees reſpectively have and be Leſſees or Owners of double the quantity or number of acres, parcel of the ſaid Ten thouſand acres, as by vertue of this Act is required, to qualifie any perſon to be elected and choſen into the Office or Place of Governour, Bayliff or Conſervator reſpectively, and to Vote in ſuch elections and choice, or in any other matter touching the ſaid Level, and ſo as ſuch Leaſes or Aſſignments they claim by, be entred with the Regiſter; any thing before in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

XXXIV. Provided alwayes, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this act ſhall not extend to Impeach or make void any Obligation given to David Offley Gentleman, conditioned for his quiet enjoyment of a certain parcel of Land purchaſed by him in the ſaid Level, but that the ſaid David Offley may ſue and proſecute his ſeveral action or actions upon the ſaid Obligation, as if he had been evicted or removed from his Eſtate therein by due courſe of Law.

How Breaches ſhall be made good.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Breaches happen in any of the Banks, Saſſes, Sluces, Tunnels, or other Works within the ſaid Great Level, or in any the Works made without the ſaid Great Level, for carrying the Waters of the ſaid Great Level to their Out-fall at Sea, by reaſon of ſome inevitable accidents, the ſame ſhall be repaired and made good in convenient time, by and at the Charges of the ſaid Corporation and their Succeſſors; but no other Charge ſhall be laid upon the Corporation or their Succeſſors, for or in reſpect of ſuch Breaches, nor for or in reſpect of any Breaches that have happened heretofore in any of the ſaid Banks, Saſſes, Sluces or other Works; nor ſhall the ſaid Corporation be inforced to give to any other perſon any recompence for any loſs or damage which hath or ſhall happen, by reaſon of their making neceſſary and ſufficient Banks for the defending of the ſaid Level from being overflown, and for the leading of the waters of the ſaid Level in their Channels as now they run, unto their Out-fall at Sea.

Proviſo for perſons that have exchanged their Lands.

Provided nevertheleſs, and be it enacted, That where any Participant under Francis Earl of Bedford, or the Heirs or Aſſigns of any ſuch Participant, hath exchanged his or their Share or Lot of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, or any part thereof, for any other Lands, parcel of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, which were claimed and held under ſuch pretended Sales, for non-payment of Taxes, ſince One thouſand ſix hundred forty and nine, It ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Participant and Participants, and his and their Heirs and Aſſigns, to enter again upon the ſame Lands ſo given in exchange, and to have and retain the ſame in his and their poſſeſſion, Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: Subject nevertheleſs in all things to ſuch Judgment and Determination as the Judicature hereby conſtrued ſhall make concerning the ſame.

XXXV.

Provided always, That no aſcertaining or dividing of the ſaid Dreyned or new improved Lands by the ſaid Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, ſhall conclude the Kings Majeſty, his heirs Succeſſors or Aſſigns, or any other perſon or perſons as to the bounds of Pariſhes, to any other intent or purpoſe, then ſubjecting the ſame to Taxes and Contributions, and Epiſcopal Juriſdictions, and not as to the Right of Tythes, or any other purpoſe whatſoever, nor ſhall be, or be uſed in evidence concerning the ſame.

Commons and Waſtes in Bedford Level incloſed.

Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons having right of Common in any of the Mannors, Waſtes, Common or Lands within the ſaid Great Level of the Fenns, called Bedford Level, or any other perſon or perſon whatſoever, at any time after ſuch Diviſion or Incloſure made, or ſet out as aforeſaid, ſhall break, throw down, diſturb, obſtruct, or by any means hinder, or lay open the ſaid Improvements and Incloſures, at, in or after the making thereof, or the Hedges, Ditches or Fences of the ſame, or any part thereof convicted by credible Witneſſes upon Oath before two Juſtices of the Peace of the County where ſuch Diſturbance or Deſtruction ſhall be made: Every ſuch perſon or perſons ſo convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence the ſum of twenty pounds, to be levied by Diſtreſs upon the Goods and Chattels of every ſuch offender or offenders, by warrant under the hands and ſeals of the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace before whom ſuch conviction ſhall be made, the one moyety to the Informer, and the other moyety to ſuch perſon or perſons againſt whom the ſaid Offence is or ſhall be committed; or for want of ſuch ſufficient diſtreſs, the Offender ſhall be committed to the houſe of Correction or Common Goal for three Months without bail or mainpriſe, at the ſaid Juſtices Diſcretion.

XXXVI.

After the year 1668. Taxes ſhall not exceed 2 s. in the pound.

Provided alwayes, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the firſt day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight, no Tax or Taxes exceeding Two ſhillings the Acre in any one year ſhall be aſſeſſed, laid or levied upon the ſaid Ten thouſand Acres by this Act veſted in the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, or upon any part thereof, or upon the two thouſand Acres hereby veſted in the Aſſigns of the ſaid Earl of Portland; but in caſe the Taxes to be Aſſeſſed upon the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres hereby veſted in the ſaid Corporation, ſhall not amount unto ſo much in proportion as Two ſhillings an Acre, according to the proportion for each acre; Then a proportionable abatement ſhall be made out of the ſaid Two ſhillings per Acre, which ſhall be charged yearly by an equal rate upon every acre of the ſaid Ten thouſand acres, and the ſaid Two thouſand acres, according to the Rate impoſed upon every acre of the ſaid Eighty three thouſand acres, whether the ſame ſhall be aſſeſſed by an Acre-Tax, or a Pound-rate or by any other way; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And it is further Declared, That the Aſſeſſing, Laying and Levying of Taxes upon the ſaid Ten thouſand acres, or upon the ſaid Two thouſand acres, or any part thereof, after the ſaid Firſt day of Auguſt, which ſhall be in the ſaid year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight, by the way of an Acre-tax, ſhall not extend nor be interpreted or conſtrued to extend to compel or conclude the ſaid Corporation, to Aſſeſs, Lay or Levy any Tax or Taxes upon the ſaid Eighty three thouſand acres, hereby veſted in the ſaid Corporation or upon any part thereof by the way of an Acre-Tax.

Anno XVI. Caroli II. Regis.

CAP. I.

Parliaments ſhall be held once in Three years at the leaſt; And an Act for the preventing of Inconveniences happening by the long Intermiſſion of Parliaments, Repealed.

16 Car. 1. cap. 1.

WHereas the Act made in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the Third day of November in the Sixteenth year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King Charles of bleſſed memory, entituled, An Act for preventing of Inconveniences happening by the long Intermiſſion of Parliaments, is in derogation of his Majeſties juſt Rights, and Prerogative inherent to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, for the Calling and Aſſembling of Parliaments; And may be an occaſion of manifold miſchiefs and inconveniences, and much endanger the Peace and Safety of his Majeſty, and all his Liege People of this Realm.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, entituled, An Act for the preventing of Inconveniences happening by the long Intermiſſion of Parliaments, And all and every

A Repeal of the ſaid Act.

the Articles, Clauſes and Things therein contained, is, ſhall be, and are hereby wholly Repealed, Annulled, and utterly made Void, And are hereby declared to be Null and Void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, as if the ſaid Act had never been had, or made; Any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

4 E.3. cap 14.
36 E.3. cap.10.

And becauſe by the Ancient Laws and Statutes of this Realm, made in the reign of King Edward the Third, Parliaments are to be held very often, Your Majeſties humble and loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual and temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, moſt humbly do beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That it may be declared and Enacted, And be it Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That hereafter the ſitting and holding of Parliaments ſhall not be intermitted or diſcontinued above Three years at the moſt; but that within Three years from and after the determination of this preſent Parliament, and ſo from time to time within Three years after the determination of any other Parliament or Parliaments, or if there be occaſion, more oftner, Your Majeſty, Your Heirs and Succeſſors do iſſue out Your Writs for calling, aſſembling and holding of another Parliament, to the end there may be a frequent calling, aſſembling and holding of Parliaments once in Three years at the leaſt.

CAP. II.

An Act for preventing of Abatement of Writs of Error upon Judgments in the Exchequer.

31 El. cap. 1.
31 E.3. cap.12.

WHereas by a Statute in the One and thirtieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth, It is Enacted, That the not coming of the Lord Chancellor, and Lord Treaſurer, or either of them, at the day of Adjournment, in any Suit of Error depending, by vertue of the Statute of the one and thirtieth year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, therein mentioned, concerning Error made in the Exchequer, ſhall not be any Diſcontinuance of any ſuch Writ of Error: But if both the Chief Juſtices of either Bench, or any one of the ſaid great Officers, the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Treaſurer ſhall come to the Exchequer-Chamber, and there be preſent at the day of Adjournment in ſuch Suit of Error, It ſhall be no Diſcontinuance, but the Suit ſhall proceed in Law to all intents and purpoſes, as if both the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer had come, and been preſent at the day and place of Adjournment. Which Statute doth not provide a Remedy, in caſe the ſaid Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer, or either of them ſhall not be preſent at the days and times of the Returns of ſuch Writs of Error, although it be within the ſame miſchief, Juſtice being delayed: And the parties in ſuch caſes being put to begin new Suits, to their great Charges and prejudice, by reaſon of the abſence and not coming of the ſaid great Officers.

The not coming of the Lord Chancellor or Lord Treaſurer.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this Parliament Aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the not coming of the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer or either of them, at the day of Return of any Writ of Error, to be ſued forth by vertue of the ſaid ſtatute made in the ſaid One and thirtieth year of the reign of the ſaid King Edward the Third, ſhall not cauſe any Any abatement or Diſcontinuance of any ſuch Writ of Error. But if both the Chief Juſtices of either Bench, or either of them, or any one of the ſaid great officers the Lord Chancellor or Lord Treaſurer, ſhall come to the Exchequer-Chamber, and there be preſent at the day of Return of any ſuch Writ of Error, it ſhall be no Abatement or Diſcontinuance; But the Suit ſhall proceed in Law to all intents and purpoſes, as if both the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer had come, and been preſent at the day and place of Return of ſuch Writ.

Provided always, That no Judgment ſhall be given in any ſuch Suit, or Writ of Error, unleſs both the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer ſhall be preſent thereat.

CAP. III.

For Collecting the Duty ariſing by Hearth-Money, by Officers to be appointed by his Majeſty,

13 Car.2. ca.10.
15 Car.2. ca.14.

WHereas by an Act made in the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the Eight day of May in the Thirteenth year of his Majeſties Reign that now is, Entituled, An Act for Eſtabliſhing an Additional Revenue upon His Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the better Support of His and their Crown and Dignity; And by another Act made in the ſecond Seſſion of the ſaid Parliament, in the Fifteenth year of the Reign of his ſaid Majeſty, Entituled, An Additional Act for the better Ordering and Collecting the Revenue ariſing by Hearth-money, It was enacted and Ordained, That from and after the five and twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and two, every Dwelling, and other Houſe and Edifice, and all Lodgings in Inns of Court, Inns of Chancery, Colledges, and other Societies that are, or hereafter ſhall be erected within the Kingdom of England Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed (other then ſuch as are therein excepted) ſhall be, and are charged with the Annual payment to the Kings Majeſty, his heirs and Succeſſors, for eve-Fire-Hearth and Stove within every ſuch Houſe, Edifice, Chambers and Lodgings, the ſum of two ſhillings by the year, to be paid yearly at the Feaſts of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, and of the Annuntiation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary, by even and equal portions; an exact and juſt Account of the numbers of all which Fire-Hearths and Stoves is thereby Enacted to be taken and returned into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer; And the Moneys and Revenues due and payable for the ſame, to be collected, levied and paid to his Majeſty, by ſuch perſons and Officers, in manner and form as by the ſaid Acts is preſcribed.

Nevertheleſs, by reaſon of ſome defects in the ſaid Act, and great negligence of the ſaid Officers and other perſons, in not returning the exact numbers of the ſaid Fire-Hearths and Stoves, and not duly Collecting, Levying and paying into his Majeſties Exchequer, the Revenue due for the numbers returned at the times appointed, and by ſundry fraudulent practiſes to elude the ſaid Acts, the ſaid revenue is much diminiſhed, and not duly anſwered.

For remedy thereof, and for the better aſcertaining & collecting the ſaid Revenue for the future, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Kings Majeſty, his heirs and Succeſſors, from and after the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four, from time to time, by, and with the Advice of the Lord High Treaſurer, Chancellour, Under-Treaſurer, and Barons of the Court of Exchequer for the time being, or any three of them, whereof the Lord High Treaſurer, or Chancellor of the Exchequer to be one, to conſtitute and appoint ſuch perſon or perſons as his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors ſhall think meet to be the Officer or Officers for the receiving and collecting, and anſwering the duty ariſing by the ſaid Fire-Hearths and Stoves by vertue of the ſaid ſeveral Acts, and for viewing and numbring of the ſeveral Chimney-hearths and Stoves mentioned in the ſaid Acts; and for the inſpecting and examining the ſeveral Rolls, Certificates and Returns thereof made, and to be made from time to time into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, in purſuance of the ſaid Acts, or any other thing belonging to the ſame: Which officers, or any of them ſhall have full power to examine and ſuperviſe the Rolls and Numbers of Fire-Hearths and Stoves already returned into the ſaid Court of Exchequer; And being accompanied with the Conſtable, or the Tithing-man, Treaſurer, Under-Treaſurer, or other publick or proper officer of the place, (who are hereby required to attend and aſſiſt upon this occaſion) and in all Pariſhes and places where there are no Conſtables, Tithingmen, or other publick officer as aforeſaid, there, without any ſuch Aſſiſtance to enter in the day time into any dwelling or other Houſe, Edifice, Lodgings and Chambers aforeſaid, And to ſearch and examine whether there be any more Fire-hearths and Stoves in the ſame then were formerly returned or certified, and what Fire-hearths or Stoves are increaſed, or decreaſed ſince the former Certificate. After which ſearch and examination, the ſaid Officer, with a Conſtable, or Tythingman, or Officers as aforeſaid, ſhall have liberty to make the like ſearch and examination once every year: And if they ſhall find any variance in the number returned, both the Officer or Officers appointed by his Majeſty, and the Conſtable or Tythingman, or other officer as aforeſaid, to certifie the ſame under his and their hands to the Clerk of the Peace, which Certificate they are hereby enjoyned to make: And after approbation thereof by the Juſtices of the Peace at their Seſſions, the ſame to be certified to his Majeſties Remembrancer in the Exchequer and the officer and officers ſo appointed by his Majeſty unto the ſame, ſhall from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four, have power to collect and levy the Revenue and Duties ſo given to his Majeſty as aforeſaid, and all arrears of the ſame.

And be it further Enacted, That the ſaid Duty ſhall from time to time be paid after the Feaſt days of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, and the Annuntiation of the Virgin Mary yearly, unto ſuch officer as ſhall be appointed by vertue of this preſent Act to receive the ſame upon demand thereof made by ſuch officer, or his Deputy at the Houſe, Chamber, or place where the ſame Duty ſhall ariſe or grow due: And that in caſe of refuſal, or default of ſuch payment thereof, by the ſpace of one hour after ſuch demand, the ſaid officer or his Deputy may at any time, with the aſſiſtance of a conſtable, Tythingman, or other officer, as aforeſaid in the day time, levy the ſaid Duty, and all the Arrearages thereof, by diſtreſs and ſale of the goods of the party or parties ſo refuſing, or making default, reſtoring to the party or parties the over-plus of the value of ſuch goods, over and above the Duty and Arrearages thereof then behind, and over and above the neceſſary charges of taking ſuch Diſtreſs, which charges ſhall in no caſe exceed the one moyety of the Duty and Arrearages thereof ſo levied.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That no owners, Proprietors, or occupiers of the ſaid Fire-hearths or Stoves, ſhall be charged, diſtrained, or moleſted for the ſaid Duty, or any Arrearages thereof, at any time after the ſpace of two years next after the Duty hereafter ſhall become due to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; Nor for any Arrearages of the ſaid Duty already incurred, after the ſpace of two years, from the Four and twentieth day of June, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four. And in caſe of violent oppoſition, or injury done by any perſon or perſons to any ſuch officer or his Deputy, in the due execution of this Act; and the ſame proved by oath before any one Juſtice of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates of the City, Town, or place dwelling near unto the place, who are hereby authorized to adminiſter the ſaid oath; It ſhall and may be lawful to, and for ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, Magiſtrate or Magiſtrates to puniſh ſuch offendor or offendors, if he ſhall find cauſe, by Impriſonment in the Common Goal, for any time not exceeding the ſpace of one moneth. And from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four, all officers formerly appointed to collect the ſaid Duty, ſhall be diſcharged from the future collecting and levying the ſame, otherwiſe then as they are directed by this Act: And the ſaid officer and officers ſo appointed by his Majeſty to collect this duty, ſhall pay the ſame into his Majeſties Exchequer, to the ends in the ſaid former Acts mentioned.

Provided, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be employed as aforeſaid, unleſs he and they ſhall firſt give in ſufficient Security to his Majeſty, his heirs and Succeſſors, for the due collecting, levying and paying in of the ſaid Revenue, or ſuch part thereof as ſhall be committed to their reſpective Truſts, and ſhall likewiſe take a corporal Oath before one or more of the Barons of the Exchequer, or before ſuch perſons as ſhall be authoriſed to take ſuch Security and Oath by Commiſſion from the ſaid Court of Exchequer, for the due and faithful execution thereof, according to the Laws enacted to that purpoſe; And that they ſhall not exact or demand any Fee or ſum of money for execution thereof, from any Subject, but only from the Kings Majeſty, under pain of being diſabled to execute the ſaid Office or Imployment; And upon legal Conviction of any ſuch Crime, to render treble damage to the party grieved: And ſhall ſign and deliver Acquittances for moneys by them received, without any fee or reward whatſoever; and every ſuch Acquittance ſhall be a final Diſcharge, as in the ſaid firſt Act is provided.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon occupying any Hearth or Stove chargeable to his Majeſty, ſhall leave or relinquiſh any Houſe, Edifice, Lodging or Chamber, before any of the half-yearly Feaſts whereon the ſame is appointed to be paid to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors; In every ſuch caſe, the next Occupier thereof ſhall be chargeable with the ſame for the ſaid half year: And if any perſon ſhall fraudulently ſtop up, deface, cover or conceal any Chimney-Hearth or Stove chargeable by the ſaid Act, and the ſame be proved, either by confeſſion of the party, or upon Oath before one Juſtice of Peace, or chief Magiſtrate, or by their view, he ſhall for ſuch offence pay double the value of the Duty for the ſame, to be levied as aforeſaid.

And be it likewiſe enacted, That if any perſon within one year laſt paſt hath, or hereafter ſhall let the Lands, Gardens, Orchards or Out-houſes formerly belonging to any Dwelling-Houſe or Cottage apart from the ſame, or ſhall divide any houſe into ſeveral dwellings, or let out the ſame to any ſuch perſons, who by reaſon of their poverty may pretend to be exempted from payment of the ſaid Duty, by any Clauſe or Clauſes in the former Acts, That in every ſuch caſe, ſuch perſon ſhall pay the ſaid duty in as ample manner as they ought to have done before that time. And that no perſon or perſons inhabiting any Dwelling-houſe (not being an Alms-houſe exempted by the former Act) within any City, Burrough, Corporation, Market-Town or Pariſh which hath, or ſhall have in it more than two Chimneys, Fire-Hearths or Stoves, ſhall be exempted from payment of the Duties thereon impoſed, by colour of any exemption or pretext whatſoever.

And if any queſtion or difference ſhall ariſe about the taking any Diſtreſs, or levying any money by vertue of this Act, the ſame ſhall be heard and finally determined by one or more of the Juſtices of the Peace near adjoyning, or chief Magiſtrate of the place reſpectively, upon complaint in that behalf.

And be it further enacted, That every Collector who ſhall be authoriſed and appointed by vertue of this Act to receive any of the ſaid Duties, ſhall truly anſwer and pay all ſuch moneys as he ſhall receive for the ſaid Duties, into his Majeſties Receipt of Exchequer, half-yearly, within Three moneths after the Feaſt of Saint Michael the Arch-Angel, or the Annuntiation of the bleſſed Virgin Mary, happening next after the time the ſame moneys grew due to his Majeſtie by vertue of the ſaid Acts, and under the penalty of the loſs of his Office: And the Juſtices of peace, and chief Magiſtrates, Conſtables, and other his Majeſties Officers within their ſeveral Limits and Juriſdictions, are hereby authoriſed and required to give aſſiſtance from time to time, to ſuch Officers as ſhall be appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the collecting of the ſaid Duty according to the true meaning of the ſaid former Acts, and this preſent Act.

Provided, That no perſon or perſons ſhall be queſtioned for any arrears due on or before our Lady day, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four, who ſhall produce to the Collector a Certificate approved or to be approved of by the two next Juſtices of Peace, for their exemption from the ſaid Duty for that time, according to the Rules preſcribed in the ſaid firſt recited Act; nor any perſon who hath truly paid the ſaid Duty, and ſhall, if it be required, make proof thereof before any one Juſtice of Peace, or other chief Magiſtrate of the place; Any thing therein contained, or any Return made into his Majeſties Exchequer to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Officer or Officers as ſhall be at any time appointed by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for the collecting, gathering and receiving of the ſeveral ſums of money now or hereafter to grow due unto his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for or in reſpect of the ſaid Duty ariſing upon the Fire-Hearths and Stoves, ſhall ſatisfie and pay unto the reſpective Petty-Conſtables and Clerks of the Peace of this Kingdom, all ſuch allowances as are by any former Act or Acts given and allowed unto them, as well for their pains and labour heretofore, as hereafter to be taken by them, as in and by the former Acts concerning Fire-hearths and Stoves are limited and appointed; Any thing in this Act to the contaary notwithſtanding.

CAP. IV.

Seditious Conventicles ſuppreſſed.

35 El. cap. 1. Declared to be in force.

Whereas an Act made in the Five and thirtieth year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lady Queen Elizabeth, entituled, An Act to retain the Queens Majeſties Subjects in their due Obedience, hath not been put in due Execution, by reaſon of ſome doubt of late made, Whether the ſaid Act be ſtill in force; although it be very clear and evident, And it is hereby Declared, That the ſaid Act is ſtill in force, and ought to be put in due execution.

Further remedy againſt Seditious Sectaries.

For providing therefore of further and more ſpeedy remedies againſt the growing and dangerous practiſes of Seditious Sectaries, and other diſloyal perſons, who under pretence of Tender Conſciences, do at their Meetings contrive Inſurrections, as late Experience hath ſhewed.

Unlawful Conventicles and Meetings under pretence of exerciſe of Religion forbidden.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any perſon of the age of Sixteen years or upwards, being a Subject of this Realm, at any time after the firſt day of July, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, ſhall be preſent at any Aſſembly, Conventicle or Meeting, under colour or pretence of any exerciſe of Religion, in other manner then is allowed by the Liturgy or practice of the Church of England, in any place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; At which Conventicle, Meeting, or Aſſembly, there ſhall be five perſons or more aſſembled together, over and above thoſe of the ſame Houſhold; Then it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for any two Juſtices of the Peace of the County, Limit, Diviſion or Liberty wherein

The puniſhment and manner of Proceeding againſt them for the firſt offence.

wherein the Offence aforeſaid ſhall be committed, or for the Chief Magiſtrate of the place where ſuch offence aforeſaid ſhall be committed, (if it be within a Corporation where there are not two Juſtices of the Peace) And they are hereby required and enjoyned upon proof to them or him reſpectively made of ſuch offence, either by confeſſion of the party, or oath of Witneſſe, or notorious evidence of the Fact: (which Oath the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, and Chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, are hereby impowred and required to adminiſter) to make a Record of every ſuch offence and offences under their hands and ſeals reſpectively; which Record ſo made as aforeſaid, ſhall to all intents and purpoſes be in Law taken and adjudged to be a full and perfect Conviction of every ſuch Offendor for ſuch offence: And thereupon the ſaid Juſtices and Chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, ſhall commit every ſuch Offendor ſo convicted as aforeſaid to the Gaol, or houſe of Correction, there to remain without Bail or Mainpriſe, for any time not exceeding the ſpace of three moneths, unleſs ſuch Offendor ſhall pay down to the ſaid Juſtices, or Chief Magiſtrate ſuch ſum of money not exceeding five pounds, as the ſaid Juſtices or Chief Magiſtrate (who are hereby thereunto authorized and required) ſhall Fine the ſaid Offendor at, for his or her ſaid offence; which money ſhall be paid to the Church-wardens for the relief of the poor of the Pariſh where ſuch Offendor did laſt inhabit.

The ſecond offence.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if ſuch Offendor ſo convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall at any time again commit the like offence contrary to this Act, and be thereof in manner aforeſaid convicted, Then ſuch Offendor ſo convict of ſuch ſecond offence, ſhall incur the penalty of Impriſonment in the Gaol, or Houſe of Correction, for any time not exceeding ſix moneths, without bail or mainpriſe, unleſſe ſuch offendor ſhall pay down to the ſaid Juſtices or Chief Magiſtrate ſuch ſum of money, not exceeding Ten pounds, as the ſaid Juſtices or Chief Magiſtrate (who are thereunto authorized and required as aforeſaid) ſhall Fine the ſaid offendor at, for his or her ſaid ſecond offence, the ſaid Fine to be diſpoſed in manner aforeſaid.

The third offence.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any ſuch Offendor ſo convict of a ſecond offence, contrary to this Act in manner aforeſaid, ſhall at any time again commit the like offence contrary to this Act, Then any two Juſtices of the Peace, and chief Magiſtrate as aforeſaid reſpectively, ſhall commit every ſuch Offendor to the Gaol, or Houſe of Correction, there to remain without bail or mainpriſe until the next General Quarter Seſſions, Aſſizes, Gaol-Delivery, great Seſſions, or ſitting of any Commiſſion of Oyer and Terminer in the reſpective County, Limit, Diviſion or Liberty which ſhall firſt happen; when, and where every ſuch Offendor ſhall be proceeded againſt by Indictment for ſuch offence, and ſhall forthwith be arraigned upon ſuch Indictment, and ſhall then plead the General Iſſue of not guilty, and give any ſpecial matter in Evidence, or confeſſe the Indictment. And if ſuch Offendor proceeded againſt, ſhall be lawfully convict of ſuch offence, either by Confeſſion or Verdict, or if ſuch Offendor ſhall refuſe to plead the General Iſſue, or to confeſſe the Indictment, then the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace at their General Quarter-Seſſions, Judges of Aſſize and Gaol-delivery at the Aſſizes and Gaol-delivery, Juſtices of the great Seſſions at the great Seſſions, and Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, at their ſitting, are hereby enabled and required to cauſe Judgment to be entred againſt ſuch Offendor, That ſuch Offendor ſhall be Tranſported beyond the Seas to any of his Majeſties Foreign Plantations (Virginia and New-England onely excepted) there to remain Seven years; And ſhall forthwith under their Hands and Seals make out Warrants to the Sheriff or Sheriffs of the ſame County where ſuch conviction or refuſal to plead or to confeſſe as aforeſaid, ſhall be, ſafely to convey ſuch Offendor to ſome Port or Haven neareſt or moſt commodious to be appointed by them reſpectively; And from thence to Embarque ſuch Offendor to be ſafely Tranſported to any of his Majeſties Plantations beyond the Seas, as ſhall be alſo by them reſpectively appointed (Virginia and New-England onely excepted:) Whereupon the ſaid Sheriff ſhall ſafely Convey and Embarque, or cauſe to be conveyed or embarqued ſuch Offendor, to be Tranſported as aforeſaid, under pain of forfeiting for default of ſo Tranſporting every ſuch Offendor, the ſum of Forty pounds of lawful money, the one moyety thereof to the King, and the other moyety to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, by Bill, Plaint, Action of Debt, or Information; In any of which, no Wager of Law, Eſſoign or Protection ſhall be admitted. And the ſaid reſpective Court ſhall then alſo make out Warrants to the ſeveral Conſtables, Headboroughs or Tythingmen of the reſpective places where the Eſtate real or perſonal of ſuch Offendor ſo to be Tranſported ſhall happen to be, commanding them thereby to Sequeſter into their hands the profits of the Lands, and to diſtrain and ſell the Goods of the Offendor ſo to be Tranſported, for the re-imburſing of the ſaid Sheriff all ſuch reaſonable charges as he ſhall be at, and ſhall be allowed him by the ſaid reſpective Court for ſuch Conveying and Embarquing of ſuch Offendor ſo to be Tranſported, rendring to the party, or his or her Aſſigns, the overplus of the ſame, if any be; unleſſe ſuch Offendor, or ſome other on the behalf of ſuch offendor ſo to be Tranſported, ſhall give the Sheriff ſuch Security as he ſhall approve of for the paying all the ſaid charges unto him.

How Seditious Sectaries convicted may be tranſported.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in default of defraying ſuch charges by the parties to be Tranſported, or ſome other in their behalf; or in default of Security given to the Sheriff as aforeſaid, It ſhall and may be lawful for every ſuch Sheriff to contract with any Maſter of a Ship, Merchant, or other perſon, for the Tranſporting of ſuch offendor at the beſt rate he can. And that in every ſuch caſe it ſhall and may be lawful for ſuch perſons ſo contracting with any Sheriff for Tranſporting ſuch offendor as aforeſaid, to detain and employ every ſuch offendor ſo by them Tranſported, as a Labourer to them or their Aſſigns, for the ſpace of Five years, to all intents and purpoſes, as if he or ſhe were bound by Indentures to ſuch perſon for that purpoſe: And that the reſpective Sheriffs ſhall be allowed or paid from the King, upon their reſpective Accompts in the Exchequer, all ſuch charges by them expended, for Conveying, Embarquing and Tranſporting of ſuch perſons which ſhall be allowed by the ſaid reſpective Courts from whence they received their reſpective Warrants, and which ſhall not have been by any of the ways aforementioned paid, ſecured, or reimburſed unto them as aforeſaid.

How the offendor may be diſcharged upon payment of 100 l.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That in caſe the offendor ſo Indicted and Convicted for the ſaid Third offence, ſhall pay into the hands of the Regiſter or Clerk of the Court or Seſſions where he ſhall be Convicted (before the ſaid Court or Seſſions ſhall be ended) the ſum of one hundred pounds, That then the ſaid offender ſhall be diſcharged from Impriſonment and Tranſportation, and the Judgement for the ſame.

Puniſhment of offendors after the third offence.

How the ſaid penalty of 100 l. ſhall be diſpoſed.

And be it further Enacted, That the like Impriſonment, Indictment, Arraignment and Proceedings ſhall be againſt every ſuch offendor, as often as he ſhall again offend after ſuch Third offence; Nevertheleſs is diſchargeable and diſcharged by the payment of the like ſum as was paid by ſuch offendor for his or her ſaid offence next before committed, together with the additional and increaſed ſum of One hundred pounds more upon every new offence committed; the ſaid reſpective ſums to be paid as aforeſaid, and to be diſpoſed of as followeth, (viz) The one Moyety for the Repair of the Pariſh Church or Churches, Chappel or Chappels of ſuch Pariſh within which ſuch Conventicle, Aſſembly or Meeting ſhall be held; and the other Moyety to the Repair of the High-ways of the ſaid Pariſh or Pariſhes (if need require) or otherwiſe for the amendment of ſuch High-ways as the Juſtices of the Peace at their reſpective Quarter-Seſſions ſhall direct and appoint. And if any Conſtable, Headborough or Tythingman ſhall neglect to execute any the ſaid Warrants made unto them for Sequeſtring, Diſtraining and Selling any of the Goods and Chattels of any offendor againſt this Act, for the Levying ſuch ſums of money as ſhall be impoſed for the firſt or ſecond offence, he ſhall forfeit for every ſuch neglect the ſum of Five pounds of lawful money of England, the one moyety thereof to the King, and the other moyety to him that will ſue for the ſame in any of the Kings Courts of Record, as is aforeſaid. And if any perſon be at any time Sued for putting in Execution any of the powers contained in this Act, ſuch perſon ſhall and may plead the general Iſſue, and give the ſpecial matter in evidence. And if the Plaintiff be Non-ſuit, or a Verdict paſs for the defendant thereupon, or if the Plaintiff diſcontinue his Action, or if upon Demurrer, Judgment be given for the Defendant, every ſuch Defendant ſhall have his or their treble Coſts.

Perſons ſued for executing this Act may plead the General Iſſue and recover treble Coſts.

Felony to eſcape after conviction, or to return after Tranſportation.

And be it further enacted, That if any perſon againſt whom Judgment of Tranſportation ſhall be given in manner aforeſaid, ſhall make eſcape before Tranſportation; or being Tranſported, as aforeſaid ſhall return unto this Realm of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, without the ſpecial Licence of His Majeſty, his heirs and ſucceſſors, in that behalf firſt had and obtained: That the party ſo eſcaping or returning ſhall be adjudged a Felon, and ſhall ſuffer death as in caſe of Felony, without benefit of Clergy; and ſhall forfeit and loſe to His Majeſty all his or her Goods and Chattels for ever; and ſhall further loſe to his Majeſty all his or her Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments for and during the life only of ſuch offendor and no longer. And that the wife of any ſuch offendor by force of this Act ſhall not loſe her Dower, nor ſhall any Corruption of blood grow, or be by reaſon of any ſuch offence mentioned in this Act: But that the heir of every ſuch offendor by force of this Act, ſhall and may after the death of ſuch offendor have and enjoy the Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments of ſuch offendors, as if this Act had not been made.

Seditious and Tumultuous Meetings, and Conventicles.

And for better preventing of the miſchiefs which may grow by ſuch Seditious and Tumultuous Meetings under pretence of Religious Worſhip, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Lieutenants or Deputy-Lieutenants, or any Commiſſioned officers of the Militia, or any other of His Majeſties Forces, with ſuch Troops or Companies of Horſe or Foot; And alſo the Sheriffs and Juſtices of Peace and other Magiſtrates and Miniſters of Juſtice, or any of them jointly or ſeverally within any of the Counties or Places within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed with ſuch other aſſiſtance as they ſhall think meet or can get in readineſs with the ſooneſt, on Certificate made to them reſpectively under the hand and ſeal of any one Juſtice of the peace or Chief Magiſtrate, as aforeſaid, of his particular Information or knowledge of ſuch unlawful Meetings or Conventicles held or to be held in their reſpective Counties or places, And that he (with ſuch aſſiſtance as he can get together is not able to ſuppreſs or diſſolve the ſame) ſhall and may, and are hereby required and enjoyned to repair unto the place where they are ſo held, or to be held, and by the beſt means they can to diſſolve and diſſipate or prevent all ſuch unlawful Meetings, and take into their cuſtody ſuch of thoſe perſons ſo unlawfully aſſembled as they ſhall judge to be the Leaders and Seducers of the reſt, and ſuch others as they ſhall think fit to be proceeded againſt according to Law for ſuch their offences.

The penalty of ſuffering Conventicles in private houſes.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon who ſhall wittingly and willingly ſuffer any ſuch Conventicle, unlawful Aſſembly or Meeting aforeſaid, to be held in his or her Houſe, out-houſe, Barn or Room, Yard or Backſide, Woods or Grounds, ſhall incurr the ſame penalties and forfeitures as any other Offender againſt this Act ought to incur, and be proceeded againſt in all points, in ſuch manner as any other offendor againſt this Act ought to be proceeded againſt.

Gaolers may not let priſoners committed upon this Act to go at large.

The Penalty.

Provided alſo, And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Keeper of any Gaol or Houſe of Correction ſhall ſuffer any perſon committed to his cuſtody for any offence againſt this Act, to go at large, contrary to the Warrant of his Commitment according to this Act, or ſhall permit any perſon who is at large to joyn with any perſon committed to his Cuſtody by vertue of this Act, in the exerciſe of Religion, differing from the Rites of the Church of England; then every ſuch keeper of a Gaol or Houſe of Correction ſhall for every ſuch offence forfeit the ſum of Ten pounds, to be Levied, Raiſed and Diſpoſed by ſuch perſons and in ſuch manner as the penalties for the firſt and ſecond offences againſt this Act are to be Levied, Raiſed and Diſpoſed.

Within what time offendors muſt be proſecuted.

Provided alwayes, That no perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any offence againſt this Act, unleſs ſuch Offendor be proſecuted for the ſame within Three moneths after the offence committed: And that no perſon who ſhall be puniſhed for any offence by vertue of this Act, ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame offence by vertue of any other Act or Law whatſoever.

Married women how to be puniſhed.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That Judgment of Tranſportation ſhall not be given againſt any Feme-Covert, unleſs her husband be at the ſame time under the like Judgment and not diſcharged by the payment of money as aforeſaid; but that inſtead thereof ſhe ſhall by the reſpective Court be committed to the Gaol or Houſe of Correction, there to remain without bail or mainpriſe, for any time not exceeding Twelve moneths, unleſs her Husband ſhall pay down ſuch ſum, not exceeding Forty pounds, to redeem her from Impriſonment, as ſhall be impoſed by the ſaid Court, the ſaid ſum to be diſpoſed by ſuch perſons, and in ſuch manner as the Penalties for the firſt and ſecond offence againſt this Act are to be diſpoſed.

How Juſtices of the Peace may enter into houſes ſuſpected for Conventicles.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtices of the Peace, and chief Magiſtrate reſpectively Impowered as aforeſaid to put this Act in execution, ſhall and may, with what aid, force and aſſiſtance they ſhall think fit, for the better execution of this Act, after refuſal or denial, Enter into any Houſe, or other place where they ſhall be informed and ſuch Conventicle as aforeſaid, is or ſhall be held.

The houſes of Peers.

Provided, That no Dwelling-houſe of any Peer of this Realm, whilſt he or his Wife ſhal be there reſident, ſhall be ſearched by vertue of this Act, but by immediate Warrant from His Majeſty under His Sign Manual, or in the preſence of the Lieutenant, or one of the Deputy-Lieutenants, or two Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum of the ſame County or Riding. Nor ſhall any other Dwelling-houſe of any Peer or other perſon whatſoever be entred into with force by vertue of this Act, but in the preſence of one Juſtice of the Peace, or chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, except within the City of London, where it ſhall be lawful for any ſuch other Dwelling-houſe to be entred into as aforeſaid, in the preſence of one Juſtice of the Peace, Alderman, Deputy Alderman, or any one Commiſſioner of the Lieutenancy for the City of London.

What perſons may not be committed to the houſe of Correction.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no perſon ſhall by vertue of this Act be committed to the Houſe of Correction, that ſhall ſatisfie the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, That he or ſhe (and in caſe of a Feme-Covert, that her Husband) hath an Eſtate of Free-hold, or Copy-hold to the value of Five pounds per Annum, or perſonal eſtate to the value of Fifty pounds; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Perſons ſerved with Proceſs refuſing to take an Oath.
14 Car. 2. cap. 1.

And in regard a certain Sect called Quakers, and other Sectaries, are found not only to offend in the matters provided againſt by this Act, but alſo obſtruct the proceeding of Juſtice by their obſtinate refuſal to take Oaths Lawfully tendered unto them in the ordinary courſe of Law, Therefore be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons being duly and legally ſerved with Proceſs or other Summons to appear in any Court of Record, except Court-Leets, as a Witneſſe, or returned to ſerve of any Jury or ordered to be examined upon Interrogatories, or being preſent in Court ſhall refuſe to take any Judicial Oath legally tendered to him by the Judge or Judges of the ſame Court, having no legal Plea to juſtifie or excuſe the refuſal of the ſame Oath; or if any perſon or perſons being duly ſerved with Proceſs, to anſwer any Bill exhibited againſt him or them in any Court of Equity, or any Suit in any Court Eccleſiaſtical, ſhall refuſe to anſwer ſuch Bill or Suit upon his or their Corporal Oath, in caſes where the Law requires ſuch anſwer to be put in upon Oath; or being ſummoned to be a Witneſs in any ſuch Court, or ordered to be examined upon Interrogatories, for any cauſe or reaſon, not allowed by Law, refuſe to take ſuch Oath, as in ſuch caſes is required by Law; That then, and in ſuch caſe, the ſeveral and reſpective Courts wherein ſuch refuſal ſhall be made, ſhall be, and are hereby enabled to Record, Enter, or Regiſter ſuch refuſal, which Record, or Entry ſhall be, and is hereby made a Conviction of ſuch offence. And all and every perſon and perſons ſo as aforeſaid offending, ſhall for every ſuch offence incur the Judgement and puniſhment of Tranſportation in ſuch manner as is appointed by this Act for other offences.

The penalty.

How ſuch perſons may be acquitted.

Provided always, That if any the perſon or perſons aforeſaid ſhall come into ſuch court, and take his or their Oath in theſe words;

I do ſwear, that I do not hold the taking of an Oath to be unlawful, nor refuſe to take an Oath on that account.

Which Oath the reſpective Court and Courts aforeſaid are hereby authorized and required forthwith to tender, adminiſter, and regiſter before the Entry of the Conviction aforeſaid, or ſhall take ſuch Oath before ſome Juſtice of the Peace, who is hereby authorized and required to adminiſter the ſame, to be returned into ſuch Court; ſuch Oath ſo made ſhall acquit him or them from ſuch puniſhment; Any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Provided always, That every perſon convicted as aforeſaid in any Courts aforeſaid (other then His Majeſties Court of Kings Bench, or before the Juſtices of Aſſize, or General Gaol-Delivery) ſhall by Warrant conteining a Certificate of ſuch Conviction under the hand and ſeal of the reſpective Judge or Judges before whom ſuch Conviction ſhall be had, be ſent to ſome one of His Majeſties Gaols in the ſame County where ſuch Conviction was had, there to remain without Bail or Mainpriſe until the next Aſſizes, or General Gaol-Delivery; where, if ſuch perſon ſo convicted ſhall refuſe to take the Oath aforeſaid, being tendered unto him by the Juſtice or Juſtices of Aſſize or Gaol-Delivery; then ſuch Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall cauſe Judgement of Tranſportation to be executed in ſuch manner as Judgement of Tranſportation by this Act is to be executed. But in caſe ſuch perſon ſhall take the ſaid Oath, then he ſhall thereupon be diſcharged.

Provided

Peers offending, how to be proceeded againſt.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Peer of this Realm ſhall offend againſt this Act he ſhall pay Ten pounds for the firſt offence, and twenty pounds for the ſecond offence, to be levied upon his Goods and Chattels by Warrant from any two Juſtices of the Peace, or Chief Magiſtrate of the Place or Diviſion where ſuch Peer ſhall dwell; and that every Peer for the third, and every further offence againſt the tenour of this Act, ſhall be tried by his Peers, and not otherwiſe.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue in force for Three years after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament; and from thenceforward, to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the ſaid Three years, and no longer.

CAP. V.

Againſt Diſturbances of Sea-men and others, and to preſerve the Stores belonging to His Majeſties Navy Royal.

VVhereas divers fightings, quarrellings and diſturbances do often happen in and about His Majeſties Offices, Yards and Stores for His Majeſties Royal Navy, and frequent difference and diſorders are occaſioned in the office of his Majeſties Treaſury of the Navy on Pay-dayes, in London, Portſmouth, and other places of meeting for the ſervice of the ſaid Navy; and that by the unreaſonable turbulency of Sea-men and others, attending on, or relating to that Service, or their Creditors, or by the rudeneſſe of the Officers intruſted with his Majeſties Stores on Land, or in his Royal Ships, when they are queſtioned by the principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the ſaid Navy either for neglect or imbezelment of his Majeſties Proviſions, Ammunitions, or other Equipage of the Navy under their charge; And that not only to the diſturbance of the Peace, but ſometimes to the danger and hindrance of his Majeſties Service, both in point of Husbanding his Majeſties Revenue, and alſo in diſpatch of the Ships, on which the honour and ſafety of his Majeſty and Kingdom ſo much depends: which Inconveniences require a ſpeedier Remedy then the ordinary attendance on the Seſſions of the Peace can give, the parties accuſed or offending being many times bound to Sea; And the principal Officers and Commiſſioners for want of authority to ſuppreſs ſuch Inſolencies, and determine ſuch Caſes, being neceſſitated to paſſe by many offences, in which his Majeſty might be righted, if their neceſſary attendance on that Important Service would permit the proſecution of the Offendors before other ordinary Judicatures.

Who may puniſh diſturbances by Sea-men and others relating to the Navy Office.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That the Treaſurer, Comptroller, Surveyor, Clerk of the Acts, and the Commiſſioners of the Navy for the time being, or any two or more of them, have power and authority to examine and puniſh all ſuch perſon and perſons, whom they upon their enquiry, examination, or on view in their preſence ſhall find hereafter to make, or have made any diſturbance, fighting, or quarrelling in the Yards, Stores, or Offices aforeſaid at Pay-daies, or on other occaſions relating to the Naval Services, in ſuch manner as followeth, that is to ſay, That they or any two or more of them may puniſh any the ſaid offences by Fine, Impriſonment, or either of them; the Fine not exceeding twenty ſhillings, and the Impriſonment not exceeding one week; and have power in ſuch caſes to commit ſuch perſons to the next Gaol, or to the cuſtody of the Meſſenger or Meſſengers for the time being attendant on them, who reſpectively are to receive & detain ſuch perſon ſo offending.

And that the ſaid principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or the greater number of them then preſent, have power to diſcharge ſuch Fine or Impriſonment, if they ſo think fit: And for non-payment of the Fine ſo impoſed, and not remitted, to impriſon the party offending until payment thereof; which ſaid Fines ſhall be paid to the Clerk of the Cheſt, for the uſe of the maimed Sea-men; and that the examination of witneſſes be upon Oath before them, which they, or any two or more of them are accordingly impowred to adminiſter.

And it is further by the authority aforeſaid Enacted, That the ſaid Officers and Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them (in Caſes where greater example or puniſhment is needful) may alſo bind the perſon and perſons offending to their good behaviour, with, or without Securities, as occaſion ſhall be.

Imbezelling of Stores and Ammunition.

And whereas divers of his Majeſties Stores and Ammunition pertaining to his Navy and Shipping, or Service thereof, are Imbezelled and Filched away;

It is by like authority Enacted, That the ſaid principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals have power in like manner to enquire and ſearch for the ſame in all places, as Juſtices of the Peace may do in caſe of Felony, and puniſh the Offendors by ſuch Fine and Impriſonment as aforeſaid, and cauſe the Goods to be brought in again. And if the offence be of ſuch nature as doth require a higher and ſeverer puniſhment, Then that they, or any two or more of them may commit ſuch offendors to the next Gaol, or to the cuſtody of their Meſſenger or Meſſengers aforeſaid, till he or they ſo offending enter into Recognizance with Surety or Sureties according to the nature of the offence, to appear and anſwer to the ſame, in his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, or other Court where his Majeſty ſhall queſtion him or them for the ſame within one year following, on proceſs duly ſerved for that purpoſe on ſuch offendor or offendors.

The continuance of this Act
19 Car. 2. cap. 7.

And it is Declared and Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That they the ſaid principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or any two or more of them may put in uſe the ſaid powers on the Offendors, as aforeſaid, in all places where they hold an Office for his Majeſty, as well within Liberties as without, Any Law, Statute, Ordinance, Charter, or Priviledge to the contrary notwithſtanding. This Act to continue for two years, from the Firſt day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four: And from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. VI.

To prevent the delivering up of Merchants Ships.

Whereas it often happeneth that Maſters and Commanders of Merchants Ships do ſuffer their Ships to be boarded, and the goods to be taken out by Pyrats and Sea-Rovers, notwithſtanding they have ſufficient force to defend themſelves, whereby not only the Merchants are much prejudiced, but the honour of the Engliſh Navigation is thereby much diminiſhed, and Merchants diſcouraged from lading their goods on board Engliſh Ships, to the decay of Shipping; In the preſervation whereof, the wealth, honour and ſafety of this Nation is ſo much concerned: To which the ſaid Maſters are encouraged by a practice uſed towards them by the Turks and others, who after they have taken out the goods, as an encouragement to Maſters of Ships to yield, do not only reſtore the Ship with ſuch goods, as are are claimed by the Maſters or Sea-men, but many times pay unto Maſters all, or ſome part of the Freight, which hath many times cauſed ſuſpition of treachery in the ſaid Maſters, to the great diſhonour of the Engliſh Nation.

Engliſh Ships not to be yielded up to Turks or Pyrats.

The penalty.

For the prevention thereof for the future, and for the better encouragement to Merchants as well Foreigners as Engliſh, to Freight and uſe Engliſh Ships, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons Aſſembled in Parliament, and by Authority of the ſame That where any Goods or Merchandizes ſhall be laden on board any Engliſh Ship, which Ship ſhall be of the burthen of two hundred Tuns or upwards, and mounted with ſixteen Guns or more; if the Maſter or Commander ſhall yield up the ſaid Goods to any Turkiſh Ships or Veſſels, or to any Pyrates or Sea-Rovers whatſoever without fighting, That then and in ſuch caſe the Maſter ſhall (upon proof thereof made in the high Court of Admiralty) be from thenceforth incapable of taking charge of any Engliſh Ship or Veſſel as Maſter or Commander thereof. And if he ſhall at any time thereafter preſume to take upon him to Command any Engliſh Ship or Veſſel, he ſhall ſuffer Impriſonment by Warrant from the ſaid Court, during the ſpace of ſix moneths for every offence: And in caſe the perſons ſo taking the ſaid Goods, ſhall releaſe, give back, or let paſs the Ship, or ſhall pay unto the ſaid Maſter any ſum or ſums of money, or any goods in lieu of money for freight or other reward or gift, That in all or any ſuch caſes the ſaid goods or money ſo given, or the value thereof, as alſo the Maſters part of ſuch Ship, her Tackle, Apparel and Furniture ſo releaſed, given back, or let paſs, out of which the ſaid goods were taken, ſhall be lyable to repair the perſons whoſe Goods were ſo delivered or taken, by Action in the high Court of Admiralty; And in caſe the Commanders or Maſters part of the Ship, Tackle, Apparel and Furniture, together wih ſuch money and goods given as aforeſaid, ſhall not be ſufficient to repair all the damages ſuſtained, then the Reparations to be recovered on the Maſters or Commanders part of the Ship to be divided pro Rata amongſt the perſons proſecuting and proving their damages; and the perſons damaged to have their Action againſt the Maſter for the remainder.

Maſters of Ships.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Maſter of any ſuch Engliſh Ship as aforeſaid, being at Sea, and having diſcovered any Ship to be a Turkiſh Ship, Pyrat, or Sea-Rover, ſhall depart out of his Ship upon any pretence whatſoever, leſt by his detention on board any ſuch Ship, the ſafety of his own Ship be hazarded.

Proceſs out of the Court of Admiralty.

And be it further enacted, That if the Maſter of any Engliſh Ship or Veſſel, though not of the Burthen of Two hundred Tuns, or mounted with Sixteen Guns as aforeſaid, ſhall yield his ſaid Ship unto any Turkiſh Ship, Pyrat, or Sea-Rover (not having at the leaſt double his number of Guns) without fighting; Every ſuch Maſter ſhall be liable to all and every the penalties in this Act contained.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That upon Proceſs made out of the High Court of Admiralty, It ſhall and may be lawfull to and for all Commanders of his Majeſties Ships of War, or the Commanders of any other Engliſh Ships, to ſeize ſuch Ships or Maſters ſo offending, according to the ſaid Proceſs in ſuch caſe to be iſſued, and the ſame to bring or ſend in cuſtody into any Ports of his Majeſties Dominions, there to be proceeded againſt according to the intent and meaning of this Act.

Provided, That none be hereby encouraged to violate the Rights of the Ports of any Foreign Prince or State in amity with the Kings Majeſty.

Mariners or inferiour Officers declining to fight.

The penalty.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the Mariners or inferiour Officers of any Engliſh Ship laden with Goods aud Merchandizes as aforeſaid, ſhall decline or refuſe to fight and defend the Ship, when they ſhall be thereunto commanded by the maſter or Commander thereof, or ſhall utter any words to diſcourage the other Mariners from defending the Ship; That every Mariner, who ſhall be found guilty of declining or refuſing as aforeſaid, ſhall loſe all his wages due to him, together with ſuch goods as he hath in the Ship, and ſuffer Impriſonment, not exceeding the ſpace of Six moneths, and ſhall during ſuch time be kept to hard labour for his or their maintenance, Provided alwayes, That if any Ship ſhall have been yielded as aforeſaid, contrary to the will and endeavour of the Maſter or Commander, by the diſobedience of his Mariners, teſtified by their having laid violent hands on him, That in ſuch caſe the Maſter or Commander ſhall not be liable to the ſentence of Incapacity as aforeſaid, nor to any Action for the loſſes ſuſtained by the Merchants, unleſs he ſhall have received back from the takers thereof, his Ship, or ſome recompenſe, gift or reward as aforeſaid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Mariner who ſhall have laid violent hands on his Commander whereby to hinder him from fighting in defence of his Ship and Goods committed to his truſt, ſhall ſuffer death as a Felon.

And

Encouragement to Captains and Sea-men to defend their Ships.

And for the better encouragement to Captains, Maſters, Officers and Sea-men to defend their Ships, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That when any Engliſh Ship ſhall have been defended by fight, and brought to her deſigned Port, in which fight any of the Officers or Sea-men ſhall have been wounded, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Judge of his Majeſties High Court of Admiralty, or his Surrogate, or the Judge of the Vice-Admiralty within which the Ship ſhall arrive at her return, upon Petition of the Maſter or Sea-men of ſuch Ship ſo defended as aforeſaid, to call unto him ſuch and ſo many as he ſhall be informed to be Adventurers or Owners of the Ship and Goods ſo defended, and by advice with them, to raiſe and levy upon the reſpective Owners and Adventurers, by Proceſs out of the ſaid Court, ſuch ſum or ſums of money as himſelf, with the major part of the Adventurers or Owners then preſent ſhall judge reaſonable, not exceeding the value of Two per cent. of the Ship and Goods ſo defended, according to the firſt coſt of the Goods, to be made appear by the Envoyce (which the Owner or his Factor, or Correſpondent, is hereby required to produce) or by the Oath of the ſaid Owner, Factor or Correſpondent, if thereunto required; which money ſo raiſed, ſhall be paid unto the Regiſter of the ſaid Court, who ſhall receive for the ſame Three pence in each pound and no more, thence to be diſtributed amongſt the Captain, Maſter, Officers and Sea-men of the ſaid Ship, or Widows and Children of the ſlain, according to the direction of the Judge of the ſaid Court, with the approbation of Three or more of the Owners or Adventurers aforeſaid, who ſhall proportion the ſame according to their beſt Judgments unto the Ships Company, as aforeſaid, having eſpecial regard unto the Widows and Children of ſuch as ſhall have been ſlain in that Service, and to ſuch as ſhall have been wounded or maimed.

Ships which ſhall be taken by the Engliſh.

And in caſe the Company belonging to any Engliſh Merchant-ſhip, ſhall happen to take any Ship, which Ship ſhall firſt have aſſaulted them, the reſpective Officers and Mariners belonging to the ſame, ſhall after Condemnation of ſuch Ship and Goods, have and receive to their own proper uſe and benefit, ſuch part and ſhare thereof as is uſually practiſed in Private Men of War.

Botomary.

And whereas it often happeneth, That Maſters and Mariners of Ships having inſured or taken upon Botomary greater ſums of money then the value of their Adventure, do wilfully caſt away, burn, or otherwiſe deſtroy the Ships under their charge, to Merchants and Owners great loſs: For the prevention thereof for the future, Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Captain, Maſter, Mariner, or other Officer belonging to any Ship, ſhall wilfully caſt away, burn, or otherwiſe deſtroy the Ship unto which he belongeth, or procure the ſame to be done, he ſhall ſuffer death as a Felon.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided, That this Act ſhall continue for Three years, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

CAP. VII.

Deceitful, diſorderly, and exceſſive Gaming prevented.

The inconvenience of immoderate and unlawful uſe of gaming.

WHereas all Lawful Games and Exerciſes ſhould not be otherwiſe uſed, then as Innocent and Moderate Recreations, and not as conſtant Trades or Callings to gain a Living, or make unlawful Advantage thereby; And whereas by the immoderate uſe of them, many miſchiefs and inconveniences do ariſe, and are daily found, to the maintaining and encouraging of ſundry idle, looſe and diſorderly perſons in their diſhoneſt, lewd, and diſſolute courſe of life, and to the circumventing, deceiving, couſening and debauching of many of the younger ſort, both of the Nobility and Gentry, and others, to the loſs of their precious time, and the utter ruine of their Eſtates and Fortunes, and withdrawing them from Noble and Laudable Imployments and Exerciſes:

Deceits and Coſenages in Gaming.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if any perſon or perſons of any degree or quality whatſoever, at any time or times after the Nine and twentieth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, do, or ſhall by any fraud, ſhift, couſenage, circumvention, deceit, or unlawful device, or ill practice whatſoever, in playing at or with Cards, Dice, Tables, Tennis, Bowls, Kittles, Shovelboard; or in or by Cock-fightings, Horſe-races, Dog-matches, or Foot-races, or other Paſtimes, Game or Games whatſoever, or in, or by bearing a ſhare, or part in the Stakes, Wagers, or Adventures, or in, or by betting on the Sides or Hands of ſuch as do, or ſhall Play, Act, Ride or Run as aforeſaid, win, obtain, or acquire to him or themſelves, or to any other or others any ſum or ſums of money, or other valuable thing or things whatſoever, That then every perſon and perſons ſo offending as aforeſaid, ſhall ipſo facto forfeit and loſe treble the ſum or value of money, or other thing or things ſo won, gained, obtained or acquired; The one moyety thereof to our Soveraign Lord the King, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and the other moyety thereof unto the perſon or perſons grieved, or who ſhall loſe the money, or other thing or things ſo gained; ſo as every ſuch loſer and perſon grieved in that behalf, do, or ſhall proſecute and ſue for the ſame within ſix Kalender moneths next after ſuch Play. And in default of ſuch proſecution, the ſame other moyety to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall or will proſecute or ſue for the ſame within one year next after the ſaid ſix moneths expired: And that the ſaid Forfeitures ſhall, or may be ſued for, or recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information, in any of his Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoin, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed. And that all and every ſuch Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Informer or Informers, ſhall in every ſuch Suit and Proſecution have and recover his and their treble Coſts againſt the perſon offending and forfeiting as aforeſaid; Any Law, Statute, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The penalty.

How to be ſued for and recovered.

men for the time being, and the Juſtices of Peace of the ſeveral Counties reſpectively, or any three or more of them, whereof one to be of the Quorum, are hereby impowred to ſet the rates and prices of all ſuch Coals as ſhall be ſold by Retail, as they from time to time ſhall judge reaſonable, allowing a competent profit to the ſaid Retailer, beyond the price paid by him to the Importer, and the ordinary charges thereupon accrewing.

Ingroſſers or Retailers refuſing to ſell at the ſaid Rates.

And that if any Ingroſſer or Retailer of ſuch Coals ſhall refuſe to ſell as aforeſaid, That then the ſaid Lord Mayor and Aldermen, and Juſtices of Peace reſpectively, are hereby authorized to appoint and impower ſuch Officer or Officers, or other perſons as they ſhall think fit, to enter into any Wharf, or other place where ſuch Coals are ſtored up: And in caſe of refuſal, taking a Conſtable to force entrance, and the ſaid Coals to ſell, or cauſe to be ſold at ſuch Rates as the ſaid Lord Mayor and Aldermen and Juſtices reſpectively ſhall judge reaſonable, rendring to ſuch Ingroſſer or Retailer the money for which the ſaid Coals ſhall be ſo ſold, neceſſary charges being deducted.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided, That this Act ſhall continue for three years next enſuing, and thenceforth to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

Perſons ſued upon this Act may plead the general Iſſue.

Provided alſo, That no perſon or perſons that ſhall be ſued by vertue of this Act for not obſerving thereof, ſhall be ſued upon any other Act or Law now in force for the ſame offence: And if any Action ſhall be commenced againſt any Juſtice of Peace, Conſtable, or other Officer or Perſon for any thing done by colour of this Act, the Defendant in every ſuch Action may plead the general Iſſue, and give the ſpecial matter in Evidence: And if the Verdict be found for him, or the Plaintiff become Non-ſuited, ſhall recover and have his Damages and double Coſts of Suit for his unjuſt Vexation in that behalf.

Who may not act in ſetting Rates upon Coals.

Provided always, That no perſon having any Intereſt in any Wharf uſed for the receiving or uttering of Coals, or that doth, or ſhall Trade by himſelf or others, in his own, or any other name, in the ſale of any Coals, or the engroſſing the ſame, in order to ſell the ſame, and not for his own private uſe onely, ſhall act or otherwiſe intermeddle in the ſetting the Price of Coals; Any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. III.

For the Returning of able and ſufficient Jurors.

For the returning of more able and ſufficient Jurors for Trials hereafter to be had between party and party, and for reformation of abuſes in Sheriffs and other Miniſters, who for reward do oftentimes ſpare the ableſt and ſufficienteſt, and return the poorer and ſimpler Free-holders, leſs able to diſcern the Cauſes in queſtion, and to bear the charges of appearance and attendance thereon.

Jurors for Trials of Iſſues ſhall have 20 l. per annum Freehold.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That all Jurors (other then Strangers, upon Tryals per medietatem linguæ) who are to be returned for the Tryals of Iſſues, joyned in any of the Kings Majeſties Courts of Kings Bench, Common-Pleas, or the Exchequer, or before Juſtices of Aſſize, or Niſi Prius, Oyer and Terminer, Gaol-Delivery, or General or Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace, from and after the Twentieth day of April, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty five, in any County of this Realm of England, ſhall every of them then have in their own name, or in truſt for them within the ſame County, twenty pounds by the year at leaſt above repriſes, in their own, or their wives right, of Free-hold Lands, or of ancient Demeſne, or of Rents in Fee, Fee-tail, or for life. And that in every County within the Dominion of Wales, every ſuch Juror ſhall then have within the ſame eight pounds by the year, at the leaſt above repriſes in manner aforeſaid. All which perſons, having ſuch Eſtate as aforeſaid, are hereby enabled and made lyable to be returned, and to ſerve as Jurors for the Tryal of Iſſues before the Juſtices aforeſaid, Any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding. And if any of a leſſer eſtate and value ſhall be reſpectively returned upon any ſuch Jury, or Tales, in default of ſuch Jurors, it ſhall be a good cauſe of Challenge, and the party returned ſhall be diſcharged upon the ſaid Challenge, or his own Allegation and Oath thereof.

Iſſues of Jurors upon default.

And that no Jury-mans Iſſues making default ſhall be ſaved, but by ſpecial Order of the Judge or Judges before whom the Iſſue is to be tryed, for ſome juſt and reaſonable cauſe proved upon Oath before the ſame Judge or Judges. And all ſuch Iſſues ſhall be duly eſtreated and levied:

The Ven' fac.

And that the Writ of Venire facias which from and after the aforeſaid time ſhall be awarded and directed for the impannelling of Juries in caſes aforeſaid within any County of England, ſhall be in this form: Rex, &c. Præcipimus, &c. quod venire fac. coram, &c. duodecem liberos & legales homines de vicineto de A. Quorum quilibet habeat viginti libras terræ, tenementorum vel reddit' per annum ad minus, per quos, &c. & qui nec, &c. And the reſidue of the ſaid Writ ſhall be after the ancient manner.

Wales.

And that thoſe Writs which ſhall be awarded and directed for Returning of Juries within the Dominion of Wales ſhall be made in the ſame manner, altering only the word Viginti into Octo.

II.

Penalty upon the Sheriff, &c.

And that upon every ſuch Writ and Writs of Venire facias, the Sheriff, Coroner, or other Miniſters of each reſpective County in England and Wales, unto whom the making of the Pannel ſhall appertain, ſhall not return in any ſuch Pannel any perſon, unleſs he ſhall then have Twenty pounds, or Eight pounds reſpectively by the year at leaſt as aforeſaid in the ſame County where the Iſſue is to be tryed, upon pain to forfeit for every perſon being returned in any ſuch Pannel that ſhall not then have Twenty pounds or Eight pounds reſpectively, as is aforeſaid, the ſum of Five pounds to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors. And for the better enabling the Sheriff of every County to know the value of the Eſtates of ſuch perſons as are by the true intent and meaning of this Act to be returned for Jury-men;

Be it further Enacted, That every Sheriff ſhall on the firſt day of every General Quarter-Seſſions yearly held next after the Feaſt of Eaſter, deliver, or cauſe to be delivered unto the Juſtices of Peace ſitting at the ſame Seſſions the names of all perſons of ſuch Eſtates as are by the true meaning of this Act to be returned for Jury-men, to the end the Eſtates of ſuch perſons may be enquired after, and ſuch perſons approved of by the ſaid Juſtices of Peace, or the greater number of them then preſent, to be perſons of ſuch Eſtates to be returnable for Jury-men for the year then next enſuing. And the ſaid Juſtices ſhall have power to add ſuch perſons having Eſtates of the reſpective values before mentioned, as they ſhall find to be omitted by the Sheriff amongſt the names by him delivered; and ſuch competent number, and no more of ſuch perſons as aforeſaid ſhall be returnable to ſerve of Juries for the year next enſuing, as the ſaid Juſtices, or the greater number of them as aforeſaid ſhall think fit. And that no Sheriff ſhall incur the penalty aforeſaid for returning any of the perſons ſo approved or added by the Juſtices, in caſe his Eſtate fall out to be of leſs value then aforeſaid.

How the Sheriff ſhall find out perſons fit to be returned for Jury-men.

And it is further Enacted, That no Sheriff or Bailiff of any Liberty or Franchiſe, or any of their, or either of their Miniſters ſhall return any ſuch perſon or perſons as aforeſaid, to have been ſummoned by them, or any of them, unleſs ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall have been duly ſummoned by the ſpace of ſix days at the leaſt before the day on which they ought to make their appearance; And have left with or for ſuch perſons in writing the names of all the parties in thoſe cauſes wherein they are to ſerve as Jurors; Nor ſhall directly or indirectly take any money or other reward to excuſe the appearance of any Juror by them, or any of them to be ſummoned or returned, upon pain to forfeit for every ſuch offence the ſum of Ten pounds: Saving to all Cities and Towns Corporate their ancient Uſage of returning Jurors of ſuch Eſtate, and in ſuch manner as heretofore hath been uſed and accuſtomed.

What time ſummons ought to be before appearance.

Nothing may be taken to excuſe appearance.

The penalty.

III. And be it further Enacted by the Authority afore ſaid, That from thenceforth upon Writs of Venire Facias iſſued out and returned within the County-Palatine of Lancaſter, as of the ſame Aſſizes wherein the Iſſues are ſaid to be joyned, writs of Habeas Corpora or Diſtringas ſhal be ſued out, like as is uſed in all other Counties within this Kingdom returnable at the then next Aſſizes. And the Sheriff thereupon to return ſuch Iſſues as is or ought to be done by the ſaid Sheriffs of the ſaid other Counties, and thoſe Iſſues to be duly eſtreated as above is provided.

County Palatine of Lancaſter.

And the better to cauſe and bring Jurors to appear upon Trials at Aſſizes within the ſaid County-Palatine of Lancaſter, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Sheriff of the ſame County-Palatine of Lancaſter for the time being, ſhall from henceforth cauſe twelve good and lawful men ſo qualified, as before in this Act is appointed, out of every of the ſix hundreds within the ſaid County-Palatine, to be duly ſummoned or warned ten days at the leaſt before the beginning of every Aſſizes, to be and appear the firſt day of the then next Aſſizes, and there to attend during the ſame Aſſizes to perform their duty and ſervice to the Court as Jurors or Jury men in ſuch Cauſes between party and party, wherein they ſhall be reſpectively returned and impannelled, upon pain that every of them that ſhall make default to appear and attend at, and during the ſaid Aſſizes, to forfeit Ten pounds to the uſe and behoof of the Poor of the Town where ſuch perſon or perſons ſo making default doth inhabit and live; the ſame to be levied, recovered and had, in ſuch manner and ways as other Iſſues of Jurors uſe to be levied.

Provided, That this Act ſhall continue and ſtand in force for the ſpace of Three years, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

The continuance of this Act.

CAP. IV.

An Additional Act for the better Ordering and Collecting the Duty of EXCISE.

For the better Ordering and Collecting the Duty of Exciſe, Be it Enacted and Declared by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the eight day of November, which ſhal be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and five, all Farmers of Exciſe, or any of them, within the ſeveral Circuits and Diviſions of their reſpective Farms, ſhall and are enabled hereby to exerciſe and put in execution all ſuch Powers and Authorities which the Commiſſioners or Sub-Commiſſioners of Exciſe are enabled to do and execute by the ſeveral Acts and Statutes of Exciſe, for the levying, raiſing, receiving and managing of the ſaid Revenue of Exciſe; Except the Judicial part of hearing and determining all breaches and offences againſt the Laws of Exciſe, and of impoſing, mitigating or compounding of Fines or Penalties.

Powers given to Farmers of Exciſe.

CAP. V.

Delays in extending Statutes, Judgments and Recognizances prevented.

Whereas the Security by Statute-Merchant and of the Staple is now become of little uſe and benefit by the fraud of the Conuſors thereof in ſundry Caſes, who, to prevent the payment of their Debts, ſecretly aſſign ſmall parts of their Lands to ſeveral and unknown perſons: And it having been uſed, that if the Creditor take Execution on ſuch Statute; yet if the Lands of any one or more perſon or perſons, to whom ſuch alienation was made and liable to ſuch Execution be omitted out of ſuch extent; The ſame execution hath been avoided by Audita Querela, and the party extending loſt his Coſts, and was delayed of his juſt Debt; and ſo again upon any new extent toties quoties. And if any one Acre or Parcel of Land happened to deſcend to an Infant, the whole execution was deferred till full age of ſuch Infant; And if afterwards other part of the Lands or Tenements liable to Security by Statute-Merchant, and of the Staple.

Executions avoided by Audita Querela.

ſuch Debt deſcended to another Infant, then alſo farther delay happened during that Infancy alſo.

For what cauſes Extents upon Judgements or Statutes ſhall not be avoided or delayed.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this Preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That when any Judgment, Statute or Recognizance ſhall be extended, the ſame ſhall not be avoided or delayed by occaſion that any part of the Lands or Tenements extendible are or ſhall be omitted out of ſuch extent; ſaving alwayes to the Party and Parties whoſe Lands ſhall be extended, his and their Heirs, Executors and Aſſigns, his and their remedy for contribution againſt ſuch perſon and perſons, whoſe Lands are or ſhall be omitted out of ſuch extent from time to time.

Proviſo for Heirs within age.

Provided always, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be conſtrued to give any Extent or Contribution againſt any Heir within the age of one and twenty years, during ſuch Minority of ſuch Heir, for or in reſpect of any Lands to ſuch Heir deſcended, farther or otherwiſe then might have been before the making of this Act.

To what Statutes and Extents only this Act ſhall extend.

Provided that this Act extend only to ſuch Statutes as are or ſhall be for payment of moneys; And to ſuch extent as ſhall be within twenty years, after the Statute, Recognizance or Judgment had and obtained.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided that this Act ſhall continue for the ſpace of three years, and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament, and no longer.

CAP. VI.

Part of an Act of Parliament, Entituled, An Act directing the proſecution of ſuch as are accomptable for Priſe-goods repealed.

14 Car. 2. c. 14. Directions for recovery of Prize-goods not accompted for.

WHereas by an Act made in this preſent Parliament, entituled, An Act directing the proſecution of ſuch as are accomptable for Prize-goods; It is amongſt other things Enacted, That all and every Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Captains of Ships, Officers, and Mariners that did ſurprize, or receive to, or for the publique uſe, or by pretence thereof, any Ship, Plate, Jewels, Bullion, Money, Silver, Gold, Arms, Ammunition, Wares, Merchandizes, or any manner of Goods whatſoever, ſeized or taken for Priſe, betwixt the thirtieth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred fourty two, and the Nine and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty; And that had not at the making of the ſaid Act truly Accomted for and paid in the ſame, or the juſt Provenues thereof, ſhould be chargeable to his Majeſty for the ſaid premiſſes, and convened and ſued for in His Majeſties Court of Admiralty, and called to accompt, or otherwiſe by ſuch Suit, and in ſuch manner as ſhould be moſt available to His Majeſty, And in caſe of defect of Juriſdiction in the ſaid Court of Admiralty then upon Certificate thereof from the ſaid Court of Admiralty made into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, ſpeedy proceedings were to be had in the ſaid Court of Exchequer, for the recovering and levying of the Priſes, Goods, matters and things, as by the ſaid Act, relation being thereunto had more plainly, fully, and at large appears: Whereupon divers Captains and officers of His Majeſties Fleets, and ſeveral others the Commanders, officers and Mariners, imployed in the Sea-ſervice, have been ſued, or may poſſible be ſued concerning the ſeveral Prizes and Prize-goods by them heretofore ſeized and taken at Sea or in Ports, ſince the Moneth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, and before the twenty ninth of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty, contrary to the grace and favour extended towards them, not onely in and by His Majeſties moſt gracious Act of Free and general Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, but alſo by a Proclamation ſince made by his Majeſty, bearing Date the Fourteenth day of July, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty two, in the Fourteenth year of his Majeſties Reign, Declaring His Majeſties grace and Favour towards all Commanders and Seamen, in relation to Prizes or Prize-goods, ſeized and taken, ſince the moneth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, untill the nine and twentieth day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty: His Majeſty thereupon willing, that his Grace and Favour towards all Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Commanders, Seamen and Mariners ſhould take its full effect; And being fully ſatisfied of their duitful affections unto his Majeſties Royal Perſon and Government; and for their future incouragement to perſevere loyally in His Majeſties Service, is moſt graciouſly pleaſed that it may be Enacted.

14 Car. 2. cap 4. Repealed as to all Admirals, Officers, Mariners and Souldiers at Sea

III.

And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Act, entituled, An Act for directing the proſecution of ſuch as are accomptable for Prize-Goods and all and every Branches, Clauſes, powers and Articles, and every matter and thing therein contained, for ſo much onely, and as for and concerning all and every Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Captains of Ships, Officers of Ships or Veſſels, Sea men and Mariners, and every of them, ſhall be and is hereby from henceforth repealed, annulled, and made void, and of no effect, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever: And that all and ſingular Proceſs and proceedings whatſoever, which before this time have been, now are, or may be at any time hereafter had, ſued forth and proſecuted in any of His Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, or in the High Court of Admiralty of England, or elſewhere, within any His Majeſties Dominions, againſt any Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Captains of Ships, Officers of Ships or Veſſels, Seamen and Mariners or any of them by force and vertue of the ſaid Act, or any Article or Clauſe therein contained be forthwith and for ever hereafter ſuperſeded, ſurceaſed, ſtayed and diſcharged; And that none of the ſaid Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Captains or Officers of Ships or Veſſels, Seamen or Mariners, ſhall from henceforth by vertue, force or colour of any Proceſs, or proceedings whatſoever in any of His Majeſties ſaid Courts, or elſewhere, be in any wiſe Arreſted, reſted, diſquieted, queſtioned or troubled, either in their Perſons, Lands or Goods, for or by reaſon of the ſaid Act, or any thing therein contained; But that all and every the ſaid Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Captains and Officers of Ships or Veſſels, and all Sea-men and Mariners, and every of them, ſhall by vertue of this Act ſtand and be for ever diſcharged and acquitted in all Courts and places, and of and from all Suits and proceedings whatſoever ſued or begun, or to be ſued or begun againſt them, or any of them, for any manner of Prizes, Ships or Goods whatſoever by them, or any of them ſeiſed, ſurprized, or any ways taken, betwixt the ſaid Thirtieth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, and the Nine and twentieth of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty; and of and from all Accompts, Troubles, Articles and Suits whatſoever concerning the ſame: And that this Act ſhall be taken and expounded in the moſt large & beneficial manner for the ſaid Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Commanders, Captains and Officers of Ships and Veſſels, and Seamen and Mariners, and every of them, and for their beſt advantage for the final, free and abſolute acquitting and diſcharging of them, and every of them, of and from all the ſaid Prizes, and every part thereof, and all Ships and Veſſels and Goods whatſoever, or of what nature or kind ſoever, by them, or any of them ſeized, ſurpriſed, or in any ſort taken, betwixt the ſaid Thirtieth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, and the ſaid Nine and twentieth of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty.

The ſaid Act not repealed as to any Collectors, Treaſurers, &c. of ſuch Prize-Goods.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend or be conſtrued to extend to diſcharge any other perſons whatſoever, but onely the ſaid Admirals, Vice-Admirals, Commanders, Captains of Ships, and Officers of Ships or Veſſels, and Sea-men and Mariners; but that all and every Collectors and Treaſurers, Sub-Collectors and Under-Treaſurers of Prize-Goods, Commiſſioners, and Sub-Commiſſioners of Prize-Goods, and all and every their Caſheers, Deputies, Officers and Receivers, other then ſuch perſon or perſons who are diſcharged by the Act of Free and General Pardon, Indempnity and Oblivion, that have not yet truly accompted or paid in the Provenues of the Prizes, or Moneys ariſing thereout, ſeized or taken betwixt the ſaid Thirtieth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, and the ſaid Nine and twentieth of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty, and all and every other perſon and perſons, by whom, or to whom, or to, or for whoſe uſe any Prizes or Prize-Ships, Plate, Jewels, Arms, Ammunition, Wares, Merchandizes, or any manner of Goods whatſoever, ſeized or taken for Prize, betwixt the ſaid Thirtieth of January, One thouſand ſix hundred forty two, and the ſaid Nine and twentieth of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty, were diſpoſed or ſold, or to whoſe hands they came, and who had and enjoyed the ſame, or any part thereof, and are ſtill behind, and have not paid in the moneys contracted for, and ariſing, or due upon ſuch Sales or Diſpoſitions, or any of them; and all ſecurities by them and every of them given for, or touching the premiſſes, or any thing concerning the ſaid Prizes, or any of them, ſhall be chargeable to your Majeſty for the ſaid premiſſes, and all the dependencies thereof reſpectively, in the ſaid Court of Admiralty or Exchequer, and ſhall be proceeded upon in the ſaid Court of Admiralty or Exchequer in your Majeſties Name, and to and for your Majeſties uſe according to the ſaid Act, directing the proſecution of ſuch as are accomptable for Prize-Goods, and as fully and entirely, as if this Act had never been; Any thing in this preſent Act notwithſtanding.

CAP. VII.

CAP. VIII.

Arreſts of Judgment, and ſuperſeding Executions prevented.

WHereas great delay, trouble and vexation hath been, and ſtill is occaſioned to the people of this Realm, as well by arreſting and reverſing of Judgments, as by ſtaying Executions by Writs of Error and Superſedeas, For remedy thereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual, and Temporal and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That if any Verdict of Twelve men ſhall be given in any Action, Suit, Bill or Demand to be commenced from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and five, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or in the Courts of Record in the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter or Durham, or in his Majeſties Courts of the Great Seſſions in any of the twelve Shires of Wales, Judgment thereupon ſhall not be ſtayed or reverſed, for default in form, or lack of form, or by reaſon that there are not Pledges, or but one Pledge to proſecute returned upon the Original Writ, or becauſe the Name of the Sheriff is not returned upon ſuch Original Writ, or for default of entring Pledges upon any Bill or Declaration; or for default of alledging the bringing into Court of any Bond, Bill, Indenture, or other Deed whatſoever mentioned in the Declaration, or other Pleading; or for default of Allegation of bringing into Court of Letters Teſtamentary, or Letters of Adminiſtration

In what Court and caſes Judgement after verdict ſhall not be ſtayed for default of form in pleading.

niſtration; or by reaſon of the omiſſion of Vi & armis, or Contra pacem; or for or by reaſon of the miſtaking of the Chriſtian Name or Sirname of the Plaintiff or Defendant, Demandant or Tenant, ſum or ſums of Money, Day, Moneth or Year, by the Clerk in any Bill, Declaration or Pleading, where the right Name, Sirname, Sum, Day, Moneth or Year, in any Writ, Plaint, Roll, or Record preceding, or in the ſame Roll or Record where the Miſtake is committed, is or are once truly and rightly alledged, whereunto the Plaintiff might have demurred and ſhewn the ſame for Cauſe; nor for want of the Averment of Hoc paratus eſt verificare, or Hoc paratus eſt verificare per Recordum; or for not alledging Prout patet per Recordum; or for that there is no right Venue, ſo as the Cauſe were tryed by a Jury of the proper County or Place where the Action is laid: Nor any Judgment after Verdict, Confeſſion by Cognovit Actionem, or Relicta verificatione, ſhall be reverſed for want of Miſericordia, or Capiatur; or by reaſon that a Capiatur is entred for a Miſericordia; or a Miſericordia is entred, where a Capiatur ought to have been entred: Nor for that Ideo conceſſum eſt per Curiam is entred for Ideo conſideratum eſt per Curiam; Nor for that the encreaſe of Coſts after a Verdict in an Action, or upon a Nonſuit in Replevin are not entred to be at the requeſt of the party for whom the Judgment is given; Nor by reaſon that the Coſts in any Judgement whatſoever are not entred to be by conſent of the Plaintiff: but that all ſuch Omiſſions, Variances, Defects, and all other matters of like nature, not being againſt the right of the matter of the Suit, nor whereby the Iſſue or Trial are altered, ſhall be amended by the Juſtices or other Judges of the Courts where ſuch Judgements are or ſhall be given, or whereunto the Record is or ſhall be removed by Writ of Error.

Proviſo for Appeals, Indictments, Actions upon penal Lawes, other then for Cuſtoms and Subſidies.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Writ, Declaration, or Suit of Appeal of Felony or Murder, nor to any Indictment or Preſentment of Felony, Murder, Treaſon, or other matter, nor to any Proceſs upon any of them, nor to any Writ, Bill, Action or Information upon any penal Statute, other then concerning Cuſtoms and Subſidies of Tunnage and Poundage; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

III. In what caſes execution ſhall not be ſtayed by Writ of Error, but upon Recognizance entred according to 3 Jac. cap. 8.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Twentieth day of March, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and four, No Execution ſhall be ſtayed in any of the aforeſaid Courts by Writ of Error or Superſedeas thereupon, after Verdict and Judgment thereupon, in any Action perſonal whatſoever, unleſs a Recognizance with Condition according to the Statute made in the Third year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King James ſhall be firſt acknowledged in the Court where ſuch Judgment ſhall be given. And further, That in Writs of Error to be brought upon any Judgment after Verdict in any Writ of Dower, or in any Action of Ejectione Firmæ, no execution ſhall be thereupon or thereby ſtayed, unleſs the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs in ſuch writ of Error ſhall be bound unto the Plaintiff in ſuch Writ of Dower or Action of Ejectione firmæ in ſuch reaſonable ſum as the Court to which ſuch Writ of Error ſhall be directed ſhall think fit, with Condition, that if the Judgment ſhall be affirmed in the ſaid Writ of Error, or that the ſaid Writ of Eror be diſcontinued in default of the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs therein, or that the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonſuit in ſuch Writs of Error, that then the ſaid Plaintiff or Plaintiffs ſhall pay ſuch Coſts, Damages, and ſum and ſums of Money as ſhall be awarded upon or after ſuch Judgment affirmed, Diſcontinuance or Nonſuit had.

Proviſo touching Judgement in Dower and Ejectione firmæ.

And to the end that the ſame ſum and ſums, and damages may be aſcertained; It is further Enacted, That the Court wherein ſuch Execution ought to be granted, upon ſuch Affirmation, Diſcontinuance or Nonſuit, ſhall iſſue a Writ to enquire as well of the mean profits as of the damages by any Waſte committed after the firſt Judgment in Dower or in Ejectione firmæ; And upon the Return thereof, Judgment ſhall be given, and Execution awarded for ſuch Meſne-profits, and damages, and alſo for Coſts of Suit.

To what actions this Act ſhall not extend.

Provided, That this Act nor any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend to any Writ of Error to be brought by any Executor or Adminiſtrator, nor unto any Action Popular nor unto any other Action which is or hereafter ſhall be brought upon any Penal Law or Statute (except Action of Debt for not ſetting forth of Tythes) nor to any Indictment, Preſentment, Inquiſition, Information or Appeal; Any thing herein before expreſſed to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided always, That this Act ſhall continue in force for three years, and to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament after the expiration of the ſaid three years, and no longer.

CAP. IX.

The Chancellor of the Dutchy impowred to grant Commiſſions for taking Affidavits within the Dutchy Liberties.

FOr the greater eaſe and benefit of the Inhabitants within the County Palatine of Lancaſter, and other places within ſeveral other Counties of this Kingdom within the Survey of the Court of Dutchy-Chamber at Weſtminſter, in the taking of Affidavits in the County to be made uſe of, and read in Cauſes depending and to be depending within the ſaid Court, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the Chancellor of the ſaid Dutchy and County Palatine of Lancaſter for the time being, ſhall and may by one or more Commiſſion or Commiſſions from time to time, as need ſhall require, impower what, and as many perſons as he ſhall think fit and neceſſary within the ſaid County Palatine and other Dutchy Liberties, to take and receive all & every ſuch Affidavit or Affidavits as any perſon or perſons ſhall be willing and deſirous to make before any of the perſons ſo impowred, in or concerning any cauſe, matter or thing depending, or hereafter to be depending in the ſaid Court of Dutchy-Chamber as Maſters of Chancery in extraordinary do uſe to do, which ſaid Affidavits ſhall be filed in the Office of the Clerk of the Court of the Dutchy, and then be read and made uſe of in the ſaid Court to all intents and purpoſes, as other Affidavits taken in the ſaid Court now are.

Provided, That for the taking of every ſuch Affidavit, the perſon or perſons ſo impowred and taking the ſame, ſhall for ſo doing, receive only the Sum or Fee of Twelve pence, and no more.

CAP. X.

An Act for repairing the High-ways within the County of Hertford continued.

15 Car. 2. c. 1.

London. York. Lincolnſhire.

WHereas by a late Act of Parliament Intituled, An Act for repairing the High-ways within the Counties of Hertford, Cambridg and Huntington, It was Enacted That for the Repairing of the ancient High-way and Poſt-road leading from London to York, and from London into Lincolnſhire, there ſhould be a Toll paid at a certain place in every of the ſaid ſeveral and reſpective Counties, and for Hertfordſhire at Wades-Mill in the ſaid County: which ſaid Toll ſo ſet, is by the ſaid Act to continue the ſpace of eleven years and no longer, with this proviſion, That if the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter Seſſions in the reſpective Counties ſhall before the expiration of eleven years, adjudg the ſaid Repairs to be ſufficiently done, that from thenceforth it ſhould ceaſe. And whereas divers Gentlemen within the County of Hertford have heartily ſet themſelves to take care for the repairing of the ſaid ways within their County; And in order thereunto finding that money could no be advanced by the Toll in ſo ſpeedy a manner as to repair thoſe ruinous ways; And that none would lend their money on that Security, did, upon their own credits, borrow thirteen hundred pounds on Intereſt, to effect the work intended by the ſaid Act, which ſum accordingly is laid out, together with ſuch money as hath proceeded from the Toll before mentioned, in the repair of the ſaid High-way, by which means they have ſo amended the ſaid Road lying in that County, leading from London to York, that they have made the ſame from a Road impaſſable, to be to the ſatisfaction of all that travel that way very paſſable and convenient: but by reaſon of the great ſum expended and laid out, ſo borrowed as aforeſaid, the Toll will not be ſufficient to repay the ſame within the years mentioned in the former Act with Intereſt for the ſame, and to finiſh the ſaid work.

Hertford. Cambridge. Norfolk. New-Market. Puckeridge. Barley.

And whereas there is a Road in the ſaid County of Hertford that leads from London to Cambridg, and ſo into Norfolk, and likewiſe to New-Market, and ſo into Suffolk add other parts, which goes out of the forementioned Road at the end of the Town of Puckeridge, and ſo leadeth to Barly in the ſaid County of Hertford, which is very ruinous, and requires as much the help of the Toll in many places, as the forementioned Road did.

II. The Toll taken at Wades-Mill, continued.

May it therefore pleaſe Your Majeſty that it be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Toll aforementioned to be taken at VVades-Mill for the County of Hertford, that by the former Act was to continue for eleven years and no longer, ſhall continue for the ſaid County of Hertford for the ſpace of One and twenty years, and no longer, the ſaid Term to commence from the time mentioned in the Act before mentioned, and the money ariſing therefrom to be imployed for the payment of the Debt aforeſaid with Intereſt, and alſo for further Repair of the High-way.

For repairing the High-way from Puckeridg to Barley.

It is further Enacted and Declared by the authority aforeſaid, That the perſons impowred in the forementioned Act for the repair of the High-ways within the County of Hertford, ſhall have the ſame power to repair the ſaid Highways leading from Puckeridg to Barley in the ſaid County, as they have to repair the High-way in the ſaid County leading from London to York; And that they ſhall and may apply ſuch part of the Toll thereunto, (having an equal care of both High-ways) as they in their Judgments ſhall find needful; Any thing in the ſaid former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Caxton.

And whereas by the former recited Act, a Toll was erected and ſet to be taken at the town of Caxton in the County of Cambridge for and towards the repairing the High-ways in the ſaid County, the ſaid Toll doth prove uſeleſs, and will not anſwer the end for which the ſame was intended, by reaſon of the Inconveniency of the place where the ſame was ſet.

Arrington-bridge.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Toll be and is hereby removed from the ſaid Town of Caxton unto Arrington-Bridg, or the Town of Arrington as ſhall ſeem moſt convenient by the Juſtices of the peace of the ſaid County at their next Eaſter General Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace in the County aforeſaid; And that the ſame Toll ſhall be taken and received at Arrington-Bridg, or Arrington-Town aforeſaid, according to the Rates, and by the ſame ways and means as in the former Act was appointed and declared and, to be imployed to the uſes, purpoſes and intents therein alſo declared, any thing therein to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

A charge of ſix pence in the pound for repairing the ſaid High-ways.

Provided always, That all and every perſon and perſons who by Law are chargeable towards the repairing of the ſaid High-ways and Places aforeſaid, ſhall ſtill remain ſo chargeable, and pay ſix pence in the pound yearly, according to the true value of their Eſtate, for and towards the repair of the ſaid High-ways during the time of the continuance of this Toll, any thing in this act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

III. The collector of the toll, how to account weekly.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Collector of this Toll ſhall weekly account to the receiver-General for the whole money received by vertue of this or the ſaid former Act; And the next Juſtice of the Peace for the ſaid County ſhall hereby have power to give an Oath to the ſaid Collectors for the making of a true and perfect account of the money ſo received, which ſaid account ſo made ſhall be returned into the next General Quarter-Seſſions to be held for the ſaid County by the Juſtice of Peace before whom ſuch Oath was taken.

Proviſo touching the continuance or determining the ſaid Toll.

Provided alſo, That if at any time before the expiration of the ſaid term of One and twenty years, the ſaid High-ways ſhall be well and ſufficiently amended and repaired, and ſo adjudged at the publick Quarter-Seſſions for the County of Hertford; and that ſuch Sum or Sums of money as is already borrowed and laid out, or ſhall be borrowed and laid out for the uſe aforeſaid, be repaid with intereſt for the ſame: That from and after ſuch Adjudication made, and repayment of ſuch money ſo borrowed and laid out as aforeſaid; the aforeſaid Toll in the ſaid County ſhall ceaſe and determine.

Proviſo for adjudication of the amendment of the ſaid High-ways.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe the High-ways within the ſaid County of Hertford ſhall be ſufficiently amended, and that the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter-Seſſions ſhall fail to make an Adjudication thereof, That then in ſuch default of the ſaid Juſtices of the Peace, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of Aſſize for the ſaid County of Hertford to make ſuch Adjudication, which being entred with the Clerk of the Aſſizes, ſhall be eſteemed a good Adjucation of the amendment of the ſaid High-ways: And that then and from thenceforth, the ſaid Debt being fully ſatisfied to ſuch as ſhall have advanced any moneys thereupon, the ſaid Toll ſhall ceaſe and determine, any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtandiug.

And whereas in this preſent Act it is provided, That all and every perſon and perſons who by Law are chargeable towards the repairing of the ſaid High-ways and places aforeſaid, ſhall ſtill remain ſo chargeable, and pay ſix pence in the pound yearly, according to the true value of their Eſtates, for and towards the repair of the ſaid High-ways, during the time of the continuance of the ſaid Toll.

How the ſaid ſix pence in the pound ſhall be paid and levied.

Be it therefore Provided and Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the aforeſaid ſum of ſix pence in the pound ſhall be paid unto the Treaſurer appointed to receive the aforeſaid Toll, in like manner as the ſaid Toll is appointed to be paid by the aforeſaid Act: And for default of payment of the ſaid Rate of ſix pence in the pound, in manner as aforeſaid, by the ſpace of ſix dayes after demand made, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Surveyors of the High-wayes for the time being, and they are hereby impowred to levy the ſame by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of the party refuſing to pay the ſame accordingly, reſtoring the overplus (if any be) to the Owner.

CAP. XI.

For Draining of the Fenn, called Deeping-Fenn, and other Fenns therein mentioned.

Deeping, Pinchbeck, Thurlby, Born and Croyland Fens.

WHereas at a Seſſion of Sewers, holden at Bourne in the County of Lincoln, the twentieth day of Auguſt, in the one and fortieth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, for the recovery and Draining of certain Fenns in Holland and Keſtiven in the County of Lincoln, called or known by the names of Deeping-Fenn, Pinchbeck and Spalding, South-Fenn, Thurlby-Fenn, Bourn-South-Fenn and Croyland-Fenn, alias Goggushland; It was by the Commiſſioners then and there aſſembled, Ordered and Decreed, That the ſum of Twelve thouſand pounds ſhould be levied and gathered upon the Lords and Inhabitants of certain Towns in Keſtiven and Holland, Commoners in the ſaid Fenns, for Draining the ſame, and ſhould be paid in to certain perſons therein nominated to receive the ſame, at or before the tenth day of September then next enſuing; which ſaid ſum being neglected to be paid, the ſaid Fens by reaſon thereof could not be Drained, according to the Form by the ſaid Law intended: The ſaid Commiſſioners therefore well tendring the great profit that would ariſe to all perſons concerned, and to the Commonwealth in general, if the ſame might be Drained, at ſeveral Seſſions of Sewers held at Market-Deeping the twentieth day of September in the ſaid one and fortieth year of Queen Elizabeth, and at Market-Deeping aforeſaid the twentieth day of Auguſt, in the two and fortieth year of the Reign of the ſaid Queen, did Ordain and Decree, That the ſaid Fens and Marſh-Grounds ſhould be forthwith taken in hand to be drained, and that Thomas Lovell Eſquire (a man ſkilful in works of that nature) ſhould be admitted to undertake the ſame under the Covenants therein mentioned: And in purſuance thereof, the ſaid Thomas Lovell did undertake the ſaid Works, and made ſome progreſs therein; and afterwards one third part of the ſaid ſeveral Fens were by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers ſet out by Metes and Bounds, and allotted to the ſaid Thomas Lovell in recompence of his coſts, charges and endeavours, applied and expended therein; And after, the ſaid third part was by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers decreed to the ſaid Thomas Lovell, and his heirs, in recompence of his ſaid work of Draining, and of his charges and expences therein, to have and to hold to the ſaid Thomas Lovell, his heirs and aſſigns for ever.

A third part aſſigned and ſet out to Thomas Lovell.

And whereas by an Act of Parliament made at Weſtminſter in the firſt year of King James, entituled, An Act for relief of Thomas Lovel Eſquire, the above receited Decrees of Sewers were Ratified and Confirmed; And the ſaid third part of the ſaid Fens and Marſh-grounds, as they were allotted and ſet out by the ſaid Commiſſioners, were by the ſaid Act Ordained, Enacted and Eſtabliſhed to be held by the ſaid Thomas Lovel, his Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, under the Proviſoes, Conditions and Appointments in the ſaid Decrees, and Act of Parliament mentioned and expreſſed: as by the ſaid Act of Parliament and Decrees of Sewers more fully appear. And whereas the ſaid Thomas Lovel immediately after the making the ſaid Act of Parliament entred into the ſaid Lands ſet out and Aſſigned as a third part of the ſaid ſeveral Fens, and by vertue of the ſaid Decrees and Acts of Parliament became ſeiſed thereof, and he and his heirs and Aſſigns have ever ſince, till of late years, held and enjoyed the ſame, until (by ſome neglect in the Aſſigns of the ſaid Thomas Lovel, and failer in the Maintaining, Scowring and Cleanſing the ſaid Banks, Rivers, Sewers and other Works neceſſary thereunto occaſioned by ſome differences ariſing between the ſaid Aſſigns of the ſaid Thomas Lovel, and the Lords Owners and Commoners of the ſaid Fens, about the enjoyment of ſome additional recompence allotted to the ſaid Aſſigns of the ſaid Thomas Lovel, by a ſubſequent Law of Sewers (made at Spalding) not onely the ſaid Fens and Marſh-grounds are returned into their antient condition of being hurtfully ſurrounded and annoyed with waters; but a great and conſiderable part of ſome adjacent Towns of Holland have been overflowed & laid deſolate, and many habitations and families who formerly lived comfortably there, utterly ruined and deſtroyed thereby, and yet continue in manifeſt danger in all ſeaſons of wet weather and floods, to fall into the ſaid calamities; which great miſchief is by long and indubitable experience found to ariſe principally from ſeveral imperfections in the ſaid Decrees and Acts of Parliament.

To the end therefore that the ſaid Countrey, being in its own nature very rich and fertile, and wherein the King, and Queens Majeſty his Mother, have large Poſſeſſions, (and many ancient Families and Inhabitants their whole ſubſiſtence) may not longer remain in ſuch manifeſt danger of being utterly loſt, nor the Commonwealth continue longer deprived of thoſe advantages which would ariſe from the performance of the ſaid Works:

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Decrees, and Acts of Parliament above mentioned, and every Clauſe, Article and Thing therein contained, other then ſuch as are herein after mentioned, Enacted, Ratified and confirmed, ſhall be and are hereby repealed and made void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever.

A certain Act and Decrees made for the ſaid Thomas Lovel repealed.

And inaſmuch as the Right Honourable Thomas Earl of Berkſhire and the Lady Elizabeth his Wife, and Charles Lord Howard of Charlton, commonly called the Lord Viſcount Andover, their Eldeſt ſon and heir apparent; The Right Honourable Robert Lord Bruce Baron of Wharlton in the Kingdom of England, and Earl of Elgin in the Kingdom of Scotland, and the Lady Diana his wife; The Right Honourable Anne Counteſs of Stamford, and Thomas Lord Grey of Groby, have formerly held and derived to themſelves, with remainders over to ſeveral other perſons, by ſeveral Conveyances from or under the Right Honourable William late Earl of Exeter, and Elizabeth late Counteſs of Exeter, or one of them, ſeveral intereſts in the ſaid third part of the ſaid Lands, allotted to the ſaid Lovel, his heirs and aſſigns; and to other proportions by ſubſequent Decrees of Sewers, and towards the Dreyning and maintaining thereof; they, the ſaid Right Honourable William late Earl of Exeter, and Elizabeth late Counteſs Dowager of Exeter, under whom, or one of whom they claim, and Thomas late Earl of Exeter, from whom the ſaid William late Earl, and Elizabeth late Counteſs Dowager of Exeter derived their title, have expended ſeveral great ſums of money, but have not ſo fully effected the ſaid works, nor introduced thoſe benefits and advantages which where expected: And for reaſon do alledg, that the third part, and ſubſequent allotments are not Recompence ſufficient to anſwer the charge of a more perfect performance of the ſaid work; but offer to proceed and perfectly to effect the ſame, if they may have a ſufficient recompence and compenſation for their Hazard, Charge and Pains therein: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That Edward Earl of Mancheſter Lord Chamberlain of his Majeſties Houſhold; William Earl of Devonſhire; John Lord Berkley of Stratton; Anchatil Grey Eſquire, Henry Grey Eſquire, and their Heirs and Aſſigns, and the Survivor of them, ſhall be, and are hereby declared to be the Undertakers for the Dreining of the ſaid Fens, and every of them, in truſt to and for ſuch perſon or perſons, and to ſuch intents and purpoſes as are herein after mentioned. And that within the ſpace of ſeven years next enſuing, they, their heirs and Aſſigns ſhall and will at their proper coſts and Charges recover and make dry the ſaid Fens, and every of them, and make the ſame firm and depaſturable for Cattel at all times of the year, except two or three hundred Acres or thereabouts in the ſaid Fens called Deeping-Fen and Goggushland, and forty Acres or thereabouts in the ſaid Fens called Thursby-Fen and Bourn-South-Fen, which are to be left for Lakes and Dykes for the receipt of Waters within the ſame; And alſo, except ſuch Drains and Sewers as now be, or hereafter ſhall be made within the ſaid Fens, or any of them for the Dreyning thereof, and ſo much of the grounds adjoyning to the Rivers, Dreyns and Sewers within the ſaid Fens, as lye, or ſhall lye between the ſaid Rivers, Dreyns or Sewers, and the Banks made or to be made for keeping the Waters lying in the ſaid Rivers, Dreyns or Sewers, from overflowing the reſt of the ſaid Fens. And alſo ſhall for ever hereafter at their own coſts and charges, not only repair, exalt, maintain and keep, as need ſhall require, the Banks environing and encompaſſing the ſaid Fens and every of them, but alſo the Bank on the Eaſt-ſide of the River of Welland, from a place in Crowland called Brother-houſe to Spalding high-bridg. And alſo the Bank on the North-ſide of the River Glean, from Gutheram Coat to a place called Dovehurn in Pinchbeck; and thereof, and of all and every the ſaid Banks above-named, ſhall for ever hereafter exonerate, acquit, diſcharge and ſave harmleſs as well the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Suceſſors, as the Queen Dowager, her Tenants, and under-Tenants, and all other perſon and perſons, their Heirs and Aſſigns of and for their repairing and amending of their ſeveral parts and allotments of the ſame; but alſo that they the ſaid Heirs and Aſſigns, and the Survivor of them at their own proper Coſts and Charges, ſhall for ever maintain and keep the Rivers of Glean and Welland with ſufficient Dyking, Roading, Scowring and Banking, (viz.) the River of Welland from the Outgang at the Eaſt end of Eaſt-Dieping leading into the ſaid Fens, unto the Out-fal thereof into the Sea; and to preſerve and maintain the Navigation thereof without Impoſition or paying any thing whatſoever for the ſame, but with liberty to alter and divert the Courſe and Channel of the ſame into any other part or parts of the ſaid Fens before it cometh to the ſaid Corner of Dieping-Fen abutting upon Hawthorne Bank, from whence through the ſaid Town of Spalding as it now paſſeth to the Sea, it ſhall not be lawful to divert the Courſe thereof: And with like liberty to divert the ſaid River of Glean before it cometh to the place

Truſtees and undertakers made for Dreining the ſaid Fens.

Glean and Welland Rivers.

place called Pinchbeck-Bars or Dovehurne in Pinchbeck; from which place called Dovehurne through the ſaid Town and the Town of Surflet as it now paſſeth to the Sea, it ſhall not be lawful to divert the ſame, or prejudice the Navigation thereof. And all manner of Dreins, Sewers and Paſſages for Waters and other Water-works whatſoever, which now are or hereafter ſhall be made within or without the ſaid Fens for the draining of the ſaid Fens or any of them which ſhall be neceſſary to be made or continued in order to the preſerving the ſaid Fens from Surrounder. And thereof, and of all and every the ſaid Rivers do diſcharge, exonerate, acquit and ſave harmleſs, as well the Kings and the ſaid Queens Majeſties, his heirs and Succeſſors, their Tenants and Under-tenants, as all other perſon and perſons, their Heirs and Aſſigns, of and for the repairing and amending of their ſeveral parts and allotments in them and every of them.

Sufficient Gates and Bridges to be made.

Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the Survivor of them ſhall at their own proper Coſts and Charges make, ſet down and maintain ſuch reaſonable and convenient Bridges, with Gates unto the ſame, in wideneſs not exceeding twelve foot, being well and ſufficiently raiſed or walled againſt the ſides, as well over any Drain or Ditch now made or hereafter to be made, whereby paſſage may be had into the Fens in ſuch and ſo many fit and convenient places as ſhall be thought fit, and ordered by any ſix Commiſſioners of Sewers for the ſaid County of Lincoln, in their publick and open Seſſions, and the ſame ſhall for ever keep and maintain for convenient and ready paſſage with Carts and Carriages, and all ſorts of Cattel, into and forth of the ſaid Fens and every of them.

The powers of the ſaid Truſtees and Undertakers.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, for the better Dreyning and keeping dry of the aforeſaid Fens, ſhall and may at their wills and pleaſures deſert, or maintain and continue all ſuch Dreyns as now are in the ſaid Fens, or any of them, at the old or accuſtomable wideneſs and breadth, or otherwiſe enlarge the ſame at their will and pleaſure within the ſaid Fens: And likewiſe may at their will and pleaſure make any new Dreyns, Ditches and Sewers within the ſaid Fens or any of them, or without towards the Sea, of what quantity, depth or wideneſs they ſhall think beſt; which Dreyns, and every of them ſhall have liberty to run above the ſoyl, ſo as the waters of the ſame be kept within the banks of the ſeveral and reſpective Dreyns now made or hereafter to be made, except ſo much of the ſaid waters as unavoidably ſhall ſoak through the Banks, for which alſo ſatisfaction is to be made to any perſon or perſons ſuffering damage thereby, as ſhall be awarded by the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers, or any ſix of them in the open Seſſions, ſo as the Inhabitants of Spalding and Pinchbeck may have a liberty to ſet down and ſtop ſuch Sluces, Tunnels and Gages of water and Locks as are or ſhall be made upon any the ſaid Rivers and Dreyns (except the ſaid Rivers of Welland, Glean and the Weſtlode) at ſuch time or times as two Commiſſioners of Sewers for the parts of Holland ſhall judg ſeaſonable and neceſſary for the Dreyning of their In-grounds: Provided the ſame exceed not two moneths in the year. And if at any time or times hereafter for ever, any of the bank or banks of the Dreyn or Dreyns, now or hereafter to be made for the Dreyning of the ſaid Fens, or preſervation of the ſaid Country happen to break or to be overflown, whereby the waters have iſſued and fall into any the ſeveral Lands of the Towns of the Wapentake of Elloe, That immediately upon ſuch breach or overflowing, it ſhall or may be lawful for all, or any the Dyke-reeves, Officers or other inhabitants of any the Towns in Elloe aforeſaid, to ſet down the Clowe of ſuch Dreyn or Dreyns, or otherwiſe to ſtop the ſame, till the banks thereof ſo breaking or overflowed, from time to time be ſufficiently repaired, ſtrengthened and heightened.

Glean, Welland, Weſtlode.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Currents or Channels of the River of Glean and Welland, and the Weſtlode, ſhall not be diverted or turned into any other Tract or Courſe whatſoever (that is to ſay) from a place called Dovehurn in Pinchbeck to the Outfall, and from a Bank in Spalding, called Hawthorne-bank to the Outfall, but ſhall be kept Navigable, as formerly they were, down to the Sea.

What ſhall be done in caſe of Gooles or Breaches, or Overflowings.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Gool or Gools, Breach or Breaches, Overflowiug or Overflowings of waters ſhall happen at any time hereafter to be in, over, or through any of the ſaid Banks made or to be made within the ſaid Fens, for the defence and preſervation of the ſame, other then the Bank called the Dozens, and the Bank called Hawthorne bank, to the ſurrounding or annoyance of the ſaid Fens or any part of them within their charge as aforeſaid, and the ſame be not amended by the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them, within ten days after ſuch Breach, Goole or Overflowing, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any of the ſaid Dike-reeves or Surveyors of Sewers in Spalding or Pinchbeck, or any of the other Towns in the Wapentake of Neſſe or Elloe in the ſaid County of Lincoln, where the ſaid Breach or Breaches, Gool or Gooles, Overflowing or Overflowings of water ſhall happen to be, forthwith and immediately after the ſaid ten days, to repair the ſame at the only Coſts and Charges of them the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them. All which ſaid ſum or ſums of mouey ſo by the ſaid Dike-reeves and Surveyors of Sewers, or any of them, expended in and about the Taking, Repairing and Amending of any ſuch Breach or Breaches, Goole or Gooles, Overflowing or Overflowings of waters, in or over the ſaid Bank or Banks reſpectively, They the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns or the Survivor of them, ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid to the ſaid Dike-reeve or Dike-reeves, Surveyor or Surveyors ſo expending the ſame, upon a note delivered in writing to the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them, their Tenants or Under-tenants, Servants or Agents, or any of them, by the ſaid Dike-reeve or Dike-reeves, Surveyor or Surveyors, teſtified under the hands of two Commiſſioners of Sewers, one being of the Quorum, containing as well the names of the Labourers that repaired the ſaid Breach or Breaches, Goole or Gooles, Overflowing or Overflowings, as the Wages paid to them, and the rates and prices of all other neceſſary charges imployed and beſtowed in and about the ſame, with their convenient Salary and Wages for their pains in that behalf, at the diſcretion of two ſuch Commiſſioners as aforeſaid: The which, if the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them, or their Tenants or Under-Tenants, Agents or Servants, ſhall refuſe or neglect to do, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Officers or perſons, or any of them that ſhall make up any ſuch Breach or Breaches, Goole or Gooles, Overflowing or Overflowings, or ſuſtain ſuch damages as aforeſaid, to enter into the ſaid third part of the ſaid Fens, or into the Five thouſand Acres additional recompence herein after given by this preſent Act, or into any part thereof, and to diſtrain and impound the Horſes, Beaſts, Sheep or Goods and Chattels of them the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them, or any Tenant or Tenants, Farmer or Farmers, occupier or occupiers of all or any part of the ſaid third part, and of the ſaid five thouſand Acres; And from and after the fourth day of the ſaid diſtreſs and impoundment (in caſe the ſaid ſum or ſums ſo expended and demanded be not then paid) ſale thereof to make, without allowance of Replevin, and with the money thereupon ariſing, to pay and ſatisfie all ſums of money for the ſaid Works expended, and to be allowed as aboveſaid, rendring the overplus to the Owner, if any overplus be, over and above the charges aforeſaid, and charges of keeping.

Dozens, Hawthorn-bank Eaſt-bank.

Provided always, and be it further Enacted, That if any breach, goole, hole or holes, or flowing of Waters ſhall happen to be in, over or through the ſaid Bank called the Dozens, the ſaid Bank called Hawthorn-Bank, the ſaid Bank called the Eaſt-bank, the ſaid Bank on the North-ſide of the River Glean, or any other Bank made or to be made without the ſaid Fens by the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the Survivors of them, for, or in order to the draining of the ſaid Fens, That then, and in every ſuch caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Dyke-reeves and Surveyors of Sewers in Pinchbeck and Spalding, or any of the Towns in the Wapentake of Neſſe or Elloe aforeſaid, where the ſaid breach, goole or flowing ſhall be, forthwith and immediately to repair the ſame at the coſts and charges of the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the Survivor of them, to be had and levied in manner and form as is before expreſſed and declared, for or concerning the ſaid Banks, environing, or made or to be made for the dreining or preſervation of the ſaid Fens.

Satiſfaction for damage to particular perſons how to be made.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if it fortune that at any time hereafter, by the negligence of the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, in not ſufficiently maintaining, ſcowring, dyking or cleanſing of any Rivers, Banks, Sewers or Dreyns whatſoever, which now are, or hereafter ſhall be made for dreyning of the ſaid Fens, and ſecuring of the Countrey; or that by any inconvenient placing, ſetting, cutting or making of any Dreyn, Gate or Sluce upon the ſame, that the Countrey or any private or particular perſon receive loſs or harm thereby; That the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, or ſome of them, ſhall make ſuch recompence and ſatisfaction for the ſame to every perſon and perſons ſuſtaining any damage thereby, as ſix Commiſſioners of Sewers for the ſaid third part of Holland, whereof three to be of the Quorum, ſhall award and appoint under their hands and ſeals (if the ſaid Lords Adventurers, their heirs and aſſigns ſhall not have otherwiſe ſatisfied the ſame) which if they the ſaid Lords Adventurers, their heirs and aſſigns ſhall neglect to pay and ſatisfie to the perſon and perſons ſuſtaining the ſame, their Executors or Aſſigns, by the ſpace of twenty dayes after demand made thereof to them the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, or the Agents, Tenants or under-Tenants of them; That then and from thenceforth, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for every ſuch perſon and perſons ſuſtaining the ſame damage, their heirs, executors, adminiſtrators and aſſigns, and every of them reſpectively, to enter into the ſame third part, and into the ſaid five thouſand Acres, and every or any part thereof, and to levy the ſame damages ſo as aforeſaid awarded and appointed, by diſtreſſe and ſale of the Goods and Chattels of them the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, or any Tenant or Tenants, Farmer or Farmers, Occupier or Occupiers, of all or any part of the ſaid third part of the ſaid Fens, or the ſaid five thouſand Acres, and preſent ſale thereof to make after the fourth day of impoundment (and payment of ſuch money then not made) without allowance of Replevin, rendring the overplus to the Owner (if any overplus there be): And if the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs or aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them or any of them, ſhall think it neceſſary for the enlargement of any old Dreyn, River or Bank, out of the ſaid Fens, above that which formerly they were, or for making any new Dreyn, River or Bank, to cut or cover the ſeveral ſoyl of any perſon or perſons, That then the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall compound and agree with the Owner or Owners thereof (if they can agree) And if they cannot agree, that the value of the damage ſhall be ſet down by ſix of the Commiſſioners of Sewers, whereof three to be of the Quorum, and the money ſhall be paid or tendred before ſuch time as the ſaid ſoyl ſhall be cut or covered, and upon payment or tender of the ſaid money, it ſhall be lawful for them to cut or cover the ſaid ſoyl, for making the ſaid Dreyns, Rivers or Banks.

Power to pull up Bridges, Drains, &c.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs and aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, to pull up any Cart-bridges of Wood or Stone, or any Foot or Horſe-bridges, Clowes or Water-bridges that now lye over the ſaid two Rivers of Glean and Welland, the Rivers of Weſtload and Starfengraft, Vernatts, or any of them, or any other Dreyns that be too ſtrait or narrow, or otherwiſe may hinder the courſe and paſſage of the Waters in the ſaid Rivers or of any Dreyn to be deviſed by the ſaid Truſtees, their heirs or aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them; and alſo to pull up all Wears and Purpreſtures in the ſaid Rivers and Dreyns that hinder the paſſage of the water. Provided that they ſhall forthwith ſufficiently build and make again at their own proper coſts and charges the great Bridge over Spalding-River (commonly called the High-Bridge) of lime and ſtone, and all ſuch other Cart-Bridges, Horſe-bridges, Clowes or Water-bridges of lime, ſtone or timber reſpectively, as the former were, which have been or ſhall be ſo pulled down, to be enlarged or made wider. And that all and every the ancient Bridges and Tunnels under and over any of the Rivers and Dreyns, and every of them, be repaired and for ever maintained at the charges of them the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them. And if it ſhall happen the ſaid Bridges or any of them, ſhall not be made or repaired by the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them, in convenient time according to the true intent or meaning of this Act, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Commiſſioners of Sewers in their publick Seſſions from time to time to Order and Decree how much or what ſum or ſums of money ſhall or may be neceſſary or fitting to be raiſed for effecting the ſame. And if after notice of the ſaid Determinations of the ſaid Commiſſioners by a note in writing under the hand of the Clerk of the Sewers, given to the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, they ſhall not pay or cauſe the ſame, ſo adjudged, to be paid within thirty dayes after ſuch notice, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers by their Warrants to levy the ſame by diſtreſs and ſale of the Goods and Cattel levant and couchant upon any of the Lands within the ſaid Fens, hereby veſted and ſetled in the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them. And if it ſhall fall out that the ſaid High Bridge over Spadling River be not finiſhed before the five and twentieth of March, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, That then the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall forfeit the full and juſt ſum of one hundred and fifty pounds to Peircy Church Eſquire, his Executors or Aſſigns, which ſhall and may be raiſed by the Commiſſioners of Sewers for the time being at the publick Seſſions, by ſale of part of the ſaid third part of the ſaid Fens, or of the ſaid three thouſand five hundred Acres therein mentioned, and be by them accordingly paid over to the ſaid Peircy Church, his Executors or Aſſigns, and the perſon and perſons, and their Heirs to whom ſuch ſale ſhall be made, ſhall and may for ever then after hold and enjoy the ſame by vertue of ſuch ſale, and of this preſent Act; any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Preſervation of the Banks.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the better preſervation of the ſaid Banks environing the ſaid Fens or made within the ſaid Fens for the defence of the ſame, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, to cut the ground lying between the outring-Banks and the ſaid Rivers, or either of them, to take Earth, Manure and Litter for repairing the ſaid Banks ſo often as need ſhall require, or to them ſhall ſeem meet and convenient, ſo that ſuch cutting be not extended or made above ſix ſcore foot diſtant from the ſaid Banks, and to erect, make and keep ſuch and ſo many ſufficient Bars and Slakers, and in ſuch places as ſhall ſeem moſt fit and convenient to the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, and the ſurvivor of them; The Slakers to take off the ſurpluſage of Waters, and the Bars to hinder the paſſage of Horſemen and Drifts of Cattel over the ſame Banks in the times hereafter prohibited. And to the end that the Banks ſhould not be impaired by Horſemen, Drifts of Sheep, Horſes, Beaſts and other Cattel; It is hereby Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever (except as hereafter is excepted) ſhall at any time or times hereafter in any year between Michaelmas-day, and the firſt day of May, drive or cauſe to be driven any Horſes, Oxen, Sheep, or any other kind of Cattel over or upon any of the ſaid Banks, without firſt paying to them the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, after the Rate of four pence for every ſcore of Sheep, and for every other Beaſt the ſum of four pence; which they, their Heirs and Aſſigns are hereby authorized to demand and receive.

Proviſo for Owners and Commoners.

Provided nevertheleſſe, and be it Enacted, That all and every the Lords, Owners and Commoners of or in all, or any part of the ſaid Fens, ſhall have free liberty at all times of the year, for them, their Horſes, Servants and Cattel to paſſe and repaſſe upon any Bank or Banks, Drove or Droves, in or compaſſing the ſaid Fens, without paying any thing for ſo doing, if ſuch perſon or perſons claiming ſuch freedom do not uſually buy Sheep or Cattel, and Trade that way to London with ſuch Cattel or Sheep as are not of their own feeding for a Moneth before.

Horſemen and cattel landing upon the banks.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever keeping a Horſe-boat, either at Croyland, Cloote, Deeping, Baſton, Eaſtcoate, Pinchbeck, Spalding or Cowbet, ſhall land any Horſemen with their Horſes and Cattel upon any the ſaid Banks, at any time hereafter between Michaelmas day and the firſt day of May, but at Waldrome-Hall, Baſton, Spoute, Dovehurne, Cloote or Croyland, without licence firſt thereunto had and obtained from the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, upon pain and forfeiture to be made and paid, for every Horſe and neat Beaſt, ſix pence, and for every ſcore of Sheep, four pence to the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them: And that no manner of perſon or perſons ſhall draw any Boat on, or over any the Banks in, or compaſſing the ſaid Fens, but in ſuch places only as are or ſhall be appointed for that purpoſe.

Swine.

And it is further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Swine of what ſort ſoever, ringed or unringed, be put upon the ſaid Fens, or any of them, between the ſaid Banks and the Wear-ditches, but that they ſhall be put into the Fens at uſual places where other Cattel are put in; And that the Swine ſo put, ſhall be ringed, upon pain of every Hog ſo found unringed, to forfeit to them the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, the ſum of two pence for every time ſo found, to be levied by diſtreſs and impounding of ſuch Hog or Hogs.

And it is further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, their or any of their Tenants, Farmers or Groundholders of any part of the ſaid third part, or of the ſaid Fen, or of the ſaid five thouſand Acres, ſhall not have any time hereafter, uſe or claim any Common of Paſture, or other Commonage of Paſturing in any part of the Remainder of the ſaid Fens, nor any of them, nor in the North Fen of Pinchbeck and Spalding, nor any part thereof, by vertue or pretence of his or their Reſidence there: But all and every the Inhabitants that may hereafter be upon any part of the ſaid third part, or upon any part of the ſaid five thouſand Acres, and are not able to maintain themſelves, ſhall be maintained and kept by the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, and the ſurvivor of them, and never become chargeable in any kind, to all or any the reſpective Pariſhes wherein ſuch Inhabitant or Inhabitants ſhall reſide or dwell; any Statute or Law to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Poor Inhabitants.

Water ſhall not be let out of the rivers of Glean and Welland.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no water ſhall be let or taken out of the Rivers of Gleane or Welland, or any other the ſaid Dreyn or Dreyns, by any Sluce, Cut or Tunnel without the licence of the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, or by Order of ſix Commiſſioners of Sewers, who likewiſe are to take order that ſuch Cut or Cuts made for the taking thereof, ſhall be made up again at the charge of the perſon or perſons for whoſe benefit the ſame were made, but for neceſſary houſhold uſes, by ſuch as now lye by ſome Law of Sewers already ſetled: And in caſe any abuſe of the ſaid Tunnels happen to be, that then the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, their Servants or Agents ſhall have power immediately to ſtop the ſame.

Pinchbeck, Spalding, Blewgate-ſluce.

And it is further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Inhabitants of Pinchbeck and Spalding ſhall for ever hereafter have the uſe of a certain Gote or Sluce called Blewgate, and the Dreyn leading thereto, ſo as the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, ſhall not be put to any charge for the repairing or maintaining of the ſame.

The Dreyn from Boſton-bank to Winſoever.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Loads or Dreyn under the Dozens, from Boſton-bank to Winſoever, be Ditched two hundred foot more inward into the ſaid Fens then now it is, and the earth laid on that ſide the Bank next the Town of Pinchbeck.

The propoſition ſtated upon the truſtees and undertakers.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for and in conſideration of all the moneys already expended in and about the Dreyning of the ſaid Fens, and in conſideration of the doing and performing of the Works aforeſaid hereafter to be done, and of all and every of them abont the Recovering, Inning and Dreyning of the ſaid Fens, and every of them, that they the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall from henceforth have, hold, peaceably occupy and enjoy to them, their Heirs and Aſſigns in Fee-ſimple for ever, the ſaid third part of the ſaid Fens and Marſhes formerly aſſigned to the ſaid Thomas Lovel, his Heirs and Aſſigns, as alſo three thouſand five hundred Acres added and allotted by a Deceee of Sewers made at Spalding in the ſaid Fens, and one thouſand Acres out of that part of the ſaid Fens, formerly taken in for the Queens improvement, and five hundred Acres more to be taken proportionably out of the reſidue of the ſaid Fens in Keſtiven and Holland, next adjoyning to the ſaid three thouſand five hundred Acres; which three thouſand five hundred Acres and one thouſand acres, aed five thouſand acres laſt mentioned, are to be demeaſured by Statute-meaſure by two Artiſts, and ſet out by them at the charge of the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, one to be choſen by the Commiſſioners of Sewers of Keſtiven and Holland, and one other by the ſaid Undertakers; but upon the Truſts hereafter mentioned: That is to ſay, as touching and concerning eight thouſand thirty ſix acres thereof mentioned in a Schedule annexed to an Indenture of Fifteen parts, dated the ſecond of Auguſt, 1650. made between Elizabeth Counteſs Dowager of Exeter and others therein named, and two thouſand acres more to be indifferently ſet out within ſix moneths after the paſſing of this Act, amounting in the whole to ten thouſand thirty ſix acres; in Truſt, That the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall grant and convey the ſame to ſuch perſon or perſons, or for ſuch Eſtates in Fee-ſimple or otherwiſe, in ſuch manner as the ſaid Thomas Earl of Berks, the ſaid Lord Andover, Lord Bruce and John Lord Berkley of Stratton ſhall appoint. And as for, touching and concerning the reſidue of the ſaid Fens, by this Act allotted for Recompence for the ſaid Dreyning moreover and above the ſaid eight thouſand thirty ſix acres, and two thouſand acres in Truſt for the ſaid Earl of Berkſhire and the Lady Elizabeth his Wife, the ſaid Lord Andover, the ſaid Earl of Elgin, Counteſs of Stamford and Lord Grey, and ſuch other perſon and perſons to whom the Remainder upon their Eſtates are limited, according to their ſeveral and reſpective Intereſts and Eſtates as aforeſaid, made or derived from, by or under the ſaid William late Earl of Exeter, and Elizabeth late Counteſs of Exeter, or either of them, their, or either of their Heirs or Aſſigns: And in caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall not nominate a Surveyor within three moneths after nomination by the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, and both to be ſworn by the ſaid Commiſſioners, and notice thereof to be given to the ſaid Commiſſioners, That then the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall proceed as aforeſaid by their own Artiſt.

The truſtees ſhall fence and incloſe the third part, &c.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, and the ſurvivor of them, ſhall at all times hereafter ſufficiently fence and incloſe the ſaid third part, and all other the Lands by this Act to them granted on all parts, againſt the Lords and Commoners of and in the reſidue of the ſaid Fens: And if any of their Cattel ſhall enter or break into the ſaid third part, and other Lands ſo granted or any part thereof, in default of the Incloſure thereof; It ſhall not be lawful for the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, to Diſtrain or Impound the ſame, or to maintain any Action for any ſuch Entry, Depaſturing, or other Treſpaſſe happening in ſuch default: And if any ſuch Action be brought, it ſhall be lawful for the Defendant or Defendants therein to plead the General Iſſue, and to give this Act in Evidence. And that the two Drove-ways in the ſaid Fens, called the North-drove and South-drove, leading from the parts of Keſtiven into the parts of Holland, be continued open and common through the ſaid third part, and Lands to them granted for the uſe and benefit of the Lords and Commoners for a Drift-way for them and the ſaid Undertakers: And alſo that the Banks or Dreyns (by vertue of this Act) to be continued or made, ſhall not ſtop or hinder the Land-waters falling from the parts of Keſtiven into the ſaid Fen, but ſhall and may receive and carry the ſame away.

Provided alwayes, That this Act, or any Clauſe, Article, Sentence or Penalty therein contained, mentioned or expreſſed, ſhall not extend to charge the perſons of the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, or any the Eſtate or Eſtates real or perſonal of them the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, other then their Eſtate and Eſtates of and in the ſaid Fens.

The Penalty upon neglect to Dreyn the ſaid Fens within ſeven years, and ſo after to keep and maintain them.

Provided alſo, and upon condition, That if the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the Survivor of them, ſhall neglect the Inning and Dreyning of the ſaid Fens, and every or any of them, and ſhall not fully and perfectly finiſh the Dreyning of the ſame before the end and expiration of the ſaid ſeven years as aforeſaid, according to the intent and purport of this Act, or ſhall not after the Inning or Dreyning thereof, keep and maintain the ſaid Fens and every of them after the end and term of the ſaid ſeven years, dry, firm and depaſturable ground for Cattel at all times in the year (except ſuch Lakes, Dreyns, Sewers, Portions and Quantities of the ſaid Fens as are before excepted) but ſhall wilfully and negligently ſuffer the ſaid Fens and Waſtes or the moſt part of the ſame to be again drowned and overflowed by the ſpace of five years at any time after the expiration of the ſaid ſeven years, and the ſame be found and adjudged hurtfully ſurrounded in default of the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them (contrary to this Act) by twelve Commiſſioners of Sewers, or the greater number of them, whereof ſix to be of the parts of Holland, and ſix of Keſtiven, of which twelve Commiſſioners, three of either of the ſaid parts to be of the Quorum, upon their view or inquiſition or preſentment of Jury that the ſame hath ſo long continued drowned, and that Judgment be certified of Record into the High Court of Chancery under their Hands and Seals, or the greater number of them; That then and from thenceforth the truſt of the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, of, in and to the ſaid third part, and the ſaid other parts and proportions added and allotted for a further Recompence as aforeſaid, for the ſaid Earl and Counteſs of Berkſhire, Lord Howard of Charlton, Lord Bruce, Counteſs of Stamford, Lord Grey, and other perſons in Remainder as aforeſaid, and all and every eſtate and eſtates whatſoever by them granted, conveyed, or in any manner executed, of all or any the ſaid third part or other proportions added and allotted for further recompence to any perſon or perſons whomſoever, in execution, purſuance or diſcharge of their ſaid Truſt, or otherwiſe ſhall ceaſe, determine, and be utterly void to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, and not to be helped, altered or relieved in any Court or by any courſe of Law or Equity, and that then and from thenceforth the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall ſtand and be ſeiſed of all the ſaid third part, and the additional allotments in truſt, to permit and ſuffer the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers of Keſtiven and Holland, to take, perceive and receive the whole Rents, Iſſues and Profits, to the end the ſame may be laid out and expended for the regaining of the ſaid Fens, and to defray the charge which the Country ſhall or may be put unto to preſerve themſelves and their other Lands from being ſurrounded or damnified by the ſaid waters, in default of maintaining of the ſaid Banks and doing other the ſaid works which ought to have been made and repaired by the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them: And upon further truſt likewiſe, That the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs and Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall and will from time to time, and at all times, make and execute ſuch eſtate and eſtates as twelve Commiſſioners of Sewers of the parts of Holland and Keſtiven, whereof three of each part to be of the Quorum, ſhall by writing under their Hands and Seals direct and appoint.

And be it Enacted and Declared, That all ſuch eſtate and eſtates ſo by them made, ſhall be, and be, and be deemed and taken to be good and effectual in Law to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame were in this preſent Act particularly and by proper names mentioned and expreſſed.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them, ſhall not, or do not, at or before the ſaid term of ſeven years, well and truly pay or cauſe to be paid the full and juſt ſum of one hundred pounds of lawful money of England into the hands of ſuch perſon or perſons as the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers in their publick Seſſions from time to time ſhall appoint to receive the ſame, That then and in ſuch caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Commiſſioners of Sewers by an Order in writing under their Hands and Seals, to authorize ſuch perſon or perſons as they ſhall think fit, to enter into any the ſaid Lands, part of the ſaid third part allotted to the ſaid Thomas Lovel, out of any the Fens by him formerly undertaken to be Dreyned, and the ſaid Additional Lands, and out of the Rents, Iſſues and Profits thereof to raiſe the ſame ſum of one hundred pounds, to the end the ſame ſhall and may be by them imployed and laid out, in and about the neceſſary maintenance and reparation of the Banks above mentioned, called the South Dozens, and Hawthorne Bank, and ſo from time to time, and at all times, as the ſaid one hundred pounds, or any part thereof ſhall be as abovesaid expended in and about the ſaid Banks as aforeſaid, if the ſame be not again ſupplied by the ſaid Truſtees, their Heirs or Aſſigns, or the ſurvivor of them within ſix moneths then next following,

CAP. XII.

The River Avon to be made Navigable from Chriſt-Church to the City of New-Sarum.

WHereas the making Navigable and paſſable with Barges, Boats, Lighters and other Veſſels, the River of Avon in the Counties of Wilts and Southampton, from the Town of Chriſt-Church in the ſaid County of Southampton to the City of New-Sarum in the ſaid County of Wilts; And (if need require) the making of a new Haven, may with Gods bleſſing be of great advantage and benefit not only to the ſaid Counties, but alſo to the Publick, by import and export of Commodities, and increaſe of Commerce and Trade, and of able Seamen and Watermen, and moſt profitable and neceſſary for the ſaid City of New-Sarum, for the conveyance thereby of Fewel and other neceſſaries to the ſaid City, whereof there is now great ſcarcity, and far greater is like to grow, if ſome help therefore be not provided, beſides the extraordinary preſervation of the High-wayes in and near the ſaid City and County.

Commiſſioners, how to be appointed for making the River Avon Navigable.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings Majeſty by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That the Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, at any time after the end of this preſent Seſſion of Parliament, ſhall and may nominate, appoint and authorize by Commiſſion under the Great Seal of England, ſuch perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, as to him ſhall ſeem fit, and are willing to undertake the making Navigable the ſaid River of Avon from the ſaid Town of Chriſt-Church to the ſaid City of New-Sarum; And to make a new Haven (if need require) for Ships and Veſſels near the ſaid Town of Chriſt-Church. Which ſaid Undertakers ſo nominated and appointed as aforeſaid, are hereby authorized and ſhall have full power and authority by this preſent Act to make Navigable or paſſable by Barges, Boats, Lighters or other Veſſels, the ſaid River of Avon from the ſaid Town of Chriſt-Church to the City of New-Sarum aforeſaid;, And for that purpoſe to cleanſe, ſcour and open the ſame, and to cut or dig the Banks of the ſame, and to take away or remove all Wears or other Impediments that may hinder Navigation, either in ſailing or haling of Boats with Horſes, Men or otherwiſe to amend or alter ſuch Bridges and High-wayes as may hinder the ſaid Paſſages and Navigation, and to open, prepare and make all Wears, Saſſes, Locks and Turn-pikes fit for the ſaid Paſſage; And likewiſe to cleanſe, ſcour, open or cut and dig the Banks of any other Stream, Brook, Ditch or Water-courſe that ſhall to them ſeem convenient for the better making the ſaid River Navigable and paſſable for Boats, Barges, Lighters and other Veſſels; And likewiſe to make and erect any Wharfs, Saſſes, Locks, Turnpikes or pens for Water in or near the ſaid River or Paſſage, that ſhall be fit or neceſſary for the ſame, and to bring, lay and work all Materials requiſite for the making, erecting and repairing of the ſaid Locks or Turnpikes upon the ſaid River or Paſſage, and to cut ſuch and ſo many new Channels and Trenches as to them ſhall ſeem convenient for altering the courſe of the ſaid River of Avon in bringing the ſame to the City of New-Sarum as aforeſaid, as alſo for the bringing in any other River or Water-courſe into the ſaid River, and to do all other things neceſſary and convenient for the ſaid River and Paſſages, new Channels, Wharfs, Saſſes, Locks, Wears, Turnpikes, Pens for Water, and the ſaid Bridges, Wayes and Paſſages, and for the altering, repairing, keeping, uſing and amending of the ſame or any of them, or any part of it, from time to time hereafter as oft as need ſhall require, and alſo (if need require) to make a commodious Haven and Port near the ſaid Town of Chriſt-Church for the Entry, Road, ſafety and preſervation of Ships that may reſort thither, as well in peril of Storms as otherwiſe, to lade or unlade their Goods, and to alter, repair and amend the ſame, or any part of it, from time to time as oft as need ſhall require. And to the end that the making the ſaid River Navigable and paſſable for Barges, Boats, Lighters and other Veſſels, and the erecting and making the ſaid Haven, Channels, Saſſes, Locks, Wears, Turnpikes, Penns for Water, Wharfs, Bridges, Wayes and Paſſages as aforeſaid, or other things, may not be any way prejudicial to the Inheritance, Poſſeſſion or Profit of any perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate whatſoever, that have any Lands, Tenements, Wears or Hereditaments adjoyning unto the ſaid River or Streams, Brooks, new Channels and Paſſages as aforeſaid, or any of them, or through which the ſame ſhall be made or cut as aforeſaid.

Satisfaction to parties endamaged in any of their Lands.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Undertakers, before they do meddle with the Lands, Inheritance, Poſſeſſion or Profit of any perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, ſhall firſt agree with ſuch perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate, for the loſs or damage that any of them ſhall or may any way receive by the making or altering the ſaid Haven, Channels, Wharfs, Saſſes, Wears and Paſſages, or procure ſome Order therein to be made by the Commiſſioners, to be aſſigned for that purpoſe as hereafter in this preſent Act is expreſſed. And for the better effecting of the premiſſes, and the due rating of the value of the things to be compounded for, by the true intent of this Statute, if the parties ſhall not agree;

Commiſſioners for compounding with perſons ſo damnified.

Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That at the requeſt and charges of the ſaid Undertakers, One or more Commiſſion or Commiſſions under the Great Seal of England ſhall be granted to Edward Earl of Clarendon Lord Chancellor of England, Thomas Earl of Southampton Lord High Treaſurer of England, Philip Earl of Pembroke and Mountgomery, William Lord Herbert of Cardiffe, Henry Lord Viſcount of Cornbury, George Lord Biſhop of Wincheſter, and the Biſhop of Wincheſter for the time being, John Lord Biſhop of Sarum, and the Biſhop of Sarum for the time being, William Lord Sands, Robert Lord Brook, Anthony Lord Aſhly Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Edward Nicholas Knight One of His Majeſties moſt Honourable Privy-Council, Sir Robert Hide Knight Lord Chief Juſtice of the Kings Bench, Sir Wadham Windham Knight, one of the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, Sir George Grubham How Knight, Sir Joſeph Aſh Baronet, Sir John Nicholas Knight of the Bath, Sir John Low Knight, Sir Robert Maſon Knight, Sir Thomas Mompeſſon Knight, Sir John Clobery Knight, Stephen Fox Eſquire Clerk of the Green-Cloth, and one of the Citizens for the City of New-Sarum, John Joyce Mayor of the City of New-Sarum, and the Mayor of the City for the time being, Richard Coleman Eſquire Recorder of the City of New Sarum, and the Recorder of the ſame City for the time being, Francis Roll Eſquire High Sheriff of the County of Southampton, Lawrence Hyde Eſquire, Humphrey Weld Eſquire, Edward Hyde of Hatch Eſquire, Richard How Eſquire, John Holt the elder of the cloſe of the City of New-Sarum, Eſquire, George Vennerd of the City of New-Sarum Eſquire, Edward Manning Eſquire, Richard Compton Eſquire, Thomas Knowles Eſquire, Philip Lee Eſquire, Walter Bockland Eſquire, William Swanton Eſquire, Roger Gallop Eſquire, Edward Hopper of Huncourt Eſquire, William Tulſe Eſquire, John Hobby Eſquire, Henry Tulſe Eſquire, Henry Whitehead Eſquire, the Mayor of Wilton for the time

Which ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them (not being Parties concerned) ſhall have full power and authority, and are hereby impowred and authorized by examination of Witneſſes upon Oath (which Oath they, or any ſeven, or more of them, have hereby power to adminiſter) or by any other lawful wayes or means to examine, here and determine all and all manner of Controverſies, Debates and Queſtions which ſhall happen and ariſe between any perſons whatſoever, touching or concerning any matter or thing relating to the aforeſaid Premiſſes, or any part thereof; And to appoint, determine and decree what and how much ſatisfaction every ſuch perſon or perſons, Body politick or corporate, ſhall have for or in reſpect of the loſs to be by him, her or them ſuſtained, notice being firſt given of their Meeting by Papers publickly affixed to the Church-doors, or ſet up in the Market-places of the City of New-Sarum and the Towns of Chriſt-Church and Ringwood, Ten dayes at the leaſt before their Meeting, declaring the the time and place of their Meeting: And alſo notice in writing being firſt left at the Dwelling-houſe of every Party concerned, or at their uſual place of abode, or with ſome Tenant or Occupier of ſome Houſe, Land or Tenement of ſuch party within fifteen Miles of the ſaid River: Which ſaid Determination, Sentence and Decree ſet down, declared and pronounced by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, and the price and recompence by them limited, ſhall bind all parties therein concerned in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion or Remainder, or otherwiſe, and as well Infants, Feme Coverts, as others, and their Heirs in Fee-Simple or in Tail, and their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, and all claiming by, from or under him, her or them, or any of them; which Order, Sentence and Decree ſhall be ſet down in writing under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, within ſix weeks after the firſt Reſort to them for that cauſe according to this Act, the ſame to be kept among the Records of the Seſſions of the Peace for the City of New-Sarum, by the Clerk of the Peace for the time being of the ſaid City; Tranſcripts whereof ſhall be delivered to the ſeveral Clerks of the Peace of the reſpective Counties of Wilts and Southampton, to be by them kept upon Record amongſt the Records of the Seſſions of the ſaid reſpective Counties; All which ſhall be taken, adjudged and deemed good and ſufficient Evidence, and proof in any Court of Record whatſoever. And that upon payment of ſuch ſum or ſums ſo ordered or agreed upon (to the ſaid perſons concerned, or tender thereof made) at his or their Dwelling-houſe, or the houſe of his or their Tenant of ſome Tenement, Houſe or Land of theirs within fifteen miles of the ſaid River; and if they have no ſuch Dwelling-houſe, Land or Tenement, or if upon ſuch tender at their ſaid Dwelling-houſe, or the Houſe, Land or Tenement of ſuch Tenant as aforeſaid, they refuſe, or are not ready to receive the ſame; That upon payment of the ſaid ſum to the Mayor and Commonalty of the City of New-Sarum in the Council-Chamber of the ſaid City, for the uſe of ſuch perſons, It ſhall then, and not before be lawful to and for the ſaid Undertakers, and their Work-men and Servants, to dig and make, or cauſe to be digged and made the ſaid Haven, Channels, Wharfs, Saſſes, Locks and Paſſages, or do any other Act for which any ſuch Agreement or Order ſhall be made as aforeſaid.

How Commiſſioners dying or renouncing, may be ſupplyed.

And be it further enacted, That when any of the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall happen to dye, or become unfit for, or renounce the Service; That then and ſo often it ſhall be lawful to and for the ſaid Lord Chancellor or Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England for the time being, from time to time to ſupply, appoint and authorize One, or ſo many Commiſſioners of the Counties of Wilts, Southampton or Dorſet, of the Nobility, or Knights and principal Gentlemen of the ſaid Counties, dwelling or having Eſtates within fifteen miles of the ſaid River, as ſhall make and fill up the before mentioned number of Commiſſioners; which ſaid Commiſſioners ſo ſupplyed, appointed and authorized as aforeſaid; not exceeding the number before mentioned, nor being under the number of One and thirty, or any ſeven or more of them, ſhall from thenceforth have like power and authority in all things, as thoſe Commiſſioners which are expreſly named in this Act; And that the Commiſſioners, and ſuch as from time to time for the future ſhall be ſupplyed as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them have like power and authority to Survey the ſaid Haven and River, and all Wharfs, Saſſes, Locks, Wears, Turnpikes, Penns for water, and all Ditches, Sewers and Streams running into the ſaid River; and the Mills, Mill-dams, Floodgates, Walls, Banks and Bridges now made, or hereafter to be made and built upon the ſame, and all Impediments, Decays, Loſs and Annoyances in the ſame, and make like Proceſs to inquire thereof, and to ſet ſuch Fines, Penalties, and to make ſuch Orders and Decrees for altering, amending or removing the ſame, as any Commiſſioners of Sewers by any Law, Statute, or Commiſſion of Sewers are enabled to do in other Rivers and Places; Any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The powers to make orders and conſtitutions.

To impoſe penalties upon the breakers.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Undertakers authorized as aforeſaid for the making the ſaid Haven and Paſſages, from time to time ſhall have full power and authority by and with the conſent of the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, to make Orders and Conſtitutions for the good and orderly uſage of the ſaid Haven and Paſſages; and for all Wharfs, Saſſes, Locks, Wears and Turnpikes, and for all Ships and Veſſels, Barges, Lighters, Boats, Boat-men, Paſſengers, Carriages and Rates for Carriages, by or through the ſaid Haven or Paſſages, and all things concerning the ſame; and to ſet, lay and execute ſuch reaſonable pains and puniſhments upon the Breakers thereof, as to them in diſcretion ſhall ſeem meet and reaſonable: which ſaid Orders and Conſtitutions being put in Writing under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Undertakers, and being allowed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any ſeven or more of them, under their ſeveral Hands and Seals, and by the Juſtices of Aſſize of the ſaid ſeveral

Counties of Wilts and Southampton, which ſhall be at the time of the Signing, Sealing and Publiſhing of the ſaid Orders as aforeſaid, ſhall be binding to all perſons whatſoever; any Law or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding. The ſaid Orders and Conſtitutions to be kept amongſt the Records of the Seſſions of the Peace for the City of New-Sarum by the Clerk of the Peace for the time being of the ſaid City, Tranſcripts whereof ſhall be delivered to the ſeveral Clerks of the Peace of the reſpective Counties of Wilts and Southampton, to be by them kept upon Record amongſt the Records of the Seſſions of the ſaid reſpective Counties. All which ſhall be taken, adjudged and deemed good and ſufficient Evidence and proof in any Court of Record whatſoever. Neverthéleſſe the Juſtices of Aſſize for the Counties of Wilts and Southampton, upon complaint to them made by any perſons grieved with the ſaid Taxations, Aſſeſſements, Charges, Orders, Conſtitutions, Pains and Penalties, or any of them, ſhall and may abridge, moderate, alter or reform the ſame as they ſhall find juſt cauſe; ſuch Orders to be under the Hands and Seals of the ſaid Juſtices, and to be kept among the Records of the Seſſions as aforeſaid. And the reſpective Commiſſioners and Judges of Aſſize as aforeſaid, are from time to time to take ſpecial care in the manner of the laying and aſſeſſing of the ſaid Rates, and ordering and diſpoſing of the ſaid Haven, Paſſages and Wharf, that all opportunity for the Undertakers, or any other to engroſſe the Commodities of the ſaid Country, or impoſe upon the Markets, may be prevented.

Perſons grieved may appeal to the Juſtices of Aſſize.

And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Undertakers authorized as aforeſaid for the making the ſaid Haven and Paſſages reſpectively, and their ſeveral and reſpective Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, having firſt given ſatisfaction as aforeſaid, ſhall have, hold, peaceably and quietly receive, demand, take and enjoy all and every the ſaid Rates, Profits and Advantages whatſoever which ſhall or may from time to time, and at all times hereafter be made, ariſe, grow or become due or payable for the Carriages of Wood, Coals, Corn, Salt, or any other Merchandiſes, Commodities or Carriages whatſoever, by any Ship or Veſſel, Barge, Boat, Lighter, or otherwiſe, up or down the ſaid Haven, River, new Channels, or the ſaid Saſſes, Locks, Wears, Turn-pikes, Pens for water, Cranes, Wharfs, or any of them; and alſo ſhall have and receive as aforeſaid all Penalties impoſed by the ſaid Orders as aforeſaid, and in caſe of Refuſal or Denial of Payment, ſhall and may ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt in any Court of Record; in which Action, no Wager of Law, Eſſoine or Protection ſhall be allowed; or may diſtrain or make ſtoppage of the ſaid Goods or Veſſels till they ſhall be ſatisfied for the ſame; And that all Fines and Amerciaments which ſhall be impoſed as aforeſaid, for any Annoyances and Offences which ſhall be at any time hereafter committed to the hurt or prejudice of the ſaid River, or any thing thereunto appertaining, ſhall be to the only uſe, benefit and behoof of the ſaid reſpective Undertakers, their ſeveral and reſpective Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns for ever. And for that the Barges, Boats, Lighters, or other Veſſels muſt of neceſſity in ſome places, and at ſome times, be haled up by ſtrength of Men, Horſes, Winches, Engines, or other means in that behalf convenient;

The Undertakers to have the Taxes upon Carts, Carriages, &c.

Penalties, and how to recover the ſame.

Be it therefore Enacted by authority of this preſent Act, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for Watermen, Boatmen, Bargemen, and other helpers of them, in convenient places, to have and uſe Winches, Ropes, and other Engines, and with the ſame, by ſtrength of Men, Horſes or other Beaſts, or any of them, going upon the Land or Banks near the ſaid River or Paſſages in convenient manner, without the hindrance, trouble or impeachment of any perſon or perſons, to Draw or Hale up the Barges, Boats, Lighters, or other Veſſels.

Drawing and haling of Barges, &c. upon the Banks.

Provided alwayes, That neither the ſaid Undertakers, nor Commiſſioners do make, or cauſe to be made any landing Place, Wharf or Key within the City of New Sarum, or the bounds or liberties thereof, or within one mile of the ſame, from Harnam-Bridge down the ſtream towards Chriſt-Church, without the conſent of the Lord Biſhop of Sarum, the Mayor and Recorder of the ſaid City for the time being, and the three antienteſt Aldermen of the ſaid City, or three of them, firſt had and obtained.

New-Sarum.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Haven, River, Channels, Trenches, and all Wears, Wharfs, Raſſes, Locks, Turnpikes, Penns for water, and all other things whatſoever made and erected in order to making the ſaid Haven, and making Navigable the ſaid River and Channel as aforeſaid, ſhall from henceforth be in the ſole Rule, Order and Survey of the ſaid Undertakers and Commiſſioners as aforeſaid, and not under the Survey or Order of any Commiſſioners of Sewers, nor ſubject to a Commiſſion of Sewers, or any Laws or Statutes made for Sewers; any Law or Statute to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The River, Havens, &c. to be under the Survey of the Undertakers and Commiſſioners.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint or Suit be brought in any of His Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere againſt any perſon or perſons, for or concerning any matter or thing, by him, them, or any of them, done, adviſed or commanded to be done by vertue of this Act, That it ſhall and may be lawful for every ſuch perſon and perſons, and for all that act in their aid and aſſiſtance, or by their commandment to plead the General Iſſue that he or they are not Guilty: And to give this Act, or any clauſe, matter or thing therein contained in Evidence to the Jury that ſhall try the ſame, for their juſtification, without ſpecial Pleading of the ſame, and ſhall thereupon take advantage of this Act as fully to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame had been by them fully and well pleaded.

Perſons ſued for acting upon this Act, may plead the general Iſſue.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That Philip Earl of Pembroke and Montgomery ſhall and may have power, authority, and liberty (if he ſhall ſee cauſe, and find it to be neceſſary and convenient to the publick good) to enlarge and make Navigable the River of Wiley from Harnam-Bridge aforeſaid, ſo far as Wilton in the County of Wilts, and in order thereunto, to put in execution the ſeveral Powers of this Act in relation to the ſaid River of Wiley, in the ſame and as ample manner as the ſaid River of Avon may be made Navigable by this Act, and under the ſame Proviſoes, Reſtrictions and Limitations.

Wiley-River.

And whereas they or ſome of them, and divers other perſon and perſons not Ordained according to the Form of the Church of England, and as have ſince the Act of Oblivion taken upon them to Preach in unlawful Aſſemblies, Conventicles or Meetings, under colour or pretence of Exerciſe of Religion, contrary to the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom, have ſetled themſelves in divers Corporations in England, ſometimes Three or more of them in a place, thereby taking an opportunity to diſtill the poyſonous Principles of Schiſm and Rebellion into the hearts of his Majeſties Subjects, to the great danger of the Church and Kingdom:

Perſons reſtrained from Inhabiting in Corporations.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by, and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the ſaid Parſons, Vicars, Curates, Lecturers and other perſons in Holy Orders, or pretended holy Orders, or pretending to holy Orders, and all Stipendaries, and other perſons who have been poſſeſſed of any Eccleſiaſtical or Spiritual Promotion, and every of them, who have not declared their unfeigned aſſent and conſent as aforeſaid, and ſubſcribed the Declaration aforeſaid, and ſhall not take and ſubſcribe the Oath following;

The Oath.

I A. B. Do Swear, That it is not lawful upon any pretence whatſoever, to take Arms againſt the King; and that I do abhor that Traiterous Poſition of taking Arms by His Authority againſt His Perſon, or againſt thoſe that are Commiſſioned by him, in purſuance of ſuch Commiſſions; And that I will not at any time endeavour any Alteration of Government, either in Church or State.

And all ſuch perſon and perſons as ſhall take upon them to Preach in any unlawful Aſſembly, Conventicle or Meeting, under colour or pretence of any Exerciſe of Religion, contrary to the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom, ſhall not at any time from and after the Four and twentieth day of March, which ſhall be in this preſent year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and five, unleſs onely in paſſing upon the Road, come or be within Five miles of any City or Town Corporate, or Burrough that ſends Burgeſſes to the Parliament within his Majeſties Kingdom of England, Principality of Wales, or of the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, or within Five miles of any Pariſh, Town or place, wherein he or they have ſince the Act of Oblivion been Parſon, Vicar, Curate, Stipendary or Lecturer, or taken upon them to preach in any unlawful Aſſembly, Conventicle or Meeting, under colour or pretence of any Exerciſe of Religion, contrary to the Laws and Statutes of this Kingdom, before he or they have taken and ſubſcribed the Oath aforeſaid, before the Juſtices of the Peace at their Quarter-Seſſions to be holden for the County, Riding, or Diviſion next unto the ſaid Corporation, City, or Burrough, Pariſh, place or Town, in open Court, (which ſaid Oath the ſaid Juſtices are hereby Impowred there to adminiſter) upon forfeiture for every ſuch offence the ſum of Forty pounds of lawful Engliſh money; the one Third part thereof to his Majeſty and his Succeſſors; the other third part to the uſe of the poor of the Pariſh where the offence ſhall be committed; and the other third part thereof to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall or will ſue for the ſame by Action of Debt, Plaint, Bill, or Information in any Court of Record at Weſtminſter, or before any Juſtices of Aſſize, Oyer and Terminer or Gaol-Delivery, or before any Juſtices of the Counties Palatine of Cheſter, Lancaſter, or Durham, or the Juſtices of the Great Seſſions in Wales, or before any Juſtices of Peace in their Quarter-Seſſions, wherein no Eſſoign, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall not be lawful for any perſon or perſons reſtrained from coming to any City, Town corporate, Burrough, Pariſh, Town or place, as aforeſaid, or for any other perſon or perſons as ſhall not firſt take and ſubſcribe the ſaid Oath, and as ſhall not frequent Divine Service eſtabliſhed by the Laws of this Kingdom, and carry him or her ſelf reverently, decently and orderly there, to Teach any publique or private School, or take any Boarders or Tablers that are Taught or Inſtructed by him or her ſelf, or any other, upon pain for every ſuch offence to forfeit the ſum of Forty pounds, to be recovered and diſtributed as aforeſaid.

Provided alſo, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall be lawful for any two Juſtices of the peace of the reſpective County, upon oath to them of any offence againſt this Act, which Oath they are hereby Impowred to adminiſter, to commit the offendor for Six moneths without Bail or Mainpriſe, unleſs upon or before ſuch Commitment, he ſhall before the ſaid Juſtices of the peace, ſwear and ſubſcribe the aforeſaid Oath and Declaration.

Provided always, That if any perſon intended to be Reſtrained by vertue of this Act, ſhall without fraud or covin be Served with any Writ, Subpœna, Warrant, or other Proceſs whereby his perſonal appearance is required, his obedience to ſuch Writ, Subpœna or Proceſs, ſhall not be conſtrued an offence againſt this Act.

CAP. III.

For Uniting Churches in Cities and Towns Corporate.

In what Cities and Towns, and how Churches and Chappels may be united.

FOraſmuch as the ſetled Proviſion for Miniſters in moſt Cities and Towns Corporate within this Realm, is not ſufficient for the Maintenance of able Miniſters fit for ſuch places, whereby Mean and Stipendary Preachers are entertained to ſerve the Cures there; who wholly depending for their Maintenance upon the good will and liking of their Auditors, have been, and are hereby under temptation of too much complying, and ſuiting their Doctrine and Teaching to the humour rather then good of their Auditors, which hath been a great occaſion of Faction and Schiſme, and of the contempt of the Miniſtry: The Lords and Commons in Parliament Aſſembled, being deeply ſenſible of the ill conſequence thereof, and piouſly deſiring able Miniſters in ſuch places: and a competent ſetled Maintenance for them by the Union of Churches; which is alſo become neceſſary, by reaſon of the great Ruine of many Churches and Pariſhes in the late ill times, and otherwiſe; Do therefore moſt humbly beſeech Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That it may be Enacted, and be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That in every City or Town Corporate and their Liberties within the Kingdom of England, and Dominion of Wales, which have a Mayor and Aldermen, and particular Juſtices of the Peace by Charter or Commiſſion, or Bayliff or Bailiffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, and other Aſſiſtants by like Charter; and where two or more Churches or Chappels, or a Church and a Chappel, and the Pariſhes thereunto belonging do lie within the ſaid Corporation, or Liberties thereof, convenient to be united: In ſuch caſes the Biſhop of the Dioceſs where ſuch Pariſh and Pariſhes are, with the conſent of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Juſtices of the Peace, Bayliff or Bayliffs, or other Chief Officer or Officers, or the major part of them, and of the Patron or Patrons of ſuch Church or Churches, Chappel or Chappels, ſhall or may according to due form of Law unite the ſaid Churches or Chappels, or Church and Chappel, or any of them, and ſhall appoint at which Church or Chappel, Churches or Chappels the ſaid Pariſhioners and Inhabitants of the ſaid Pariſhes or places to which the ſaid Churches or Chappels, or Church and Chappel do belong, ſhall uſually meet for the worſhip of God, and which of the ſaid Churches or Chappels, or Church or Chappel ſhall be united and annexed unto the other, which ſhall be the Church Preſentative, unto which all Preſentations ſhall thereafter be only made, and unto which the Pariſhioners ſhall reſort as their proper Church. And after ſuch Order made, the ſaid Churches or Chappels, or Church and Chappel ſhall accordingly for ever ſtand united: And the Pariſhioners, Landholders, and Inhabitants of the ſaid pariſhes and Places belonging to ſuch Churches or Chappels, or Church and Chappel ſo united and annexed, ſhall as they, or any of them become void, and from thenceforward pay all ſuch Tythes and other Duties as belong, or did belong to the Incumbent of any of the ſaid Churches or Chappels, or Church and Chappel ſo united and annexed, unto the Incumbent of the ſaid Preſentative Church or Chappel, unto which the ſaid other Churches or Chappels, or Church or Chappel ſhall be ſo united and annexed.

Pariſhes ſhall remain diſtinct notwithſtanding ſuch Union of Churches.

And it is hereby alſo Enacted, That notwithſtanding any ſuch Union to be made by vertue hereof, each of the Pariſhes ſo united, ſhall continue diſtinct, as to all rates, Taxes, Parochial Rites, Charges and Duties, and all other Priviledges, Liberties and reſpects whatſoever, other then what is herein before mentioned and ſpecified; And Churchwardens ſhall be elected and appointed for each Pariſh, as they were before ſuch union made.

How and when ſuch Uniting ſhall take effect.

And how ſeveral Patrons ſhall preſent.

And it is further Enacted and Provided, That where one or more of the ſaid Churches or Chappels, or Church and Chappel ſo united and annexed ſhall be full at the time of making ſuch Union, That the ſaid Union ſhall take effect for every ſuch Church or Chappel, upon the firſt Avoidance after ſuch Union made: And that the ſeveral Patrons of the ſaid Churches and Chappels ſo United, ſhall and may preſent by turns to that Church onely which ſhall remain and be preſentative from time to time, in ſuch order as the ſaid Biſhop with the conſent of the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Juſtices of Peace, Bayliff or Bayliffs, or other chief Officer or Officers within ſuch Pariſhes, or the major part of them, and of the Patron or Patrons of ſuch Church or Churches, Chappel or Chappels, ſhall determine and decree for the preſervation of their reſpective Rights therein, reſpect being therein had to the differences of the values of the yearly Maintenance belonging to ſuch Churches or Chappels, or any of them: Saving unto the Kings Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, all the Tenths and Firſt-Fruits of all ſuch Churches and Chappels ſo to be United, according to the rates and valuations at which the ſaid Churches and Chappels are Rated and Valued in the Office of Firſt-Fruits and Tenths, in his Majeſties Court of Exchequer: And alſo reſerving all Procurations and Penſions to all perſons to whom they are now, and have been formerly, or ſhall be hereafter due and payable; Any thing herein contained notwithſtanding.

How Unions muſt be regiſtred,

Provided always, That no Union of Pariſhes or places to be made by vertue of this Act ſhall commence or be effectual in Law, untill it be Regiſtred in the Regiſter Book of the Biſhop of the Dioceſs, which the Regiſter is hereby required to do.

Pariſhes having 100 l. maintenance may not be United.

Provided always, That no Union made by vertue hereof, ſhall be good and effectual where the ſetled Maintenance belonging to the Parſons, Vicars and Incumbents of the Church or Chappel, or Churches or Chappels ſo United, ſhall exceed the ſum of One hundred pounds per annum cleer, and above all Charges and Repriſes; unleſs the reſpective Pariſhioners, or the major part of them, under their hands deſire otherwiſe.

Incumbents of ſuch United Pariſhes muſt be graduates of the Univerſity.

Provided always, And be it Enacted, That every Miniſter ſetled as aforeſaid, the Incumbent of any Church or Chappel, or Churches and Chappels united according to this Act, ſhall be the ful and lawful Incumbent thereof to all intents and purpoſes, ſo as ſuch Miniſter be a Graduate in one of the Univerſities of this Kingdom.

Owners of Impropriations may beſtow and annex maintenance to the Churches where they lie.

Without licenſe of Mortmain.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Owner or Proprietor, Owners or Proprietors of any Impropriation, Tythes, or Portion of Tythes, in any Pariſh or Chappelry within the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, is, are, and ſhall be by vertue of this Act, inabled and impowred to give or beſtow, unite and annex the ſame, or any part thereof, unto the Parſonage or Vicarage, of the ſaid Pariſh Church or Chappel where the ſame do lie, or ariſe, or ſettle the ſame in Truſt for the benefit of the ſaid Parſonage or Vicarage, or of the Curate and Curates there ſucceſſively, where the Parſonage is Impropriate, and no Vicar indowed according to his or their reſpective Eſtates, without any Licence of Mortmain; Any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Parſons and Vicars not having ſetled means of 100 l. per annum, may purchaſe and annex lands or rents.

Without licenſe in Mortmain.

And be it further Enacted, That if the ſetled Maintenance of ſuch Parſonage, Vicarages, Churches and Chappels ſo united, or of any other Parſonage or Vicarage with Cure in the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, ſhall not amount to the full ſum of One hundred pounds per annum, clear and above all charges and repriſes, That then it ſhall be lawful for the Parſon, Vicar, and Incumbent of the ſame, and his ſucceſſors, to take, receive, and purchaſe to him and his ſucceſſors Lands, Tenements, Rents, Tythes or other Hereditaments, without any Licenſe of Mortmain; Any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. IV.

14 Car. 2. cap. 33.

BE it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That an Act made in the Fourteenth year of the Reign of our Soveraign Lord the King that now is Entituled, An Act for preventing Abuſes in Printing Seditious, Treaſonable, and Unlicenſed Books and Pamphlets, and for Regulating of Printing, and Printing Preſſes, ſhall be continued with the Alterations and Additions made in and by this Act, and ſhall remain in force untill the end of the Firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

Three printed Copies of every Book in London, how to be diſpoſed.

And be it further Enacted, That from and after the Six and twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty five, Every Printer within the City of London, or in any other place, except the Two Univerſities, ſhall reſerve Three Printed Copies of the beſt and largeſt Paper of every Book new Printed, or reprinted by him with Additions; and ſhall before any publick Vending of the ſaid Book, bring them to the Maſter of the Company of Stationers, and deliver them to him; One whereof ſhall by the ſaid Maſter of the ſaid Company of Stationers, within Ten days after he hath ſo received the ſame, be delivered to the Keeper of His Majeſties Library, and the other two, within the ſaid ten days, to be ſent to the Vice-Chancellour of the two Univerſities reſpectively, for the uſe of the publick Libraries of the ſaid Univerſities.

Books printed in the Univerſities.

And it is further enacted, That the Printers in the ſaid Univerſities, and every of them reſpectively from and after the ſaid Six and twentieth day of December, ſhall deliver one ſuch Printed Copy as aforeſaid, of every Book ſo new Printed, or reprinted in the ſaid Univerſities or in either of them, to the Keeper of his Majeſties Library as aforeſaid; as alſo to the Vice Chancellour of either of the ſaid Univerſities for the time being, two other ſuch Printed Copies for the uſe of the publick Libraries of the ſaid Univerſities reſpectively. And if any of the printers aforeſaid, or the ſaid Maſter of the Company of Stationers ſhall not obſerve the direction of this Act therein, That then he and they ſo making default, in not delivering the ſaid printed Copies as aforeſaid, ſhall ſeverally forfeit beſides the value of the ſaid Printed Copies, the ſum of Five pounds for every Copy not ſo delivered; as as alſo the value of the ſaid printed Copies not ſo delivered: The ſame to be recovered by His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, and by the Chancellour, Maſters and Scholars of either of the ſaid Univerſities reſpectively, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

CAP. V.

Thomas Doleman, Joſeph Bampfield, and Thomas Scot attainted of High Treaſon, If they render not themſelves by a Day.

IN all humble manner ſhew unto Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, Your Majeſties moſt dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Lords Spiritual & Temporal, and Commons Aſſembled in Parliament, That whereas it is notoriouſly known, that Thomas Dolman, Joſeph Bampfield alias Stepner, and Thomas Scot ſon of Thomas Scot lately Executed as a moſt execrable Traitor, and one of the horid & bloudy murderers of His late Royal Majeſty King Charles the Firſt of ever bleſſed memory, contrary to the duty of their Allegiance, have moſt traiterouſly and wickedly adhered, and ſtill do adhere to Your Majeſties enemies beyond the Seas where they as yet remain and commit divers Treaſonable acts, without any ſence of loyalty to your Majeſty, or of natural affection to their native Country:

May it therefore pleaſe Your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That it may be Enacted, And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the conſent and Advice of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, That if the ſaid Thomas Dolman, Joſeph Bampfeild alias Stepner, and Thomas Scot, ſhall not return into the Realm of England, and render themſelves to ſome or one of His Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace for the County wherein he or they ſhall firſt arrive, at, or before the firſt day of February next enſuing, and alſo abide their Legal Trial for ſuch their Treaſons; Then every of them the ſaid Thomas Dolman, Joſeph Bampfeild alias Stepner, and Thomas Scot, not rendering himſelf as aforeſaid, or not abiding his Trial aforeſaid, ſhall from and after the ſaid Firſt day of February ſtand and be adjudged attainted of High Treaſon, to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever, and ſhall ſuffer and forfeit as a perſon attaint of High Treaſon by the Laws of the Land ought to ſuffer and forfeit.

Thomas Dolman, Joſeph Bampfeild, Thomas Scot.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon and perſons who now are, or hereafter ſhall be beyond the Seas, and whom His Majeſty by any of His Royal Proclamations to be iſſued under the Great Seal of England, during the continuance of this War with the States of the United Provinces, ſhall name and require to return into England, and render themſelves by a certain day therein to be mentioned to ſome or one of His Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace for the County wherein he or they ſhall firſt arrive, and ſhall not return and render themſelves accordingly, and abide their legal Trial ſhall from and after the day to them to be prefixed by ſuch Proclamation, ſtand and be attainted of High Treaſon to all intents and purpoſes, and ſhall ſuffer ſuch pains and penalties, and undergo all ſuch forfeiture as perſons attainted of High Treaſon ought to do.

Perſons beyond Sea, by Proclamation are required to return into England.

Provided, That the time to be prefixed by ſuch Proclamation for the perſons therein to be named to render themſelves, be not leſs then the time and term of three calender moneths, from and after the Date of ſuch Proclamation.

The time by ſuch Proclamation Three moneths at leaſt.

And be it further Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every His Majeſties Subjects, who from and after the Firſt day of February next enſuing, ſhall at any time during the continuance of the ſaid War, ſerve the States of the United Provinces, either by Land or Sea, as a Souldier or Seaman on this ſide the Straights; Or from and after the Firſt day of May in the year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, within the Straights; Or from and after the Firſt day of Auguſt in the ſaid year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſix, in Africa or America, or any where beyond the Straights; on this ſide the Equinoctial; Or from and after the Firſt of February, in the ſaid year One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſix, in the Eaſt-Indies, or any part beyond the Equinoctial, ſhall be and are hereby Attainted of High Treaſon, and ſhall ſuffer and forfeit to all intents and purpoſes, as perſons Attainted of High Treaſon ought to do.

Perſons ſerving the States of the United Provinces during the War.

CAP. VI.

Damage Cleere taken away.

Whereas the moneys which are taken by Prothonotaries of your Majeſties Court of Kings-Bench and Common-Pleas, and by the Clerk of your Majeſties Court of Exchequer at Weſtminſter, and the Prothonotaries of your Majeſties Court of Common-Pleas at Lancaſter, and the Prothonotaries and Clerks of other your Majeſties Courts within the Realm of England, and Dominion of Wales, in the name of Damna Clericorum, or Damage Cleere, are an unneceſſary charge and burden to all your Majeſties Subjects, who have good cauſe, and are put to Sue for Damages in Actions where Damages are recoverable.

Damna Clericorum.

For avoiding of which inconveniences for the future, and that your Majeſties Subjects may have an eaſier means for the recovery of their damages, and juſt rights, which are unjuſtly detained from them: May it pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty that it may be enacted; And the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty being willing upon all occaſions to eaſe his Subjects of all unneceſſary charges and burdens, is graciouſly pleaſed, That it be enacted, And be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That immediately from and after the Twenty ninth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy two, no Damage Cleere ſhall by any Title or Precept whatſoever, be due, payable, taken or received from any perſon or perſons in any Action whatſoever, ſued or proſecuted in any of His Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere within the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, by any Prothonotary, Clerk or Clerks, or other Officer or Officers of the ſaid Courts reſpectively: And that from and after the day and year aforeſaid, the ſaid Fee of Damna Clericorum, or Damage Cleere, ſhall wholly ceaſe, and be for ever aboliſhed in the ſaid Courts; And that if any Prothonotary, Clerk or Clerks, or other Officer in any of the ſaid Courts, ſhall take or exact any ſum or ſums of money in the name of Damna Clericorum, or Damage Cleere, or any thing in lieu thereof, after the day and year above mentioned: Or if any of the ſaid Prothonotaries, Clerk or Clerks or their Deputies, at any time before the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September in the year aforeſaid, ſhall exact or take any Damage Cleere, or ſum of money, Bond or Security in lieu thereof, from any Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Demandant or Demandants, in any Action where damages have been, or hereafter ſhall

Shall determine and not be taken after the 29 day of September 1672.

The penalty.

ſhall be recovered in any of the ſaid Courts, or ſhall refuſe or delay to Sign any Judgment, untill Damage Cleere be firſt paid by the Plaintiff or Demandant (which are not to be paid, unleſſe forth of the moneys levied from, or paid by the Defendants, as is herein after provided and mentioned) He or they ſo offending, ſhall forfeit treble the ſum ſo taken, exacted or demanded, to the party or parties grieved, to be recovered by Bill, Plaint or Information in any of the ſaid Courts, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

In what caſes only they may be taken until the 29 September, 1672.

Provided, and be it further Enacted, That untill the Nine and twentieth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and two, and no longer, the Damage Cleere ſhall be paid, anſwered, and allowed out of ſuch ſum and ſums of money onely as ſhall be actually levied, or otherwiſe paid by or from the Defendants; and onely for the proportion of the ſum and ſums of money which ſhall be ſo levied or otherwiſe paid as aforeſaid, and no more or otherwiſe.

CAP. VII.

For a more ſpeedy and effectual proceeding upon Diſtreſſes and Avowries for Rents.

FOraſmuch as the ordinary remedy for Arrearages of Rents, is by Diſtreſs upon the lands chargeable therewith; And yet nevertheleſs by reaſon of the intricate and dilatory proceedings upon Replevins, That Remedy is become ineffectual:

Plaintiff in Replevin being non-ſuit before Iſſue joyned.

How the Defendant may Avow.

The Plaintiff nonſuit after Avowry made, &c.

For remedy thereof, It is Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That whenſoever any Plaintiff in Replevin, ſhall be Non-ſuit before Iſſue joyned in any Suit of Replevin, by Plaint or Writ lawfully returned, removed, or depending in any of the Kings Courts at VVeſtminſter, That the Defendant making a Suggeſtion in nature of an Avowry or Cognizance for ſuch Rent, to aſcertain the Court of the cauſe of Diſtreſs; The Court upon his Prayer ſhall awarde a Writ to the Sheriff of the County where the Diſtreſs was taken, to enquire by the Oaths of Twelve good and lawful men of his Bayliwick, touching the Sum in Arrear at the time of ſuch Diſtreſs taken, and the value of the Goods or Cattel diſtrained; And thereupon notice of Fifteen days ſhall be given to the Plaintiff or his Attorney in Court, of the ſitting of ſuch Enquiry; and thereupon the Sheriff ſhall enquire of the truth of the matters contained in ſuch Writ, by the Oaths of Twelve good and lawful men of his County: And upon the return of ſuch Inquiſition, the Defendant ſhall have Judgement to recover againſt the Plaintiff the Arrearages of ſuch Rent, in caſe the Goods or Cattel diſtrained ſhall amount unto that value: And in caſe they ſhall not amount to that value, then ſo much as the value of the ſaid Goods and Cattel ſo diſtrained ſhall amount unto, together with his full Coſts of ſuit, and ſhall have Execution thereupon by Fieri facias, or Elegit, or otherwiſe as the Law ſhall require. And in caſe ſuch Plaintiff ſhall be nonſuit after Cogniſance or Avowry made, and Iſſue joyned, or if the Verdict ſhall be given againſt ſuch Plaintiff; then the Jurors that are Impannelled or Returned to inquire of ſuch Iſſue, ſhall at the prayer of the Defendant inquire concerning the Sum of the Arrears, and the value of the Goods or Cattel diſtrained: And thereupon the Avowant, or he that makes Cogniſance ſhall have Judgment for ſuch Arrearages, or ſo much thereof as the Goods or Cattel diſtrained amount unto, together with his full Coſts, and ſhall have Execution for the ſame by Fieri facias or Elegit, or otherwiſe, as the Law ſhall require.

Judgement upon Demurrer for the Avowant.

And be it Further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if Judgement in any of the Courts aforeſaid be given upon Demurrer for the Avowant, or him that maketh Cogniſance for any Rent, the Court ſhall at the prayer of the Defendant award a Writ to inquire of the value of ſuch Diſtreſs; and upon the return thereof Judgement ſhall be given for the Avowant, or him that makes Cogniſance as aforeſaid, for the Arrears alledged to be behind in ſuch Avowry or Cogniſance, if the Goods or Cattel ſo diſtrained ſhall amount to that value: And in caſe they ſhall not amount to that value then for ſo much as the ſaid Goods or Cattel ſo diſtrained amount unto, together with his full Coſts of Suit, and ſhall have like Execution as aforeſaid.

Provided always, And be it Enacted, That in all Caſes aforeſaid, where the value of the Cattel diſtrained as aforeſaid, ſhall not be found to be to the full value of the Arrears diſtrained for, that the party to whom ſuch Arrears were due, his Executors or Adminiſtrators may from time to time diſtrain again for the Reſidue of the ſaid Arrears. 19 Car. 2. c. 5.
This Act made to extend to VVales and Counties Palatine.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for avoiding unneceſſary Suits and Delayes.

Death of either party between the Verdict and Judgment.

FOr the avoiding of unneceſſary Suits and Delayes, Be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That in all Actions perſonal and real, or mixt, the death of either party between the Verdict and the Judgment, ſhall not hereafter be alledged for Error; ſo as ſuch Judgment be entred within two Terms after ſuch Verdict.

Judgment obtained by an Executor.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, where any Judgment after a verdict ſhall be had, by or in the name of any Executor or Adminiſtrator; In ſuch caſe an Adminiſtrator de bonis non may ſue forth a Scire facias, and take Execution upon ſuch Judgment.

The continuance of this Act.

This Act to continue for the ſpace of Five years; and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. IX.

An Act for granting One Moneths Aſſeſment to His Majeſty, to be beſtowed on His Highneſſe the Duke of York, as a grateful remembrance of ſervice againſt the Dutch Fleet; the payment thereof to commence Decemb. 26. 1667. and end. Jan. 26. following. EXP.

Anno XVIII. Caroli II. Regis.

CAP. I.

Moneys raiſed by a Poll, and otherwiſe, towards the Maintenance of the preſent War. EXP.

CAP. II.

Cattel may not be Imported from Ireland and other parts beyond the Seas; nor Fiſh taken by Foreigners.

15 Car. 2. cap. 7. Stat. 3.

Importation of Cattel a common Nuſance.

The penalty.

Whereas by an Act of this preſent Parliament, entituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Trade, amongſt other things, ſome proviſion was made for the preventing of coming in of vaſt Numbers of Cattel, whereby the Rents and Values of the Land of this Kingdome were much fallen, and like daily to fall more, to the great prejudice, detriment and impoveriſhment of this Kingdom; which nevertheleſs hath by experience been found to be ineffectual; and the continuance of any Importation, either of the Lean or Fat Cattel, dead or alive, herein after ſpecified, not onely unneceſſary, but very deſtructive to the welfare of this Kingdome: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That ſuch Importation from and after the ſecond day of February, in this preſent year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, is a publick and common Nuſance, and ſhall be ſo adjudged, deemed and taken to be to all intents and purpoſes whatſoever. And that if any great Cattel, Sheep or Swine, or any Beef, Pork or Bacon (except for the neceſſary proviſion of the reſpective Ships or Veſſels in which the ſame ſhall be brought, not expoſing the ſame, or any part thereof to Sale) ſhall from and after the ſaid ſecond day of February, by any wiſe whatſoever, be Imported or brought from beyond Seas into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of VVales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed; That then it ſhall and may be lawful for any Conſtable, Tything-man, Headborough, Church-wardens or Overſeers of the poor, or any of them, within their reſpective Liberties, pariſhes or places, to take and ſeize the ſame, and keep the ſame during the ſpace of Eight and forty hours, in ſome publick or convenient place where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made; within which time, if the Owner or Owners, or any for them or him, ſhall make it appear unto ſome Juſtice of the peace of the ſame County, where the ſame ſhall be ſo ſeized, by the Oath of two credible Witneſſes; which Oath the ſaid Juſtice of peace is hereby impowred and required to adminiſter, That the ſame were not Imported from Ireland, or from any other place beyond the Seas, not herein after excepted, after the ſaid ſecond day of February, Then the ſame upon the Warrant of ſuch Juſtice of peace, ſhall be delivered without delay: But in default of ſuch proof and Warrant, then the ſame to be forfeited: One half thereof to be diſpoſed to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the ſame ſhall be ſo found or ſeized: the other half to be to his or their own uſe that ſhall ſo ſeize the ſame.

Encouragement of Fiſhery.

And for the better encouragement of the Fiſhery of this Kingdom, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Ling, Herring, Cod or Pilchard, freſh or ſalted, dryed or bloated, or any Salmons, Eels or Congers taken by any Foreigners, Aliens to this Kingdom, ſhall be imported, uttered, ſold, or expoſed to ſale in this Kingdom: That then it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon or perſons to take and ſeize the ſame: The one half thereof to be diſpoſed of to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where the ſame ſhall be ſo found or ſeized; the other half to his or their own uſe, which ſhall ſo ſeize the ſame.

Iſle of Man.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to hinder the Importation of Cattel from the Iſle of Man in this Kingdom of England, ſo as the number of the ſaid Cattel do not exceed Six hundred Head yearly: And that they be not of any other Breed then of the Breed of the Iſle of Man; And that they be landed at the Port of Cheſter, or ſome of the Members thereof, and not elſewhere.

This Act to continue until the end of Seven years, and from thence to the end of the Firſt Seſſion of the next Parliament.

CAP. III.

A former Act for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England, Continued.

14 Car. 2. cap. 22.

VVhereas an Act was made in the Fourteenth year of the Reign of our Soveraign Lord the King that now is, entituled, An Act for preventing of Theft and Rapine upon the Northern Borders of England; which Act is very near expiring, and hath been found very neceſſary for the preſervation of thoſe places from that great number of Lewd, Diſorderly, and Lawleſs perſons, that uſually frequented thereabouts: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the ſaid Act, and every Clauſe and Clauſes therein contained, and all and every the Powers and Authorities thereby given, be, continue, and remain in force untill the end of Seven years from the expiration or determination of the fore-mentioned Act.

Clergy taken away from notorious Thieves in Northumberland, Cumberland.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the benefit of Clergy ſhall be taken away from great, known and notorious Thieves and Spoil-takers in the ſaid Counties of Northumberland, Cumberland, or either of them, during the continuance of this preſent Act, who ſhall be duly convicted for Theft done or committed within the ſaid Counties, or either of them: Or otherwiſe, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Juſtices of the Aſſize, and Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, or Gaol-delivery, before whom ſuch Offendors ſhall be convicted within the ſaid Counties, or either of them, to Tranſport, or cauſe to be Tranſported the ſaid Offendors, and every of them, into any of his Majeſties Dominions in America, there to remain, and not to return; Any former Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

CAP. IV.

For Burying in Woollen onely.

Woollen Manufactures encouraged.

None ſhall be buried but in Woollen.

Penalty.

For the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactures of this Kingdom, and prevention of the Exportation of the Moneys thereof, for the Buying and Importing of Linnen; Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority thereof, That from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſeven, No perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall be buried in any Shirt, Shift or Sheet made of, or mingled with Flax, Hemp, Silk, Hair, Gold or Silver, or other then what ſhall be made of Wooll onely, or be put into any Coffin lined or faced with any thing made of, or mingled with Flax, Hemp, Silk or Hair; upon pain of the forfeiture of the ſum of Five pounds, to be imployed to the uſe of the poor of the Pariſh where ſuch perſon ſhall be buried, for and towards the providing a Stock or Work-houſe for the ſetting them at Work, to be levied by the Church-wardens and Overſeers of the poor of ſuch Pariſh, or one of them, by Warrant from any Juſtice of the Peace, or Mayor, Alderman, or Head-Officer of ſuch City, Town or place Corporate, reſpectively within their ſeveral Limits, by Diſtreſs and Sale of the Goods of the party Interred contrary to this Act, rendring the overplus; or in default thereof, by diſtreſs and ſale of the Goods of any that had a hand in the putting ſuch perſon into ſuch Shift, Shirt, Sheet or Coffin, contrary to this Act, or did order or diſpoſe the doing thereof, to be levied and imployed as abovesaid.

Proviſo for perſons dying of the Plague.

Provided, That no penalty appointed by this Act, ſhall be incurred for, or by the reaſon of any perſon that ſhall die of the Plague, though ſuch perſon be buried in Linnen.

CAP. V.

For Encouraging of Coynage.

Encouragement for bringing Gold and Silver into the Realm.

Whereas it is obvious, That the plenty of Current Coyns of Gold and Silver of this Kingdom, is of great advantage to Trade and Commerce: For the encreaſe whereof, your Majeſty in your Princely Wiſdom and Care, hath been graciouſly pleaſed to bear out of your Revenue, half the charge of the Coynage of Silver-money: For the preventing of which Charge to your Majeſty, and the Encouragement of the bringing of Gold and Silver into the Realm, to be converted into the Current Money of this your Majeſties Kingdom, We your Majeſties Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do Give and Grant unto your Majeſty, the Rates, Duties or Impoſitions following; And do beſeech your Majeſty that it may be Enacted, And be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That whatſoever perſon or perſons, Native or Foreigner, Alien or Stranger, ſhall from and after the Twentieth day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, bring any Foreign Coyn, Plate or Bullion of Gold or Silver, in Maſs, Molten, or Allayed, or any ſort of Manufacture of Gold or Silver into his Majeſties Mint or Mints within the Kingdom of England, to be there Melted down and Coyned into the current Coyns of this Kingdom, ſhall have the ſame there Aſſayed, Melted down and Coyned with all convenient ſpeed, without any defalcation, diminution or charge for the Aſſaying, Coynage or Waſt in Coynage: So as that for every pound Troy of Crown or Standard-Gold that ſhall be brought in and delivered by him or them to be Aſſayed, Melted down, & Coyned as aforeſaid, there ſhall be delivered out to him or them reſpectively, a pound Troy of the current Coyns of this Kingdom, of Crown or Standard-Gold: And for every pound Troy of Sterling, or Standard-Silver that ſhall be brought in and delivered by him or them to be Aſſayed, Melted down and Coyned as aforeſaid, there ſhall be delivered out to him or them reſpectively a pound Troy of the current Coyns of this Kingdom, of Sterling, or Standard-Silver, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer weight; And for every pound Troy of Gold or Silver that ſhall be brought in, and delivered to be Aſſayed, Melted down, and coyned as aforeſaid, that ſhall be finer upon Aſſay then Crown-Gold, or Standard-Silver, there ſhall be delivered for the ſame ſo much more then a pound Troy, as the ſame doth in proportion amount unto in fineneſs and value: And for every pound Troy of Gold or Silver that ſhall be brought in, and delivered to be Aſſayed, Melted down, and Coyned as aforeſaid, that ſhall be courſer or baſer upon Aſſay, or worſe in value then Crown-Gold, or Standard Silver, there ſhall be delivered for the ſame ſo much leſs then a pound Troy, as the ſame doth fall ſhort in fineneſs or value, and ſo for a greater or leſſer quantity.

Silver or Gold brought in to be Coyned.

There ſhall be no under preference but money Coyned ſhall be delivered out in order.

And it is hereby further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be no preference in point of Aſſaying or Coynage; but that all Gold and Silver brought in, and delivered into the Mint, to be Aſſayed and Coyned, ſhall be Aſſayed, Coyned, and delivered out to the reſpective Importers according to the order and times of bringing in and delivering the ſame into the Mint or Mints, and not otherwiſe: So as he that ſhall firſt bring in, and deliver any Gold or Silver to be Coyned, ſhall be taken and accounted the firſt perſon to have the ſame aſſayed, coyned and delivered; And he or they that ſhall bring in and deliver any Gold or Silver next, to be accounted the ſecond perſon to have the ſame Aſſayed, Coyned, and Delivered; and ſo ſucceſſively in courſe. And that the Gold and Silver brought in and Coyned as aforeſaid, ſhall be in the ſame order delivered to the reſpective bringers in thereof, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns ſucceſſively without preference of one before the other, and not otherwiſe: And if any undue preference be made in entring of any Gold or Silver, or delivering out of any money coyned, contrary to the true intent and meaning of this Act, by any Officer or Officers of the Mint or Mints; then the party or parties offending, ſhall be liable by Action of debt, or on the Caſe, to pay the value of the Gold or Silver brought in, and not entred and delivered according to the true intent, and meaning and direction of this Act as aforeſaid, with damages and coſts to the party or parties grieved, and ſhall be fore-judged from his or their Place or Office: And if ſuch preference be unduly made by any of his or their Deputy or Deputies, Clerk or Clerks, without direction or privity of his or their Maſter or Maſters, then ſuch Deputy or Deputies, Clerk or Clerks onely ſhall be liable to ſuch Action, Damage and Coſts as aforeſaid, and be for ever after uncapable of ſerving or bearing Office in any Mint in the Kingdome of England.

Penalty.

What ſhall not be an undue preference.

Provided always, That it ſhall not be interpreted any undue preference to incur any penalty in point of delivery of moneys coyned, if the Officer or Officers, or their Deputies or Clerks ſhall deliver out or pay any moneys coyned, to any perſon or perſons that do come and demand the ſame upon ſubſequent Entries, before others that did not come to demand their moneys in their order and courſe, ſo as there be ſo much money reſerved as will ſatiſfie them, which ſhall not be otherwiſe diſpoſed of, but kept for them.

And for the more orderly and clear performance thereof, Be it enacted, And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Maſter-worker of his Majeſties Mint or Mints for the time being, ſhall at the time of the delivery and entry of any Gold or Silver in the ſaid Mint or Mints, give unto the bringer or bringers in thereof to be coyned, a Bill under his hand, denoting the Weight, Fineneſs and value thereof, together with the day and order of its delivery into the ſaid Mint or Mints.

There ſhall be no ſeizure, or forfeiture, &c. of any Gold or Silver brought in to be coyned.

And for the further encouragement and aſſurance of ſuch as ſhall bring any Gold or Silver into his Majeſties ſaid Mint or Mints to be coyned; Be it enacted, And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Confiſcation, Forfeiture, Seizure, Attachment, Stop or Reſtraint whatſoever ſhall be made in the ſaid Mint or Mints, of any Gold or Silver brought in to be coyned, for or by reaſon of any Imbargo, breach of the Peace, Letters of Mart or Repriſal, or War with any Foreign Nation, or upon any other accompt or pretence whatſoever; But that all Gold and Silver brought into any of his Majeſties Mint or Mints within the Kingdom of England to be coyned, ſhall truly, and with all convenient ſpeed be coyned and delivered out to the reſpective bringer or bringers in thereof, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, according to the Rules and Directions of this Act.

An Impoſition ſet upon Wines, Vinegar, Sider, or Beer Imported.

Brandy-wine, Strong-Water.

And whereas it cannot be reaſonably expected, that the Expence, Waſte and Charge in Aſſaying, Melting down and Coynage be born by your Majeſty, And for the further encouragement of Coynage, Be it Enacted, And it is hereby Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for every Tun of Wines, Vinegar, Sider or Beer that ſhall be Imported or brought into the Port of London, or into any other Port, Creek or place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, from any parts beyond the Seas, or Scotland, from and after the Twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, there ſhall be Levied, Collected and paid the ſum of Ten ſhillings; And for every Tun of Brandy-Wines, or Strong-Waters that ſhall be imported as abovesaid, the ſum of Twenty ſhillings, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity, to be levied, collected and paid at the reſpective Cuſtom-Houſes to the Collectors and other Officers of the Cuſtoms for the time being, at the Importation of the ſaid Commodities, over and above all other Duties charged, leviable and payable upon the ſaid Commodities, and to be by them diſtinguiſhed and kept apart from all other moneys by them collected and levied upon the ſame Commodities, or upon any other Commodities or Merchandizes whatſoever, and to be by the ſaid Collector or Collectors reſpectively ſo anſwered and paid Quarterly into the Receipt of the Exchequer of your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, there alſo to be kept diſtinct and apart from all other moneys ariſing by the Cuſtoms, or by any other way or Revenue whatſoever; which ſaid Duty they are hereby enjoyned to receive and pay according to the ſeveral Directions of this Act, without any Salary or Fee.

And be it further Enacted and Declared by the authority aforeſaid, That all manner of Wines, Vinegar, Sider, Beer, Brandy-wines, and Strong-Waters Imported as aforeſaid, ſhall pay their ſeveral and reſpective Duties impoſed by this Act; And upon non-payment thereof, ſhall be liable to ſuch, and the ſame pains, penalties and forfeitures, as in and by the late Acts for Tunnage and Poundage, and for Frauds are enacted and appointed, upon non-payment of the Duties by the ſaid Acts impoſed upon Goods and Merchandiſes of the ſame nature with thoſe mentioned in this Act.

Provided always, and it is hereby enacted, That for what of the aforeſaid Commodities ſhall be Tranſported into any parts beyond the Seas, within the term and ſpace of one year after the Importation thereof, That the Duty paid by this Act for the ſame, ſhall be repaid by the reſpective Collectors of the Cuſtoms for the time being.

Moneys leviable upon this Act ſhall be imployed onely to the uſe of the Mint.

And it is hereby further enacted, That no moneys leviable and payable by this Act, ſhall be applied or converted to any uſe or uſes whatſoever, other then to the defraying the charge or expence of the Mint or Mints, and of the Aſſaying, Melting down, Waſte and Coynage of Gold and Silver, and the encouragement of the bringing in of Gold and Silver into the ſaid Mint or Mints, there to be Coyned into the current Coyns of this Kingdom; Nor ſhall any of the ſaid Moneys be iſſued out of the Exchequer, but by Order or Warrant of the Lord Treaſurer and Under-Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, to the Maſter and Worker, or Maſters and Workers of your Majeſties Mint or Mints for the time being, and mentioning, That they are for the uſe and ſervice aforeſaid, to be kept in his Majeſties Office of Receipt in the ſaid Mint or Mints, under the uſual Keys of the Warden, Maſter and Worker, and Comptroller for the time being, and iſſued out thence from time to time, according to the manner and courſe of the ſaid Mint or Mints reſpectively.

And it is hereby further enacted, That there ſhall not be iſſued out of the Exchequer of the ſaid moneys, in any one year, for the Fees and Salaries of the Officers of the Mint or Mints, and towards the providing, maintaining and repairing of the Houſes, Offices and Buildings, and other neceſſaries for Aſſaying, Melting down, and Coyning, above the ſum of Three thouſand pounds Sterling; And the overplus of the ſaid moneys ſo kept, or to be kept as aforeſaid, ſhall be imployed for and towards the expence, waſte and charge of aſſaying, melting down and coynage, and buying of Gold and Silver to Coyn, and not otherwiſe.

The continuance of this Act.

And laſtly, Be it enacted, And it is hereby enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force until the Twentieth day of December, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy one, and untill the end of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next following, and no longer.

Proviſo.

Dame Barbara Villiers.

Provided always, and be it further enacted, That where his Majeſty in and by his Letters Patents under his Great Seal, dated at Weſtminſter the Twentieth day of Auguſt, in the Twelfth year of his Reign, did for divers good cauſes and conſiderations Him moving, give and grant to Dame Barbara Villiers Widow, the ſum of Two pence by tale out of every pound weight Troy of Silver moneys which from thenceforth ſhould be Coyned by vertue of any Warrant or Indenture made and to be made by his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, To have, hold, receive, perceive and take the ſame unto the ſaid Dame Barbara Villiers, her Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, from the Ninth day of the then inſtant Auguſt weekly, as the ſaid moneys ſhould be Coyned, for and during the term of One and twenty years, as by the ſame doth appear: That his Majeſty may out of the moneys leviable by this Act, appoint and cauſe reaſonable ſatisfaction to be made yearly to the ſaid Dame Barbara Villiers, her Executors and Adminiſtrators, for her Intereſt in the Premiſſes, not exceeding the ſum of Six hundred pounds in any one year.

Anno Regni CAROLI II. Regis Angliæ, Scotiæ, Franciæ, & Hiberniæ, Decimo Nono.

AT the Parliament begun at Weſtminſter the Eighth day of May, Anno Dom. 1661. In the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our moſt Gracious Soveraign Lord CHARLES, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland King, Defender of the Faith, &c. And there continued by ſeverall Prorogations, to the Eighteenth day of September, 1666. And then continued to the Eighth of February following. And thence Prorogued to the Tenth of October, 1667. were Enacted as followeth.

CAP. I.

18 Car. 2. cap. 1.

An Act Explanatory of the Act for Raiſing Moneys by a Poll, and otherwiſe, towards the Maintenance of this preſent War, charging all perſons of what degree, condition, age or ſex ſoever, except ſuch as receive Alms from the Pariſh, and pay nothing to the Church or Poor by reaſon of their Poverty, to pay Twelve pence, &c. EXP.

CAP. II.

A Judicature erected for Determination of Differences touching Houſes Burned or Demoliſhed by reaſon of the late Fire which happened in London.

WHereas the greateſt part of the Houſes in the City of London, and ſome in the Suburbs thereof, have been burnt by the dreadful and diſmal Fire which happened in September laſt; Many of the Tenants, Under-tenants, or late Occupiers whereof are liable unto Suits and Actions to compel them to repair and rebuild the ſame, and to pay their Rents, as if the ſame had not been burned, and are not relieveable therein in any ordinary courſe of Law, and great Differences are like to ariſe concerning the ſaid Repairs and new Building of the ſaid Houſes, and payments of Rents; which if they ſhould not be determined with all ſpeed, and with out charge, would much obſtruct the rebuilding of the ſaid City.

And for that it is juſt, that every one concerned ſhould bear a proportionable ſhare of the loſs, according to their ſeveral Intereſts, wherein in reſpect of the multitude of caſes, varying in their circumſtances, no certain general rule can be preſcribed; Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Juſtices of the Courts of Kings Bench and Common Pleas, and the Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the time being, or any three or

Juſtices appointed to hear and determine differences between Landlords and Tenants, &c.

or more of them, ſitting, at the ſame time and place, and not otherwiſe, ſhall, and are hereby Authorized from time to time to hear and to determine all Differences and demands whatſoever, which have ariſen, or may any wiſe ariſe between Landlords, Proprietors, Tenants, Leſſees, under tenants, or late occupiers of any the ſaid Houſes or Buildings, with their appurtenances, or the Courts or yards, grounds and wharfs, or any perſon or perſons having or claiming any eſtate, right, title, intereſt in Law or equity or truſt, charge, or incumbrance of or in the ſame, or their or any of their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors or Aſſigns, or any other perſons, for, touching or concerning the repairing, building or re-building of the ſaid Houſes or Buildings, yards, Courts, grounds and wharfs, or any other grounds, lying within that part of the City and Suburbs thereof lately burnt, pulled down or otherwiſe demoliſhed, defaced, or otherwiſe ruined by reaſon of the ſaid Fire; or for or concerning the payment, defalcation, apportioning, or abatement of any Rent or Rents, other then Arrears of rent only due before the Firſt day of September, one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix; or for, or touching any Covenant, Condition or penalty relating thereunto; or for, touching or concerning the prefixing or limiting of any time for ſuch Repairs or new Building, or any Rate or Contribution to ve born or paid thereunto by any perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate intereſſed in the premiſſes, and all incidents relating thereunto. And that they, or any three or more of them, from time to time, and at ſuch place or places as they or any three or more of them ſhall think fit from time, with, or without any Adjournment, ſummarily, and ſine forma & figura Judicii, and without the formalities or proceedings in Courts of Law or Equity, ſhall and may, upon the Verdict or Inquiſition of Jurors, teſtimony of witneſſes upon Oath, Examination of parties intereſſed, or by all or any of the ſaid ways, or otherwiſe, according to their Diſcretions, proceed to the hearing and determining of the Demands or Differences between the ſaid parties concerning the premiſſes; and that the definitive Order of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three, or more of them as aforeſaid, ſhall ve final as between the ſaid parties, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors, and Aſſigns, and all claiming by, from or under them, as touching the matters contained in ſuch Orders; from which there ſhall be no Appeal or Review, otherwiſe then as is hereafter mentioned; Nor ſhall any Writ of Error or Certiorari lye for the removal and reverſal of the ſame.

The Powers of the ſaid Juſtices.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them as aforeſaid, ſhall have authority, and are hereby impowred, where they ſhall think it convenient, to Order the Surrendring, Increaſing, Abridging, Ceaſing, Determining or Charging of any eſtates in the premiſſes; or to order new or longer Leaſes, or Eſtates not exceediug Forty years, to be made of any of the premiſſes, by the proprietors or Owners thereof, or other perſons intereſſed therein, to any Tenant or Sub-Tenant, or late Occupiers of the ſame, their Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors or Aſſigns, at ſuch Rents and Fines, or without any Rent or Fine, as they ſhall think fit, unleſs in ſuch Caſes where the Laws of this Realm do Forbid the Diminiſhing of ancient and accuſtomable Rent. All which Orders according to the Tenors thereof, ſhall be obeyed by all perſons concerned therein reſpectively, and ſhall conclude and bind them, their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns reſpectively, notwithſtanding any diſability in reſpect of Coverture, Infancy, Non-ſanity of Memory, Eſtate Tail, or in Right of the Church, or otherwiſe: And that Infants, Femes Covert, Ideots, perſons of Non ſane Memory, or beyond the Seas, Tenants in tail, Biſhops, Deans & Chapters, and other Eccleſiaſtical perſons, and their Succeſſors, Corporations, and all other perſon or perſons, Bodies Natural and Politick, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and their reſpective Intereſts, ſhall be bound and concluded by ſuch reſpective Order or Orders, according to the Tenor or Purport thereof; Any Law, Statute or Cuſtom, or other matter or thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

How to proceed upon Complaints.

And for the better Enabling the ſaid Juſtices and Barons to proceed with effect in the ſaid Cauſes, Be it alſo Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices and Barons or any three or more of them as aforeſaid, upon the complaint or requeſt of any perſon or perſons concerned in any of the ſaid Houſes or Buildings, and other the premiſſes, ſhall iſſue out Notes or Warrants under their hands or the hands of any ſuch three of them, thereby warning the perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate therein named and concerned in the ſaid late Houſes or Buildings, and other the premiſſes in ſuch Complaint mentioned, to appear before them at ſuch time and place as in ſuch Note or Notes ſhall in that behalf be ſpecified: And upon appearance of the ſaid perſon or perſons ſummoned, or upon default of appearance, and Oath made of due notice given to him or them, (which Oath, and all other Oaths neceſſary to the Execution of the Powers given by this Act, the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three of them are hereby enabled to adminiſter) the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three of them, may proceed to make ſuch final and definitive Orders as aforeſaid; And that ſuch ſervice of the ſaid Note or Notes as is uſually allowed to be a good ſervice in caſes of Subpœna, ſhall be accounted to be a good ſervice in the caſes aforeſaid.

The ſaid Judicature ſhall be a Court of Record.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three of them, for the matters and according to the powers herein before mentioned, ſhall be, and ſhall be taken to be a Court of Record: And that the Judgments and Determinations that ſhall be made betwixt party and party, by Authority of this Act, ſhall be Recorded in a Book or Books of Parchment to be provided for that purpoſe; And that every ſuch Judgements and Determination ſhall be Signed by three or more of the ſaid Juſtices or Barons. Which ſaid Book or Books of Record ſhall be placed and intruſted in the cuſtody of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the time being, to be kept with the Records of the ſaid City and to remain as a perpetual ſtanding Record; unto which all perſons concerned, or which ſhall be concerned, ſhall or may repair to view the ſame, and thereout to take Copies of all ſuch Judgments and Determinations as ſhall relate to him, her and them; And that none of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons ſhall take any fee or reward whatſoever, directly and indirectly for any thing to be done by them, by vertue or colour of this preſent Act.

Officers. Table of Fees.

And be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for a reward of the Officers to be imployed herein, the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them as aforeſaid, are hereby enabled to order and direct a Table of ſuch reaſonable Fees to be made, as may carry on and effect the purport and intent of this Act. This Act to continue till the laſt day of December, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight, and no longer.

The continuance of this Act

Proviſo touching the renewing and reverſing Orders or Decrees.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any ſuch Order or Decree as aforeſaid, ſhall be made by a leſſer number of Juſtices and Barons then Seven, it ſhall be lawful for any perſon agrieved by ſuch Order or Decree, to preſent his Exceptions to the ſame in writing, within ſeven days next after ſuch Order or Decree made, to the Chief Juſtices and Chief Baron for the time being, or any two of them, who ſhall forthwith communicate the ſame to the reſt of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, who are hereby required to hear the Parties, and examine and conſider the ſaid Exceptions: And if any ſeven or more of them ſhall ſubſcribe thereunto, that they find probable cauſe of complaint, That it ſhall and may be lawful to, and for any Seven or more of the ſaid Juſtices & Barons within Twenty days next following ſuch Exceptions delivered, to review the ſaid former Order or Decree; And thereupon to reverſe, Confirm, Enlarge, Diminiſh, or otherwiſe alter any ſuch Order or Decree, as in their wiſdoms they ſhall think fit; Any thing herein contained notwithſtanding.

CAP. III.

For Rebuilding the City of London,

Foraſmuch as the City of London, being the Imperial Seat of His Majeſties Kingdoms and renowned for Trade and Commerce throughout the World: by reaſon of a moſt dreadful Fire lately happening therein, was for the moſt part thereof burnt down and deſtroyed within the compaſs of a few days, and now Lies buried in its own Ruines: For the ſpeedy Reſtauration whereof, and for the better Regulation, Uniformity, and Gracefulneſs of ſuch new Buildings as ſhall be erected for Habitations in order thereunto; And to the end that great and outragious Fires (through the bleſſing of Almighty God, ſo far forth as humane Providence (with ſubmiſſion to Divine pleaſure) can foreſee, may be reaſonably prevented or obviated for the time to come, both by the matter and form of ſuch Building: And further, to the intent that all Incouragement and Expedition may be given unto, and all impediments and obſtructions that may retard or protract the undertaking or carrying on a work ſo neceſſary, and of ſo great Honour and Importance to his Majeſty and this Kingdom and to the reſt of his Majeſties Kingdoms and Dominions, may be removed;

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lord Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, aud by the Authority of the ſame, That the Rules and Directions hereafter in this Act preſcribed, be duely obſerved by all perſons therein concerned.

Rules and Directions to be obſerved in building.

And firſt, That no building or Houſe for Habitation whatſoever, be hereafter erected within the limits of the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, but ſuch as ſhall be purſuant to ſuch Rules and Orders of Building, and with ſuch materials as are herein after particularly appointed, and according to ſuch Scantlings as are ſet down and preſcribed in a Table in this preſent Act hereafter ſpecified. And if any perſon or perſons ſhall preſume to Build contrary thereunto, and be convicted of the ſame by the Oaths of two or more credible witneſſes, to be taken before the Lord Mayor for the time being, or any two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid City, who are hereby impowred to adminiſter the ſame Oaths, that then and in ſuch caſe, the ſaid Houſe ſo irregularly built as aforeſaid, ſhall be deemed as a common Nuſance; and the Builder and Levier thereof ſhall enter into a Recognizance in ſuch ſum as the ſaid Mayor and Juſtices reſpectively in their diſcretions ſhall appoint, for abatement and demoliſhing the ſame in convenient time, or otherwiſe to amend the ſame according to ſuch Rules and orders as aforeſaid; and in default of entring into ſuch Recognizance, the offender ſhall be committed to the common Goal of the ſaid City there to remain without Bail or Mainpriſe, till he ſhall have abated or demoliſhed, or otherwiſe amended the ſame; or elſe ſuch irregular Houſe ſhall or may be demoliſhed or abated by Order of the Court of Aldermen.

Penalty.

Prevention of irregular Buildings.

And that the ſaid irregular Buildings may be the better prevented, ~~or~~ more effectually diſcovered, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ſaid City, ſhall and may at their will and pleaſure, elect, nominate and appoint one or more diſcreet, and intelligent perſon or perſons in the Art of Building, to be the Surveyors or Superviſors to ſee the ſaid Rules and Scantlings well and truly obſerved. And that it ſhall be lawful for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council or for the Mayor and Aldermen in their Court of Aldermen, to adminiſter to all the ſaid Surveyors or Superviſors, an Oath upon the holy Evangeliſts, for the true and impartial execution of their Office in that behalf, and to appoint the ſeveral Precincts which ſhall lie under their ſeverals Surveys.

There ſhall be four ſorts of Buildings only.

And to the end that all Builders may the better know how to provide and fit their materials for their ſeveral Buildings: Be it Enacted, That there ſhall be onely Four ſorts of Buildings and no more; and that all manner of Houſes ſo to be erected, ſhall be of one of thoſe four ſorts of Buildings, and no other, (that is to ſay) The Firſt and leaſt ſort of Houſes fronting By-Lanes; the Second ſort of Houſes fronting Streets and Lanes of note; the Third ſort of Houſes fronting high and principal Streets; the Fourth and largeſt ſort of Manſion-houſes, for Citizens, or other perſons of extraordinary quality, not fronting either of the three former ways: And the Roofs of each of the firſt three ſorts of Houſes reſpectively ſhall be Uniform.

Powers of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council to declare Streets, Lanes, &c.

And for avoiding any uncertainty to the Builders or others herein; Be it further Enacted, That the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the ſaid City for the time being, ſhall on or before the firſt day of April next enſuing, declare which, and how many ſhall hereafter be accounted and taken to be By-lanes; which, and how many ſhall hereafter be deemed Streets, or Lanes of note, and high and principal Streets, by Act of Common Council to be paſſed for that purpoſe: which Declaration being made as aforeſaid, all and ſingular the ſaid Streets and Lanes (hereby intended to be rebuilt ſhall by order of the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council, or ſuch perſons as they under the Common Seal of the City ſhall order and appoint, be Marked or Staked out, and diſtinguiſhed to the end the Breadth, Length and Extent thereof may be the better known and obſerved: And if any perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall wittingly, without good Authority, pluck up, or remove any of the ſaid Stakes, or Mark-ſtones, thereby to obſcure or confound the bounds of ſuch Streets, or Lanes, or any of them, and ſhall be thereof legally convicted by the Oath of one Witneſs (other then of the Informer) to be taken before any one or more Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid City, That then the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall or may ſend ſuch Offender to the Common-Gaol of the ſaid City, there to remain by the ſpace of three moneths without Bail or Mainpriſe, unleſs he ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid to the uſe of the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City, the ſum of Ten pounds, to be imployed in and towards the repairing of the publick Buildings of the ſaid City. Provided always, That where any ſuch Offence ſhall be committed by any perſon or perſons of low and mean condition, whom the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace ſhall in his conſcience believe to be unable to ſatisfie the ſaid Penalties, That then and in ſuch caſe, the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace ſhall and may, by Order and Warrant under his or their Hands and Seal cauſe ſuch Offender to be openly whipped near unto the place where the Offence ſhall be committed, till his body be bloudy: And that it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace to reward the ſaid Informer out of the Pecuniary Penalty to be incurred, according to his diſcretion, not exceeding a Third part of the ſaid Penalty.

Building with Brick, Stone, &c.

And in regard the building with Brick is not onely more comely and durable, but alſo more ſafe againſt future perils of Fire; Be it further Enacted by and with the Authority aforeſaid, That all the outſides of all Buildings in and about the ſaid City be henceforth made of Brick or Stone, or of Brick and Stone together except Door-caſes and Window-frames, the Breſt, Summers and other parts of the firſt Story to the Front, between the Peers, which are to be left to the diſcretion of the Builder, to uſe ſubſtantial Oaken Timber in ſtead of Brick or Stone, for conveniency of Shops; And that the ſaid Doors, Breſt, Summers, and Window-frames be ſufficiently diſcharged of the burthen of the Fabrick by Arch-work of Brick or Stone, either ſtraight or circular.

The duty of the Surveyors and Supervisors.

And be it Enacted, That the ſaid Surveyors, or Supervisors ſo to be appointed as aforeſaid, and every of them, within their ſeveral Precincts, ſhall take care, That in building of all Houſes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, there be, And it is hereby Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be Party-walls, and Party-peers ſet out equally on each Builders ground, to be built up by the firſt beginner of ſuch Building; And that convenient Toothing be left in the front-wall by the ſaid firſt builder, for the better joyning of the next Houſe that ſhall be built to the ſame: And that no man be permitted by the ſaid Surveyors, to build on the ſaid Party-wall, or on his own contiguous ground, until he hath fully reimburſed the ſaid firſt Builder the full moyety of the charges of the ſaid Party-wall and Peers, together with Intereſt for the ſame, after the rate of Six pounds per Cent per Annum for forbearance thereof to be accounted from the beginning of the ſaid firſt building.

Who may determine Differences between firſt and later builders.

And in caſe any difference ſhall ariſe between the firſt and later Builders, concerning the true value of the ſaid Charge, That then the ſame be referred to the Alderman of that Ward where ſuch Building ſhall be, and to his Deputy, to mediate an agreement of ſuch difference: And where the ſaid Alderman and his Deputy, or one of them ſhall be parties, or where they cannot compoſe ſuch difference as aforeſaid, That the matter be referred to the Examination of the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who ſhall hear, and finally determine the ſame, without any Appeal to be had.

Houſes of the firſt and laſt ſort of building.

And be it further Enacted, That the ſaid Houſes of the firſt and laſt ſort of Building, fronting By-ſtreets or Lanes as aforeſaid, ſhall be of two Stories high, beſides Cellars and Garrets: That the Cellars thereof be ſix foot and a half high, if the ſprings of water hinder not; That the firſt ſtory be nine foot high from the Floor to the Cieling; and the ſecond Story nine foot high from the Floor to the Cieling; That all Walls in front and reer, as high as the firſt Story, be of the full thickneſs of the length of two Bricks, and thence upwards to the Garrets of the thickneſs of one Brick and an half; and that the thickneſs of the Garret-Walls on the back-part be left to the diſcretion of the Builder, ſo that the ſame be not leſs then the length of one Brick: And alſo that the thickneſs of the Party-walls between the Houſes of the firſt and leſſer ſort of Building, be one Brick and an half, as high as the Garrets; and that the thickneſs of the Party-wall in the Garrets, be of the thickneſs of one Brick in length at the leaſt; And that the Scantlings of Timber and Stone to be uſed about the building thereof, be as in the ſaid Table are ſet down and preſcribed.

Houſes of the ſecond ſort of building.

And be it further enacted, That the houſes of the ſecond ſort of building, fronting Streets and Lanes of note, and the River of Thames, ſhall conſiſt of three Stories high, beſides

Cellars and Garrets as aforeſaid; That the Cellars thereof be ſix foot and an half high (if the ſprings of water hinder not) That the firſt Story contain full ten foot in height from the Floor to the Ceiling; the ſecond, full ten foot; the third, nine foot: That all the ſaid Walls in front and reer, as high as the firſt Story, be of the full thickneſs of the length of two Bricks and an half, and from thence upwards to the Garret-floor of the thickneſs of one Brick and half; and that the thickneſs of the Garret-walls on the back-part be left to the diſcretion of the builder, ſo that the ſame be not leſs then the length of one Brick and alſo that the thickneſs of the Party-walls between every Houſe of this ſecond and larger ſort of Building, be two Brick leugths as high as the firſt Story, and thence upwards to the Garrets of the thickneſs of one Brick and half; the Scantlings of Timber and ſtone to be as in the ſaid Table are preſcribed.

Houſes of the third ſort of building.

Alſo that the Houſes of the third ſort of Buildings, fronting the high and principal Streets ſhall conſiſt of four Stories high beſides Cellars and Garrets as aforeſaid: That the firſt Story contain full ten foot in height from the Floor to the Cieling; the ſecond, ten foot and an half; the third, nine foot; the fourth, eight foot and an half. That all the ſaid walls in front and reer, as high as the firſt ſtory, be of the full thickneſs of the length of two bricks and an half, and from thence upwards to the Garret-floor of the thickneſs of one Brick and an half: That the thickneſs of the Garret-walls on the Back part be left to the diſcretion of the Builder, ſo as the ſame be not leſs then the length of one Brick; and alſo that the thickneſs of the Party-walls between every houſe of this third and larger ſort of Building be two Bricks lengths as high as the firſt Story, and then upwards to the Garrets of the thickneſs of one Brick and half; the ſcantlings of Timber and Stone to be as in the ſaid Table are preſcribed.

Houſes of the fourth ſort of building.

And be it further Enacted, That all Houſes of the fourth ſort of Building being Manſion-houſes, and of the greateſt bigneſs not fronting upon any of the Streets or Lanes as aforeſaid, ſhall bear the ſame Scantlings as in the Table are ſet down for the ſame; and that the number of Stories, and the height thereof be left to the diſcretion of the Builder, ſo as he exceed not four Stories.

Fronts of Houſes in High-ſtreets, Belconies.

And be it further Enacted, That in the Front of all houſes hereafter to be erected in any ſuch Streets as by Act of Common Council ſhall be declared to be High-Streets, Belconies four foot broad, with Rails and Bars of Iron, of equal diſtance from the ground, ſhall be placed; every of which Belconies ſhall contain in length two parts of the Front of the houſe on which it ſhall be placed, in three parts to be divided, and the remaining vacancy of the Front ſhall be ſupplyed with a pent houſe of the breadth of the Belcony, to be covered with Lead, Slate, or Tile, and to be Cieled with Plaiſtering underneath, and that the water falling as well from the tops of the ſaid Houſes, as from the ſaid Belconies and Pent-houſes, be conveyed into the Channels by Party-pipes on the ſides or fronts of the ſaid Houſes; and that Pavements under every of the ſaid Belconies and Pent-houſes be made of good and ſufficient broad flat Stone, at the charge of the Builder.

How Houſes fronting on High Streets ſhall be built.

And be it further Enacted that no Builder of any of the Houſes fronting any of the ſaid Highſtreets, Streets or Lanes of note, be permitted to lay his firſt Floor over the Cellar more then Eighteen Inches above the ſaid Streets, or leſs then Six with one Circular ſtep to lead up thereunto, to be placed without the Building: And that no Trap-doors or open Grates be in any wiſe ſuffered to be made into any ſuch Cellar or Ware-houſe without the foundations of the Front, but that all Lights to be made into any of them, be henceforth made upright, and not otherwiſe; and that no Bulks, Jetties, Windows, Poſts, Seats, or any thing of like ſort ſhall be made or erected in any Streets, Lanes or By-Lanes, to extend beyond the antient foundation of Houſes; nor that any Houſe be ſet further into the Street then the ancient foundation; Saving onely that in the high and principal Streets, it ſhall be lawful for the Inhabitants to ſuffer their Stall-boards (when the Shop-windows are ſet open to turn over, and extend eleven inches and no more, from the Foundation of their Houſes into the Streets, for the better conveniency of their Shop-windows.

Within what time all perſons are to rebuild their houſes.

And be it further Enacted, That if any perſon or perſons, Bodies Politick or Corporate being Seiſed, Poſſeſſed, or Intereſſed, of, or in any Ground which was formerly builded upon, and the Houſes thereupon being now burned or pulled down at the time of the late Fire ſhall not within three years next enſuing build up the ſame, That then the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of London, by Act of Common Council may cauſe Proclamation to be publickly made between the hours of Twelve and two of the clock in the afternoon, as well at or upon the ſaid Ground, as alſo at or upon the publick Exchange of the ſaid City thereby to give notice to all perſons that ſhall be, or may be therein concerned, to cauſe the ſame to be rebuilded according to the direction of this preſent Act, within the ſpace of Nine moneths then next following: And in caſe the Owners thereof, or other perſon or perſons having Intereſt therein, ſhall refuſe or neglect to rebuild the ſame, in manner and within ſuch time as aforeſaid, That then in ſuch caſe the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the ſaid City are hereby Authorized to Iſſue out Warrants to the Sheriffs of London for the time being, requiring them to impannel and return before them a Jury of good and lawful men of the ſaid City, which the ſaid Sheriffs are hereby Authorized and required to do accordingly; which Jury ſo returned ſhall upon their Oaths to be Adminiſtred to them by the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen (who are likewiſe hereby authorized to adminiſter the ſame) Enquire, Eſtimate and Aſſeſs the true and juſt Value of ſuch void Ground, according to their Judgments; And that from and after ſuch Inquiry and Valuation thereof made as aforeſaid (by Inqueſt of the ſaid Jury it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ſaid City, to make Sale of the Fee or Inheritance thereof, by Conveyance under their Common Seal to any perſon or perſons that will purchaſe the ſame at ſuch price at which the ſame

Penalty.

ſhall have been ſo as aforeſaid Eſtimated and Valued by the ſaid Jury; and the moneys thereupon to be received of the Purchaſers thereof, ſhall be paid into the Chamber of London, and from thence to be iſſued out and paid by the Chamberlain of London for the time being, unto ſuch perſon or perſons who ſhall have any Eſtate or Intereſt into, or out of the ſame, according to his or their reſpective Eſtate or Eſtates, Title or Intereſt: which Sale ſo made and Inrolled of Record, according to the Cuſtom or Uſage of the ſaid City for Inrolment of Bargains and Sales, ſhall be final and concluſive to all other perſons whatſoever, and ſhall bar them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, to claim any Eſtate, Right, Title or Intereſt of, in, or out of the Grounds ſo ſold, precedent to the ſaid Sale; And the Purchaſor or Purchaſors thereof, his and their Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall and may by vertue of this Act, have, hold and enjoy the ſame againſt all perſons claiming any Eſtate, Right, Title or Intereſt into, or out of the ſame, his and their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, freed and diſcharged of and from Incumbrances in Eſtate, Title, Charge or otherwiſe, precedent to the ſaid Sale.

Who may (in caſe of unreaſonable exactions) ſet rates upon Materials and Workmen.

And to the end the ſaid Builders may receive due encouragement, by having the materials for building at reaſonable Prices, and getting of Workmen for moderate wages; Be it further Enacted, That in caſe of Combination, or unreaſonable Exaction by Brick-makers, Tile-makers, and Lime-burners, It ſhall and may be lawful for the Juſtices of the Court of Kings Bench, or any two or more of them, upon the complaiut of the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, to call before them ſuch a number of Brick-makers, Tile-makers, and Lime-burners, making or burning Brick, Tile or Lime, at any place within Five miles diſtance of the River of Thames, as they ſhall think fit; and upon conference with them had concerning the premiſſes, if they will be preſent, or otherwiſe in their abſence, to Aſſeſſe ſuch reaſonable Prizes from time to time upon every Thouſand of the ſaid Bricks and Tiles, and upon every hundred of the ſaid Lime, and every greater or leſſer quantity, to be delivered at the ſeveral Kilns: And alſo of all Carriages of the ſame Materials from the ſaid Kilns to the ſaid City, whether by Land or by Water, as may equally reſpect the honeſt profit of the ſaid Brick-makers, Tile-makers, Lime-burners and Carriers, and the neceſſity and convenience of the Builder.

Labourers Wages.

And to the intent no Brick-maker, Tile-maker, Lime-burner, Carpenter, Bricklayer, Maſon, Plaiſterer, Joyner, Plumber, or other Artificer, Workman or Labourer, may make the common calamity a pretence to extort unreaſonable or exceſſive Wages; Be it likewiſe Enacted, That in caſe combination or exaction of unreaſonable Wages by the ſaid Artificers, Workmen or Labourers, or any of them, the ſaid Juſtices of the Court of Kings Bench, or any two or more of them, upon the like complaint of the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, ſhall and may from time to time, limit, rate and appoint the Wages of the ſaid Artificers, Workmen and Labourers, by the day, week, or otherwiſe, and what wages every of the ſaid Workmen ſhall have by the great, by the Foot, Yard, Rod or Perch, or for any greater Quantity: which ſaid Rates, together with the Prices of the ſaid Materials and Carriages ſo aſſeſſed, being ſet down in a Table, and Proclamation thereof made by the Lord Mayor for the time being accordingly, the ſame ſhall effectually bind all perſons therein concerned. And if any of the ſaid Artificers refuſe to ſell the ſaid Materials for the Prices ſo aſſeſſed, or any of the ſaid Carpenters, Bricklayers, Maſons, Plaiſterers, Joyners, Plumbers, or other Workmen or Labourers, ſhall either refuſe to work for the Wages ſo aſſeſſed, or ſhall depart from his ſaid work after he hath undertaken to do the ſame, without Licenſe of ſuch perſon or perſons as imployed him, and before it be finiſhed, unleſs it be for non-payment of his hire, or other juſt cauſe to be allowed before one Juſtice of the Peace of ſuch place where the Offence ſhall be committed; or if any perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall by any ſecret ways or means give, covenant, article or agree to give directly or indirectly, by himſelf, or any other for him, any other or greater Wages, Prizes, or other Commodity then ſhall be ſo aſſeſſed: the ſaid Offendor and Offendors being thereof legally convict by the Oaths of one or more witneſſes, which Oath the ſaid Juſtice is hereby impowred to adminiſter, ſhall be by the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace forthwith committed to the Common Gaol, there to remain by the ſpace of one Moneth without Bail or Mainprize, unleſſe he ſhall pay, or cauſe to be paid for every ſuch Offence to the ſaid Juſtice of the Peace, ſuch Fine as by the diſcretion of the ſaid Juſtice ſhall be ſet upon any ſuch Offendor, not exceeding Ten pounds; Out of which Fine the ſaid Juſtice ſhall and may award and pay unto the Party injured ſuch ſatisfaction as he ſhall judge reaſonable, and the reſidue thereof ſhall pay unto the Chamberlain of London for the time being, to be imployed for and towards the reedifying of the Publick Buildings of the City aforeſaid.

Foreigners may as Freemen, work in London.

And be it further Enacted, That all Carpenters, Bricklayers, Maſons, Plaiſterers, Joyners, and other Artificers, Workmen and Labourers, to be imployed in the ſaid Buildings, who are not Freemen of the ſaid City, ſhall for the ſpace of Seven years next enſuing, and for ſo long after as untill the ſaid Buildings ſhall be fully finiſhed, have and enjoy ſuch and the ſame liberty of working, and being ſet to work in the ſaid Building, as the Freemen of the City of the ſame Trades and Profeſſions have and ought to enjoy; Any Uſage or Cuſtom of the City to the contrary notwithſtanding. And that ſuch Artificers as aforeſaid, which for the ſpace of Seven years ſhall have wrought in the rebuilding of the City in their reſpective Arts, ſhall from and after the ſaid Seven years, have and enjoy the ſame Liberty to work as Freemen of the ſaid City, for and during their natural lives. Provided always, That ſuch Artificers claiming ſuch Priviledges, ſhall be liable to undergo all ſuch Offices, and to pay and perform ſuch Duties in reference to the Service and Government of the City, as Freemen of the City of their reſpective Arts and Trades are liable to undergo, pay and perform.

And

Who may determine differences between Builders, about ſtopping Lights, &c.

And to remove all Obſtacles which otherwiſe may hinder ſo good and profitable a work, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all differences ariſing between the ſaid Builders or any others concerning placing and ſtopping up of Lights, Windows, Water-courſes or Gutters, which may hinder or retard the ſaid Building, ſhall and may be heard, mediated and determined (if it may be) by the Alderman of the Ward where the cauſe of any ſuch difference ſhall ariſe, and his Deputy; and if either the ſaid Alderman or his Deputy be concerned as parties in the controverſie, or that they cannot determine the ſaid Differences, that then, and in every ſuch caſe the ſame be certified by the ſaid Alderman or his Deputy unconcerned therein, to the ſaid Mayor and Court-of Aldermen, who upon deliberate hearing of all Parties, ſhall finally determine the ſame without further or other Appeal.

Common Sewers, Drains and Vaults, &c.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the numbers and places for all common Sewers, Drains and Vaults, and the order and manner of paving and pitching the Streets and Lanes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, ſhall be deſigned and ſet out by ſuch and ſo many perſons as the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty in Common Council aſſembled, ſhall from time to time authorize and appoint under their Common Seal, or the more part of them; which ſaid perſons ſo authorized and appointed, or any ſeven or more of them, together with the ſaid Surveyors, or ſome or one of them, within his or their Precinct reſpectively, ſhall at their Meeting have power and authority to order and direct the making of any new Vaults, Drains and Sewers, or to cut into any Drain or Sewer already made, and for the altering, inlarging, amending, cleanſing and ſcouring of any old Vaults, Sinks or Common Sewers. For the better effecting whereof, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid perſons ſo authorized and appointed as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, at their ſaid meeting, to impoſe any reaſonable Tax upon all Houſes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, in proportion to the benefit they ſhall receive thereby, for and towards the new making, cutting, altering, inlarging, amending, cleanſing and ſcouring all and ſingular the ſaid Vaults, Drains, Sewers, Pavements and Pitching aforeſaid: And in default of payment of the ſaid ſums ſo to be charged, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid perſons ſo authorized as aforeſaid, or any ſeven or more of them, by Order and Warrant under their Hands and Seals, to levy the ſaid ſum and ſums of Money ſo aſſeſſed, by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Goods of the party chargeable therewith, and refuſing or neglecting to pay the ſame, rendring the overplus (if any be.) And that all other Commiſſioners whatſoever be altogether ſuſpended to intermeddle in the premiſſes within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, for the ſpace of ſeven years next, and for ſo long after untill the ſaid intended Buildings ſhall be fully finiſhed; Any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Noyſome Trades prohibited in the High Streets.

And be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the ſaid City, from time to time, to prohibit ſuch Trades and Occupations as they ſhall judge noiſom, or perilous in reſpect of Fire, to be uſed or exerciſed in the high or principal Streets of the ſaid City.

Removing of Conduits in High Streets.

And foraſmuch as the freedom of openneſſe of the Street conduceth much to the advancement of Trade, and Ornament of the City; Be it further enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty, by Order of Common Council in that behalf to be made, from time to time, and at their will and pleaſure, to remove out of any of the high Streets all or any of the Conduits now ſtanding, or hereafter to be erected, and to ſet up and to erect the ſame in ſuch other publick places within the ſaid City as they ſhall think fit, or to contract the ſame into any ſmaller or leſſer compaſſe in the places where they now ſtand, or hereafter ſhall be erected as aforeſaid, according to their diſcretions.

What Streets may be opened and inlarged.

And whereas many antient Streets and Paſſages within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, and amongſt others, thoſe which are hereafter mentioned, were narrow and incommodious for Carriages and Paſſengers, and prejudicial to the Trade and Health of the Inhabitants, and are neceſſary to be inlarged, as well for the Convenience, as Ornament of the City; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the ſaid City for the time being, in Common Council aſſembled, ſhall and may, and are hereby impowred and required to inlarge all and every the Streets and Places hereafter mentioned, where, and in ſuch manner, as there ſhall be cauſe, by and with the Approbation of His Majeſty, and not otherwiſe: That is to ſay, The Street called Fleet-ſtreet, from the place where the Greyhound-Tavern ſtood, to Ludgate, and from thence to Saint Paul's Church-yard; The Street leading from the Eaſt end of Saint Pauls Church into Cheapſide; The Street and Paſſage at the Eaſt end of Cheapſide, leading into the Poultry; The Street and Paſſage out of the Poultry, leading into the Weſt end of Cornhill, at or near the place late called the Stocks; The Street called Blow bladder Street, leading from the Weſt end of Cheap-ſide towards Newgate-Market; And to inlarge the Street and Paſſage from thence towards Newgate-Market, by laying the Ground where the Middle-Row in the Shambles there lately ſtood, into the ſaid Street; and in like manner to inlarge the Paſſage from Newgate-Market towards Newgate, by laying the Ground of the late four Houſes between Warwike-Lane end in Newgate-Market, and the late Bell-Inne there, into the Street: And in like manner to inlarge, as there ſhall be cauſe, the Lane called Ave-Maria-Lane, leading from Pater-Noſter-Row to Ludgate Street; And the Street or Paſſage at the end of Saint Martins le Grand towards Blow-bladder Street aforeſaid; And alſo the Paſſage from Saint Magnus Church to the Conduit in Gracious Street, and the North end of Gracious-Street; and alſo Thames-Street, from the Weſt-corner of Saint Magnus Church aforeſaid, to the Tower Dock; and to inlarge Old Fiſh-Street, by laying the Middle-Row there into the Street.

And the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council alſo ſhall and may by vertue of this preſent Act inlarge and make wider any other ſuch ſtrait and narrow paſſages within the ſaid City, as are leſs then fourteen foot in bredth: So as notice be given to the Owners or Parties intereſſed in the Ground to be ſo taken for the inlarging thereof, on or before the Firſt day of May next enſuing. And are and ſhall be alſo further enabled by vertue of this Act, to make or cauſe to be made a new Street leading and extending from the Guild-Hall of the ſaid City into Cheapſide; the ſame to be of ſuch bredth and wideneſs, as they ſhall judge meet and convenient.

And to the end that reaſonable ſatisfaction may be given for all ſuch Ground as ſhall be taken and imployed for the uſes aforeſaid; The Mayor, Aldermen and Common-Council ſhall and may treat and agree with the Owners and others intereſſed therein: And if there ſhall be any Perſons, Bodies Corporate or Collegiate, that ſhall wilfully refuſe to treat and agree as aforeſaid, or through any diſability by Nonage, Coverture, or eſpecial Entail, or other impediment, cannot; That in ſuch caſes, the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen are hereby authorized by vertue of this Act, to iſſue out a Warrant or Warrants to the Sheriffs of London, who are hereby required accordingly to Impannel and return a Jury before the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen; Which Jury upon their Oath to be adminiſtred by the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, are to Inquire and Aſſeſs ſuch Damage and Recompence as they ſhall judge fit to be awarded to the Owners, and others intereſted, according to their ſeveral and reſpective Intereſts and Eſtates of, and in any ſuch Houſes or Ground, or any part thereof, for their reſpective Intereſts and Eſtates in the ſame, as by the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons in Common-Council aſſembled, ſhall be adjudged fit to be converted for the purpoſes aforeſaid: And ſuch Verdict of the Jury, and Judgment of the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen thereupon, and the payment of the ſum or ſums of money ſo awarded or adjudged to the Owners, and others having Eſtate or Intereſt, or Tender and refuſal thereof, ſhall be binding to all intents and purpoſes againſt the ſaid Parties, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, and others claiming any Title or Intereſt in the ſaid Houſes or Ground, and ſhall be a full Authority for the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, to cauſe the ſame to be converted and uſed for the purpoſes aforeſaid.

Satisfaction to be made for Ground.

And foraſmuch as the Houſes now remaining, and to be rebuilt, will receive more or leſs advantage in the value of their Rents, by the liberty of Air, and free Recourſe for Trade, and other Conveniencies by ſuch Regulation and Inlargement; It is alſo enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe of refuſal, or incapacity as aforeſaid of the Owners, or others intereſſed of, or in the ſaid Houſes, to agree and compound with the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons for the ſame, Thereupon a Jury ſhall and may be Impannelled in manner and form aforeſaid, to Judge and Aſſeſs upon the Owners, and others intereſſed of, and in ſuch Houſes, ſuch competent ſum and ſums of Money, with reſpect to their ſeveral Intereſts, in conſideration of ſuch improvement and melioration, as in reaſon and good conſcience they ſhall think fit: And all ſums of Money that ſhall be ſo Aſſeſſed and Raiſed as aforeſaid, ſhall be paid to the Chamberlain of the City of London for the time being; who is hereby enabled from time to time to receive and recover the ſame by Action at Law, and whoſe Receipt ſhall be a good Diſcharge to ſuch Owners, or others intereſſed; And who is hereby appointed to receive and pay, and be accomptable for the ſame, according to ſuch Directions as ſhall from time to time be given him by the ſaid Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons; And the Money ſo raiſed, ſhall be wholly imployed towards payment and ſatisfaction of ſuch Houſes and Ground as ſhall be converted into Streets, Paſſages, Markets, and other publick places aforeſaid; And ſuch ſatisfaction ſo given or tendered, and refuſed as aforeſaid, ſhall deveſt the Propriety, Eſtate and Intereſt of the reſpective Owners, and others having Intereſt of and in ſuch parcels of Ground, ſo to be taken and imployed for the uſes aforeſaid, by vertue of this Act: Which ſhall be, and are hereby actually ſetled and inveſted in the ſaid Lord Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, and their Succeſſors, in like manner as other the Common-ſtreets and High-wayes within the ſaid City.

Houſes which ſhall be bettered in value.

And in caſe any Controverſies or Differences ſhall happen to ariſe between ſeveral perſons that ſhall claim ſeveral Eſtates or Intereſts into, or out of any Grounds to be ſold by the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, or by them to be taken and diſpoſed of by vertue, and in purſuance of this Act, to and for the uſes aforeſaid; That then the Juſtices of the Courts of Kings Bench and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the time being, or any three or more of them, ſhall be, and are hereby authorized to hear, and finally to order and determine the ſame in a ſummary way of proceeding, and without the formalities or ordinary courſe of proceedings uſed in any the ſaid Courts, to order and award ſuch Diſtribution to be made of the money thereby ariſing, for the ſatisfying of ſuch ſeveral Intereſts and Claims, as to them ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonable, according to the reſpective Eſtate or Eſtates, Title or Intereſts of the perſon or perſons making Claim thereunto; According to which order and diſtribution to be made and appointed by the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them, the ſaid Purchaſe-money ſhall be ſatisfied and paid by the ſaid Chamberlain, to the ſaid ſeveral perſons reſpectively.

Who may hear and determine Differences of ſeveral claims of Eſtates.

And that the ſaid Citizens and their Succeſſors for all the time to come, may retain the Memorial of ſo ſad a Deſolation, and reflect ſeriouſly upon their manifold Iniquities, which are the unhappy cauſes of ſuch Judgments; Be it further Enacted, That the Second day of September (unleſs the ſame happen to be Sunday, and if ſo, then the next day following) be yearly for ever hereafter obſerved as a day of Publick Faſting and Humiliation within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, to Implore the Mercies of Almighty God upon the ſaid City, to make devout Prayer and Supplication unto Him, to divert the like Calamity for the time to come.

The ſecond of September appointed a day of Humiliation in the City yearly for ever.

And

A Pillar to be ſet in memory of the Fire.

And the better to preſerve the memory of this Dreadful Viſitation, Be it further Enacted, That a Column or Pillar of Braſs or Stone be erected on, or as near unto the place where the ſaid Fire ſo unhappily began, as conveniently may be, in perpetual Remembrance thereof with ſuch Inſcription thereon, as hereafter by the Mayor and Court of Aldermen in that behalf be directed.

Tender of money at the Aſſurance-Office, or the Royal Exchange

And be it Enacted, and it is hereby Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Tenders of Money, or Payment thereof, which by any Bonds, Covenants, or other Obligations or Aſſurance whatſoever ought to be made in the late Aſſurance-Office, or in any other place on the late Royal Exchange, London, ſhall or may be made at, or in the preſent Aſſurance-Office in Greſham-Houſe; And ſhall be as valid and legal to all intents and purpoſes, and diſcharge the Obligor as fully and amply, as if they had been made in the firſt intended place on the ſaid Royal Exchange.

Pariſh Churches to be re-builded.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That the Pariſh-Churches to be Rebuilded within the ſaid City of London, in lieu of thoſe which were Demoliſhed by the late Fire, ſhall not exceed the number of Thirty nine; Which ſhall be ſet out and appointed by, and with the advice and conſent of the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and the Biſhop of London for the time being.

Scites and Materials of Churches to be ſold, and how imployed.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Scites and Materials of ſuch Churches as by this Bill are not intended to be Rebuilt, together with the Church-yards belonging to ſuch Churches, ſhall be, and are hereby veſted in the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the time being; to the end ſo much of the ſaid Ground as ſhall not upon the Rebuilding of the ſaid City, be laid into the Streets, be ſold and diſpoſed of by the ſaid Lord Mayor and Aldermen, or the major part of them for the time being, with the conſent of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Biſhop of London for the time being; and the Money raiſed by ſuch Sale, ſhall be by the ſaid Mayor and Aldermen, or the major part of them, with the conſent of the ſaid Archbiſhop and Biſhop, diſpoſed of, and imployed for and towards the Rebuilding of ſuch Pariſh-Churches as by this Act are intended to be Rebuilt; and for no other uſe or purpoſe whatſoever.

St. Pauls, St. Faiths, St. Gregories Churches.

Provided alwayes, That any thing in this Act contained, ſhall not extend or be taken to veſt or ſettle the Church of Saint Paul, and Saint Faiths, or any part thereof, or the Church of Saint Gregories by Saint Pauls, or any of them, or the Church-yards to any of them belonging or appertaining, in the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, or any of them; Any thing in this Act notwithſtanding.

Thames-ſtreet.

And be it Enacted, That for the preventing Inundations, aud for eaſiueſs of Aſcent, the Street called Thames-ſtreet, and all the Ground between the ſaid Street and the River of Thames, ſhall be raiſed and made higher by three foot at the leaſt above the ſurface of the Ground as now it lieth.

Provided alſo, and it is hereby further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Houſe, Out-houſe or other Buildings whatſoever (Cranes and Sheds for preſent uſe only excepted) ſhall be built or erected within the diſtance of Forty foot of ſuch part of any Wall, Key or Wharf, as bounds the River of Thames, from Tower-Wharf to London-Bridge, and from London-Bridge to the Temple-Stairs: Nor any Houſe, Out-houſe or other Building (Cranes only excepted) be Built or Erected within the diſtance of Threeſcore and ten Foot of the middle of any part of the Common Sewers, commonly called or known by the names of Bridewell-Dock, Fleet-Ditch, and Turnmil-Brook, from the River of Thames to Clerkenwell, upon either ſide of them, before the Four and twentieth day of March, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty eight.

An Impoſition upon Coals.

And for the further enabling of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City of London, and their Succeſſors, to perform and accompliſh the works in this Act mentioned; Be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for all ſorts of Coals, which from and after the four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſeven, and before the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy ſeven, ſhall be imported and brought into the Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the liberty of the ſaid City of London, upon the ſame River to be ſold by the Chaldron or Tun, there ſhall be paid by way of Impoſition thereupon, (over and beſides all other Impoſitions and Duties due and payable for any ſort of the ſaid Coals, by vertue of any Law or Statute now in force) according to the Rates hereafter mentioned; That is to ſay, for ſuch ſorts of Coals as are uſually ſold by the Chaldron, for every Chaldron thereof containing Thirty ſix buſhels Wincheſter meaſure, the ſum of Twelve pence; and for all ſuch ſorts of Coals as are ſold by the Tun, for every Tun thereof containing Twenty hundred weight, the like ſum of Twelve pence; which ſaid Impoſition of Twelve pence for every Chaldron or Tun of Coals, ſhall from time to time during the term aforeſaid, be anſwered and paid unto the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens, and their Succeſſors, or to their Deputy or Deputies, Officer or Aſſigns, by the Maſter, Owner or Owners, or other perſon or perſons taking charge of any Ship or Veſſel whereupon the ſame ſhall be laden, before they ſhall break Bulk, or have a Meter aſſigned for the meaſuring or weighing of any Coals aforeſaid, to be delivered from on board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel; the ſame to be paid at ſuch place or places, as by the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen ſhall from time to time be appointed for the receipt thereof; Upon receipt whereof, the party appointed to receive the ſame, ſhall without delay, fee or reward, deliver a Receipt to the perſon or perſons who ſhall pay the ſaid Duty; which Receipt ſhall for ſo much be a ſufficient diſcharge.

Coal-meters Duty for Levying the ſame.

And to the end that the ſaid Impoſition may be duly anſwered and paid without fraud or covin, and for the better Levying and Collecting thereof, and for diſcovery of the juſt quantities of all ſorts of Coals to be Imported as aforeſaid; Be it further Enacted by authority aforeſaid, That the Coal-meters for the City of London, appointed, or to be appointed, and every of them, and their reſpective Deputies in their turn and courſe of attendance reſpectively, ſpectively, ſo ſoon as any Ship or Veſſel freight with Coals ſhall be unladen, ſhall forthwith deliver a true Certificate in writing, unto the Deputy or Deputies, Officers or Aſſigns of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens, who ſhall be appointed to receive the ſaid Impoſition, of the ſorts, quantities and number of Chaldrons or Tuns of Coals reſpectively which ſhall be meaſured, or weighed and delivered from on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, on pain for his or their default therein, to be ſuſpended from the execution and benefit of his or their Office or Imployment for one whole year from thence next following: And in caſe it ſhall appear by ſuch Certificate or otherwiſe, That there was on Board any ſuch Ship or Veſſel, a greater nomber of Chaldrons or Tuns of Coals, then for which the ſaid Impoſition ſhall have been anſwered and paid as aforeſaid; That then in ſuch caſe there ſhall be paid to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens, and their Succeſſors, for every Chaldron or Tun of Coals ſo concealed, over and above the Impoſition aforeſaid, the ſum of Five ſhillings; for which (in caſe of refuſal to pay the ſame) ſuch Ship or Veſſel, or any the Tackle, Furniture or Apparel thereof, may be attached and detained by Warrant from the Mayor of the ſaid City for the time being, until payment thereof.

Provided nevertheleſſe, That if the Importer, upon ſuch Certificate delivered in by the Coal-meter, ſhall within four and twenty hours, give in his Poſt-entry, and ſatisfie and pay the whole Duty for the ſurpluſage of Coals appearing upon the unlading of ſuch Ship or Veſſel, That then upon ſuch payment, the penalty aforeſaid ſhall be diſcharged.

And it is further Enacted, That all and every ſuch ſum and ſums of Money which ſhall be raiſed upon the Receipt of the ſaid Impoſition of Twelve pence for every Chaldron or Tun of Coals, or by ſuch additional Duty, in caſe of concealment as aforeſaid, ſhall in the firſt place be applied and diſpoſed unto, and for the ſatisfaction of ſuch perſons whoſe Grounds ſhall by vertue, and in purſuance of this Act, be taken and imployed for the inlarging of the Streets, and narrow Paſſages within the ſaid City; And after ſatisfaction given for the ſame, the reſidue of the ſaid Moneys ſhall be applied and diſpoſed unto, and for the ſatisfaction of ſuch perſons whoſe Grounds ſhall be imployed for the making of Wharfs or Keys on the North-ſide of the River of Thames, and upon each ſide of the Sewer called by the name or Names of Bridewell-Dock, Fleet-Ditch and Turnmill-Brook; and alſo for the building and making ſuch Priſons within the ſaid City, as ſhall be neceſſary for the ſafe Cuſtody and Impriſonment of Felons, and other Malefactors.

How the ſaid Impoſition ſhall be diſpoſed.

And to the end the Moneys to be raiſed upon the Impoſition aforeſaid, may be duly applied to the uſes for which the ſame is by this Act appointed, Be it further Enacted, That there ſhall from time to time be provided, and kept in the Chamber of London, one or more Book or Books of Vellam or Parchment, in which all moneys thereupon to be received, ſhall from time to time be entred and ſet down: And alſo other like Book or Books, wherein the Accompts of all Payments and Diſburſements out of the ſame ſhall be likewiſe entred; expreſſing the time when, the occaſion for which, and the name of the perſon or perſons to whom the ſame were ſo paid or diſburſed. And that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every perſon or perſons that ſhall or may be in any wiſe concerned ſo to do, to have free acceſſe unto, and view the ſaid reſpective Books of Receipts and Diſburſements at all times, when the Chamberlains Office is open, without any Fee or Reward to be taken, or demanded for the view or inſpection thereof: And that the Chamberlain of London for the time being, before the end of Michaelmas Term in every year, ſhall tranſmit, and upon his Oath deliver into the Receipt of the Exchequer, a true Copy or Duplicate of the aforeſaid Books of Accompts, containing the Receipts and Diſburſements of all moneys which ſhall be raiſed and paid by or out of the ſaid Impoſition upon Coals, in the year preceding, and ending upon the Four and twentieth day of June next before; there to be received gratis by the proper Officer, and kept amongſt the Records of the ſaid Court; where it ſhall alſo be lawful for any perſon or perſons, who ſhall be in any wiſe concerned ſo to do, to have acceſs thereunto, and to view and peruſe the ſaid Books of Accompts, without any Fee or Reward to be taken or received for the ſame.

And the Accompts of Receits and Diſburſements thereof kept.

Provided alwayes, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Water-houſe, called Mr. Thomas Morris his Water-houſe, formerly adjoyning to London-Bridge, to be rebuilt upon the place it formerly ſtood, with Timber, for the ſupplying the South-ſide of the City with water, as it for almoſt this hundred years hath done; Any thing in this Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Thomas Morris his Water-Houſe.

Provided alſo, And it is hereby further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, may and ſhall open and inlarge a Street or Paſſage called Water-Lane, leading from Fleet-ſtreet to White-Friers-Dock by the River of Thames; as alſo open and inlarge a Street or Paſſage to the ſaid River from Cheapſide through Soper-Lane to Thames-Street, and from the Three-Cranes to the Thames; And open and inlarge one other Street or Paſſage through Mincing-Lane, by St. Dunſtans in the Eaſt, to Thames-Street near the Cuſtom-Houſe: And to make the ſaid Streets or Paſſages twenty four foot in bredth, for the conveniency of Trade, and better paſſage of Carts, and other Carriages to and from the ſaid River; giving notice of what they ſhall herein reſolve, to the Proprietors and Perſons concerned, before the laſt day of May, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſeven; and giving them ſatisfaction for their Ground, according to the Rules and Directions of this Act for the inlarging of other Streets and Places.

CAP. IV.

For Relief of poor Priſoners, and ſetting of them on Work.

How Stocks may be provided for ſetting the poor on work.

WHereas there is not yet any ſufficient Proviſion made for the Relief and ſetting on work of poor and needy perſons committed to the Common Gaol for Felony and other miſdemeanors, who many times periſh before their Trial; and the Poor there living idly and unimployed, become debauched, and come forth inſtructed in the practice of Thievery and lewdneſs: For remedy whereof, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by Authority of the ſame, That the Juſtices of the Peace of the reſpective Counties, at any their General Seſſions, or the major part of them then there aſſembled, if they ſhall find it needful ſo to do, may provide a Stock of ſuch Materials as they find convenient for the ſetting poor Priſoners on work, in ſuch manner, and by ſuch wayes as other County-charges by the Laws and Statutes of the Realm are and may be levied and raiſed; And to pay and provide fit perſons to overſee and ſet ſuch Priſoners on work; and make ſuch Orders for Accompts of and concerning the premiſſes as ſhall by them be thought needful, and for puniſhment of neglects and other abuſes, and for beſtowing of the Profit ariſing by the labour of the Priſoners ſo ſet on work for their Relief, which ſhall be duly obſerved; And may alter, revoke, or amend ſuch their Orders from time to time. Provided that no Pariſh be rated above Six pence by the week towards the premiſſes, having reſpect to the reſpective values of the ſeveral Pariſhes.

Sickneſs and Diſeaſes happening among Priſoners.

And whereas ſometimes by occaſion of the Plague, and other whiles by the great number of Priſoners, great and infectious Diſeaſes have happened among the Priſoners, whereby it hath come to paſs ſometimes that the Judges, Juſtices and Jurors have, upon occaſion of their Attendance at the Trial of Priſoners, been infected, and many of them died thereof, and ſometime ſuch Infection hath ſpread in the Country: For ſome Remedy therein, Be it by the ſame Authority Enacted, That any Sheriff of the reſpective Counties, having the Cuſtody of the Gaol, or ſuch perſons who have the Cuſtody of the Goal, with the advice and conſent of three or more Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, may, if they ſhall on inquiry or information find it needful, upon emergent occaſions in the reſpective Counties, provide other ſafe places, for the removal of ſick, or other perſons, from and out of the ordinary and uſual Gaols, the ſame places to be uſed and imployed for the reception and cuſtody of the Priſoners, to be by or according to their Order or Orders kept, ordered, diſpoſed and conveyed to the places appointed for the Gaol-delivery, in ſuch and like manner as ſuch Priſoners ought to be kept, ordered, diſpoſed and conveyed in and from the Common Gaols by the Laws and Statutes of the Land. Provided no ſuch place be made uſe of for the purpoſes aforeſaid, againſt the good and free will of the Owners thereof.

Removing of Priſoners.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor, Bayliff, and other Head-Officer, or any other perſon and perſons, who have and hath the Cuſtody of the Common Gaol within any Corporation of this Kingdom and Dominion of Wales, ſhall by and with the advice of three or more Juſtices of Peace within the ſaid Corporation, whereof one of them to be of the Quorum, in time of Infection, have the like power and authority for removing his and their Priſoners into ſome other convenient place within their Juriſdiction, as to them ſhall ſeem fit, during the time of Infection; And alſo to raiſe a Stock after the ſame rates and proportions, as is herein before allowed to and for the ſeveral Counties within this Kingdom.

Exon City.

Devon.

Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, as followeth, (viz.) That whereas there is already provided a ſtrong and ſufficient Meſſuage in the Pariſh of St. Thomas the Apoſtle near the City of Exon for the purpoſe aforeſaid, and One thouſand pounds more by certain Truſtees upon Propoſals and Agreements made by them with certain Gentlemen, Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Devon, who have alſo provided One thouſand pounds more in order to purchaſe Lands of Inheritance for the good purpoſes hereafter mentioned: Be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Two thouſand pounds be laid out in purchaſe of Lands of Inheritance, by Order of the General Seſſions of the Peace hereafter at any time to be held, in the name of ſuch perſons as by ſuch Order ſhall be appointed. Item, That the ſaid Houſe, with the Grounds therewith incloſed, be had and uſed as a Common Gaol and Work-houſe for the ſaid County, in manner as is after expreſſed. Item, That an Overſeer be therein placed by like Order, and by like Order be removeable from time to time; which Overſeer ſhall have the charge, cuſtody and government of the Priſoners to him committed according to this Act, and ſhall have Fifty pounds per annum during the execution of his Office, and Ten pounds per annum for his Deputy; but ſhall therefore take no Fees for receiving, delivering or doing any other ſervice relating to the Priſoners, from or of any the ſaid Priſoners. Item, That the ſaid Juſtices by like Order from time to time ſhall and may, by approbation of the Ordinary, provide and appoint ſome meet and diſcreet Miniſter to read Divine-Service according to the Orders of the Church of England unto the Priſoners, at leaſt four dayes in the week, That is to ſay, on the Lords-day, each Wednesday, and each Friday and Saturday, and oftner, if the ſaid Juſtices ſhall appoint, and to take pains in inſtructing them each Lords-day at the leaſt, for which they may allow him Thirty pounds per annum, or after that rate, the reſt of the Profits to be for Repairing the Houſe, and towards finding a Stock for to ſet the Priſoners on work. Item, That any perſon charged with ſuch offence only for which Clergy is allowable, if ſo be he be needy and indigent, and not likely to maintain himſelf in Gaol, may by Warrant of the Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace to whom Jurisdiction in that behalf appertaineth, be committed to the ſaid Work-houſe in order to his Trial; and if any perſon ſhall be committed to the ordinary Gaol, who ſhall be or become ſo indigent, he may by Warrant of three Juſtices of Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, be removed from the ordinary Common Gaol to the ſaid Houſe; All which Priſoners ſo committed or removed, ſhall be in the cuſtody of the Overſeer, and be ordered and demeaned in the ſaid Houſe, and conveyed to the Seſſions, or ts the Gaol-delivery, by like Warrant, way and means, as the Priſoners in other Gaols by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm are to be ordered and demeaned.

And becauſe the ſaid Workhouſe is diſtant from the ordinary Common Gaol, the Priſoners by Order from the Seſſions or Gaol-delivery may, in order to their Trials, be removed to the Common Gaol, to be the more ready for their Trials. Item, That the ſaid Overſeer ſhall give Security for the Stock, and be liable to ſuch Regulations and Orders for Accompts and otherwiſe, as the Seſſions ſhall from time to time make for ſetting the poor Priſoners on work there, which ſhall be obeyed and obſerved. That a convenient Stock be from time to time raiſed at the Charge of the County. Item, That the ſaid Juſtices of the County in Devon may put in ure all the powers in this Act, as other Juſtices may in any other County by vertue thereof.

Saving to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and to every other perſon and perſons, and their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors and Adminiſtrators, all Rights, Titles, Claims and Demands whatſoever, into or out of the ſaid Meſſuages and Premiſſes, as if this Act had never been made.

CAP. V.

A former Act concerning Replevins and Avowries, to extend to the Principality of Wales and the County Palatines.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the more ſpeedy and effectual proceeding upon Diſtreſſes and Avowries for Rents, Proviſion is made where any Plaintiff ſhall be Nonſuit before Iſſue joyned in any Suit or Replevin, by Plaint or Writ lawfully returned, removed or depending in any of the Kings Courts at Weſtminſter: Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That the ſaid Act, and all the powers and proviſions thereby made for cauſes of Replevins depending in his Majeſties Courts of Weſtminſter, ſhall be extended, and be of the ſame force and efficacy in all cauſes of Replevin, which are or ſhall be depending in his Majeſties Court of Common Pleas for the County Palatine of Lancaſter, the Court of the Great Seſſions of his Majeſties Principality of Wales, the Court of the Great Seſſions or Aſſizes for the County Palatine of Cheſter, and the Court of Common Pleas for the County Palatine of Durham, as fully and as amply for and during the continuance of the ſaid Act, as if the ſaid Courts had been mentioned therein.

CAP. VI.

A Redreſs of Inconveniencies by want of Proof of the Deceaſes of Perſons beyond the Seas, or abſenting themſelves, upon whoſe Lives Eſtates do depend.

Whereas divers Lords of Manors and others have uſed to grant Eſtates by Copy of Court-Roll for one, two, or more life or lives, according to the Cuſtome of their ſeveral Manors; and have alſo granted Eſtates by Leaſe for one or more life or lives, or elſe for years determinable upon one or more life or lives; And it hath often happened, that ſuch perſon or perſons for whoſe life or lives ſuch Eſtates have been granted, have gone beyond the Seas, or ſo abſented themſelves for many years, that the Leſſors and Reverſioners cannot find out whether ſuch perſon or perſons be alive or dead, by reaſon whereof ſuch Leſſors and Reverſioners have been held out of poſſeſſion of their Tenements for many years, after all the lives upon which ſuch Eſtates depend, are dead; in regard that the Leſſors and Reverſioners when they have brought Actions for the recovery of their Tenements, have been put upon it to prove the death of their Tenants, when it is almoſt impoſſible for them to diſcover the ſame:

Perſons beyond the Seas, or abſenting themſelves for ſeven years.

For remedy of which miſchief ſo frequently happening to ſuch Leſſors or Reverſioners, Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual & Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That if ſuch perſon or perſons for whoſe life or lives ſuch Eſtates have been, or ſhall be granted as aforeſaid, ſhall remain beyond the Seas, or elſewhere abſent themſelves in this Realm by the ſpace of Seven years together, and no ſufficient and evident proof be made of the lives of ſuch perſon or perſons reſpectively, in any Action commenced for recovery of ſuch Tenements by the Leſſors or Reverſioners, in every ſuch caſe the perſon or perſons upon whoſe life or lives ſuch Eſtate depended, ſhall be accounted as naturally dead; And in every Action brought for the recovery of the ſaid Tenements by the Leſſors or Reverſioners, their Heirs or Aſſigns, The Judges before whom ſuch Action ſhall be brought, ſhall direct the Jury to give their Verdict, as if the perſon ſo remaining beyond the Seas, or otherwiſe abſenting himſelf, were dead.

What ſhall be a good challenge to Jurors upon trial of Lives in being.

And be it further Enacted, That in any ſuch Action wherein the life or death of any ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall come in queſtion between the Leſſor or Reverſioner, and the Tenant in poſſeſſion, it ſhall and may be lawful for the Leſſor or Reverſioner to take exception to any of the Jurors returned for the trial of that cauſe, that the greateſt part of the real Eſtate of any of ſuch Jurors is held by Leaſe or Copy for lives, who upon proof thereof ſhall be ſet aſide as in caſe of other legal Challenges.

Proviſo for Lands held by lives of certain Traytors attainted.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That nothing in this Act contained ſhall extend to any Lands held by the life or lives of any perſon or perſons attainted of Treaſon for the horrid murder of his late Majeſty of bleſſed Memory, who now conceal or hide themſelves, which Lands are or have been veſted in his Majeſty, and are now granted to his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York, but that the courſe of Evidence heretofore uſed in ſuch caſes ſhall be had and uſed; Any thing to the contrary in this Act notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for perſons evicted by this not being in truth dead.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall be evicted out of any Lands or Tenements by vertue of this Act, and afterwards if ſuch perſon or perſons upon whoſe life or lives ſuch Eſtate or Eſtates depend, ſhall return again from beyond the Seas, or ſhall on proof in any Action to be brought for recovery of the ſame, be made appear to be living, or to have been living at the time of the Eviction, That then, and from thenceforth the Tenant or Leſſee, who was outed of the ſame, his or their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, ſhall or may re-enter, re-poſſeſs, have, hold and enjoy the ſaid Lands or Tenements in his or their former Eſtate, for and during the life or lives, or ſo long term as the ſaid perſon or perſons, upon whoſe life or lives the ſaid Eſtate or Eſtates depend, ſhall be living; and alſo ſhall upon Action or Actions to be brought by him or them againſt the Leſſors, Reverſioners or Tenants in poſſeſſion, or other perſons reſpectively, which ſince the time of the ſaid Eviction received the Profits of the ſaid Lands or Tenements, recover for damages the full Profits of the ſaid Lands or Tenements reſpectively, with lawful Intereſt for and from the time that he or they were outed of the ſaid Lands or Tenements, and kept and held out of the ſame by the ſaid Leſſors, Reverſioners, Tenants, or other perſons, who after the ſaid Eviction received the Profits of the ſaid Lands or Tenements, or any of them reſpectively, aſwell in the caſe when the ſaid perſon or perſons, upon whoſe life or lives ſuch Eſtate or Eſtates did depend, are or ſhall be dead at the time of bringing of the ſaid Action or Actions, as if the ſaid perſon or perſons were then living.

CAP. VII.

Diſturbances of Seamen and others prevented, and to preſerve the Stores belonging to His Majeſties Navy Royal.

16 Car. 2. cap. 5.

Turbulency of Seamen.

VVHereas divers Fightings, Quarrellings and Diſturbances do often happen in and about His Majeſties Offices, Yards and Stores for His Majeſties Royal Navy, and frequent Differences and Diſorders are occaſioned in the Office of His Majeſties Treaſury of the Navy on Pay-days, in London, Portſmouth, and other places of meeting for the Service of the ſaid Navy; And that either by the unreaſonable Turbulency of Seamen and others, attending on, or relating to that Service, or their Creditors, or by the rudeneſs of the Officers intruſted with His Majeſties Stores on Land, or in His Royal Ships, when they are queſtioned by the Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the ſaid Navy, either for neglect or Imbezelment of His Majeſties Proviſions, Ammunition, or other Equipage of the Navy under their Charge; and that not only to the diſturbance of the Peace, but ſometimes to the danger and hindrance of His Majeſties Service, both in point of husbanding His Majeſties Revenue, and alſo on the diſpatch of the Ships, on which the Honour and Safety of His Majeſty and Kingdom ſo much depends; Which inconveniencies require a ſpeedier remedy then the ordinary attendance on the Seſſions of Peace can give; the Parties Accuſed or Offending, being many times bound to Sea, and the principal Officers and Commiſſioners for want of Authority to ſuppreſs ſuch Inſolencies, and determine ſuch Caſes, being neceſſitated to paſſe by many Offences, in which His Majeſty might be righted, if their neceſſary attendance on that important Service would permit the proſecution of the Offendors before other ordinary Judicatures.

Who may examine and puniſh offences and diſturbances committed by Seamen relating to the Navy.

Be therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That the Treaſurer, Comptroller, Surveyor, Clerk of the Acts, and the Commiſſioners of the Navy for the time being, or any one or more of them, have power and Authority to examine and puniſh all ſuch perſon and perſons whom they upon their enquiry, examination, or on view in their preſence, ſhall find hereafter to make, or have made any Diſturbance, Fighting or Quarrelling in the Yards, Stores or Offices aforeſaid, at Pay-dayes, or on other occaſions relating to the Naval Services, in ſuch manner as followeth, (That is to ſay) That they, or any one or more of them, may puniſh any the ſaid Offences, by Fine, Impriſonment, or either of them, the Fine not exceeding Twenty ſhillings, and Impriſonment not exceeding one week; And have power in ſuch caſes to commit ſuch perſons to the next Gaol, or to the cuſtody of the Meſſenger or Meſſengers for the time being attendant on them, who reſpectively are to receive and detain ſuch perſon ſo offending: And that the ſaid principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or the greater number of them preſent, have power to diſcharge ſuch Fine or Impriſonment, if they think fit; And for non-payment of the Fine ſo impoſed and not remitted, to Impriſon the Party offending, untill payment thereof; which ſaid Fines ſhall be paid to the Clerk of the Cheſt, for the uſe of the maimed Seamen; And that the examination of Witneſſes be upon Oath before him or them, which they, any one or more of them are accordingly impowred to Adminiſter.

And it is further by Authority aforeſaid Enacted, That the ſaid Officers and Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them (in caſes where greater example or puniſhment is needful) may alſo bind the perſon or perſons ſo offending, to their good behaviour, with or without Securities, as occaſion ſhall be.

Imbezeling of Stores and Ammunition of the Navy.

And whereas divers of His Majeſties Stores and Ammunition pertaining to his Navy and Shipping, or Service thereof, are imbezelled or filched away, It is by the like authority Enacted, That the ſaid Principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, have power in like manner to inqure and ſearch for the ſame in all places, as Juſtices of Peace may do in caſe of Felony, and puniſh the Offendors by ſuch Fine and Impriſonment as aforeſaid, and cauſe the Goods to be brought in again: And if the Offence be of ſuch nature as doth require an higher and ſeverer puniſhment, Then that they, any one or more of them may commit ſuch Offendor to the next Gaol, or to the cuſtody of their Meſſenger or Meſſengers aforeſaid, till he or they offending enter into Recognizance, with Surety or Sureties, according to the nature of the Offence, to appear and anſwer to the ſame in His Majeſties Court of Exchequer, or other Court where His Majeſty ſhall queſtion him or them for the ſame, within one year following, on Proceſs duly ſerved for that purpoſe on ſuch Offendor or Offendors.

And it is Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That they the ſaid Principal Officers and Commiſſioners, or any one or more of them, may put in uſe the ſaid Powers on the Offendors as aforeſaid, in all places where they hold an Office for His Majeſty, as well within Liberties as without; Any Law, Statute, Ordinance, Charter or Priviledge to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Encouragement of Mariners and Souldiers ſerving in the Fleet.

And for the better encouraging of ſuch Mariners and Souldiers as now do, or ſhall ſerve His Majeſty in His Fleet or Ships during this War, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Ordinary, Regiſter or other Officer belonging to any Eccleſiaſtical Court, or Court of Orphans, or any Juriſdiction whatſoever within the Kingdom of England, or Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick, ſhall take or receive of the Executor or Adminiſtrator, Executors or Adminiſtrators of any Mariner or Souldier dying in the pay of His Majeſties Navy during this preſent War, above the ſum of Twelve pence for the Probate of any Will, Regiſtring the ſame, granting Letters of Adminiſtration, exhibiting any Inventory, or for any other matter or thing relating thereunto; And for every default herein by wilful delay in the doing, granting, or executing the Premiſſes, the perſon or perſons ſo offending, ſhall forfeit to the party grieved the ſum of Ten pounds, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information in any of His Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere, wherein no Eſſoine, Priviledge, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed; Any Law or Statute, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Continuance of this Act.

This Act to continue for Two years, from the Firſt day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix; and from thence to the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament.

CAP. VIII.

Twelve hundred fifty ſix thouſand three hundred forty ſeven pounds thirteen ſhillings granted to the Kings Majeſty, towards the Maintenance of the preſent War, to commence January the 26th. 1667. and to be paid in eleven Moneths, at 114213 li. 8 s. 5 d. ob. the Moneth. EXP.

CAP. IX.

Accompts of ſeveral Sums of Money, how to be taken.

WHereas many and great Aides and Proviſions have been Given, Raiſed, and Aſſigned for the neceſſary Defence of your Majeſty and your Kingdoms, in the late great and important Wars; To the end that both your Majeſty and this whole Kingdom may be ſatisfied, and truly informed, whether all the ſame Moneys and Proviſions have been faithfully iſſued out and expended in and about the Preparing and Setting forth of your Royal Navy, and other the Management and carrying on the ſaid War, and with ſuch Care, Fidelity, and good Husbandry, as the nature of ſuch Services would admit of, according to your Majeſties own Gracious and Princely deſires, and the earneſt expectation of your moſt Loyal Subjects, then which, nothing can encourage them more chearfully to undergo the like burthens in time to come, for the neceſſary Defence of your Majeſty and your Realms.

Commiſſioners for taking the accompts of 2400000. &c.

May it therefore pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament Aſſembled, and by the authority thereof, That William Lord Brereton Baron of Laughtyn in the Kingdom of Ireland, William Peirepoint Eſquire, Sir George Savile Baronet, Giles Dunſter Eſquire, Sir

James Langham Knight, Henry Osborn Eſquire, Sir William Turner Alderman of the City of London, George Tomſon Eſquire, and John Gregory Eſquire, or any Five or more of them, ſhall be Commiſſioners for the taking of the Accompts of the ſum of Twenty four hundred threeſcore and ſeventeen thouſand and five hundred pounds, granted by a late Act of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting of a Royal Aid to the Kings Majeſty, of Twenty four hundred threeſcore and ſeventeen thouſand and five hundred pounds, to be raiſed, levied and paid in the ſpace of Three years; and of Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds granted by another late Act of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting the ſum of Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds to the Kings Majeſty for his preſent further Supply; And of Two hundred and ten thouſand pounds granted for Three Moneths, at the rate of Threeſcore and ten thouſand pounds per menſem, by another Act, intituled, An Act for Ordering the Forces in the ſeveral Counties of this Kingdom. And alſo for taking the Accompts of all ſuch Moneys as have been raiſed or charged by a late Act of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for raiſing Moneys by a Poll and otherwiſe, towards the maintenance of the preſent War: And by another Act of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Explanatory Act for raiſing Moneys by a Poll and otherwiſe, towards the maintenance of the preſent War: And of the ſum of Twelve hundred fifty ſix thouſand three hundred forty ſeven pounds thirteen ſhillings, granted by another late Act of this preſent Parliament, intituled, An Act for granting the ſum of Twelve hundred fifty ſix thouſand three hundred forty ſeven pounds thirteen ſhillings to the Kings Majeſty, towards the maintenance of the preſent War: And of all ſuch Moneys as have ariſen by the Cuſtoms granted to his Majeſty, by an Act of this preſent Parliament, and have been applied to the ſervice of the War; and of ſuch Prizes as have been taken during the ſaid late War, for his Majeſties uſe; and of all other Moneys, Proviſions, and things whatſoever, which have been raiſed or aſſigned for or towards the fitting, furniſhing, or ſetting out to Sea any of the Navies or Ships imployed in the ſaid late War, or for or touching the Management or Maintenance thereof. And to that end, the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them, are hereby authorized and required to call before them all Treaſurers, Receivers, Pay-maſters, Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of the Navy and Ordnance reſpectively, Victuallers, Purſers, Muſter-maſters and Clerks of the Cheque, Accomptants, and all Officers and Keepers of his Majeſties Stores and Proviſions for War, as well for Land as Sea, and all other perſons whatſoever imployed in the Management of the ſaid War, or requiſite for the Diſcovery of any Frauds relating thereunto, To make perfect and true Accompts of all ſuch of the Moneys as have come to any of their hands reſpectively; and to bring in and deliver the ſame to the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any Five or more of them without delay: And alſo, to bring in their ſeveral Books of accompts, Vouchers and Acquittances, Contracts, Muſter-Rolls, Cheque-rolls, Cheque-books, and all other Books and Writings whatſoever, touching or concerning the premiſſes, to be peruſed, tryed and examined by the ſaid Commiſſioners, whereby it may appear what Moneys have been received, and how the ſame have been diſburſed; and what Ammunition, Proviſions and Stores of any kind which were in his Majeſties Store-houſes, or Yards, or elſewhere, have been Imployed in the ſaid War, after the Firſt day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four; and what Ships and other Veſſels his Majeſty then had for the Service of the War, together with their ſeveral Equipages and Furniture; and what Moneys or other Proviſions or Materials have been paid or delivered to the hands of the ſaid Treaſurers, Receivers, Pay-maſters, Victuallers, Purſers, or other Accomptants, or any of the ſaid Officers or Keepers of his Majeſties Stores; and when the ſame was ſo paid or delivered, and how and at what time or times the ſame have been diſpoſed of, and to whom and for what uſe or uſes; and to examine the Rates and Prices ſet upon any Proviſions, Wares or Materials bought or provided for the Service of the ſaid War, and what the ſame were then truly worth, and what was really paid for the ſame, and by whom, and to whom, and when the ſame was ſo bought and paid for, and how the ſame Proviſions, Wares and Materials have been imployed or diſpoſed of, and by what Warrant; and to examine all ſuch Merchants and Tradeſmen, and their Books, Receipts and Acquittances, and all ſuch Sea men and others as ſhall be thought fit to be heard touching any Frauds, Oppreſſions or Exactions practiſed or uſed by any perſon or perſons intruſted or imployed in or about the payment or receipt of any of the ſaid Moneys, or the buying or providing of any of the ſaid Proviſions, Wares or Materials, or the cuſtody, ordering or diſpoſing of the ſame, and to what Value, and what Gain or Advantage was made thereby, and by whom and where, and about what time the ſame was done; and to enquire and find out whether any, and which of the Sea-men and others have been defrauded of any of their Præmiums or Rewards, Victuals, Clothes, Pillage or other allowances or benefits aſſigned, promiſed, or appointed to any of them, for or in reſpect of their Service in the ſaid War, and by whom and to what value; And to enquire and find out what Moneys have been, or ought to have been ſet apart for the Cheſt, from the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, and how the ſame have been paid and diſpoſed of, and whether any part thereof hath been defalked or detained from the perſons to whom it was due and payable, and how much much, when, and by whom, and upon what pretence the ſame was done; And whether any ſums of Money, and how much ariſing by the Cuſtoms and Subſidy of Tonnage and Poundage, ever ſince the Firſt of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty four, hath been iſſued and allowed for and towards the maintenance of the ſaid War; and alſo to enquire and find out the numbers and values of all the Prize-ſhips and Goods which have been taken for his Majeſties uſe during the ſaid War, and their ſeveral Bills of Lading, and how the ſame Ships and Goods, or any of them have been appriſed, valued, ſold, imbezelled, or otherwiſe diſpoſed of; and how the prices or moneys thereof ariſing, have been accompted for to his Majeſty; and what frauds or abuſes have been committed therein, and by whom, and for what value: And to

CAP. XI.

Prize Ships made free for Trade.

WHereas by ſeveral Acts of Parliament heretofore and of late paſt, It appears how great encouragement hath been given unto Trade, and Care taken that the Manufacture of Shipping be preſerved and increaſed throughout Your Majeſties whole Kingdoms, Dominions and Territories, both conducing ſo much to the Wealth, Increaſe of Mariners, and Strength of Your Dominions, By reaſon of ſome of which Acts at this time, and after this late War, when Your Majeſties Subjects in Your ſeveral Ports have loſt ſome of their own Engliſh built Ships, and taken many Dutch, Dane, and French, they cannot make uſe in Trade of thoſe Veſſels taken as Prizes in the late War, though lawfully condemned in Your Admiralties of England and Ireland, or in the Admiralties of Your Forreign Plantations, and in the poſſeſſion of your ſaid Subjects:

Be

Forreign built Ships belonging to Engliſh men, &c. taken in the late Wars and condemned by the Admiralties, may enjoy the benefit of Engliſh built Ships.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all Forreign built Ships which really, and bona fide do or ſhall onely belong to his Majeſties Subjects of the Kingdom of England or Ireland, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, and which have during the late War in the Places where now the Peace hath concluded it, or ſhall be taken in the places yet in hoſtility as Prizes, within the ſeveral times preſcribed, in the ſeveral places mentioned in the late Articles of Peace with the French King, and the King of Denmark and the States General of the United Netherlands, and have or ſhall be adjudged Prizes within the reſpective Admiralties of his Majeſties Kingdoms of England or Ireland, or in any of the Admiralties in His Majeſties Territories or Plantations abroad, ſhall be deemed, adjudged and taken to be, and ſhall from time to time enjoy the benefit of free Ships belonging to the Kingdoms of England and Ireland, Dominion of VVales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed reſpectively, and ſhall Export and Import Goods, Wares, and Merchandiſe, as freely, and to all intents and purpoſes, as Forreign built Ships that did belong to the Kingdom of England before the Firſt day of April, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and one, might then have done, and not in any other manner; Any Law, Statute, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Owners muſt take an Oath that no Forreigner hath intereſt therein.

Provided nevertheleſs, That the Owner or Owners, and Proprietors of the ſaid Ships ſhall take an Oath, at or before the firſt day of Auguſt next enſuing, or within three moneths after ſuch Ship ſhall be taken and Adjudged Prize, before the Officers of his Majeſties cuſtoms of the Port next to the place of their abode, (which Oath the ſaid Officers have hereby power to adminiſter) That they are the true and lawful Owners and Proprietors of the ſaid Forreign built Ships reſpectively: And that no Forreigner or Alien, directly or indirectly, have any part, ſhare or Intereſt therein; And that he or they produce the Adjudication and Condemnation of the ſaid Ship as taken and made Prize during the late War as aforeſaid, by one of the before mentioned Admiralties.

Certificates thereof.

And be it further Enacted, That all ſuch Officers of the Cuſtoms, before whom ſuch oath ſhall be ſo made, ſhall from time to time give Certificates under their reſpective Hands and Seals, belonging to their reſpective Officers, to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall demand the the ſame, of all ſuch Forreign built Ships, and ſhall keep a Regiſter of the ſaid Ships, and ſhall within two Moneths next after ſuch Oath ſo made, return a Duplicate thereof to the chief Officers of the Cuſtoms at London, for all ſuch Ships as do ſo belong to any Port or place within the Kingdom of England, Dominion of VVales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed; and to the chief Officers at the Port of Dublin for all ſuch Ships as ſhall belong to the Kingdom of Ireland; and to the chief Officers in the chief Ports of any of His Majeſties Plantations, for all ſuch Ships as ſhall belong to any of the ſaid Plantations abroad; the ſaid chief Officers at the Port of Dublin, and in the ſeveral Ports of the ſeveral Plantations, being within two Moneths next after ſuch Oath ſo made, to return Certificates thereof unto the chief Officers of the Cuſtoms at London, together alſo with the names of all ſuch perſons as are the Owners of ſuch reſpective Ships, to the end ſuch Certificates or Duplicates may and ſhall be returned into His Majeſties Court of Exchequer in England, there to remain upon Record.

Wales.
Berwick.
Dublin.
Ireland.

Boſton.

Provided nevertheleſs, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Ship or Galliot-Hoy (Flemiſh built) called the Margaret, and the Ship or Barque called by the name of John and Francis, Flemiſh built, both belonging to the Port of Boſton, being Veſſels bought and brought into the ſaid Port before the Concluſion of the late Peace, or His Majeſties Proclamation for Peace, are hereby made free Ships and Veſſels, and are to be ſo deemed, taken, and adjudged, and ſhall have liberty to Trade as the Ships mentioned in this Act taken and adjudged Prize in His Majeſties ſeveral Admiralties as Engliſh built Ships, Any thing in this Act or any other to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XII.

Orders in the Exchequer may be aſſigned without Revocation.

VVHereas it hath been found by experience upon the late Act for Twelve hundred and fifty thouſand pounds, made at Oxford, and other Acts of Parliament ſince that time, That the power of Aſſigning of Orders in the Exchequer upon thoſe Acts, without Revocation, hath been of great uſe and advantage to the perſons concerned in them, and to the Trade of this Kingdom, and given great Credit to his Majeſties Exchequer: Be it enacted, And it is hereby enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, That every perſon or perſons, Native or Foreigner, Bodies Politick or Corporate, to whom any Moneys ſhall be due in your Majeſties Exchequer, and ſhall have any Order Regiſtred in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, for the payment thereof out of any branch of your Majeſties Revenue; That ſuch perſon or perſons, Native or Foreigner, Bodies Politique or Corporate, their Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns reſpectively, by endorſement of their Order, may aſſign and transfer their Right, Title, Intereſt and Benefit of ſuch Order or any part thereof, to any other; which being notified in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt aforeſaid, and an Entry and Memorial thereof alſo made in the Book of Regiſtry aforeſaid for ſuch Orders (which the Officers ſhall on requeſt accordingly make) ſhall entitle ſuch Aſſignee, his Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, or Succeſſors reſpectively, ta the benefit thereof, and payment thereon; And ſuch Aſſignee may in like manner aſſign again, and ſo Toties quoties; And afterwards it ſhall not be in the power of ſuch perſon or perſons who have made ſuch Aſſignments, to make void, releaſe or diſcharge the ſame, or any the Moneys thereby due, or any part thereof.

Orders Regiſtred in the Auditors Office of the Receipt, may be aſſigned.

The Aſſignor may not revoke his aſſignment.

And it is hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Aſſignment ſhall be for any ſum not exceeding One hundred pounds ſterling, That the Auditor of the Receipt ſhall not take or receive, by way of Fee or Reward for himſelf and his Clerks, above the ſum of Six pence for making an Entry or Memorial thereof: And in caſe any Aſſignment ſhall be for any Sum exceeding One hundred pound ſterling, That the Auditor of the Receipt ſhall not take or receive for himſelf and his Clerks, by way of Fee or Reward, above Twelve pence for making an Entry or Memorial thereof.

Auditors Fee.

And it is hereby further enacted, That this Act ſhall continue and be in full force until the Tenth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy four, and unto the end of the Seſſion of Parliament then next enſuing, and no longer.

The continuance of this Act.

CAP. XIII.

Freedom and Intercourſe of Trade between England and Scotland, Setled.

Whereas your moſt Excellent Majeſty was pleaſed on the firſt day of this Seſſions of Parliament, to recommend to your Two Houſes of Parliament, the due Setling of the Trade between your Subjects of Scotland; your ſaid Two Houſes having taken the ſame into their ſerious conſideration, Do for the better Intercourſe and Freedom of Trade between your ſaid Kingdoms, moſt humbly beſeech your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That it may be enacted; And be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That Twelve perſons to be nominated by your Majeſty, be Commiſſioners for this Kingdom, who, or any Five or more of them, ſhall by force of this Act, from and after the Tenth day of January, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſeven, have full power, Commiſſion and Authority at any time or times before the Twenty fifth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty eight, and ſo from time to time, to aſſemble and meet at any place by the Kings Majeſty to be appointed within the Kingdom of England, and thereupon to Treat and Conſult, as alſo to conclude and determine with certain ſelected Commiſſioners to be nominated, and ſufficiently authorized of and for the Realm of Scotland, of and concerning the Freedom and Liberty of Trade between the Kingdome of England, and the Kingdome of Scotland, by ſuſpending all or any of the Duties and Impoſitions, or any part of them, or of any of them, which have at any time ſince the Five and twentieth day of March, in the Twelfth year of his Majeſties Reign, been charged, ſetled, laid, or impoſed upon all, or any the Commodities of the Growth, Production, or Manufacture of either of the ſaid Kingdoms, or upon any Commodities of any of the Plantations or Dominions belonging to the Kingdom of England, or any other Foreign Commodities Exported out of the ſaid Kingdom into the Kingdom of Scotland; And likewiſe by Suſpending any penalties or Forfeitures, or any part of them, for not due payment of the ſaid Duties and Impoſitions: And what ſhall be concluded and determined by and between the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Realm of England, or any Five of them, which the ſaid Commiſſioners for the Realm of Scotland, according to the tenour or purport of their authority or Commiſſion in that behalf; the ſame being reduced in writing under the hands and ſeals of the ſaid Commiſſioners of both Kingdoms, and being alſo approved of, Ratified and Confirmed by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, ſhall be in full force and effect for the term of one whole year, to be accounted from the Date of ſuch Ratification and Confirmation by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, or until the end of the next Seſſion of Parliament which ſhall firſt happen, and no longer; Any Law or Statute to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Twelve Engliſh Commiſſioners to meet ſome from Scotland to Treat with concerning Liberty and Freedome of Trade.

Who may ſuſpend Penalties.

The agreement between them drawn into writing, ſhall be of force.

Proviſo for Retailers.

Provided always, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no Retailer chargeable by this Act, nor any other perſon or perſons, who ſhall be ſummoned by the Commiſſioners for the execution of this Act in manner aforeſaid, and for any the ends or purpoſes aforeſaid, ſhall be obliged to travel beyond ten miles from his common and uſual place of abode.

Repayment of the Impoſition upon Exportation.

Provided alſo, That if any Retailer of any Strong-waters Imported, Brandy, or other Spirits herein before charged, ſhall Export into Foreign parts any ſuch Strong-Waters, Brandy, or other Spirits, ſo as aforeſaid charged, and ſhall before the Shipping out, or Lading on board of ſuch Strong-waters, Brandy, or other Spirits, make Oath before the Commiſſioners for execution of this Act, or ſo many of them as ſhall be of the Quorum, That the ſaid Strong-waters, Brandy, or other Spirits ſo intended to be exported, are ſuch for which the rate of Twelve pence a Quart hath been formerly paid, and unmingled with any Waters made of Engliſh materials; which Oath the ſaid Commiſſioners, or ſo many as be of the Quorum, have hereby power to adminiſter; That then, and in ſuch caſe, there ſhall be repaid unto every ſuch Retailer at the time of ſuch Exportation, the whole Duty of Twelve pence per Quart by him formerly paid; Any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Penalty of the Merchant-Importer for ſelling contrary to this Act.

And to the end that all and every the Retailers of Wine may be the better enabled to carry on their Trade, and to pay and ſatisfie all and every the duties impoſed, Be it further enacted, That if any Merchant-Importer from and after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, during the continuance of this Act, ſhall utter or ſell any Wine to any Retailer or other perſon (other then ſuch perſon who ſhall export the ſame) and ſhall directly or indirectly aſk, demand, or receive of, or from ſuch perſon, any ſum of money, gift, or other reward, exceeding the price at which the ſame ought by Law to be ſold; That then, and in ſuch caſe, every Merchant-Importer, ſhall forfeit and loſe for every Tun of Wine ſo unduly ſold and uttered as aforeſaid, the ſum of Twenty pounds; and ſo after that rate for a greater or leſſer quantity.

The penalties how they ſhall be recovered and divided.

And be it further Enacted, That one moyety of all and every the penalties and ſums of Money herein before appointed to be forfeited, ſhall be forfeited unto the Kings Majeſty, and the other moyety unto ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall or will ſue for the ſame, and ſhall and may be ſued for in any Court of Record, and recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more then one Imparlance.

Commiſſioners to take an Oath.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every the Commiſſioners to be appointed for execution of this Act, ſhall before they intermeddle with the execution of this Act, or any other part of their Commiſſion, take an Oath before Two or more of his Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace, in the County where ſuch Commiſſion is to be executed, or before one of the Barons of the Exchequer; which Oath he or they have power to adminiſter in theſe words:

You ſhall ſwear, well and truly to execute the place of a Commiſſioner for execution of an Act, Intituled, An Act for Raiſing of Three hundred and ten thouſand pounds by an Impoſition on Wines and other Liquors; and therein you ſhall ſpare no perſon for favour or affection, nor any perſon grieve for hatred or ill-will. So help you God.

And the Officers alſo.

And all and every perſon and perſons to be imployed by the Commiſſioners for execution of this Act, ſhall before they execute ſuch their Imployments, take an Oath before the Commiſſioners for execution of this Act, or any two of them; which Oath they have hereby power to adminiſter in theſe words:

You ſhall ſwear, well and truly to demean your ſelf in the Execution of the Warrants to you directed, in purſuance of an Act, Entituled, An Act for Raiſing Three hundred and ten thouſand Pounds by an Impoſition on Wines and other Liquors: You ſhall ſpare no perſon for favour or affection, nor any perſon grieve for hatred or ill will. So help you God.

Commiſſioners to be appointed by the King under the Great Seal.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for his Majeſty from time to time, during the continuance of this preſent Act, by Commiſſions to be therefore iſſued under his Majeſties Great Seal of England, to nominate and appoint ſuch perſons as his Majeſty ſhall think fit to be Commiſſioners for putting in execution this preſent Act, and all and every the powers and authorities to ſuch Commiſſioners reſpectively limited and appointed; and alſo to appoint ſuch or ſo many of them to be a Quorum, as his Majeſty ſhall think fit.

The Duties ſhall not be twice charged and how the ſame ſhall be prevented.

And to the end that no ſorts of Wines or Strong-waters mentioned in this Act ſhall be twice charged with the Duties impoſed by this Act, or any part thereof, (though it may happen to paſs through the hands of ſeveral Retailers) Be it further Enacted, That whereſoever any Retailer ſhall ſell any the Liquors aforeſaid to any other perſon retailing the ſame, every ſuch Retailer ſhall before the delivery thereof pay or ſecure the Duty due for the ſame by virtue of this Act, or make Oath the ſame hath been formerly paid or ſecured, and take a Certificate under the Hands and Seals of the Commiſſioners, or any two of them, of the payment or ſecuring thereof: Which Oath and Certificate the Commiſſioners, or any two of them, are hereby authoriſed and required to adminiſter and give without Fee or Reward; which ſaid Certificate ſhall be a ſufficient Diſcharge to the Buyer for Retailing the ſame.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons to whom by Authority of this Act an Oath ſhall be adminiſtred, ſhall wilfully and falſly forſwear him or her ſelf, ſuch wilful and falſe forſwearing ſhall be taken and adjudged for wilful Perjury; And ſuch perſon or perſons ſhall and may be proceeded againſt in ſuch manner to all intents and purpoſes, as by the Laws and Statutes of this Realm in caſes of Perjury is provided and appointed, and ſhall ſuffer and incur (upon Conviction) like Pains and Penalties, as by the ſaid Laws and Statutes are appointed to be inflicted and impoſed.

The puniſhment of ſuch as ſhall forſwear themſelves.

ſeventy, ſhall be raiſed, or ſecured to be raiſed, upon the aforeſaid additional duty of Four pounds per Tun, in leſs time then One year, Then and from thenceforth the ſaid additional duty is to ceaſe, and no further to be collected or demanded, or any part thereof, by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, other then what ſhall be then ſecured and unpaid.

When this Act ſhall determine and expire.

And that the Determination and Expiration of this Act, and the matters and things therein contained, may clearly appear to all perſons concerned; The Commiſſioners in this Act, or the major part of them that ſhall be then living, are hereby authoriſed and required to take ſpecial care, that at what time ſoever they ſhall find the Moneys mentioned and intended by this Act for His Majeſties Supply, to be fully raiſed, That then they ſignifie the ſame under their Hands and Seals to the Kings Majeſty, and alſo to both Houſes of Parliament (if then ſitting) and to the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being; which ſaid Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, are hereby authoriſed and required to iſſue out Orders within Ten dayes after ſuch notice and Declaration, to the Officers imployed and appointed by His Majeſty, for collecting the aforeſaid additional duty of Four pounds per Tun upon all Wines, and other Liquors chargeable by this Act, to the intent that no perſon may preſume further to collect, or demand the ſame, or any part thereof; But that this Act, and every clauſe, matter and thing therein contained, from the expiration of the ſaid Ten days ſhall ceaſe and determine, as if the ſame had never been made.

How the money raiſed by this Act ſhall be imployed.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That the whole ſum of Three hundred and ten thouſand pounds granted by this preſent Act, ſhall be imployed, and iſſued out of Your Majeſties Exchequer, for defraying the Charge and Expence of ſetting out an Extraordinary Fleet to Sea, for the year One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty eight, and for the Pay of ſuch Officers, Mariners, Seamen, and others as ſhall ſerve Aboard the ſaid Fleet, for the time they ſhall ſerve in the ſame; and ſhall not be imployed, or iſſued for any other uſe, ſervice or purpoſe whatſoever, charge of collection and bringing in of the ſaid Moneys only excepted, which in the whole is not to exceed Ten thouſand pounds; And that to this end all the Money ariſing by this Act, and paid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſhall be there kept apart, and diſtinct from all other Moneys paid or payable to Your Majeſty, or to your Heirs or Succeſſors, upon any other Branch of your Majeſties Revenue, or upon any other accompt whatſoever.

And to the intent that all moneys to be lent to your Majeſty upon the Credit of this Act, by any perſon or perſons, Native or Foreigner, Bodies politique or corporate, may be well and ſufficiently ſecured out of the moneys ariſing and payable thereby; Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be kept in your Majeſties Exchequer, to wit, in the Office of the Auditor of the Receipt, a Book of Regiſtry of all Orders, to be made and ſigned by the Lord Treaſurer, and Under-Treaſurer, or by the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, for payment of all ſuch ſums of money as ſhall be lent and furniſhed to your Majeſty upon the Credit of this preſent Act, together with the Intereſt thereof, after the Rate of Six per cent. for a year; as likewiſe for all other Orders made and ſigned as aforeſaid, for the payment or iſſuing of the ſaid Three hundred and ten thouſand pounds, and every part thereof to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, to the uſes and purpoſes herein before mentioned and intended. And that no money ariſing by this Act, or furniſhed upon the Credit thereof be iſſued out of the Exchequer, but by ſuch Order mentioning that the moneys payable by the ſame, are for the charge and expence of the ſaid Fleet, or for the payment of the Officers, Mariners, Seamen, and others imployed therein as aforeſaid, or for the charge of collection and bringing in of the moneys ariſing by this Act; And that all the Orders before mentioned ſhall be Regiſtred in courſe according to the reſpective dates; ſo as that the perſon, his Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, who ſhall have his Order or Orders firſt Entred in the ſaid Book of Regiſtry, ſhall be taken & accounted as the firſt perſon to be paid out of the moneys to come in by vertue of this Act; and he or they who ſhall have his or their Order or Orders next Entred, ſhall be taken and accounted the ſecond perſon to be paid, and ſo ſucceſſively and in courſe; and that the moneys to come in by this Act ſhall be in the ſame Order liable to the ſatisfaction of the ſaid reſpective parties, their Executors, Adminiſtrators or Aſſigns, Native or Foreigner, Bodies politique or corporate ſucceſſively, without preference of one before another, and not otherwiſe, and not be divertible to any other uſe, intent or purpoſe, upon any account or reaſon whatſoever.

A diſtinct Regiſtry to be kept in the Exchequer.

Orders to be Regiſtred in courſe, and ſo paid.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all moneys lent upon the Credit of this Act, ſhall be imployed and iſſued for the uſes above mentioned, and no other; and that no Fee, Reward or Gratuity, directly or indirectly be demanded or taken of any of Your Majeſties Subjects for providing or making of ſuch Regiſter or Entries, or for payment of any money lent, or the intereſt thereof: And that all moneys ariſing by this Act, or lent upon the Credit thereof, which ſhall be paid and iſſued out of the Exchequer to the Treaſurer or Victualler of your Majeſties Navy, or to the Lieutenant of the Ordnance, ſhall be by them reſpectively wholly imployed to the uſes aforeſaid, and not otherwiſe.

Without Fee.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Treaſurer of His Majeſties Navy, for himſelf, his Deputies and Clerks, ſhall receive and retain only the ſum of One peny in the pound, and no more; and the Lieutenant or Treaſurer of His Majeſties Ordnance, for himſelf and his Clerk, ſhall likewiſe receive and retain onely One peny in the pound, and no more, out of all the moneys raiſed, borrowed and paid unto, and iſſued out by either of them to any perſon or perſons, by vertue and in purſuance of this Act, to be allowed in their reſpective Accompts thereof.

Treaſurer of the Navy, and Lieutenant or Treaſurer of the Ordnance their allowance.

Payment of Moneys Received for the Uſe of the Crown, Rectified.

Abuſes by Receivers, Bayliffs, &c.

FOr ſome remedy of the great Abuſes by Receivers, Reeves, Bailiffs, Collectors, and other Officers and perſons not making due payment of Moneys and Duties received for His Majeſties Uſe, and in detaining the ſame in their own hands, for their private lucre and advantage; Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That all the ſaid Officers and Miniſters aforeſaid, do uſe all diligence to receive and gather the Moneys due to His Majeſty, within their ſeveral and reſpective Receipts and Collections; And after the receipt thereof, to anſwer and pay the ſame according to their reſpective Duties: And that all and every the perſon and perſons aforeſaid, who having received the ſaid moneys, have not duely accompted, and thereupon paid ſo much as by ſuch Accompt reſted due to His Majeſty, into the Receipt of the Exchequer, or to ſuch perſon or perſons, and in ſuch manner as the ſame ought to be paid, and ſhall not pay the ſame as aforeſaid, before the Firſt day of July, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord God, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty eight, ſhall from henceforth anſwer and pay to His Majeſty, Damages after the rate of Twelve pounds per Cent. by the year, until the principal Moneys be fully accompted for and paid in, together with Damages as aforeſaid, which ſhall be charged upon them in their Accompt, whereof they ſhall not be diſcharged until payment made, as well of the ſaid Damages, as principal Moneys, according to the true meaning of this Act.

Moneys received for the Kings uſe to be paid into the Exchequer.

The penalty for neglect.

And further, That all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies Politique and Corporate, who having received any Moneys or Duties due to the Kings Majeſty, ſhall not duly accompt for, and pay the ſame according to the courſe of the Exchequer, into the Receipt there, or to ſuch perſon or perſons to whom the ſame ought to be paid according to Law, within Two moneths next after the ſame ſhall have been ſo received, ſhall from thenceforth anſwer and pay to the Kings Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, Damages for all ſuch moneyes and Duties, after the rate of Twelve pounds per. Cent. by the year, for ſo long time as the ſame ſhall be detained, or not paid, by the judgment and direction of the Court of Exchequer, without any power of abatement or inſtalment to be made or allowed for the ſame, or any part thereof; And that the Proceſs of the ſaid Court ſhall be forthwith awarded againſt all the ſaid perſons, Bodies Politique and Corporate, their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, chargeable with any of the ſaid moneys, for the ſpeedy and effectual Levying thereof, with damages for the ſame as aforeſaid, according to the true meaning of this Act; Any other Law, Statute, Uſage, Priviledge or pretence whatſoever to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proceſs to be awarded.

Provided alwayes, That no thing herein contained ſhall extend to alter the time or way of Accompting of any Sheriff within this Kingdom, for any part of His Majeſties ancient Revenue, or other profits anciently collected or accompted for by the Sheriffs, or to make them liable to any new penalty for the ſame.

Proviſo for Sheriffs Accounts.

CAP. III.

The Increaſe and Preſervation of Timber within the Forreſt of Dean, provided for.

FOraſmuch as the Wood and Timber of the Crown, which of late years was of very great quantity and value within the Forreſt or late Forreſt of Dean in the County of Glouceſter, is become totally deſtroyed, excepting what is ſtanding within the Woodwardſhip of the Lea-Baily; whereby there is an apparent Scarcity of Timber there, as in all other parts of this Kingdom; ſo that ſome courſe is neceſſary to be ſpeedily taken to reſtore and preſerve the Growth of Timber, for the future ſupply of His Majeſties Royal Navy, and the maintenance of Shipping for the Trade of this Nation:

Scarcity of Timber.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That Ten thouſand Acres, part of the Waſte-Lands of the ſaid late Forreſt of Dean, ſhall be incloſed and kept in ſeveralty, for the Growth and Preſervation of Timber; And that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for His Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, forthwith to incloſe, ſever, and improve within and out of the parts or places of the Waſte-Lands of the ſaid Forreſt or late Forreſt of Dean, the whole containing by eſtimation about Twenty three thouſand Acres, the full quantity of Ten thouſand Acres of Statute-meaſure, at ſixteen Foot and half to the Perch, whereof the ſaid Woodwardſhip of the Lea-Baily containing about Eleven hundred Acres to be part; And alſo the Grounds called by the ſeveral names of Cannop, Feller, Buckholt, Beachinhurſt, and Moyry-Stock (containing about one thouſand Acres, heretofore granted to John Gibbon, John Manſil, and Ambroſe Bavin, ſome or one of them, and now belonging unto or claimed by Baniſtree Mainard Eſquire, which added to the Ten thouſand Acres, ſhall make up the full quantity of Eleven thouſand acres to be incloſed as aforeſaid) to be part, the ſaid Eleven thouſand acres to be ſet out by vertue of His Majeſties Commiſſion to be directed to ſix or more ſuch perſons as His Majeſty ſhall think fit (whereof two which ſhall execute ſuch Commiſſion to be Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County, inhabiting near the parts and places of the ſaid Forreſt) out of ſuch part and places of the ſaid Waſte as ſhall be found or eſteemed by the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any three of them, to be moſt convenient to be incloſed, and to be moſt apt and meet to produce Wood and Timber for the future benefit of the Kingdom, and may be beſt ſpared from the uſe of the Commoners, and High-wayes of the County; which ſaid Incloſures ſhall be forthwith admeaſured by a ſworn Surveyor, and ſet out and incloſed, butted and bounded, and the Quantities, Butts, and Boundaries thereof returned into His Majeſties

Ten thouſand acres in the Forreſt of Dean to be incloſed.

And one thouſand acres.

Court of Exchequer, there to remain of Record for ever; And the ſaid Incloſures ſo made and ſet out as aforeſaid, to remain in ſeveralty in the actual poſſeſſion of the Crown for ever, freed and diſcharged of, and from all manner of Right, Title and Pretence whatſoever, (excepting of Fee-Deer) according to the purport and intent of this preſent Act, and ſhall be made and reputed a Nurſery for Wood and Timber onely.

Commiſſioners may ſell decayed Trees to make and maintain the ſaid Incloſures.

And for defraying the Charge of the ſaid Incloſures to be made as aforeſaid, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Commiſſioners ſo to be authorized as aforeſaid, or any ſix of them, (whereof ſome Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County, inhabiting near the parts of the ſaid Foreſt, to be two) ſhall by Sale of the decayed Trees of Beech, Birch, Hawthorn, Haſle, and Holley, and other ſuch like Trees not being Timber, or that can ever prove Timber, now ſtanding or growing in or upon the Waſtes within the ſaid Foreſt or late Foreſt, raiſe moneys for defraying the charge of making and maintaining the ſaid Incloſures; And alſo for the ſatiſfaction of the Claim or Intereſt of Baniſtree Mainard in the Lands aforeſaid, which are to be made part of the ſaid quantity of Eleven thouſand Acres as aforeſaid, in full ſatiſfaction and recompence for the ſame.

And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That the ſaid Lands ſo ſet forth as aforeſaid, ſhall be fully and perfectly incloſed with ſufficient Mounds and Fences, according to the true intent and purport of this Act, within two years after the Feaſt of St. George now next enſuing.

When and how much ſhall be laid open, and by what authority.

As much ſhall be incloſed anew as hath been ſo opened.

Wood fit to be felled, muſt be viewed and marked by the Juſtices.

The penalty for cutting wood contrary to this act.

And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That at all times hereafter, whenſoever the Lord Treaſurer of England, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or Chancellor of the Exchequer for the time being, ſhall at any time or times hereafter be ſatiſfied, and ſhall determine that the Woods and Trees, which ſhall be growing on the ſaid Eleven thouſand Acres, or any part thereof, ſo to be incloſed as aforeſaid, are become paſt danger of the browſing of Deer, Cattle, or other prejudice, and ſhall think fit to lay the ſame, or any part thereof, conſiſting of Five hundred Acres or more, open and in Common, ſhall cauſe the ſame to be ſo done; That then and ſo often it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Kings Majeſty, His Heirs and Succeſſors, from time to time to Incloſe in lieu of ſo much as ſhall be ſo laid Open out of the ſaid Eleven thouſand Acres, the like quantity out of any other part of the reſidue of the ſaid Waſtes, to be ſet out by like Commiſſion and Admeaſurement as aforeſaid; And to be holden Incloſed, Freed and Diſcharged of and from all manner of Common, Eſtovers, Herbage or Pannage, and other Rights, excepting Fee-Deer as aforeſaid, for ſo long time as the ſame ſhall remain and continue Incloſed, according to the purport, direction, and intent of this preſent Act, to be a Nurſery for Timber as aforeſaid, inſtead of ſo much as ſhall be laid Open according to the direction aforeſaid: And whenſoever any Wood or Timber ſhall at any time or times hereafter be directed to be fallen in any part of the Waſtes of the ſaid late Foreſt Incloſed or not Incloſed, the ſame ſhall be firſt viewed and allowed to be fallen, by two or more of the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County, unconcerned in the premiſſes, and ſhall not be cut or fallen untill the ſame be viewed, and allowed by ſuch two or more Juſtices, as fit and convenient to be cut and fallen, and that the ſaid Juſtices ſhall have Marked with a broad Arrow and Crown, that it may remain to been (as they are hereby required and impowred to do) ſo many and ſuch Trees as are moſt fit to be preſerved for Growth for Timber, upon every Acre intended to be fallen; And alſo ſhall have certified (as they are likewiſe hereby required to do) unto the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, the names of the places, and number of Trees ſo viewed and allowed to be fallen, and ſo Marked to be preſerved as aforeſaid: And if any perſon or perſons ſhall at any time or times hereafter, either fell or cut down any Wood or Trees, upon the Premiſſes, or any part thereof, before ſuch View, Allowance, and Certificate made thereof as aforeſaid, contrary to the true meaning of this preſent Act, or ſhall after cut down any of the ſaid Marked Trees without like allowance, the perſon or perſons ſo offending ſhall forfeit for every Tree ſo fallen, the ſum of Twenty pounds, to him or them who ſhall Inform, or Sue for the ſame in any of His Majeſties Courts of Record, wherein no Eſſoine, Wager of Law, or Protection ſhall be allowed to the Defendant. And for further preſervation of the ſaid Timber, growing and to grow upon the Premiſſes; No Officer, or other perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall at any time hereafter have or claim any Fee-Trees out of the ſaid late Foreſt, upon any pretence whatſoever; but ſhall have and enjoy their uſual Fees in the Game of Deer of all parts of the ſaid Waſtes Incloſed or not Incloſed, as formerly they have had; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Foreſt Laws to be put in execution.

The incloſed Lands all reafforeſted.

And foraſmuch as by former experience it hath been found, That no thing did more conduce to the raiſing, increaſe and preſervation of Timber and Wood within the ſaid waſtes, then the execution of the Foreſt-laws whilſt the ſaid waſtes were afforeſted and kept under the regard of the Foreſt: Be it therefore further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That aſwell the ſaid Eleven thouſand acres ſo to be incloſed, as all other the waſte lands aforeſaid, ſhall be & are hereby reafforeſted, and ſhall from henceforth be governed by Foreſt-law, and put under the regard of the Foreſt, to the ſame effect, and in the ſame manner to all intents and purpoſes, as the ſame were in the Tenth year of the reign of the late King Charles of bleſſed memory; And that all Articles or Agreements, and all Grants and Charters made ſince the Tenth year of the Reign of the late King Charles, for or concerning the diſafforeſting the Three and twenty thouſand Acres aforeſaid or any part thereof, and all the matters, clauſes and things therein contained, relating to ſuch diſafforeſtation, ſhall be henceforth void, ſo that the ſaid waſtes and premiſſes ſhall be for ever henceforth deemed and Adjudged to be Foreſt; and to that end, that new Elections ſhall be made forth, and from time to time continued of all Verderors, Regarders, and other officers of and for the governing of the ſaid Foreſt, according to the Foreſt-law in that behalf.

And to the end the ſaid Foreſt and premiſſes may be perpetually preſerved and eſtated in the Crown for Publick uſe as aforeſaid, and may not be granted or diſpoſed to any private uſe or benefit; Be it further Enacted, That in caſe any perſon or perſons whatſoever, ſhall preſume to take, or ſhall obtain any Gift, Grant, Eſtate or Intereſt, of or in the ſaid Incloſures or Waſtes, or any Wood or Trees growing thereon, or of or in any of the Mines or Quarries of or within the ſaid Incloſures or any part thereof, Every ſuch Gift Grant, Eſtate and Intereſt, ſhall ipſo facto be nul and void, and the perſon or perſons ſo taking or obtaining the ſame, ſhall be, and is hereby made and declared utterly diſable and uncapable to have hold or enjoy any ſuch Gift, Grant, eſtate or Intereſt.

All Eſtates made out of it to any perſon whatever, to be null and void.

Provided always nevertheleſs, That for preventing the deſtruction of young Wood, by overcharging the ſaid Foreſt with Deer, It is declared and enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That in caſe His Majeſty, his heirs and Succeſſors ſhall think fit at any time hereafter to reſtore a Game of Deer within the ſaid Foreſt or waſtes, the ſame ſhall not exceed the number of eight hundred Deer of all ſorts at any one time, there to be kept for his Majeſties Game within the ſaid Foreſt.

The King may reſtore a Game of Deer, but not above Eight hundred.

And to the end ſome recompence may be made to the perſons, whoſe right of Common and of Herbage within the ſaid intended Incloſures is hereby taken from them, for the neceſſary preſervation of the ſaid Timber as aforeſaid; Be it further Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all and every the Owners, Tenants and Occupiers of any the ſeveral Lands (lying within the metes, limits and boundaries of the ſaid Foreſt, not being part of the ſaid waſte-ground or Incloſures) their heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators reſpectively, from time to time and at any time or times hereafter, to cut down and diſpoſe of any the Timber, Trees, Woods or Underwoods growing, or which ſhall hereafter grow or be in or upon their ſeveral and reſpective Lands (lying within the boundaries aforeſaid, not being part of the ſaid waſte-ground as aforeſaid) at their own wills and pleaſures, without the licences of any Juſtice in Eyre or his Deputy, and without the licence and view of any Officer of the ſaid Foreſt whatſoever, and alſo without incurring any Offence againſt the Foreſt-law, or any Forfeiture or Penalty touching the ſame; and alſo to manure and improve the ſaid ſeveral lands and Tenements by Plowing, Aſſarting, Digging, Incloſing, Fencing or Building upon the ſame at their will and pleaſures,, and to keep any ſort of Dogs imexpeditated, and to Hunt and kill any Beaſt of Chaſe or other Game, in or upon the ſaid ſeverall Lands, as if the ſame were not lying within the bounds of any Foreſt.

Proviſo for Owners, Tenants and Occupiers.

And it is enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Offences whatſoever heretofore committed or done by any perſon or perſons whatſoever, upon the ſaid Lands lying within the ſaid boundaries aforeſaid, not within the waſtes of the ſaid Foreſt as aforeſaid, againſt any of the laws of the Foreſt whatſoever, ſhall be and are hereby wholly remitted and diſcharged.

Former offences remitted.

Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared, That all and every perſon and perſons, having any right of Common of Paſture, or of Pannage, or any other Rights, Fees, Liberties or Priviledges within the ſaid Foreſt or any part thereof, ſhall hold and enjoy the ſame in manner following (that is to ſay) Their ſaid Right of Pannage from and after the feaſt of Saint Michael the Archangel, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord Chriſt, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty ſeven, and not before; And their ſaid Right of Common of Paſture and all other their ſaid Fees, Liberties and Priviledges in and through ſuch of the ſaid waſte Ground, and at ſuch time and times as the ſame ſhall not be Incloſed as aforeſaid, the time of the Fence-moneth (that is to ſay) for fifteen days before, and fifteen days after the feaſt of Saint John the Baptiſt yearly, and the time of the Winter-heyning (that is to ſay) from the Eleventh day of November to the three and twentieth day of April yearly, excepted, under and ſubject to the Foreſt-law, is as ample manner as he or they, or thoſe under whom they or any them might lawfully claim, might have held or enjoyed the ſame in the Tenth year of the Reign of the late King Charles; This Act or any other thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Pannage ſhall be re-enjoyed after Mich. 1637.

And when and in what manner, all other Priviledges.

Saving alſo unto the Inhabitants of and in the Pariſh of St. Brerills for the time being, lying within the boundaries of the ſaid Foreſt, their lawful Rights and Priviledges for the taking, cutting and enjoying the Wood growing in a certain place within the ſaid Foreſt called Hudnals as fully and amply as if this Act had not been had or made; And alſo ſaving unto the Miners, and perſons uſing the Trade of digging for Iron-Oar, Coal, and Oker in the ſaid Foreſt, their lawful Rights and Priviledges in all Lands and Grounds lying within the Perambulation and Regard of the ſaid Foreſt, other then the ſaid Incloſures for the time they ſhall continue Incloſed as fully and abſolutely as if this Act had not been had or made.

Proviſo for the Inhabitants of St. Brerills to enjoy the Wood growing upon a place called Hudnalls.

Miners rights ſaved.

Provided nevertheleſs, That this Act nor any thing therein contained ſhall make void or null certain Leters-Patents granted by the Kings Majeſty unto Sir John Wintour knight Francis Finch and Robert Cleyton Eſquires, in or about the Thirtieth of July in the fourteenth year of his now Majeſties Reign of certain Woods and Iron workes in the Foreſt of Dean: for a certain Term of years yet unexpired.

Letters Patents for certain Woods and Iron-works ſaved.

Provided alwayes, That nothing in this Act contained, ſhall be deemed or conſtrued to make void or prejudice a certain Leaſe for years yet unexpired, granted to Thomas Preſton Eſquire, by Letters-Patents under the Great Seal, of certain Lands in the ſaid Foreſt of Dean, called, Great and Little Bradleys, Pigſlade, Buckholt-moor and Stony grove, now belonging to, or claimed by Dame Mary Stanhop, Relict of Charles Stanhop Eſq.

Proviſo for Thomas Preſton and Dame Mary Stanhop.

Provided always, And it is hereby declared, That the Lands called or known by the name of Mayly Scot, and other Lands heretofore granted unto Sir Edward Villiers Knight deceaſed, Mayly-Scot and other Lands of Sir Edward Villiers, excepted.

and his Heirs, by Letters-Patents under the Great Seal of England, bearing date the Eight and twentieth day of May, in the firſt year of the Reign of our late Soveraign Lord King Charles the Firſt, ſhall not be accounted or eſteemed any part of the Three and twenty thouſand Acres which are to be Incloſed, or lie Waſte to the Commoners.

Salvo for Baniſtree Maynard.

Provided always, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if the full and juſt Sum of one thouſand five hundred Pounds ſhall not be paid unto the ſaid Baniſtree Mainard, his heirs or Aſſigns, by the ſaid mentioned Commiſſioners, or ſome other perſon or perſons by their appointment, for and in lieu of his Eſtate in the Lands called Cannop, Fellet, Buckholt, Beechinhurſt, and Moyry-Stock, on or before the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord one thouſand ſix hundred ſixty nine; That then the ſaid Baniſtree Mainard, his Heirs and Aſſigns, ſhall and may have, hold and enjoy all and every the ſaid mentioned Lands, in as full and ample manner as any of thoſe perſons from whom he claims, did ever enjoy the ſame, or might have enjoyed the ſame by vertue of any Grant under the Great Seal of England made unto them of the Premiſſes; Any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

How far the metes and bounds of the Forreſt ſhall extend.

Provided, And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Metes and boundaries of the ſaid forreſt, ſhall be for ever hereafter taken to extend to ſuch Pariſhes and Places onely as were commonly uſed, eſteemed, and taken to be within the Perambulation and Regard of the ſaid Forreſt, in the twentith year of the Reign of the late King James and not to any other Pariſhes or places whatſoever; Any Judgment, ordinance, uſage or pretence whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Grindſtones, Coal Mines and Quarries.

Provided always, And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That any Leaſe or Leaſes made or to be made by His Majeſty, his heirs, or Succeſſors, to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, for any term or terms of years, not exceeding the term of One and thirty years, in poſſeſſion of the Coal-mines and Quarries of Grindeſton in the ſaid Forreſt or any part thereof, ſhall be of like force, as if this Act had never been made, Except of ſuch Coal-mines as are or ſhall be in any part of the Eleven thouſand Acres allotted for his Majeſties Incloſure, and as ſhall continue Incloſed.

CAP. IV.

An Act for Proceeding to Judgment on Writs of Error brought in the Exchequer.

16 Car. 2. cap. 2.

31 E. 3. cap. 12.

Whereas by a Statute made in the Sixteenth year of the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, It was enacted, That the not coming of the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer, or either of them, at the day of the Return of any Writ of Error to be ſued forth by vertue of the Statute made in the One and thirtieth year of the Reign of King Edward the Third, ſhall not cauſe any abatement or diſcontinuance of any ſuch Writ of Error; But if both the Chief Juſtices of either Bench, or either of them, or any one of the ſaid great Officers, the Lord Chancellor, or Lord Treaſurer ſhall come to the Exchequer-Chamber, and there be preſent at the day of the Return of any ſuch Writ of Error, it ſhall be no abatement or diſcontinuance, but the Suit ſhall proceed in Law to all intents and purpoſes, as if both the Lord Chancellor and Lord Treaſurer had come and been preſent at the day and place of the return of any ſuch Writ; In which ſaid Statute it is provided, That no Judgment ſhall be given in ſuch Suit or Writ of Error, unleſs both the Lord Chancellour and Lord Treaſurer be preſent thereat. And whereas at this preſent time there is no Lord Treaſurer, and therefore by reaſon of the ſaid Proviſo, no Judgment can be had in any Writ or Writs of Error, brought and yet depending, or to be brought, to the great charges and prejudice of his Majeſties Subjects, and delay of Juſtice: For remedy wherein, Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, That Judgment ſhall, or may be given in any Suit, or Writ or Writs of Error now depending, or hereafter to be brought in the Exchequer, in the preſence of the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal of England, notwithſtanding the vacancy of a Lord Treaſurer, in ſuch manner as hath been accuſtomed, when there was preſent the ſaid two great Officers; The ſaid Proviſo in the ſaid Statute, or any thing elſe therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Judgment may be given in Writs of Error in preſence of the Lord Keeper, notwithſtanding the abſence of the Lord Chancellor or Lord Treaſurer.

CAP. V.

Liberty given to Buy and Export Leather, and Skins Tanned or Dreſſed.

Whereas it is found by experience, ſince the late ſtrict Prohibition of the Exporting of Leather, That the Prices thereof, and conſequently of Raw Hides, are very much abated, to the great diſcouragement of the Breed and Feeding of Cattel, and Fall of the Rents and Value of Land; and yet that the Makers of Boots and Shoes, and other workers in Leather, have ſtill, during this time, ſold their Wares and Commodities very dear:

After the 25th of March 1668. all ſorts of Leather may be Exported.

Be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That from and after the Twenty fifth day of March, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty eight, It ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon or perſons, Native or Foreigner, to Buy in open Fair or Market, and to Export and Tranſport into Scotland or Ireland, or any Foreign parts beyond the Seas, all ſorts of Leather, Sheep-ſkins, or Calve-ſkins, Tanned, Tawed, or Dreſſed; Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary, in any wiſe notwithſtanding: Paying for each hundred weight of all ſorts of Leather, Sheep-ſkins and Calve-ſkins, containing One hundred and twelve pounds, and ſo proportionably for a greater or leſſer quantity, the ſum of Twelve pence, and no more.

It is hereby further enacted by the authority hereof, That this Act ſhall continue and be in force until the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy five, and until the end of the firſt Seſſion of Parliament then next enſuing, and no longer.

The continuance of this Act.

CAP. VI.

The Trade of Silk-Throwing, Regulated.

VVhereas the Art of Working and Throwing of Silk, for many years paſt (giving Imployment to the Poor of the Kingdom) hath of late been obſtructed, by reaſon that the preſent Maſter and Wardens, and part of the Aſſiſtants and Commonalty of the Trade, Art or Myſtery of Silk-Throwers of the City of London, have endeavoured to put in execution a certain By-law, by them made near forty years ſince, reſtraining and ſtinting the Freemen of the ſaid Company, that they ſhall not work with above the Number of One hundred and ſixty Spindles at one time, and the Aſſiſtants of the ſaid Company with above the Number of Two hundred and forty Spindles: which is an hindrance to the Growth and Improvement of the ſaid Art, and a reſtraint to the Working of Silks in this Kingdom, which is of late much improved, and to the Subſiſtence and Livelyhood of many thouſand poor Families, and puts the Traders in that Commodity upon a neceſſity of uſing Foreign Thrown-Silk:

Silk-Throwing obſtructed by a By-Law.

Be it therefore enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons aſſembled in Parliament, That the ſaid By-Law is hereby Void and Null, and the ſaid Company are hereby diſabled from making any By-law for the future, which ſhall reſtrain or limit the Number of Mills, Spindles, or other Utenſils to be imployed by any of the Freemen of the ſaid Company, in or about the ſaid Art or Myſtery.

The ſame By-Law made void, and the Company diſabled to make any ſuch reſtraint.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Silk-Winder or Doubler ſhall hereafter be found faulty in unjuſtly, deceitfully, or falſly purloyning, imbezelling, pawning, ſelling, or detaining any Silk committed to his or their Truſt, That then any Juſtice of Peace, Mayor, Bayliff, or chief Officer of any County, Liberty, or Corporation, ſhall immediately upon conviction by confeſſion of the party, or upon the Oath of one Witneſs before any of the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices of the Peace, or other Officer, commit to Priſon or to the Houſe of Correction the Offender, till ſatisfaction be given to the Party wronged, or puniſhment inflicted; as by an Act of Parliament, Intituled, An Act for Regulating the Trade of Silk-Throwing, made this preſent Parliament, is directed and appointed; Any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Silk-winders or doublers offending, to be committed to priſon.

14 Car. 2. cap. 15.

And be it further enacted, That no By-Law already made, or hereafter to be made by the ſaid Company, ſhall or may limit or confine any Freeman of the ſaid Company to take a leſs number then three Apprentices at any time.

Apprentices.

CAP. VII.

An Additional Act againſt the Importation of Foreign Cattel.

VVhereas by an Act of this preſent Parliament, Intituled, An Act againſt Importing Cattel from Ireland, and other parts beyond the Seas, and Fiſh taken by Foreigners; amongſt other things, Proviſion was made againſt Importation of Cattel from Parts beyond the Seas: And it was thereby enacted, That ſuch Importation from and after the ſecond day of February, which was in the year One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſix, was a publick Nuſance, and ſhould be ſo adjudged, deemed and taken to all intents and purpoſes; And that if any Cattel, Sheep or Swine, or any Beef, Pork, or Bacon (except for the neceſſary Proviſion of the reſpective Ships or Veſſels in which the ſame ſhould be brought, not expoſing the ſame to ſale) ſhould from and after the ſaid ſecond day of February, by any wiſe whatſoever, be Imported or brought from beyond the Seas into this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, That then it ſhould and might be lawful for any Conſtable, Tythingman, Headborough, Church-warden, or Overſeers of the Poor, or any of them within their reſpective Liberties, Pariſhes, or Places, to take and ſeize the ſame, and keep the ſame, during the ſpace of eight and forty hours, in ſome publick or convenient place where ſuch ſeizure ſhould be made; within which time, if the Owner or Owners, or any for them or him, ſhould make it appear unto ſome Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County where the ſame ſhould be ſo ſeized, by the Oath of two credible Witneſſes, that the ſame were not Imported from Ireland, or from any other place beyond the Seas not therein after excepted, after the ſaid ſecond day of February, Then the ſame, upon the Warrant of ſuch Juſtice of Peace, ſhould be delivered without delay; but in default of ſuch Proof and Warrant, then the ſame to be forfeited; one half thereof to be diſpoſed to the uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where the ſame ſhall be ſo found or ſeized, the other to be to his or their own uſe that ſhould ſo ſeize the ſame.

18 Car. 2 cap. 2.

Importation of Cattel from beyond Sea a Nuſance.

Notwithſtanding which Act, and the good Proviſion thereby, great number of Cattel, Sheep and Swine, and great quantities of Beef, Pork and Bacon, have ſince the time limited by the ſaid Act been Imported from Ireland, and other places beyond the Seas, as well in Foreign as Engliſh Ships and Veſſels, contrary to the good intent of the ſaid Act, and in continuance of the ſaid Nuſance, and in high contempt of the authority of Parliament: And divers Church-wardens, Conſtables, Tithing-men and Overſeers of the poor, living near the Sea, for their own private Lucre, having combined with the Owners of ſuch Cattel, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork, and Bacon, Imported as aforeſaid, or with their Agents, have colourably ſeized, and afterwards privately and fraudulently ſold the ſame at very low and inconſiderable Rates, to the ſaid Owners or their Agents: And other of the ſaid Officers, who have diſcharged their Duties in the due execution of the ſaid Act, have been moleſted therefore, and ſeveral Actions, Suits, Plaints and Informations, have been brought and preſented againſt ſome of them in Counties and Places far diſtant from their Habitations, to their great charge and diſcouragement. For the Vindication therefore of the authority of Parliament from ſuch bold Affronts, and the Indempnifying as well of ſuch Officers, who have faithfully endeavoured the execution of the ſaid Act (although they have not ſtrictly purſued the ſame in every Circumſtance) as of ſuch other perſon and perſons who have acted in their aid and aſſiſtance, And for the better and further ſuppreſſion of the ſaid Nuſance; Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all and every Conſtable, Tithing-man, Headborough, Church-Warden, and Overſeer of the Poor, and every other perſon or perſons who have acted in, or concerning the ſeizure, keeping, detaining or diſpoſing of any Cattel, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork, or Bacon, Imported contrary to the ſaid Act, after the ſaid ſecond day of February, ſhall be, and are hereby ſaved harmleſs, and Indempniſhed in that behalf, againſt the Owner or Owners thereof at the time of ſuch Importation, their Executors and Adminiſtrators, and every other perſon and perſons claiming from, by, or under their Gift, Grant, or other Diſpoſition; and againſt all and every perſon and perſons, to whom any fraudulent Sale hath been made after ſuch Importation as aforeſaid, and their and every of their Executors and Adminiſtrators.

All Officers who have ſeized any imported Cattel, ſaved harmleſs.

Any perſon may ſeize imported Cattel, and deliver them to the Officers.

And it is Provided, and further Enacted, That not onely the Conſtables and Officers above named, but every or any other Inhabitant or Inhabitants of or within the Liberties, Pariſhes, and Places where ſuch Importation ſhall be made, ſhall and may take and ſeize the Cattel and Goods ſo Imported, and after ſuch Seizure ſhall forthwith deliver or cauſe them to be delivered to the Conſtable, Tithing-man, Headborough, Churchwarden, or Overſeers of the Poor, or any of them within the reſpective Liberties, Pariſhes and Places aforeſaid, to be kept, ordered, and diſpoſed in the Manner and to the Uſes and Purpoſes in this Act, and in the ſaid recited Act, or either of them mentioned and directed.

The forfeiture of ſuch as neglect to ſeize.

And it is further Enacted, That if no Seizure at all ſhall be made by the Officers or Inhabitants nor any of them, within the Liberty, Pariſh, or Place where ſuch Cattel or Goods as aforeſaid ſhall be firſt Imported, Then ſuch Liberty, Pariſh, and Place, and the Inhabitants thereof, neglecting to make ſuch Seizure, for every Default ſhall forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds which ſhall be imployed for the Uſe of the Houſe of Correction within the County or Liberty where ſuch Default of Seiſure ſhall be; and the Moneys ſo to be forfeited, and other the Penalties and Forfeitures which are to accrue to the Poor by vertue of this Act, and the ſaid recited Act, or either of them, ſhall be accounted for to ſuch perſons, at ſuch Times, and in ſuch Manner, as the Overſeers of the Poor are appointed to accompt by the Statute made in the three and fortieth year of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, Chapter the Second.

Ships bringing Cattel, &c. from beyond Sea ſhall be forfeited, ſeized and ſold.

The money raiſed thereby, one half to the poor, the other to the Informer or Seizer.

The Seamen to be apprehended and all others concerned, and ſent to the Common Gaol.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every Ship or Veſſel, with all her Tackle and Apparel, in which any great Cattel, Swine, Sheep, Beef, Pork, or Bacon from and after the Four and twentieth day of march in the year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſeven, ſhall be Imported from Ireland, or any other Parts beyond the Seas, into the Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed And out of which they or any of them ſhall be put on Shore there ſhall be forfeited: And that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, within the ſpace of One year after ſuch Importation, to take and ſeize the ſame Ship or Veſſel, with all her tackle and Apparel, and to make Sale thereof to the beſt advantage; and that one half of the Moneys to be raiſed by ſuch Sale, ſhall be diſpoſed of to the Uſe of the Poor of the Pariſh where the ſame ſhall be ſo ſeized, the other half to be to his or their Uſe that ſhall ſo ſeize the ſame: And alſo that it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any Juſtice of Peace of the County, or Chief Officer of the Port-Town, in or near the place where ſuch Importation ſhall be made or where any of the Cattel, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon ſo Imported ſhall be driven or brought, by Warrant under the hand & Seal of ſuch Juſtice of Peace, or chief Officer to cauſe to be apprehended all and every the Maſters, Mariners, and Seamen, having Charge of, or belonging to ſuch Ship or Veſſel; in which ſuch Importation ſhall be made; and all and every other perſon and perſons acting or imployed in the Landing, driving, attending on or taking care or charge of the ſaid Cattel, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork, or Bacon Imported as aforeſaid and them to commit to the Common-Goal of the ſaid County, there to remain without Bail or Mainpriſe, for the ſpace of Three Moneths.

If any Officer neglect to ſeize, another may take them and have the one half, giving the other to the poor.

And be it further Enacted and Declared by the authority aforeſaid, That whenſoever, and as often as it ſhall happen, either through any fraudulent Agreement, or unfaithful Connivance of any Conſtable, Headborough, Tythingman, Churchwarden, or Overſeer of the Poor, or that it ſhall happen any otherwiſe howſoever, that any great Cattel, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon, after the firſt Seizure of them, or any of them, by vertue of the aforeſaid Act, ſhall be driven, brought, carried into, or found in any other Pariſh or Place, then where the ſame ſhall be firſt ſeized as aforeſaid; That then, and ſo often, and from time to time, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Conſtable, Tythingman, Headborough, Churchwarden, or Overſeer of the Poor of every or any ſuch other Pariſh or Place, where ſuch great Cattel, Sheep, Swine, Beef, Pork or Bacon, ſhall be brought, driven, or carried into, or found as aforeſaid, to ſeize, take, and diſpoſe the ſame, and every or any of them as forfeited, The one Moyety thereof to the Uſe of the Poor of ſuch other Pariſh or Place where ſuch Seizure ſhall be made, the other to the Uſe of ſuch Officer or Officers who ſhall ſeize the ſame as aforeſaid; Any other or former Seizure or Seizures, in any other Pariſh or Pariſhes, Place or Places, notwithſtanding.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, is, or ſhall be Commenced, or Proſecuted againſt any perſon or perſons ſons, for any Seizure or other thing made or done, or to be made or done, by vertue or colour of this, or the aforeſaid Act; And upon the Trial of ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, it ſhall not be proved to the Jury that ſhall Try the ſame, that the Cauſe of ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information, did ariſe within ſuch County, where ſuch Action, Plaint, Suit or Information is laid and Tried, the Defendant and Defendants ſhall be found Not-guilty, without having regard to any Evidence given by, or for the Plaintiff, Informer or Proſecutor.

Tryal in the County where the cauſe of Action.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit, or Information hath been, or ſhall be Commenced or Proſecuted againſt any perſon or perſons, for any Seizure or other thing done or made, in Purſuance or Execution of this or the aforeſaid Act; ſuch perſon or perſons ſo Sued in any Court whatſoever, may plead the General Iſſue, and give this and the aforeſaid Act, and the ſpecial matter in Evidence for their Excuſe or Juſtification: And if the Plaintiff or Proſecutor ſhall become Nonſuit, or forbear Proſecution, or ſuffer Diſcontinuance, or if a Verdict paſſe againſt him in any ſuch Action, Bill, Plaint, Suit or Information as aforeſaid, the Defendants ſhall have treble Coſts, for which they ſhall have the like Remedy, as in any Caſe where Coſts by the Law are given to the Defendant.

General Iſſue.

Defendant to have treble Coſts.

Provided alwayes, That no thing in this Act ſhall be conſtrued to hinder the Importation of Cattel from the Iſle of Man into this Kingdom of England, ſo as the Number of the ſaid Cattel do not exceed Six hundred Head Yearly, and that they be not of any other Breed then of the Breed of the Iſle of Man, and that they be Landed at the Port of Cheſter, or ſome of the Members thereof, and not elſewhere.

Proviſo to import Cattel from the Iſle of Man.

And it is laſtly Enacted, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall wilfully and fraudulently conſpire, confederate, or agree together, to avoid or evade the Seizures or Forfeitures upon Importation of Cattel or Goods in this preſent Act particularly ſpecified, and the ſame ſhall put in execution; Then every ſuch perſon and perſons, being thereof lawfully Indicted or Preſented within one year next after ſuch Offence by him or them committed, and being thereof lawfully Convicted or Attainted at any time after, according to the Laws of this Realm, ſhall incur the Dangers, Penalties, Pains and Forfeitures contained and provided in and by the Statute of Proviſion and Premunire, made in the Sixteenth year of the Reign of King Richard the Second.

Confederacy to elude this Act incurs a Premunire.

CAP. VIII.

An Act for the Taxing and Aſſeſſing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of the FENS.

WHereas by an Act made in this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for ſetling the Drayning the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, It is amongſt other things Enacted, That the Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators of the Corporation in the ſaid Act mentioned, and by vertue of the ſame from time to time being, or any Five or more of them (whereof the Governor and Bayliffs for the time being, or any of them to be two) ſhould and might from thenceforth uſe the Power and Authority of the Commiſſioners of Sewers within the ſaid Great Level, and from time to time Lay and Impoſe Taxes upon the Ninety five thouſand Acres within the ſaid Level in the ſaid Act mentioned, for the maintenance and preſervation of the ſame, as by the ſaid Act appeareth; And whereas ſince the making of the ſaid Act, the Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators of the ſaid Corporation, in Execution of the Power and Authority hereby to them given, have Laid and Impoſed Taxes upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, for the Purpoſes by the ſaid Act ſpecified and appointed, wherein they have proceeded by way of an Acre-Tax, at a certain Rate by the Acre, and have inforced the payment of the ſame after that manner, to the great damage of divers of the Adventurers and Participants, for that the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres are not only much different in the natural Richneſs and Barrenneſs of their Soyl, but likewiſe ſome parts of the ſaid Lands are by frequent Inundations and otherwiſe, exceedingly pejorated and made worſe, and the Corn, Hay, Seed, or Graſs thereupon often deſtroyed; yet the ſame Lands are equally Taxed with the beſt and moſt ſecure Lands in the ſaid Level as aforeſaid; The which ſaid way of Raiſing, Draining-Taxes upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, by an equal Acre-Rate, hath been found to be inconvenient; And for removing the ſaid Inconvenience, the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators, have of late proceeded to a more indifferent way of Taxing of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres (that is to ſay) by a gradual Acre-Tax of Five ſorts, upon Eighty three thouſand Acres, part of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, and by a Medium of the Twelve thouſand Acres, Reſidue of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres: And to the intent that encouragement may be given for the better Improving of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, and that a conſtant and certain way of Taxing may be continued and eſtabliſhed for the future:

15 Car. 2. cap. 17.

The Preamble of this Act.

Taxes impoſed at a certain Rate per acre.

Unequal and inconvenient.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame; That all Taxes hereafter to be ſet and impoſed for the maintenance and preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, are hereby appointed and declared to be from time to time Aſſeſſed and Taxed by the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators, or their Succeſſors, or any Five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor and Bayliffs for the time being, or any of them to be Two, upon the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres, part and parcel of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, by a gradual Acre-Tax of different ſorts and values of Lands; the which ſaid gradual Acre-Tax ſet as aforeſaid, and all future gradual Acre-Taxes to be ſet, ſhall be Received, Paid and Levied, with like Penalties in the ſaid received Act provided for Non payment of Taxes, by ſuch and the like wayes and means, as by the ſaid recited Act are provided for to be Paid and Levied; And the ſaid Taxes hereafter to be aſſeſſed by the Governor, &c by a gradual Acre-Tax.

Eighty three thouſand Acres, for raiſing of Taxes for ſupport and maintenance of the Great Level, are not be Rated or Aſſeſſed otherwiſe, or in any other manner then according to a gradual Acre-Tax of different ſorts and degrees, and according to the reſpective values and rates thereby ſet and rated, and to be ſet and rated as is hereafter appointed, upon the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres; any Law, Statute, or other thing to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Fifteen pence per acre.

Wedneſday, Thurſday, and Friday after the firſt Sunday in April.

And whereas the ſaid Twelve thouſand acres, reſidue of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, are by the ſaid gradual acre-Taxed towards the raiſing of the ſum of Six thouſand one hundred and ten pounds ſeven ſhillings one peny half-peny, are Rated & Taxed at One ſhilling three pence per acre, being a medium as if the whole Ninety five thouſand acres had been Rated, Taxed, and Aſſeſſed at Fifteen pence per acre; Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That when and ſo often as a Tax of the ſaid ſum of Six thouſand one hundred and ten pounds ſeven ſhillings one peny half peny, ſhall be taxed and aſſeſſed upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres, That then the ſaid Twelve thouſand acres ſhall be rated, taxed, and aſſeſſed by the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators, and their Succeſſors, or any Five or more of them, whereof the ſaid Governor and Bayliffs, or any of them to be Two, at Fifteen pence the acre, and according to the proportion, for the raiſing of any greater or leſſer ſum then Six thouſand one hundred and ten pounds ſeven ſhillings and one peny half-peny, to be Received, Paid and Levied, together with Penalties in ſuch and the like manner, as the Taxes ſet and impoſed upon the ſaid Eighty three thouſand acres, are by this Act provided for to be Received, Paid and Levied. And be it further Enacted and Declared by the authority aforeſaid, That no Taxes to be ſet by vertue of this Act, ſhall be ſet or impoſed upon the ſaid Ninety five thouſand acres by the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators, or their Succeſſors, or any Five or more of them, but upon Wedneſday, Thurſday, and Friday next after the Firſt Sunday in April, or ſome or one of them Three dayes yearly for ever, and not at any other time; any Law, Cuſtom or Uſage to the contrary hereof notwithſtanding.

Sergeant at Mace to deliver poſſeſſion.

And whereas by the ſaid recited Act, It is amongſt other things provided, That Sales, for Non-payment of Taxes, ſhall be made at Ely upon Wedneſday and Thurſday in Whitſon-week yearly, the which Seaſon is found to be inconvenient: For remedy whereof, Be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after Whitſon-week, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty eight, thoſe dayes for Sales ſhall be altered and changed unto the ſaid Wedneſday, Thurſday and Friday, after the ſaid Firſt Sunday in April, in every year, and all other matters and things concerning or relating to Sales for Non-payment of Taxes, by the ſaid recited Act provided, are to ſtand in force, and to be obſerved, with this; That the Sergeant at Mace of the ſaid Great Level, ſhall from time to time by Precept under the Seal of the Corporation of the ſaid Great Level, in nature of a Writ of Habere fac' poſſeſſionem, at Common Law, deliver poſſeſſion unto ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall purchaſe any part of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, for Non-payment of Taxes; And the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators, are hereby required and authorized to affix the Seal of the ſaid Corporation, from time to time, to the Precept or Precepts, at the charge of the parties requiring the ſame; any Law, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtome to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Names of the Surveyors who are to digeſt the land into ſeven ſorts.

Their Oath.

And to the end that the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres, may be more equally Taxed by a gradual Acre-Tax, not under the number of Seven ſorts; Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That Edward Partheridge Eſquire, Samuel Fortrey Eſquire, Richard Mariot Eſquire, John Mingay, Jonas Moore, Peter Diamond, Eſquires, Anthony Hamon Eſquire, Mark le Pla Gent. and John Bridgman junior Gent. or any Three or more of them, are hereby conſtituted and appointed to be Surveyors and Valuers of the ſaid Eighty three thouſand acres, and are within Twelve Moneths next after the Paſſing of this Act, to digeſt the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres into ſuch number of ſorts or degrees of Land, not under the number of Seven ſorts and degrees; And to Rate and Tax ſuch degrees, and digeſt the ſame into Schedules in writing, and make Returns thereof upon their Oaths into the Fen-Office; The form of which ſaid Oath ſhall be, (Viz.)

I A. B. do Swear, That according to the beſt of my Skill and Knowledge, I will faithfully diſcharge the Truſt of Surveying, Sorting, Dividing and Rating of Eighty three thouſand Acres, Parcel of the Ninety five thouſand Acres within the Great Level of the Fens, known by the name of Bedford Level, according to Seven degrees or more, as I upon my Oath ſhall think moſt equal.

Returns where to be made and ſet up publickly in the Fen-Office.

Parties grieved may appeal to Commiſſioners.

The which ſaid Oath the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators, or any three or more of them, are hereby authorized to adminiſter, and alſo to allow unto the ſaid Surveyours, or Valuers ſuch reaſonable charges for their travel and pains therein as they ſhall think fit; And after the ſame are returned into the ſaid Fen-Office, and there publickly ſet up which ſaid Return is hereby Enacted to be made within One moneth after the Survey taken, and the ſeveral Valuations by the parties to that purpoſe by this Act appointed and agreed upon, and all parties agrieved may take their Exceptions within Thirty days next after the ſame are ſet up; And within Forty days next after ſuch Exceptions taken, may appeal for Relief unto the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators, or any Five or more of them, for altering the ſaid Schedules in the Rates and Value complained of, ſo as the parties appealing ſhall proſecute the ſaid Appeal within the ſaid Forty dayes, and not at any time after: And in caſe the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators ſhall not within the ſaid Forty days relieve the ſaid parties grieved, or if the ſaid parties ſhall not be ſatisfied with the determination of the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators, That then the ſaid parties may appeal unto Sir Henry North Baronet, Sir Levinus Bennet Baronet, Sir Robert Brook of Yoxford Knight, Sir Emond Pooley Knight, Henry Williams, Robert Appreece, Richard Nayler, Humphrey Orme, Morris Treſham, Laurence Oxborough, Henry Farrer junior, Edward Barber, Matthew Wren, Thomas Marſh, Henry Fitch Doctor of Laws, Thomas Steward, Anthony Fiſher, Matthias Tayler, John Towers, Eſquires, and Burrage Martin Gent. or any Three or more of them who are hereby conſtituted and appointed Commiſſioners of Appeal to hear and determine ſuch Complaints and to give relief therein as they ſhall ſee cauſe, and to award Coſts to either parties as they ſhall ſee cauſe, the which ſaid Coſts may be recovered by Action of debt in any of His Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoign or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed: which ſaid appeals to the Commiſſioners ſhall be duely proſecuted by the ſaid parties grieved, within two Moneths next after the expiration of the Forty days, and not at any time after; The which ſaid Schedules with the alterations if any ſhall be made by the ſaid Corporation wherewith the parties ſhall reſt ſatisfied, or by the determination of the ſaid Commiſſioners of Appeal, are hereby confirmed, and ſhall be a conſtant rule and foundation for the Rating and Taxing of the ſaid Eighty three thouſand acres for the future, for maintenance and preſervation of the works, made and to be made within or without the ſaid Great Level of the ſaid Fens; And that the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators, nor their Succeſſors, nor any of them, ſhall Tax, or Aſſeſs the ſaid eighty three thouſand Acres otherwiſe then by and according to the ſaid Schedules, to be returned or confirmed as aforeſaid; And it is declared, that the ſaid Twelve thouſand Acres reſidue of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, ſhall be Rated, and Taxed by a Medium towards all Taxes hereafter to be laid, as by the ſaid Tax made the ſaid Twentieth day of June is provided, and not otherwiſe.

Their power.

And it is hereby further Enacted, That a Tax of the ſaid ſum of Six thouſand one hundred and ten pounds ſeven ſhillings one peny half peny, ſhall and may be ſet by the ſaid governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators, or any Five or more of them, in Whitſon-week next upon the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres, according to the ſaid gradual Acre-Tax of Five degrees, upon the ſaid Twelve thouſand Acres, at Fifteen pence per Acre; and for Non-payment ſhall and may be Levied by Sales on Wedneſday, Thurſday, or Friday after the ſaid Firſt Sunday in April then next following; And that from thenceforth all future Taxes ſhall be laid and impoſed upon the ſaid Eighty three thouſand Acres by a gradual Acre-Tax, not under ſeven degrees, and Twelve thouſand Acres, in ſuch manner and form as by this Act is provided, and not otherwiſe. And whereas Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, and Sir Miles Sandys the younger, were Adventurers and Participants with Francis late Earl of Bedford in the ſaid Level, and had an Intereſt in ſeveral Shares, Lots, and Proportions, in the ſaid Great Level; The Right, Title, and Intereſt in great part of which ſaid Shares and Lots, were, as appears by Indenture bearing date the Twelfth day of June, in the Firſt year of his now Majeſties Reign, made between Sir Miles Sandys the yonger of the one part, and Thomas Sandys Eſq; and Robert Sandys Clerk, Humberſtone Marſh Eſq; Samuel Spalding, Gent. William Wolſon Clerk, and John Kirk of the ſecond part, and Samuel Sandys of Omberſley Eſq; on the third part; Setled in ſeveral Truſtees therein named, in Truſt for the payment of all ſuch Taxes as ſhould be due for or in reſpect of the ſaid Lands mentioned in the ſaid Indenture, and after in truſt for the ſecuring of the ſaid Samuel Sandys Eſq; from all ſuch debt as he the ſaid Samuel Sandys ſtood ingaged for, the proper debts of the ſaid Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, and Sir Miles Sandys the younger: ſince which Indenture ſo had and made, the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder has paid great ſums of mony, for and towards the ſatisfaction of the ſaid debts of Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, and Sir Miles Sandys the younger, and yet hath reaped no benefit by vertue of the ſaid Deed of Truſt ſo as aforeſaid made for his Security, although by an Act made by this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Setling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens, called Bedford Level, the ſaid Samuel Sandys ought to have had a Conveyance of the Shares and Lots mentioned in the ſaid Indenture: But in regard the ſaid Samuel Sandys Eſq; nor any in truſt for him could procure any Conveyance, which hath proved very prejudicial to the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder.

Sales for non payment when to be made.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame; That all the ſaid Lots and Shares in the ſaid Indenture mentioned (Except onely ſuch Lands of the ſaid half Share as were really ſold by Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, or Sir Miles Sandys the younger, for full and valuable Conſiderations, and ſuch of the ſaid Two Shares which have been ſold for the payment of Taxes or Debts, in purſuance of the ſaid Indenture, by the ſaid Sir Miles Sandys and the Truſtees parties to the ſaid Indenture) are hereby veſted and ſetled in Samuel Sandys the younger Eſq; and Edwin Sandys Gent. Sons of the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder, their heirs and Aſſigns, Freed and Diſcharged from all manner of Taxes whatſoever to the time of the Paſſing this Act: And by the Authority aforeſaid, the Free-hold and Inheritance of the ſaid Lots and Shares aforeſaid, Except before Excepted, ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be in the ſaid Samuel Sandys the younger, and Edwin Sandys, their Heirs and Aſſigns for ever; Nevertheleſs, the ſaid Shares, and Lots hereby veſted ſhall be liable to the payment of the Debts aforeſaid, and to all Powers and Juriſdictions, together with the reſidue of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, as the ſame are ſubject and liable by the ſaid recited Act for the future, and of all ſuch Taxes and Penalties as ſhall be hereafter Aſſeſſed or laid for the preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, in ſuch ſort and manner as the Eighty three thouſand Acres, Parcel of the Ninety five thouſand Acres, ſhall be Aſſeſſed and Taxed; Any Law, Statute, or thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Lands ſetled upon Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys free from Taxes.

Provided alſo, And it is hereby further Declared and Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid That all and every of the Sale or Sales made, agreed or contracted for, for Non payment of Taxes of any of the Lands of the ſaid Sir Miles Sandys the Elder, or Sir Miles Sandys the younger, or the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder Eſq; by the Governors, Bayliffs, and Conſervatours, conſtituted and elected by Authority of an Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for ſetling the Draining of the Great Level of the Fens called Bedford Level, to any perſon or perſons whatſoever by vertue or colour of the ſaid Act, is, are, and ſhall be null and void; And that the ſaid Lands ſold by the ſaid Governors, Bailiffs and Conſervators, (Except before Excepted) are and ſhall be veſted and Setled by this preſent Act, in the ſaid Samuel Sandys the younger, and Edwin Sandys, their heirs and aſſigns, freed and diſcharged of and from all Taxes, laid by the ſaid Governors, Bayliffs, and Conſervators, Any thing in the ſaid recited Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Sales for non-payment of Taxes in thoſe Lands void.

And to the end the ſaid Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys may have the effect and benefit hereby intended them; And that the Occupiers and poſſeſſors of the ſaid Shares and Lots veſted in them the ſaid Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys as aforeſaid, may not by their continuing in poſſeſſion, and neglect of paying the Taxes hereafter to be impoſed on the ſaid Shares and Lots, or any part of them, cauſe the ſame to be forfeited and ſold for non-payment of the reſpective Taxes, that ſhall be become due for the ſame; Be it therefore hereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any Occupier or Poſſeſſor of any the ſaid Shares or Lots, in the ſaid Deed of Truſt mentioned as aforeſaid, or of any part of them, pretending to claim under the ſaid Deed of Truſt or otherwiſe, that ſhall refuſe to deliver or yield up the poſſeſſion of ſuch part of the ſaid Shares or Lots, to them the ſaid Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys, or their aſſigns, and ſhall not duly pay the Taxes hereafter to be impoſed on the ſame, before our Lady-Day, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy one, That then the Serjeant at Mace for the time being, attending the ſaid Corporation, is hereby authorized and impowered by Precept under the Seal of the Corporation of the ſaid Great Level (who are hereby required to grant and iſſue out the ſame) in the nature of a Writ of Habere facias poſſeſſionem at the Common Law, to deliver unto, and put them the ſaid Samuel Sandys and Edwin Sandys, their Heirs or Aſſigns, in the quiet and peaceable poſſeſſion of ſuch Shares and Lots, or any part of them; And all and every ſuch Occupier or Occupiers, poſſeſſor or poſſeſſors thereof, of and from the ſame to eject, expel and amove; They the ſaid Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys, upon reaſonable notice, firſt paying or tendring ſuch Taxes as ſhall become due for the ſame, from the time of the paſſing this Act, One Moneth before the next day of Sale for Non-payment of ſuch Taxes hereafter to be impoſed; which ſaid Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys, and their Heirs, are thereupon hereby actually veſted in the ſame.

Serjeant at Mace to remove occupants not paying Taxes.

And whereas the ſaid ſeveral Shares and Lots of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, herein before veſted and ſetled in the ſaid Samuel Sandys the younger, and Edwin Sandys, and their heirs as aforeſaid, ought to have been conveyed unto the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his Truſtees, by the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs and Conſervators of the ſaid Corporation, by vertue of the ſaid beforementioned Act, as in and by the ſame they were required and directed, which they refuſe to do, whereby the Rents, Iſſues, and Profits thereof, have not been paid to, nor could be received by the ſaid Samuel Sandys the Elder, or his Truſtees, or by any other by, to or for his or their uſe; Be it thereby further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys, ſhall and are hereby entituled to the ſaid Rents, Iſſues, and Profits of the ſaid Shares and Lots, ſince the Paſſing of the ſaid recited Act, which have not really been paid to the ſaid Corporation for Taxes, or to the ſaid Samuel Sandys the elder, And the Occupiers and Poſſeſſors thereof are hereby appointed to pay the ſame accordingly; And in default of payment thereof, or of any part thereof, they the ſaid Samuel Sandys, and Edwin Sandys, are hereby authorized and impowered to ſue for, and by vertue of this Act ſhall recover the ſame, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, and ſhall likewiſe have their Coſts of Suit expended therein; Any thing herein to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided always, And be it enacted, That after the ſaid Edwin and Samuel Sandys ſhall have recovered and received ſatisfaction for the mean profits, or any part of them; That then they, their heirs, and aſſigns, ſhall pay ſo much of the ſaid Arrears of the ſaid gradual Acre-Tax, impoſed upon the ſaid reſpective Lands, proportionably to what they ſhall receive, and no more.

Proviſo for Thomas Lord Culpeper.

Provided always, And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That whereas ſeveral parcels of the ſaid Ninety five thouſand Acres, ought to have been conveyed to Thomas Lord Culpeper or his Truſtees, by the ſaid Governor, Bayliffs, and Conſervators of the ſaid Corporation, by vertue of the ſaid before recited Act, as in and by the ſame they were required and directed, which they delayed to do, whereby the Rents, Iſſues and Profits thereof have not been paid to, nor could be received by the ſaid Thomas Lord Culpeper or his Truſtees, That the ſaid Thomas Lord Culpeper and his Truſtees ſhall, and are hereby Intituled to the ſaid Rents, Iſſues and Profits of the ſaid parcels, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid recited Act, which have not been really paid to the Corporation for Taxes, or to him or them, And the Occupiers and Poſſeſſors thereof are hereby required to pay the ſame accordingly; And in default of payment thereof or any part thereof, he the ſaid Thomas Lord Culpeper and his Truſtees, are hereby authorized and impowered to Sue for, and by vertue of this Act ſhall recover the ſame, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, and ſhall likewiſe have their Coſts of Suit expended herein, Any thing to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And the Money ſo levied, to be diſpoſed of in manner aforeſaid: And if ſuch Offendor ſo convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall at any time again commit the like offence or offences contrary to this Act, and be thereof convicted in manner aforeſaid, then ſuch Offendor ſo convicted of ſuch like offence or offences, ſhall for every ſuch offence, incur the penaly of forty pounds, to be levied and diſpoſed as aforeſaid.

The forfeiture of ſuch as ſuffer Conventicles in their houſes.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That every perſon who ſhall wittingly and willingly ſuffer any ſuch Conventicle, Meeting, or Unlawful Aſſembly aforeſaid, to be held in his or her Houſe, Out-houſe, Barn, Yard or Backſide, and be convicted thereof in manner aforeſaid, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Twenty pounds, to be levied in manner aforeſaid, upon his or her Goods and Chattels; or in caſe of his or her poverty or inability as aforeſaid, upon the Goods and Chattels of ſuch perſons who ſhall be convicted in manner aforeſaid, of being preſent at the ſame Conventicle; and the Money ſo levied, to be diſpoſed of in manner aforeſaid.

Proviſo.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no perſon ſhall by any Clauſe of this Act, be liable to pay above Ten pounds for any one Meeting, in regard of the poverty of any other perſon or perſons.

Appeals may be, and to whom, and in what caſes.

Provided alſo, and be it further Enacted, That in all caſes of this Act, where the penalty or ſum charged upon any Offendor, exceeds the ſum of Ten ſhillings, and ſuch Offendor ſhall find himſelf Agrieved, it ſhall and may be lawful for him within one Week, after the ſaid penalty or money charged ſhall be paid or levied, to appeal in writing from the perſon or perſons convicted, to the Judgment of the Juſtices of the Peace in their next Quarter-Seſſions; to whom the Juſtice or Juſtices of Peace, chief Magiſtrate, or Alderman, that firſt convicted ſuch Offendor, ſhall return the money levied upon the Appellant, and ſhall certifie under his and their Hands and Seals, the Evidence upon which the conviction paſt, with the whole Record thereof, and the ſaid appeal: Whereupon ſuch Offendor may plead and make defence, and have his Tryal by a Jury thereupon. And in caſe ſuch Appellant ſhall not proſecute with effect, or if upon ſuch Tryal he ſhall not be acquitted, or Judgment paſſe not for him upon his ſaid appeal, the ſaid Juſtices at the Seſſions ſhall give treble Coſts againſt ſuch Offendor for his unjuſt appeal: And no other Court whatſoever ſhall intermeddle with any Cauſe or Cauſes of appeal upon this Act, but they ſhall be finally determined in the Quarter-Seſſions only.

Appellant to enter into a Recognizance.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted, That upon the delivery of ſuch appeal as aforeſaid, the perſon or perſons appellant ſhall enter before the perſon or perſons convicting into a Recognizance, to proſecute the ſaid appeal with effect: Which ſaid Recognizance the perſon or perſons convicting is hereby impowered to take, and required to certifie the ſame to the next Quarter-Seſſions. And in caſe no ſuch Recognizance be entred into, the ſaid appeal to be null and void.

Provided alwayes, That every ſuch appeal ſhall be left with the perſon or perſons ſo convicting as aforeſaid, at the time of the making thereof.

Juſtices of Peace, Conſtables, &c. upon refuſal, may break open doors.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Juſtice, Juſtices of the Peace and chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, or the reſpective Conſtables, Head-boroughs, and Tything-men, by Warrant from the ſaid Juſtice, Juſtices or chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, ſhall and may with what aid, force, and aſſiſtance they ſhall think fit, for the better execution of this Act, after refuſal or denial, to enter, break open, and enter into any houſe or other place, where they ſhall be informed any ſuch Conventicle as aforeſaid, is or ſhall be held, as well within Liberties as without; and take into their Cuſtody the perſons there unlawfully aſſembled, to the intent they may be proceeded againſt according to this Act: And that the Lieutenants, or Deputy-Lieutenants, or any Commiſſionated Officer of the Militia, or other of His Majeſties Forces, with ſuch Troops or Companies of Horſe and Foot; and alſo the Sheriffs, and other Magiſtrates and Miniſters of Juſtice, or any of them, joyntly or ſeverally, within any the Counties or places within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, with ſuch other aſſiſtance as they ſhall think meet, or can get in readineſſe with the ſooneſt, on Certificate made to them reſpectively under the Hand and Seal of any one Juſtice of the Peace or chief Magiſtrate, of his particular Information or Knowledge of ſuch unlawful Meeting or Conventicle held, or to be held in their reſpective Counties or places, and that he with ſuch aſſiſtance as he can get together, is not able to ſuppreſſe and diſſolve the ſame, ſhall and may, and are hereby required and enjoyned to repair unto the place where they are ſo held, or to be held, and by the beſt means they can to diſſolve, diſſipate, or prevent all ſuch unlawful Meetings, and take into their cuſtody ſuch and ſo many of the ſaid perſons ſo unlawfully aſſembled as they ſhall think fit, to the intent they may be proceeded againſt according to this Act.

Lieutenants, Deputy-Lieutenants and Commiſſionated Officers of the Militia may diſperſe Conventicles either with Horſe or Foot.

Proviſo for Peers of the Realm.

Provided alwayes, That no Dwelling-houſe of any Peer of this Realm, where he or his wife ſhall be then reſident, ſhall be ſearched by vertue of this Act, but by immediate Warrant from his Majeſty, under His Sign Manual; or in the preſence of the Lieutenant, or one Deputy-Lieutenant, or two Juſtices of the Peace, whereof one to be of the Quorum, of the ſame County or Riding.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any Conſtable, Head-borough, Tythingman, Church-warden, or Overſeer of the Poor, who ſhall know, or be credibly informed of any ſuch Meetings or Conventicles held within his Precincts, Pariſh or Limits, and ſhall not give Information thereof to ſome Juſtice of the Peace, or the chief Magiſtrate, and endeavour the conviction of the Parties according to his duty; but ſuch Conſtable, Head-borough, Tything-man, Church-warden, Overſeers of the Poor, or any perſon lawfully called in aid of the Conſtable, Head-borough or Tything-man, ſhall wilfully and wittingly omit the performance of his duty, in the Execution of this Act, and be thereof convicted in manner aforeſaid, he ſhall forfeit for every ſuch offence, the ſum of Five pounds, to be levied upon his Goods and Chattels, and diſpoſed in manner aforeſaid: And that if any Juſtice of the Peace, or chief Magiſtrate, ſhall wilfully and wittingly omit the performance of his duty in the Execution of this Act, he ſhall forfeit the ſum of One hundred pounds, the one moyety to the uſe of the Informer, to be recovered by Action, Suit, Bill or Plaint, in any of His Majeſties Courts at Weſtminſter, wherein no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall lie.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that if any perſon be at any time ſued for putting in Execution any of the Powers contained in this Act, otherwiſe then upon appeal allowed by this Act, ſuch perſon ſhall and may plead the General Iſſue, and give the ſpecial Matter in Evidence; and if the Plaintiff be Non-ſuit, or a Verdict paſs for the Defendant, or if the Plaintiff diſcontinue his Action, or if upon Demurrer, Judgment be given for the Defendant, every ſuch Defendant ſhall have his full treble Coſts.

All perſons indemnified that put this Act in execution.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That this Act, and all Clauſes therein contained, ſhall be conſtrued moſt largely and beneficially for the Suppreſſing of Conventicles, and for the Juſtification and Encouragement of all perſons to be imployed in the Execution thereof; And that no Record, Warrant, or Mittimus to be made by vertue of this Act, or any proceedings thereupon, ſhall be reverſed, avoided, or any way impeached by reaſon of any Default in form. And in caſe any perſon offending againſt this Act, ſhall be an Inhabitant in any other County or Corporation, or flie into any other County or Corporation, after the offence committed, the Juſtice of Peace, or chief Magiſtrate, before whom he ſhall be convicted as aforeſaid, ſhall certifie the ſame under his Hand and Seal, to any Juſtice of Peace, or chief Magiſtrate of ſuch other County or Corporation wherein the ſaid perſon or perſons are Inhabitants, or are fled into; which ſaid Juſtice or chief Magiſtrate reſpectively, is hereby authorized and required to levy the penalty or penalties in this Act mentioned, upon the Goods and Chattels of ſuch perſon or perſons, as fully as the ſaid other Juſtice of Peace might have done, in caſe he or they had been Inhabitants in the place where the offence was committed.

This Act to be interpreted moſt beneficially for the ſuppreſſing Conventicles.

Provided alſo, that no perſon ſhall be puniſhed for any offence againſt this Act, unleſſe ſuch Offendor be proſecuted for the ſame within Three moneths after the offence committed, And that no perſon who ſhall be puniſhed for any offence by vertue of this Act, ſhall be puniſhed for the ſame offence by vertue of any other Act or Law whatſoever.

Offendors to be proſecuted within three moneths after the offence.

Provided, and be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That every Alderman of London for the time being, within the City of London, and the Liberties thereof, ſhall have (and they and every of them are hereby impowred and required to Execute) the ſame power and authority within London, and the Liberties thereof, for the examining, convicting and puniſhing of all offences within this Act committed within London, and the Liberties thereof, which any Juſtice of Peace hath by this Act in any County of England, and ſhall be ſubject to the ſame penalties and puniſhments, for not doing that which by this Act is directed to be done by any Juſtice of Peace in any County of England.

Aldermen within London have the ſame power there as Juſtices of Peace elſewhere.

Provided, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if the perſon offending, and convicted as aforeſaid, be a Feme-Covert, cohabiting with her Huſband, the penalties of Five ſhillings, and Ten ſhillings, ſo as aforeſaid incurred, ſhall be levied by warrant, as aforeſaid, upon the Goods and Chattels of the Huſband of ſuch Feme-Covert.

Feme Covert.

Provided alſo, That no Peer of this Realm ſhall be attached or impriſoned by vertue or force of this Act; Any thing, Matter or Clauſe therein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Peers of the Realm.

Provided alſo, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend to invalidate or avoid His Majeſties Supremacy in Eccleſiaſtical affairs; But that his Majeſty, and his Heirs and Succeſſors may from time to time, and at all times hereafter, exerciſe and enjoy all powers and authority in Eccleſiaſtical affairs, as fully and as amply as himſelf or any of his Predeceſſors have or might have done the ſame: Any thing in this Act notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Kings Supremacy.

CAP. II.

An Act for Repairing the Haven and Peers of Great Yarmouth.

VVhereas the Borough of great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, is an ancient Borough bordering upon the Sea, and of great ſtrength to reſiſt the Enemy in time of War, and at all times of great neceſſity and importance, as well for his Majeſties Service: As alſo, for the general good and benefit of the whole Kingdom, eſpecially in reſpect of the preſervation of the Fiſhery, and the breeding and imploying many thouſand of ſkilful Mariners and Sea-men: The truth whereof by long Experience hath been ſufficiently evinced; And whereas the Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough have waſted the Revenues in and about the defraying the daily great, unſupportable and unavoidable Charge of Repairing and Maintaining the Haven belonging to the ſaid Borough and the Peers thereof, and of themſelves are in no wiſe able to Repair and Maintain the ſame as formerly they have done, being much impoveriſhed by the late War and Plague, by the great decay of all Trading, eſpecially the Fiſhery; ſo that the great benefit accrewing by the ſaid Haven muſt of neceſſity be loſt (unleſs timely prevented) to the ruine of the Inhabitants of the ſaid Borough and the great prejudice of the whole Kingdom.

Yarmouth an ancient Borough, and of great importance.

The intent of this Act.

For the prevention whereof, and to the end the ſaid Haven and Peers may with all convenient ſpeed be Repaired, and at all times hereafter maintained, preſerved and kept in good Reparations, and Timber and other Materials for that end and purpoſe provided and furniſhed from time to time as occaſion ſhall require.

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That for Ten years from and after the Four and twentieth day of June now next enſuing, there ſhall be paid by the Maſter or other perſon having the Rule and Command of any Ship or Veſſel unlading within the ſaid Haven of Great Yarmouth, at the time of the unlading thereof; for the Goods hereafter mentioned (that is to ſay) for every Chaulder of Coals (Wincheſter Meaſure) Laſt of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Mault, or other Grain, and for every Weigh of Salt, and every Tun of any other Goods and Merchandiſes whatſoever, Cod-fiſh, Ling, Herrings, and other Fiſh onely excepted, which ſhall be Imported and Unladen in the ſaid Haven, ſuch ſum or ſums of money not exceeding the ſum of Twelve pence for every Chaulder of Coals (Wincheſter Meaſure) Laſt of Wheat, Rye, Barley, Mault, or other Grain, and for every Weigh of Salt, and every Tun of any other Goods and Merchandiſes whatſoever, (except before excepted) as the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the ſaid Borough of Great Yarmouth in Common Council aſſembled, ſhall from time to time order or appoint.

Bayliffs, Aldermen & Burgeſſes there may appoint Collectors of the ſaid Rate.

And to the intent that the ſums of money to be paid as aforeſaid, may be duly collected and levied for the uſe and purpoſe aforeſaid; Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the ſaid Borough in Common Council aſſembled from time to time, and at all times hereafter for and during the ſaid term of Ten years, to nominate and chooſe ſuch perſon or perſons to be Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers of every ſuch ſum and ſums of money, as ſhall be ordered or appointed to be paid, as aforeſaid, as they ſhall think fit: All which Sums of Money, the ſaid Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, ſhall from time to time pay, or cauſe to be paid into the hands of the Chamberlains of the ſaid Borough for the time being, for the uſe of the ſaid Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, for the intent and purpoſe aforeſaid, and to none other intent or purpoſe whatſoever.

Commiſſioners appointed to have Inſpection of the Receits ang Diſburſements of all ſuch Moneys.

When and by whom to be appointed.

And to the intent that all and every the Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be collected and levied by vertue of this Act, may be imployed for and towards the repairing the ſaid Haven aad Peers; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That there ſhall be eight Commiſſioners from time to time nominated and appointed to have the Inſpection, and to take accompt of the Receipts and Diſburſements of all ſuch Moneys as ſhall be ſo collected and levied during the term aforeſaid: Two of which ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall be yearly, and every year from time to time nominated and appointed by the ſaid Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the ſaid Borough in Common Council aſſembled; and other two of the ſaid Eight Commiſſioners to be in like manner nominated and appointed by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled; and other two of them to be in like manner nominated and appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the ſaid County of Norfolk; and other two of them to be in like manner nominated and appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Suffolk at the reſpective Seſſions of the Peace for to be holden for the ſaid Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk reſpectively:

The Commiſſioners power.

Which ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five, or more of them, ſhall and may from time to time during the ſaid Term, call before them the Collectors, Receivers, or others who ſhall be intruſted with the Collection, Receipt, or Employment of the Moneys to be collected and received in purſuance of this act, who ſhall, and are by vertue of this Act required to render unto the Commiſſioners, or any five, or more of them, a true Accompt thereof, and of all and every Sum and Sums of Money, which ſhall reſt due upon ſuch Accompt; And the ſaid Commiſſioners, or any five or more of them, ſhall and may order and appoint all ſuch Moneys which ſhall reſt due upon ſuch Accompt to be laid out and expended for and towards tht Uſes and Purpoſes aforeſaid, as there ſhall be cauſe; and the Bailiffs of the ſaid Borough for the time being, or one of them, are hereby enabled and required to adminiſter an Oath to every ſuch Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers as ſhall be nominated and choſen, as aforeſaid, for the true and faithful executing his or their Office in and about the premiſes, according to the true intent and meaning of this preſent Act.

Allowance to the Collectors, Receivers, &c.

Provided, That the ſaid Collector and Collectors, Receiver and Receivers, to be nominated & choſen, as aforeſaid, and every of them ſhall from time to time be allowed for their pains, in Executing the ſaid Office, out of the Sums of Money by them received, ſo much as the ſaid Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and commonalty in Common-Councel aſſembled, ſhall think fit, not exceeding Two pence in the pound.

Collectors may at ſeaſonable times enter Ships to ſee whit Goods are there.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the ſaid Collector and Collectors, Receiver and Receivers for the time being and every or any of them, from time to time, and at all convenient and ſeaſonable times, to enter into any Ship or Veſſel being within the ſaid Haven, there to ſee and inform themſelves what Goods ſhall be in the ſame, unladen out thereof.

And for non-payment of the Rate diſtrain upon the ſaid Ship, &c.

And in caſe the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money, ſo ordered or appointed to be paid, as aforeſain, ſhall not be paid by the Maſter, or other perſon or perſons having the rule and command of any Ship or Veſſel unlading within the ſaid Haven, as aforeſaid, according to the true intent and meaning of this Act; That then, and ſo often it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the ſaid Collector and Collectors, Receiver and Receivers, and every, or any of them, by Warrant obtained from the Bayliffs of the ſaid Borough of Great Yarmouth for the time being, or one of them, under, their, or one of their Hands and Seals, to take and Diſtrain every ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and all Tackle, Apparel, and Furniture thereunto belonging, or any part thereof; and the ſame to detain and keep until he or they be ſatisfied and paid the ſaid Sums of Money, and every of them.

Diſtreſſes to be ſold.

And in caſe of neglect or delay. of or in the Payment of the ſaid Sum or Sums of Money, or any of them, within ten days after any Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes, ſo taken as aforeſaid, That then it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Collector and Collectors, Receiver and Receivers, and every, or any of them, to ſell the ſaid Diſtreſs or Diſtreſſes ſo taken, and therewith to ſatisfie him or themſelves, as well for and concerning the Duty ſo neglected or delayed to be paid, and for which a Diſtreſs ſhall be ſo taken, as aforeſaid: As alſo for his and their reaſonable Charge in the taking or keeping of ſuch Diſtreſs, rendring to the Maſter, or other perſon having the Rule and Command of the Ship or Veſſel, in or from which ſuch Diſtreſs ſhall be ſo taken, the Overplus, if any there ſhall be.

What is exempted from payment of the ſaid Duty.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch oyls and Fiſh-Livers as ſhall be obtained in and upon any Fiſhing-Voyage or Voyages, and ſuch remainder of Salt, Bread, Beer and other Proviſion, as ſhall be taken into any Ship or Veſſel, for the accompliſhing any Fiſhing-Voyage or Voyages, or into any Ship or Veſſel for the maintenance of the Maſter and Mariners ſerving therein, upon any other Voyage or Voyages to be made with ſuch Ship or Veſſel, and not ſpent therein, ſhall be exempted from the Payment of the ſaid Duty; Any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Ten perſons to be choſen to contract with Workmen for the Repair of the Haven.

And to the end the Haven and Peer aforeſaid may be Repaired and Maintained with as much Thrift and good Husbandry as may conſiſt with the effectual and ſubſtantial performance thereof, and that all Parties who are by this Act made Contributary to the ſame, may be ſatisfied therein, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That at the next Quarter-Seſſions, which ſhall be after the Firſt day of May next holden at the Caſtle of Norwich, there ſhall be three perſons choſen by the Juſtices of the Peace at the ſaid Quarter Seſſions for the County of Norfolk, and the like number ſhall be choſen at the aforeſaid Quarter-Seſſions to be holden at Beckles for the County of Suffolk; as alſo, two perſons ſhall be choſen by the City of Norwich, and two by the Town of Great Yarmouth aforeſaid, in ſuch manner as is in this Act before directed, who are hereby authorized and required to meet at Great Yarmouth on or before the Twenty ninth day of September next, and to Adjourn to ſuch further time or times, place or places, as occaſion ſhall require: which ten perſons choſen as aforeſaid, or any Five or more of them meeting as aforeſaid, upon Conſideration and Examination upon Oath (which Oath they or any Five of them have hereby power to adminiſter) to be had of the preſent ſtate of the Haven and Peer aforeſaid, and of the Repair neceſſary to the ſame, are hereby authorized and impowred to Treat and contract with any perſon or perſons (whom they ſhall think fitly qualified for the undertaking the Repair aforeſaid, and capable ſufficiently to ſecure the performance thereof) concerning the preſent Repair of the ſaid Haven and Peer, and maintaining the ſame in good Repair for the ſpace of ſeven years, and to be obliged at the determination thereof to leave the ſame in good and ſufficient Repair, in ſuch manner and under ſuch Covenants and Conditions as they ſhall think fit: And if the ſaid perſons aforeſaid, or any Five or more of them ſhall find it convenient to make any ſuch Contract as aforeſaid, before the Five and twentieth day of December next enſuing, Then the Impoſition authorized by this Act to be Levied as aforeſaid, upon Goods Unladen in the Port of Great Yarmouth, ſhall be continued no longer then till the Sum neceſſary for performance of ſuch Contract, together with the neceſſary Charges for levying the ſame, to be accounted and allowed as aforeſaid, ſhall be raiſed and paid: But if the ſaid ten perſons, or any Five or more of them as aforeſaid, thereunto appointed by this Act, ſhall not make and conclude a Contract for the Repairing and maintaining the ſaid Haven and Peer, as is hereby directed, before the Five and twentieth day of December next enſuing, Then the ſame ſhall be Repaired by the Direction and Care of the Bayliffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the ſaid Town of Great Yarmouth in Common-Councel aſſembled for the time being, and the money raiſed and levied by vertue of this Act ſhall be accounted for, as in the former part of this Act is directed, and as if no mention had been made of any Bargain or Contract to be made for the performance thereof.

In default of ſuch contract, who ſhall take care of the ſaid Reparations.

The continuance of this Act.

Provided, That if by the Annual Impoſition hereby impoſed, the Peer ſhall be Repaired within leſſe then Ten years; That then the ſaid Impoſition ſhall ceaſe, when the Sum ſo imployed in Repair of the Peer ſhall have been raiſed thereby.

CAP. III.

An Impoſition upon all Wines and Vineger Imported between the Four and twentieth day of June One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy, and the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy Eight, granted to his Majeſty.

VVE your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Commons aſſembled in Parliament, for a Supply of your Majeſties Weighty and Important Occaſions, and with an humble and thankful acknowledgment of your Majeſties favourable and tender regard of us your Commons, have chearfully and unanimouſly given and granted unto your Majeſty, an Aid and Aſſiſtance to be Raiſed and Levied upon all Wines and Vineger to be Imported into this your Majeſties Kingdom, according to ſuch Rates, and during ſuch time, and in ſuch manner and form as herein after followeth.

And we do humbly beſeech your Majeſty, that it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame, That for all French Wines, Spaniſh Wines, or other Wines whatſowhatſoever. As alſo, for all Vineger which at any time after the Four and twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, and before the Four and twentieth day of June in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy eight, ſhall be Imported into England or Wales, or the Town and Port of Berwick upon Tweed, there ſhall be duly anſwered and paid to his Majeſty the further Rates and Duties hereafter mentioned: (that is to ſay) For every Tun of French Wine, and of Vineger, which ſhall be Imported within the time aforeſaid, the ſum of Eight pounds by the Tun, and ſo after that rate, for any greater or leſſer quantity: And alſo, for every Tun of Spaniſh Wines, or of any other Wines which ſhall be Imported within the time aforeſaid, the Sum of Twelve pounds by the Tun, and ſo after that Rate for any greater or leſſer quantity.

Importers before landing to pay the Impoſition, and in what manner.

And for the better and more ſure collecting and receiving of all and ſingular the Duties hereby impoſed; Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons within the time aforeſaid ſhall Import or cauſe to be Imported by way of Merchandiſe, any of the Liquors aforeſaid; ſuch Importer ſhall upon the Entry made of ſuch Liquors, and before the Landing thereof, pay down the Duties hereby Impoſed, in ready Money, deducting the Allowance hereafter mentioned, or otherwiſe become bound unto his Majeſty with two or more ſufficient Sureties, or procure three other perſons to become bound to his Majeſty to anſwer and pay unto his Majeſty the whole Rates and Duties hereby impoſed by three ſeveral and equal payments: The firſt payment thereof to be made within three Moneths after the date of the ſaid Obligation: The ſecond payment to be made within ſix Moneths after the date of the ſaid Obligation: And the third and laſt payment to be made within nine Moneths after the date of the ſaid Obligation; the taking which Bonds, and the Approbation of the Sureties therein to be named, is hereby left to the diſcretion of ſuch Farmers, or other Commiſſioners for the time being, as ſhall be intruſted with the Receipt and Management of his Majeſties Cuſtoms and Subſidies of Tunnage & Poundage, or their Deputy Collectors in the ſeveral Ports, or ſuch other perſon or perſons, as his Majeſty ſhall authorize and appoint to collect the Duties ariſing by this Act. And if any perſon or perſons ſhall import any of the Liquors aforeſaid within the time aforeſaid, not by way of Merchandiſe, nor with intent to ſell the ſame again, but for his own private uſe or occaſions; ſuch perſon ſo Importing the ſame, ſhall upon Entry thereof made, immediately and before Landing thereof, pay down the whole Duties by this Act impoſed in ready Money, without any further time given, or any Security to be accepted for the ſame, or any Abatement or Diſcount to be therefore made upon any pretence whatſoever.

Abatement upon paying ready mony.

Provided always, and it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons Importing any of the Liquors aforeſaid, within the time aforeſaid, by way of Merchandiſe, who ſhall pay the Duties which by this Act are due and payable in ready moneys, ſhall be allowed and abated out of the ſaid Duties, after the Rate of Ten pounds per Cent. for a year, in conſideration of ſuch ready Money ſo paid down and advanced.

Penalties for non-payment of the Rates and Duties impoſed by this Act.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any of the ſaid Liquors ſhall be Imported within the time aforeſaid, and landed without preſent payment made of the rates and duties by this Act impoſed, in caſes where this Act requires preſent payment to be made, or without ſecurity given for payment thereof in caſes where this Act admits of ſecurity to be taken, That then and in every ſuch caſe, all and every the Liquors ſo Imported and landed, or the value thereof ſhall be forfeited: One Moiety thereof to his Majeſty, and the other Moiety to him or them that ſhall or will ſue for the ſame. And ſhall and may be recovered in any Court of Record by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed; nor any more then one Imparlance: And yet nevertheleſs the perſon ſo Importing and landing any of the ſaid Liquors, ſhall notwithſtanding ſuch forfeiture ſo as aforeſaid incurred, remain and continue lyable unto, and ſhall anſwer and pay unto his Majeſty, the Rates and Duties for ſuch Liquors which by this Act are due and payable.

12 Car. 2. cap. 4.

And whereas by the Act for Tunnage and Poundage, and the Inſtructions and Rules for collecting his Majeſties Duties ariſing thereby, it is directed, that certain Allowances, be made upon Importation of Wines and other liquors.

Allowances.

Be it further Enacted that no Importer there ſhall be chargeable by vertue of this act to pay the duty hereby required for any greater proportion of Wines or other Liquors duely entred at the Cuſtom Houſe then what ſhall remain Neat after all ſuch Allowances and Abatement.

Importers not Retailers ſhall have abatements.

And whereas this preſent Act gives no Abatement to any perſon upon Exportation of any the Liquors aforeſaid, Be it further Enacted and Declared, that all Importers not being Vintners or Retailers, (who are hereby declared, ſhall pay ready money for the whole duty) who ſhall import any of the aforeſaid Liquors within the time aforeſaid, and ſhall make Oath that the ſame are Imported by way of Merchandize and with intent to ſell again (which Oath the Farmers or Commiſſioners of his Majeſties Cuſtomes for the time being, or in their abſence, the Collector of his Majeſties Cuſtomes, in each ſeveral reſpective Port, or ſuch other perſon or perſons as his Majeſty ſhall Authorize and Appoint to Collect the Duties ariſing by this Act, have hereby power to adminiſter) That then and in every ſuch caſe for and in conſideration of any defect, or Damage that may happen by any of the aforeſaid Liquors, lying longer on the ſaid Importers hands then heretofore, or by reaſon of any other Accident there ſhall be allowed and Abated to every ſuch Importer, the further allowance of Eight pounds per Cent. and no more.

Prizage wine.

Provided, that no Merchant ſhall be charged with any Duty Impoſed by this Act for the Prizage-wine, which he Imports in any Ship or Veſſel. Nor ſhall any ſecurity be by him given for the ſame, but that it be received and taken from the perſon who hath or enjoyeth the Benefit of the ſaid Prizage-wine, who is hereby appointed to pay the ſame.

Provided alwayes, And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That if any of the ſaid Imported Liquors, for which any of the Rates and Duties by this Act impoſed, ſhall be paid down and advanced, or otherwiſe ſecured as aforeſaid, ſhall at any time after ſuch Importation be again Exported into parts beyond the Seas, That then and in every ſuch caſe the perſon or perſons ſo Exporting the ſame, ſhall be wholly barred and excluded from having or receiving back the duties of this Act ſo paid down and advanced, or any part thereof: Nor ſhall the Security formerly given by ſuch perſon Exporting, for the true payment of the Duties by this Act impoſed, be any ways Raiſed, Leſſened, or Diſcharged by reaſon of ſuch Exportation, but the ſame Securities ſhall remain and continue in force, until the duties thereby ſecured, be fully and wholly ſatisfied and paid: Any ſuch Exportation to the contrary notwithſtanding.

None ſhall receive back any Duties impoſed by this Act.

And for the better prevention of all ſuch Frauds, which at any time hereafter may be committed to the prejudice of His Majeſty, in the due Collecting and Receiving of the Duties hereby impoſed upon ſuch Liquors to be Imported as aforeſaid: Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Officers of his Majeſties Cuſtoms, or ſuch other perſon or perſons as His Majeſty ſhall authorize and appoint to Collect the Duties ariſing by this Act, ſhall have like Power and Authority, to enter on Board Ships and Veſſels, and make Searches, and to do all other matters and things which may tend to ſecure the true payment of the Duties by this Act impoſed, and the due and orderly Collection thereof, which any Cuſtomers, Collectors, or other Officers, of any His Majeſties Ports, can or may do touching or ſecuring His Majeſties Cuſtoms of Tunnage and Poundage, and all the ſaid Liquors to be Imported within the time aforeſaid, and Landed without doing and performing what by this Act is required to be done and performed before the Landing thereof.

Power given to the Officers of the Cuſtomes to ſearch, &c.

And all Officers of His Majeſties Cuſtoms, and all perſons Importing any of the ſaid Liquors, and all others imployed by His Majeſty in the Collection of the Duties ariſing by this Act, who ſhall be found guilty of any act or neglect, tending to defraud His Majeſty of any the Duties hereby Impoſed, ſhall be ſubject and liable to the ſame Seizures, Penalties and Forfeitures, which by vertue of any Former Act, can or may be inflicted in ſuch caſes, where His Majeſty is defrauded or endeavoured to be defrauded of any His Cuſtoms and Subſidies as fully and amply as if the ſame Clauſes of Seizures, Penalties, and forfeitures, and the ſame diſtribution of ſuch Forfeitures, and the ſame remedy for recovery thereof, had been again in this Act particularly repeated, applied, and enacted.

The Penalties of ſuch as ſhall be found to defraud his Majeſty of the ſaid Duties.

And if any Liquors ſeized for any offence committed againſt this Act, ſhall be claimed by any perſon as the Importer thereof, the proof whether the Duties thereof be duly paid or ſecured, ſhall lye upon ſuch Claimer, and ſhall not be incumbent on his Majeſty, or any Proſecutor or Informer on behalf of His Majeſty, and himſelf.

And it is hereby further Declared and Enacted, That until the whole Moneys intended to be raiſed by an Act entituled, An Act for raiſing Three hundred and ten thouſand Pound, by an Impoſition upon Wines and other Liquors, be fully raiſed and ſatisfied, all entries, Obligations and Securities made or entred into by any Retailer before the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, for payment of any the Duties by the ſaid Act impoſed ſhall remain and continue in full force, although the Liquors, the Duties whereof are ſo ſecured, ſhall be uttered by Retail after the ſaid Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy: And alſo that His Majeſty, and all others, claiming by from and under His Majeſty, ſhall have the ſame Power, and Authority for levying all Arrearages of the Rates, Duties, Fines, or Forfeitures which already are or hereafter ſhall grow due by vertue of the ſaid former Act, as fully and amply as he or they might have had, if this preſent Act had never been had nor made.

20 Car. 2. cap.

Obligations and Securities given by any Retailers, before June 24. 1670. to continue in force.

And whereas ſeveral perſons have advanced great Sums of Money for His Majeſties Service, at the Rate of Six pounds per Cent, upon the Security of the former Act, and in order to the ſatisfaction of their Debts, are Regiſtred in courſe in His Majeſties Court of Exchequer, as by the ſaid act was required. To the end therefore, that all and every the Rates and Impoſitions by the ſaid former act made due and payable, may be fully anſwered during ſuch time as the ſaid act is to continue in force, and the ſaid Security made effectual, by a Diſcovery of ſuch Wines, and other Liquors aforeſaid chargeable by the ſaid act, which have been, or before the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, ſhall be delivered out to any Retailer without due Payment made, or Security given for the Duties by the ſaid Act impoſed.

Be it further enacted, That the Authority given to the preſent Commiſſioners for the Execution of the ſaid former Act, ſhall continue in force until the Firſt day of October next enſuing, and ſhall be transferred to and put in Execution by ſuch other perſons, as the Kings Majeſty ſhall for that purpoſe appoint: And ſuch other perſons ſo to be appointed, ſhall have Power to inform themſelves by the Entries at the Cuſtom-Houſe, or otherwiſe, what Quantities of Wines have been Imported ſince the Firſt day of October laſt paſt, and what Quantity of other Liquors have been Imported ſince the Firſt day of February, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and nine, and to examine each Importer upon Oath, to what Retailer the ſame were Sold or delivered: And all Importers refuſing to be ſo examined, ſhall be, and are hereby charged with the Payment of ſo much Money, as the ſaid Wines, or other Liquors entred by ſuch Importer at the Cuſtom-Houſe, would have amounted to, in caſe the ſame had been ſould to any Retailer: And the Oath of every Importer ſhall be, and is hereby declared a ſufficient Conviction of every Retailer touching the Quantities of Wines, or other Liquors, to him Sold or delivered to Retail. And all and every Retailer ſhall be, and is hereby charged with ſo much Money as the Duties of ſuch Liquors ſo ſworn to be delivered,

The Commiſſioners authority to continue in force to the firſt of October, 1670. and to what purpoſes.

Importers examined upon Oath.

red, do amount unto by the ſaid former Act: And His Majeſty ſhall and may cauſe the ſame to be levied accordingly.

Retailers to pay for all Wines by them imported from the firſt day of October, 1668.

And foraſmuch as great Quantities of Wine have been imported ſince the firſt day of October, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight, by perſons being Retailers of Wines; which Wines, or a great part thereof, have not paid the Duty, as by the ſaid Act ought to have been done, Be it therefore Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every ſuch Retailer ſhall pay the duty for all ſuch Wine as was by him ſo imported, and the Cuſtom-Houſe Book, and his Entry thereof ſhall be a charge upon ſuch Retailer: And the ſaid Retailer ſhall pay for all ſuch Wines ſo entred, as he ſhall not diſcharge himſelf either by his own corporal Oath, or by the Oath of two other credible Witneſſes, that he hath already paid the ſaid duty, or ſecured the ſame, or hath ſold ſuch Wine to ſuch other Retailer.

Provided, That no perſon be compellable to travel out of the County where he dwelleth to take the ſaid Oath.

All Liquors remaining in Cellars, Store-houſes, &c. the 24th. of June, 1670. lyable to the duty impoſed by this Act.

And be it further Enacted, That all Liquors aforeſaid, which upon the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, ſhall remain in the Cellars or Store-houſes of any Merchant, Importer, Wine-Cooper, or other Trading Perſon or Retailer (unleſs the ſaid Retailer hath paid or ſecured the Duty) ſhall be liable unto, and charged with the duty impoſed by this Act, and ſhall pay or ſecure to his Majeſty the duty due for the ſame, having allowance of the ſame abatements and defalcations to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſaid Wine had been imported within the time limited by this preſent Act.

Account.

And to the end that there may be an accompt taken of all ſuch Wines ſo remaining; Be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for his Majeſty to appoint one or more perſons to ſearch for the ſame, and take an accompt thereof. And if any Importer, or other perſon aforeſaid, ſhall ſell, remove, or otherwiſe diſpoſe any ſuch Wines before the Security given, or Money paid, as in this Act is directed in caſe of Importation, all ſuch Wines ſo ſold, removed or diſpoſed, or the value thereof, ſhall be forfeited and loſt, together with the value of the duty which ought to have been paid his Majeſty for the ſame; One half to his Majeſty, and the other half to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame in any Court of Record, to be recovered by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information. And all Moneys to be received or recovered by vertue of this Clauſe, ſhall in the firſt place be applied, for and towards the ſatisfaction of ſuch Creditors as have advanced Money upon the credit of the ſaid former Act, in ſuch order and courſe as they now ſtand Regiſtred in his Majeſties Court of Exchequer.

Wines removed or diſpoſed, before the duty paid ſhall be forfeited.

CAP. IV.

An Act for the ſetling the Impoſition on Brandy.

12 Car. 2. cap. 23.
12 Car. 2. cap. 24.

Whereas by two Acts made in the twelfth year of his Majeſties Reign, and confirmed by this preſent Parliament, there was laid upon every Gallon of Spirits, made of any kind of Wine or Sider Imported; the rate and duty of Four pence, ~~namely~~, by each of the ſaid Acts Two pence: And upon every Gallon of Strong-water perfectly made, Imported from beyond the Seas, the rate and duty of Eight pence. And whereas ſome doubts have been made and raiſed concerning a certain Liquor imported from beyond the Seas, called Brandy, whether the ſame ſhould pay the rate and duty laid by the ſaid Acts upon Spirits made of any kind of Wine or Syder imported, or the rate and duty thereby laid upon Strong-water perfectly made, imported from beyond the Seas.

Brandy a Strong-water chargeable by the ſaid two Acts.

Be it therefore declared by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, that the ſaid Liquor called Brandy, was at the time of making and confirming the ſaid Acts, and is a Strong-water perfectly made, and being imported from beyond the Seas, was and is charged and chargeable in and by the ſaid Acts, with the rate and duty of Eight pence per Gallon, ſet and impoſed in and by both the ſaid Acts upon Strong-water, perfectly made and imported from beyond the Seas, and was not, nor is not chargeable with the rate and duty of Four pence only per Gallon by the ſaid Acts ſet and impoſed upon Spirits made of Wine or Syder imported.

Eight d. per gallon not demanded before the firſt of November, 1666. No perſon before that chargeable for more then four pence.

Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted, That in regard it doth not appear, that the rate or duty of eight pence per Gallon was by his Majeſties Commiſſioners, Farmers, or other Officers, in that behalf claimed or demanded by vertue of the ſaid Acts before the firſt day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, That no perſon or perſons who have imported any Brandies before that time ſhall be charged or chargeable with any more then the rate and duty of Four pence per Gallon, for any of the ſaid Liquor called Brandy, imported from beyond the Seas, before the ſaid firſt day of November, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix; Any thing in the ſaid Acts, or in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Penalties, how and when to be levyed.

Provided alwayes, and be it further enacted, That no penalty inflicted by the two aforeſaid, or any other Act or Acts of Parliaments for non-payment of the ſaid duties ſince the firſt day of November, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and ſix, ſhall be levied upon any perſon now in arrear, until the ſaid perſon ſo in arrear, ſhall upon demand to be made after the paſſing of this Act, refuſe to pay the ſaid Duties, or to ſecure the ſame to be paid within three Moneths after ſuch demand; and upon ſuch payment or ſecurity given, all former Bonds or Obligations given for the payment of the four pences formerly in controverſie, ſhall be delivered up by the ſeveral perſon or perſons in whoſe cuſtody the ſame or any of them are; and that no Jury ſhall be ſubject to any attaint by reaſon of any Verdict heretofore by them given concerning any matter relating to this or any of the aforeſaid Acts.

CAP. V.

The benefit of Clergy taken away from ſuch as Steal Cloth from the Rack, and from ſuch as ſhall Steal or Imbezil His Majeſties Ammunition and Stores.

Whereas many evil diſpoſed perſons have of late more frequently then in former times, uſed and practiſed the cutting of Cloth and other woollen Manufactures in the night-time, off from the Racks or Tenters, where the ſaid Cloth is put for the drying thereof, and Feloniouſly Steal and carry away the ſame, to the utter undoing and impoveriſhing of many Clothiers, and the great hinderance of the Trade of Clothing.

And whereas, by an Act made in the One and thirtieth year of the Reign of the late Queen Elizabeth; It is amongſt other things enacted, That if any perſon having the charge or cuſtody, of any Armour, Ordnance, Munition, Shot, Powder, or Habiliments of War, of the ſaid Queens, her Heirs or Succeſſors, or of any Victuals provided for the Victualling of any Souldiers, Gunners, Mariners or Pioners, ſhall for any lucre or gain, or willingly, adviſedly, and of purpoſe, to hinder or impeach her Majeſties Service, Imbezil, Purloyn, or convey away any the ſame Armour, Ordnance, Munition, Shot or Powder, Habiliments of war, or Victuals, to the value of Twenty ſhillings, at one or ſeveral times, That then every ſuch offence ſhall be adjudged Felony, and the Offendor therein to be proceeded on and ſuffer as in caſe of Felony; unto the committing of which ſeveral Offences many perſons are the more emboldened, in reſpect that in thoſe caſes the benefit of Clergy is allowed by Law.

31 Eliz. cap.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and the authority thereof, That no perſon or perſons who ſhall from and after the Five and twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, be indicted for felonious cutting and taking, ſtealing and carrying away, of any Cloth or other woollen Manufactures, from the Rack or Tenter in the night-time; Or for any offence committed againſt the ſaid Recited Act, made in the ſaid One and thirtieth year of Queen Elizabeth; Or ſhall feloniouſly ſteal or imbezil any of his Majeſties Sailes, Cordage, or any other his Majeſties Naval Stores, to the value of twenty ſhillings, and thereupon found guilty by Verdict of Twelve men; Or ſhall confeſs the ſame upon his or their Arraignment, or will not anſwer directly to the ſame according to the Laws of this Realm, or ſhall ſtand wilfully, or of malice, and obſtinately Mute; Or challenge peremptorily above the number of Twenty; Or ſhall be upon ſuch Indictment Outlawed, ſhall from and after the ſaid Five and twentieth day of May, be admitted to have the benefit of his or their Clergy, but utterly be excluded thereof, and ſhall ſuffer Death in ſuch manner and form as they ſhould if they were no Clerks.

Perſons ſtealing cloth from the Rack or embezilling his Majeſties Stores to the value of 20 s. and thereof found guilty, ſhall be excluded from the benefit of Clergy.

Provided alwayes, and be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Judges or Juſtices of the Court, before whom ſuch Offendor ſhall be arraigned and condemned, at their diſcretion to grant a Reprieve for the ſtaying of execution of ſuch Offendor, and to cauſe ſuch Offendor to be tranſported to any of his Majeſties Plantations beyond the Seas, there to remain for the ſpace of ſeven years, to be accounted from the time of ſuch Tranſportation, and during all that time there to be kept to Labour: And if ſuch Offendor ſhall refuſe to be ſo tranſported, or after ſuch Tranſportation ſhall return, or come again into this Kingdom of England, or the Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, within the time aforeſaid, That then, and in every ſuch caſe the perſon ſo returning, ſhall be put to execution upon the Judgment ſo given, and pronounced againſt him.

Judges may reprieve and tranſport them.

Penalty for refuſing to be tranſported, or afterwards to return.

CAP. VI.

An Act for advancing the Sale of Fee-Farm Rents, and other Rents.

Whereas his Majeſty is ſeiſed of ſeveral Fee-Farm Rents, and other Rents in right of his Crown, ſome whereof are parcel of his Highneſs Dutchy of Cornwall, and is alſo ſeiſed of ſeveral Fee-Farm Rents, and other Rents in right of his Dutchy of Lancaſter.

And whereas it is convenient that ſome ſpecial priviledges and advantages ſhould be granted unto the Purchaſers, which cannot well be transferred unto them without authority of Parliament: And whereas the better to enable his Majeſty to pay ſuch Debts owing at Intereſt, whereof his Majeſty ſhall find reaſon to haſten the Diſcharge, his Majeſty is minded to grant and convey to certain perſons, and their Heirs and Aſſigns for ever, as Truſtees for Sale thereof, divers Fee-Farm Rents, Rents-Service, Rents-ſeck, or dry-Rents, Chauntry-Rents, Rents reſerved, Guild-Rents, Penſions, Vicontiel-Rents, Aſſart-Rents, Rents for Purpreſtures arented, Rents certain, or divers other Rents of what nature or kind ſoever they be, due and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, as his Majeſty ſhall think fit to mention and expreſs in the ſaid Letters Patents, whether the ſame be due to his Majeſty in right of his Crown of England, or in right of his Dutchy of Lancaſter, or be parcel of, or annexed unto the Dutchy of Cornwall; except always reſerved and forprized out of ſuch Letters Patents, all Quit-Rents and Copyhold-Rents ſtanding in charge as parcel of, or belonging to any Manor, or reputed Manor; and alſo all Tenths, and Firſt-Fruits, and Rents reſerved nomine Decimæ, due and payable by any Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacon, Prebendary, Parſon, Vicar, or any other Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical Corporation.

Fee-Farm Rents, Rents-ſervice, Chauntry-Rents, &c.

Except Quit-Rents, Copyhold-Rents, Tenths, Firſt-Fruits, &c.

And alſo all Rents reſerved upon any Leaſes or Eſtates, whereof the Reverſion is now in his Majeſty, and which are incident to ſuch Reverſion: And alſo all Rents reſerved upon any Leaſe or Farm made or granted, or to be made or granted of his Majeſties Cuſtomes or Exciſe: And alſo except all Rents or Sums of money due and payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, for or in reſpect of any Fire-hearths or Stoves.

Letters Patents granted by the King of certain Rents before the 24th of June, 1672. Confirmed.

Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, with the advice and aſſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That all and every Letters Patents to be granted by his Majeſty before the Four and twentieth day of June, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy two, under his Great Seal, or under the Seal of his Dutchy of Lancaſter, or under the Seal of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, of all or any of the Rents aforeſaid (except before excepted) ſhall be, and are hereby declared and enacted to be good, ſufficient, and effectual in the Law, for the granting and aſſuring the ſeveral Rents aforeſaid, or any of them (except before excepted) and for veſting the ſame in ſuch perſons and their Heirs, as ſhall be therein nominated as Truſtees for the Sale thereof, againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and againſt the Dukes of Cornwall for the time being, and againſt all perſon and perſons that ſhall have, or inherit or enjoy the Dukedom of Cornwall by force of any Act of Parliament, or other limitation whatſoever, according to the tenour and effect of the ſaid Letters Patents; and the ſame ſhall be expounded, conſtrued, deemed and adjudged moſt beneficially for the Patentees and Grantees of the ſame, and their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, according to the words and purport of the ſaid Letters Patents, without any Confirmation, Licence or Toleration of his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; any miſ-naming, miſ-recital, or non-recital of any the Honours, Manors, Caſtles, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments ſubject and liable to, or charged with the payment of ſuch Rents, or any miſ-recital, or non-recital of any Eſtate-tail formerly made, or of the Reverſion thereupon expectant, or any miſ-naming, or not true naming of the Towns, Hamlets, Pariſhes or Counties where the ſame Honours, Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, charged or chargeable with the ſaid Rents do lie, or any lack of the true naming of the Corporation, or any lack of Attornment, or any miſ-naming, or not naming of any of the Tenants or Farmers of the Lands charged or chargeable with ſuch Rents, or any part thereof to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And notwithſtanding any other defect or imperfection which ſhall happen therein, of what nature or kind ſoever it ſhall be. And the ſaid Rents ſo to be granted, ſhall be afterwards conveyed and diſpoſed by the ſaid Patentees, and Truſtees according to the Directions and Inſtructions herein after mentioned.

The Patentees and Truſtees may ſell the ſame Rents to any Purchaſer by Indenture of bargain and ſale inrolled.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Patentees and Truſtees, and the Survivor and Survivors of them ſhall make and execute to all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, who ſhall become Purchaſer or Purchaſers of the ſaid Rents, or of any part thereof, an Indenture of Bargain and Sale which ſhall be inrolled in any of the four Courts at Weſtminſter, within Six moneths after the date thereof, and ſhall contain a conveyance and aſſurance of the Rents ſo purchaſed, and ſhall transfer the ſame by words of Bargain and Sale, or by words of Grant, Releaſe or Confirmation, or by ſuch other apt words and clauſes, as by the ſaid Purchaſer or Purchaſers, their Heirs, Succeſſors or Aſſigns, ſhall be reaſonably deviſed or required, and ſhall be thought moſt ſuitable and convenient to and for the ſeveral Caſes and Titles of ſuch Purchaſer or Purchaſers reſpectively, and ſuch conveyance or aſſurance ſhall alſo recite the conſideration in money paid or given, and thereof, and of every part and parcel thereof, ſhall exonerate, acquit and diſcharge the ſaid Purchaſer or Purchaſers, his and their Heirs, Succeſſors, Executors and Aſſigns.

Purchaſers by vertue of ſuch Deed peaceably to enjoy againſt all Claims.

And be it further Declared and Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, his and their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, having and taking any ſuch conveyance and aſſurance as aforeſaid, and cauſing the ſame to be inrolled as aforeſaid, within the ſpace of Six moneths next after the date thereof, ſhall be, and is hereby adjudged an actual Seiſin and Poſſeſſion of the Rents ſo purchaſed and conveyed, and ſhall hold and enjoy the ſame in perfect peace, freed and diſcharged of and from all Claimes and Demands which can or may be made by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, either in right of his Crown, or any the Dutchies aforeſaid, or otherwiſe howſoever, or by any Dukes of Cornwall for the time being, or by any perſon or perſons that ſhall have, Inherit or Enjoy the Dukedome of Cornwall, by force of any Act of Parliament, or other limitation whatſoever, and alſo freed and diſcharged of and from any breach of Truſt, which can or may be pretended to be committed by the ſaid Truſtees, in not ſtrictly purſuing the powers given by this Act, or the Inſtructions herein after mentioned, or any other Inſtructions whatſoever, or the Orders to them directed at the time of the making and executing ſuch conveyance; And ſhall alſo hold and enjoy all and every the Rents ſo purchaſed, as fully, freely and amply, as his Majeſty at the time of the paſſing of this Act, did or might have held or enjoyed the ſame.

And to ſue for and recover the ſame as his Majeſty might have done.

And be it further Enacted, That all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, who ſhall purchaſe any of the ſaid Rents, and their and every of their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns reſpectively, ſhall be, and are hereby enabled to have, ſue for, and recover the ſame, by ſuch and the like lawful wayes and means, as his Majeſty or any of his Royal Progenitors could or might have recovered the ſame; Be it by diſtraining in all or any of the Lands of the Tenant or Tenants for the time being, that ſhall hold any Lands charged with the ſaid Rent, or by having power to detain or ſell all ſuch Diſtreſſes after the ſpace of fifteen dayes after ſuch Diſtreſſe taken, in caſe the ſaid Rent ſhall not be then or before paid, returning the Overplus of what ſhall be ſo ſold to the party diſtrained; or by having the full benefit and advantage of all Sums of Money reſerved nomine Pœnæ, or as a penalty for Non-payment of the ſaid Rent, or by uſing the like Action or Suit as his Majeſty might have uſed for the recovery of the ſame before ſuch Patent granted, ſo as the ſame extend not to any ſuch Proceſs of Extent, or other Prerogative Proceſſe out of the Court of Exchequer, as his Majeſty might have had before ſuch Patent granted. And foraſmuch as upon divers Commiſſions of defective Titles, Inquiſitions, or Suggeſtions of Concealments, divers Patents have formerly paſſed the Great Seal of England, or under the Seal of the Dutchy of Lancaſter, or under the Seal of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, of divers Manors, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, whereupon divers Fee-Farm Rents, or other Rents have been reſerved, and ſometimes put in charge, where in truth nothing hath paſſed by the ſaid Letters Patents: Nor have the Manors, Lands and Tenements, Liberties or Hereditaments mentioned to have been granted, been enjoyed or held under the ſaid Letters Patents, but under other Titles, or by vertue of other Letters Patents whereupon other Rents are reſerved.

Fee-Farm and other Rents not paid for 40 years laſt paſt, not to be inſerted in Patents.

Be it therefore Enacted, That ſuch Fee-Farm Rents, or other Rents which have not been uſually paid by the Owners or Occupiers of the Manors, Lands or Tenements charged, or mentioned to be charged therewith, by the greater ſpace of Forty years now laſt paſt, ſhall not be inſerted or mentioned in any ſuch Letters Patents to be hereafter granted to Truſtees as aforeſaid: And farther, that where any perſon or perſons, Bodies politick or corporate, have held any Manors, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſubject to the payment of any Fee-Farm Rent, or other Rent which hath been uſually paid or anſwered by the Owners or Occupiers of ſuch Lands ſo charged; and that by colour or pretence of ſome Patent of Concealment, or by pretence of Commiſſioners for defective Titles paſſed of the ſame Lands, ſome other or greater Rent hath been reſerved or put in charge, but the ſame hath not been uſually anſwered or paid by the Owners or Occupiers of the ſaid Lands, by the greater ſpace of forty years beforementioned, That then and in ſuch caſe the Tenant of the Lands ſhall hold ths ſame diſcharged of the ſaid Rent ſo reſerved, by vertue of the ſaid Patent of Concealment, or by Commiſſion of defective Titles, and alſo diſcharged of all Seiſures and Diſtreſſes for the ſame, until the ſame ſhall have been recovered by due courſe and proceedings of Law. And if any Letters Patents of any Manors, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, have been heretofore granted, whereupon any Fee-Farm Rents, or other Rents, have been reſerved, which at any time after the paſſing of this Act, ſhall be ſold to any Purchaſer or Purchaſers, if ſuch Letters Patents whereupon ſuch Rents ſo ſold have been reſerved, ſhall at any time hereafter be adnulled, defeated, repealed, cancelled, avoided or otherwiſe determined, whereby the Lands ſhall return to his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors; then, and in every ſuch caſe, all and every the Purchaſer and Purchaſers of ſuch Rents, their Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, ſhall have and receive out of the ſame Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, the like Rent, and for the like Eſtate therein, with that which was by them ſo purchaſed, and ſhall enjoy ſuch like Rent during ſuch Eſtate againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and againſt all perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, claiming by, from, or under his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, by any Grant or Conveyance made or granted by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors, ſubſequent to ſuch Purchaſe made; and ſhall have like remedy for recovery thereof, (any ſuch adnulling, defeating, repeal, cancelling, avoidance, or other determination of ſuch Letters Patents to the contrary notwithſtanding.) And whereas by certain Covenants or Agreements on the Kings part contained in the Original Reſervation of ſome of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents, or by the true intent thereof, or by ſome Decrees in the Court of Augmentation, or Exchequer made before the Three and twentieth day of October, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred forty and two, or ſince the Nine and twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, divers Fee-Farmers were to be diſcharged, and allowances to be made of divers Penſions, Portions, Rents reſolute, or other things of the like nature, and the charge thereof hath been allowed by his Majeſty out of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents, upon the Accompts of Bayliffs, Miniſters and Receivers; It is hereby provided and declared, that this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not be conſtrued to annull or avoid any ſuch Covenants or Decrees, but that the ſame ſhall be allowed againſt the ſaid Purchaſer or Purchaſers, as it ſhould have been againſt his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, if the Letters Patents, or Grants of ſuch Fee-Farm Rents hereby intended to be confirmed, had not been made, ſaving unto the Queens Majeſty, and to all and every other perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, and every of them (other then the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and other then the Dukes of Cornwall for the time being, and other then ſuch perſon as ſhall have, inherit, or enjoy the ſaid Dukedom of Cornwall by force of any Act of Parliament, or other Limitation whatſoever) all ſuch Right, Title and Intereſt, Poſſeſſion, Leaſes or Eſtates, as they, or any of them had or ſhould, or might have, or of right ought to have had, in or to the ſaid Rents, or any of them, or any of the Lands charged, or chargeable with them, or any of them, as fully and amply as they ſhould or might have had before the Letters Patents thereof made, as if this Act had never been had or made; Any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Letters Patents of Manors, Lands, &c. heretofore granted.

Fee-Farmers before the 23. of Octob. 1640. and ſince the 29. of May 1660. their diſcharges confirmed.

Purchaſers may buy and enjoy the ſame Rents notwithſtanding the ſtat. of Mortmaine.

And be it further Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for any perſon or perſons, Bodies politick or Corporate, to Purchaſe any the Fee-Farm Rents, or other Rents ſo to be Conveyed as aforeſaid, and the ſame Rents ſo purchaſed, to retain and keep to them and their Succeſſors; Any Statutes of Mortmain to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Principality of Wales.

Provided alwayes, That neither this Act, nor any thing therein contained, ſhall extend, or be conſtrued to extend to the Sale of any the Fee-Farm Rents, Tenths, Chauntry-Rents, Rents-Seck, or any dry or other Rents whatſoever, due or payable to his Majeſty, or the Prince of Wales for the time being, iſſuing or ariſing within the Principality or Dominion of Wales; This Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Inſtructions Enacted to be obſerved in the Sale of Fee-Farm Rents; yet ſo as the breach or non-purſuance of theſe Inſtructions, ſhall not invalidate or weaken the Title of any Purchaſer.

Contracts to be ſigned by the Lord Treaſurer.

1. All Contracts touching the Sale of any Fee-Farm Rents, or other Rents before mentioned, ſhall be ſigned by the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, or any two of them.

2. The Truſtees ſhall convey to ſuch perſons as by Order from the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or any two of them, they ſhall be directed.

Purchaſe-money how to be paid.

3. Every Contracter ſhall at or before the time of the ſealing of his Conveyance, pay down one Moyety at leaſt of his Purchaſe-Money into the Exchequer, and ſhall alſo before he ſhall receive his Deed of Conveyance, give Security, ſuch as the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury ſhall approve, for the payment of the ſecond moyety at the time appointed.

Allowance.

4. Such Contractors as will pay down their whole Purchaſe-money, ſhall receive ſuch Allowance for their preſent payment of their ſecond Moyety, as ſhall be thought fit, ſo as the ſame exceed not the rate of Ten per Cent.

Tenants to be preferred in point of purchaſe.

Within what time Contracts to be perfected.

5. The immediate Tenant liable to the payment of any Rent, ſhall be preferred in the purchaſe of it before any other, ſo as ſuch immediate Tenant tender himſelf to the Lord Treaſurer, or Lords Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, to Contract within Six Moneths after the paſſing of the ſaid Patent, and notice thereof publiſhed by his Majeſties Proclamation, and perfect his Contract, and pay or ſecure his Money, as aforeſaid, within ſix moneths after, at ſuch rate as ſhall be agreed, not exceeding Twenty years purchaſe.

6. If the immediate Tenant, or ſome on his behalf, do not tender and perfect his contract, as in the laſt precedent Article, all benefit of preference, or preemption is to be loſt.

7. The Purchaſer may have his Conveyance in the names of any perſon or perſons he ſhall deſire.

Incumbrance.

8. If any Fee-Farm Rent, or other Rent be ſubject to, or charged with any payment, or other Incumbrance, conſideration ſhall be had of it at the time of the Contract, and a Reprize allowed for it accordingly; And where ſuch Reprize is allowed, the Purchaſer is to covenant to take upon him ſuch Incumbrance ſo Reprized.

9. The Truſtees are to hold the Rents conveyed to them for the benefit of his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, until Sale.

Covenant.

10. The Truſtees in all Conveyances to be made by them, ſhall Covenant with the Purchaſers in uſual form, to free the premiſes, and ſave the Purchaſer harmleſs from any Act done or ſuffered by them, which may any way incumber the premiſes.

Fee-Farmers of Mills.

Provided alwayes, And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Fee-Farmers of any Mills formerly belonging to the Crown, or parcel of his Majeſties Dutchy of Lancaſter, ſhall have the protection and priviledge of his Majeſties Courts of Exchequer, and Dutchy of Lancaſter, and all Suits to Mill, and Aids of the ſaid Courts, and enjoy all other former Priviledges and Advantages, notwithſtanding the Sale of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents iſſuing out of the ſaid Mills, to all intents and purpoſes, and in as large and beneficial manner, as when the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents, or any of them were payable to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors.

All ſums of Money, Rents &c. to be allowed to maintain a School, &c. to remain as heretofore.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That ſuch, and ſo much of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents and Premiſſes, and ſuch Sums of Money, Rents, Reſolute Penſions, Stipends, Salaries, Annuities, Alms, Carodies, Profits and Allowances as are due and payable, or which are chargeable upon, have been, or ought to be paid or allowed to or for the Maintenance of any Grammar-School, or Schollars, or for or towards the Reparation of any Church, Chappel, High-way, Cauſey, Bridges, Schools, Alms-houſes, Caſtles, or any other uſes, upon, out of, or for the premiſes, or any of them, to be ſetled upon Truſtees according to this Act, as aforeſaid, ſhall be, and continue to be paid and allowed as they were and have been heretofore. And the ſaid Truſtees are hereby authoriſed and required to ſet out, convey, and aſſure unto ſuch perſon and perſons, and their Heirs, Bodies-politick and corporate, and their Succeſſors and Aſſigns, as they the ſaid Truſtees ſhall think fit in Truſt, for the performance of the uſes aforeſaid, or any of them, ſuch of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents, Duties, or Sums of Money payable as aforeſaid, as ſhall amount to any of the Sums ſo charged, limited or allowed, to or for the uſes or purpoſes aforeſaid; Any thing in this Act or Inſtructions to the contrary notwithſtanding. And after ſuch Conveyance, the Purchaſers of the reſidue of the ſaid Fee-Farm Rents ſhall be diſcharged of the ſaid Duties and Payments.

CAP. VII.

An Act to enable the Kings Majeſty to make Leaſes, Grants and Copies of Offices, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, Parcel of his Highneſs Dutchy of Cornwall, or annexed to the ſame.

The Reaſons of this Act.

Whereas many of the Lands belonging to the Dutchy of Cornwall, have been granted by Leaſe to the Tenants, ſome for the term of one, two, or three Lives, and ſome for divers years determinable upon one, two, or three Lives, and others for thirty one years, or under; Which Leaſes are deſired to be renewed by many of the ſaid Tenants. And whereas of late years divers increaſed Rents have been reſerved as well upon the ſaid Leaſed Lands, as upon many Copyhold Eſtates of the ſaid Dutchy, for the Improvement of that Revenue; whereof the Tenants have complained to the Kings Majeſty, who is graciouſly pleaſed, that they may compound with his Officers for the Diſcharge of the ſaid increaſed Rents, and be reſtored to the old Rents formerly paid for their reſpective Tenements and Lands: Now to the end the ſame may be according effected, and the ſaid Tenants may be encouraged to renew their Leaſes and Eſtates, and thereby the better enabled to repair their Houſes, and provide for their Families, and to improve their Lands holden of the ſaid Dutchy;

Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſties, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons in this preſent Parliament, Aſſembled and by the Authority of the ſame, That all grants made or to be made by Copy of Court-roll, according to the Cuſtom of the reſpective Manour or Manours of the ſaid Dutchy, or thereunto annexed or belonging; and all Leaſes and Grants made or to be made within three years next enſuing, by our ſaid Soveraign Lord the King, by Letters Patents or Indentures under the Great Seal of England, or the Seal of the Court of Exchequer, or any Offices, Parks, Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, other then Honours, Lordſhips, or Manours parcels of the Poſſeſſion of, or annexed or belonging to the ſaid Dutchy of Cornwall, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the Purport and Contents of the ſame Copies, Leaſes and Grants againſt our ſaid Sovereign Lord the King, his heirs and Succeſſors, and againſt all and every other perſon and perſons that ſhall at any time hereafter have, inherit or enjoy the ſaid Dutchy by force of any Act of Parliament, or by any other Limitation whatſoever.

All Leaſes, Grants, &c. of Lands, &c. in the Dutchy of Cornwall made or to be made within three years, confirmed.

Provid ed always, That every ſuch Leaſe or Grant ſo made, or to be made for more then one, two, or three Lives, or for thirty one Years, or under, or for ſome term of Years determinable upon one, two or three Lives, and not above: And if ſuch Leaſes or Grants be made in Reverſion or Expectancy, that then the ſame, together with the Eſtates in Poſſeſſion, do not exceed three Lives, or the term of thirty one Years, and not in any wiſe diſpuniſhable of Waſte; and ſo, as upon every ſuch Leaſe ſhall be reſerved the ancient or moſt uſuall Rent, or more, or ſuch Rent as hath been reſerved, yielded, or paid for the ſame Lands, for the greater part of Twenty Years next before the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, and ſhall be reſerved due or payable to him, or her that ſhall have the Inheritance, or other eſtate of the ſaid Dutchy. And where no ſuch Rent hath been reſerved or payable, that then upon every ſuch Leaſe there ſhall be reſerved a reaſonable Rent, not being under the twentieth part of the clear yearly Value of the Parks, Lands Tenements, or hereditaments contained in ſuch Leaſe; and all Leaſes and grants otherwiſe made, or to be made ſhall be null and void.

The term for ſuch Leaſes and Grants.

Rents to be reſerved.

And be it further Ordained and Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Covenants, Conditions, Reſervations, and other Agreements contained in every Leaſe, Grant, or Copy of Court-roll, made or to be made, as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and effectual in Law, according to the words and contents of the ſame, as well for and againſt them to whom the Reverſion of the ſame Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments ſhall come, as for and againſt them to whom the Intereſt of the ſaid Leaſes, Grants or Copies ſhall come reſpectively, as if our Soveraign Lord the Kings Majeſty, at the time of the making of ſuch Covenants, Conditions and Reſervations, and other Agreements, were ſeized of an abſolute Eſtate in Fee-ſimple in the ſame Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments: Saving always to all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies Politick and Corporate, their Heirs and Succeſſors, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, other then to our ſaid Soveraign Lord the King and his Heirs, and the Duke and Dukes of Cornwall for the time being, and his and their Heirs, and all and every perſon and perſons that ſhall hereafter have, inherit or enjoy the ſaid Dukedom of Cornwall, by force of any Act of Parliament, or other Limitation whatſoever; All ſuch Rights, Titles, Eſtates, Cuſtoms, Intereſts, Tenures, Claims and Demands whatſoever, of what nature, kind or quality ſoever, of, in, to, or out of the ſaid Offices, Lands, Tenements or Hereditaments, or any of them, as they, or any of them had, or ought to have had, before the making of this Act, to all intents and purpoſes, and in as large and ample manner and form, as if this Act had never been had or made; This Act, or any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Covenants, Conditions and Reſervations.

Proviſo.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That in caſe any of the Copyhold Tenants of the ſaid Dutchy, ſhall at any time within Three years next enſuing, Compound or agree with the Lord High-Treaſurer of England, or the Commiſſioners of the Treaſury for the time being, or with the Chancellor, or Under-Treaſurer of the Exchequer, or with any ſuch perſon or perſons as the Lord High-Treaſurer, or Chancellor and Under-Treaſurer of the Exchequer for the time being, ſhall authorize, nominate and appoint for the taking off, and diſcharging of any increaſed Rent reſerved as aforeſaid, according to ſuch Rules and Directions as in that behalf ſhall be given in writing under the hands of the ſaid Lord Treaſurer, or Commiſſioners of the Treaſury, or Chancellor and Under-Treaſurer of the Exchequer, for the time being; Then upon ſuch Compoſition ſo made, and the Money thereby ariſing duly paid to the Receiver-General of the ſaid Dutchy, according to the tenor and contents of ſuch Compoſition and Agreement, and accordingly enrolled before the Auditor of the Premiſſes; And from thenceforth ſuch encreaſed Rents ſhall ceaſe and become void, and the old Rent onely, or ſuch other Rent as in purſuance of this Act ſhall be directed, in or by ſuch Compoſition or Agreement ſhall be charged upon all and every ſuch Tenements, Lands, and other Hereditaments, for which ſuch Compoſition, Agreement, Payment and Inrolment ſhall be ſo made, and none other; Any Reſervation, Condition, or other matter whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Compoſition for increaſed Rents.

Forfeiture for offending againſt this Act.

For future Redreſs whereof, Be it enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by authority of the ſame, That this enſuing Clauſe contained in a Statute made in the Seventeenth year of King Charles the Firſt, Intituled, An Act for the better Ordering and Regulating of the Office of Clerk of the Market, Allowed and Confirmed by this Statute, and for the Reformation of Falſe Weights and Meaſures (by way of Proviſo, viz.) That ſuch Meaſure as is commonly called Water-meaſure, in any Ports, Maritine Towns, or other places, ſhall be ſtill uſed and continued as formerly the ſame hath been) Any thing in this Statute contained to the contrary hereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding, ſhall from and after the Nine and twentieth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, be and ſtand Nulled and Repealed, as to the Meaſuring, Selling, or Buying of any ſort of Corn, Grain, ground or unground, or Salt within the Kingdom of England Dominion of Wales, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed: And that if any perſon or perſons after the time aforeſaid, ſhall ſell any ſort of Corn or Grain, ground or unground, or any kind of Salt, uſually ſold by the Buſhel, either in open Market, or any other place, by any other Buſhel or Meaſure, then that which is agreeable to the Standard, marked in his Majeſties Exchequer, commonly called the Winchester Meaſure, containing Eight Gallons to the Buſhel, and no more or leſſe; And the ſaid Buſhel ſtrucken even by the Wood or Brim of the ſame by the Seller, and ſealed, as this Act directs, he or they ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the ſum of Forty ſhillings, to be levied in ſuch manner, and ſuch other Penalties for want of Diſtreſs to be inflicted, as in and by the ſaid former Act is directed, by the Warrant or Order of any one or more of his Majeſties Juſtices of the Peace within the County, City, or place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed; which ſaid Juſtices reſpectively are hereby required and enabled to ſee this Statute duly executed.

The penalty of Mayors and all other Officers permitting the uſe of any other Meaſure.

And be it likewiſe further enacted by authority aforeſaid, That if any Mayor, or other Head-Officer of any City, Borough, or Corporation, or Liberty within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, ſhall knowingly and wilfully permit or ſuffer any perſon or perſons within their reſpective Limits or Juriſdictions, to ſell or buy any ſort of Corn or Grain ground or unground, or Salt, by any other Buſhell or Meaſure, or ſtrucken in any other manner than is hereby preſcribed, or ſhall ſuffer within their reſpective Limits or Juriſdictions any other Meaſure to be uſed, then is of the Contents aforeſaid, and ſealed as this Act directs; or if upon complaint of the breach of this Statute, he or they ſhall not duly puniſh and reform the ſame according to the purport thereof, then he or they ſo offending, for every ſuch Offence upon due proof and conviction thereof by Preſentment or Indictment before the Juſtices of the Peace of the County where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, at the General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſame, ſhall forfeit the ſum of Five pounds; the one moyety thereof to the Informer or Proſecutor, the other moyety to the uſe of the poor of the pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, to be levied by diſtreſs and ſale of the Offendors Goods and Chattels: And for default of ſuch Diſtreſs, by impriſonment of the perſon or perſons ſo offending, till payment thereof made by Warrant of the ſaid Juſtices.

Clerk of the Market, &c. refuſing to ſeal or mark any Meaſure, his forfeiture.

Exacting fees how puniſhable.

And be it further enacted, That if the Clerk of the Market of his Majeſties Houſe within the Verge, or the Mayor, or other Head-Officer, Lord of the Liberty, or other perſon authorized by the Laws of the Realm, to Mark or Seal Meaſures within their reſpective Juriſdictions, ſhall neglect or refuſe, being required, to Seal or Mark any Buſhel, half Buſhel, or Peck duly Gauged as is hereby before directed and appointed, ſhall forfeit for the firſt Offence Five pounds, and for every other Offence Ten pounds, to be levied as aforeſaid; or if the Clerk of the Market of his Majeſties Houſe within the Verge, ſhall take more then the lawful and accuſtomed Fees; or if any other perſon or perſons ſhall exact or take from any perſon more then one peny for the Sealing or Marking of a Buſhel, or more then one half-peny for the Sealing or Marking of a half-Buſhel or Peck, or more then one Farthing for the Sealing or Marking of any Meaſure containing one Gallon, Pottle, Quart, Pint, or half-Pint, he or they ſhall for every ſuch Offence upon due proof and conviction thereof, incur the penalties mentioned and contained in the afore-named Statute for the ſaid Offence, made in the Seventeenth year of King Charles the Firſt.

A Meaſure of Braſs to be chained in every publick Market-place.

And to the end that there may be a juſt and certain Meaſure (to determine all Controverſies) Gauged, as this Act directs, Be it further enacted, That at the charge of ſuch perſon or perſons reſpectively, who ſhall have the Toll or Profit of the Market, where Toll is not taken, within any City, Corporation or Market-Town, within this Realm in their reſpective Juriſdictions, there ſhall be before the ſaid Nine and twentieth day of September, One Meaſure of Braſs provided, and chained in the publick Market-place, upon pain to forfeit and loſe for every perſon ſo neglecting reſpectively, the Sum of Five pounds to be recovered and levied as is by this Act directed; One moyety to the poor of the pariſh where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed; the other moyety to him or them that ſhall ſue for the ſame.

Conſtables to ſearch if any perſons uſe other Meaſures.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every Conſtable or Conſtables within this Realm of England, in their reſpective Precincts, are hereby impowred and required to ſearch and examine if any perſon or perſons uſe any other Meaſure then according to the Proportions aforeſaid, or ſhall ſtrike the ſame in any other manner then this Act directs, or ſell or buy by a Meaſure unſealed: And in caſe he or they ſhall find any ſuch unſealed Meaſure, to ſeize and break the ſame; and for that and every other Offence againſt this Act, ſhall preſent ſuch Offender at the next Private or Quarterly-Seſſions to be held for ſuch County or place where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed.

Provided

Once puniſhed.

Provided, alwayes, and be it enacted, That no perſon or perſons puniſhed for any offence by vertue of this Act, ſhall be again queſtioned or puniſhed for the ſame offence, by vertue or colour of any other Act.

Toll.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted and Declared, That no perſon or perſons whatſoever ſhall take any Toll or any thing in lieu thereof, but reſpectively according to ſuch proportion as the Meaſures in this act limited and appointed bear unto the Meaſures, whereby the ſame have been heretofore uſually taken; any Law, Cuſtom, or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. 9.

An Act Authorizing certain Commiſſioners of the Realm of England, to Treat with Commiſſioners of Scotland, for the Weal of both Kingnome.

The Proeme of this Act.

Whereas the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, out of His Princely Zeal, and Fatherly care for the Welfare and Happineſs of his Subjects, perſiſting in the ſame Pious and Prudent Reſolution of His Royal Grandfather King James, of ever Bleſſed Memory, to endeavour a nearer and more compleat Union between His two Kingdoms of England and Scotland, hath recommended it to the Parliaments of both Kingdoms, that Commiſſioners might be nominated to Treat and Conſult concerning this Union: To the end that His Majeſties Royal and Gracious Purpoſes therein may be accompliſhed, and ſuch a farther Union may be treated and Agreed upon, as may Compleat and Confirm for ever a conſtant mutual Love and Friendſhip between the Subjects of both Realms:

His Majeſty may name Commiſſioners to treat with Commiſſioners of Scotland concerning a Union between both Realms.

Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and of the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That ſuch perſons to be Nominated by his Majeſty under His great Seal of England, and ſuch and ſo many of them as ſhall in that behalf be appointed by His Majeſty to be of the Quorum, ſhall by force of this Act have full Power, Commiſſion, and Authority at ſuch time and times, and in ſuch place or places as His Majeſty ſhall pleaſe to appoint to aſſemble and meet; and thereupon to Treat and Conſult according to the Tenour or purport of their Authority or Commiſſion in that behalf, with certain Commiſſioners to be Authoriſed by Authority of the Parliament of Scotland of, and concerning ſuch an Union of the ſaid Realms of England and Scotland. and of and concerning ſuch other Matters, Clauſes, and things whatſoever, as upon mature Deliberation and Conſideration of the greateſt part of the ſaid Commiſſioners aſſembled as aforeſaid, and the Commiſſioners Authorized, or to be Authorized by the Parliament of Scotland, according to the Tenor or Purport of their Commiſſion in that behalf, ſhall in their Wiſdoms think convenient and neceſſary for the Honour of His Majeſty, and the Weal and Common Good of both the ſaid Kingdoms, during His Majeſtes Life, (which Almighty God long preſerve) and of His Heirs and lawful Succeſſors for ever: Which Commiſſioners of both the ſaid Realms ſhall according to the tenor or Purport of their ſaid Authorities or Commiſſions in that behalf, reduce their Doings and Proceedings therein into Writings or Inſtruments Tripartite, every part to be Subſcribed and Sealed by them; to the end that one part thereof may in all humbleneſs be preſented to the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty; another part thereof to be offered to the Conſideration of the Parliament for the Realm of England; and another to be offered to the Conſideration of the Parliament for the Realm of Scotland at their next Seſſions, which ſhall be held in each Kingdom reſpectively, after ſuch Writings or Inſtruments ſhall be ſubſcribed and Sealed by the ſaid Commiſſioners; That thereupon ſuch further Proceedings may be had as by his Majeſty, and both the ſaid Parliaments ſhall be thought fit and neceſſary for the Weal and Common Good of both the ſaid Kingdoms, to whom the intire Conſideration of the whole, and the allowing or diſallowing thereof, or any part thereof, as they ſhall think fit, is wholly reſerved.

Their proceedings to be reduced into Writings tripartite, one for the King, one for the Parliament of England, and the other for the Parliament of Scotland.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted and Declared, That no matter or thing to be Treated of, Agreed, or propoſed by the ſaid Commiſſioners by vertue of this Act, ſhall have any force or effect, or be put in Execution until it be Confirmed and Eſtabliſhed by Act of the Parliament of England.

CAP. X.

Part of the Eſtate of Sir John Prittiman to be ſold for Satisfaction of a Debt by him due to the Kings Majeſty.

VVhereas Sir John Prittiman of Loddington in the County of Leiceſter, Baronet, late Receiver to Your moſt Excellent Majeſty of Your Majeſties Firſt-Fruits and Tenths, hath before the Barons of Your Majeſties Exchequer been found by Inquiſition, and other due Proceſs of Law, indebted to Your Majeſty upon his Accompt of the laſt of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, in the Sum of Nineteen thouſand eight hundred ſixty four pounds nine ſhillings and nine pence, by him received of your Majeſties ſaid Revenue, and ſtill remains indebted to your Majeſty in the Sum of Sixteen thouſand ſix hundred pounds more then he hath anſwered to the Receipt of your Majeſties Exchequer, in great Diminution of your Highneſſes Revenue: And whereas upon Proceſſe of Extent iſſued out of your Majeſties ſaid Exchequer, the ſaid Sir John Prittiman hath been by Inquiſition duly executed and returned the Nineteenth of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight, found ſeiſed in his Demeſne, as of Fee, of and in the Manor of Loddington in the County of Leiceſter, with the Rights, Members, and Appurtenances of the clear yearly value of Seven hundred eighty eight pounds nineteen ſhillings and eight pence, which will not ſatisfie your Majeſties ſaid Debt by perception of the Profits thereof at the ſaid extended Value in a long time.

Wherefore to the end your Majeſty may be more ſpeedily ſatisfied your ſaid Debt, may it

How the mony ariſing by the Sale ſhall be diſpoſed.

pleaſe your moſt Excellent Majeſty, That it may be Enacted; And be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in Parliament aſſembled, That the ſaid Manor, or reputed Manor of Loddington, with the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments, parcel or reputed parcel thereof, with their and every of their Appurtenances in the ſaid County of Leiceſter, be and is hereby Veſted and Setled in Henry Coventry and Edward Progers, Eſquires, Grooms of your Majeſties Bed-Chamber, Sir Allan Apſley, and Sir Winſton Churchill, Knights, and their Heirs, upon Truſt, that the ſaid Sir Henry Coventry, Edward Progers, Sir Allan Apſley, and Sir Winſton Churchill, and the Survivor of them, and the Heirs of the ſaid Survivor, ſhall forthwith ſell the ſaid Manor, and every part and parcel thereof, with the Appurtenances, and out of the proceed of ſuch Sale, and of the mean Profits by them to be received, until ſuch Sale or Sales made, ſatisfie and reimburſe themſelves all ſuch Charges and Expences, which they ſhall any wayes ſuſtain, in or by reaſon of ſuch Sales of the Truſt hereby in them repoſed: And out of the reſidue of ſuch purchaſe-money, ſhall pay or cauſe to be paid into His Majeſties Receipt of Exchequer, the full ſum of Sixteen thouſand pounds with Intereſt for the ſame, only at the rate of Six pounds per Cent. from the ſaid laſt day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and three, in Diſcharge of the ſaid Debt of the ſaid Sir John Prittiman; the reſidue of the moneys to be raiſed by ſuch Sale, to be paid into the hands of John Morris, and Robert Clayton of London, Gentlemen, to be diſpoſed and employed as followeth, (videlicet) In the firſt place to reimburſe Sir Edward Hungerford, and Sir Thomas Doleman, and either of them, ſuch moneys as they, or either of them have paid for the proper Debts of Sir John Prittiman; in the next place for the payment of ſuch Debts of the ſaid Sir John Prittiman, as they or either of them are obliged to pay; In the next place, for the payments unto William Prittiman Brother of Sir John, moneys as he hath paid for the proper Debt of Sir John, upon any Obligation, wherein the ſaid Sir Edward Hungerford, Sir Thomas Doleman, Sir George Prittiman, and the ſaid William Prittiman, or any two of them ſtood or ſtand joyntly bound; In the next place for the payment of all the Debts of the ſaid Sir John Prittiman, where any of them the ſaid Sir George Prittiman, Sir Edw: Hungerford, and Sir Thomas Doleman ſtand bound; In the next place, for the payment unto Sir Edward Hungerford, and Sir Thomas Doleman, and either of them all ſuch moneys as they or either of them have paid, or are obliged to pay for the proper Debts of the ſaid Sir George Prittiman, as far as the ſame will extend; the reſidue (if any) to be divided between Sir John Prittiman and Sir George Prittiman, as Francis Winington and James Hayes, Eſquires, and the ſaid John Morris and Robert Clayton, or the ſurvivor or ſurvivors of them ſhall think fit.

Saving to other then Sir John and Sir George Prittiman all right, &c.

And further be it enacted, That from and after the ſaid ſum of ſixteen thouſand pounds ſo paid to his Majeſty as aforeſaid, as well the ſaid Sir John Prittiman, his Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, as all his manors, lands, tenements and hereditaments whatſoever; and alſo all and every perſon and perſons, their Heirs, Executors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments who were ſecurity for the ſaid Sir John Prittiman, for or concerning any matter or thing relating to the ſaid Firſt-Fruits, or his the ſaid Sir John Prittimans Office of Receiver thereof, ſhall be by vertue hereof acquitted for ever, releaſed and indempnified, ſaving to all and every perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and corporate, other then the ſaid Sir John Prittiman, and Sir George Prittiman, and his and their Heirs, all ſuch Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt, Truſt, Uſe, and Demand which he or they have or claim of, in, to, or out of the ſaid Manor of Loddington, or any part thereof, in ſuch ſort and manner, and no other, as if this Act had never been made; Any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

So as the ſame be entred in the Exchequer before March, 1670.

Provided, That ſuch perſon or perſons, their Heirs, Executors and Adminiſtrators, and ſuch Bodies politick and corporate, do by themſelves, or their reſpective lawful Attorney or Guardian, produce and cauſe to be entred and enrolled in the Office of the Kings Remembrancer in the Exchequer, a ſufficient and certain particular of his and their ſaid Title, Claim or Incumbrance, before the Firſt day of March, which ſhall be in the year, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy.

The Truſtees may mortgage the ſaid Manor till it can be ſold.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for the ſpeedy raiſing of moneys for and towards ſatisfaction of your Majeſty, and performance of the Truſts aforeſaid, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſaid Henry Coventry, Edward Progers, Sir Allan Apſley, and Sir Winſton Churchill, and the ſurvivor and ſurvivors of them, and his Heirs, to mortgage the ſaid Manor and Premiſes, or any part thereof, for any eſtate or eſtates ſubject nevertheleſſe to a further ſale of the Reverſion, or equity of Redemption thereof to be made according to this Act for the purpoſes aforeſaid.

All extents for the King, and all his claim to the ſaid Manor ſhall be aſſigned to the Purchaſers.

And it is hereby declared, and further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, for the encouragement of ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall be willing to purchaſe the ſaid Manor and Premiſes, or any part or parts thereof, That all extents already had, or to be had, and returned of the ſaid Manor and Premiſes, for ſatisfaction of the ſaid Debt of ſixteen thouſand pounds, and eſtate and intereſt of your Majeſty, of and in the ſaid Manor and Premiſes by vertue thereof, upon payment or ſatisfaction of the ſaid Debt of ſixteen thouſand pounds, and intereſt as aforeſaid, to your Majeſty, your Heirs and Succeſſors, your or their Aſſignee or Aſſignees, ſhall and may be aſſigned to ſuch perſon or perſons as ſhall purchaſe the ſaid Manor and Premiſes, or any part or parcel thereof, or to any other perſon or perſons which he or they ſhall propoſe, nominate or appoint, and ſhall remain, continue, and be in force and vertue for the protecting the ſaid Premiſes againſt all Incumbrances and Charges of Sir John Prittiman, and Sir George Prittiman his ſon, in ſuch ſort and manner as the ſame would have done, if this Act had never been made, until ſuch Purchaſer or Purchaſers ſhall out of the Rents, Iſſues, and Profits of the ſaid premiſes, have received the ſaid ſum of ſixteen thouſand pounds; with Intereſt for the ſame, after the rate of ſix pounds per Cent. per Annum, from the ſaid laſt day of December, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty three: Saving nevertheleſs to the Wife of the ſaid Sir John Prittiman (if he hath any) all ſuch Right and Title of Dower, as ſhe might have claimed, or may claim in the premiſes, if this Act had never been made: And alſo ſaving unto Sir John Heath Knight, and Dame Margaret his Wife, and their Aſſigns, all ſuch Eſtate, Right of Entry, Right, Title, Intereſt, Uſe, Truſt, Claim or Demand whatſoever in Law or Equity, of and into any of the Meſſuages, Lands, Tenements and Hereditaments aforeſaid, parcel or reputed parcel of the ſaid Manor of Loddington, as if this Act had never been made; Any thing in the ſame to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Lady Prittiman, and Sir John Heath and his Lady.

CAP. XI.

An Additional Act for the Rebuilding of the City of London, Uniting of Pariſhes, and Rebuilding of the Cathedral and Parochial Churches within the ſaid City.

WHereas by vertue, and in purſuance of an Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Rebuilding the City of London, ſeveral Streets in the ſaid Act particularly mentioned and deſcribed, have been inlarged and made wider, by the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the ſaid City, by and with the approbation of the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty. And foraſmuch as certain other Streets within the ſaid City, not particularly mentioned in the aforeſaid Act, did alſo require ſome regulation and enlargement (that is to ſay) the ſtreet called Paternoſter-Row, the Lane called Warwick-lane at the Northſide thereof, Watling-ſtreet, Candlewike-ſtreet, Eaſtcheap, Saint Swithins-lane, Little Wood-ſtreet, Milk-ſtreet, Tower-ſtreet, Water-lane, ſcituate on the eaſtſide of London-Bridge near the Cuſtom-houſe, Rood-lane, Saint Mary Hill, Thames-ſtreet from London-Bridge to Puddle-Dock, Pye-corner next to Smithfield, and Threed-needle-ſtreet. And to that end and purpoſe the ſame by Order and Direction of the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the ſaid City in Common-councel aſſembled, by and with his ſaid Majeſties approbation have been ſurveyed and are found neceſſary to be enlarged.

Streets requiring inlargement and regulation.

Be it enacted by the Kings moſt excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame; That the ſaid Streets and Lanes, in this Act before nominated and appointed to be inlarged, and every of them ſhall be inlarged and regulated in ſuch parts and places thereof, and in ſuch manner and according as the ſame are marked and ſtaked out for that purpoſe, and not otherwiſe. And to the end that fit and commodious places within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, may be ſet out and appointed for the Rebuilding and keeping of Markets with more convenience then heretofore they were, ſo as the principal Streets may not be peſtered and obſtructed thereby as heretofore hath been accuſtomed: And that the Royal-Exchange, Guild Hall, the Seſſions-Houſe in the Old-Bayly, and the Common Gaols and Priſons within the ſaid City, may be enlarged and made more commodious for the publick Uſe, and Ornament of the City, and better ſecured from the danger and caſualty of Fire: And that ſome convenient diſtance, interval and circuit of ground may be left between the Royal Exchange and other Houſes to be built within the ſaid City.

They ſhall be enlarged as they are now ſtaked out.

Royal-Exchange, Guild-Hall, Seſſions-Houſe in the Old-Bayly.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the ſaid City in Common-Council aſſembled ſhall and may, and are hereby impowred to imploy ſuch places and portions of ground within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, as by and with his ſaid Majeſties approbation now are, or before the tenth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty nine, ſhall be ſet out and adjudged neceſſary and convenient, as well for the publick Market places there, as alſo for the Ornament, enlargement and convenience of the ſaid Royal-Exchange, and other places aforementioned, and every or any of them reſpectively.

Ground to be aſſigned for publick Market places.

And to the intent that reaſonable ſatisfaction may be given to the Owners and others, having any Eſtate or Intereſt in the grounds and places which have been or ſhall be ſet out to be taken and imployed for publick Market places, or for the Ornament and convenience of the Royal-Exchange, Guild Hall, and other places in this Act mentioned, or any of them, or for inlarging the ſaid ſtreets, or any part thereof, called Pater-noſter-Row, Warwick lane, Watling-ſtreet, Candlewike ſtreet, Eaſtcheap, Saint Swithins-lane, Little Woodſtreet, Milk-ſtreet, Tower ſtreet, Water lane, Rood-lane, St. Mary Hill Thames-ſtreet, Pye corner near unto Smithfield and Threedneedle-ſtreet before mentioned; the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Commons ſhall and may (by themſelves or others in that behalf to be appointed and authorized) treat and agree with the Owners, and others intereſſed therein: And in caſe of wilful refuſal, or any ſuch diſability or impediment as in the aforeſaid Act are mentioned, or other incapacity whatſoever, in the Owners thereof, or others intereſſed therein to treat and agree: the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen ſhall and are hereby authorized and required to cauſe a Jury to be Impannelled in ſuch manner and form, as by the aforeſaid Act is directed and appointed: So as no two of the ſaid Jurors ſo to be Impannelled ſhall come out of one and the ſame Ward to adjudge and aſſeſſe what recompence and ſatisfaction in every of the caſes aforeſaid ought to be awarded, and given to the reſpective Owners, and others intereſſed in the grounds and places ſo ſet out, to be taken and imployed for any the uſes, or purpoſes aforeſaid: In purſuance of this Act according to ſuch their reſpective Eſtates and Intereſts; And the verdict of ſuch Jury in that behalf to be taken and the judgment of the ſaid Mayor, and Court of Aldermen thereupon; And the payment of the money ſo awarded or adjudged, at or in the Office of the ſaid Chamberlain of the ſaid City of London for the time being to the ſaid Chamberlain, there to remain by the ſpace of ſix moneths, for the Owners or others intereſſed therein as aforeſaid, and after that time to be paid unto them by the ſaid Chamberlain upon demand, (if that within that time there ſhall not ariſe controverſie touching the payment thereof, by reaſon of different claims made thereunto as hereafter is expreſſed) ſhall be binding and concluſive, to and againſt the Owners; and all others having, or claiming, or to claim any Eſtate, Right, Title or Intereſt of, in, to or out of the ſame, their Heirs, Executors

Satiſfaction to Owners for ground taken away.

The Mayor, Aldermen and Commons is to treat and agree with Owners, and in caſe of wilful refuſal to impannel a Jury whoſe Verdict and the Judgment of the Mayor and Court of Aldermen thereupon with payment of the money ſo awarded into the Chamberlains Office ſhall be binding and concluſive.

Controverſies to be decided by the Judges, and in what manner.

cutors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, and every of them; And ſhall be a full authority for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Commons, to cauſe the ſame to be converted and uſed, to and for the reſpective uſes and purpoſes aforeſaid: And in caſe any Controverſie ſhall ariſe between any perſon or perſons, Bodies politique or corporate, or his or their Aſſigns, or under-Tenants, or other perſons claiming any Eſtate, Right, Title, or Intereſt in Law or Equity, Truſt, Charge or Incumbrance, of or in the ſaid ground ſo to be purchaſed or converted as aforeſaid, who ſhall find him or themſelves agrieved, for or by reaſon that the ſaid moneys ſo given in ſatisfaction for the ſaid ground, is not or ſhall not be equally or indifferently apportioned, according to the true value of his or their Intereſts in the ſaid grounds, that then the Juſtices of the Courts of Kings-Bench, and Common-Pleas and Barons of the Coife of the Court of the Exchequer for the time being, or any three or more of them ſitting together at the ſame time and place upon the petition of the ſaid Party or Parties grieved to be preferred to any one of them within ſix moneths after the ſaid Verdict ſo had and given, and not after; are hereby authorized to hear and finally determine the ſame, and to order and award ſuch diſtribution of the moneys ſo paid unto the Chamberlain as aforeſaid, to the ſaid perſon or perſons, Bodies politique or corporate reſpectively, according to his and their ſeveral and reſpective Intereſts in the ſame, in ſuch manner and form as the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three of them, may determine any Differences or Demands which have ariſen, or ſhall ariſe between any Landlord or Tenant, touching Repairing or Rebuilding any of the Houſes burnt down, or demoliſhed by the late Fire by vertue of an Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for erecting a Judicature for determination of Differences, touching Houſes burnt down or demoliſhed by the late Fire which happened in London; According to which Order and Diſtribution the ſaid ſum and ſums ſhall be paid by the ſaid Chamberlain to the ſaid ſeveral perſons reſpectively.

19 Car.2. cap.7.

Where ſeveral perſons having ſeveral eſtates in one houſe or ground, and ſome delay to build, to the prejudice of others, the reſt may rebuild the whole, if they will, and enjoy it to their own uſe, till re-imburſed.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that in caſe it ſhall happen that where there were two or more Copartners, Joynt-Tenants, or Tenants in Common, of any houſe or houſes burned or demoliſhed by the ſaid late Fire, or that two or more perſons, Bodies politique or corporate, had ſeveral Eſtates or Intereſts in ſeveral Rooms, Stories, or parts of any ſuch Houſe or Houſes burned or demoliſhed, and that ſome or one of them is deſirous and willing to build the ſame, or ſuch Part, Room or Story of or in the ſame, as to him or them doth or may appertain, according to his or their Eſtate or Intereſt as aforeſaid: and that any other of the Copartners, Joynt-Tenants, or Tenants in common, or others, having ſuch Eſtate or Intereſt as aforeſaid in any of the Rooms, Stories or parts thereof, ſhall delay or refuſe to joyn in Rebuilding of the ſame, or to contribute his and their reaſonable part and proportion towards the charge thereof; That then it ſhall and may be lawful to or for any one or more of ſuch Co-partners, Joynt-Tenants, Tenants in Common, or others having Eſtate or Intereſt in any the Rooms, Stories, or parts thereof as aforeſaid, that will rebuild the ſaid Houſe or Houſes, to cauſe ſuch Houſe or Houſes to be wholly rebuilt in ſuch ſort and manner as the ſame was, or were before the ſaid late Fire, or as near thereunto as conveniently may be (the preſent Model of Building conſidered) and reſpect being had to the different Intereſts of the Parties concerned as aforeſaid, and the ſame Houſe or Houſes ſo rebuilt, to hold and enjoy to his and their own proper uſe and benefit, untill that he or they ſhall be fully ſatisfied and re-imburſed all ſuch, and ſo much of the charge of ſuch Building as in a due proportion ought to have been contributed or allowed towards the Building thereof, by ſuch Copartners, Joynt-Tenants, Tenants in Common, or others, having ſuch eſtate or Intereſt as aforeſaid, according to his or their eſtate or Intereſt therein as aforeſaid, together with Damages for the ſame, after the rate of ſix pound per Cent. per Ann. for the forbearance thereof to be accompted from the covering of the ſaid Building. And in caſe of neglect or refuſal, to ſatisfie and pay ſuch proportion of the charge of rebuilding thereof, by the ſpace of Two years to be accompted from the covering as aforeſaid, that then it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the Rebuilders from and after the end and expiration of the ſaid Two years, to be accounted as aforeſaid, paying to ſuch Copartners, Joynt-Tenants, Tenants in Common, or others, having ſuch eſtate or Intereſt as aforeſaid therein, ſo much as ſuch their eſtate or Intereſt ſhall be reaſonably worth; or upon Tender and refuſal thereof, to hold and enjoy ſuch Houſe or Houſes ſo rebuilt as aforeſaid, wholly and intirely againſt the Parties ſo refuſing, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors and Aſſigns, for and during the continuance of ſuch joynt, or other eſtate or Intereſt aforeſaid, as the Party and Parties by whom ſuch Houſe or Houſes ſhall be ſo rebuilt, had in the ſame or in any Room, Story, or other part thereof: And in caſe any Difference ſhall happen between ſuch Builders, and any the Parties refuſing to Build as aforeſaid, concerning the charge of rebuilding the ſame, or concerning the Value of the Eſtate or Intereſt of the Parties ſo refuſing to build as aforeſaid, and what money ought to be paid or given for the ſame, by ſuch Re-builder after ſuch time and in manner as aforeſaid, that then the ſame ſhall be referred to the Surveyors to be appointed for the ſaid City for the time being, who, or any Two of them, ſhall and may upon their View, Adjudge, Eſtimate, and Determine the ſame Reſpectively: And in caſe the ſaid Parties, or either of them ſhall refuſe tq ſubmit to ſuch the Judgment and Determination of the ſaid Surveyors, that then the ſaid Matters ſhall be referred to the Examination of the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who ſhall hear and finally determine the ſame without further Appeal.

Difference about charge of building to be determined by the City Surveyors.

Party-walls.

And be it further Enacted and Declared, That where there were ſeveral Owners or others Intereſſed of, or in ſeveral Rooms, Stories, or other parts of any Houſe or Houſes, which ſhall or may obſtruct or hinder the making of the Party-Walls intire and upright, and that the Parties therein concerned, cannot, or will not come to an Agreement touching the ſame; that then it ſhall be referred to the ſaid Surveyors for the time being, or any two of them to decide the difference thereby ariſing (if they can) who ſhall and may order and appoint an indifferent exchange to be made betwixt the ſaid parties, dividing their Ground, Rooms, or Stories, or otherwiſe, as to them ſhall ſeem moſt meet and reaſonable, for accommodating of their ſeveral Intereſts or otherwiſe, ſhall and may award ſatisfaction to be given in Money to ſuch of the ſaid parties as there ſhall be cauſe, to the intent the Walls may be made upright according to the direction of the aforeſaid Act for Rebuilding; And in caſe the parties therein concerned, or either or any of them ſhall refuſe to ſubmit to ſuch the Order and Determination of the ſaid Surveyors, That then the ſaid matter ſhall be referred to the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, to hear and finally determine the ſame without further Appeal.

Holborn-bridge paſſage to be Enlarged.

And whereas the way or paſſage of Holbourn-bridge is now too ſtraight and Incommodious for the many Carriages and Paſſengers daily uſing and frequenting the ſame, and is therefore neceſſary to be Enlarged; Be it therefore likewiſe enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, ſo to Enlarge and make Wider the ſame, as that the ſaid Way and Paſſage may run in a Bevil Line, from a certain Timber-Houſe on the North ſide thereof, commonly called or known by the Name or Sign of the Cock, unto the Front of the Buildings of a certain Inne called the Swan Inne, ſcituate on the North-ſide of Holbourn Hill as aforeſaid.

The dimenſion of Corner Peers.

And to prevent any Doubts that may hereafter ariſe, concerning Corner-Peers, and with what Materials the ſame ought to be made; Be it Enacted and Declared by the Authority aforeſaid, That all Corner-Peers of Stone or Brick hereafter to be erected, ſhall be of the Dimenſions of the Peers of Stone mentioned in the ſaid Act.

And that it be left to the Liberty of all and every the Builders of Corner-Houſes, to uſe a Subſtantial Poſt of Oak-Timber, to prevent the danger that may happen by Carts and Carriages, inſtead of the Corner-Peer of Brick or Stone, of ſuch Dimenſions and Scantlings as the Surveyours of the ſaid City ſhall direct or appoint; The ſaid Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Water from the tops of the Houſes to be carried down by the ſides in pipes.

And be it Enacted, That the water from the tops of all Houſes already built ſince the late Fire, and hereafter to be built and Fronting, or that ſhall Front upon any the Streets, Lanes, or Paſſages within the ſaid City and Liberties, ſhall be Carried and Conveyed into the Channels by Pipes and Party-pipes (as the caſe ſhall require) to be brought down on the ſides or Fronts of the ſaid Houſes.

Thames-ſtreet to be raiſed three foot at leaſt.

And whereas by the ſaid Act for the Rebuilding of the ſaid City of London, It is alſo enacted for the preventing of Inundations, and for eaſineſs of aſcent, That the Street called Thames-ſtreet, and all the Ground between the ſaid Street and the River of Thames ſhould be raiſed and made higher by three foot at the leaſt, above the ſurface of the Ground as then it lay; And alſo, that the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, ſhould and might open and enlarge a Street or Paſſage to the River of Thames from Cheapſide through Soaper Lane, and thence to Thames ſtreet, and thenceforth to the River of Thames, And from Three Cranes to the Thames aforeſaid, and to make the ſame Streets and Paſſages, Four and twenty Foot in Breadth. Now for prevention of any doubt that may ariſe touching the manner of Cutting the ſaid Streets and ordering the ſame; And to the end the ſaid Street called Thames-Street, and the Ground between the ſame and the River of Thames, may be raiſed according to the intent of the ſaid Act, and that other Streets and Paſſages leading to and from the ſame, may be anſwerable to their Levels thereunto, and that the ſteepneſs and difficulty of the riſing and aſſent from the ſaid River may with the more eaſe be abated; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Streets or Paſſages from Cheapſide through Soaper lane to Thames-ſtreet, and thenceforth to the River of Thames, and alſo from the Three Cranes to the ſaid River, ſhall be and remain in ſuch manner and form as now they are; Any matter or thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

The Enlarged paſſage from Cheapſide to the Thames, confirmed.

And all Owners, Occupiers, and all other perſon and perſons, any way intereſſed of or in any Grounds ſo ſtaked and ſet out for the cutting, opening, and enlarging, of the ſaid ſtreets, Lanes, or Paſſages, or any of them are hereby required to take notice thereof and to conform thereunto accordingly; And alſo, that the Levels and Marks for raiſing or ſinking, as well of the ſaid Street called Thames ſtreet, and the ground between the ſame and the River of Thames, as all other Streets in and about the ſaid city and Liberties thereof, in ſuch manner as the ſame are or ſhall be appointed to be done before the Twenty ninth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy one, by the commiſſioners of Sewers and pavements, appointed by act of Parliament, be henceforth obſerved, in all places within the ſame.

Provided nevertheleſs, That where any Houſe or Houſes, for habitation have been built or were in Building within the ſaid city and Liberties thereof, on or before the Fourteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight; at which time the ſaid Rules and Levels, for raiſing or ſinking of the ſaid Streets, were either not publiſhed, or not generally known; that it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid ſurveyors (who are hereby authorized and required ſo to do) with as little variation from the ſaid Rule as conveniently may be, ſo to alter the ſaid Levels or Marks or any of them, as that the ſaid Buildings ſo erected, may receive as little damage thereby as may be; And if the ſaid ſurveyors or either of them, upon requeſt and due notice to be given by the Owner or Occupier of ſuch Houſe, ſhall refuſe to do his and their duty herein, or the ſaid Owner or Occupier ſhall have any juſt exceptions to their Determination in the premiſes, That then and in ſuch caſe, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Owner or Occupier of ſuch Houſe, (ſo thereby grieved to appeal by his Petition in writing to the Lord Major and Court of Aldermen, who upon deliberate hearing of both ſides, ſhall Finally Determine ſuch Controverſie without further or other Appeal.

And whereas in and by the ſaid Act for Rebuilding of the ſaid City, It is further provided, That the Surveyors, by vertue of the ſaid Act appointed, and every of them within their ſeveral Precincts, ſhall take care for the equal ſetting out of all Party-Walls and Party-Peeres, and that they permit no perſon to Build either on the ſaid Party-Walls, or on his own contiguous Ground till the ſame be performed accordingly.

Now to che Intent that all Exaction in taking the ſaid Surveys, and that all Differences which may hereafter ariſe between any the ſaid Builders may be prevented; Be it Enacted, That no Builders be permitted by the ſaid Surveyors to lay his or their Foundations until the ſaid Surveyors or one of them according to the true intent of the ſaid Act have firſt veiwed the ſame, and ſeen the ſaid Party-Walls and peers equally ſet out accordingly, for the defraying whereof and all incident Charges of Meaſuring, Staking out, taking the level, and Surveying the ſaid Streets and Grounds.

Builders muſt pay to the Chamberlain of London 6 s. 8 d. before they lay their foundation.

Be it further enacted, That all and every the ſaid Builders before his or their Foundation ſhall be Laid, or ſuch Survey taken, ſhall repair to the Chamberlain of London, and there enter his Name, together with the Place where his ſaid Building is ſo to be ſet out, and pay down to the ſaid Chamberlain the ſum of Six ſhillings and eight pence for every Foundation ſo to be Built reſpectively, upon receipt whereof the ſaid Chamberlain ſhall give his Acquittance, which ſaid Acquittance being produced to the ſaid Surveyors or any of them, they and every of them are hereby Required within three days next after ſuch requeſt to Survey and ſet out all and every the ſaid foundations accordingly.

And be it further Enacted, That all and every the ſaid Builders who have at any time ſince the making of the ſaid Act for Rebuilding the ſaid City laid any Foundations to be Built upon, ſhall forthwith pay unto the Chamberlain aforeſaid for every the Foundations ſeverally erected to be inhabited the ſum of Six ſhillings and eight pence, unleſs the ſame hath been formerly paid; And in default thereof it ſhall and may be lawful, to and for the ſaid Chamberlain for the time being, by action of Debt to be Commenced in the Name of the ſaid Chamberlain, in the Kings Majeſties Court to be holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the ſaid City, before the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the ſame City to recover the ſame, in which Action no Eſſoyn or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed.

Difference about the true Value of Party-Walls to be decided by the Alderman of the Ward, or elſe upon appeal by the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen.

And whereas it is provided in and by the ſaid Act, That all differences ariſing between any the Buiders within the ſaid City or Liberties thereof Concerning the Value of the Party-walls, and all Differences ariſing between the ſaid Builders, or any others concerning the placing or ſtopping up of any Lights, Windowes, Water-courſes or Gutters, which may hinder or Retard the ſaid Buildings ſhall and may be Heard, Mediated and Determined (if it may be) by the Alderman of the Ward, where the Cauſe of any ſuch Difference ſhall ariſe and His Deputy; and where the ſaid Alderman and his Deputy, or any of them be concerned as Parties in the Controverſies, or that they cannot Determine the ſaid Differences, That then and in every ſuch caſe the ſame be certified by the ſaid Alderman or his deputy concerned therein to the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, who upon deliberate hearing of all Parties ſhall finally Determine the ſame without other Appeal. Nevertheleſs in the ſaid Act there is no certain penalty provided for ſuch as ſhall obſtinately refuſe to obey the ſaid Determination.

Penalties for Irregular Buildings.

Now to the end there may be a due Obedience yielded to ſuch Determinations, as have been or ſhall be made in any of the caſes laſt mentioned, and in all other caſes hereby left to the Final Determination of the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen; Be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That all and every Party and Parties any way concerned, to give obedience to any ſuch Determinrtion as aforeſaid ſhall Obey and Perform the ſame, under ſuch pains and penalties as by the ſaid Act are or may be inflicted upon the Builder or Levyer of any Irregular built-houſe, contrary to the meaning of the ſame late Act.

And be it further enacted, That all Differences which ſhall or may ariſe concerning the miſplacing, ſtraightning, or ſtopping up, or any wayes obſtructing any common or private Entries, Allyes, Wayes, Stairs, Landing-places, or Paſſages, Houſes of Office, Tunnels, Draughts and other Eaſements heretofore uſed, and enjoyed within the ſaid City of London, or the Liberties thereof, ſhall and may by vertue of this Act be heard, mediated and determined (if it may be) by the Alderman of the Ward where the Cauſe of any ſuch Difference ſhall Ariſe, and his Deputy. And where the ſaid Alderman and his Deputy, or one of them be concerned as Parties in the ſaid Controverſie, or that they cannot Determine the ſame Differences, That theu upon complaint of the party or parties concerned, to the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen, they ſhall hear and finally determine the ſame in ſuch manner as by the aforeſaid Act for the Rebuilding of the ſaid City of London, is appointed in caſe of differences concerning placing and ſtopping of Lights, Windows, and Watercourſes; And all parties concerned are hereby required to obey and ſubmit to ſuch their Determination, under ſuch and the like Penalties as by the aforeſaid Act, are or may be inflicted upon ſuch irregular Builders as aforeſaid: And that all ſuch Obſtructions, as well where any Lights, Windows, Watercourſes, or Gutters are, or ſhall be hindred and ſtopped up, as whereby any common or private Allyes, Entryes, Wayes, Stairs, Landing places, or paſſages, are or ſhall be ſtopped up, ſtraightned or miſplaced as aforeſaid, ſhall and may by order of the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen be abated and removed by vertue of this Act.

Rates for Wharfage and Cranage to be aſſeſſed by his Majeſty and Privy-Council.

And foraſmuch as great Exactions have been and are exerciſed by Wharfingers and others imployed about the Wharfage and Cranage of Goods Landed or Shipped off, at or from the ſaid City of London: For remedy thereof, Be it enacted, That ſuch Rates and no other ſhall from-time to time be taken for Wharfage and Cranage, as well of Timber and other Materials for Building, as of Coles and other Goods and Merchandizes, as by his ſaid Majeſty with the Advice of his Privy-Council, ſhall for that purpoſe be aſſeſſed and allowed to be taken, a Table of which Rates ſhall be hanged up at every of the ſaid Wharfs reſpectively, reſpectively; And if any Wharfinger or other ſhall exact or demand, directly or indirectly, take or receive for Wharfage or Cranage, or by colour thereof, more then according to the Rates which ſhall be ſo aſſeſſed, or ſhall refuſe to ſuffer any Goods or Merchandize to be Landed or Shipped at, or from any Wharf or Wharfs within the ſaid City or the Liberties thereof at the Rates aforeſaid, ſuch Offender ſhall forfeit for every ſuch Offence the ſum of Ten pounds to the Party or Parties thereby grieved, to be recovered with full coſts of Suit, by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint or Information, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or within the ſaid City of London, as the cauſe ſhall ariſe, wherein no Eſſoyn, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed, nor any more then one Imparlance.

And whereas the aforeſaid Act for Erecting a Judicature for determination of Differences touching Houſes Burned or Demoliſhed by the reaſon of the late Fire which happened in London, is expired; And for that there were many Cauſes brought before the ſaid Judicature, which are yet undetermined, and divers other Cauſes proper to receive a determination before the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, which they found not to be within the Authority given them by the aforeſaid Act; And that many more differences do and may ariſe, which could not be heard and determined within the time Limited by the ſaid Act: And for a further and additional Authority to the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, to hear and determine all the aforeſaid differences, and for a more eaſie Execution of the ſaid Authority, It is hereby further enacted and declared, That the ſame Act, and the Judicature thereby Erected, and all and every the Powers and Authorities thereby given to the Juſtices of the Court of Kings Bench, and Common Pleas, and Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the time being, or any three or more of them, and all other matters and things therein contained, ſhall from henceforth ſtand and be revived, and remain in full force until the Twenty ninth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy one; Any clauſe, matter or thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

19 Car. 2. 7. revived, with an additional authority to the Judges.

Provided always, and be it Enacted, That the term of forty years ſhall not be added to any Eſtate for life, or term of years in being, ſo as thereby to make the whole term exceed the number of ſixty years by any Decree hereafter to be made, by vertue of this or the ſaid former Act.

No term to exceed ſixty years.

Provided alwayes, And it is hereby declared, That the ſaid Judges and Barons of the reſpective Courts aforeſaid, or any of them, ſhall not take Cognizance of, nor proceed to hear or determine any differences or demands, which have ariſen or may in any wiſe ariſe between any Land-Lords, proprietors, Tenants, Leſſees, Under-Tenants, or late Occupiers of any the ſaid Houſes, or Buildings, or any other matter or things, by the aforeſaid Act in that behalf made, referred to the determination of the ſaid Judicature, upon any Complaint or requeſt, unleſs the ſame ſhall be exhibited or depending before the ſaid Judicature, at or before the Twenty ninth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy: And that in all ſuch caſes, where no complaint or requeſt ſhall before that time be exhibited or depending before the ſaid Judges and Barons, it ſhall and may be lawful to and for all Land-Lords and proprietors, from and after the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred & ſeventy, to re-enter upon the Ground or Soyl to be Rebuilt upon, and to avoid the Intereſt and Term as well of the Tenants in poſſeſſion, as of all other Mean-Tenants, and to Rebuild thereupon, whereby to preſerve his or their Eſtate or Intereſt therein from being Sold by the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Councel by vertue of the ſaid late Act for Rebuilding the City of London.

Complaints to be exhibited before the 29. of Sept. 1670.

And whereas, divers Leſſees for years having Terms to come, at the time of the ſaid fire have omitted to rebuild; And their Land-Lords for ſaving their Inheritances from forfeiture, have Rebuilt or begun to Rebuild Houſes thereupon, and many of them have let the ſame to other Tenants, who with their Trades and Families are ſetled therein: To the end the ſaid Rebuilders and their Aſſigns, may not be diſquieted in their poſſeſſions; Be it Enacted, That where any Termer for years to come at the time of the ſaid Fire hath ſo omitted to Rebuild, and the Landlord or his Aſſignee or Aſſignees hath Rebuilt, or begun to Rebuild, that the Leaſes of ſuch Termors who have ommitted to rebuild, be from henceforth abſolutely void; Nevertheleſs the ſaid Judges are hereby authorized to Award ſuch Contribution or Recompence to the ſaid Termors as they ſhall think fit.

Leſſees omitting to build loſe their term.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if after any Order, Judgment or Decree hath been or hereafter ſhall be pronounced by any three or more of the ſaid Juſtices or Barons, any one or more of the ſaid Juſtices or Barons ſo pronouncing the ſame, are already dead, or ſhall die before ſuch order, Judgment or Decree ſhall be Signed according to the ſaid recited act, the Signing thereof by the Survivor or Survivors of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, ſhall be as good and effectual to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame were Signed by three or more of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons; any thing in the ſaid recited act contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Decrees ſigned by two Judges, effectual in ſome caſes.

And be it enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That where any perſon or perſons concerned in any of the demoliſhed premiſſes is or ſhall be beyond the Seas, or cannot be found or ſummoned to appear in the ſaid Court, that upon the complaint or petition of the party agrieved, Filed in the ſaid Court for the ſpace of three moneths or more, and Oath in writing made of the endeavour to ſummon ſuch abſent perſon or perſons, That then the ſaid Court ſhall or may after the end of the ſaid three Moneths proceed to hear and determine the ſaid cauſe: And that ſuch Order, Judgment or Decree as the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them ſhall make in ſuch caſe, ſhall be binding to ſuch abſent perſon or perſons, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, as if he or they were actually ſummoned, and preſent at the making ſuch Decree.

Abſent perſons or beyond Sea.

And alſo be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the avoiding difficulties in the recovering of Rents, and for the aſcertaining of Covenants, Terms and Conditions, ordered to be Ordered or Decreed according to this, or the ſaid recited Act; All and every perſon and perſons, Bodies Politique and Corporate reſpectively bound by ſuch Order or Decree, their reſpective Heirs, Succeſſors and Aſſignes, ſhall and may execute Leaſes and Counterparts thereof, according to the tenor of the ſaid Orders and Decrees, and they are thereunto required by vertue of this preſent Act: All which Leaſes ſhall be binding and good in Law; any Law, Statute or Inability whatſoever to the contrary notwithſtanding. And that where Leaſes in Reverſion or additional terms are or ſhall be Ordered or Decreed by force of this, or the ſaid recited Act, the reſpective Parties concerned ſhall or may at their pleaſure unite and joyn together, both the preſent and additional terms into one Leaſe, which ſhall be good and effectual againſt the Leſſors, their Heirs, Executors, Succeſſors and Aſſigns; any Law, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtom whatſoever to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Leaſes to be made according to Decree of the ſaid Judicature, good.

Juſtices and Barons may appoint a ſale.

And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or the greater number of them, ſhall or may appoint a Seal to be and remain with the Regiſter of the ſaid Court for the ſealing of all Warrants, and that all ſuch Warrants which ſhall be ſealed with the ſaid Seal, and ſigned by the ſaid Regiſter for the ſummoning or warning any perſons Bodies politique and corporate, concerned in the late demoliſhed Houſes and premiſſes, or witneſſes, ſhall oblige them to appear according to the tenour of ſuch Warrants; any thing in the ſaid former Act to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

Infants, how Decrees may be made againſt them.

And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where the Inheritance or other Eſtate, of or in any of the ſaid Houſes or Premiſes, are or ſhall be in any Infant or Infants under the age of One and twenty years, or in any Truſtees for them, or any of them; It ſhall be in the Power of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any Three or more of them, upon the Petition of the Father, Mother, or next of kin, or other friend to ſuch Infant or Infants, to Order or Decree a Leaſe or Leaſes againſt ſuch Infant or Infants, and their Truſtees, for any term or terms of years, not exceeding Fifty one years in the whole, to ſuch Father, Mother, or other perſon that ſhall or will undertake the rebuilding of ſuch Houſes, at and under ſuch Rent or Rents, and under ſuch Covenants, Conditions and Agreements, as they the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any Three or more of them ſhall think fit and adjudge; Which ſaid Leaſes and Terms ſo decreed, ſhall and may be held and enjoyed accordingly, by vertue of this preſent Act; And that ſuch Infant or Infants, upon requeſt, after they ſhall attain to their reſpective ages of one and twenty years; And in caſe of the death of ſuch Infant or Infants, his and their Heirs, Executors or Adminiſtrators, ſhall, and are hereby required to execute ſuch Leaſes accordingly, and the reſpective Tenants the Counter-parts thereof.

For encouragement of Builders termes ordered by Decrees of the Judges ſhall be accordingly enjoyed.

And be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the encouragement of Builders, and ſecuring their Eſtates, every Order, Judgment and Decree that hath been, or ſhall hereafter be made by the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any Three or more of them, by force of this, or the ſaid recited Act, touching the Intereſts and Eſtates of Tenants in Tail, ſhall conclude and bind as well Tenants in Tail and their Iſſues, as alſo the eſtates in Remainder and Reverſion, according to the tenour of ſuch Order, Judgment or Decree.

And for better ſecuring the eſtates of the ſaid Builders, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all and every perſon and perſons, and their Executors, Adminiſtrators and Aſſigns, who are or ſhall be Decreed by the ſaid Judicature, to build any Meſſuages or Tenements, or any the ſaid demoliſhed Premiſes, upon any term or eſtates, rendring an annual Rent, have, or ſhall build the ſame accordingly, ſhall hold and enjoy ſuch their ſeveral and reſpective terms and eſtates, under the Rents and Covenants Decreed, notwithſtanding any other Eſtate, Right, Title, Intereſt in Law or Equity, Truſt, Charge, or other Incumbrance whatſoever.

Actions may be brought to enforce the performance of the Judges Decrees.

And for the better obliging of all perſons to the performance of the Orders and Decrees made or to be made by the ſaid Judicature; Be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That where any perſon or perſons are or ſhall be ordered or decreed to pay any Rate, Contribution, Sum or Sums of Money, in purſuance of this, or the ſaid recited Act, for erecting the ſaid Judicature, It ſhall be lawful for the parties concerned, upon non-payment thereof, to ſue for and recover the ſame by Action of Debt, or upon the Caſe, in any of his Majeſties Courts of Record at Weſtminſter, or within the City of London, and to give ſuch Order or Decree in Evidence to prove the ſame; In which Action, no Eſſoine, Protection, or Wager of Law ſhall be allowed. And where any perſon or perſons are or ſhall be ordered, adjudged or decreed to build, ſeal a Leaſe, give ſecurity, or do any other Act in purſuance of this or the aforeſaid Act, It ſhall and may be lawful for the party or parties concerned, in default of performance thereof by action upon his Caſe, to be brought in any of his ſaid Majeſties Courts of Record aforeſaid, to recover Damages for ſuch Non-performance, or to have or bring his Bill in any Court of equity, to inforce the actual performance of the ſame.

Adminiſter Oaths.

And be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any of them, out of Court to adminiſter Oaths, and take Affidavits in writing, concerning any matter relating to the proceedings in the ſaid Judicature, which Affidavits ſhall or may be made uſe of in Court, as the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any Three or more of them ſhall think fit.

And whereas ſome Orders and Decrees in the late Court of Judicature, erected by the late Act of Parliament, touching the Houſes burnt in London, were made the ſame week that the Power of the ſaid Court of Judicature determined, whereby the parties concerned, had not the ſame time and liberty of exception and appeal as others had; Be it therefore provided & enacted by this preſent Parliament, and the authority thereof, That where any ſuch Order or Decree was made by a leſſer number of Juſtices and Barons then Seven, if the ſaid Order or Decree were made ſince the One and twentieth day of December, in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty and eight, It ſhall be lawful for any perſons agrieved by ſuch Order or Decree, to preſent their exceptions to the ſame in writing, within Seven dayes next after the firſt ſitting of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, by vertue of this preſent Act: And that the ſame Examination, Proceedings, Review and Determination, ſhall be thereupon had and made, and as effectually to all intents, as if the ſaid exceptions had been preſented within the due time limited and appointed by the ſaid late Act of Parliament; any thing in this or the ſaid late Act of Parliament to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Appeals allowed, and in what caſes.

And whereas there were ſeveral Houſes in the City of London conſumed by Fire within three years next before the ſaid late dreadful Fire, which by reaſon of ſome Differences and Doubts ariſing in point of Title, the ſame were not, nor are likely to be rebuilt, unleſs ſome courſe be taken for the deciding of ſuch Differences: For remedy whereof, Be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Judges and Barons, or any three or more of them, be and are hereby authorized and impowred, to hear and determine all ſuch Caſes for all ſuch Houſes and Tenements as fully and amply, and in like manner to all Intents and Purpoſes, as they can or may hear and determine any other matter herein mentioned: And all Decrees and Orders in ſuch Caſes to be made ſhall bind, and be obeyed by all Parties therein concerned, and ſhall be of like effect, as if the ſame were made for any other matter or thing herein mentioned.

Further power given to the Judges.

And whereas by reaſon of inlarging ſeveral Streets, and of making the new Streets called Kings-ſtreet, leading from Guild-Hall into Cheapſide, and Queen-ſtreet leading from Soaper-lane, to the River of Thames, there are diverſe ſlips and ſmall parcels of ground, remaining altogether uſeleſs to the Owners thereof, in regard the ſame are not capable of any Houſe being built thereupon: It is therefore hereby further provided and enacted, That for the making the ſaid Streets and Buildings conformable, and for the better determining of all Controverſies, concerning the ſame, that the ſaid Judges and Barons or any three or more of them be and are hereby authoriſed and impowred to hear and determine all Controverſies and Differences ariſing by reaſon or occaſion thereof, in like manner as they can or may hear or determine any other Matter or Cauſe referred to their Judgment, by vertue of this or the aforeſaid Act for erecting the ſaid Judicature, and may make ſuch Orders and Decrees, either for transferring the propriety of ſuch parcels of Ground left next the ſaid Streets to the Owners of the backward ground, or by transferring the propriety of a proportion of the backward ground to the Owners of any the ſaid ſmall parcels of Ground, or by annexing it to the next adjoyning and contiguous Ground, in order to the regular Building thereupon; And for all ſuch parcels of Ground, the propriety whereof ſhall be ſo transferred by ſuch Order or Decree of the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them, as aforeſaid, and for all Charges and Damages concerning the ſame, ſuch recompence and ſatisfaction ſhall be given by the Builders to the reſpective Proprietors and others intereſſed therein, as ſhall be awarded by a Jury for that purpoſe, to be impannelled by the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen in like manner, as by the aforeſaid Act for rebuilding the ſaid City of London is appointed in caſe of ſatisfaction to be given for grounds taken & imployed for the uſes in that Act mentioned, in caſe the Parties concerned will not, or by reaſon of Infancy, or other impediment cannot come to agreement touching the ſame; Which Orders and Decrees in that behalf to be made, ſhall bind all Parties therein concerned, their Heirs, Executors, Adminiſtrators, Succeſſors & Aſſigns, and ſhall be of like effect as other Decrees made by the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them, by vertue of this or the aforeſaid Act, to the intent that the building thereupon may extend to the ſaid Streets, in a right line with other Houſes there built, and the Owners and others intereſſed of and in the ſaid adjacent and contiguous Grounds, paying to the Owners and others intereſſed, of and in the ſaid ſmall ſlips and parcels of Ground ſatisfaction as ſhall be ordered and awarded by the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them, upon hearing of the Parties concerned (who are hereby authorized and impowred to hear and determine the ſame, and therein to make ſuch Orders and Decrees as in other Cauſes referred to their Judgment and Determination by this or the aforeſaid Act) ſhall and may for ever hold and enjoy the ſame by vertue of this preſent Act.

A Jury.

And whereas, for the further enabling of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City of London, and their Succeſſors, to perform and accompliſh the Works in the ſaid Act, for rebuilding the ſaid City mentioned; It was thereby Enacted, That for all ſorts of Coles, which from and after the Twenty fourth day of June One thouſand ſix hundred ſixty ſeven, and before the Twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy ſeven, ſhould be brought into the Port of London, or River of Thames, within the Liberties of the ſaid City, upon the ſame River to be ſold, there ſhould be paid by way of Importation thereupon for every Chaldron or Tun of Coles, the ſum of Twelve pence, to be anſwered to the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, Citizens, and their Deputies and Aſſigns, and to be applied and diſpoſed unto and for the ſatisfaction of ſuch perſons, whoſe Grounds ſhould, by vertue and in purſuance of the ſaid Act, be taken and imployed for the inlarging of the Streets and narrow Paſſages within the ſaid City, and other uſes and purpoſes in the ſaid Act mentioned: But foraſmuch as it doth and will require far greater ſums of Money to give ſatisfaction for the Ground to be taken and imployed for the enlarging of the Streets, by this and the aforeſaid Act appointed to be enlarged, and for publick Market-places, and other the publick uſes and purpoſes in this Act mentioned, then at the time of the paſſing of the ſaid Act, was or could be foreſeen: Therefore for the further enabling of the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City, and their Succeſſors, to perform the Works in this and the ſaid Act for rebuilding, mentioned: And alſo for the rebuilding of the reſpective Pariſh-Churches by this Act appointed to be rebuilt; Be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for all ſorts of Coles which (from and after the Firſt day of May, One thou-

An Impoſition on all Sea-coles and all other Coles to be received by the Mayor, &c. and imployed for inlarging the Streets, and other publick Works from the firſt of May, 1670. to 29. Sep. 1687.

ſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, and before the Twenty ninth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty ſeven) ſhall be Imported and brought into the ſaid Port of the City of London, or the River of Thames, within the Liberties of the ſaid City, upon the ſame River, there ſhall be paid by way of Impoſition thereupon, according to the Rates hereafter mentioned, (that is to ſay) for all ſuch Coles as ſhall be there Imported and brought in, from and after the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, and before the Twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy ſeven, there ſhall be paid for every Chaldron or Tun thereof, Two ſhillings, over and beſide the aforeſaid Impoſition of Twelve pence the Chaldron or Tun, by the ſaid Act for the rebuilding the City of London, appointed to be paid; And for all ſuch Coles which ſhall be there Imported and brought in from and after the ſaid four and Twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy ſeven, and before the ſaid Twenty ninth day of September, One thouſand ſix hundred eighty ſeven, there ſhall be paid for every Chaldron or Tun thereof, Three ſhillings, and the ſame ſhall by vertue of this Act, be collected, levyed and paid in ſuch ſort and manner, in all and every reſpect, as in and by the ſaid Act is limited and appointed for the collecting and levying the Duty of Twelve pence the Chaldron or Tun of Coles, impoſed by the ſaid Act, and all and every the Powers, Authorities, Directions and Proviſions, in or by the ſaid Act mentioned or provided, for the levying and collecting thereof, or for the ordering or regulating the Payments of the ſaid Cole-meters, or others in the diſcharge of their reſpective Offices and Duties, or for the preventing of Fraud and Covin, and diſcovery of the juſt Quantities of all ſorts of Coles to be imported, as aforeſaid, and all other things relating thereunto, ſhall remain and be in force, and by vertue of this preſent Act, ſhall and may be exerciſed and put in Ure, for the collecting and levying the ſeveral duties aforeſaid, and of either of them reſpectively, according to the Purport and Effect of the aforeſaid Act in all and every reſpect: And that for and during all the time by this Act limited and appointed for the payment of the ſaid Impoſitions, or either of them reſpectively, as if the ſame were expreſly mentioned in this preſent Act, with reference to the ſaid Impoſitions thereby impoſed; All which Moneys ſo to be received upon accompt of the ſaid reſpective Impoſitions, or either of them, ſhall from time to time be paid into the Receipt of the Chamber of the City of London, and from thence ſhall be iſſued and paid according to the direction and appointment of this preſent Act, and not otherwiſe. And the ſaid Chamber of the City of London ſhall ſtand and be charged with all the reſidue of the ſaid Mones there paid in, which ſhall not be iſſued out and paid accordingly.

Rules and Authorities for collecting the ſaid Impoſitions.

How the money received by means of the ſeveral Impoſitions ſhall be diſpoſed.

And be it further Enacted, That all and every Sum and Sums of Money which ſhall be raiſed upon the Receipt of the ſeveral and reſpective Impoſitions aforeſaid, or by ſuch additional Duty, in caſe of concealment thereof, as by the aforeſaid Act is appointed, ſhall be imployed and diſpoſed in manner and form following, (that is to ſay) Three fourth parts of all the Moneys which from and after the ſaid Firſt day of May, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy, and before the ſaid Twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and ſeven, ſhall be raiſed or payable upon the Receipt of the aforeſaid Impoſition of Two ſhillings for every Chaldron or Tun of Coles, or in caſe of concealment thereof as aforeſaid, ſhall be imployed and diſpoſed for and towards the rebuilding, erecting or repairing of the ſaid Pariſh-Churches reſpectively, accordingly to ſuch order and direction as by the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Lord Biſhop, and Lord Mayor of London for the time being, or any two of them, ſhall be given in that behalf, and the ſame ſhall from time to time be iſſued out and paid accordingly, unto ſuch Perſon and Perſons, as they, or any two of them, ſhall by Warrant under their Hands and Seals for that purpoſe, Direct and Appoint: And the other fourth part, reſidue thereof, ſhall be imployed for and towards the giving ſatiſfaction for Grounds ſet out and imployed for inlargeing of the Streets, making of Wharfs, Keys, Publique Market-places, and other Publique Uſes, in this and the aforeſaid Act mentioned and appointed: And that one Moyety of all the Moneys which from and after the ſaid Twenty fourth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and ſeven, ſhall be raiſed, or payable upon the aforeſaid Impoſition of Three ſhillings the Chaldron or Tun of Coles, or in caſe of concealment thereof as aforeſaid, ſhall be imployed and diſpoſed for and towards the Rebuilding, Erecting and repairing of the ſaid reſpective Pariſh-Churches, by ſuch Order and Direction, and to be iſſued and paid by ſuch Warrant of the ſaid Lord Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury, Lord Biſhop and Lord Mayor of London for the time being as aforeſaid: and the other Moyety thereof ſhall from time to time be imployed and diſpoſed for the giving of ſatiſfaction for Ground ſet out and imployed as aforeſaid, and ſuch other publique Uſes and Purpoſes as in this and aforeſaid Act are mentioned and appointed.

Ten ſhillings out of every hundred pounds to be defaulked for the Mayor, &c.

And be it further Enacted and Declared by the authority aforeſaid, That for all Moneys ariſing upon the Receipt of the ſeveral Impoſitions aforeſaid, or either of them reſpectively, which in purſuance of this Act ſhall be paid into the Chamber of the City of London; It ſhall and may be lawful for the Chamberlain, or ſuch other perſon or perſons, who ſhall be appointed to iſſue out and pay the ſame, thereout to defaulk and retain for the uſe of the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City, and their Succeſſors, the ſum of Ten ſhillings for every hundred pounds, and ſo after that rate for any greater or leſſer ſum thereof in lieu of the trouble, hazard, and incident Charges attending the Receipt and payment thereof.

One fourth part of the whole may be imployed in the repair of St. Pauls Church.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the Lord Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury, the Lord Biſhop of London and Lord Mayor of London, for time being, or any two of them as aforeſaid, to imploy or diſpoſe, for and towards the building repairing the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, One fourth part of the Money by this Act given and appointed for the building, erecting or repairing the Pariſh-Churches aforeſaid.

And foraſmuch as the Moneys to be raiſed by ſuch Receipt of the Impoſitions aforeſaid, for every Chaldron or Tun of Coles, by vertue of this and the aforeſaid Act, will not at preſent raiſe ſuch a Stock or Sum of Money as may be ſufficient for the effecting the ends and purpoſes in this and the aforeſaid Act mentioned and intended.

The Profits ariſing from the impoſitions may be engaged to raiſe a preſent ſtock of money.

It is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, the Lord Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, for the time being, ſhall be and are hereby impowred by Indenture under their Hands and Seals, to Engage the Profits ariſing of the reſpective Impoſitions, by this Act impoſed, and thereby appointed to be imployed for and towards the Rebuilding, and Erecting, or Repairing, of the Cathedral and Pariſh-Churches within the ſaid City reſpectively, or any part or parts thereof, as a Security for any Sum or Sums of Money by them to be borrowed for that purpoſe, to any perſon or perſons that ſhall or will advance any Sums of Money upon that Security; All which Moneys ſo to be borrowed, ſhall be imployed for and towards the Rebuilding and Erecting or Repairing of the ſaid Cathedral and Pariſh-Churches reſpectively according to the true intent and meaning of this Act. And in like manner alſo, are hereby further impowred to aſſign ſuch proportion or proportions of the Moneys to be paid in courſe, out of the ſaid Impoſitions to the Pariſhioners of any of the reſpective Pariſh-Churches, or any other perſon or perſons, who ſhall and will ſecure the advancement of preſent Moneys, for the Rebuilding of their reſpective Pariſh-Churches, and ſhall be willing to accept of ſuch Aſſignments for his or their ſatisfaction of the Moneys to be disburſed and laid out in the Rebuilding thereof; And that the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the City of London, and their Succeſſors, ſhall be and are hereby enabled to engage the reſidue of the profits ariſing of the ſaid Importation, either by vertue of this or the aforeſaid Act reſpectively, as a Security for any Sum or Sums of Money by them to be borrowed and taken up for that purpoſe by Indenture under their Common-Seal, to any perſon or perſons that ſhall or will upon that Security, advance any preſent Sum or Sums of Money; All which ſum or ſums of money ſo to be borrowed, ſhall be imployed for and towards the making of ſuch ſatisfaction, and other the uſes, intents and purpoſes whereunto the ſaid reſpective Impoſitions are by this and the aforeſaid Act appointed to be converted and imployed, and not otherwiſe: And alſo in like manner ſhall and may aſſign any Sum or Sums of Money to be paid in courſe out of the ſaid Impoſition, to any perſon or perſons whoſe Grounds ſhall be taken as aforeſaid, who are or ſhall be willing to accept thereof for his or their ſatisfaction.

A new Key or Wharf to be made from London-Bridge to the Temple Forty Foot broad.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the better benefit and accommodation of Trade, and for other great Conveniences, there ſhall be left a continued Tract of Ground, all along from London-Bridge to the Temple, of the breadth of Fourty Foot of Aſſize, from the North-ſide of the River of Thames to be converted to a Key, or publick and open Wharf; and that in order thereunto, all Buildings, Sheds, Pales, Walls, Incloſures, and other obſtructions and impediments whatſoever, now ſtanding or being within Forty Foot Northward of the ſaid River of Thames, between the places aforeſaid, (Cranes, Stairs and Docks only excepted) ſhall within Eight Moneths now next enſuing, be taken down and removed, and the ſaid Ground Cleared and Levelled, and that from henceforth there ſhall be no Building or Erection whatſoever (except onely Cranes, Stairs and Docks, as aforeſaid) placed or ſet within, or upon the ſaid Fourty Foot of Ground, or any part thereof, between the places aforeſaid. And that all Buildings that ſhall hereafter immediately border upon any part of the ſaid Ground, upon the North-ſide thereof, ſhall Front and be placed in the Line that ſhall be ſet out for the Bounds of the Breadth of the ſaid Forty foot of Ground Northward. And that the ſame Building ſhall be of the Second or Third Sort or Rate of Buildings mentioned in a former Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for the Rebuilding of the City of London, at the Erection of the Rebuilder thereof; wherein ſuch Regularity of Building ſhall be obſerved, and under ſuch Penalties as are contained in the ſaid Act in that behalf, and wherein ſuch Uniformity ſhall be had, as in other Streets of the ſaid City, except Common-Halls for Companies, and other Buildings, which ſhall be otherwiſe allowed of by his Majeſty.

19 Car. 2. cap. 8.

And be it further Enacted, That all the ſaid Tract of Ground of the ſaid breadth of Forty Foot from the ſaid River, ſhall be open and at large, without any Diviſion or Separation, and that the Bounds of each Proprietors Ground therein, ſhall be diſtinguiſhed onely by Denter-ſtones to be placed in the Pavement thereof; And that the Line of the whole Key or Wharf, between the places aforeſaid, and alſo the ſeveral Cranes and Stairs within the ſame places, ſhall be aſcertained by the Direction of the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, and ſet out by their Surveyor accordingly, with his Majeſties Approbation, on or before the Four and twentieth day of June, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy; And further, That no Lighter, Boats, or other Veſſels ſhall lie before any the ſaid Wharfs or Keys between the places aforeſaid, on the North-ſide of the ſaid River, longer then ſhall be neceſſary for the Lading or Unlading of Goods, without the conſent and permiſſion of the Wharfingers or Proprietors thereof.

And be it further Enacted and Declared, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon or perſons to Lade or Unlade any Goods or Merchandiſes at any of the ſaid Wharfs or Keys for Wharfage and Craneage, whereof every Proprietor, Wharfinger, or other perſon concerned, ſhall and may demand and receive ſuch Rates, and no other, for the ſame, as ſhall from time to time be ſet out and appointed by his Majeſty, with the Advice of his Privy Council.

The Channel of Bridewell-Dock from the Thames to Holborn-Bridge to be made Navigable.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for the further convenience of Trade, the Channel of Bridewell-dock, from the Channel of the River of Thames to Holbourn-ridge, ſhall be ſunk to a ſufficient Level, whereby to make it Navigable; and that the Ground to be ſet out for the breadth of the ſaid Channel, and of the Wharfs on each ſide thereof, ſhall not be leſs in Breadth then One hundred foot; nor ſhall exceed One hundred and twenty foot in breadth: And that the Line of the ſaid Channel and Wharfs and Levels thereof, together with the Cranes and Stairs to be placed thereon, ſhall be aſcertained by the ſaid Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, with his Majeſties approbation, and ſet out by the Surveyors accordingly, at or before the Firſt day of May next enſuing; And that all the ſaid Wharf-ground on each ſide of the ſaid intended River ſhall lie open and at large (Cranes and Stairs only excepted) without any Diviſion or Separation, and each perſons propriety therein to be diſtinguiſhed onely by Denter-ſtones in the Pavement thereof; And that all Buildings that ſhall hereafter immediately border upon each ſide of the ſaid Wharfs ſhall Front and be placed in the Line that ſhall be ſet out for the Bounds of the Breadth of the Wharfs from the Channel; And that the ſaid Buildings ſhall be of the ſecond rate of Buildings mentioned in the ſaid Act for Rebuilding, wherein ſuch Regularity of Building ſhall be obſerved, and under ſuch penalties as are contained in the ſaid Act; And that no Lighter, Boat or Veſſel ſhall lie before any the ſaid laſt mentioned Wharfs or Keys, longer then ſhall be neceſſary for the Lading or Unlading of Goods, without the conſent or permiſſion of the Wharfingets or Proprietors thereof, and that it ſhall and may be lawful for any perſon or perſons to land any Goods or Merchandizes at any of the ſaid Wharfs or Keys within the intended Channel or Cut, ſo to be made for Wharfage or Cranage; whereof every Proprietor, Wharfinger, or other perſon concerned ſhall demand and receive ſuch Rates, and no other for the ſame as ſhall from time to time be ſet and appointed by his ſaid Majeſty, with the Advice of his Privy-Councel as aforeſaid. And that certain reaſonable Rates for Tolls and other Profits ariſing by the Navigation of the ſaid Channel or Cut, ſhall be ſet and appointed by the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen, with approbation of the Barons of the Exchequer, or two, or more of them, and the ſame Tolls or Profits veſted in the Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London, for preſervation of the ſaid Navigation-Sluces and other incident charges thereof.

How the charge ſhall be defrayed.

Provided always, and be it further Enacted and Declared, That the ſinking and making of the ſaid intended Channel of Bridewell-Dock, and Fleet-Ditch, from the Channel of the Thames to Holbourn-Bridge, and the Saſſes and Sluces for the better Navigation thereon, and the raiſing and ſinking other Wharfs or Keys, on each ſide of the ſaid Bridewell-Dock, and Fleet-Ditch, (whereby to bring the ſame to a Level) ſhall be born and firſt defrayed by the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City of London, out of the ſaid fourth part of the Impoſition to be raiſed upon Coles, by vertue of this Act; And that the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens, ſhall cauſe the ſaid Channels to be ſunk, and Wharfs or Keys, to be reduced to ſuch a Level as may be proper for the Proprietors of the Ground, immediately bordering upon the ſaid Wharfs or Keys, to Build upon with convenient acceſs thereto, before the Firſt of Auguſt, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy; And in the next place after the charge before mentioned, ſhall be born out of the ſaid fourth part, ſatisfaction ſhall be made out of the ſame fourth part to the Proprietors, whoſe Ground hath been or ſhall be laid open, or from whom any Ground hath been or ſhall be taken for the ſaid publick uſe.

And whereas, ſome part of the ſaid Ground ſo as aforeſaid deſigned for publick Wharfs on the North-ſide of the ſaid River of Thames, and on each ſide of the ſaid Channel or Cut will be much improved, and ſome other parts thereof will be much Impaired in value, by reaſon of converting the ſame to the uſes aforeſaid, To the end therefore, that an equal and reaſonable courſe may be held and uſed on each hand, without wrong to any party therein concerned; Be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That as well for the giving ſatisfaction to ſuch perſons, whoſe Ground ſhall be imployed as aforeſaid, or thereby impaired or leſſened in value; As alſo, for the Aſſeſſing and Raiſing of Moneys upon thoſe that ſhall by the means aforeſaid, make improvement or melioration of any of the ſaid Ground ſo imployed; The ſame Powers, Authorities, form and courſe of proceedings, ſhall in all things be uſed, exerciſed, put in practice, and obſerved, as are by the ſaid recited Act (made for the Rebuilding of London) ordained, provided and appointed for ſatisfaction to be made for ground imployed for the enlargement of Streets and Paſſages, and for Aſſeſments to be made in conſideration of Improvements and Melioration of Houſes and Ground, and that the Return of the Key about White-Fryers-Dock, ſhall not exceed the breadth of Twenty Foot.

White-Fryers Dock.

Proviſion for ſuch as ſhall rebuild againſt ſecret charges and incumbrances.

And for the Security and Encouragement of ſuch as have or ſhall Rebuild upon the Scite of any Houſe or Houſes burned or demoliſhed by reaſon of the ſaid late Fire; againſt ſecret Charges and Incumbrances, wherewith, or whereunto the ſame ſhall or may be charged or liable; Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That no ſuch Houſe or Houſes already built, or to be rebuilt within the ſaid City of London, or Liberties thereof, nor the Owners, or others intereſſed therein, ſhall after the Rebuilding thereof, be further liable to the Satisfaction of any charge or charges, incumbrance or incumbrances, wherewith, or whereunto the ſame are or may be liable, by any matter or thing before the ſaid late Fire, then the value of the Ground or Soyl, in caſe the ſame had not been rebuilt upon, might or would extend to ſatisfie, unleſs ſuch charges or Incumbrances as were contracted thereupon by the now Owners, or others Intereſſed therein, who ſhall themſelves be and remain Liable to ſatisfie the ſame, as if this preſent Act had never been had or made.

One and twenty years poſſeſſion or more ſhall enable the owner to make Leaſes.

And whereas many Deeds, Evidences and other Writings, were in the ſaid Fire Loſt, Burnt or Imbezelled, by which misfortune, many perſons who have Land in the ſaid City are rendred unable to make their Right and Title ſo apparent, as can ſatisfie ſuch as would take Leaſes of their ſaid Lands, and build upon them; Be it enacted, That if any perſon or perſons, who have been lawful Poſſeſſors, and eſteemed Owners of any Ground within the ſaid City, for the ſpace of One and twenty years or more, ſhall Grant a Leaſe to any perſon or perſons upon a valuable Ground-Rent, ſo to be eſteemed by the ſaid Mayor and Aldermen, or any three of them, if the ſaid Lands ſhall afterward be recovered from the ſaid perſon ſo granting, That the Leaſe ſhall be good and Valid, the Builders onely paying the aforeſaid Ground-Rent, to the perſon unto whom the Ground ſhall rightly belong, ſhall be freed from all charge and trouble; Any Law or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Water-houſe at Broken-Wharf.

And whereas, the Water-Houſe at or near Broken-Wharf, was wholly burnt down and conſumed in the time of the late dreadful Fire, which being found impoſſible to be Rebuilt with Brick, the Owners thereof have at their very great Charge lately rebuilded the ſaid Houſe with Timber, and made the ſame uſeful for ſerving the Inhabitants of the City with Water; Be it therefore Enacted and Declared by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Owners and their Aſſigns, are hereby and ſhall for ever hereafter be ſaved harmleſs and indemnified from all trouble or penalties, for or by reaſon of their building the ſaid Houſe with Timber as aforeſaid; Any thing in this Act or in the former Act for Rebuilding the City of London, to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided, That no continuance of the ſaid reſtraint from Building, ſhall extend to the Water-Houſe at London-Bridge; but that the ſame may be built according as in the former Act is provided.

Provided always, That it may be lawful for any perſon or perſons, Bodies politick or Corporate, Owners and Proprietors, of any ſuch Ground, meant or contained within this Act, to leave any old Foundations of his or theirs Unbuilt, to make any new Street or Paſſage, or to enlarge any old ones, the ſaid Owners or Proprietors, taking care within convenient time after their Building, ſufficiently to Pave and Amend all ſuch Street and Paſſages; Any thing in this Act, or one other Act Entituled, An Act for Rebuilding the City of London, to the contrary notwithſtanding.

A Street to open 14 Foot wide from Thread-Needle-ſtreet to Loathbury.

Provided alſo, and be it Enacted, That the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen ſhall be hereby Impowred to cauſe a Street to be opened Fourteen Foot wide, if they ſhall ſo think fit, from the Weſt-end of Thread Needle-ſtreet, down to Loathbury, in caſe the Proprietors do not voluntarily ſo open it before the Four and twentieth day of June next, making ſuch Allowance to the Owners and others Intereſted, as by the former Act for opening of Streets, is directed; Which Street ſhall be and continue an Open Street for ever.

Bury-ſtreet in Beavis-Marks.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That the remainder of Bury-ſtreet in Beavis-Marks, which is not yet New Built, may be built after the Pattern and Model of the other New Building in the ſaid Street; any thing in this or the ſaid former Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

And whereas many Builders of Houſes within the ſaid City, and the Liberties thereof, have (for the more Regularity of Building, and making many of the Streets and Lanes more Straight and Beautiful then otherwiſe they would have been) by and with the appointment and approbation of the ſaid Surveyors, advanced their Foundations in many places further into the Streets and Lanes thereof, upon the Soyl of the ſaid Streets and Lanes, then the ſame formerly ſtood, whereby ſome difference may hereafter poſſibly ariſe, either between our Sovereign Lord the King, His Heirs and Succeſſors, or between the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City, or other Proprietors of the Ground ſo built upon, and the ſaid Builders, or ſuch perſon or perſons, Bodies politick and Corporate, to whom the Inheritance of the ſaid Houſes ſo to be Built, now doth or hereafter ſhall belong: For prevention whereof, Be it further Enacted, That all Ground and Soyle ſo taken, or which hereafter ſhall or may be ſo taken out of the ſaid Streets or Lanes, or any of them, ſhall from henceforth for ever, be United and Annexed to the ſaid Houſes: And that all and every perſon and perſons whatſoever, Bodies-politick and Corporate, giving ſuch ſatisfaction to His Majeſty, or to the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of the ſaid City, or other the reſpective Owners or Proprietors of the Ground ſo Built upon, and according to ſuch Rates as are, or ought to be given and allowed for Ground taken and imployed for the Enlarging of Streets, by Vertue of the aforeſaid Act for Rebuilding of the ſaid City, ſhall and may hold and enjoy the ſaid reſpective Parcels of Ground or Soyle ſo built upon, United and annexed to ſuch Buildings, for and during ſuch Terms and Eſtates as he and they reſpectively have, or hereafter ſhall have, of and in the ſaid Houſes and Buildings; Any matter or thing to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Proviſo to ſave harmleſs Builders.

Pauls School new built by the Company of Mercers upon part of Saint Pauls Church-yard, and confirmed to them.

And whereas, the Wardens and Commonalty of the Myſtery of the Mercers of the City of London are now building purſuant to a Deſign approved of by his Majeſty, a new School-houſe, with Houſes thereto adjoyning for the Accommodation of the Maſter, Sub-maſter and Chaplain thereof, partly upon the Scites and Tofts of the late School called Saint Pauls-School, and the former Houſe of the ſaid Maſters and Chaplain, and partly upon ſome Ground next adjoyning, being part of the Church-yard belonging to the Cathedral Church of Saint Pauls London; And whereas, other parts of the former Scite of the ſaid late School, and of other Houſes adjoyning, have been alſo by his Majeſties directions cut off & laid into the ſaid Church-yard, for the inlargement and accommodation of the Paſſage at the Eaſt-end of the ſaid Cathedral; Be it therefore Enacted, That ſo much of the ſaid Ground adjoyning to the Scite of the ſaid late School, and former Houſes, as is compriſed within the Foundation of the ſaid new School and Houſes, now Building for the ſaid Maſters & Chaplain, be and are hereby veſted and ſetled on the ſaid Wardens and Commonalty and their Succeſſors for ever, as the ſaid late School and former Houſes were before the ſaid Fire; And that the ſaid other parts of the former Scite of the ſaid late School and other Houſes adjoyning, laid unto the ſaid Church-yard as aforeſaid, for the Enlargement of the late Paſſage, ſhall continue a Paſſage for ever, and be and are hereby veſted and ſetled on the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Pauls aforeſaid, and their Succeſſors for ever, as the Reſidue of the ſaid Church-yard is and was heretofore; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſo for the Churches of St. Faith, and St. Paul, and St. Gregory.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained, ſhall extend or be taken to veſt or ſetle the Church of Saint Paul, and Saint Faith, or any part thereof, or the Church of Saint Gregory, by Saint Pauls, or any of them, or the Church-yards to any of them belonging, or appertaining, or any part of any of them, in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, or any of them, or in any other perſon or perſons, Bodies politick or corporate, other then the Ground whereupon Saint Pauls School and Houſes thereunto belonging, are by this Act appointed to be rebuilt; any thing in this Act notwithſtanding.

Whites-alley in Coleman-ſtreet.

Provided always, and be it enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That whereas the Alley called Whites-Alley in Coleman-ſtreet, London, was not wholly burnt down in the ſaid late Fire, but the one half part thereof, or near thereabouts is yet ſtanding, neither was the ſaid Alley ever any thorough Paſſage, nor will the enlarging thereof be any Ornament or advantage to the ſaid City, Therefore it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the ſeveral Proprietors, of and in the ſaid Alley, to rebuild their ſeveral Houſes, on both ſides thereof, which were burnt or demoliſhed by reaſon of the ſaid late Fire, upon their old Foundations reſpectively: This preſent or the ſaid former Act for rebuilding the City of London, or any thing therein contained, or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Market place within Newgate to be granted to the City by Leaſe or otherwiſe.

And further be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That for ever hereafter the ſaid Mayor and Commonalty, and Citizens of London, may and ſhall have a Market to be kept Three or four days in the Week, as to them ſhall ſeem convenient, upon the Ground now ſet out by the aſſent of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul London, for a Market-place within Newgate: And that the ſaid Dean and Chapter ſhall make and give one or more Leaſe or Leaſes of the ſaid Ground, to the ſaid Mayor, Commonalty and Citizens, and alſo of the Wall of the ſaid Church-yard, abutting ſeverally upon Pater-Noſter-Row and the Old Change, for the Term of Forty years, reſerving the yearly Rent of Four pounds for the Ground of the ſaid Market-place, and Two pence for every Superficial foot of the Ground or Soyl of the ſaid Wall, as it is now ſet out by the Surveyors of the City, and of the ſaid Dean and Chapter; And ſo from forty years to forty years for ever, at the like yearly Rent, and one years Rent after the Rates aforeſaid, to be paid by way of Fine, for each of the ſaid Grounds reſpectively, upon the making every New Leaſe thereof; Which ſaid leaſe and leaſes ſhall be good and effectual in the Law, as againſt the ſaid Dean and Chapter, and their Succeſſors, and all perſons claiming by, from, or under them: and that no Houſe, Shed, or other Building ſhall ſtand, or hereafter be erected and fixed upon the ſaid Market-place, other then the Market-houſe already Built, without the conſent of the ſaid Dean and Chapter; any thing in this or any other Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

19 Car. 2. 8.

And whereas by a late Act of this preſent Parliament, Entituled, An Act for Rebuilding the City of London, It was enacted, That the Pariſhes to be rebuilded within the ſaid City of London, in lieu of thoſe which were demoliſhed by the late Dreadful Fire, ſhould not exceed the number of Thirty nine; But foraſmuch as upon an Exact Survey taken of the number of Houſes to be rebuilded, and of the Extent of the reſpective Pariſhes neceſſary to be ſetled and continued within the ſaid City, It doth appear that the Pariſhes to be ſetled and continued, and the Pariſh-Churches to be rebuilded within the ſaid City of London, in lieu of thoſe demoliſhed or conſumed by the ſaid late Fire, cannot conveniently by Union, or otherwiſe, be reduced to a leſs number then Fifty one;

Fifty one Pariſhes to be within the City of London.

Be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that the number of Pariſhes to be ſetled, and of Pariſh-Churches to be rebuilded within the ſaid City of London, ſhall be Fifty one; The aforeſaid Act, or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The Names of the Fifty one Pariſhes.

And it is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That the ſaid reſpective Churches to be Rebuilded within the ſaid City of London and Liberties thereof, ſhall be built and erected according to ſuch Models, and of ſuch Dimenſions, and in ſuch Manner and Form in all reſpects, as by the ſaid Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, Lord Bishop of London, and Lord Mayor of London for the time being, (with his Majeſties Approbation thereof) shall direct and appoint: And the ſaid reſpective Pariſhes herein before mentioned and appointed to be

United

The ſame Pariſh-Churches ſhall be rebuilt according to Models appointed by the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, Biſhop of London, and Lord Mayor of London, with the Kings Approbation.

United as aforeſaid, ſhall for ever hereafter remain and continue ſo United and Conſolidated and Annexed unto the ſeveral and reſpective pariſh-Churches by this Act appointed to be Rebuilded as aforeſaid; And the reſpective Pariſhioners, and the Inhabitants of the ſaid ſeveral Pariſhes ſo to be united as aforeſaid, by force of the preſent Act, ſhall hereafter Reſort to the ſaid Churches reſpectively, as to their proper Pariſh-Church. And all Tythes and other Duties heretofore due and payable to the reſpective Incumbents of the ſaid Pariſh-Churches reſpectively, ſhall hereafter be paid and payable to the Incumbent of that Church onely, which by this Act is appointed to be Rebuilded and Eſtabliſhed for the Pariſh-Church of the Pariſhes ſo united as aforeſaid.

Plate and Goods belonging to Churches not to be rebuilt, ſhall be enjoyed by the Church-wardens, &c. of thoſe Rebuilded.

And be it further Enacted, That any Plate and Goods heretofore belonging to any of the Church-wardens of any the Pariſhes of thoſe Pariſhes Burnt down, which are not now to be Rebuilded for the uſe of the ſaid Churches, ſhall be Enjoyed by the reſpective Church-wardens and their Succeſſors of the reſpective Pariſhes of ſuch Churches to be Rebuilded reſpectively, whereunto the ſaid other Churches Burnt down are united by this Act, to the uſe of the ſaid Churches and Pariſhes reſpectively.

Church-yards to be incloſed with Walls to make Burial-places.

Provided alwayes, That the Scites of the Churches to be Demoliſhed, and the Church-yards belonging to the ſame, ſhall be incloſed with Brick or Stone-Walls for Burial for the Pariſhes formerly belonging to the ſame, and the Pariſhes to which they are reſpectively United as aforeſaid, and not Uſed or Employed for any other purpoſe whatſoever; Excepting ſuch of the Scites and Church-yards, or parts of Scites and Church-yards of the ſaid Pariſh-Churches ſo Demoliſhed as aforeſaid, as are already laid into the Streets and Market-places ſo ſet out for that purpoſe, or ſuch other as ſhall within Two years now next following be thought fit by the Mayor and Aldermen of the ſaid City, with the conſent of the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury, and Lord Biſhop of London, and by his Majeſties Approbation, to be laid into the Streets and Markets for Enlargement and Accommodation thereof, or for Publique Store-places.

Provided alwayes, That where any part of the Churches or Church-yards of any of the ſaid Pariſh-Churches hereby appointed to be Rebuilt and Continued, have been thought fit by the Mayor and Court of Aldermen of the ſaid City, to be laid into any of the Streets within the ſaid Enlargement thereof; and by Order of the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen ſhall have been before the Five and twentieth day of March, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſeventy, ſtaked and ſet out accordingly: It is hereby further Enacted and Declared, That the Grounds ſo ſtaked out ſhall be made uſe of for the Enlarging of the ſaid Streets, according as the ſame were for that purpoſe ſtaked and ſet out as aforeſaid; This preſent Act or any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Notwithſtanding the Union, the Pariſhes to all Rates, Charges and Priviledges to remain diſtinct.

Provided always, and it is hereby Enacted and Declared, That notwithſtanding ſuch Union as aforeſaid, each and every of the Pariſhes ſo United, as to all Rates, Taxes, Parochial Rites, Charges and Duties, and all other Priviledges, Liberties and Reſpects whatſoever, other then what are herein before mentioned and ſpecified, ſhall continue and remain diſtinct, and as heretofore they were, before the making of this preſent Act: And that the ſeveral and reſpective Patrons of the ſaid Churches ſo United, ſhall and may preſent by turns to that Church only which by this Act is appointed to be Rebuilded and Eſtabliſhed for the Pariſh-Church of the Pariſhes ſo United as aforeſaid: The firſt Preſentment to be made by the Patron of ſuch of the ſaid Churches, the Endowments whereof are of the greateſt yearly value.

Proviſo for the preſent Incumbents of Churches not to be Rebuilded.

Provided always, and it is hereby Declared, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not extend or be conſtrued to deprive the preſent Incumbents, which at the time of the ſaid late Fire, were or now are in poſſeſſion of any of the ſaid Pariſh-Churches not to be Rebuilded, or any of them, of the Tythes or other profits heretofore belonging to their reſpective Churches, ſo long as they ſhall aſſiſt in ſerving the Cure, and other Offices belonging to their Duty in the Pariſh-Church whereunto their reſpective Pariſhes ſhall be United and Annexed by vertue of this Act according to the direction of the Ordinary; Any thing in this preſent Act to the contrary notwithſtanding: Saving to the Kings Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, the Tenths and Firſt-fruits of all ſuch Pariſh-Churches as by force of this preſent Act ſhall be united and conſolidated as aforeſaid, according to ſuch rates and valuations as the ſame do reſpectively ſtand rated and valued at, in his Majeſties Court of Firſt-fruits and Tenths; Any thing in this preſent Act notwithſtanding. Saving alſo to all other perſon and perſons, Bodies politick and Corporate, Eccleſiaſtical and Civil, their Heirs and Succeſſors, all Penſions, Annuities and Payments whatſoever, heretofore due from, and payable by any Rectors, Vicars and Curates of any of the ſaid Churches united or conſolidated as aforeſaid; Any thing in this preſent Act notwithſtanding.

Provided alwayes, That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for the Warden, and Minor Canons of St. Pauls Church London Parſon and Proprietors of the Rectory of the pariſh of St. Gregories aforeſaid, to receive and enjoy all Tythes, Oblations and Duties ariſing or growing due within the ſaid Pariſh, in as large and beneficial manner as formerly they have, or lawfully might have done; Any thing herein to the contrary notwithſtanding.

St. Mary Cole-Church.

A Free-School.

And whereas the Wardens and Commonalty of the Myſtery of the Mercers of the City of London, at the time of the ſaid Fire, were ſeiſed in Fee of the Rectory and pariſh-Church Impropriate of St. Mary Cole-Church, (the ſaid Church being an upper Room about Ten Foot higher then the Street, and lying over certain Rooms and Arched Vaults or Cellars of the ſaid Wardens and Commonalty) upon the Scite of which Church they have deſigned to Build a Free-ſchool, and other Buildings conformable to the Rules of the ſaid former Act, and to remove the dead bodies and bones of ſuch as have been buried upon the Arches, and to cauſe them to be decently repoſed within the body of their Chappel, pel commonly called Mercers Chappel; Be it therefore hereby Enacted, That the ſcite of the ſaid Pariſh-Church, and the Materials thereof remaining upon the ſaid Scite, be and are hereby ſetled upon the ſaid Wardens and Commonalty, and their Succeſſors for ever: And that the ſaid Wardens and Commonalty ſhall pay to the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the City of London for the ſame, ſuch Sum of Money towards the Rebuilding of the Church whereunto the ſame is by this Act appointed to be United, as ſhall be agreed upon between the ſaid Lord Mayor and Aldermen, and the ſaid Wardens and Commonalty, or be aſſeſſed by a Jury Impannelled and Sworn, as by the ſaid former Act is directed in any other caſe; Any thing in this Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Proviſion that Parſons may not be ſued for Dilapidations.

And whereas ſeveral Pariſh-Churches, Chancels, Parſonage and Vicarage-houſes were conſumed in the late diſmal Fire; To the end therefore the Incumbents, Parſons and Vicars may not be liable to the Rebuilding of their Chancels, Parſonage and Vicarage-houſes, be ſued for Dilapidations; Be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Incumbents, Parſons and Vicars of the aforeſaid Churches, their Executors and Adminiſtrators, ſhall be, and are hereby Indemnified, as to the Rebuilding of their reſpective Chancels, Parſonage and Vicarage-houſes, and ſhall not be liable to any ſuits, troubles or moleſtations that may ariſe for Dilapidations aforeſaid; And that no Proceſs ſhall be Iſſued out of any Court whatſoever, againſt the perſons aforeſaid, for their not Rebuilding their reſpective Chancels and Parſonage and Vicarage-houſes; Any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Parſons and Vicars exempted from Firſt-fruits, Tenths and Penſions.

And whereas Firſt-Fruits, Tenths, and ſeveral Penſions are from the ſaid Parſons and Vicars to be yearly paid to his Majeſty, and ſeveral Duties to the Ordinary and Arch-Deacon, That his Majeſty will be Graciouſly pleaſed, That it may be Enacted; And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Parſons and Vicars be Indemnified, and are hereby indemnified from the payment of all Firſt Fruits, Tenths and Penſions due, and which ſhall be due to his Majeſty; And from all dues to the Ordinary and Arch-Deacon, and all other dues whatſoever chargeable upon them reſpectively, until ſuch time as they ſhall receive the profits ariſing from the ſame as formerly: And that no Proceſs ſhall be iſſued out of any Court whatſoever, againſt the perſons aforeſaid, for their Non-payment of Firſt-Fruits, Tenths, Penſions, or any other the Dues aforeſaid; Any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Indemnified for not Reading the 39. Articles.

And whereas, divers Miniſters have been already ſince the Fire, and may be from time to time preſented and inſtituted; And being ſo, are liable to the Forfeitures of their ſeveral Livings for not Reading the Thirty nine Articles, and for not doing other things enjoyned by Law in their ſeveral Pariſh-Churches; Be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all ſuch Miniſters as have been or ſhall be from time to time preſented and inſtituted ſince the ſaid Fire, be and are here indemnified from the ſeveral penalties and forfeitures incurred, and to be incurred by or for not Reading of the Thirty nine Articles, or not doing other things enjoyned by Law as aforeſaid, until ſuch time as the ſaid ſeveral Churches be re-edified or made fit for publick-worſhip.

Impowred to let Leaſes of their Gleabe-Lands.

And whereas, the ſaid Parſons and Vicars, or ſome of them are intereſſed in ſeveral Glebe-Lands or Grounds, the which they cannot Rebuild themſelves; Nor let ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes as may be an Encouragement for others to Rebuild the ſame; Be it Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Parſons and Vicars and every of them reſpectively, be impowred and are hereby impowred to let ſuch Leaſe or Leaſes, of their ſaid Glebe-Lands or Grounds, with the conſent and approbation of the Patron or Patrons and Ordinary, for any term not exceeding Fourty years, and at ſuch yearly Rents without Fine, as can be obtained for the ſame: And that no Lapſes incurred upon any Non-preſentation, in due time of any of the Patrons of the ſaid Livings ſince the ſaid Fire, ſhall any wayes prejudice or make void the Preſentations that the ſaid Patrons have ſince made, whereupon any Incumbent is ſince Inſtituted and Inducted; Any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Provided alwayes, And it is hereby Declared and Enacted, That if the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the ſaid City of London, ſhall be concerned in Eſtate or Title in any controverſie or difference whereof the Determination is by this or the aforeſaid Act referred to the Hearing and Judgment of the ſaid Mayor and Court of Aldermen; That then and in every ſuch caſe the Juſtices of the Courts of Kings-Bench and Common-pleas, and the Barons of the Coif of the Exchequer for the time being, or any Three or more of them, upon complaint to them made, ſhall be and are hereby Authoriſed to Hear and finally Order and Determine the ſame; Any thing in this or the aforeſaid Act to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Two Poſterns at Ludgate, and the Gate to be inlarged.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen are hereby Authoriſed and Required to cauſe to be made two Poſterns, one on either ſide of the Gate commonly called Ludgate, for the better eaſe and convenience of Foot Paſſengers, and in order hereunto are alſo Impowred to Inlarge the ſaid Gate as they ſhall find cauſe.

Salvo for not Rebuilding.

And whereas by the ſaid Act for the Rebuilding the City of London, It was Enacted, That where any Ground formerly Builded upon (the Houſes whereupon Built were Demoliſhed at the time of the ſaid late Fire) ſhould not within Three years then next enſuing be Rebuilded upon, Then after Proclamation publickly made, and Inquiry and Valuation made and taken of the Ground whereupon ſuch Houſes were Scituate by Inqueſt of a Jury, in ſuch ſort and manner as in and by the ſaid Act is mentioned and appointed the ſaid Mayor and Aldermen and Common Councel might make Sale thereof: It is hereby Declared and Enacted, That the ſaid Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councel ſhall not by vertue of the ſaid Act, proceed to the Sale of any ſuch Ground or Soyl, whereupon any ſuch Houſes were ſcituate for not Rebuilding thereupon, before the Four and twentieth day of March, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and one; Nor ſhall any Ground be ſold by vertue of this or the aforeſaid Act in caſe any perſon for the making of any Court, Yard, Garden or other Eaſement ſhall leave ſome part of the ancient Foundation unbuilt upon backwards.

Tenant in tail, &c. may demiſe their ground at the moſt improved Rent.

And be it further Enacted and Declared, That all perſons ſeiſed or intereſſed of any Houſe or Houſes burned or demoliſhed by reaſon of the ſaid late Fire, in Tail for Life or Lives, or Years determinable upon Life, with remainder to their Heirs or Iſſue Male or female, or to their firſt or other Son or Sons, Daughter or Daughters in tail, or other like Eſtate; That it ſhall and may be lawful to and for ſuch Tenant in Tail for Life or Years with ſuch Remainder as aforeſaid, by Indenture under their reſpective hands and ſeals to demiſe the ground or ſoyl of ſuch burned or demoliſhed Houſes without any Fine or Fines; and all the moſt improved Annual Rent to any perſon or perſons that ſhall or will rebuild thereupon for any Term of Years, not exceeding Fifty years: Which Leaſes ſo made ſhall bind and conclude, as well all and every the heirs and Iſſue of ſuch Tenant in Tail, as the firſt and every other Son and Sons, Daughter or Daughters, or other Iſſue of ſuch Tenant for Life or Years, as thoſe in Reverſion or Remainder; and the Houſes thereupon built ſhall be held and enjoyed by the reſpective Leſſees thereof, and their Aſſigns, (paying the ſaid Rent to the perſons in Reverſion or Remainder during the term, and according to the purport of ſuch Leaſes) by vertue of this preſent Act.

Sergeants-Inne in Fleet-ſtreet.

Provided alwayes, and be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That as to the Houſe called Sergeants-Inne in Fleetſtreet, of which the Society of Judges and Sergeants at Law were Tenants at the time of the late Fire, and many years before; That the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, and his or their Privy Councel, ſhall be and are hereby impowred to hear and determine all Differences and Demands whatſoever touching the ſaid Houſe with the Appurtenances, and all things alſo to do relating to the rebuilding thereof; and to make Orders and Decrees concerning the ſame, as fully to all intents and purpoſes, as the Judges of the Court of Kings-Bench and Common-Pleas, and Barons of the Exchequer might, could, or may do concerning any other Houſes burnt down by the late Fire, by vertue of this and the ſaid former Act, or either of them. And his ſaid Majeſty and Councel are hereby alſo Impowred to Order and decree ſuch ſatisfaction and recompence unto Robert Melliſh of the Inner Temple Eſquire, as to them ſhall ſeem juſt and reaſonabe; And to Order and decree one Leaſe of the Premiſſes whereof the Inheritance belongeth to the Dean and Chapter of York, not exceeding in the whole ſixty years, for the uſe of the ſaid Society, and the ſaid Dean and Chapter, and their Succeſſors are hereby enabled and enjoyned to make accordingly. And what ſhall be ſo ordered or decreed by his ſaid Majeſty and Councel as aforeſaid, ſhall be good and effectual in Law to all intents and purpoſes by vertue of this Act. And the ſaid Judges and Barons of the Exchequer are hereby excluded from making any Order or decree touching the ſaid Houſe with the Appurtenances.

The Houſes pulled down near Tower-Ditch, never to be Rebuilt.

And whereas a great number of Houſes heretofore erected and built upon or very near to the Tower-Ditch of the City of London, were at, or a little time after the ſaid late great Fire pulled or blown down for ſafeguard of the ſaid Tower, and are not thought fit to be rebuilt there. And whereas ſome Houſes are yet ſtanding which were in Leaſe for ſeveral years yet to come, with other Houſes pulled down, at and for certain intire yearly Rents; which ſaid Rents are wholly now claimed by divers Landlords, as if the ſaid Houſes were yet ſtanding; And divers Suits in Law are and will be daily brought againſt Tenants for breach of Covenants of the ſaid Leaſes incurred ſince that time; Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Juſtices and Barons, or any three or more of them ſhall have full power and Authority to hear and determine all differences that may ariſe between the ſaid Landlords and Tenants, as if the ſaid Houſes had periſhed by the late dreadful Fire.

Differences about the ſame referred to the Judges.

Shops in Smithfield, Moore-Fields, and other void places to be taken down and removed before the 29. of Sept. 1674.

And whereas ſeveral Sheds, Shops and other Buildings have been Erected (ſince the late Dreadful Fire) in Smithfield, Moore-Fields, and other void places within the ſaid City and Liberties thereof, by Licence of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Common Councel of the ſaid City, for the accommodation of ſuch Inhabitants whoſe Houſes were then Burnt or Demoliſhed, for the better carrying on of their reſpective Trades; which if they ſhould be ſuffered to have longer continuance then the preſent Exigence of the Occupiers thereof doth require, would be an occaſion to divert the Trade of the City, and to diſcourage ſuch as have Rebuilt Houſes within the ſaid City: Be it therefore Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Mayor and Court of Aldermen for the time being, ſhall be, and are hereby Impowred and Required to cauſe all and every the ſaid Sheds, Shops and other Buildings aforeſaid, to be taken down and removed, at or before the Nine and twentieth day of September, which ſhall be in the year of our Lord, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy four.

In any Action brought for putting this Act in execution, the General Iſſue may be pleaded, and this Act &c. given in Evidence.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That if any Action or ſuit ſhall be brought or proſecuted againſt any perſon or perſons, for any matter or thing done, committed or executed by vertue of this or the aforeſaid Act for Rebuilding the ſaid City of London, or of any Clauſe or Article in this or the aforeſaid Act contained; That then, and in every ſuch caſe, the Defendant or Defendants may plead the General Iſſue, (not guilty) and give this Act and the ſpecial matter in Evidence at any Tryal thereupon to be had; and if a Verdict ſhall paſs for the Defendant, or the Plaintiff ſhall be Non-ſuit or diſcontinue his Action after the Defendant hath appeared, the Defendant ſhall Recover double Coſts, to be awarded for his or their wrongful vexation in that behalf.

Provided alwayes, That this Act, or any thing therein contained, ſhall not Extend, or be conſtrued to alter or make void any matter or thing done, or to be done by vertue of any Commiſſion, or Commiſſions given or granted, or to be given or granted by his Majeſty, his Heirs or Succeſſors in purſuance of two Acts of Parliament; viz. One in the firſt year of Queen Elizabeth, And another in the fourteenth year of his now Majeſties Reign, or of either of them, or of any other Law or Right, whereby his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, may or ought to appoint ſuch and ſo many open places to be Keys and Wharfs within the City of London, and may alſo declare the Bounds, Limits, Extents and Priviledges of the Port of London, and all other Ports of England, with ſeveral other Powers and Priviledges for the preſervation of his Majeſties Revenue of the Cuſtoms collected there; Any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding.

CAP. XII.

An Additional Act for the better Repairing of High-wayes and Bridges.

FOr the better repairing and amending of the High ways, now generally ſpoiled by the extraordinary and unreaſonable Lading of Waggons and other Carriages, and the neglect of repairing and preſerving the ſame; Be it Enacted by the Kings moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the advice and conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the authority of the ſame; That all Conſtables and Surveyors of the High-wayes, from time to time during their continuance in ſuch their Office or Offices, ſhall cauſe the ſeveral Acts of Parliament heretofore made, and yet in force, for or touching the repairing, amending or enlarging of High ways not hereby in any part altered or repealed, to be put in Execution within the Limits of their reſpective pariſhes and places, and the penalties thereby impoſed, to be levied and diſpoſed of, as by the ſaid ſeveral Acts is directed: And every Conſtable or Surveyor of the High-ways, refuſing or neglecting to put the ſaid Acts in Execution, or wilfully ſuffering any Waggons or Carts to paſs through his reſpective Limits, with any more Horſes or other Cattel, or in other manner then by this Act is allowed, ſhall upon complaint thereof made to any Juſtice of the Peace of the place or diviſion where ſuch neglect ſhall be proved to be done, by the Oath of any one credible witneſs (which Oath ſuch Juſtice is hereby impowred to Adminiſter) or upon view of the Juſtice himſelf be thereof convicted, and ſhall incur ſuch Fine as the ſame Juſtice ſhall think fit to impoſe on ſuch Officer, not exceeding the ſum of forty ſhillings for any one Offence; The ſame Fine to be levied by the High-Conſtable of ſuch place or diviſion, or any other Officer, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal of ſuch Juſtice of the Peace, upon the Goods and Chattels of the perſon ſo offending (rendring the overplus to the Owner thereof, all neceſſary charge in levying the ſame being firſt deducted) to be imployed for the amending of the High ways of the pariſh or place where ſuch neglect ſhall be found, as the ſaid Juſtice or Juſtices ſhall appoint for the doing thereof.

All the ſeveral Acts of Parliament for repairing the High-wayes to be put in execution.

Penalty for neglect.

And be it further Enacted, That where any Lands have been or ſhall be given for the maintenance of Cauſeys, Pavements, High-wayes and Bridges, all ſuch perſons that are or ſhall be Enfeoffed or Truſted with any ſuch Lands, ſhall let them to Farm at the moſt improved yearly value without Fine; And that the Juſtices of the Peace in their open Seſſions, ſhall and may enquire by ſuch wayes and means as they think fitting, into the value of all ſuch Lands ſo given, or to be given, and order the improvement and imployment of the Rents and Profits thereof, according to the Will and Direction of the Donor of ſuch Lands, if they find that the perſons ſo intruſted have been negligent or faulty in the performance of their Truſt (except ſuch Lands have been given to the Uſes aforeſaid, to any Colledge or Hall in either of the Univerſities of this Kingdom, which have Viſitors of their own) Any Law, Statute, Uſage or Cuſtom to the contrary notwithſtanding.

Lands given for the maintenance of Cawſeys, High-ways, Bridges, &c. to be farmed the moſt improved yearly value.

And it is hereby Enacted, That one clauſe contained in the Act of their preſent Parliament; Entituled, An Act for enlarging of High-wayes, concerning the breadth of the Tyre of all Waggon and Cart-wheels, is and ſhall hereby ſtand repealed and be void; And it is further Enacted, That in caſe any perſon or perſons ſhall reſiſt, or make Forceable oppoſition againſt any perſon or perſons imployed in the due Execution of this Act, or any the Acts before mentioned, or ſhall have any Reſcue of any Cattel or other Goods deſtrained by vertue of this or any of the ſaid Acts, That every ſuch perſon being convicted thereof in manner aforeſaid, ſhall for every ſuch Offence forfeit the ſum of forty ſhillings: And in caſe he do not pay the ſaid ſum within Seven dayes after notice of ſuch Conviction, Then it ſhall and may be lawful for any Juſtice of the Peace, reſiding near the place where ſuch Oppoſition or Reſcue ſhall be made, to commit ſuch perſon or perſons to the Common-Gaol of the County, where ſuch Offence ſhall be committed, there to remain until the ſaid Forfeiture ſhall be paid to the Surveyor or Surveyors of the High ways for that Pariſh where the Offence was committed, to be imployed for the amendment of the High-wayes of the ſame Pariſh; And if any Action or Suit ſhall be brought againſt any perſon or perſons, for or by reaſon of any matter or thing done by means of this Act, the ſame ſhall be laid in the proper County where the Fact was done, and not elſewhere; And the Defendants may plead the general Iſſue, and give the ſpecial matter in Evidence; And if it appear at the Tryal, that the Fact was done by Authority of this Act, and the Jury ſhall find for the Defendant, he thereupon (as alſo in caſe the Plaintiff be Non-ſuit, or diſcontinue his Action) ſhall recover his Treble coſts ſuſtained by reaſon of ſuch Action or Suit; Provided that in ſuch places where the High-wayes cannot be ſufficiently repaired before the Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt yearly, the ſame may, and ſhall be ſufficiently repaired before the Feaſt of Saint Luke yearly, without incurring any penalty for the not doing thereof before the ſaid Feaſt of the Nativity of Saint John Baptiſt, according to the ſaid former Act.

14 Car. 2. repealed.

Forfeiture for perſons reſiſting the Officers.

Treble coſts.

Times for repairing the High-wayes.

Defects to be preſented where the places defective lye.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That all Defects of Repairs of Cawſeys, Pavements, High-ways or Bridges, shall be preſented in the County only where ſuch Cawſeys, Pavements, High-ways or Bridges do lye, and not elſewhere; and that no ſuch Preſentment or Indictment shall be removed by Certiorarie, or otherwiſe, out of the ſaid County, till ſuch Indictment or Preſentment be traverſed, and Judgment thereupon given.

Lands, Houſes, &c. in the Suburbs of London, Southwark and Weſtminſter, made lyable to Aſſeſments for the Scavengers.

14 Car. 2. cap. 2.

Provided alwayes, and be it Enacted, That the ſeveral Occupiers and Inhabitants, or where there are no Inhabitants or Occupiers, the reſpective Owners of all and ſingular the Lands, Houſes, Out-houſes, Walls and Buildings, Fronting and Adjoyning to any of the High-ways, Streets or Lanes within the Suburbs of London and the Liberties thereof, and the Burrough of Southwark, and the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter, or Precincts thereof, which are or shall be paved, shall and are hereby lyable to all Rates, Aſſeſſements, Penalties and Diſtreſſes which are or shall be made towards the Scavengers Rates for the places aforeſaid, in ſuch manner as by an Act of this preſent Parliament, made and Enacted in the fourteenth year of his Majeſties Reign, for the Repairing of the High-wayes and Sewers is directed and appointed: And that where any Ground shall lye at the end of any of the ſaid Streets or Lanes, or any other place of which there may be a diſpute who ought to pave or amend the ſame, that in ſuch caſe the Juſtices of Peace for the ſaid places reſpectively shall have hereby full power and authority in their Quarter-Seſſions to Order and Determine the ſame; which Order shall be binding to all perſons whatſoever therein concerned; any Law or Statute to the contrary in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

Travelling Waggons, Wayns, &c. carrying goods, &c. ſhall be drawn but with five Horſe Beaſts.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Four and twentieth day of June next enſuing, no Travelling-Waggon, Wayn, Cart or Carriage, wherein any Burthens, Goods or Wares are or shall be carryed (other then ſuch Carts and Carriages as are imployed in and about Husbandry and Manuring of Lands, and in the carrying of Hay, Straw, Corn unthreſht, Coal, Chalk, Timber for Shipping, Materials for Building, ſtones of all ſorts, or ſuch Ammunition or Artillery, as shall be for his Majeſties ſervice) shall at any one time travel, or be drawn, or go in any common or publique High-way or Road with above Five Horſe Beaſts at length; and if any shall Draw with a greater number of Horſes or Oxen, they shall all Draw in pairs, that is to ſay, two a breaſt for ſuch number as they shall uſe, except one Horſe; Any Law, Statute or Uſage to the contrary notwithſtanding.

The forfeiture for offending this Act.

And be it further Enacted, That every Owner of any Waggon, Cart, Carriage, Horſe, Beaſts or Oxen offending contrary to this Act, shall forfeit for every of the ſaid Offences the ſum of Forty shillings; One Third part thereof to the Surveyors of the High-wayes of the Town, Village or Hamlet where any the ſaid Offences ſhall be committed, to be imployed in the Repairs of the ſaid High-wayes; One other Third part to the Overſeers of the Poor of the Pariſh where any of the ſaid Offences ſhall be committed, to the uſe of the Poor of the ſaid Pariſh; And the other third part to him that ſhall diſcover the ſame, to be levied in ſuch manner as the Penalties in this Act impoſed on every Conſtable or Surveyor of the High-wayes, for refuſing or neglecting to put in Execution the ſeveral Acts of Parliament yet in force, for or touching the repairing, amending or enlarging of ſuch High-wayes, are directed and appointed.

Mending the High-ways.

And it is further Enacted and Ordained by the authority aforeſaid, That in ſuch places where there is no uſe of Carts and Teems for the amendment of High-wayes, but the Uſage and Practice is to carry Stones, Gravel, Earth, or other Materials for ſuch amendment, upon the backs of Horſes, or by any other kinds of Carriages: That in all ſuch places the Inhabitants uſing any ſuch horſes or other carriages, ſhall ſend in ſuch their horſes as are accuſtomed to that kind of labour, and ſuch their other Carriages with able perſons to work with the ſame, in like manner, and under the like Directions, Forfeitures and Penalties, as by any former Statute for Reparing of High-wayes, is appointed for Carts and Teems.

Defaulters therein, their puniſhment.

Provided alſo, and it is further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall fail or make default to make their reſpective Days Labour in every year for and towards the Repairing of the High-wayes, or neglect to ſend their reſpective Carriages, Horſes and Carts, according as or by Law they are reſpectively required; It ſhall and may be lawful for the Surveyor or Surveyors of every Pariſh, and they are hereby required to make Complaint thereof to the next Juſtices of the Peace, who are hereby authorized and required upon proof of any ſuch Default or Neglect made before them, by the Oath of one credible Witneſs, (which Oath they are hereby impowred to Adminiſter) to levy by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Goods of every perſon failing or neglecting, as aforeſaid, (and not having a reaſonable Excuſe to be allowed by the ſaid Juſtices) the ſevral penalties hereafter mentioned (rendring the Overplus, reaſonable Charges of diſtraining being firſt deducted) that is to ſay, For every Day-Labourer failing or neglecting, as is aforeſaid, One ſhilling and ſix pence; And for every Man and Horſe that ſhall make Default, Three ſhillings: And for every Cart with two men, Ten ſhillings, for every reſpective day wherein they ſhall make default; which reſpective Penalties ſo levied, ſhall be imployed for and towards the Repairing of the High-ways in every reſpective place and Pariſh.

Aſſeſment, when to be made for repairing the High-ways.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforeſaid, that where the Juſtices of the Peace of any County, City, or other place, or the major part of them at their General quarter-Seſſions ſhall be fully ſatisfied, that the Common High-ways, Cawſeys, or Bridges within any pariſh, townſhip or hamlet within their reſpective Juriſdiction, may not or will not be ſufficiently amended, repaired, & ſupported by means of the Laws now in force, without the help of this preſent Act; in all ſuch Caſes one or more Aſſeſment or Aſſeſments upon all and every the Inhabitants, Owners, and Occupiers of lands, Houſes, Tenements and Hereditaments, or any perſonal Eſtate uſually rateable to the Poor, within any ſuch Pariſh, Townſhip, or Hamlet ſhall be made, levied, collected, and allowed by ſuch perſon and perſons, and in ſuch manner as the ſaid Juſtices by their Order at ſuch their Seſſions ſhall direct and appoint in that behalf: And the Money thereby raiſed ſhall be imployed and accompted for according to the order and directions of the ſaid Juſtices, for and towards the amending, repairing, and ſupporting ſuch High-wayes, Cawſeys and Bridges, from time to time, as need ſhall require: And the ſaid Aſſeſſements ſhall be levied by Diſtreſſe and Sale of the Goods of every perſon ſo aſſeſſed (not paying the ſame within ten dayes after demand) rendring the Overplus of the value of the Goods ſo diſtrained to the Owner and Owners thereof, (the neceſſary charges of making and ſelling ſuch Diſtreſſe being firſt deducted.)

Provided neverthele ſs, and be it Enacted, That no ſuch Aſſeſſement or Aſſeſſements to be made in any one year, ſhall exceed the Rate of Six pence in the pound, of the yearly value of any Lands, Houſes, Tenements and Hereditaments ſo aſſeſſed, nor the Rate of Six pence for Twenty pounds in perſonal Eſtate; and that no ſuch Aſſeſſement be made or levied, from and after the Five and twentieth day of March, in the year, One thouſand ſix hundred ſeventy and three.

Six pence in the pound.

And be it further Enacted by the authority aforeſaid, That from and after the Nine and twentieth day of September next, in every Pariſh within this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, the Surveyors and Orderers of the Work for amendment of the High-wayes within their reſpective Pariſhes, ſhall be yearly choſen and nominated by ſuch perſons as by an Act made in the Second and Third years of King Philip and Queen Mary, is appointed upon ſome day in the ſame week that the Feaſt of the Birth of our Lord, commonly called Chriſtmas-Day, ſhall be: Which perſons ſo nominated and choſen, ſhall take upon them the ſaid Office, and ſhall appoint Six dayes for the providing Stones, Gravel, and other Materials for the Amendment of, and for Working in the High-wayes, having reſpect to the Seaſon of the Year, and the Weather, and giving Notice publickly ſome convenient time before the ſeveral dayes; At which dayes all perſons liable to the ſaid Work, ſhall attend and Work accordingly: And the ſaid Surveyors and Orderers ſhall make Return of the Defaulters and every of them, within one Moneth after every Default made, to ſome Neighbouring Juſtice of the Peace of the ſame County; And the ſaid Juſtice ſhall preſent the ſame at the Quarter-Seſſions of the Peace held next after ſuch Return made unto him: And the Offenders againſt this Act, in all caſes not particularly directed in this Act, ſhall reſpectively incur the ſame Forfeiture, Pains and Penalties inflicted and appointed by the Lawes and Statutes of this Kingdom now in force, for the Amending of the High-wayes, as fully as if they had been particularly Mentioned and Impoſed in and by this Act.

Surveyors of the High-ways when to be choſen.

1 & 2 P. & M. c.

And whereas in the Counties of Cheſter and Lancaſter, there are many and ſundry great and deep Rivers, which run croſs and through the Common and Publick High-ways and Roads within the ſaid Counties, which many times cannot be paſſed over without hazard and loſs of the Lives and Goods of the Inhabitants and Travellers within the ſaid Counties, for want of convenient good and ſufficient Bridges in the ſaid High-ways and Roads; To Build and erect which, there is no Law in force: Therefore be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for ten years next following, and no longer, the reſpective Juſtices of Peace within the ſaid reſpective Counties, ſhall upon the Preſentment of the Grand Jury, at their reſpective and General Quarter-Seſſions, have power and Authority by Order or Warrant under the Hands and Seals of all, or the Major part of the ſaid Juſtices, being Six at leaſt then preſent, to cauſe to be erected and Builded, any new Bridge or Bridges, in ſuch place or places in any of the ſaid High-ways, over any of the ſaid Rivers within their reſpective Juriſdictions, as they ſhall judge fit and neceſſary, and ſo declare by ſuch Order as aforeſaid, and likewiſe to Repair or Rebuild ſuch other Bridges as were demoliſhed in the late War; And by their ſaid Order to Charge either their whole reſpective Counties, or any Hundred or Hundreds within their ſaid reſpective Counties, with the Erecting and Building any ſuch Bridge or Bridges, and from time to time (as need ſhall require) with the Repairing and Amending of all or any the ſaid Bridges, which ſhall be aſſeſſed, Levied and Gathered in ſuch ſort, manner and form, as the Moneys for Repairing of Bridges now in being, are uſed to be Aſſeſſed, Levied and Gathered by vertue of the late Statute in the Two and twentieth year of the Reign of the late King Henry the Eighth, in that caſe made and provided.

Bridges to be built in Cheſhire and Lancaſhire within ten years.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for any Six or more Juſtices of Peace of the County of Monmouth, whereof Two to be of the Quorum, at their General Seſſions of the Peace to be held for that County, at any time hereafter, during Ten years, and no longer, to Impoſe and Levy any Sum or Sums of Money upon the ſaid County, for the Repairing and Amending of Uske and Baſalegg Bridges, which are Scituated upon great Rivers, and lie on very Publick Roads of that County, ſo as the Sum ſo Impoſed as aforeſaid; exceed not in the whole in any one year, the Sum of forty pounds: which Impoſition ſo laid, ſhall be levied and Accompted for by the ſame way and manner as the other Rates raiſed for Bridges, formerly Setled by Act of parliament for that County, are Made and Provided.
